Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part III, line 1, and for any additional information. Complete this part

Part I Line 3 This organization relied on the processes of a related organization to establish compensation of top management officials, and such processes utilized a compensation committee, independent compensation consultants, compensation surveys and studies, comparability data, and ultimate approval by the board of compensation committee.

Part I Line 4b The NRA takes a full transparency posture for executive compensation. This comment provides context for the 457(b) and 457(f) plans. The related organization has an executive 457(b) deferred compensation retirement benefit plan for the benefit of certain employees. The 457(b) plan is employee funded, not employer funded. The related organization also has a nonqualified 457(f) supplemental income retirement plan for the benefit of certain individuals. The 457(f) plan is employer funded. The NRA decides the benefit amount and timeframe for vesting of each participant using different factors particular to each relevant individual and his specific desired circumstances. Service costs included in deferred compensation are actuarially determined under FASB ASC 715. The 457(f) plan is designed to supplement the current tax qualified defined benefit pension plan where current limitations on benefits and employer contributions may be inadequate, and an employer sponsored supplemental income plan can best provide these select employees with the appropriate amount of income in the specific desired situation. 457(f) payouts are properly included in taxable wages and reported in W-2 income.

Part II Column B(iii) Other reportable compensation in taxable wages includes 457(b) plan, fringe auto, group life insurance benefits, and 457(f) plan if applicable. Column C represents benefits that will not be paid until the future, including the employer paid portions of the related organization's defined benefit pension plan, 401(k) plan, and 457(f) plan if applicable. All NRA affiliates take a full transparency posture for executive compensation paid by related organizations.
