The three should get zero committee chair nor VC. Zero. That's my begin position. West should not be a VC, should not attend closed Chairman's meetings or dinners. These three especially. And, in West's case, if we bring a transgender to the committee this year or next, he says he cannot serve (he is ok w gays).

Then Boren, Maloney, Knight maybe Heil, Walker. One committee only bc they didn't have the balls to instigate the fight.

Liptek, Geist not a chair or VC. I don't care how many committees.

Ollie is different than richard. If we assess that ollie isn't going to stop, and that's what we said this weekend, then he can't keep Mil & Vet (& can't give it to Lance). Richard's different. He had balls to come, run the meeting start, go sit w the board. He should not be rewarded, but not necessarily punished.

"If you shoot at the king, you better kill him." Wayne is still the king. Don't forget. If we had lost .....

I don't trust rick, the three of us recognized it in Cleveland. He and Niger are a wrecking ball team. Don't care enuf to fight about him, but will jack his ass up if he is again on the committee. Stayed on the fence hanging out w Geist in the fight this weekend. Rick can go grassroots, or 'advancement' w his $ contacts. This guy doesn't matter to me as much as those folks above.

I may not win these arguments/horse trading but I am not going to be the one to go soft. I don't take any of this personally ... except my distrust of Cox. That guy is dangerous.

3 of us should about west. I am in thenhold your enemies close camp and want to keep him on outreach. Different strategy.

And because of Esther, keep rick on Outreach.

Loose cannon, cancer. We knew this would happen, just not when & how. Our hope that it wouldn't happen was just false hope. And, w the shit in his closet, you'd think he'd shy from the duty honor country blather.

I so want to call out West, Schneider, Pepper, Maloney, Knight. They're still stirring up the pot. Liptak too, but different.

So you know, I spoke to Andrew about me and social media. Tell you later but we're ok with an understanding.

About that NRA Board Vote Outcome. . .

Ammoland Inc. Posted on May 1, 2019<<https://www.ammoland.com/2019/05/about-that-nra-board-vote-outcome/>> by Ammoland<<https://www.ammoland.com/author/fg3hht991x/>>

Editors' Note: Lt. Col. Allen West was seeing a lot online grief about the lack of new blood making it onto the latest NRA Board of Directors and had this to say.

Opinion by Lt. Col. Allen West

USA -- (AmmoLand.com<<http://AmmoLand.com>><<https://ammoland.com/>>)- Okay, since there are stupid people online who make assertions about something they know nothing about, let me enlighten you.

The new slate of officers [candidates] for the National Rifle Association was decided upon, and nominated by, the NRA Board of Directors nominating committee.

There were no nominations from the floor when these names were put forth. With no opposing nominations, the vote was done by acclamation, not roll call vote. This action is similar to passing a piece of legislation by voice vote.

Now, for you chuckleheads, I did not vote for our Board to go into Executive session. That was reported.

Here is the deal: there were some 2 million ballots issued [to voting eligible NRA members] for this past 2019 Board election, for which I was a candidate<<https://www.ammoland.com/2019/01/interview-allen-west-2019-nra-board/>>.

There were less than 150K ballots returned.

[of that number returned some were ineligible or not counted, for assorted reasons, including being blank, having made more than 27 choices, received past the voting deadline, being ballots from wrong years, or not authenticated by the member properly]

So, all of you brave people complaining about me via the invisible mechanism of social media, did you vote? Did you participate? Or, are you just a couch warrior that ain't got the balls to say something to my face?

Now, please, have a nice evening, and know that God loves you. I can choose whether I do or not.
