Proceedings

1 (Whereupon, the selected jurors were seated in the 2 jury box.)

3 THE COURT: All right, everybody can be seated.
4 Welcome to all of you.

5 The first order of business is to administer the 6 oath to the jurors.

7 So, Ms. Hill, if you wouldn't mind ...

8 THE CLERK: Is the jury satisfactory to the 9 parties?

10 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor; they're satisfactory
11 to the plaintiff.

12 MS. ROGERS: Satisfactory to the NRA.

13 MR. CORRELL: Satisfactory to Wayne LaPierre.

14 MR. FARBER: Satisfactory to Mr. Phillips.

15 MR. FLEMING: And satisfactory to John Frazer.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 THE CLERK: Jurors, would you raise your right
18 hands.

19 (Jurors complied.)

20 THE CLERK: You and each of you do solemnly swear
21 or affirm that you will well and truly try the issues joined 22 by the parties in the case on trial, and a true and just 23 verdict render therein, according to the law as given to you
24 by the Court and the evidence presented? If so, say "I do."

25 NUMEROUS JURORS: I do.

1 THE CLERK: Thank you.

2 You may be seated.

3 (Jurors seated.)

4 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning, or -- I can't
5 believe I said "good morning."

6 Good afternoon.

7 As you know, because we've met before, I'm Joel
8 Cohen; I'm going to be the presiding trial judge in this
9 case.

10 I want to begin by thanking you once again for 11 being here. I hope you will agree, this can be a very good
12 experience if you get into it, take it seriously and do a
13 good job, which I know you will. If at any time while the 14 trial is going on you have any trouble hearing or seeing,
15 including on the screens that are on both sides of the jury
16 box (indicating), which are not -- nothing on them right now
17 -- just let me know and we'll rearrange things to fix that.

18 Before the trial begins, I'm going to give you an 19 overview of how things will go and how some -- and some 20 important instructions on a few things you should and 21 shouldn't do as we go forward.

22 In a nutshell, the three basic rules are these:

23 First, be fair and keep an open mind throughout the 24 trial.

25 Second, listen very carefully to the evidence you

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Preliminary Charge

5

1 hear and see in this room, the arguments of counsel, my
2 instructions, and your fellow jurors, once you start
3 deliberating.

4 And third, see Rules 1 and 2. In other words,
5 don't listen to or be influenced by anything else.

6 So now I'm going to go through the basics about how 7 the trial and the case will unfurl. First of all, the 8 parties:

9 The party who brings a lawsuit is called the 10 plaintiff. In this action, as I've told you during the 11 selection process, the plaintiff is the New York Attorney
12 General, Letitia James, on behalf of the People of the State
13 of New York. You may hear plaintiff referred to as the 14 "plaintiff" or the "attorney general" or something along
15 those lines.

16 The party against whom a lawsuit is brought is 17 called the defendant. In this action, as you know, there
18 are -- well, in this action, there are four defendants: the 19 National Rifle Association of America, or the NRA; and three 20 individuals who currently or previously served in executive
21 positions at the NRA. Those are: Wayne LaPierre, John 22 Frazer, and Wilson "Woody" Phillips.

23 During jury selection, I indicated to you that 24 there would be a fifth defendant, Joshua Powell, but 25 Mr. Powell is no longer a defendant in this case.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

6

1 As to the three remaining individual defendants,
2 Wayne LaPierre is the NRA's executive vice president and has
3 held that position since 1991. On January 5th, 2024, he
4 announced his resignation from that role, effective January
5 31, 2004.

6 John Frazer is the NRA's general counsel and
7 secretary of the NRA Board, and has held these positions
8 since 2015.

9 Wilson Phillips was the NRA's chief financial 10 officer and treasurer of the NRA Board of Directors for 11 approximately 25 years, until 2018.

12 You may hear them referred to together as "the 13 defendants."

14 A little bit about opening arguments and the
15 evidence:

16 After I'm done with these instructions, the 17 attorneys for each party are permitted to make opening
18 statements in which they will outline for you what they 19 expect to prove. The purpose of opening statements is to 20 tell you about each party's contentions, so you will have a
21 better understanding of the evidence as it is introduced.
22 What is said in opening statements, though, is not evidence.
23 The evidence upon which you will base your decisions will 24 come from the testimony of witnesses here in court or in 25 sworn testimony given before trial or in the form of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

7

1 photographs, documents or other exhibits admitted into
2 evidence.

3 In this case, the plaintiffs -- the attorney
4 general's office -- will make an opening statement first,
5 followed by the defendants.

6 After the opening statements, the plaintiff will
7 introduce evidence in support of its claim. Normally, a
8 party must produce all of its witnesses and complete its 9 entire case before the opposing party introducing --
10 introduces any evidence, although exceptions are sometimes
11 made for the convenience of witnesses.

12 After the plaintiff has completed the introduction
13 of all of its evidence, each defendant may, but is not
14 required to, present witnesses and exhibits. If they do so,
15 then the plaintiff may, but is also not required to, offer
16 additional evidence for the purpose of rebuttal.

17 A witness is examined by the party who calls that 18 witness to testify and then may be questioned by the 19 opposing parties in cross-examination, and then it can go
20 back and forth a bit: redirect, recross, and the like.

21 At times during the trial, an attorney may object
22 to a question or to the introduction of an exhibit or make 23 motions concerning legal questions that apply to this case.
24 Arguments in connection with objections or motions sometimes
25 are made outside the presence of the jury; if we're talking

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Preliminary Charge

8

1 about whether you should see something, it obviously doesn't
2 make sense for you to see it while we're talking about it.

3 The ...

4 Any ruling I make will be based solely on the law,
5 and therefore, you must not conclude, from any ruling or 6 anything I say during the trial, that I favor any party to 7 this lawsuit.

8 After all the evidence is in, then the attorneys
9 will speak to you in closing statements, or summations. In 10 summing up, the lawyers will point out what they contend the 11 evidence has shown, what inferences or conclusions they 12 contend you should draw from the evidence, and what 13 conclusions they contend you should reach as your verdict.
14 As with the openings, what attorneys say in summation or in 15 the making of objections or motions during the trial is only 16 argument; it's not evidence. Under our system, the 17 defendants will do their closings first, followed by the 18 plaintiff.

19 A little bit about my job and your job:

20 After summations, I will come back and instruct you
21 again, in a much longer form, on the rules of law that apply
22 to this case. You will then retire for deliberations.

23 Your function, as jurors, is to decide what has or
24 has not been proved and to apply the rules of law that I
25 give you to the facts as you find them to be. The decisions

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Preliminary Charge

1 you reach will be your verdict. Your decisions will be
2 based, and must be based, on the testimony you hear and the 3 exhibits received in evidence during the trial.

4 You are the sole and exclusive judges of the facts,
5 and nothing I say or do should be taken by you as any 6 indication of my opinion as to the facts. Neither I nor 7 anyone else can take over your responsibility to determine
8 the facts. My role is to preside impartially and not to 9 express any opinion concerning the facts. Any opinion of 10 mine on the facts would, in any event, be totally irrelevant
11 because the facts are for you to decide.

12 On the other hand and with equal emphasis, I
13 instruct you that in accordance with the oath you took as 14 jurors, you must accept the rules of law that I give you,
15 whether or not you agree with them. You are not to ask
16 anyone else about the law and you must not consider or 17 accept any advice about the law from anyone other than me.

18 As the sole judges of the facts, you must decide
19 which of the witnesses you believe, what portion of their 20 testimony you accept, and what weight you give to it. At 21 times during the trial, I may sustain objections to 22 questions and you may hear no answer or, where an answer has 23 been given, I may instruct that it be stricken or removed 24 from the record and that you disregard it. You may not draw
25 any inference or conclusion from an unanswered question, nor

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Preliminary Charge

1 may you consider testimony that has been stricken or removed
 2 from the record in reaching your decisions. The law
 3 requires that your decisions be made solely on the evidence
 4 before you, so any items I exclude from your consideration
 5 have to be excluded because they are not legally admissible.

6 A note about impartiality, and we'll get into a few
 7 issues in this line:

8 A lawsuit is a civilized method of determining 9 disputes. We'll see whether you still agree with that when
 10 we're done. It is basic to the administration of any system
 11 of justice that the decisions on both the law and the facts
 12 be made fairly and honestly. You, as the jurors and I, as 13 the Court, have a heavy responsibility: to act impartially
 14 and ensure a just result is reached in deciding the disputes
 15 between the plaintiff and the defendants in this case.

16 As a fair and impartial juror, you must guard
 17 against the application of any stereotypes or attitudes
 18 about people or groups that might lead you to render a 19 decision based on those stereotypes or attitudes. Keep in 20 mind that bias is not always obvious or conscious. In 21 assessing the testimony and other evidence in this case, you
 22 must not be swayed by those stereotypes or attitudes.

23 The law does not require you to accept all the 24 evidence I will admit. In deciding what evidence you will
 25 accept, you must make your own evaluation of the testimony

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Preliminary Charge

11

1 given by each of the witnesses and decide how much weight,
2 if any, you choose to give that testimony.

3 The testimony of a witness may not conform to the 4 facts as they occurred for a bunch of reasons: because he or 5 she is intentionally lying, because the witness did not
6 accurately see or hear what he or she is testifying about,
7 because the witness' recollection is faulty, or because the 8 witness has not expressed himself or herself clearly.

9 There is no magical formula by which you evaluate 10 testimony. You bring with you to this courtroom all the 11 experience and background of your lives. In your everyday
12 affairs, you decide for yourselves the reliability or 13 unreliability of things people tell you. The same tests you
14 use in your everyday dealings are the tests you should apply
15 in your deliberations.

16 In deciding how much weight, if any, you will give 17 to a witness' testimony, you may consider the interest or 18 lack of interest of that witness in the outcome of this 19 case; the bias or prejudice of the witness, if there is any;
20 the age, appearance and manner in which the witness gives 21 testimony on the stand; the opportunity and ability the 22 witness had to observe the facts about which he or she 23 testifies; and the probability or improbability of the 24 witness' testimony when considered in light of all the other
25 evidence in the case.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

12

1 If it appears there is a conflict in the evidence,
2 you should decide whether and to what extent the apparent
3 conflict can be reconciled by fitting the different versions
4 together. If you can't do so, you will have to decide which 5 of the conflicting versions you will accept, if any.

6 Now, I'm going to talk, now, about the conduct --
7 your conduct -- during your time as a juror:

8 To help make sure a just result is reached when you
9 decide this case, consistent with the oath you took as a
10 juror, there are several rules that must govern your conduct
11 during your time in serving as a juror. First, we'll talk
12 about discussions among the jurors and keeping an open mind:

13 In fairness to the parties to this lawsuit, it is 14 very important for you to keep an open mind throughout the 15 trial. You must reach your decisions and verdict on the 16 evidence only as it is admitted during this trial and then
17 only after you have heard the summations of the attorneys
18 and my instructions to you on the law. Then you will 19 exchange your views and opinions with the other members of 20 the jury to reach your decision and verdict.

21 While it is human nature for you to form tentative
22 opinions about the witnesses' testimony and other evidence
23 as the trial progresses, and there is a strong temptation to 24 want to discuss those opinions during the course of the 25 trial, the law does not permit it. The reason for this is

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Preliminary Charge

1 that if you engage in premature discussions without the
2 benefit of all the evidence, the summations by the lawyers
3 and my instructions on the law, your discussions will not be
4 fully informed, which would be unfair to the parties. For 5 this reason, among others, do not do any independent
6 research on any topic you might hear about in this case,
7 whether by consulting others, reading any material or
8 conducting Internet searches of any kind.

9 Some of the topics you are not to discuss or 10 research are: the law or any of the issues in this case.
11 You also must not discuss or do research about the parties,
12 the lawyers, the witnesses or me, even. After you have 13 rendered your verdict and have been discharged, you'll be 14 free to do any research you choose or to share your 15 experiences.

16 Remember these rules while you are serving as a
17 juror, whether in the courtroom or elsewhere, including 18 whenever you use a computer or other personal electronic 19 device. It is vital that you carefully follow these 20 directions.

21 The law requires that you consider only the 22 testimony and other evidence admitted at this trial. Not
23 only does our law mandate it, but the parties depend on you
24 to fairly and impartially consider only the admitted
25 evidence. To do otherwise, by allowing outside information

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

14

1 which may be incomplete, inaccurate or otherwise unreliable
2 to affect your judgment would be unfair and prejudicial to
3 the parties and could require a retrial of this case.

4 All cell phones, smartphones, laptops, tablets or
5 any other personal electronic devices must be turned off
6 while you're in the courtroom and while you are
7 deliberating.

8 Several of you, during the selection process,
9 mentioned that you had seen alerts come up on your phone or 10 the like that related to this case, so it's going to 11 require, in this case in particular, special vigilance to 12 avoid hearing things that will distract you from the 13 evidence in this case. To the extent that you are able to 14 turn off automatic alerts from news sources that might pop
15 up without your doing anything, I would urge you to try to 16 figure out how to do that. Okay?

17 Second, discussions with or by others:

18 Do not talk, either among yourselves or with anyone
19 else, about anything related to this case. You may tell
20 people you're a juror and give them information about when 21 you will be required to be in court, but you must not talk
22 with anyone about any other matters related to the case.

23 You must not provide any information about this
24 case to anyone, by any means whatsoever. This means, you
25 must not discuss or give or get information about any matter

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

15

1 related to this case by telephone, text message, e-mail or
2 any Internet services or social media, including blogs, chat
3 rooms, Google, Facebook, Twitter, Linked-In, Instagram,
4 TikTok or the many others that I have no idea about,
5 including those which -- I have no idea about most of those,
6 but I suspect most of you know more about it than I do.

7 You must not permit any person who is not a juror
8 to talk to you about this case in your presence and if 9 anyone does so despite your telling that person not to,
10 report that to me as soon as you are able; however, you must 11 not discuss with your fellow jurors either that fact or any 12 other fact you feel necessary to bring to my attention.

13 Although it is a normal human tendency to talk to 14 people with whom you come in contact during the time you're 15 on this jury, do not talk, whether in court or out of the 16 courtroom, with any of the parties or their attorneys or any 17 witnesses. By this I mean, not only don't talk about the 18 case, but don't talk to them at all, even to pass the time
19 of day. In no other way can all parties be assured of the 20 absolute impartiality they're entitled to expect from you as 21 jurors.

22 Just as a heads-up, because lawyers ask me to make
23 this point to people, if a lawyer, party or witness does not 24 acknowledge you passing in the hall, that person's not being
25 rude, but is merely following my instructions not to speak

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 with you.

2 The parties and the attorneys involved in this case
3 or people working with them on this case may properly look
4 at a juror's public website, public social media posts or 5 blogs or your social media profiles that are publicly
6 accessible. This may have occurred during jury selection
7 and also may occur during the course of this trial, during 8 deliberation and after the trial has ended.

9 While the parties and attorneys may look at your 10 public media, they may not communicate with you through 11 public media or any other way during the trial and 12 deliberations. In fact, nobody may communicate with you
13 about the case, for any reason, in any manner, during the 14 course of this trial or during the time you are
15 deliberating.

16 If you believe anyone has attempted to communicate
17 with you in any manner about the case, let me know as soon
18 as possible; the court officers are always available to get
19 messages to me. You should not communicate about the case
20 with anyone other than me or the court officer.

JURY INSTRUCTIONS

1 During the trial circumstances may arise when a
 2 juror has a need to bring a matter to my attention such as I
 3 just described. Should any one of you find yourself in that
 4 situation, please notify the court officer either orally or
 5 through a note that you need to speak to me and I will then
 6 instruct you further. Do not tell any other juror or anyone
 7 else the matter you seek to bring to my attention.

8 A note about alternate jurors and how we accomplish
 9 that in this case. Under the law only six jurors will 10 ultimately deliberate on this case. We have selected six
 11 additional jurors because some time during the trial,
 12 especially a long one, a juror may be unable to continue
 13 service due to some emergency. All of you, to be clear, are 14 required to pay the same careful attention during the trial
 15 so that each of you will be fully familiar with the case.
 16 The fact that there are additional jurors does not mean that 17 any juror is free to excuse himself or herself from the 18 case. As a duly sworn jury it is your obligation to be 19 available and attentive throughout the trial. In part to 20 assist in that we have not selected designated alternate 21 jurors. Instead we will randomly choose and determine which 22 of you are alternate jurors after the parties closing
 23 arguments and prior to deliberations.

24 You may be interested about note taking. If you
 25 want to, you may take notes, and we will provide a notebook

LAS

18

1 for you. Whether you take notes or not, you should be aware
2 that the court reporter reports everything stated in the 3 courtroom, and any portion of the transcript at your request
4 will be read back to you during your deliberations. If you
5 do take notes during the trial, you should not allow your 6 note taking to be a distraction from the proceedings. If 7 any of you do take notes during the trial, those notes are 8 only for your personal use and can only be used as aid to 9 your memory. Any difference between any juror's
10 recollection and any juror's notes should always be settled
11 by asking to have the court reporter's transcript on that 12 point read back to you. The court transcript should govern
13 your deliberations and determinations rather than a juror's
14 notes. A juror's notes are not a substitute for the 15 official record or governing principles of law that I will 16 give to you during and at the end of the trial. Your notes
17 are confidential and will be directed and secured by the 18 court officers at the end of each session and destroyed at 19 the end of trial.

20 Okay. That description of trial procedures, the 21 rules governing your conduct and legal principles I've 22 described for you I hope will make it easier for you to 23 understand the trial as it proceeds and to reach a just 24 result at its conclusion.

25 A couple of logistical notes before we move on to

LAS

19

1 the opening arguments. As I mentioned to you during the
2 selection process, the trial is scheduled to take place over
3 six weeks, from today through February 16th. The trial is
4 generally scheduled from Monday to Thursday with Fridays off
5 so that I can deal with other cases. But there are some
6 exceptions, which I can tell you about now and remind you
7 about later. First, we will have trial this Friday morning
8 from 9:30 to about 12:30. This is to make up for the fact
9 that we did not start today at 9:30, as we had originally
10 planned. Second, the Court is closed on Monday,
11 January 15th, for Martin Luther King Junior Day. So we will 12 have -- so that will be our off day and we'll have trial
13 that Friday, the 19th. Sorry. Third, there is no trial on 14 Thursday, January 25th, and instead we'll have trial on the 15 26th. This room is being used for another purpose that day.
16 Fourth and finally, the court is closed on February 12th for 17 Lincoln's birthday, and the trial will instead be held on 18 the 16th instead that week. That's a lot to remember. I'll 19 remind you as the weeks go on which days. Basically if it's 20 a holiday, that's our off day. There may be sometimes where 21 I need to tend to issues in other cases, but I'm going to 22 try to keep that to a bare minimum.

23 Are the parties ready to proceed?

24 MS. CONNELL: If we can have one second to set up
25 the tech, your Honor.

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

20

1 THE COURT: In the meantime, the court officers
2 want to do something with the way the audience is 3 configured.

4 Can I ask, I do this with some, does anyone need to
5 take a restroom break before we start, because the opening
6 will be between an hour and hour an a half. I figured that 7 would happen. If anybody needs to, the court officer will 8 take you and we'll take a short break.

9 THE COURT OFFICER: Jury exiting. All rise.

10 THE COURT: If I can urge that we make the break
11 relatively short, so we can get back and get open, I would
12 appreciate it.

13 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

14 (Whereupon a recess was taken.)

15 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

16 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

17 THE COURT: Welcome back. Have a seat. Counsel, 18 you may proceed.

19 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor. Good
20 afternoon. This case is about corruption -- Your Honor,
21 excuse me one second. That feedback is a real problem.
22 Perfect. Thank you, your Honor, for your tech help.

23 THE COURT: It's great as long as you don't intend
24 to have any witnesses during the trial.

25 MS. CONNELL: We might have to talk about that.

LAS

21

1 Ladies and gentlemen, this case is about corruption in a
2 charity. It's about breaches of trust and it's about power.
3 People take money out of their pockets, hard earned money
4 and they donate it to charities and causes that they believe
5 in. It doesn't matter what the charity is or what the cause
6 is. It's they take their money out of their pocket and give 7 it to advance that charity or cause. They should be able to 8 trust that the hard earned money they donate is going to go
9 to advance the mission of that charity. They should be able 10 to trust that their hard earned money that they donated will 11 not be used for luxury travel and five star hotels for 12 charity board members, executives, their family and friends.
13 They should be able to trust that their hard earned money
14 won't be used for trips to the Bahamas that have nothing to 15 do with the charity's mission or for no show or low show
16 contracts. For board members and people who connected with 17 the charity's leadership. They should be able to trust that 18 the money won't be used for the wedding of an executive's
19 son or to pay millions of dollars illegally to companies who 20 are run by friends of NRA executives, yet that is exactly
21 what occurred here.

22 Defendants National Rifle Association of America or 23 NRA, Wayne LaPierre, Defendant John Frazer and Defendant
24 Wilson Phillips, who is called Woody at times, Woody
25 Phillips, have breached the trust placed in them and

LAS

22

1 violated rules and laws that they were required to follow.
2 The evidence will show that the NRA itself and the three
3 individual defendants acted illegally over and over again
4 for years. That they were part of a entrenched leadership
5 within the NRA. And why did they actively and how did they 6 get away with this? Primarily to maintain the power of the 7 NRA's internal leadership. To ensure that insiders,
8 including the defendants, maintain their title and status.
9 That they kept their jobs. And that they and their family
10 and friends received lavish perks or million dollar deals
11 from the NRA.

12 Judge Cohen will explain the law to you at the end
13 of the case. But NRA is suppose to function in compliance
14 with the laws that make charities. The defendants are 15 suppose to have -- individual defendants are suppose to have 16 undivided loyalty to the NRA and its mission. They are 17 suppose to be -- to properly oversee the charitable assets
18 of the NRA. They are suppose to make sure that the monies
19 donated or given by members as membership fees go to the 20 mission of the charity for the purposes intended and not for 21 the personal benefit of NRA insiders and their friends and 22 family.

23 You will hear that the NRA allowed Wayne LaPierre
24 and his group of NRA insiders, including board members,
25 employees and officers to operate at the NRA as Wayne's

LAS

23

1 world for decades. You will hear from NRA employees and
2 board members that the NRA operated -- did not operate
3 according to the law or even according to its own rules.
4 We'll talk about those rules and why they are important.

5 You will hear that the NRA operated, and you'll
6 hear this from an NRA employee, on a Wayne says basis.
7 You're going to hear a member of the NRA board say or refer
8 to Wayne as the king of the NRA. And the evidence will show
9 that with the assent of the NRA, with the organization's 10 approval, with the help of the other defendants, the king of 11 the NRA corrupted and breached the NRA from within and used
12 donors' monies in ways that they shouldn't be used.

13 My name is Monica Connell. I'm an assistant
14 attorney general in the Charities Bureau of the Office of 15 the Attorney General. I along with my colleagues, including 16 Jonathan Conley, Steve Shiffman, Stephen Thompson and 17 William Wang will be presenting most of the evidence in this 18 case to you. And we are going to show you that the 19 defendants breached New York law and ask at the end to 20 return a verdict of liable, that they are liable for that.

21 In this case the People of the State of New York
22 are represented by the Attorney General of the State of New 23 York, Letitia James. And just to let you know, you'll hear
24 evidence that the Attorney General oversees charities that 25 are chartered and raise funds and do business in New York.

LAS

24

1 The People are going to show you specifically that the
2 defendants violated certain specific New York laws,
3 including that the defendants violated the estates powers
4 and trust law and that they failed to properly administered
5 the NRA and its charitable assets. The People will also
6 show that the individual defendants, Defendant LaPierre,
7 Frazer and Phillips, breached their fiduciary duties to the
8 NRA in violation of New York's Not-For-Profit Corporation
9 Law. That defendants NRA, LaPierre and Phillips were 10 personally involved in something called an illegal related-
11 party transaction. The Judge will explain to you what a
12 related-party transaction is. You'll be hearing a lot about 13 them. It's essentially when the NRA engages in a
14 transaction with people within the NRA who have power, such 15 that the action should be reviewed by the NRA board or its 16 audit committee, because those types of transactions can be 17 subject to abuse.

18 The defendants also aided others in engaging in 19 related-party transactions. Plaintiff will also prove that 20 the defendants, the NRA, violated New York's whistleblower
21 law. We'll talk about the importance of the whistleblower
22 law. And that the Defendant NRA, Defendant John Frazer made
23 false -- materially false statements to the State of New 24 York in regulatory filings.

25 Today I'm going to walk you through some of the

LAS

25

1 evidence that we think we will show you. But I would like
2 to take a second to stop and talk to you about some concepts
3 and terms that will help -- that you will hear over and over
4 again in the evidence and help you understand the evidence
5 as it comes in. Specifically in regard to charities and
6 nonprofits.

7 The law allows formation of tax exempt charities
8 like the NRA to ensure that people can collect their money
9 together and use it for a good purpose. It's important to 10 society that they be able to do so. You will hear charities
11 like the NRA are not for profit. They don't have 12 shareholders or owners who are looking at the bottom line to 13 make sure that they get their every penny worth of value out
14 of money spent. So they can be subject, particularly 15 subject to abuse. To waste of funds, loss, something called 16 diversion of funds, away from the charitable mission.

17 You'll hear evidence about safeguards. And there
18 are five main safeguards that are used to prevent or try to 19 prevent the waste, loss or misuse of charitable funds.
20 These safeguards can't always be effective. They can't 21 always stop all problems, but they are put into place if you
22 think of them like guardrails on the side of the road or a
23 seatbelt. Hopefully they prevent a problem or minimize the 24 damage.

25 The first safeguard that you'll hear about

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

26

1 fiduciary duties. This is the trust and legal obligations
2 placed in those who run charities. And it means, again the
3 Judge will explain the law to you, but generally it means
4 that the officers of a charity must exercise, they must
5 exercise the highest level of loyalty to the charity. They 6 have to have undivided loyalty to the charity when they are 7 acting within their position at the charity. They have to 8 make sure the charity's interest comes before their own
9 interest, otherwise they have divided loyalty and that can 10 create a problem.

11 You're going to hear that each of the individual
12 defendants here were fiduciaries of the NRA and owed the 13 duty of loyalty, the duty of care and the duty of obedience
14 to the charity. As to that I want to say that the -- most 15 charities, and the NRA here has some internal rules, we'll 16 be talking about those, as a fiduciary defendants were 17 required to follow and comply with those rules.

18 Fiduciaries can be liable for breaches of their
19 duties, and plaintiffs will show here that the defendants
20 breached their fiduciary duties. For example, the evidence
21 here, the evidence will show defendants engaged in, enabled
22 and permitted transactions that were against the NRA's best
23 interests, especially transactions tainted by conflicts of 24 interest.

25 What is a conflict of interest? I think many of us

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

27

1 have some understanding of that. But a conflict of interest
2 is basically when a person, a person's personal interest may 3 conflict with that of the organization such that they might 4 have divided loyalties and might not exercise judgment in 5 the best interest of the corporation.

6 So, one example of a conflict of interest
7 transaction that you're going to hear a lot about involves 8 the NRA's agreements with three of its largest vendors, the 9 vendors are Membership Marketing Partners, Allegiance
10 Creative and Comport Social. We are going to collectively
11 refer to them as MMP. All three of these vendors are 12 controlled by the same family. All three of these vendors
13 have the same employees. You will hear evidence that all
14 three of these vendors operated out of the exact same office
15 which happens to be located in a building of the NRA
16 headquarters.

17 So, the NRA spends, you'll hear that the NRA has 18 paid these entities over the last decade over $135 million.
19 You're going to hear that -- Excuse me -- you're going to 20 hear that Defendant Wayne LaPierre signed multiple contracts
21 with these vendors. You're going to hear Defendant Wilson
22 Phillips also signed multiple contracts with these entities.
23 You're going to hear evidence that they also agreed to the 24 payment of millions of dollars to the MMP entities that were 25 not included in these written contracts, as they are suppose

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

28

1 to be under NRA rules. Tens of millions of dollars. That's
2 what the evidence will show. Those payments, in violation
3 of NRA policies, and those payments that were not properly
4 approved by the NRA board and not properly approved by other
5 executives are illegal and are a problem alone. But the 6 problem here is much worse.

7 Because Defendant Wayne LaPierre, while he was 8 negotiating with the MMP entities, while he was approving
9 contracts and signing contracts, while he was approving 10 payments outside of those contracts was friends with the 11 owners of MMP and accepted valuable gifts from them the 12 whole time. You will hear that the owners of MMP, David and 13 Laura McKenzie, who we'll refer to as the McKenzies,
14 arranged for and paid for travel for Mr. LaPierre and his 15 wife Susan. You'll hear that they traveled all over the 16 world for free on McKenzie's dime. They went to Greece,
17 Dubai, the Mediterranean. You'll hear that they also got 18 free use of the McKenzie's super yachts known as The 19 Illusion and The Grand Illusion. They used them yearly,
20 sometimes multiple times a year. Mrs. LaPierre will take 21 girls trips on them. The Grand Illusion was used as part of 22 a family wedding celebration. A daughter, a family wedding
23 celebration. Excuse me. This is a conflict of interest.
24 People will submit the evidence will show this, that the 25 LaPierre -- that Mr. LaPierre accepted these gifts while

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

29

1 engaging in business with the McKenzies. But it gets worse.
2 Because the evidence will show that Mr. LaPierre hid his
3 relationship with the McKenzies from some people within the 4 NRA and lied about it.

5 You'll hear that every year certain board members
6 and executives within the NRA were required to disclose --
7 One second, your Honor. Mine is having a little problem --
8 were required to disclose information to ensure, try to 9 prevent conflicts of interest or related-party transactions.
10 That they are asked every year whether they or a relative
11 has received a gift from someone who is a vendor or wants to 12 be a vendor to the NRA. They want to sell or get NRA money.
13 And year and year, when asked this question, Mr. LaPierre
14 checked no.

15 Now you will hear evidence that Mr. Frazer, whose 16 the general counsel of the NRA, we'll talk about that, and 17 secretary to the board, put out these financial 18 questionnaires every year and he collected them. We'll hear
19 what he did with them. But coming back to this. Mr.
20 LaPierre checked that box no year after year after year.

21 Finally on April 7th, 2021 Mr. LaPierre at least 22 partially disclosed some gifts he had received from the 23 McKenzies. He made this disclosure on the morning of a day
24 he was about to testify in court under oath and before a
25 judge in Texas. That happened to be in bankruptcy

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

30

1 proceedings that he had commenced in which he had placed the
2 NRA into bankruptcy. You'll hear about that. So, on the
3 day he's going to testify in the bankruptcy proceedings, he 4 finally at least partially discloses gifts he receives from 5 MMP. The evidence will show that nothing happened to him as 6 a result. That he turned in this form. Mr. Frazer got this
7 form. To the extent Mr. Frazer may claim he didn't know
8 about the relationship with MMP before, the evidence will 9 show that he received this form.

10 Mr. Frazer testified more than a year later that he 11 had not asked Mr. LaPierre about the conflict. He had not 12 investigated it. He did not ask why Mr. LaPierre didn't
13 disclose this conflict earlier. In short, Mr. LaPierre
14 suffered no adverse effect from having lied to the NRA year
15 after year, from having spent millions of dollars of NRA
16 funds and diverted it to friends and from having received
17 valuable gifts, free luxury travel and other benefits from a
18 vendor of the NRA.

19 You will see that the other defendants went along
20 with this conduct. The NRA didn't do anything about it.
21 You'll hear that the board, when they learned about this,
22 didn't do anything about it. That this -- that Mr.
23 LaPierre, you know again, got away scot free with it. And 24 that Mr. Phillips assisted Mr. LaPierre in this. How did he 25 assist him? Well, Mr. Phillips, as you'll hear, oversees

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

31

1 the financial services division of the NRA among other
2 things or used to oversee it before he retired in 2018. He
3 helped push through the payments. He helped sign some of
4 the contracts. And he helped make sure that he helped pay
5 out even when there was not a contract justifying a payment.
6 And Mr. Frazer certainly assisted by failing to take any 7 action once the conflict of interest was revealed. These 8 are just some examples of the types of fiduciary duties that 9 People of the State of New York are going to prove to you.

10 To step back safeguards that are intended to 11 prevent the waste of charitable assets. One of them is 12 something called internal controls. Now, internal controls
13 is a fancy term that just essentially means rules and 14 procedures that are designed to prevent the waste or misuse
15 of money. So, for example, if you wanted your child to have 16 an allowance, you might say here's your $20, your $10, your 17 $5. You're not going to give them your credit card and tell
18 me how it all comes out. Right. You're going to have 19 rules. So, typical examples of internal controls are rules
20 that require somebody, when they spend NRA funds, to provide 21 business justification for that expenditure. To 22 substantiate that business justification. So, if you spend
23 $800 at a dinner, then you should provide proof to the NRA
24 of that charity of what that expenditure was for, for 25 example.

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

32

1 Other rules are procurement or purchasing rules
2 that certain contracts must be in writing and approved in 3 certain ways. There are also rules against conflicts of 4 interests in related-party transactions. These are just 5 some common rules. The NRA does have some internal 6 controls. They are mostly embodied in the bylaws, its 7 policy manual and its employee handbook. You'll be hearing
8 about some of those.

9 But the evidence in this case will show that the 10 defendants, meaning Defendants NRA, LaPierre, Phillips and 11 Frazer, with help from some board members and others,
12 routinely engaged in and violated the NRA's internal 13 controls. They ignored when -- when it suited them and 14 suffered little to no consequences.

15 For example, and this is just one example, the NRA
16 has a travel transportation policy. And as you'll see, the 17 transportation policy indicates and sensibly that travel
18 should be made in the most economical way possible for the 19 NRA. Only coach tickets are allowed. First class is 20 permitted in certain instances with advance approval.
21 That's their policy. And again employees and board members
22 are required to follow the NRA's policies. And yet you will
23 see evidence that in violation of the NRA's transportation
24 policy Mr. LaPierre, when he was using NRA funds, flew 25 almost entirely by private jet for years, at least since

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

33

1 2012, if not before that, in direct violation of that
2 policy. And how is this a waste of NRA funds? How is this
3 bad? One example is the NRA paid over $600,000, the 4 evidence will show, in private jet travel to the Bahamas.
5 And that was not the only expenditure that is questionable.

6 The NRA, you'll also hear evidence, that the NRA
7 paid over a million dollars for flights on which Mr.
8 LaPierre was not even a passenger. The NRA may say that
9 there is a security reason that Mr. LaPierre flew private,
10 but you will hear no evidence of a board resolution at any 11 time even prior to 2022 that permitted such flights. And 12 you'll see evidence, we'll show you evidence that he worked 13 quite hard to hide the NRA's payments for his private 14 flights.

15 So, some other examples, excuse me, of the NRA's
16 payments for private flights that would give you an example
17 of how members' hard earned, donated funds used include
18 flights for family and friends. So, for example, in 19 July 2017 LaPierre authorized a private flight for the 20 daughter of his wife, his niece to fly from Dallas to 21 Orlando. The cost of that flight was more than $26,000. In 22 November 2018 LaPierre and his wife took a private round
23 trip flight from Washington to Dallas and stopped in 24 Nebraska, where that niece lives to pick her up. That added
25 a leg each way. The total cost of that trip and those

LAS

1 flights was $59,000, in excess of $59,000. In March 2019
2 LaPierre and his wife took a private flight from DC to
3 Orlando. Again, it had the flight swing by Nebraska to pick
4 up the niece and her family. Those flights cost in excess
5 of $79,000. Those are three examples, three trips and there
6 are lots more.

1 MS. CONNELL: All told, the NRA spent over $11
2 million for private flights and luxury travel for LaPierre,
3 his family and friends, again, all in violation of the NRA's
4 internal controls. Had the NRA's internal controls been 5 enforced, perhaps they could have prevented some of these
6 expenditures.

7 Another safeguard, or the third safeguard, are 8 whistleblowers, and I mentioned whistleblowers before. What
9 is a whistleblower? I think we may have heard that term
10 before, but to be clear, a whistleblower is a board member,
11 an employee, an officer, even a volunteer, within a charity
12 who speaks out about potentially illegal -- illegal conduct
13 or conduct in violation of that charity's rules or unethical
14 conduct.

15 And you will hear that charities like the NRA,
16 under New York law, must properly administer -- they must
17 have a -- a compliant whistleblower policy, which the NRA
18 did not for years; they must properly administer and 19 investigate good-faith whistleblower complaints; and it is 20 illegal for them to retaliate against whistleblowers, or to 21 intimidate or harass whistleblowers, as a result of their
22 actions in raising concerns within the charity.

23 Now, why are whistleblowers important?
24 Whistleblowers are so important because if a charity is 25 acting in good faith, having a board member or an employee

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

36

1 or even a volunteer come forward and say, "I think there's
2 illegal conduct going on; I'm concerned about these
3 expenditures; I'm concerned about, why is this board member
4 getting money?", that's an important way that a charity
5 that's acting in good faith can do something to stop that
6 conduct, to nip it in the bud. So they're an important
7 source of information for the charity itself.

8 Whistleblowers also provide a way, or may also
9 provide a way, for regulators to learn about abuse -- abuses
10 and waste and loss of charitable funds inside a charity.

11 Plaintiff will show evidence that defendants,
12 particularly Defendants NRA and John Frazer, failed to 13 investigate whistleblower complaints.

14 The N -- the attorney general here asserts a
15 whistleblower claim against the NRA. The attorney general,
16 however, will show you evidence that Mr. Frazer violated and 17 breached his fiduciary duties by violating his obligations
18 in regard to whistleblowers.

19 In this case, you will hear from whistleblowers.
20 For example, you will hear from Esther Schneider, who's a 21 former NRA Board member; from Lieutenant Colonel North, who 22 is a former NRA president and -- I'm sorry; I should say,
23 former board member; he's not a current board member -- and 24 from Judge Phillip Journey, for example. There are other
25 whistleblowers, as well.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

37

1 And you will hear that when each of them raised
2 concerns about the waste of charitable assets within the
3 NRA, about the violation of NRA internal controls -- in one
4 case, about payments to board members -- when they raised
5 concerns about the filing of the bankruptcy by -- the 6 decision to file bankruptcy -- by Wayne LaPierre, which
7 ultimately cost the NRA at least $12 million, the evidence
8 will show, and you'll hear from the current NRA treasurer,
9 it harmed the NRA in other ways. When they complained and 10 raised concerns about this, their complaints were not 11 investigated; Mr. Frazer deemed that they were not in good
12 faith.

13 And instead, the NRA and the defendants retaliated
14 against them. They were subject --

15 MR. FARBER: Objection.

16 There are different defendants, your Honor; time
17 period.

18 THE COURT: Continue.

19 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

20 Instead, you'll hear that they suffered
21 retaliation, such that they -- their complaints were not 22 heard, or ignored, and they were made examples of in --
23 within the NRA.

24 The fourth safeguard that's important for you to 25 understand and that you're going to hear a lot about are

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

38

1 regulatory and tax filings. Charities like the NRA,
2 especially the size of the NRA, have to make annual filings
3 with the New York State Office of the Attorney General's
4 Charities Bureau. These include the CHAR500 form. That's a
5 New York State form. That form also requires that the --
6 that the charity's IRS Form 990 be attached. And it's 7 important to hear -- to learn about these terms, because
8 you're going to hear them a lot. Both forms include a lot
9 of information, and we're going to look at the -- the NRA's
10 990s quite a bit to see how NRA funds were spent, as they
11 reported them, and about safeguards and internal controls
12 the NRA claimed to have in place.

13 As part of New York law, an entity the size of the 14 NRA must also attach an independent financial statement
15 audit in which an auditor says that the NRA's
16 representations, certain representations as to its finances,
17 are true. You're going to hear about what that means and 18 the limitations on a financial statement audit in this case.

19 And you're going to hear, and the People will show
20 you, that the NRA and Mr. Frazer made materially false
21 statements on the NRA's annual filings. They made false
22 statements, for example, the plaintiff believes the evidence
23 will show, about the NRA's payment for golf clubs and social
24 clubs for board members and executives, and the statement
25 that the NRA had a policy with regard to such payments it

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

39

1 applied with the same, which we submit the evidence will
2 show is untrue. Hundreds of thousands of dollars of NRA
3 money went out the door in such expenditures.

4 The People believe the evidence will also show that
5 the NRA filings falsely represented personal benefits paid
6 to and received by NRA board members and employees.

7 The fifth safeguard that is relevant for the 8 purposes of the case and that you will hear evidence about
9 is regulatory oversight. That means, the work of regulators
10 like the attorney general to monitor charities and their 11 fiduciaries, and to investigate and bring actions where 12 appropriate.

13 Despite these safeguards, you will hear that the 14 defendants engaged in illegal conduct. You will hear that 15 they breached fiduciary -- the individual defendants
16 breached fiduciary duties. You will hear that the NRA
17 ignored breaches of fiduciary duties, when they occurred,
18 frequently; you will hear that the NRA routinely ignored the 19 defendants' breaches of internal controls; and you will hear
20 about the violations of whistleblower laws.

21 I'm going to walk you through a little bit more of 22 what we think the evidence will show. I'm going to try and 23 keep it -- you can't trust when a lawyer says they're going
24 to keep something short, but I'm going to try and keep it
25 short -- a little shorter -- today, but I'd also like to

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

40

1 talk a little bit about the parties right now.

2 The NRA is a charitable organization that was
3 founded in New York and chartered in New York over 150 years
4 ago and is subject to the regulation of the Charities
5 Bureau. The NRA's mission statement is included in its 6 bylaws; it's restated in its filings. As a nonprofit, the 7 NRA's money -- it doesn't matter what the NRA's missions
8 are; its monies are supposed to be spent to advance this 9 mission. They are not supposed to be spent for personal
10 benefit of other individuals.

11 Pursuant to the bylaws, the NRA has a 76-member
12 board of directors. They're elected by a subset of NRA
13 members and they, from -- they elect six officers, three 14 board officers. That means, three members of the board are 15 elected and become the president of the NRA, the first vice 16 president, and the second vice president of the NRA. They 17 also elect the executive vice president.

18 The executive vice president is essentially the CEO
19 of the NRA; it's the highest hourly officer. For 30 years,
20 that has been Wayne LaPierre. You have heard, and you heard
21 the judge make reference to the fact, that Mr. LaPierre
22 resigned last week, effective January 31st, 2024. We'll 23 talk about that a little bit more.

24 But, going back to the organization of the NRA, the 25 board also elects the treasurer -- in this case, the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

41

1 treasurer was Mr. Phillips, for 25 years, who also served as
2 the CFO -- and the secretary to the board. That's currently
3 Mr. Frazer, who is also the general counsel of the NRA.

4 So let's talk about John Frazer. He has been the 5 general counsel since 2015. As I said, he was subsequently
6 elected the secretary to the board the same year; he remains
7 in that position today. As general counsel, he reports
8 directly to Mr. LaPierre and as secretary, he keeps the 9 records of the NRA and he reports to the board and 10 communicates to the board.

11 Wilson "Woody" Phillips, Defendant Phillips, was 12 the NRA's chief financial officer between 1993 and 2018,
13 when he retired. He was also elected treasurer by the NRA
14 board. As chief financial officer of the NRA, Mr. Phillips
15 reported directly to Wayne LaPierre and Mr. Phillips was 16 responsible for overseeing, among other things, the 17 Financial Services Division.

18 Finally, Defendant Wayne LaPierre: He's -- as I
19 said, he is the EVP of the NRA, the highest-salaried
20 officer, and he's been elected by the board of the NRA every 21 year since -- since he first ran, over 30 years ago.

22 The evidence will show that Wayne LaPierre has 23 maintained his control for 30 years, largely unchallenged,
24 and the evidence will also show how he did that: how 25 Mr. LaPierre, with the help of Defendant Frazer and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

42

1 Defendant Phillips, and some loyal board members and other
2 loyal employees and -- loyal employees of the NRA -- a small
3 group of them -- has maintained his control and has been
4 able to engage in the illegal conduct we believe the 5 evidence will prove. You can think, in some manner, that
6 the leadership of the NRA has maintained this control for 30
7 years. We believe that leadership is entrenched and has 8 maintained the control for 30 years to benefit loyal
9 insiders and family and friends of them.

10 The first is self-serving management. The one
11 important tool that you will hear that Mr. LaPierre and his 12 close insiders used was to make management decisions not per 13 se in the best interests of the NRA but to secure his 14 leadership position. He has hired people who owe him their 15 jobs and will do -- and will be loyal to him, sometimes 16 above loyalty to the NRA as a result. You will hear that he 17 systematically filled top positions with people who might 18 not have gotten the job -- you'll make the decision -- if 19 not for Mr. LaPierre's -- Mr. LaPierre's decision to hire
20 them, and who owe him their title and their salary.

21 So, who was in this loyal inner circle? Well,
22 you're going to hear, again, about Mr. Frazer. Defendant
23 John Frazer was hired by LaPierre as general counsel without 24 an executive search. Mr. LaPierre didn't interview any 25 other candidates; he didn't -- he said -- you'll hear

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

43

1 Mr. LaPierre admit, he had no idea whether Mr. Frazer was
2 familiar with nonprofit law when he hired him as general
3 counsel.

4 Now, the general counsel is the highest legal
5 officer within the NRA. It's a very important, powerful
6 office, overseeing all of the legal work of the NRA, and it
7 is an office that needs to be able to fulfill a duty in the 8 very large and complex organization. You'll hear that the 9 NRA has had, at different times, hundred -- different
10 numbers of hundreds of employees; it's a nonprofit that 11 raises funds throughout the United States; it has to comply
12 with the regulatory framework; and it has a large -- you
13 know -- large revenue, and its highest was 360 million. It
14 dips below 200 million at times. But Mr. Frazer was hired
15 to oversee this organization without anyone checking to see
16 that he had an expertise in nonprofit law.

17 You will also hear Mr. LaPierre admit that he 18 didn't bother to check with the board before he hired
19 Mr. Frazer. Whether Mr. Frazer -- Defendant Frazer -- was 20 qualified and whether he was hired in the best interests of 21 the NRA is something you'll decide.

22 The People believe that the evidence will show that 23 Mr. Frazer did exactly what Defendant LaPierre wanted. For 24 example, you will hear evidence that when Joshua Powell, who 25 used to be a defendant in this case and is no longer a

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

44

1 defendant in this case -- he settled with the -- with the
2 plaintiff -- told Mr. --

3 MR. FARBER: Objection.

4 THE COURT: Continue.

5 MS. CONNELL: -- he told Mr. LaPierre that "we
6 need" -- that the NRA needed -- a much stronger general
7 counsel, you will hear that Mr. LaPierre replied, "Well, we 8 can control John, so we have to keep him where he is."

9 You will hear evidence that Mr. LaPierre and others
10 within the NRA placed such little faith in Mr. Frazer and 11 his abilities, although they kept him in his position, that 12 he wasn't consulted before some of the largest legal 13 decisions that the NRA made, including whether to sue one of 14 its largest former vendors and whether to declare
15 bankruptcy.

16 You're going to hear Mr. Frazer admit that he had 17 only two years in private practice before he took the -- 18 took on the job as general counsel, although he had worked
19 at the NRA in other positions for some time. He had no
20 expertise or specialty in nonprofit law, in New York law or 21 in other relevant areas. And you're going to hear that 22 Mr. Frazer was just appointed by the board after he was --
23 he was -- he was hired as general counsel by Mr. LaPierre.

24 So, the evidence will show that Mr. LaPierre put 25 what we think you will determine is an inexperienced general

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

45

1 counsel who owed his position and status to Mr. LaPierre in
2 a very powerful position at the NRA.

3 You also will hear evidence and see evidence about
4 Mr. Phillips' hiring. Mr. Phillips was hired by Defendant
5 LaPierre in 1993 with little to no vetting; he had no prior 6 experience as a CFO or treasurer. The evidence will show
7 that he was given a high salary and high-level position, and 8 later, he was rewarded with a post-employment contract.

9 You will hear evidence from NRA witnesses that 10 Mr. Phillips violated the NRA's internal control. The 11 evidence will show that the NRA's own witnesses say this:
12 that he -- that he didn't comply with internal controls,
13 that he wasn't following the NRA's rules.

14 So why put him in that position? He was put -- the 15 People suggest that the evidence will show that Mr. Phillips
16 was put in that position because he would go along with what 17 Mr. LaPierre wanted.

18 Another example ...

19 Another example of Mr. LaPierre's hiring decisions
20 that were self-serving rather than in the NRA's best
21 interests is Joshua Powell. You'll hear evidence that 22 Mr. LaPierre made the decision to hire Josh Powell on his 23 own; that Mr. Powell lacked relevant experience; he was 24 hired with no vetting; he was placed in one of the highest 25 positions within the NRA. He would be second -- second in

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

46

1 line to leadership of the NRA if something had happened to
2 Mr. LaPierre. And you will hear that he was paid a salary
3 that went from 250,000 to 800,000 in just two years. Powell
4 had no real nonprofit experience, no real corporate
5 experience that would prepare him for this job, and in the 6 few years he worked at the NRA -- it was about three and a
7 half years -- he reported directly to LaPierre.

8 Powell, who was previously a defendant in this 9 case, as I mentioned, was accused by the NRA in 2019, after 10 the NRA brought in a new chief financial officer, of having 11 taken some funds and used them for personal purposes. The 12 NRA accused him of, the evidence will show, taking $54,000
13 of what's called "excess benefit," or NRA money for personal
14 purposes. After that he was fired. But up to that point
15 and after that, the evidence will show that a lot of -- a
16 lot of blame for conduct within the NRA was placed on 17 Mr. Powell. But he was there for two -- for three and a
18 half years. And the evidence will show, he was treated
19 differently in terms of how personal expenses and personal
20 benefits he received were handled.

21 Up until the time that the new CFO identified
22 personal expenditures he used, Mr. Powell was rewarded,
23 promoted and kept in his position because, the evidence will 24 show, he was loyal to Mr. LaPierre and his circle of board
25 members and executives who helped him maintain control.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

47

1 Another example -- and this is the final example
2 and then I'll move on -- was Millie Hallow. Ms. Hallow was
3 hired by Mr. LaPierre and worked for him for almost 30
4 years. Ms. Hallow had a history of misusing charitable
5 funds. She was made the Managing Director of Executive
6 Operations by Mr. LaPierre. The evidence will show that 7 Ms. Hallow worked as Mr. LaPierre's right arm.

8 You'll hear that Mr. LaPierre, other than making
9 notations on yellow legal pads (simulating) in his own
10 handwriting, almost never communicates in writing. He 11 doesn't put things in writing. He may sometimes have other
12 people put things in writing for him, but he doesn't e-mail
13 and he doesn't text and, during the relevant time period of 14 this lawsuit, didn't have a work computer. Instead, he 15 would convey directions and commands orally, not leaving a
16 paper trail.

17 Ms. Hallow was key in conveying Mr. LaPierre's
18 wishes to board members and employees and others, and the 19 evidence will show that she did her job over and over again
20 and well.

21 You will hear that Ms. Hallow helped convey what 22 will be referred to in documents you'll see as "crib sheets"
23 of board members, or prospective board members, who were 24 loyal to LaPierre, to ensure that they were nominated by the 25 nominating committee and elected year after year so that the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

48

1 board would be controlled by people who supported LaPierre.

2 Unfortunately, while she was doing this, the
3 evidence will also show that Ms. Hallow misused NRA funds
4 over and over and over again. And this can't be a surprise
5 to the NRA or NRA leadership, because in the early 2000s,
6 the NRA investigated her misuse of a credit card. It found
7 that in a given year, Ms. Hallow spent over $500,000 on an
8 NRA credit card. The evidence will show, even the NRA found
9 that at least in a two-year period, over $170,000 was spent
10 by Ms. Hallow on unquestionably personal benefits; things
11 like betting, travel for her family, clothing, car
12 repairs -- of NRA funds were spent by Ms. Hallow and for --
13 you know, wrongfully. And Ms. Hallow retained her
14 employment; she retained her salary, her position. She 15 wasn't punished in any way. Ms. Hallow remained employed
16 for decades after that, but unfortunately, her misuse of NRA
17 funds continued. Due to her loyalty, she stayed employed at 18 the NRA until 2022, two years after this lawsuit was 19 commenced.

20 Mr. LaPierre and his friends couldn't maintain 21 control of the NRA without board members being onboard, and 22 you'll hear that he had key, core, loyal board members.
23 These are some of them. You're going to hear from some of 24 them in this case, most likely. The composition of the 25 NRA's board, you'll see evidence of, is largely determined

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

49

1 by who gets nominated by the nominating committee. Those
2 people are almost always elected. And the evidence will 3 show that Ms. Hallow, acting at Mr. LaPierre's behest and
4 with the help of other board members, worked to use --
5 sometimes to use -- NRA funds to get a board member
6 elected -- illegally, we say -- and at other times, secretly
7 helped rally the troops to make sure anyone perceived as 8 disloyal to LaPierre was kept off the board.

9 You'll hear that people who were once deemed loyal
10 to LaPierre, if they had the audacity to question -- excuse
11 me -- if they raised questions about Mr. LaPierre's
12 leadership, suddenly were not renominated by the nominating 13 committee and were no longer on the board.

14 So Mr. LaPierre fostered a group of especially 15 loyal senior NRA board members, and some of them -- and many 16 of them are still -- they all are still on the board. Some,
17 to note for you, that are particularly important are:
18 Charles Cotton, who's the current NRA president -- board
19 president; Marion Hammer, who I'm going to be talking quite 20 a bit about; Carolyn Meadows, who's a former NRA president
21 and member of key committees; and David Coy, who's not on 22 this list but should be. David Coy and Mr. Cotton headed up
23 the NRA's Audit Committee. You'll hear, that's a key board
24 committee that's supposed to prevent ethical lapses and help
25 oversee any financial issues within the NRA.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

50

1 The second way Mr. LaPierre and his core of loyal
2 insiders helped maintain control is through spending. They
3 used NRA funds, not just for his benefit but to reward
4 people who were loyal to him. It makes sense -- right? --
5 that he would want to help out those who helped him.

6 Under the NRA bylaws, people who serve on the board
7 of the NRA are not supposed to receive compensation, salary
8 or other benefit, but you're going to hear evidence that 9 many members of the NRA Board did just that. In fact, many
10 of NR -- of Mr. LaPierre's core loyal insiders, board
11 members, for years, sometimes decades, received money from 12 the NRA, and not in small amounts. Several board members
13 received hundreds of thousands of dollars, almost never 14 approved by the board in advance.

15 And you'll hear that under the law and under the 16 NRA's internal controls, those payments were supposed to be 17 reviewed by the board and approved in advance. Why? Why?
18 It's to make sure, you'll hear evidence, that the -- that
19 the NRA was getting value for these payments; that the NRA
20 was getting services or goods that were worth the money it
21 was paying out.

22 And you'll hear that these monies were paid to 23 board members, almost always, without approval or 24 appropriate ratification by the board. For example, Sandy
25 Froman received at least $216,000 from the NRA. David Cain

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

51

1 has been paid over 153,000. The People say, these are
2 illegal related-party transactions.

3 One notable board member, for example, is Marion
4 Hammer. She's a former NRA president and a very, very --
5 you'll hear -- very strong supporter of Mr. LaPierre.
6 Ms. Hammer has received money from the NRA through what the 7 evidence will show is an unnecessarily complex structure --
8 financial structure. She received money under a ten-year
9 contract from the NRA that was paid to her.

10 She also received money through a separate division
11 within the NRA that has a separate financial department; the 12 NRA ILA, I-L-A. It stands for Institute for Legislative 13 Action. It's often referred to as "NAR ILA." She received
14 money from NRA ILA.

15 She also received monies paid by the NRA to her,
16 not her entity called Unified Sportsmen of Florida.

17 All together, Ms. -- excuse me. I'm sorry --
18 Ms. Hammer has received over -- well over -- $3 million from
19 the NRA.

20 In short, you'll hear evidence that people loyal to 21 the entrenched leadership of the NRA were rewarded with 22 money and that LaPierre approved this -- it often came out
23 of his own EVP budget, or PR budget -- and that Mr. Phillips
24 helped make sure they got paid; and that Mr. Frazer --
25 Defendant Frazer -- knew about these payments and usually

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 did little to nothing to stop them. On occasion, he would
 2 present them to the Audit Committee for approval or 3 ratification. The People will show evidence that such
 4 ratifications generally were rubber stamping (simulating) --
 5 belated rubber stamping -- of the arrangements, but these -- 6 these -- these -- these types of arrangements went on for 7 years.

8 And you'll hear Charles Cotton, the former 9 president of the NRA, say that Defendant Frazer should have 10 brought some of these related-party transactions to the 11 Audit Committee sooner.

1 The third method by which the entrenched leadership
2 which that maintained control is to instill a culture of 3 secrecy. And you're going to see evidence, I mentioned some 4 of it already, that Mr. LaPierre didn't put things in 5 writing. That he approved payments verbally. You're going
6 to hear evidence that Mr. Phillips or Mr. LaPierre asked
7 some vendors to keep their invoices vague so they didn't
8 show what they were paying for. Is that in the NRA's best
9 interest or does it serve the interest of Mr. LaPierre, Mr.
10 Phillips and Mr. Frazer.

11 You're going to hear that Mr. LaPierre and 12 Mr. Phillips set up other complex transactions besides the 13 one to Ms. Hammer to hide the amounts of money that were 14 being paid to certain people. We discussed the structure of 15 payments to MMP, one example. But another example is Mr.
16 LaPierre's personal travel agent, Gayle Stanford. Now, the 17 NRA has a travel agency that deals with employees who have
18 to make their reservations through the agency. Mr. LaPierre
19 did not use that agency. Mr. LaPierre used Ms. Stanford.
20 And he would call Ms. Stanford when he needed to make travel 21 arrangements. The testimony will establish he booked his 22 personal and private jet flights solely through her, and 23 that he did -- he maintained the secrecy of the costs of 24 those flights in a number of ways. First, he would, as I
25 said, he would personally call and not e-mail her, leave a

LAS

54

1 paper travel at his request. You'll hear evidence that Ms.
2 Stanford was asked to alter her invoices. To hide who was
3 on the flights. How many people were on the flights. Where
4 the flights went. And you're going to hear evidence that
5 she's asked to split her invoices among different entities,
6 and that she was paid from different entities so that it was 7 very, very hard to track what was being done. So, for 8 example, an invoice might originally be sent by Ms. Stanford
9 that would indicate a stop in the Bahamas. This is one
10 example you'll hear about. This is Plaintiff's Exhibit
11 4745. But by the time it was altered as requested, the 12 Bahamas are left off of that flight invoice.

13 You're going to hear evidence that Mr. LaPierre and 14 Mr. Phillips asked Ms. Stanford to make the invoices to say
15 air transportation. For example, flight details removed.
16 And I know this is a little hard to follow and not
17 interesting, but it's important. Maybe you're not
18 interested, I don't want to say that. I find it
19 interesting. The NRA arranged an unnecessarily complex
20 structure for Ms. Stanford's payments. So, Ms. Stanford, 21 you'll hear evidence, was asked to break her company into 22 two. To form a second company. She was the only employee
23 that operated out of her home.

24 Now she has two names that can be billed for doing
25 the same services, booking luxury travel for Mr. LaPierre

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

55

1 and some of his core group of insiders. She was also
2 directed to send invoices and receive payment from three
3 different sources. Again she was paid from the NRA. Again
4 she was paid from the separate financial division of the NRA
5 ILA. And she also, in an extraordinary thing, was paid
6 through NRA vendor Ackerman McQueen. You'll hear witnesses
7 from Ackerman McQueen. If someone wanted to try to put
8 together how much Mr. LaPierre spent on luxury travel and 9 private jets, they would have to be able to track payments
10 from three sources to two different companies. That's what 11 the evidence will show.

12 The NRA has paid a wide range for this needlessly
13 complex transaction structure. You're going to hear about 14 why that might be and how complex this was and what monies
15 were spent exactly from plaintiff's expert, Eric Hines. But 16 in the end the NRA paid, the evidence will show, NRA paid in 17 excess of $11 million for private flights, limousine or 18 black car services and travel agent fees for Ms. Stanford,
19 for Mr. LaPierre's personal costs from January 2015 through 20 2019 alone or, excuse me, through February 2020 alone. The 21 evidence will show that these were in clear violation of the 22 NRA's internal control. In violation of the NRA's policies.
23 Also Gayle Stamford, for her assistance and help, was paid
24 $500,000 a year by the NRA for services as a travel agent.
25 And she followed the instructions she was given. And she

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

56

1 was loyal to Mr. LaPierre and his friend. And she was
2 reward.

3 You will hear evidence that NRA employees who were
4 part of the entrenched leadership were able to spend money
5 to benefit themselves. They were able to engage in luxury
6 dining, travel, first class travel, sports tickets, that
7 kind of thing without business substantiation. The rules
8 require, as I said, that the NRA, the NRA's internal rules
9 require that business substantiation be provided for any NRA
10 funds that are expended. You'll see time and time again
11 that was not the case. You may hear evidence that years
12 later, after this investigation was commenced, the NRA tried
13 to go back and look at those expenses, but you'll see 14 evidence that millions of dollars went out the door that 15 way.

16 You heard me mention Ackerman McQueen. This is a
17 good example of how NRA executive expenses were paid without 18 review, an invasion of the NRA's internal controls. You'll 19 hear that the -- that certain executives within the NRA,
20 including Mr. LaPierre, including Mr. Phillips, including 21 Tyler Schropp and other people you'll hear testimony from,
22 billed their expenses to Ackerman McQueen. That's a vendor
23 of the NRA. And that Ackerman McQueen billed those back to 24 the NRA on invoices that simply said out-of-pocket expenses.
25 That way it made it difficult or impossible to review what

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

57

1 this money was being spent on. Whether there was a
2 legitimate personal purpose.

3 You will hear, for example, that Ackerman McQueen
4 purchased, spent hundreds of thousands of dollars of 5 clothing on Mr. LaPierre, including from stores like Zegna.
6 I think I said that right. You will hear there was a lack
7 of substantiation for the business purposes of that. Over
8 time you will hear the NRA paid over $4.3 million from 2015
9 to 2019 alone on these out-of-pocket expenses for Ackerman
10 McQueen. So, the evidence will show that this is important.
11 You may think what's the big deal. But this will show
12 millions of dollars of NRA funds, of NRA executives'
13 expenses were paid circumventing NRA's internal controls.
14 NRA knew about it for years and did nothing, nothing to stop
15 him. Mr. Phillips knew it was going on. Mr. LaPierre knew 16 this was going on. This went on over and over. No one was 17 punished for those. When these violations of internal 18 controls were brought to light, Mr. Frazer did nothing. Mr.
19 LaPierre did nothing. This is just another way that Mr.
20 LaPierre and all insiders used spending to reward themselves
21 and maintain control of the NRA.

22 The final method that you'll see that helped cover
23 illegal conduct and maintain control is suppression. You'll 24 hear evidence that Wayne LaPierre and his friends
25 effectively suppressed the voice of anyone who challenges

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

58

1 his leadership or who asked questions that come too close to
2 his control, especially whistleblowers.

3 The NRA does have a whistleblower policy. I
4 mentioned earlier that they didn't have a compliant one.
5 We'll show that for many years. But it does have a
6 whistleblower policy. It requires that people be allowed to 7 come forward when they suspect violations of the NRA's
8 policies or rules or illegal conduct. It also requires that 9 they not be retaliated against, intimidated or harassed.

10 One example of a whistleblower who was violated, we 11 talked about some of them before, I would like to discuss
12 this one in more detail, is Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North.
13 In 2018 Lieutenant Colonel North was a broadcaster on Fox
14 News. He had his own show. The evidence will show that Mr.
15 LaPierre wanted him to become president of the NRA. So, Mr.
16 LaPierre approached him and asked him to do that. And the 17 evidence will show that Mr. -- that Lieutenant Colonel North
18 couldn't take that job or wouldn't take that job if he 19 couldn't get paid and couldn't get health benefits due to 20 family circumstance at the time. That was no problem. The 21 evidence is going to show that Mr. LaPierre, with the help
22 of others within the NRA and vendor Ackerman McQueen
23 arranged a contract for Lieutenant Colonel North in which he 24 would be paid a salary of approximately $2 million and get
25 health insurance. And North was subsequently elected

LAS

OPENING - CONNELL

59

1 president of the NRA.

2 With Mr. Frazer's help in 2018 the -- this
3 contract, which was already in place, was put before the
4 audit committee and ratified. In 2018 the audit committee
5 said this arrangement is fine. There is not a problem with 6 it. It's approved. Lieutenant Colonel North began work at 7 the NRA headquarters. You're going to hear evidence that he
8 showed up at headquarters. Sometimes he brought his dog.
9 He had lunch in the cafeteria sometimes. He asked people
10 how are things going. What's going on here. When he 11 started to raise concerns about some things he was seeing or 12 hearing, you'll hear he got pushback from Mr. LaPierre. He 13 was told that's my job. Your position is ceremonial. Stay
14 in your lane.

15 You're going to hear when he continued to raise
16 concerns, when he put his concerns in writing with other
17 board members, when time and time again he asked about NRA
18 spending, when he asked for investigations, other than one
19 small investigation that they did of one aspect of, which 20 was substantiated, that Lieutenant Colonel North was deemed 21 to be unloyal. That he was accused of staging a coup
22 attempt. And that he was essentially not renominated as 23 board president in 2019.

24 That year, in 2019, a year, less than a year after 25 the audit committee had reviewed his contract with Ackerman

LAS

60

1 McQueen and reviewed the arrangement under which he would
2 get paid by Ackerman McQueen and approved it, Mr. Frazer
3 presented it to the audit committee. And this time -- this
4 time it was determined to be a conflict of interest. What 5 had changed between 2018 and '19? You'll be the judge of
6 that.

7 You'll hear evidence again that other board members
8 who complained or raised concerns about possible illegal
9 conduct within the NRA were accused of having misinformed
10 views. Were accused -- publically called names. Were 11 belittled or intimidated or harassed. That they were 12 stripped of committee assignments.

13 Now, every year the NRA gives out committee
14 assignments the evidence will show. And you may hear some 15 witnesses testify well they just didn't get any committee
16 assignments after they made their whistleblower complaints.
17 But you'll also hear evidence that at least one NRA board
18 member admitted no, they were stripped of their committee
19 assignments, and it was because they complained. They were 20 made examples of. You'll hear from some whistleblowers like
21 Esther Schneider and Judge Journey.

22 Moreover, even more recently you'll hear about
23 Lieutenant Colonel Willes Lee, who was first vice president
24 of the NRA. He was -- he is a current NRA board member.
25 You'll hear that when Lieutenant Colonel Lee began to

LAS

61

1 question the leadership of the NRA, he began making public
2 posts, raising concerns about NRA leadership. He said we
3 need to clean up the NRA. He made other statements about
4 problems with the NRA. He was what he called canceled.
5 Until this past April he was an officer of the NRA. And
6 you'll hear that Lieutenant Colonel North, excuse me,
7 Lieutenant Colonel Lee has since been brought back into the 8 full. That he will say that he, you know, he doesn't 9 remember everything he was concerned about. He may not 10 remember exactly what the nature of some of his complaints
11 were. But you're going to hear about the public posts and 12 you'll hear about the things he said about NRA leadership.
13 You'll hear about him testify as a hostile witness. You'll 14 hear that he was essentially no longer an NRA officer after 15 he raised concerns about the NRA leadership.

16 Another person who is not a whistleblower or
17 important witness you'll hear about and from is Craig Spray.
18 One second. As you heard, Mr. Phillips retired in 2018. In 19 2018 the NRA decided to engage in an actual executive search
20 to look for an actual -- to do an actual formal hiring
21 process for CFO and treasurer. And they found Mr. Spray who 22 had a lot of relevant experience and brought him in. And 23 the evidence is going to show that Mr. Spray started to 24 change things. He started to enforce the internal controls.
25 He started to try and get things in line. But what you're

LAS

62

1 going to hear is that when those changes started to touch
2 upper management in a way that they didn't like, when he
3 said, for example, there are no Wayne set approvals at the 4 NRA anymore, Mr. Spray was shortly thereafter driven out.
5 He refused to form or excuse me he refused to sign or
6 wouldn't sign one of the NRA tax filings. He asked NRA
7 officers and board members to confirm that those filings
8 were accurate. They wouldn't do it. Shortly after you'll 9 hear evidence that he was left out of meetings. That he
10 wasn't getting information. He was not included in the 11 decision in January of 2021 to file for bankruptcy. He was 12 the CFO and treasurer of the NRA, and he was not told that 13 the NRA was going to file for bankruptcy. He learned about 14 it on the day the petition was filed. Two weeks later
15 Mr. Spray received a phone call, the evidence will show,
16 from Mr. LaPierre with someone from human resources on the 17 line, and he was told that the NRA had decided to go in a
18 different way. A different direction. Almost instantly his 19 access no NRA computers, accounts and information was cut
20 off and Mr. Spray was gone.

21 In short, Mr. Spray is an example of what happens
22 to people who tried -- who tried to change things in the NRA
23 the way that touched top management, top leadership, that 24 entrenched leadership in the NRA.

25 I would like to try to wrap things up. I see I'm

LAS

63

1 taking longer than I already wanted to. The evidence will
2 show that for years the NRA, as well as Defendants LaPierre,
3 Frazer and Phillips, failed to properly administer the NRA
4 and its charitable assets. The individual defendants,
5 meaning the three people sued, breached their fiduciary
6 duties to the NRA. They did this in a number of ways,
7 through expenditures, diversion and waste on NRA funds for
8 purposes that did not advance the NRA's interest or mission.
9 Engagement, allowance and enabling of related-party
10 transaction and conflict interest transactions. For 11 purposes like free safaris, luxury travel, fine dining,
12 housing expenses being paid for, furniture.

13 You'll hear that the NRA at some point began to try
14 and look at and make some reform efforts internally, and 15 that in 2018 the NRA audit committee looked at some 16 transactions that were going on with the NRA. We believe
17 the evidence will show the audit committee again just rubber
18 stamped those transactions but retroactively ratified them.
19 The fact that those transactions didn't benefit the NRA, we 20 believe the evidence will show, because a lot of them were 21 stopped at that point. If they were benefiting the NRA, why
22 would you stop them. But in short, the evidence will show
23 that the NRA did not act in compliance with the laws
24 applicable to charities in New York and that the individual
25 defendants used the NRA to benefit themselves, to maintain

LAS

64

1 their jobs and status, their titles. And in regard to
2 Mr. Phillips and Mr. LaPierre in particular, to benefit
3 themselves or to help enable sweetheart deals for favorite
4 vendors. To help get benefits for family members and 5 friends. To get lucrative post employment contracts and 6 that kind of thing.

7 In conclusion I would like to just say Mr.
8 LaPierre, we talked about Mr. LaPierre's retirement. Mr.
9 LaPierre, you'll hear evidence that Mr. LaPierre's conduct
10 violated the law and violated the NRA's internal control for 11 years. That it was not in good faith that he engaged in 12 conflict of interest contractions. That he didn't have the 13 NRA's best interest in mind. That he benefited himself. He 14 operated the NRA that way. He did it with the support of 15 Mr. Phillips, Mr. Frazer and others. He did it with the 16 support of loyal board members. He did it because the NRA
17 allowed it. They allowed this to go on for years. There is 18 no question that the evidence will show that he was never -- 19 the NRA didn't take any steps to stop his conduct of which 20 is well aware.

21 You're going to hear evidence that Mr. LaPierre
22 spent over a hundred million and many, many other millions
23 on sweetheart dealers with other vendors like Ackerman
24 McQueen in violation of the NRA's internal controls. And 25 that these -- these transactions that he approved and

LAS

65

1 payments he approved caused millions and millions of dollars
2 of NRA funds to be paid off for non NRA purposes and are 3 illegal.

4 Now Mr. LaPierre has stepped down, resigned as the 5 NRA's executive vice president. At the end of the case
6 we're going to ask you that you hold him liable for his past
7 illegal conduct. We are also going to ask that you
8 determine that there is cause for Mr. LaPierre's removal.
9 You will hear the Judge say, one of the things you're going
10 to be asked to determine, is whether there is cause for 11 removal of Mr. LaPierre and Mr. Frazer from their positions.
12 And we believe that Mr. LaPierre's voluntary resignation
13 does not mean that that determination shouldn't be made. We 14 ask that you return a verdict against him. That you find
15 him liable. And that you find cause to remove him.

16 Similarly in regard to Mr. Frazer, we're going to 17 prove that Mr. Frazer permitted payments to board members.
18 He engaged those related-party transactions to go on for 19 years. He helped paper over payment transactions. He took 20 no steps when he found out about breaches of fiduciary
21 duties, like the engagement in related-party transactions
22 and conflict of interest transactions within the NRA. He 23 failed to properly administer whistleblower complaints and 24 help retaliate against whistleblowers. We're going to 25 prove, the evidence will prove that Mr. LaPierre --

LAS

1 Mr. Frazer was required to put the NRA's interest above his
2 own and he didn't. Instead he was only loyal to entrench
3 the leadership of the NRA.

67

1 MS. CONNELL: At the end of the case, we will ask
2 that you determine that Mr. Frazer is liable.

3 And also, with regard to Mr. LaPierre and
4 Mr. Frazer and Mr. Phillips, you'll be asked to determine
5 whether they should be called to account for and/or what 6 amount of restitution, if anything, they should make to the 7 NRA and any penalties that Mr. Phillips and Mr. LaPierre
8 should have to pay.

9 We ask that you return a verdict of liable for 10 Mr. Frazer and you determine that there's cause for his 11 removal.

12 In regard to Mr. Phillips, we believe the evidence
13 will overwhelmingly show that he violated New York State
14 law; he engaged in pervasive and routine evasion of the 15 NRA's internal controls; he failed to adhere to his 16 fiduciary duties; that he helped approve payments on verbal
17 authority, in violation of the NRA's procurement policy; he 18 helped arrange hidden payments for -- for example -- for the 19 travel, for the jet travel, in violation of the NRA's
20 transportation and travel policies; that, in short, he 21 engaged in many, many incidents of illegal conduct, violated
22 his fiduciary duties, and failed to properly administer the 23 charitable assets of the NRA. We ask that you find him
24 liable and award restitution against him.

25 You've heard me mention that the NRA, at times,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Connell

68

1 engaged in reform efforts. We believe the evidence will
2 show that these were redaction -- reaction -- reactive,
3 partial measures that didn't address the root problems of 4 the illegal conduct within the NRA. It didn't address why
5 this illegal conduct occurred, how it occurred for so long,
6 who was responsible for that illegal conduct. It didn't get
7 down to the root cause of that illegal conduct.

8 And you will see that, for years, the NRA has
9 operated in violation of New York State law and in violation
10 of its obligations as a charity who accepts donations and 11 membership fees, and we will ask that you hold the NRA
12 liable, as well.

13 Ladies and gentlemen, you've been through a long
14 process of being selected for the jury and for sitting
15 through this opening, and I want to thank you for your time
16 and your kind attention.

17 Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Thank you, counsel.

19 Okay. Members of the jury, we're going to end our 20 day. We're going to reconvene tomorrow at 9:30 in this
21 room. We're going to -- just to give you a heads-up, we're 22 going to have the morning in this room and then we're going
23 to, in the afternoon, continue in what will look like, in 24 comparison, a log cabin, my regular courtroom, which is 25 directly below this and much less fancy, but this room is

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 being used for something. So you don't have to worry about
2 it; we'll take care of all the moving things around. It
3 will be a little less roomy.

4 I would just remind you, which I will probably do
5 almost every day, not to discuss the case amongst
6 yourselves, not to discuss it with others, not to do
7 research, not to look around for anything. Everything you
8 need to do and to hear in this case, you should hear in this 9 room.

10 So, again, thank you very much and I look forward
11 to seeing you tomorrow at 9:30, when we will hear from the 12 defendants.

13 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

14 SECOND COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

15 (The jury left the courtroom.)

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, everyone. We are 17 adjourned for the night. We'll see you tomorrow at 9:30.

18 MR. SHIFFMAN: Thank you, your Honor.

19 (Whereupon, the matter was adjourned to Tuesday,
20 January 9, 2024 at 9:30 a.m.)

Proceedings

72

1 THE COURT: Good morning. Have a seat.

2 Good morning, folks. Just -- I have finished my
3 annotation of the Tedrick transcript, so Mr. Blaustein will 4 convey that to you, I think, by e-mail. It's not very
5 wordy; it's just the words in the column.

6 The only thing I'll say is, I did sustain some of 7 the objections to the counterdesignations. What I want to 8 make clear is, that doesn't mean that they're inadmissible,
9 necessarily, in the state's case-in-chief. The point is, is 10 for counter-designations, to have it all play at the same
11 time during the state's case, it has to be admissible as a
12 counter-designation. So, I didn't want it to be construed
13 as the defendants can't use that testimony. It just means
14 they'd have to introduce it in their case, because it didn't 15 work -- in my view, some of the excerpts didn't relate to 16 the same topics that the AG was advancing it for.

17 I don't know whether there'll be separate
18 objections to it being admitted in the state -- in the 19 defendants' case, but that's not what I was reviewing it
20 for.

21 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, may I ...?

22 I had raised this with the Attorney General's 23 office; we don't really have an answer. One of the, sort
24 of, issues in the case is: They're going to call out
25 witnesses, who it would be helpful and, I think, convenient

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

73

1 for us to, maybe, stray a little bit off of what the scope
2 of the direct is, just so the witness can show up one time,
3 rather than have to call them back for a limited amount of 4 questioning, say, on my case.

5 THE COURT: If there's agreement on that with 6 respect to individuals, to, you know, reduce the hassle to 7 nonparties, that's not unusual to do and that's fine. But,
8 you know, at the same time, I -- I'm not going to force one
9 side to have a case cluttered by the other party's case.
10 But I'll -- I think we should all be accommodating to, at 11 least, nonparty witnesses. So I'll just take those one at a
12 time.

13 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I'd like to raise one
14 matter, quickly. I know you want to get to the jury, but I
15 had objections to the opening statement yesterday that I
16 reserved because I did not want to interrupt the opening.
17 I'm entitled to put those objections on the record, to 18 preserve them.

19 I would -- I've asked the attorney general to give 20 us a copy of the deck that they put on without showing us
21 first, so that I can key the objections to the deck itself,
22 and they have not done so and I would ask that you order
23 them to do so.

24 THE COURT: Is that the objection or do you have 25 another objection?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

74

1 MR. CORRELL: Well, there are many objections to,
2 among other things, putting documents before the jury that
3 were not in evidence and may not come into evidence; and,
4 also, some statements were made that might have no basis in
5 the evidence. So what I wanted is to go through the deck,
6 review it and give you written objections, but not in a way
7 that's going to prevent --

8 THE COURT: I don't -- those kind of objections
9 should be -- I mean, we talked about you taking a look at 10 those before, you know, while I was doing the instructions.
11 Having an objection after it's already happened is not
12 terribly effective.

13 MR. CORRELL: Well, there is authority to the 14 effect that that is the way to do it, so as to avoid 15 interrupting your opposing counsel and --

16 THE COURT: So all you would be seeking is some 17 sort of a corrective instruction?

18 MR. CORRELL: Well, not necessarily a corrective 19 instruction, because sometimes corrective instructions just 20 draw attention to the thing that was objectionable. And 21 what I would do is, after reviewing it and submitting it to 22 you, I would ask for appropriate relief; and I think it may 23 include -- and I hate to say this word, but a mistrial, to 24 the extent that the -- that the objections resulted in 25 prejudice and a bell that cannot be unrung.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

75

1 THE COURT: Well, I will order this: The slides
2 should be shared. And, frankly, I'm a bit surprised that
3 the parties did not have a protocol for sharing
4 demonstratives in advance of them being shown to the jury.
5 That's, in my experience, a fairly common practice and if it
6 had been raised to me, I would have directed it. I just
7 assumed that you all could take care of that, because before
8 anything is shown to the jury, you know, demonstratives,
9 even during examination, I want to have flagged for me any
10 objections before anything is shown to this jury. So I'm 11 surprised that the parties didn't share these things, and I
12 will direct them to do that going forward.

13 So, yes, they should, you know, promptly give you a 14 copy of the slides; I'd like them to. And the same goes for 15 anything you all are going to use in your openings or with 16 any witnesses. I don't want anything shown to the jury
17 unless any objections have been vetted before me.

18 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

19 And to your other point: As a solo practitioner, I
20 was unable to be here, listening to your instructions to the 21 jury and be somewhere else, reviewing exhibits that had not
22 been presented before that, so there just wasn't time to do
23 it.

24 THE COURT: All right. Well, I have -- people have
25 raised this issue before, about potential objections, and I

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

76

1 suggested that a process to do this would be, in the period
2 between now and when the openings began, that that vetting
3 could take place. So I just -- my assumption was that the 4 parties were going to work out a way to do that, but 5 apparently it didn't happen.

6 All right. I think, with that, we'll get the jury.

7 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, a couple of small things.

8 THE COURT: Almost got there.

9 (Laughter.)

10 MS. ROGERS: Before we get the jury, a couple of 11 small notes, one substantive and one logistical:

12 So, with respect to Mr. Powell, I just wanted to be 13 clear on what the parameters are around that, for openings.
14 So Ms. Connell, in her opening, mentioned the settlement;
15 and without transgressing the Rule 408/4547 principle, if
16 Mr. Powell were, for example, a cooperating witness in a
17 criminal case, we would be allowed to impeach him by saying
18 that his testimony is a condition that he bargained with the 19 Government, and I would like to say that. But I don't want
20 to encounter objections or, you know, offend any preference
21 of your Honor, so I wanted to raise that before openings.

22 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, apologies if there are 23 misunderstandings. I tried to clear up some concerns I had 24 about opening yesterday, before the openings. I mentioned
25 that there was a settlement with Mr. Powell. I, of course,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

77

1 have no objection if defendants want to mention that, as
2 well; that there's a settlement. I think discussing whether
3 he's a cooperating witness under a rule or something like
4 that or going further is a little bit --

5 THE COURT: Well, is it your position that the 6 terms of the settlement, which have been publicly filed, are 7 not something that they can talk about?

8 MS. CONNELL: No, your Honor, that's not our
9 position.

10 THE COURT: So they can.

11 MS. CONNELL: They can.

12 THE COURT: I would think so, too.

13 MS. ROGERS: Thank you, your Honor.

14 And the other small item, and I apologize for 15 bothering the court with this: I think the microphone
16 battery (indicating) is dead. So, before I start opening
17 and then no one can hear me ...

18 (Pause.)

19 THE COURT: I hereby order that it be not dead.

20 (Laughter.)

21 MS. ROGERS: I apologize.

22 THE COURT: One logistical note for the audience:

23 This afternoon, as you know, or as I've said
24 before, we're going to have the session in Room 208, which 25 is a very small room. We, I believe, are going to have a

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

78

1 different overflow room for folks who can't fit into 208,
2 and I hope to find out from our IT folks -- well, I will
3 find out from them -- ah. I have found out from the IT
4 folks. The overflow room is going to be 232. So, if you
5 can't fit in 208, which I will tell you in advance, you --
6 most people probably won't be able to, because just with the 7 lawyers and the jurors, there's not that many seats left.
8 So 232 will be the overflow room.

9 While we're at it: I think 412 is going to be the 10 overflow room on Thursday, although -- yeah, the same
11 issues, because Thursday's also going to be in 208.

12 I think that's all for my logistical things.

13 Are they working on your mic?

14 MS. ROGERS: I think there's a battery coming.

15 (Pause.)

16 THE COURT: You want to test it?

17 MS. ROGERS: Yes.

18 Hello.

19 Sounds good.

20 THE COURT: Yeah.

21 All right, let's get the jury, please.

22 Are you using slides, as well?

23 MS. ROGERS: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Have those been shared?

25 MS. ROGERS: No.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

79

1 THE COURT: All right. They should be, now,
2 anyway. Let's see how it goes. Again, I do appreciate not
3 having objections during, but vetting in advance would be a
4 much better practice.

5 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we've been trying to 6 agree to a protocol --

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

8 MS. CONNELL: We've been trying to agree to a
9 protocol. It's -- whatever. We'll work it out.

10 THE COURT: If you'd asked me, I would have given
11 you the protocol, which is what every other lawyer has ever
12 done in every other case I've ever had. So ...

13 MS. CONNELL: I agree, your Honor.

14 MS. EISENBERG: Your Honor, since they now have 15 ours, could we please have theirs?

16 THE COURT: I already ordered them to give them to
17 you.

18 MS. EISENBERG: Okay.

19 MS. CONNELL: We'll do it as soon as we can.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. Do it electronically, and I'm 21 sure there are people listening who can make that happen.

22 COURT OFFICER: Is the court ready for the jury?

23 (The Court nodded.)

24 COURT OFFICER: Jury entering.

25 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Rogers

80

1 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Please have a
2 seat.

3 You all passed the first test, which is coming
4 back.

5 (Laughter.)

6 THE COURT: Thank you for that.

7 Okay. We're going to proceed with opening
8 arguments, and who is going first is the Defendant NRA.
9 Counsel, you may approach and proceed.

10 Oh, wait. Let him pass them (indicating) their 11 books.

12 (Court officer distributed notebooks to jurors.)

13 MS. ROGERS: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

14 My name is Sarah Rogers and I'm one of the lawyers
15 who has the privilege of representing Defendant The National 16 Rifle Association of America in this case. I'm joined, and 17 will be joined, at trial by my colleague Svetlana Eisenberg
18 (indicating), as well as Bill Brewer and Noah Peters, who 19 may or may not be -- Bill Brewer (indicating), who is with 20 us today, and my colleague Noah Peters, who will be with us
21 later today.

22 THE COURT: Can everybody hear?

23 MS. ROGERS: Is it a little lower?

24 I'll try and be a little louder and if anyone can't
25 hear me, please let me know, because I'm going to talk long

1 enough and you don't want me to repeat myself.

2 In addition to my colleagues, I am joined by Kim
3 Rhode.

4 I would ask Ms. Rhode to please stand for a moment.

5 (Ms. Rhode stood.)

6 MS. ROGERS: So, in addition to meeting me and my 7 colleagues over the next six weeks, you will be meeting the 8 NRA. Ms. Rhode is a six-time Olympic medalist in 9 competitive shooting, and she is one of dozens of unpaid
10 volunteers who give their time and their expertise and their 11 dedication to the NRA, to its governance and to its 12 policies. Ms. Rhode is one of 76 directors elected annually
13 by the NRA's members, and you'll meet others at this trial.

14 Thank you, Ms. Rhode.

15 (Ms. Rhode was seated.)

16 MS. ROGERS: The NRA is the largest and probably 17 the most successful constitutional rights advocacy group
18 ever to exist. Some people love the NRA and some people
19 hate the NRA, but those people actually have common ground;
20 they love the NRA and they hate the NRA for the same reason,
21 which is: the NRA is successful at its mission.

22 We've all heard of scam charities, outfits that 23 pretend to research cancer or help animals but do none of 24 that, and instead, siphon money into someone's pockets for 25 the sake of corruption and private inurement.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

82

1 Now, we have some disagreements with the
2 Government, that everyone in this courtroom should be able
3 to agree that the NRA is not a scam charity. It's good when 4 the Government goes after that kind of fraud. But whether
5 you agree or disagree with the NRA's mission, there should 6 be no dispute that the NRA delivers on that mission. That 7 is why everyone in this courtroom (indicating) knows the 8 NRA's name.

9 And now we get to the distinction that the 10 Government wants to blur and hopes you will forget, but 11 don't forget it, because this distinction drives the entire 12 case:

13 The attorney general has sued four separate
14 defendants, and I represent the NRA (indicating), not any of 15 its past employees or even its current employees. The NRA
16 is not Josh Powell, grayed out there (indicating) in the 17 corner.

18 Some of you, during jury selection, heard
19 Mr. Powell's name and the Court instructed you, and the 20 Government admitted yesterday, that after Mr. Powell was a
21 defendant in this lawsuit until Friday night, the Friday
22 night before a Monday trial, when the Government let him off
23 the hook in a settlement. You will learn that his 24 testimony, as part of their (indicating) case, is a
25 condition of that bargain, and you will evaluate how

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Rogers

83

1 credible a witness Mr. Powell may or may not be.

2 Now, just so that you know, the NRA fired Josh
3 Powell for expense fraud.

4 The NRA is not Woody Phillips, in the lower
5 right-hand corner there (indicating). Mr. Phillips has been
6 gone from the NRA for years. He had a trailing
7 post-employment consulting agreement, which the NRA cut off
8 five years ago.

9 The NRA is not its general counsel, John Frazer, in 10 the green circle there (indicating). He's the only
11 individual defendant who is both a current and a future
12 officer at the NRA. The NRA trusts Mr. Frazer; we rely on 13 him; we think he does a good job, but the NRA and Mr. Frazer
14 are distinct defendants for a reason.

15 Now, the Government cannot prove, and doesn't even 16 try to allege, that Mr. Frazer took a penny for himself,
17 that he was corrupt, that he stole, that he has a yacht or a
18 plane somewhere. Instead, the allegations against the NRA's
19 lawyer (indicating) boil down to an accusation that he 20 signed some forms which contained inaccuracies. And you
21 will have to consider whether those inaccuracies, first of 22 all, were there or whether the forms were true; second, if 23 there were inaccuracies, whether they were big or small;
24 third, whether Mr. Frazer knew or should have known about 25 them; and fourth and most importantly to my client,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Rogers

84

1 whether -- if Mr. Frazer did make an oversight signing a
2 form -- whether his employer, my client, the NRA, is at
3 fault.

4 Now, the NRA also is not Wayne LaPierre, its
5 longtime CEO who resigned recently, or announced his 6 resignation. The truth you will learn about Mr. LaPierre
7 during this trial is that he has been a valuable and 8 visionary leader of this association and the gun rights
9 cause in America, but he was not always a meticulous
10 corporate executive.

11 You will learn that Mr. LaPierre received gifts,
12 which didn't cost the NRA money but did confer benefits on 13 him; that he should have reported those gifts and did it
14 several years later, after he should have reported them; you
15 will learn that Mr. LaPierre benefited from expenses, which 16 he repaid to the NRA with interest; and you will learn from 17 the NRA board of directors, people like Ms. Rhode, why they 18 chose to allow Wayne to repay those funds with interest
19 instead of firing him or suing him in the manner of someone 20 like Mr. Powell. You will learn from the NRA Board why the 21 NRA continues to honor the legacy of this (indicating) man,
22 but the NRA is not this man.

23 So, if I were sitting where you were sitting, if I
24 were a juror in this case, I would think: "Wait a minute.
25 I'm going to be asked to decide if the NRA did anything

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Rogers

85

1 wrong and if the NRA is separate, is distinct from its
2 executives" -- and it is; it's sued separately, separate
3 lawyers, separate defendants -- "then what human person do I
4 look at when I'm trying to figure out if the NRA did
5 something wrong?" Well, I'm showing you and telling you
6 now, because the NRA has millions of members and its 76
7 volunteer directors like Ms. Rhode and their specialized
8 committees that exercise the corporate authority of the NRA
9 in New York.

10 All right. This is the first time in my career
11 that I've opened a trial with a PowerPoint slide on what my 12 client and the other client agree on. Usually, when people
13 are fighting in court, it's because they disagree. But the 14 attorney general and the NRA actually agree on a few
15 important things:

16 We agree that there were some past violations of 17 NRA policies, some failures to adhere to the rules that 18 Ms. Rhode and the other directors set; we agree, and this
19 was highlighted in Ms. Connell's presentation yesterday,
20 that these violations were repeatedly concealed from, and 21 unapproved by, the NRA Board; and we both agree, and the 22 evidence will show, that numerous wrongdoers, like their 23 witness Josh Powell, were fired or gone from the NRA.
24 These are three important facts and they're not disputed.

25 In real life, if you're a bit petty and lawyerly

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

86

1 like me, you might wish that there was somebody in the room
2 writing down every word that everyone said and you could go
3 back and nitpick and analyze it later. Well, court is a
4 unique social and professional environment because we have
5 exactly that feature: we have our court reporter here
6 (indicating). And so, I took the liberty of extracting from 7 the transcript some statements that the Government made
8 yesterday to you in its opening statement.

9 We learned that the payments the New York Attorney
10 General is suing over were, in many instances, "not 11 approved" by the NRA board. We heard that the relationships
12 with vendors were, quote, hidden and lied about. We heard
13 the allegation that Mr. LaPierre didn't bother to check with 14 the board before incurring expenses, and that those expenses
15 were almost always without approval or ratification by the 16 board (indicating). We learned that some of the 17 transactions they are challenging are "complex" and hid the 18 amount of money that were paying paid to certain people.
19 And we even learned that some executives asked some vendors
20 to keep their invoices vague so they didn't show what the 21 NRA was paying for.

22 All right. So, now we know facts that we agree and 23 that they have stated verbatim on this record. Let's talk
24 about why those facts matter and what issues you should keep 25 your eye on as the evidence comes in and the trial unfolds:

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Rogers

87

1 One core issue in this litigation: We know some
2 past violations happened, but did the NRA Board -- did
3 people like Ms. Rhode -- condone them, permit them,
4 willfully close their eyes or were they, in fact, the 5 victims of this misconduct?

6 You're going to look at the board's business
7 judgment. Why did the NRA do what it did? Think about that 8 question as the evidence rolls in.

9 And the third issue -- this is an allegation in 10 this case -- persistent violations. Regardless of whether 11 some rules were broken in the past, has the NRA allowed
12 those violations to persist or has it cleaned up its act?

13 All right. What you did not hear much about from 14 Ms. Connell yesterday is the NRA today; you'll be hearing
15 about that from our witnesses. You will be hearing that the 16 NRA's instituted strict compliance protocols; that the 17 board, which always made good rules of the road, has newer
18 and tighter mechanisms to ensure its executives follow those 19 rules. You will learn that best practices and 20 state-of-the-art controls have been implemented in-house,
21 and you will learn about steps being taken to ensure that 22 expenditures by people who serve the NRA, those go to 23 support the mission that people like Ms. Rhode chart for the
24 NRA.

25 All right. Remember, arguments, like what you're

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 hearing from me now and what you heard from the Government
 2 yesterday, aren't evidence. Testimony and documents are
 3 evidence, and here is a preview of what that real evidence
 4 is going to show:

5 So, the real evidence will not show that my client,
 6 the NRA, "assented" -- that was a word used yesterday -- or 7 ignored, or blinded itself to the offenses being committed
 8 against it. You will see the opposite. The facts will show
 9 that this volunteer board of directors -- Olympic athletes,
 10 police officers, accountants, lawyers and others who serve
 11 on this board -- that they relied, responsibly, on some top
 12 outside professionals, like auditors and accounting firms,
 13 to tell them what was going on and what they should be doing
 14 and that when problems surfaced, those problems were 15 corrected.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 It is complete fiction that the NRA spends
2 charitable dollars on private jets and yachts as the 3 government insinuated. Those two expenditures were 4 prominent in the presentation yesterday. The truth is that
5 the flights, the evidence will show, were either business
6 related or for ones like Ms. Connell highlighted, when
7 family members were on the plane and it wasn't business
8 related or paid to the NRA with interest. The yacht trips
9 you heard about cost the NRA, its members and its donors
10 zero. Nothing.

11 All right. So what does the NRA board do when it
12 discovers imperfections, deviations and betrayals by those 13 who are trusted. Well, these aren't the only two forms of 14 remediation you'll hear about at trial, but they are two key
15 ones and they correspond to some of the evidence that was 16 previewed for you yesterday. So, if money actually leaves
17 the NRA's hands, if a vendor puts down a credit card to pick 18 up an expense for an executive, the NRA you'll hear over and 19 over again, demanded repayment or received repayment of that 20 money with interest if it was in the past. Often those 21 vendors were fired. Some of them were sued. And in other
22 instances, like these yacht trips, where the NRA didn't 23 spend a dollar of its own money, but there could still be an 24 improper conflict of interest, what the NRA did was it put 25 up walls and guardrails to ensure those conflicts of

LAS

1 interest wouldn't affect how the assets are spent. So, for
2 example, if Mr. Smith let's you use his yacht in the summer,
3 and Mr. Smith has a contract with your company, the yacht
4 might be free, but there would be a suspicion that you're 5 giving Mr. Smith favorable contract terms because he's such 6 a good, generous magnanimous friend. To prevent that from 7 happening is they make a rule. They call it a wall. If 8 you're the one on the yacht, you can't be the one who
9 decides what Mr. Smith is paid.

10 Now yesterday you heard from the government and the 11 evidence will show that these yacht trips were hidden from 12 the board or not disclosed to the board until 2021. And in 13 2021, when the board found out about them, Mr. LaPierre was 14 walled off from determining the contractual terms of that
15 relationship.

16 All right. So here's some key factual issues to 17 pay attention to. Did violations happen, we talked about 18 that one, which the board approved or permitted. Did the 19 board vote to approve it or did the board hear about it and 20 willfully close its eyes. The evidence will show not only
21 that that isn't true, but it is the opposite of the truth.

22 Second key issue, business judgment. What they
23 considered. Were they willfully blind to red flags. No.
24 The evidence will show the opposite. That a reasonable
25 person sitting in Ms. Rhode's shoes or her colleague's shoes

LAS

1 with the same information and the same assurances from the
2 same accountants and the same professionals would have done
3 something in the range of the same thing you will be able to 4 find.

5 All right. As you hear the evidence, pay attention
6 to whether the NRA board acted reasonably. Whether it
7 showed good nature and was trying to do what was best for 8 the association. Pay attention to whom they relied on and 9 trusted. Executives and vendors defied and betrayed the 10 board for personal benefit. They hurt the NRA to benefit
11 themselves. Ask yourself, in response to that, what the 12 board knew and what did the board do.

13 So let's talk about this board. Seventy-six
14 volunteers. They serve three year terms. They are elected
15 by millions of grassroots members across the country. There
16 are officers of the board who are also elected, and then
17 there are salaried officers like Mr. LaPierre, like 18 Mr. Frazer and formally Mr. Powell, who are more like
19 employees than directors. So, the directors are big picture
20 stewards who meet a few times a year, more if they are on 21 certain committees. And they choose the policies and chart
22 the course of the NRA. And then they hire full-time
23 employees to execute, to actually fill out the spreadsheets
24 and run the organization data.

25 All right. You heard a word from Ms. Connell

LAS

1 yesterday several times and that word was entrenched. See,
2 the government has to prove a case not just against some
3 individuals, most of whom no longer work at the NRA, but 4 against the NRA itself, against the NRA board. So the
5 government suggests that the board is entrenched, but it's a
6 group of decades long serving insiders who benefited from 7 deals and given benefits to each other and they control
8 everything and they can't be dislodged. That is not only
9 not true, that is the opposite of the truth.

10 Ms. Connell showed you a slide yesterday with 24
11 pictures on it of 24 people who serve on the board. She had 12 them in little circular dots. I'll show you some dots soon
13 too. And highlighted that some of them served for 27 years.
14 First of all, 27 years of service to the NRA is not a mark
15 of corruption. Even if it were, even if all of those 24
16 board members were corrupt in some way, even if they all
17 voted the same way on every issue, they would have no
18 control of the NRA, because there are 76 directors not 24.

19 Now you might be wondering why I am showing you a 20 slide of the composition of the board in 1997. It's because 21 some of the first evidence you're going to hear at trial
22 from the Attorney General is going to be dredged up from the 23 1990s. That is when Mr. LaPierre first came into power. So
24 their allegation is that Mr. LaPierre controls the board or 25 they are all his cronies.

LAS

1 This is what the board looked like when Mr.
2 LaPierre began his tenure. I'm going to ask my colleague to
3 press the button now. So those initial board members are 4 the green dots. That's the 1990s. And you'll see what
5 happens when there are constant elections in which millions
6 of nationwide gun owners and NRA members vote. The new
7 class is represented by the yellow dots, that's 2007.
8 Purple dots coming in, fresh directors, 2017. And just 9 remember blue is new. This is a new board. So the idea
10 that we're dealing with an entrenched circle of insiders who 11 always run everything the same way and always will is not
12 only not true, it is the opposite of the truth.

13 All right. Remember I told you look for persistent
14 violations. That's what they allege and that is not what 15 you will find. The reason you're going to be hearing about 16 the 1990s is that these allegations are old and cold.

17 Okay. So, what is the NRA actually doing with its 18 money if it's not spending it on luxury yachts. Well, the 19 NRA's mission has been largely the same since 1871, when it
20 was formed in the State of New York by former officers of 21 the Northern Union Army after the Civil War. They noticed
22 that the confederate shouldered shoot better than the 23 northerns and wanted to fix the problem. That's why it
24 makes its home in New York. The NRA promotes public safety
25 and education. It trains people in shooting and hunting

LAS

1 safety and protects and defends the Second Amendment.

2 All right. Now, we heard yesterday some vocabulary
3 words about charities and assets and 501(c)(3)s and
4 501(c)(4)s. So there are some technicalities I don't want
5 to linger on too long but they are important.

6 So, the NRA like a lot of big not-for-profit
7 organizations have several affiliates. Some of them are 8 charities under federal tax law and some of them aren't. My 9 client, The National Rifle Association of America, the 10 nonprofit corporation, incorporated in New York, is a
11 501(c)(4), but it has affiliated entities that are charities
12 for federal tax purposes. The Wittington Center is a
13 conservation and shooting sports center. The NRA Freedom
14 Action Foundation does get out to vote and public education
15 about the Second Amendment. The NRA foundation also funds a
16 variety of shooting education. And the NRA Civil Rights
17 Defense Fund helps people who can't afford to go to court to 18 defend their rights in this area do so. You'll hear about 19 that in a minute.

20 Now the government can't show and won't even bother
21 to allege that charitable dollars, those that are tax
22 deductible, that go to those federal 501(c)(3) charities
23 aren't misspent at all. The NRA has very careful controls
24 in place the evidence will show to ensure if you claim a tax
25 deduction when you donate to the NRA, if you donate to one

LAS

1 of these charities, that money is not getting spent on any
2 of what you heard about yesterday. It is getting spent in
3 support of that charitable mission.

4 Let's talk about the charitable mission. Gun
5 education and safety programs are one of the NRA's
6 initiatives. There is a program called End Illegal that's 7 been around since the 1980s to teach kids if you find a gun,
8 you should stop, don't touch, runaway and tell a grownup.

9 The NRA Civil Rights Defense Fund provides
10 litigation funding for people who can't afford their own
11 lawyers but have important constitutional cases. The one
12 that's on the screen right now is a favorite of mine,
13 because I personally worked on it. Ka Mauri Harrison was a
14 fourth grade boy in Louisiana who was kicked out of public
15 school for having a BB gun sitting against the wall of his 16 bedroom during a Zoom class. So, the NRA teamed up with the 17 ACLU, which we do occasionally, to fight for this boy, and 18 we obtained a very favorable outcome. That's the kind of 19 thing that the NRA's charitable dollars go to.

20 All right. NRA is also a leader in firearms
21 education and safety. We have 125,000 certified
22 instructors. The NRA trains police officers on how to use
23 guns safely and responsibly to avoid tragedies. The NRA has 24 a variety of women's programs, women's self defense, women's 25 shooting sports. Competitive shooting programs like the

LAS

1 ones that Ms. Rhode is so decorated in is also an initiative
2 of the NRA. Hunting conservation is important to NRA. Lots
3 of NRA hunters want the animals they harvest to be eaten and
4 not wasted. So, NRA Hunters for the Hungry is a program
5 where a hunter shoots a deer, for example. He can give that 6 meat to poor people instead of letting it go to waste.

7 The NRA has dozens of clubs and associations across
8 the country. It's not just in New York. These are all NRA
9 affiliates. The NRA is one of the oldest and largest
10 nonprofits in this country with millions of members, more
11 than other recognizable organizations you may have seen.
12 And the NRA, the corporation, my client has 358 employees in 13 11 divisions. These people aren't riding on yachts. They 14 are doing the hard, ordinary work of running this
15 organization.

16 All right. So I told you the board creates good
17 rules and good frameworks to ensure that the NRA's assets
18 are treated appropriately. Let's talk about what those are.
19 The NRA has a set of bylaws that's hundreds of years old and 20 constantly amended and updated. Yesterday you saw the 21 government put some documents on the screen that were copies
22 of NRA policies. If you pay attention, you'll notice they 23 can't really find much wrong with the NRA's policies. The 24 board sets good rules. It's just that some individuals
25 deviated from those rules. That's what the facts in this

LAS

1 case will show.

2 All right. The evidence will show that the NRA's
3 board approved policies, fulfilled its obligations. The 4 board paid attention to what it was suppose to be doing,
5 people acting on its behalf were suppose to be doing and set
6 the right rules of the road.

7 All right. You heard yesterday about the audit
8 committee, which is a very important committee under New 9 York law and at the NRA. The audit committee attends to 10 internal controls. The audit committee is a place where 11 whistleblowers can go to speak out and have. The audit
12 committee liaises with the outside auditors who are 13 independent accountants hired by the NRA to come in and look
14 at its books and make sure that column A matches column B.
15 Make sure there is not obvious financial fraud or diversion.
16 The audit committee works with them. And the audit
17 committee reviews the NRA's audited financial statements.

18 The NRA has an employee handbook that every employ
19 has to sign. The NRA fired Josh Powell. The fact that he 20 signed the employee handbook and didn't abide by it was part
21 of that vignette you'll hear.

22 All right. The NRA's compliance score card is 23 strong. The evidence in this case will show you that the 24 NRA terminated insiders, whether they are vendors or 25 employees who took advantage. The NRA didn't fire every

LAS

1 single person every time. Sometimes somebody had retired a
2 few years ago and then the imperfections were discovered. A
3 review was done. You can't fire the guy when he's already 4 gone. But the NRA fired a lot of people and a lot of
5 vendors.

6 The NRA instituted compliance seminars for the 7 employees, including the senior ones were required to 8 attend. And an anonymous hotline so that whistleblowers can
9 report issues without revealing their identity. The NRA
10 hired a compliance manager who eventually will be a 11 compliance officer who reported directly to the board. The 12 NRA increased its documentation of its scrutiny of 13 related-party transactions, which we'll talk about more.
14 The NRA bought knew financial reporting software to make 15 sure that all of its financial were handled efficiently and 16 clearly and accurately and easily. And the NRA analyzed
17 potential transactions, like the ones that the government
18 was complaining about and many instances was repaid with 19 interest.

20 Okay. So let's take a closer look at the claims in 21 this case. As I told you, there are four individual
22 defendants. Only one of them, Mr. Frazer, works at the NRA
23 and will work at the NRA by the time this case is over. Mr.
24 LaPierre has resigned. Mr. Powell and Mr. Phillips are long
25 gone. Good riddens.

LAS

1 All right. Now this is an unusual lawsuit. If
2 you've been on a jury before, the plaintiff will often ask
3 you to award damages paid by the defendant. He hit me with 4 his car. I have $10,000 in medical bills. He should give 5 me $10,000. That's not this case. Any damages you award in 6 this case will be paid to the NRA, to my client. That's one
7 of the factor that makes this case unusual is the government
8 acknowledges that my client is the victim of the misconduct
9 it complains about.

10 All right. Let's talk about what they seek to 11 prove. So, they talked yesterday about breach of fiduciary
12 duty. They don't allege that on the part of the board of 13 directors. On the part of the NRA. The government seeks to 14 prove improper administration and diminution of property
15 held for charitable purposes. That is a mouthful.
16 Essentially that the NRA does not steward its assets,
17 especially the charitable assets properly.

18 So, some facts you will hear that are relevant to 19 that allegation. Some important facts start to crystalize
20 in 2018. In the summer of 2018 several employees came 21 forward under the NRA's whistleblower policy. Some under 22 the policy and some not, but several employees in the 23 accounting department came forward to the audit committee,
24 which exists in part for this purpose, and raised concerns
25 about financial irregularities, including regarding big

LAS

1 vendors, like Ackerman, McQueen, the advertising agency you
2 heard about yesterday.

3 So, in response the NRA acted quickly. That audit
4 committee meeting where the whistleblowers appeared was in 5 July, the very end of July. By September the NRA sent
6 hundreds of letters to its vendors. Now the vendors that 7 were identified by these whistleblowers, that were of 8 central concern, they got audited. One of them got sued.
9 One of them got fired. That was a major conflict. But even 10 vendors that raised less concern, vendors where we didn't 11 know for sure anything was wrong received these strict 12 letters saying from now on you need to improve your 13 documentation of invoices you submit. And if you don't want
14 to do that, you're not going to be an NRA vendor anymore.
15 Vendors either complied with this protocol or were fired.

16 If you ever worked at a big company with lots of 17 vendors, vendors that give you photocopy paper, vendors that 18 service your cafeteria, vendors that do your advertising,
19 your media, you know it is disruptive to fire dozens or 20 hundreds of them. The NRA did that because whistleblowers
21 told it that vendor relationships and payments to vendors
22 were a vector through which money might be misused.

23 All right. The plaintiff also alleges improper
24 related-party transactions. And as the government
25 explained, a related-party transaction is a subset, a

LAS

1 technical subset of a type of transaction between someone
2 who has power of the nonprofit or affiliate. When you're 3 getting money from the nonprofit that you work for or your
4 family member is essentially.

5 So, what they don't tell you but what you'll be 6 instructed at the close of this case and should remember as 7 you hear evidence is not every transaction with a related 8 party is one that's regulated by the statute or one that the 9 government will have anything to say about or can state a
10 claim over. So, it's true though that some of these did
11 happen and the board did not know about them and that's an 12 impetus of their allegations. The board, Ms. Rhode, her
13 colleagues didn't know, didn't approve. But there are only 14 a few of these that actually fit the criteria of the 15 Attorney General's claim.

16 So, the transaction with an insider with a related
17 party is completely okay under the law if it's quote unquote
18 "de minimus". Now lawyers use a lot of French and Latin for 19 reasons that were probably clearer to us hundreds of years
20 ago. De minimus means small enough not to matter. So, if 21 the NRA sends a $5 Christmas trinket to everyone including 22 an insider, that is not something the government can or 23 should sue over. A transaction occurring in the ordinary
24 course of business is not a related-party transaction. It
25 can't be something you would do every day. It has to be a

LAS

1 special one off transaction and a transaction that benefits
2 a big glass of beneficiaries. Hunters, for example, or gun
3 owners does not become a related-party transaction just 4 because some of your related parties are gun owners and get
5 that benefit. For example, if the NRA subsidizes and 6 promotes shooting safety classes and someone who is an
7 insider runs a shooting safety class and receives that 8 benefit, that is not a party-related transaction you'll be
9 instructed under New York law.

10 All right. I told you we had a board of 76
11 volunteers who give their time for free and get nothing.
12 And the government responds that board members, some of them
13 used to have contracts with the NRA and one of them still 14 does. That's true. Seventy-six board members, one -- one
15 has a contract with the NRA. You will hear evidence that 16 that person is an extremely impactful, I think this is 17 undisputed, effective gun rights activities who is advancing
18 the NRA's mission. Remember, the government admitted to you
19 yesterday it doesn't matter if you agree or disagree with 20 the NRA's mission. It's obligation as a charity nonprofit
21 is to spend its money in furtherance of that mission. You
22 will learn that hiring an effective gun party's activist to 23 promote gun rates serves that mission.

24 Okay. The NRA also is accused of retaliating
25 against whistleblowers. This is not only not true, it's the

LAS

1 opposite of the truth and it's offensive, because the truth
2 is that the NRA protected and promoted whistleblowers and
3 its ranks. Now the whistleblowers you heard about
4 yesterday, Oliver North, who you might have heard of from 5 the 1980s, along with a couple of other NRA directors who 6 didn't get on the committees they wanted, were some of the 7 most powerful people in that corporate organizational chart.
8 They were on the board. They were not salaried employees
9 who feared being fired by their bosses. They were NRA board
10 members who were upset that they didn't get enough votes to 11 get re-elected or they weren't picked for the assignments
12 they wanted.

13 All right. This is the NRA whistleblower policy
14 and it's important, because it protects you if you are on 15 the board but it also protects you if you are an employee.
16 You heard about Craig Spray. The government admits that 17 Craig Spray was a good CFO. Craig Spray left the NRA in 18 2021, after having a massive heart attack and being unable 19 to work from the office during COVID. You will learn that 20 Mr. LaPierre made the decision to end Mr. Sprays'
21 employment, but he does not consider himself to have been 22 retaliated against. He is proud of his work for the NRA.
23 He thought there was no fraud in the organization. That he 24 credits the NRA's board and Mr. LaPierre for protecting him
25 and supporting him as he implemented change.

LAS

1 You will learn about what has sometimes been called
2 a 360 degree review process. The NRA commenced prominently
3 featuring its audit committee in 2017, 2018 and years
4 thereafter. So, you heard these whistleblowers came 5 forward, the accounting staff to the audit committee in the 6 summer of 2018. You heard vendor abuses were reported and 7 suspected. There were also concerns over employee expenses
8 that lead the NRA to turn over a lot of rocks and piss off a
9 lot of people and fire some of them and some of this even 10 ended in litigation. But what you will learn is throughout
11 this process whistleblowers who came forward were rewarded.

12 Okay. Here's one of those whistleblowers. Sandra
13 Froman used to be a mid level accountant in the NRA's
14 financial services division. She blew the whistle in the 15 summer of 2018 on vendors and others who had more power than 16 she did. And the NRA protected her and it supported her and 17 today she's sitting in the same chair her former boss,
18 Wilson Phillips once occupied. She's the highest ranking
19 financial officer at the NRA. You will learn that she is 20 not the only employee who came forward with concerns and was 21 protected and rewarded for it.

22 All right. Finally the NRA is accused of false
23 regulatory findings. I put false in quotes here because our 24 contention will be and the evidence will show that some of 25 these alleged false filings weren't even false. These are

LAS

1 tax returns that are hundreds of pages long, and in some
2 instances if there is a transaction, for example, a board
3 member, it has to be reported in two different places and
4 there are instances in which the transaction, the dollar
5 amount were listed but a corresponding box was not checked
6 on a separate page of the form.

7 Now, in order to prevail on their claim they don't 8 just have to show that these filings were false, but that
9 the inaccuracies were material. That means that within a
10 total mix of information you would consider, if you were a
11 donor or a regulator looking at that form, seeing that box
12 checked or not would have to influence how you would behave.
13 Our contention will be if you don't see the box checked but 14 you do see a disclosure two pages later that a board member
15 received $2,000, that you wouldn't behave in a way that is 16 state on not thinking anyone got $2,000. It doesn't make 17 sense. These are inconsistencies not lies.

18 All right. As I told you earlier, I'm one of 19 several fine lawyers representing the NRA. And you could 20 have heard from any one of them today. I asked to 21 personally address you because like some of you, I grew up
22 in the New York City area. And I never owned a gun. And I
23 never thought I needed one. And before working on this case
24 I didn't really agree with the NRA on the Second Amendment.
25 Then one night walking home I was attacked by --

LAS

1 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

2 MS. ROGERS: This is just a concluding remark.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MS. ROGERS: Yeah. I was attacked by two men in
5 the dark. And it didn't matter that I had taken a kick
6 boxing class at the gym. It didn't help. Not everyone
7 whose been the victim of a crime or who has concerns for 8 personal safety chooses to own a gun for self defense. In 9 fact statistically depending upon your specific situation it
10 might not even make you safer. Training is important.
11 These are all things that should form your choice. But 12 that's the point. It's your choice. In America the power,
13 the responsibility, the choice to own a firearm does not 14 just belong to the king or the militia or the cops. In 15 America it's yours. That's what my client's mission means
16 to me and to some of the directors you will meet.

17 Now there can be no question that some individuals,
18 some executives, an advertising agency, a travel agent
19 betrayed that mission. Betrayed people like Ms. Rhode. The 20 only question or at least one question is why the NRA, the 21 victim of that betrayal is a defendant in this case. You'll 22 be answering some really important questions at the end of 23 this trial in this, one of the most important and exciting
24 rooms in the city, in the society, because court is an
25 exquisite, special bubble we've created. Where life is fair

LAS

1 or at least it's suppose to be. Having the facts on your
2 side is more important than having power. And where what is
3 fair and what is true is more important than who and whom.

4 My client and I are so grateful that you're
5 participating in this process with us. We're so grateful
6 for the six weeks of your time that you're about to give.
7 Listen to the evidence. Hold them to the burden of proof
8 that is theirs alone. And I hope that you will agree at the 9 end of the trial that regardless of the verdict you render
10 as to each of the individuals, there is simply no support
11 here for a verdict against the NRA. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, may we have a short break
3 before I begin? I'm not sure how long I'm going to be 4 going.

5 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

6 MR. CORRELL: I'd ask for a short break before I
7 begin my opening.

8 THE COURT: Is that for preparation or do you need
9 to -- people need to use the facilities, or what is this 10 for?

11 MR. CORRELL: I'm not sure how long I'm going to be 12 continuing and I just don't want the jury to be 13 uncomfortable during a long opening.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 So we'll take our morning break. Hopefully, we'll 16 try to keep it short, but you guys can step out.

17 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

18 (The jury left the courtroom.)

19 THE COURT: Okay. Procedurally, generally, to keep 20 things moving, I generally take one mid-morning break. So
21 doing it now means we'll probably -- for this day, may have 22 to do two. So we'll develop a rhythm as we go, but it's 23 normally going to be around eleven o'clock that we take a
24 mid-morning break. But I understand your point: that if 25 you're going to go past that point, you don't want to do

1 that. But once we're into the normal course of the trial,
2 that's the way I'll probably regulate it.

3 All right? Thank you.

4 (Recess.)

5 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

6 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

7 THE COURT: Okay. Be seated.

8 Okay. Now we'll hear from counsel for
9 Mr. LaPierre.

10 MR. CORRELL: Good morning. My name is Kent
11 Correll and I represent Wayne LaPierre.

12 You've heard a lot about Mr. LaPierre. You're 13 going to meet Mr. LaPierre later in this trial. He's going 14 to take the stand, he's going to be asked questions, and 15 he's going to answer those to the best of his ability.
16 You're going to learn what he knew and when he knew it, what 17 he did and why he did it, who he relied upon and why he 18 relied upon them, and how he viewed his duty to the NRA.

19 The question -- main question -- with respect to 20 Mr. LaPierre is: Did he do his duty to this organization?
21 And I submit to you that, after you've heard all the 22 evidence and all the witnesses, you will conclude that he 23 did; that he served it well and honorably and honestly for 24 44 years, until his health made it impossible for him to 25 continue. And you'll be hearing about that at trial, too:

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

110

1 how he held on for as long as he could before he was
2 ultimately told by his doctors that he had to stop.

3 He was born in New York; I guess, which makes him a
4 New Yorker. He was born in Schenectady. And at the age of 5 five he moved to Roanoke, Virginia, which is where he grew
6 up. But he came back to New York for college, Siena
7 College; Loudonville; upstate, near Albany. In college he
8 worked at GE, which is where his father worked. His father
9 was proud to have his son working there and he was proud
10 that his father was working there. He saw nothing wrong
11 with working for a company that his father worked for. He 12 thought it was great; the company thought it was great. He 13 unloaded banana boats from Albany; dusty, hard work. So he 14 learned the work ethic early on, and he learned to work with 15 people from all walks of life.

16 In college, he didn't study business
17 administration, business or accounting. He wasn't
18 interested in making money. He was fascinating with 19 politics, political science. He thought he was going to 20 become a professor; he wanted to become a professor of 21 political science. He was a scholar; he was bookish; he was 22 shy; he was a devout Catholic, and he -- which is why he 23 went to Siena College, which was a college founded by the 24 Franciscans. He went to Boston College, a Catholic school
25 in Boston, for a master's in government and politics; and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

111

1 after he finished, he applied for acceptance into a Ph.D.
2 program and was accepted and he did the coursework.

3 But something happened along the way: He was 4 working in Washington as a consultant, building on the 5 experience he had gained as an intern working in Albany for 6 two African-American state senators who were members of the 7 Democratic Party; and in working in that office, which was a
8 small office shared by these two state senators, he came to 9 meet some of the leaders of the civil rights movement:
10 Julian Bond, Vernon Jordan, Roy Innis. And he became 11 friends with Roy Innis, who had founded the Congress of 12 Racial Equality, which was one of the leading civil rights
13 organizations in the '60s and still exists today, and they 14 became friends, and fast-forward: Roy Innis ended up being 15 on the board of directors of the NRA through this
16 relationship.

17 And meeting Roy Innis and working with Roy Innis in 18 the civil right area made him realize more strongly
19 something he already knew, which was that politics is about 20 relationships and it's about people; it's about caring about 21 people and trying to help them. And that's what he wanted
22 to do. He wanted to study it; he wanted to understand it.

23 And then, when he got to Washington on a
24 consulting -- with a consulting job, he heard that this 25 group called the NRA was looking for someone to work with

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

112

1 Democrats. He was on the Hill and he walked over; they
2 liked him; he liked them. Next thing he knew, he was -- I
3 believe it was -- state and local liaison for the NRA,
4 working in the northeast; New York and other states, which
5 was a tough area to work, because while you have hunters
6 upstate, you don't have a lot of hunters who live in or 7 around New York City. And so, that was his route or, you
8 know, his territory.

9 He did so well in that job that he was asked to 10 step up to the federal level, which he did, and he really
11 enjoyed it.

12 Then, in 1991, the executive vice president
13 position came open and that was the top position;
14 essentially, the CEO of the organization, or it's equivalent
15 to the executive director of a not-for-profit, and they 16 asked if he would take the job. He did not want it; he 17 didn't want the job. He was happy doing what he was doing;
18 he enjoyed being out there, meeting people in the field,
19 talking to legislators. That's what he had done. That's 20 what he had grown up doing as a college student.

21 But there was no one else to take the job, so he
22 tried to get other people to take it. He tried to get a
23 Congressman from Michigan to take it, who wouldn't. He 24 tried to get a -- I think he was a Secretary of the Navy to 25 take it. No one would take it. He stepped into the job,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

113

1 and that was in 1991, and he became the head of the NRA.

2 Over time, he was asked to do -- well, his duty as
3 executive vice president of the NRA is described in the 4 bylaws as the duty being to direct all the affairs of the
5 association in accordance with the programs and policies
6 established by the board of directors. So that was the 7 technical/legal description of his duties.

8 But he saw his duties as getting out, meeting with 9 people, listening to people, understanding what their views
10 were on guns and gun policy and gun legislation and 11 enforcement of existing laws; and also hearing what they
12 thought about candidates, people who would be in a position
13 to influence gun policy, as to what they thought about legal 14 issues, what the law should be on guns, because you have a
15 Second Amendment and it says that the right of the people to 16 keep and bear arms shall not be infringed. The question is:
17 What does that mean? How is it applied? How do we reach a
18 consensus as a nation on what our policy should be? Should 19 it be federal? Should it be state by state? Should it be 20 local? These were the political-science issues that he was 21 dealing with, the policy issues that he was dealing with.

22 But then his role began to expand because people
23 said, "Well, you've got to go on TV and talk." And this is 24 something he had never done before, so he had to be trained
25 by people who knew how to do that. They wanted him to go on

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

114

1 TV and debate; they wanted him to make speeches. And so he,
2 over time, grew into a different person, someone who could
3 stand on a stage, in front of an audience who loved him or 4 in front of an audience who hated him or in front of an
5 audience that was mixed, and speak for the millions of 6 Americans who entrusted him to speak for them.

7 Tough job, really tough job; involves a lot of 8 travel, because in order to stay in touch with your 9 constituency, you've got to be like a politician. You've 10 got to travel a lot. You've got to travel to small places.

11 I was joking with Wayne -- and people call him
12 "Wayne"; they don't call him "Mr. LaPierre." No one calls
13 him "Mr. LaPierre." I was talking to Wayne and I said: --

14 It's like the Hank Snow song; you know, "I've Been 15 Everywhere." It was covered by Johnny Cash; "I've Been 16 Everywhere."

17 -- "if you took a map of the United States and you
18 went through and put a pin in every little town and city
19 that you've been in, what would it look like?" And he just 20 looked down and kind of smiled. There would be a pin in 21 pretty much everyplace in the United States.

22 He traveled a lot because he viewed his duty as 23 being with people, from the highest to the lowest, if there
24 is any such thing as low; but from the humblest to the 25 grandest, from -- from Grand Rapids to the Oval Office. And

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

115

1 he knew every President; he was in the Oval Office a lot.

2 He was friends with Sarah Brady, something people
3 don't know. He worked with her to try to get to a place,
4 after her husband was shot, to -- on gun policy in this
5 country.

6 This is who Wayne LaPierre is. It's not a story
7 you heard -- you hear -- told very often, because there are 8 people who write about him; they have an agenda and they 9 want to paint him as someone other than the person he is.
10 And so does -- so does Letitia James. So does Ms. Connell
11 (indicating). They want to paint him as a person he -- 12 that's not him, because they want to put these facts in 13 front of you and then ask you to imagine from these facts
14 that he is not an honest person, that he wasn't acting
15 honestly, with sincere intention to do what he thought was 16 in the best interests of the NRA.

17 This case is going to unfold over the course of six
18 weeks. We're going to spend a lot of time together, and I
19 don't want to bore you today or -- because there are other
20 people (indicating) who have to speak.

21 But I just wanted to touch on a couple things,
22 because it's easy to throw up a picture of a yacht and say,
23 "Oh, my gosh, this guy accepted an invitation to stay on a
24 yacht and therefore, you should hate him or you should be
25 suspicious of him, because anyone who goes on a yacht is a

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

116

1 bad person." Well, I don't know where that comes from,
2 because if someone invited me to go on a yacht, I would
3 probably go. I have been invited.

4 Mark Messier invited me to come on his boat and I
5 was --

6 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

7 MR. CORRELL: It's a personal story.

8 And the fact is that when Mr. LaPierre was invited
9 to go on someone's yacht or to -- even to use a man's yacht
10 when he wasn't using it, he didn't think of this as a gift
11 and something he needed to disclose; he thought of it as a
12 nice invitation and he went.

13 Now, Ms. Connell has done a good job of conflating
14 three very different things. She puts up the picture of 15 yachts and says, "He used these yachts." We've all heard of 16 Davos and we've all heard of the Aspen Institute and places
17 like this, where people come together to talk about things.
18 Well, there was something called the Celebrity Retreat in 19 the Bahamas every year for a while, where David McKenzie and 20 his wife, Laura McKenzie, who were personalities in 21 Hollywood, would invite people to come together and network,
22 basically schmooze, and they invited Wayne to come.

23 And one of the things Wayne wanted to do was to try 24 to make relationships with people so that he could talk to 25 them about this issue and enlist their support for the NRA,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

117

1 because he knew -- he was smart -- he understood that people
2 respect celebrities, rightly in some cases, wrongly in other
3 cases, and he wanted to make sure that he developed
4 relationships with people who were in a position to 5 influence public opinion in a positive way about the NRA and
6 the issues, so that we could have a -- he could have a
7 lively and fair debate. He went to these celebrity retreats
8 for that purpose.

9 He sometimes traveled with David McKenzie on his 10 boat -- and, yes, it was a nice boat -- with the purpose of 11 advancing the interests of the NRA by being introduced to 12 people who were in a position to speak for the NRA or to 13 come on the board of the NRA, and he had some amazing
14 successes: people like Roger Moore, who were planning to 15 speak on behalf of the U.N. against gun rights, and he
16 persuaded him that that wasn't the right thing to do.

17 This is a -- those of you who don't know who Roger 18 Moore is, he played James Bond in the movies and the --
19 preventing a situation where James Bond would be speaking 20 out against law-abiding ownership of firearms was obviously 21 a thing that was in the interest of the NRA to do, and he 22 did it.

23 Montel Williams was a naval officer with the U.S.
24 Naval Academy. Wayne developed a relationship with him,
25 through the McKenzies, through this process of spending time

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

118

1 with the McKenzies on their boat, with fancy people, and
2 just talking to them about who the NRA really is and what
3 they're really doing and trying to accomplish.

4 Vitally necessary to the NRA is to prevent the
5 Hollywood community from just being absolutely, 100 percent
6 against the NRA.

7 So this was part of his sense of duty: to be out on 8 the road, meeting with people from rubber-chicken dinners in 9 Nebraska or Iowa, to fancy dinners in LA or D.C. He was 10 doing it all.

11 Flights: The one thing Ms. Connell didn't tell you
12 about is security. Mr. LaPierre gets a lot of threats;
13 death threats. It's almost constant. He was told: "You
14 must fly private" at one point. "You cannot fly commercial.
15 We can't protect you, and it would be -- we couldn't protect 16 the people around you. You must fly private. Whether it's 17 for business or whether it's personal, you must fly
18 private."

19 And before that, depending on the threat levels
20 (simulating), there were times when he had to fly private 21 because he just couldn't get there commercially: The 22 President called, said, "You've got to be -- I want you in 23 my office tomorrow morning at 10:00 a.m." He's in Nevada.
24 He can't get a flight. He's got to charter a flight.

25 He had authority, as the head of this organization,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

119

1 to decide how he flew and to decide how other people flew.
2 The main policy, the written policy, was, fly as cheap as
3 you can. But, we understand, there are circumstances where 4 if you have a medical problem or you need to travel first
5 class or you need to -- you need to travel charter, you do.

6 At one point, they had a guy named Charlton Heston,
7 who many of you probably don't know, but he was a -- he was,
8 like, the Leo DiCaprio of Hollywood back in -- a long time
9 ago. But he was a hunter and -- and a shooter and he wanted
10 to speak up for gun rights because he was afraid that they 11 were being attacked and infringed, that they were going to 12 lose them, and he stepped up and became the president of the 13 NRA, and he traveled and when he had -- when he traveled, he 14 traveled private because, I guess, if you're Charlton
15 Heston, that's the way you like to travel. But, also, once
16 he stood up and started speaking up, he started getting 17 death threats, as well. So there were considerations there,
18 as well.

19 So this is all part of the story that hasn't been 20 told. When you -- when Mr. LaPierre comes before you, he'll 21 tell the story, and he'll tell it from personal experience.
22 He was there. He -- he -- he knows exactly what the 23 circumstances were and he knows exactly why he did what he 24 did and what his thinking was.

25 And was his thinking always exactly right? No. Is

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

120

1 perfection the standard for administration of -- or
2 management -- of a not-for-profit? No. I think the Judge
3 will tell you, it's not perfection; it's something different
4 than that.

5 And I'll tell you what it is, because it's in the 6 statute that says, an officer of a not-for-profit
7 corporation shall discharge the duties of his position in 8 good faith and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in 9 a like position would exercise under similar circumstances.
10 So it puts the duty in the hands of the officer, the trust
11 to act in good faith, honestly and with good intention to 12 advance the interest of their employer, of the organization.
13 And he has, and the members have rewarded him every year by 14 reelecting him for -- I think it's 44 years -- well, he was 15 there for 44 years; he's been EVP for 31 or 32.

16 So the members were looking at what he was doing;
17 they were looking at what they were getting. They know
18 Wayne because he shakes every hand at every dinner. He 19 doesn't even eat. He waits until he goes back to the hotel,
20 because he can't sit and eat at these dinners; he has to 21 shake everyone's hand. That's his job. That's where he 22 delivers the most value.

23 Spending time with people of means who are in a
24 position to help the NRA in the way that some billionaires
25 help other organizations that they like, it's prospecting;

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

121

1 it's -- it's trying to find people not only who will speak
2 for the NRA, but who will help the NRA advance their 3 mission.

4 He saw his duty as broader than sitting in an
5 office in a -- at headquarters, reviewing contracts and 6 invoices. He had people that he knew and trusted and he
7 believed to be reliable and competent who were doing that,
8 and the information he was getting from them was, "All's
9 well." The night watchman was ringing the bell and saying,
10 "All is well." The outside auditors would come in and they
11 looked at everything and Wayne would ask Woody Phillips, you
12 know, "How did it go?" and he'd say: "Great. No problems.
13 All is well."

14 Wayne is not an accountant; he didn't study
15 accountant -- accountancy or accounting. He studied
16 political science. And that was his main function, to be 17 the face and voice of the organization. He's not a lawyer.
18 He didn't study the law. He's more interested in reading
19 proposed legislation, I think, and seeing whether he thinks
20 it's good or bad for America than in, you know, figuring
21 out -- than reading contracts. He is a policy person. He 22 reads the Constitution. He reads legislation. That's what 23 he does. That's his focus. That's what he's good at and 24 that's where he tried to put his efforts.

25 You heard about "Zegna," and Ms. Connell, you know,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

122

1 talked about Zegna. Zegna is a fan -- it's a store that
2 sells expensive clothing. Wayne will tell you a story.
3 He'll tell you that the head of the advertising agency that
4 organized all these public appearances and magazine covers
5 and shoots and TV shows and speeches and debates had a
6 concept of how he should present himself, how he should
7 appear, and that Angus McQueen, the head of the organization
8 Ackerman McQueen, said: "Go to Zegna. They'll lay out some 9 suits for you. Pick the ones that you like. But you have 10 to wear the suits and the ties that I tell you you have to 11 wear when you appear." So he did, and he wore those suits
12 and he appeared and he did this job.

13 Twenty years later, the attorney general
14 (indicating) is complaining about these suits -- he kept the 15 suits because they were tailored for him; he kept the 16 suits -- and that he didn't pay for the suits, and that the 17 allegation was that the -- that he -- the NRA had paid for 18 the suits.

19 But there was testimony in this litigation, from 20 someone who worked for Ackerman McQueen, that that wasn't
21 true; that Ackerman McQueen paid for the suits. The person
22 who was doing the production at the advertising agency paid
23 for the suits. It was later determined that, no, there were 24 some documents that showed that the NRA did pay for some,
25 that some invoices were sent. What did Wayne do? He said:

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

123

1 "How much is it? I'll write a check to cover that. And, by
2 the way, we should probably calculate interest so that the
3 NRA is not out of pocket a penny," for suits that his ad
4 people told him he had to wear for these appearances and 5 that he wore and kept without any understanding that, under 6 any tax rules, it would be treated as compensation to him
7 and that he would have to reimburse the organization for it.

8 So, sorry to bore you with this, but the fact is 9 that there's a lot here that hasn't been said, that will be
10 said and that as we go through the next six weeks of trial,
11 it's going to unfold like the peel of an onion, and at the 12 end of the day, you will get to the truth of the matter.

13 And the thing I would ask you to do, which is the 14 thing that the Judge (indicating) has already asked you to 15 do, is to reserve judgment until you've heard all the facts.
16 I'm not asking you to form an opinion as to my client right
17 now; I'm asking you to wait till you meet him. And -- but 18 then to set aside any preconceptions you might have had 19 about him based on what you've read, things that are written 20 by people who don't know him, who've never met him and who 21 may have an agenda to say something bad about him.

22 It's easy to accuse someone of something; it's hard
23 for someone who's accused of something to defend themselves,
24 because in defending yourself, you have to repeat the 25 accusation and in repeating the accusation, it gives that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Correll

124

1 accusation some sort of elevated status. But the fact is,
2 as we now know too well, a lot of people in this country are
3 throwing a lot of accusations at each other that are just 4 not true, and it's coming from both sides; it's mud-throwing
5 from every quarter. And that's happening -- it happened a
6 little bit on Ms. Connell's opening.

7 And I just urge you to ignore the mud and look to 8 the facts, and at the end of this process, think about the 9 relationships that Wayne LaPierre has built with various 10 people in various positions all over this country, that has 11 empowered this organization to the point where there are 12 people that thought they needed to attack it in order to 13 take it down (simulating).

14 So, thank you for your time. Sorry. I feel like I
15 went a little longer than I thought I would -- I was going
16 to go -- but thank you for your attention and I look forward
17 to addressing you again after you've seen all the evidence
18 and you've heard all the witnesses.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, counsel.

20 Next is counsel for Mr. Phillips.

21 MR. FARBER: Yes.

22 Do I need the lapel (indicating), your Honor?

23 THE COURT: Relinquish the lapel, please.

24 (Laughter.)

25 (Pause.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Farber

125

1 MR. FARBER: May I proceed?

2 THE COURT: Yes, please.

3 MR. FARBER: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

4 My name, again, is Seth Farber and together with my 5 colleagues who are seated at counsel table (indicating),
6 Mark Werbner and Lisa Coutu, it's our privilege to represent
7 Defendant Wilson Phillips.

8 Wilson Phillips, who goes by "Woody" Phillips, is 9 75 years old. He's seated right there (indicating), in the 10 blue suit, blue tie, in the corner over there (indicating).
11 He devoted more than 25 years of his life to working for the 12 NRA. Everything he did in that job he did for the good of 13 that organization and for that mission that both Ms. Connell
14 and Ms. Rogers (indicating) talked to you about earlier. He 15 never used his position to line his own pocket; he never hid 16 anything from his boss, Mr. LaPierre; and he never concealed
17 anything from the NRA's board of directors, either.

18 Now, that's not to say that Mr. Phillips always did
19 his job perfectly; none of us are perfect. But the evidence
20 is going to show you that he never intentionally did
21 anything to harm the NRA.

22 In her opening, Ms. Connell talked to you about the 23 NRA's policies and procedures and she even showed you,
24 quickly, a slide of that book and said, "There will be 25 evidence that Mr. Phillips did not comply with them." Well,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Farber

126

1 ladies and gentlemen, this (indicating) is a copy of the
2 NRA's policies and procedures, the policy manual from 2015,
3 when he was still its treasurer and CFO. As I said, you --
4 you may remember, you saw a picture of it the other day;
5 it's 220 pages long.

6 And, yes, there will be evidence during this trial
7 that over the course of his 25-plus years in that role, some
8 of the transactions that Mr. Phillips approved were not done
9 in a way that complied with the letter of each of these 10 (indicating) hundred-or-so policies. But the evidence will 11 also show that in each of those instances, he was trying to 12 do what was best for the NRA, and although he may not have
13 dotted every I or crossed every T, he never intentionally
14 evaded any policies or any controls.

15 What you're going to see instead is that
16 Mr. Phillips always acted in good faith; that he built a
17 well-qualified team of accounting, financial, administrative 18 personnel reporting to him; and that he relied on those team
19 members, as well as the NRA's well-qualified outside
20 auditors, as he needed to do in order to do his job.

21 And during the 25 years that Mr. Phillips was at 22 the NRA, the organization thrived; it grew enormously, and 23 it grew enormously by whatever metric you want to use:
24 membership, revenue, assets, programming, the types of 25 programming that Ms. Rogers described for you, the training

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Farber

127

1 programs, the education programs; and, whether one agrees
2 with its position or not, it grew in political influence.

3 I'll speak a little more about all of that in a few
4 minutes, but first I'd like to take a minute to tell you a
5 little bit about Mr. Phillips himself, because he's one of 6 the individuals who's a defendant here, in front of you.

7 Woody Phillips was born in 1948 in Raleigh, North
8 Carolina; went to college nearby, at Wake Forest University,
9 studied accounting and graduated with an accounting degree
10 in 1970. And after he graduated, he passed an exam to 11 become a Certified Public Accountant, what's called a "CPA"
12 -- and you've heard reference to the CPA's again in 13 Ms. Rogers' opening -- and he started working for one of the 14 major, prominent accounting firms, which in those days was 15 known as Pricewaterhouse. And Mr. Phillips worked for 16 Pricewaterhouse for several years before leaving to go work
17 in the corporate sector, and he continued working in that 18 sector until about 1991, when he saw an ad in the newspaper
19 for a job, and that job turned out to be the position of CFO
20 and treasurer at the NRA. Mr. Phillips interviewed for that 21 position, got the job, and he started working at the NRA as 22 its treasurer in approximately 1992 and shortly thereafter,
23 he got the formal title of CFO, too.

24 Now, before that, Mr. Phillips had no background
25 with the NRA; he had no background with it before he started

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Farber

128

1 working there, did not know Mr. LaPierre before he started
2 working there. He had not even been a member of the NRA.
3 But he threw himself into that job from the start.

4 As I said a moment ago, the NRA was very different
5 in 1991 and 1992 than it was when he retired in 2018. It
6 was much smaller; it was much less active. But in the years
7 that Mr. Phillips worked there, membership more than 8 doubled; its revenues increased almost fivefold; its assets
9 almost tripled; its net assets, which were only about $3
10 million when he started, grew to be more than $140 million;
11 and planned giving, which means gifts that donors plan to 12 donate to the NRA at their death, through either their wills
13 or their trusts, went from zero to $300 million.

14 Mr. Phillips was instrumental in that role. The 15 NRA's planned-giving and affinity programs developed under 16 him. He recruited and built a team of professionals that 17 was key to that growth. He put CPA's and other 18 well-qualified financial professionals in positions of 19 responsibility under him. Those 56 people who Ms. Rogers
20 mentioned were in the Financial Services Division under 21 Sonya Rowling, that was a division that Mr. Phillips built
22 himself, basically, from scratch with those CPA's, with 23 those professionals. He needed that team, he delegated to 24 that team and he relied on that team, because he had a wide
25 range of responsibilities that grew as the NRA grew over

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Farber

129

1 time.

2 Being treasurer and CFO did not mean that
3 Mr. Phillips' job was simply, himself, personally, to keep
4 the books and monitor expenses. He had much broader 5 responsibilities than that, including budgeting, financial
6 growth, reporting to, and coordinating with, the NRA's
7 board, its Audit Committee and its Financial Services
8 Committee.

9 Now, Ms. Connell did not mention much of any of 10 this evidence to you, but these facts are important; and so
11 you can understand why they're important, I'd like to take a 12 few minutes talking about the three specific causes of 13 action against Mr. Phillips in this case.

14 And part of the reason for talking about the 15 specific causes of action against Mr. Phillips is that it's 16 important for you to remember that although Ms. Connell
17 spoke a lot about what the "the defendants" -- all the 18 defendants -- did, you have to, as Ms. Rogers pointed out,
19 consider the evidence and the charges as to each of them
20 individually. That's particularly important as to 21 Mr. Phillips because, as I mentioned earlier, he retired in 22 2018, more than five years ago. When many of the events
23 that Ms. Connell talked about, including the NRA's
24 bankruptcy, the alleged retaliation against 25 whistleblowers -- when many of those things occurred, he was

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 no longer even at the NRA.

2 So what are the claims against Mr. Phillips?

3 First, he's charged with breaching his fiduciary duty to the 4 NRA under New York's Not-For-Profit Corporation Law.

5 Second, he's charged with failing to properly
6 administer the NRA's charitable assets.

7 And third and finally, he's charged with entering
8 into what the attorney general contends is an illegal
9 related-party transaction with the NRA. And what is the 10 transaction? He's charged with doing that by entering into
11 a contract, an arm's-length, with the NRA to perform
12 consulting services for it after he retired.

OPENING - FARBER

131

1 You're going to see the evidence the evidence isn't
2 going to support any of these charges. First, as I
3 mentioned, Mr. Phillips never breached his fiduciary duty to 4 the NRA. To the contrary he always acted in good faith to 5 promote what he quite reasonably thought was in the best
6 interest of the NRA.

7 Second, Mr. Phillips not only properly administered
8 the NRA's charitable assets when he was treasurer and CFO,
9 that's the test, he oversaw their enormous growth enabling
10 the NRA to become a far larger, far more successful
11 organization than it was when he started.

12 Now, yes, it's true that certain NRA members such 13 as Ackerman, McQueen, you heard a little bit about before,
14 provided invoices to the NRA for expenses that they incurred
15 without detail or without background, but there was nothing
16 unusual or nefarious about that. During the 25 years that 17 Mr. Phillips worked at the NRA, Ackerman was a proven,
18 trusted and vital partner to the NRA. He worked -- They 19 worked hand in hand with the organization on strategy,
20 public relations, marketing and messaging. Mr. LaPierre
21 talked about one aspect of that in terms of the public
22 relations efforts that Ackerman, McQueen directed for Mr.
23 LaPierre. They were a partner. It worked hand in glove
24 with the NRA on the public relations messages and often
25 incurred expenses for NRA employees in doing so. Ackerman

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

132

1 retained the backup for these expenses. And you will hear
2 that the NRA had the ability to and did periodically audit
3 those expenses to confirm their validity. You'll also hear
4 that there was good reason for the NRA in some circumstances
5 to have its vendors keep the backup for those expenses and 6 to limit the detail in their invoices. That was done not
7 because of a desire for secrecy. Not to keep information
8 from the NRA's board or auditors. But out of a desire for 9 confidentiality and to minimize the chance of leaks to the 10 outside world. And why was that necessary? Why was that 11 important? Well, as you've heard, the NRA's political 12 positions are controversial and to say the least they are 13 strongly opposed. And you also heard from most recently
14 from Mr. Correll that unfortunately some of that opposition
15 has resulted in real and serious security risks for Mr.
16 LaPierre. And as a large organization that was the subject
17 of intense media scrutiny, leaks of Mr. LaPierre's travel
18 plans or other sensitive information were a real and 19 legitimate concern.

20 Now finally let me talk about the last charge
21 against Mr. Phillips. The contention is he was contracted 22 to work as a consultant for the NRA after he retired was 23 improper related-party transaction. Ladies and gentlemen,
24 you will see that contract wasn't some retirement benefit
25 that Mr. Phillips bestowed upon himself. He didn't cause

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

133

1 the NRA to enter into this agreement. He negotiated that
2 contract with the NRA at arm's length. And the NRA wanted
3 to be able to call upon Mr. Phillips' 25 years of knowledge
4 and experience with the NRA after he retired. And two of 5 the most senior members, two of the most senior members of 6 the NRA's board of directors, two of the most senior
7 officials of the NRA, its then president Pete Brownell and 8 one of its vice presidents, Caroline Meadows, signed that 9 contract on the NRA's behalf. At the NRA the president and 10 the vice presidents, they are part of the board. They are 11 elected by the board to serve in those roles. So, that 12 contract was not only executed by the NRA, it was fully 13 known. In fact, approved by the two senior most members of 14 the NRA's board of directors.

15 Now, you will hear that Mr. Phillips' successor,
16 Craig Spray, decided not to take advantage of Mr. Phillips'
17 availability of that contract, and he elected not to call
18 upon Mr. Phillips after he retired. That was Mr. Spray's
19 decision. That doesn't affect the validity of the contract
20 that Mr. Phillips had negotiated with the NRA before he left
21 one bit. Again, Mr. Brownell, the then president,
22 Ms. Meadows, the then vice president, they decided it was 23 in the NRA's best interest to sign Mr. Phillips to that 24 contract. And you'll see that Mr. Phillips noted his 25 obligations under it by being available to the NRA whenever

LAS

134

1 it needed.

2 Now, you don't have to and you shouldn't take my
3 word for any of this. Shortly, it's been a long wait,
4 you'll start to see and hear the evidence in this case. And
5 I'm asking you the same thing that Mr. Correll asked, was 6 that you keep an open mind until you do. But when that
7 evidence comes in, you'll see the relevant documents,
8 including this 200 plus page policy manual that I showed you
9 earlier. You'll see Mr. Phillips' post-retirement
10 consulting agreement with President Brownell's signature and 11 Vice President Meadows' signatures on them. And most 12 importantly, you'll hear from the witnesses from that 13 witness stand. Those are the people who will provide
14 evidence.

15 Mr. Phillips will be one of those witnesses
16 (gesturing). He will testify truthfully. He'll give you
17 his best recollection about everything that he's asked. But 18 there are a few things about Mr. Phillips I should mention
19 and you should bear in mind as you listen to his testimony.

20 First, as I said earlier, Mr. Phillips is now
21 75 years old. He retired from the NRA in 2018, more than 22 five years ago. A few years before he retired in 2013
23 Mr. Phillips was in a very serious bicycle accident and was 24 hospitalized for a number of weeks. He went back to work,
25 at the NRA, after he got out of the hospital. And although

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

135

1 he did not notice any mental decline at the time, in recent
2 months he's begun to experience memory problems. And you
3 may see as a result of that when he testifies, that he loses
4 a train of thought, can't follow a question or cannot recall
5 something. His doctors --

6 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 MR. FARBER: His doctors have diagnosed his
9 condition as hydrocephalus or water on the brain. It may
10 relate back to the bike accident. It may simply be a
11 product of aging. Regardless of the cause, you'll likely 12 see the effect on Mr. Phillips when he testifies.

13 Please give Mr. Phillips the same consideration and 14 respect that you give to all witnesses in this case. I
15 think if you do that, when we get to the end of this trial,
16 you'll see that the evidence shows that none of these
17 charges against him have any merit. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Counsel, Mr. Fleming, you'll have to 19 switch your mike, counsel, for Mr. Frazer.

20 MR. FLEMING: Good morning. Can you all hear me
21 okay? My name is William Fleming, and I represent John 22 Frazer. And I would like to thank each of you for your 23 time, for your attention to this really critically important
24 matter for John and his family.

25 We recognize the request, the extraordinary request

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

136

1 we made of you to be here for this period of time, and I can
2 tell you we deeply appreciate it. But I'll enter a
3 prediction for you. I will bet that what you first think of 4 or first thought of as a very inconvenient imposition on 5 you, you will come to think of as an important event in your
6 life. So, thank you.

7 John, can you stand up. (Gesturing). This is John
8 Frazer. John is the general counsel and secretary of the 9 NRA, and as you heard from Ms. Rogers, today a current 10 employee and officer. And like you, John is here today for 11 the remainder of this trial, away from his normal routines.
12 He is away from home. He's fighting claims against him made
13 by a very determined group of adversaries on the other side,
14 who are requesting that you remove him from his job and 15 livelihood and that you take away every penny that he's ever
16 made at the NRA since 2015 at a minimum.

17 I'm going to speak to you about three things.
18 John's background. I'm going to tell you about him
19 personally. And then I'm going to tell you about the 20 charges and why they are so unfair in this case.

21 Now, first I'm going to tell you that this case can
22 be summed up in two words, and as Mr. Farber already talked
23 about it, I think the other defendants also talked about it,
24 this is a case about good faith. In particular, it's the 25 good faith of John Frazer, whose done nothing but show up

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

137

1 for his job and do his duty and served the organization he
2 has served, which you'll hear about, for nearly 30 years.
3 He's done it selflessly and absolutely to the best of his
4 ability you may find. In the end, you may agree this is all
5 you can ask from anybody.

6 Now, a court in this case, very common, but in a
7 civil case, John will be called as the plaintiff's witness
8 and he will give testimony with them examining him. I won't
9 get a chance to call John until very late in the case,
10 probably in February, and I would just ask you please to 11 withhold judgment and wait. Give us a chance to have that 12 opportunity.

13 There will also be periods where you don't hear
14 from me. I will probably go last always. And I can't cover
15 everything in this opening statement, and there is a lot to 16 cover. So, please wait for me and us.

17 There may be times I don't ask questions. I'm sure
18 you'll be happy about that. But at the end I will make a
19 full presentation. So, please withhold judgment.

20 So, John's background, like some of you I assume,
21 John is a native New Yorker. He grew up in this very 22 neighborhood. In fact, as a child he caught the bus on the 23 south corner of this very courthouse to go to school
24 (pointing). He went to college in Maine, and 30 years ago
25 as a young man he took a job at The National Rifle

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

1 Association in Virginia, where he now lives with his wife
2 and two children, two young children. He has spent his
3 formative life there. He was married while there. The NRA
4 sent him to law school while he was there. And he had his
5 children while there. And it's been a career and a life for 6 him. He drives to work each day to the headquarters. There
7 you may find he deals with the day's problems and he goes
8 home like all of us.

9 Now after starting there in 1993 he received a
10 series of promotions over 20 years. He excelled at the NRA.
11 Before he was a lawyer you will hear he worked on laws. He 12 analyzed legislation. He wrote legislation. He wasn't a
13 lawyer but he did legal work. In fact, he did so well that 14 his boss said, you know, we think you have skills. You do
15 it better than anyone who is a lawyer here anyway. We want
16 to send you to law school. So, they did. And while he went 17 to law school at night, he worked at the NRA during the day.
18 For some of you who have had to work two jobs you know how 19 grueling that can be. That's his loyalty to the
20 organization.

21 After he graduated from law school, he spent the 22 last five years or five years after that working as a lawyer
23 at the NRA. And then in 2013, after 20 years there, he 24 decided to leave the NRA and he went into the private 25 practice of law.

139

1 Now, what you will hear is that 18 months after he
2 left, a year and a half, the president of the entire
3 organization, a man by the name of Jim Porter called John
4 out of the blue and said we want you to consider standing
5 for election as secretary of the NRA, and of course he was 6 honored by this.

7 Now, you will hear, contrary to what the plaintiff
8 said in her opening, the -- that call took place before he
9 was asked to be general counsel. Now the plaintiff had said
10 that Wayne LaPierre hired John as his general counsel and 11 then the board just elected him as secretary. Well, in 12 fact, it was the other way around. Mr. Porter asked him to 13 stand for election for secretary. The election wasn't
14 happening until April of 2015. Then after Mr. Porter asked
15 him this, Mr. LaPierre called John and said we would like 16 you to serve as general counsel as well. Now that's an 17 employee position, and so what John was able to do was 18 start. So, he started as the general counsel in January.
19 And then when the April election happened, he was elected
20 secretary. As a bonus to the organization you will find and 21 hear that John was filling two previously separately
22 staffed, separately paid positions for one salary. So even 23 at the beginning he was giving back to the organization.

24 So, let's talk about corporate secretary. Now, the 25 plaintiff said correctly the secretary has duties that are

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

140

1 specified. They are written in the NRA bylaws. There are
2 only four. Principally, as you heard yesterday, the 3 secretary is responsible for distributing messages from the 4 board of directors. Now, you will see documents and you'll 5 hear testimony about how the secretary does this when 6 requested. And you may find that the NRA's board of 7 directors is a demanding group to navigate. That's what the 8 secretary has to do. First, there are a lot of them. It's 9 a 76 member board, which you may find and you'll hear, is a
10 lot larger than your normal corporate board. They meet
11 three times a year. So, it's a lot of work. It's a lot of 12 personalities. They are populated with highly passionate 13 people, deeply dedicated deeply to the NRA's mission about 14 what you heard Ms. Rogers speak. You may find this is why
15 the 150-year-old organization is 150 years old, because it
16 has people that care a lot to steward it to the next
17 generation.

18 So, the secretary interfaces with this large group
19 of passionate people. They are often demanding. And he 20 does it smoothly. And you'll meet John. I trust you're 21 going to get very quickly a sense of that calm that he 22 brings to a turbulent organization. He does it smoothly so
23 that the business of the organization can run effectively in 24 its overall best interest, because at the end of the day
25 that's what this is all about, serving the NRA, the best

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

141

1 interests of the NRA. And you may find that that's exactly
2 what John has done really, I don't want to overdramatize it,
3 his entire career.

4 So we will show you even elsewhere he distributes
5 messages exactly as requested. You will see the process,
6 okay, because, and I'll get to it later, there are going to 7 be some messages that the plaintiff is going to say
8 constitutes some sort of retaliatory action. And you'll see
9 that John just hears a message from our president.

10 Now, a short little detour. You're going to hear
11 the word secretaries in different contexts as well, okay.
12 It's a little point but it's important. John is the 13 secretary of the NRA. There are subcommittees of the board
14 duly authorized to do different things. Quite a lot of 15 them. And those committees have secretaries as well. Those 16 secretaries are not, with a few exceptions, John, okay. And 17 you'll hear about these names, but I didn't want you to get 18 confused.

19 Now, let's talk about general counsel. Now as the 20 plaintiff told you, the general counsel is the NRA's head
21 internal lawyer. So, let's start by talking about what John 22 Frazer is not. He is not nor should you believe that he is 23 a man with all the answers. Being a lawyer does not make 24 you the know all and end all of an organization. He's not 25 gifted with supreme knowledge. And if you sit in this

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

142

1 courtroom for the next six weeks you will realize we are all
2 living proof of that.

3 Now, the plaintiff may try to push that idea
4 because there has been this sort of subtext in the case that
5 he's the lawyer. He should know. Anything bad that
6 happened, it's got to be his fault. Resist that. It's
7 unfair and it's incorrect. Further, he is the general
8 counsel. You'll be able to hear testimony even from their
9 own expert who will say that of course the general counsel
10 doesn't know it all. That's why they hire outside lawyers.
11 That's why they consult with outsiders. They are trying to 12 get to the answers, and they don't have them all. This is 13 totally normal as you may already know.

14 So, much in the same way, think of it like a
15 general doctor will refer you out to a specialist, refer us
16 out. Like if I need knee surgery or I need someone to 17 administer some exotic drug, my general doctor will not be 18 the one who does that. He'll say go see Dr. Jones, he's a
19 specialist at that. The general counsel is sort of the same
20 way. Think of him as a traffic cop trying to identify 21 issues of importance to the organization and ways to get 22 answers. So, the organization is not perfect. Neither is 23 flesh. What organization is. Perfection can only be 24 strived for. It can never be achieved. It changes. The 25 moment you think you have, it changes. That's why you work

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

143

1 every day towards that goal. That's why good faith is the
2 centerpiece of this case. John Frazer exhibited it you may
3 find. It's not about perfection. It can't be.

4 So, you will hear a lot of evidence presented by
5 the plaintiff, okay. There are going to be insinuations,
6 and I have to trust you, and I do trust you, to look at it,
7 analyze it, think about it, use your reason, use your
8 experience. Does it make sense. Get to know John. Is this
9 the way he would act. This sounds out of character. Do
10 that. That's what you're here for. That's what you've come
11 here with the gifts you've come here with and we trust you
12 to use them.

13 You may find at the end that John Frazer displayed
14 his good faith to create a culture of doing things the right
15 way at the organization he's worked for 30 years to improve
16 and whose mission he served at that time.

17 Now you heard Ms. Rogers in her opening say,
18 talking about John. The NRA, we trust him. We relied on 19 him. He does a good job. And there is a reason for this.
20 You may find John Frazer is a deeply ethical person.

21 So, let's talk about his good faith. Before I do
22 that though, let me address one comment made by Ms. Connell
23 in her opening about Mr. Frazer's hiring as general counsel.
24 She emphasized that there was no expensive executive search 25 done. Do you remember that? They said he had only been in

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

144

1 private practice for 18 months. What she didn't say is that
2 he had been working there for 20 years. They knew him. She
3 said he had no expertise in not-for-profit law. Each of 4 these things is a partial truth. He worked in private
5 practice for 18 months. He did not have expertise in 6 not-for-profit law, but he had a 20 year career that they
7 knew about and counted on and they knew his legal skills
8 already.

9 So, on July 1st, 2014, before John restarted at the 10 organization, he restarted in January of 2015, so July 1st,
11 2014 New York has a new law called Not-For-Profit
12 Revitalization Act. And you may hear about it. What they 13 did was they changed the law that governed not for profits.
14 So when John arrived in January of 2015, he started culling
15 through documents, getting his seat legs under him.
16 Remember he's walking into 150 year old organization. It's 17 not like you come in and say there is a new sheriff in town.
18 We do things my way. That's not how it works. But he 19 looked at it. What you'll find and we'll show you evidence, 20 in 2015 his first year he said there is a problem with the 21 not for profit law. We're not in compliance. We got to fix
22 it. So, he notified directors of possible needed changes.
23 We'll show you this. He undertook to write a new conflict
24 of interest and related-party transaction policy. We'll 25 show you this. He used outside help, like I talked about,

LAS

OPENING - FARBER

145

1 in this process. We'll show you that. He met with
2 directors to inform and prepare them for the needed changes.
3 Got them on board. We'll show you that. And ultimately in
4 January of 2016, at a board meeting, he had to wait for a
5 board meeting to get it voted on, the board adopted John's
6 new conflict of interest and related-parties transaction
7 policy created by his efforts, by his initiative, the person
8 that they say is not showing good faith. Not acting in the 9 best interests of the organization.

10 The Attorney General has conceded this new policy
11 which John crafted was comprehensive. It hued closely the 12 requirements of the law in related-party transactions and it
13 defined conflicts of interest more broadly than the law
14 required. Yet they claim bad faith.

15 You will hear how Mr. Frazer pushed for the 16 adoption of this policy. How he prepared and delivered a 17 presentation days before the board vote to encourage them to 18 do it. In short, he lead the organization with this change.
19 In his first year he brought it towards compliance, which 20 the plaintiff knows, they know this, yet they complained
21 about a lack of expertise in not for profit law. Was it
22 beginners luck? The proof is in the pudding. That's not
23 all. Immediately after the board adopted the new policy you
24 will hear that Mr. Frazer and the duly authorized audit
25 committee which were to deal with these related-party

LAS

1 transactions -- Mind you no one has done this before. This
2 is a maiden voyage. He meets with the audit committee in 3 March of 2016. The policy was passed in January.

Opening - Fleming

147

1 MR. FLEMING: They go through related-party
2 transactions, which obviously are old; they had happened.
3 So he's bringing it up and saying, "We got to deal with 4 these." They look at it; they think about it; they defer
5 until September. In September of 2016 -- you'll see all the 6 documents -- these transactions are approved by the board,
7 by the Audit Committee. By December of 2017, a year later,
8 they're approving related-party transactions in advance. We 9 will show you this.

10 Now, you will also hear, in 2015, evidence that 11 Mr. Frazer began the process of improving the NRA's methods
12 for identifying conflicts of interest and related-party
13 transactions. Now, the way it's done under the law is by 14 self-disclosure; totally okay. That's how it's expected to 15 be done. So what they do is, they send out a questionnaire
16 to all related parties -- directors, officers, key
17 employees -- and they say, "Hey, disclose your related-party
18 transactions." They come back and, based on that form
19 (simulating), they submit it to the Audit Committee; it gets 20 voted on.

21 Now, the reason this is important is because in 22 2015, the man they say has not displayed good faith in the 23 best interests of the organization decided to rewrite the 24 financial disclosure questionnaire, to increase it, to ask
25 more questions, to get more information about more conflicts

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

148

1 of interest and more related-party transactions.

2 Now, they also talked about a statement by the
3 NRA's Mr. Cotton. I don't know if you remember the name.
4 He is now the president of the NRA, but he's also on the
5 Audit Committee. And there was previous testimony, at some 6 point in time, where Mr. Cotton said that John had failed to 7 bring related-party transactions to the Audit Committee.

8 But they (indicating) left out the full testimony,
9 because what Mr. Cotton said is that John failed to do that 10 "because related parties had not self-disclosed the 11 transactions." That's a big omission. John's not hiding
12 anything. The self-disclosure was not fulsome.

13 So what did -- what did he (indicating) do? He 14 fixed that, too. And that's point number 2. John worked to 15 develop, with the NRA's Financial Services Division, the 16 accountants at the NRA, who know about all payments
17 (simulating) made by the NRA -- okay? They have the books.
18 We can see all dollars that go out of the NRA. We can see
19 if someone paid a director or an officer or a key person.
20 So John recognized that that was a real opportunity and 21 developed this cross-checking system between the secretary's
22 office (indicating) and the Financial Services Division
23 (indicating). So now, if a director or officer fails to 24 disclose, not intentionally but, you know, doesn't
25 understand something, the Financial Services Division can

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

149

1 catch it and the Audit Committee can then vote on this.

2 And the third point in improvement is in 2018,
3 because some people -- this is complicated stuff -- some
4 directors, some officers, some key employees, they don't 5 really, maybe, know what a related-party transaction is or
6 what qualifies, and so John develops and begins giving, now
7 several times a year, training seminars to his very people.
8 It started out in 2018 to people who dealt with financial 9 issues only; it's been expanded. Now it's given to 10 directors. Now it's given to all employees. And people are 11 now educated better about what qualifies. So this also 12 improves disclosure.

13 You know, John asked me to say this because, you
14 know, Mr. LaPierre doesn't get enough credit, but while John 15 was instituting all these improvements, John has said, and 16 he'll say it on the stand, you know, Mr. LaPierre never 17 pushed back; never said, "Don't do that." As far as John 18 knew, he was all for these improvements.

19 Now, look, there's nothing perfect in this world,
20 so I'm not going to stand here and tell you that that's 21 (indicating), you know, St. John Frazer; okay? I will tell
22 you that his intentions are impeccable. I will tell you
23 that his good faith is unchallengeable. But, you know, this 24 was a new process; like I said, a maiden voyage, so the 25 documentation of this stuff had to go through an evolution.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

150

1 Started off -- we'll show you the documents -- started off
2 with minutes of these Audit Committee meetings that
3 discussed these transactions and it turned in, over the 4 years, to a much more elaborate report, an Audit Committee
5 report. There was full disclosure -- full -- I shouldn't
6 say "disclosure"; full explication of everything they'd
7 done.

8 Now, but isn't that to be expected? You introduce
9 an entirely new procedure, I maintain, and you may find it
10 deserves a ramp-up period, because nothing is turnkey.

11 So here we are. You know, we're here because, in 12 2019, acting on a campaign promise made to her voters, the 13 attorney --

14 MS. CONNELL: Objection.

15 (No audible ruling.)

16 MR. FLEMING: -- general began an investigation
17 into the NRA. The investigation lasted about 15 months.
18 The attorney general's lawyers obtained documents from the 19 NRA; they conducted interviews of NRA personnel and others;
20 and at the end of that 15-month investigation, they filed
21 these (indicating) claims, the ones that we're here today
22 on.

23 But know this: Though he was an employee and one
24 of its three officers, they never tried to interview John 25 Frazer; they just charged him. He could have explained to

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

151

1 them everything I just told you about the efforts he and the
2 organization had made to improve its processes, to comply
3 with New York law; he could have explained or at least
4 clarified any questions they might have had about this work.
5 But they chose to sue him first: "Ready" --

6 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

7 (No audible ruling.)

8 MR. FLEMING: -- "fire, aim."

9 Then the attorney general gave a press release, in 10 a public statement for all the world to hear, that John
11 Frazer had used the NRA as a personal piggy bank.

12 Had they chosen to speak with him first, they would
13 know, as they now admit, that Mr. Frazer has received
14 nothing, nothing from the NRA except what was decided by the 15 board of directors (indicating) without his input. Every 16 year, you will hear, the board voted to approve the 17 compensation and benefits they and they alone thought
18 appropriate, which, by the way, was one salary for two 19 positions.

20 You will hear evidence that John Frazer has given 21 nothing to the organization but his good-faith devotion and 22 received nothing from the organization except his
23 board-approved pay and standard benefits. Nothing else.

24 You will further hear from Mr. Frazer's expert
25 witness that his compensation for one of the two jobs is

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

152

1 mid-level, reasonable and, of course, if he was paid for two
2 positions, it would be much more.

3 Despite all this, the attorney general decided to 4 allege that John Frazer has failed to discharge his
5 duties -- you heard Mr. Correll talk about it -- in good
6 faith and with the care an ordinarily prudent person would
7 exercise under similar circumstances or, one might say,
8 "careless."

9 But you can ask yourself: Is it careless to craft
10 and push the board to adopt a policy which is more demanding
11 on the law than is required?

12 Is it careless to continue to make financial 13 disclosure questionnaires more detailed, more encompassing
14 to get more information?

15 Is it careless to reach out to another department
16 and figure out this cross-checking system, to further seal
17 up gaps that might exist?

18 Is it careless to institute compliance training and 19 expand it and give more and more training seminars?

20 Is his conduct consistent with bad faith? It's the 21 central question. Make no mistake about it, that's what 22 this case is about.

23 You may find these are more signs of someone 24 obsessing over how to make an organization better; they 25 (indicating) don't think so.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

153

1 Now, you will be presented, presumably, with
2 mistakes because, God knows, they're (indicating) looking
3 for them and you will have to judge them; you (indicating)
4 will have to judge them. Please -- I said it before -- use
5 your innate fairness, your experience, your common sense
6 when evaluating them. Understand that John Frazer is not
7 perfect, but none of us are. Ask and search and probe; use
8 your reason: In making his judgments, did he fail to 9 discharge his duties in good faith, did he lack care of an
10 ordinary person in his position, or were they consistent
11 with his past service for nearly 30 years in the interests
12 of the organization he served? Is this even a close
13 question? You may find it is not.

14 You're going to hear -- I'm going to switch
15 topics -- about whistleblowers:

16 The revitalization law I talked to you about also 17 made changes about whistleblowers; it requires an 18 organization to have a whistleblower policy. You will hear
19 that the NRA was one of the first nonprofits to have a
20 whistleblower policy, well before the law was passed.

21 You will see evidence that John Frazer considered
22 the question: "Do we need to update our whistleblower
23 policy?" You will hear that the law permits an old policy
24 to work if it's substantially consistent with the new law.
25 You'll see that John looked at it; he made a judgment that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

154

1 it was fine. I maintain, like I've said already, that he
2 made that judgment in good faith.

3 Now, let me talk about the old -- "old" -- policy.
4 It worked. So, in 2018, a group of whistleblowers started
5 to talk about it. From the Financial Services Division,
6 employees came forward with a list of "top concerns," and 7 you will see evidence that John met with them to try to 8 understand their concerns, to try to figure things out. He
9 then arranged for them to appear in front of the Audit
10 Committee, they presented their concerns and the 11 organization -- it's been talked about; I won't belabor
12 it -- took those concerns and ran with them, and they
13 investigated and they terminated people and they terminated
14 vendor relationships. And at the end, the whistleblowers
15 said that those concerns that they expressed had been all 16 resolved to their satisfaction, and now, of course, they've 17 been promoted.

18 And the attorney general says that John Frazer --
19 I'm really not even sure what they're saying -- retaliated
20 against whistleblowers or, you know, participated in 21 retaliation or something like that.

22 Now, there are other examples of whistleblowers
23 where he treated the situation sensitively and resolved it.
24 Those aren't even at issue; I'm not even sure they're going
25 to come up. We can bring them up later, if need be. But

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

155

1 you're going to be hearing about alleged whistleblowers.
2 These are the situations they were looking for, some way to
3 muddy the water, so I'm going to talk to you about a couple
4 of 'em.

5 Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North. You all may know
6 him. I remember him because I'm too old to tell you about 7 right now. But standing ramrod straight, giving his
8 testimony before Congress in his uniform (simulating), you
9 know, whatever you want to think about Lieutenant Colonel
10 North, as an image, he is the perfect image for the NRA,
11 seems to me. That's just one man's opinion. Other people
12 have a different view. And in May of 2018, he signed a
13 contract -- we talked -- some other people talked about 14 it -- with Ackerman McQueen; it was going to pay him, like,
15 $2 million a year, and he was going to become the NRA
16 president.

17 And the long story short -- it's a very complicated
18 story and you'll hear it all, but I don't want to belabor it
19 too much, because the point of this is, he signed a contract
20 and no one knew where his loyalties lay. We didn't know:
21 "Is he an employee of Ackerman McQueen or is this an 22 independent contractor contract, in which case he could be
23 president of the NRA because he wouldn't have divided
24 loyalties? So the question is: Which master was he going
25 to serve; was it the NRA or was it Ackerman McQueen? And

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

156

1 more to the point, more to John Frazer's point, is, it
2 raised an issue with respect to the conflict-of-interest
3 policy.

4 So, for months -- you'll hear it -- John was trying 5 to get North's contract to figure out this question: "Is he
6 an employee or is he not? Where do this loyalties lay?"
7 For months, he's being rebuffed by North, he's being
8 resisted by Ackerman McQueen, and they keep pushing and they 9 keep pushing, or John (indicating) keeps pushing.

10 So here's the overriding point: The NRA and John
11 Frazer were pursuing the question, even about its handpicked
12 leader, to confirm that there was no breach in its conflicts
13 policy. They were choosing compliance with law over their 14 own handpicked leader, and yet we're here in this courtroom.

15 So, if you pay close attention, you'll also hear
16 this fact: On the very day that John, finally, was going to 17 see North's contract -- the very day, February 26th, 2019 --
18 Oliver North files, or sends out a note, which the plaintiff
19 says is a whistleblower complaint. It's a little suspicious
20 for my taste. So, that day John finds out, lo and behold,
21 he's an employee of Ackerman; he owes his loyalties to 22 Ackerman, not to the NRA. The related-party transaction
23 that had been approved by the board has to be undone because 24 there's a conflict of interest; it's a violation of the 25 policy.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

157

1 In any event, even though North has this very
2 convenient timely "whistleblower" complaint, you'll find and
3 you'll hear that John took it and analyzed it. He hired
4 outside counsel. It had to do with whether the organization
5 had followed its policy in hiring its outside lawyers, and
6 indeed, there had been a mistake and John figured this out,
7 spoke with outside counsel and resolved it within a matter
8 of a couple of weeks.

9 Nevertheless, Lieutenant Colonel North continued to 10 push issues, even though they'd been resolved and 11 unfortunately, it escalated into a quarrel, which ended up
12 with Lieutenant Colonel North deciding not to run for 13 re-election for president.

14 So there are other whistleblowers --
15 "whistleblowers" -- that are raised as well, and you'll hear
16 from them. But -- you know, you'll hear Esther Schneider,
17 who's an individual you may find who has a long history of 18 being difficult, is called a whistleblower even though her
19 complaint addressed issues that were stale, and here's why
20 they were stale: The issues had been raised in press
21 reports, like, a month before and you may find that John had 22 already read these press reports and had started
23 investigations into each of the things listed on these -- in 24 these press reports, and we'll show you that evidence. And 25 she also re-raised issues that Colonel North had raised,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

158

1 that had already been resolved.

2 So these were stale. Nevertheless, you'll see
3 evidence that he took all of Ms. Schneider's calls, again
4 showing his calm amidst fire.

5 And, as context, you will hear that all this took 6 place in the months immediately following -- on the very 7 weekend that Colonel North decided not to run for 8 re-election as president, a very contentious weekend that
9 you'll hear about, that Ms. Schneider had approached Carolyn
10 Meadows, who was one of the three board officers, and 11 confronted her in a profanity-laced invective, I think -- I
12 don't know -- because Ms. Meadows was a fan of Wayne
13 LaPierre.

14 So when Ms. Meadows, the board president, decided 15 not to give Ms. Schneider the committee assignments that she 16 wanted -- these are director problems -- the plaintiff
17 (indicating) is saying, "Well, that's all whistleblower
18 retaliation." And John Frazer, the secretary, who sent out
19 the memo from Ms. Meadows saying, "Here are the committee
20 assignments," is not to be blamed for that content. And 21 even their (indicating) own expert witness has testified,
22 and will testify, to that fact: Being a messenger, we don't 23 kill the messenger. Okay? The messenger is not responsible
24 for the content of the message.

25 There are a couple of other names: Rocky Marshall,

1 Phillip Journey. You'll hear, I think -- I'm still not even
2 clear on it. You'll hear that the complaint is that John
3 did not provide access to documents when they were directors
4 and that directors have the right to see documents.

5 Well, here's the truth of the matter: The truth of 6 the matter is, they did have access to documents; they had
7 to view them in headquarters. They objected to that. It
8 was applied evenhandedly. Because of confidentiality and 9 leaking problems, the board had decided that that's how it
10 was going to be. John took his direction from the board,
11 his bosses, and he executed it. You'll hear from those 12 people, too.

13 You are also possibly --

14 I just want you to hear it from me first, because 15 I, you know, don't know what they're going to do. You're 16 going to hear that in response to a standard instruction
17 given by lawyers that documents need to be preserved for 18 eventual disclosure in a lawsuit to the other side -- that's 19 how it works -- it caused Ms. Meadows, whose testimony you
20 will hear by video, to eliminate medical records from a
21 private family medical matter involving her dying husband,
22 which had some notes about NRA business on them and she got 23 rid of those documents. Now, Ms. Meadows, when asked, says,
24 "No, I didn't do that because John Frazer instructed me."
25 But there's been insinuations that that's the case. You're

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 going to have to be the judge of that.

2 So ...

3 (Music heard in courtroom.)

4 THE COURT: That's just a planned musical
5 interlude.

6 (Laughter.)

7 MR. FLEMING: I will wrap up for you guys, but this
8 leads me to the final --

9 THE COURT: It's like the music at the Academy
10 Awards.

11 (Laughter.)

12 MR. FLEMING: This leads me to the most unfair
13 claim of all:

14 John Frazer is accused of false statements. You
15 heard it. There's a document called a "CHAR500." You will 16 see it. John signs it with another officer. There are only
17 three officers at the organization; two of them have to sign
18 it. One of them is either the president or other authorized
19 officer. That's what it says. The second signer is the 20 treasurer. So the treasurer always signs and John draws the 21 short straw (simulating) and has to sign because the 22 president's not around. The signature says -- I'm going to 23 read it: "We reviewed this report" -- "we," meaning the 24 treasurer and John -- "We reviewed this report, including 25 all attachments, and to the best of our knowledge and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

161

1 belief, they are true, correct and complete, in accordance
2 with the laws of the State of New York applicable to this
3 report."

4 A few points:

5 That's the CHAR500; that's what's signed. There's
6 no allegation that anything in the CHAR500 is false.
7 Nothing. The allegation is that the attachments contained
8 falsities, so I want to talk about the attachments. There's 9 two attachments: audited financial statements, Form 990 tax
10 return.

11 Let's talk about audited financial statements
12 first. You all may know this; I'm pretending that you
13 don't: Financial statements are created by the 14 organization. The organization has internal CPA's, a bunch
15 of them, and they go through all the records, they know all
16 the transactions of the organization and they put it all
17 together. I can't tell you what a financial statement is,
18 but, you know, assets, liabilities, everything. These 19 financial statements are completed and then they are 20 audited. The audit process is when outside, third-party
21 professional auditors come in and they do a financial 22 circuit -- financial statement audit.

23 So what does that mean? In the case of the NRA,
24 here's what it means: In the fall -- September, roughly --
25 the financial statements are completed, or nearly completed,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Opening - Fleming

162

1 but suffice to say, auditors start to get involved, and they
2 look at the financial statements and they test the financial
3 statements and they come on-site and they go through the 4 books and they interview people at the NRA and they get
5 comfort that these financial statements are fairly
6 presented; they fairly present the financial condition of 7 the NRA within a range of materiality. And once they have
8 comfort about that, they issue an opinion -- an audit
9 opinion -- that says exactly that: "We certify that the 10 financial statements fairly present the financial condition
11 of the company."

12 Those are audited financial statements. That
13 opinion comes out, roughly, March; September to March
14 (simulating). I don't know how many months that is; it's a 15 lot of months. People on-site, outsiders. Remember those 16 months.

17 Tax return: The tax return starts with the audited
18 financial statements. So, in April, the internal CPA's at 19 the NRA take the audited financial statements that have 20 been -- gotten the seal of approval from the outside auditor
21 and they start to populate the tax return with the numbers
22 from the audited financial statements and they start to 23 develop the 990, the tax return. And then they use, again,
24 outside professionals; this time, tax accountants who come
25 in with their specialized knowledge and they help these

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 internal CPA's complete the tax return. And it goes back
2 and forth, and everyone has a different role.

3 This takes from, roughly, April to November; okay?
4 In November, the tax return is signed. For many of the
5 years in question, it is signed by the treasurer of the NRA
6 and it is signed by the paid tax preparer, the outside,
7 third-party professional that comes in and helps them do the 8 tax return; signed by both.

1 In later years you will hear that the NRA had a
2 software program that helped them prepare the tax return.
3 They still use the outside people just as intensively as
4 they did before, but because the outside professional did
5 not prepare the document, they didn't sign it. That started
6 in 2019. But for 2015 through 2018 the paid preparer was 7 the second signature on the tax return.

8 Now, think about it. This is the process audited
9 financial statements, September to March. Tax return, April
10 to November. By the time November comes around, the 11 auditors are back in the building doing it. There are 12 outside financial professionals at the organization
13 12 months a year every year, year after year after year
14 after year. This has been going on for way before John was 15 hired as general counsel in 2015. And the tax return
16 reflects the accumulated knowledge of all of these 17 professionals for years, including general counsels that 18 preceded John. Including outside lawyers that preceded 19 John. And, of course, including all the tax professionals
20 that are used.

21 So, whose named for false statements in connection
22 with the Form 990? Any of those people? Any of them? John
23 Frazer. John Frazer is the person they say issued a false
24 statement because he signed a chart 500 that said this is 25 true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge and

LAS

OPENING - FLEMING

165

1 belief, having reviewed it. They won't be able to dispute
2 that he reviewed all of these documents, but yet he's the
3 one in court today answering for this. It's unfair and it's 4 not right. If he's going to answer for it, I contend that
5 they need to prove that John Frazer did not believe for it
6 to be a false statement.

7 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor. As to what we
8 have to prove to maintain a claim as to whose named, the NRA
9 is named in that claim.

10 MR. FLEMING: I said it's my contention.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 MR. FLEMING: I contend that what they would have 13 to prove, the only statement that John Frazer has made is 14 that I believe these to be true and correct. They would 15 have to prove that he did not have that belief.

16 There is going to be a lot of evidence by the way,
17 and I'm not going to get into it, because I'm going to wrap
18 up. These statements aren't even false. We'll show you
19 that as well. You will be the judges of that. We will show
20 you that as well. I don't want to concede there is any 21 fault, because I don't believe there is.

22 So I'm going to end there with a few last comments.
23 I said this is a case about good faith. It's not about 24 perfection. It can't be. It just can't be. We're all
25 human. No one is perfect. And you may find the law does

LAS

OPENING - FLEMING

166

1 not require perfection. More than a mistake is needed.

2 Second, John Frazer has spent almost 30 years at the NRA in

3 an unremitting effort to improve it and make it better.

4 He's modest. He's dedicated. Decent. No one would say

5 otherwise. You won't hear anybody say otherwise. He's been

6 recognized for his efforts with a series of promotions,

7 culminating with the honor of having the president of The

8 National Rifle Association asking him to be one of his three

9 officers. He's required to stand for election as secretary

10 every year. Every year. He's been re-elected each after

11 the scandalous charges every year. You heard Ms. Rogers say

12 they trust him. He does a good job. They filed this case

13 without even bothering to talk to him first.

14 So, at the conclusion of this proceeding I will ask

15 you on behalf of John Frazer to return a verdict in his

16 favor against the plaintiff in the unwarranted claims

17 against him. Can't thank you enough for your attention.

18 THE COURT: Thank you, counsel. Okay. I think we

19 probably don't have enough time to get started with 20 witnesses at this time. This is -- We normally take our

21 lunch break at 12:30 to 12:45. Pretty much at 12:30. We'll

22 reconvene at 2:15. So I'll let you go now. Again, typical

23 instructions, keep saying it until it gets really boring.

24 Don't talk about the case. Don't look up anything. Just 25 relax and get ready for the afternoon. Thank you very much.

LAS

167

1 See you then.

2 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

3 THE COURT: We're going to be -- The court officer
4 will show you, we'll be in 208 in the afternoon. It's very 5 close to where your room is. They will guide you where to 6 go.

7 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

8 THE COURT: Okay. We're adjourned until 2:15.

9 MR. FARBER: Just quickly can I put one thing on 10 the record. I had raised off the record the fact that an 11 objection by one defendant became an objection by all
12 defendants. I just wanted to confirm that's the Court's 13 procedure.

14 THE COURT: Yes, it is.

15 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

16 MS. CONNELL: We have a few minutes without the 17 jury present to ask for a curative instruction that this
18 case is not about whether people are going to have a choice
19 to buy a gun or something. I thought there was some 20 confusion. That no matter what you think, you should have 21 that choice in America. It's your choice in America.

22 This jury is not going to be determining whether 23 people get to buy a gun or not. I don't want there to be 24 any confusion about that. Also in regard to part of that 25 opening, which may influence the case and the evidence that

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

168

1 comes in, your Honor has already ruled and rejected the idea
2 that this case is about what -- that the plaintiff has to
3 prove what is currently happening in the NRA. As you know,
4 we haven't had insight into that and that's not fair.
5 That's what was told to that jury. That's fine. Moving
6 forward we don't want any more confusion about that, in 7 particular some of the evidence that was pointed to as 8 evidence that was only recently identified or mentioned to 9 plaintiff. That's not fair. It's prejudicial.

10 Finally, I think counsel tried to walk a fine line,
11 and I guess it was okay, but there is the sword and shield
12 issue regarding partial repayments or some monies repaid by 13 Mr. LaPierre. That's something we would like to flag for 14 the Court, kind of put a flag on it as the evidence comes 15 in.

16 THE COURT: All right. I don't currently see a
17 need for a curative instruction. First of all, these jurors
18 have all been told multiple times that this case is not
19 about gun rights. It came up in sort of a side way. I
20 don't think that there is any real concern about them being
21 off course. I'll listen to proposals I suppose, but I
22 didn't see anything. To the extent that there is, I heard a
23 reference to current medical condition to a witness, if you
24 need some discovery on that or something to -- it seemed 25 like you were surprised to hear it. I would certainly

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

169

1 entertain a request that you be given information necessary
2 to cross examine that.

3 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, that is one of the 4 points. To hear Mr. LaPierre's counsel stand up and say
5 that and make reference to medical diagnoses that he was 6 pulled and had to be pulled from his -- his work because of 7 his -- his medical diagnoses. If this has been going on for 8 a while, to learn about this the Friday before trial and 9 hear that's why he resigned, and the details about that in 10 opening is manifestly prejudicial. Yes, we ask for those 11 records, but we also think it doesn't undo the prejudice and 12 that shouldn't be put in front of the jury further. In 13 regard to Mr. Phillips or referencing --

14 THE COURT: Just to stop with that. I mean, I'm 15 not going to make a ruling now that as to what can or cannot 16 be in front of the jury about -- I was just talking about
17 both witnesses with references to health issues. If you
18 want to make a request for, you know, additional 19 information, I'll consider it. But I'm not prohibiting them
20 from talking about their current medical situation at this
21 point.

22 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, thank you. We'll make
23 that request, but we also ask that hearsay evidence
24 regarding the same be limited. Reports of what doctors have 25 said or told them that aren't proper evidence before the

LAS

1 court.

2 THE COURT: Well, I don't think that would be --
3 Well, I'm not going to rule on something I haven't seen yet.
4 But understood. I appreciate everybody's efforts and I'll
5 see you at 2:15.

6 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Just a reminder to the audience, the 8 second half for today will be in courtroom 208. The 9 overflow room, I think, is 232.

10 THE COURT OFFICER: That's correct, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: That's a courtroom that will have a
12 screen. 208 is very small as compared to this grand 13 ballroom here. So not everybody can fit. So we're going to 14 have a video of the proceedings in 232.

1 THE WITNESS: Good afternoon.

2 THE COURT: Counsel, you may inquire.

3 DIRECT EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. WANG:

5 Q Good afternoon.

6 A Good afternoon.

7 Q What is your name, sir?

8 A My name is Roscoe Marshall. My nickname is "Rocky."

9 Everyone calls me Rocky.

10 Q And, Mr. Marshall, where are you from?

11 A I'm from Boerne, Texas.

12 Q And are you a member of the NRA?

13 A I am a member of the NRA, yes.

14 Q Are you familiar with the mission of the NRA?

15 A Yes, I am.

16 Q What is the mission of the NRA?

17 A The NRA's mission is to protect our Second Amendment
18 rights, but also in -- is all the other things related to that.

19 So we promote gun safety; we promote training; we promote

20 competition, and -- and all gun-related sports activities, the 21 NRA's involved with those kinds of things.

22 Q Do you support the mission of the NRA?

23 A Absolutely, I do.

24 Q When did you join the NRA?

25 A That was in 2006.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

175

1 Q And why did you join the NRA?

2 A I joined the NRA because it's one of the things that I
3 strongly believe in. It's a -- it's a constitutional amendment,
4 the Second Amendment, obviously, and -- and, um, I -- I support
5 what they do and I believe in -- in supporting the -- the Second
6 Amendment.

7 Q What is your membership level at the NRA?

8 A I'm a Benefactor Life Member.

9 Q Are there different membership levels at the NRA?

10 A Yes, there are.

11 Q And what are those different membership levels?

12 A Okay. They're -- in the NRA, there -- so we have a --
13 a regular membership, which is a -- a member that would just pay
14 annual dues -- usually it's about $25 a year -- and then there's 15 several levels of Life Membership; I think there's four, four 16 total levels. And the Benefactor level that I'm at is the 17 highest-level member that you can be in the NRA.

18 Q Mr. Marshall, have you ever been a member of the NRA
19 Board of Directors?

20 A I -- I have.

21 Q And when did you serve on the NRA Board?

22 A I -- I was appointed to the NRA Board of Directors in 23 January of 2021 and my term ended in -- I think it was October
24 of that year; of 2021.

25 Q Mr. Marshall, why are you here today?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

176

1 A I'm here today to just share my story about my
2 involvement with the NRA, and also my time on the NRA Board of
3 Directors.

4 Q Just a few questions about your background,
5 Mr. Marshall. Are you employed?

6 A I -- I'm employed, yes.

7 Q How are you employed, sir?

8 A I own a manufacturing company in Texas. I'm the CEO of 9 that company.

10 Q What is the name of that company, sir?

11 A It's Frontier Truck Gear.

12 Q And what does Frontier Truck Gear do?

13 A We -- we manufacture truck accessories, things like
14 grille guards, headache racks, bumpers, those kinds of things;
15 things for trucks -- trucks and SUV's. We make those types of 16 accessories.

17 Q And were you employed prior to the founding of Frontier
18 Truck Gear?

19 A Yes, I was.

20 Q How were you employed prior to founding the company?

21 A I was a senior executive for Baker Hughes, which is a
22 very large oil-and-gas service company based in Houston, Texas.

23 Q What was your job at Baker Hughes?

24 A Well, so Baker Hughes recruited me out of Texas A & M
25 University, where I was a business student. A & M's one of the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1 better business schools in the country, and they recruited me
2 there as part of their management training program. I worked my
3 way up through Baker Hughes. I eventually became a division
4 president for two different divisions for Baker Hughes.

5 Q What were some of your responsibilities as a division
6 president at Baker Hughes?

7 A So, as a division president -- so I'm president of 8 two -- two companies. These are multinational companies, so I'm 9 overseeing operations around the world, which include all the 10 functional pieces of a business, which includes the marketing,
11 the accounting, the -- the HR departments and all --
12 manufacturing, all the related groups of a company. That's what 13 I was responsible for; two different divisions.

14 Q And did you regularly review financial documents as 15 part of your responsibility?

16 A Yes.

17 So, I mean, Baker Hughes, at that time, was a Fortune
18 150 company and that's part of the core training, is that you're 19 going to be looking at a lot of financial statements all the
20 time.

21 Q As the CEO of Frontier Truck Gear, what are some of 22 your responsibilities?

23 A So it's the same kind of position -- I -- I founded the 24 company in 2021 and -- and so we're a fairly large small 25 business; we sell products throughout the country. And so we

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1 have the same type of discipline. We have a marketing
2 department, manufacturing, accounting, finance, HR, those kinds
3 of functions.

4 Q And as part of your responsibilities as the CEO of 5 Frontier Truck Gear, did you review financial documents?

6 A I -- I do, routinely.

7 Q Other than the NRA, have you ever served on boards of 8 directors of other nonprofits?

9 A I -- I have.

10 Q What other nonprofit boards have you served on?

11 A I was the chairman of the board for the local Workforce
12 Commission, which is the -- the program that handles all of the 13 workforce-related activities of -- of monies that come from the 14 federal government. I was -- that was based in San Antonio.
15 It's a 12-county program, very large. I also was on a church
16 board in a local community; I was on -- I started on a church
17 board. And I was heavily involved in baseball with my -- when 18 my boys were small, so I -- I became on the board of directors
19 for a nonprofit that ran the baseball program where we live, in 20 Boerne, Texas.

21 Q As part of your role on these boards, did you ever come
22 to review the nonprofits' financial documents?

23 A I -- I did.

24 Q Mr. Marshall, you mentioned you had served on the NRA
25 Board. Why did you join the NRA Board?

1 A I joined the NRA Board because I was recruited. So
2 there -- I know a few board -- NRA Board -- members and one of
3 the board members actually recruited me, and had recruited me
4 for several years, to join and eventually, I agreed to -- to be
5 considered as a -- a candidate.

6 Q Who recruited you to join the NRA Board?

7 A That was Susan Howard.

8 Q Approximately when, to the best of your recollection,
9 did she recruit you to join the board?

10 A That was in 2019.

11 Q Why did you decide to run for the NRA Board?

12 A Okay. So in 2019, at that point in time, the New York
13 AG's office had actually issued some petitions -- or not --
14 subpoenas, and also starting doing some investigative work
15 regarding the NRA. Susan was very much concerned about that and 16 she knew my background; we'd been friends for 20 years, and she 17 said, "Would you be willing to serve" --

18 MS. EISENBERG: Your Honor, hearsay.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

20 This is for -- not for -- the truth of the matter
21 asserted, just for the fact that it was said.

22 You can answer.

23 Q Please finish your answer.

24 A So, with my background, she felt like I could be of 25 assistance as we went through these problems. And I was willing

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 to help because part of my background really is -- the core part
2 of my experience has really been a problem solver and that's --
3 I felt like those skills could be used in this case.

4 Q Let me back up for a second and ask you some questions
5 about the board process: How does some -- are you familiar with 6 how someone would run for the board at the NRA?

7 A I -- I am.

8 Q And how do they do that?

9 A So the process is, any member of the NRA can nominate
10 any other member of the NRA to be on the board, so my name
11 was -- was proposed to the nominating committee. The nominating 12 committee reviews all the candidates that have been submitted
13 and from that group of candidates, they select members that they 14 deem highly qualified to serve on the NRA Board, and they 15 present that information not only to the board of directors but 16 also to all the members of the NRA.

17 Q And who votes to elect members of the board of 18 directors at the NRA?

19 A Okay. So all Life Members can vote, and the way the 20 vote happens: a ballot comes in the -- the magazine to your 21 home, and so you fill out the ballot and you send it in.
22 Regular members that have been regular members for five years
23 consecutively can also vote, so there's a requirement for 24 regular members; but all Life Members can, in fact, vote.

1 Q You had mentioned the nominating committee. Did you go
2 through a process?

3 A There is a process.

4 Q What's that process?

5 A The process is so once you're being considered by the 6 nominating committee, they send you a set of documents that you
7 complete in terms of your resume, your background. There is a
8 series of questions that they ask. You complete all this 9 documentation. And then you send it back to John Frazer, who is 10 the general counsel and secretary of the NRA. And that's given
11 to the nominating committee.

12 Q And did you undergo a review from the nominating 13 committee before running for the board?

14 A My understanding, they reviewed the documents that I
15 sent.

16 Q What did the nominating committee find regarding your 17 candidacy?

18 A They considered me highly qualified to be considered as 19 a recommendation to the board and to the members at large.

20 Q Did you win a seat on the board through -- when you ran
21 for the board?

22 A I did not.

23 Q How did that election process work?

24 A Okay. So, I forgotten the total number of candidates
25 that were eligible to run, but I finished in position 32 on the

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

182

1 ballot. I had 60 something thousand votes. That was just
2 outside of the seats that were open. There were 31 seats open
3 and I was in position 32. Therefore, I was not selected in that
4 ballot process.

5 Q Were you eventually appointed to the board?

6 A I was.

7 Q When did that occur?

8 A That happened in January of 2019.

9 Q How did your appointment arise?

10 A A current board member, a person name Duane Liptak had 11 resigned from the board in early January. And the process is 12 they maintain a list of all the eligible candidates that were 13 not selected during the ballot process. And those candidates
14 become eligible to replace anyone that resigns or retires or for 15 some reason leaves the board. They go to that list. And so my 16 name was the first name on the list. And they contacted me to 17 see if I would complete Duane Liptak's seat.

18 Q Were you contacted? What did you say?

19 A I said yes, I would.

20 Q Do you have an understanding of why Mr. Liptak
21 resigned?

22 A My understanding is --

23 MS. EISENBERG: Calls for hearsay.

24 THE COURT: Sustained. Sustained. Hearsay is when 25 a witness is being asked to testify as to what somebody told

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

183

1 him. And since that person, whoever that is, is not here,
2 there are some exceptions to it. But that's why the 3 objection is sustained.

4 Q Mr. Marshall, what was the climate like at the NRA when
5 you were appointed to the board in January of 2021?

6 A Okay. So I was not actually attending any board
7 meeting at that point in time. So what I began to do was to 8 actually contact various NRA personnel to try to understand more
9 about what was happening. And I would say it was a little bit
10 of turmoil in that early January period.

11 Q When you joined the board, what were some of the first 12 actions you took?

13 A The very first action was I contacted John Frazer's
14 office to get multiple years worth of board meeting minutes,
15 committee meeting minutes, the financial statements, which is 16 the IRS form the NRA's form is the 990, which is a little 17 different than individual forms. So, I got actually boxes and 18 boxes of data from John's office so I could start reviewing all 19 the minutes to try to get up to speed as to where they were at 20 that point in time, especially with some of the investigation
21 that was going on with the New York AG's office.

22 Q Other than the 990s and the financial documents did you
23 review any other documents before you joined the board?

24 A I kind of read everything I could. I spent probably 25 almost a month going through meeting minutes, all those kinds of

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

184

1 things just to try to understand where they were. Also read a
2 lot of press releases. Press releases were starting to occur.
3 I was trying to get some background information. So, I looked
4 through all those documents as well.

5 Q Did you review any documents related to this case?

6 A Yes. So, I think the complaint was filed at that point
7 in time. So, the New York AG's office had filed a complaint,
8 and that became public information. And I read the complaint
9 against the NRA.

10 Q After you reviewed the financial documents and the 11 complaint in this case did any of those documents cause you any 12 level of concern?

13 A Yes, very much so.

14 Q What were your concerns?

15 A Well, so I'll kind of go back a little bit. Before I
16 was on the board, the impression I got was that the NRA was 17 communicating that they were under a political attack by the New 18 York AG's office. That was the impression I had. One of the 19 reasons I wanted to be on the board was to help organize
20 whatever the issues were so we could defend the NRA against the 21 AG's office. After reading the complaint that the New York AG
22 publically released, I became concerned, because the charges
23 were so detailed and very specific. That really raised my level
24 of concern.

25 Q Did you communicate those concerns to anyone?

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

185

1 A I did.

2 Q Who did you communicate those concerns to?

3 A I made phone calls to Charles Cotton, whose the first
4 vice president and also chairman of the audit committee. I
5 talked to John Frazer. I also talked to Witt Davis, whose the 6 general counsel for the NRA board.

7 Q To the best of your recollection when did you
8 communicate these concerns?

9 A This is kind of late January timeframe of 2021.

10 Q Let's take those individuals one at a time. Who is 11 Charles Cotton?

12 A So Charles Cotton is currently the president of the 13 NRA. At that point in time Charles was the first vice president
14 and he was also chairman of the audit committee.

15 Q Do you know what an audit committee is?

16 A Yes.

17 Q What is an audit committee?

18 A So, an audit committee reviews those things of an 19 organization, things like contracts, agreements, various 20 policies and procedures that may occur. Also they supposedly 21 are responsible for any whistleblower complaints they might 22 have. They would review those documents and approve them. In 23 fact, like contracts, that they are in fact valid and they have 24 been approved.

25 Q Have you had any experience working or communicating

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

186

1 with audit committees from other nonprofits or other companies
2 you've been involved with?

3 A Of course. Yes.

4 Q When you communicated these concerns to Mr. Cotton,
5 what was his role again?

6 A So Mr. -- Charles Cotton was first vice president of 7 the board, but he was also chairman of the audit committee.

8 Q When you communicated your concerns to Mr. Cotton, how 9 did he respond?

10 A Not well.

11 Q Can you describe for the Court what kind of reaction
12 Mr. Cotton had?

13 A Okay. So at this point in time I'm just trying to get
14 my arms around what the problems are. 'Cause it becomes pretty
15 obvious at this time that there are some serious problems here.
16 I called Charles Cotton in order to try to get him to help me
17 understand all the problems and also to provide information so
18 that I could be effective as my role as a board of director
19 member. I talked to Charles for almost an hour I guess, and 20 during the course of that conversation I couldn't get an answer
21 on anything I asked. I really was getting the runaround. When 22 I asked for documents, like things from the audit committee that 23 I couldn't find in the board meeting minutes, he wouldn't 24 provide that information. He said you would need to contact
25 John Fraser's office. Maybe they can get that for you. The

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

187

1 runaround really bothered me, because I felt like, you know
2 what, you need to tell me the straight scoop here so I could be
3 effective and I wasn't getting that.

4 Q Did you feel like he responded to your concerns?

5 A No, not at all.

6 Q You also mentioned an individual named Witt Davis?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Who is Witt Davis?

9 A At that point in time Witt is the general counsel for 10 the board. So, his role is to be the legal representative for 11 the board of directors.

12 Q With respect to Mr. Davis did you communicate your 13 concerns to him?

14 A I did.

15 Q When you were communicating those concerns to 16 Mr. Davis, were you seeking his legal advice?

17 A I was not. No.

18 Q What was the purpose of your communication to 19 Mr. Davis?

20 A I contacted Witt Davis to get more data because I'm 21 still trying to piece together this puzzle, which was actually 22 becoming larger than I realized, and I wanted more data. That's 23 why I contacted Witt.

24 Q Did Mr. Davis provide you the information or data that 25 you were looking for?

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

188

1 A Well, verbally Witt shared a lot of things with me that
2 I was not aware of. That was helpful. But then I wanted
3 physical documents, and I asked for a whole list of things. I
4 wanted copies of Wayne LaPierre's W-2 statements, the 5 whistleblower reports. I wanted copy of the internal audit
6 reports and forensic accounting reports. I wanted to get a list
7 of those things. And I wanted a list of all of the problems
8 that had been identified through NRA's own work and the 9 corrective actions that go with those problems. Those were the 10 things I was asking for.

11 Q And were any of those things provided to you?

12 A No, they were not.

13 Q The third individual you mentioned was John Frazer.
14 Who is John Frazer?

15 A John Frazer is the general counsel and secretary of the
16 NRA.

17 Q And why did you communicate your concerns to 18 Mr. Frazer?

19 A So, John is the central secretary's role in terms of 20 information and those kind of things. That was the reason I
21 reached out to John is to -- because he's in that pivotal
22 communication spot.

23 Q And did you receive the information that you were 24 seeking from Mr. Frazer?

25 A John sent me tons of information. However, the

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

189

1 information that I just described, I also was seeking that from
2 John, and I could not get copies of that.

3 Q Other than reviewing documents and asking for more
4 information, did you take any other actions when you joined the
5 board?

6 A I did.

7 Q And what else did you do?

8 A So, one of the things I started to do was to reach out
9 to various board members. Now this is early February of 2021.
10 And at that point in time a current director named Judge Phillip
11 Journey had filed an independent examiner motion in the 12 bankruptcy trial that had been filed by the NRA. So, the 13 bankruptcy had been filed prior to me being on the board. And 14 the judge had joined or created this independent examiner motion
15 with the court, and I did contact him regarding that motion.

16 Q Let's break that down a little bit. What is a motion
17 for an examiner? I heard you say that.

18 A Okay. So NRA is now in bankruptcy court. Judge
19 Journey filed this motion because what he was seeking is for the 20 Court to appoint an independent examiner to come into the NRA
21 and go through the records and go through the books and really
22 get to the bottom of all of these charges that were being
23 leveled against the NRA by the AG's office. It was a
24 factfinding role. And as a board member we were wanting to get 25 to the bottom of the truth of all of these allegations, and the

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

190

1 role was, for the independent examiner, was to help get that
2 data.

3 Q And let's back up for one second. What involvement, if
4 any, did you have with the NRA's bankruptcy?

5 A Okay. So my -- at that point in time I had no
6 involvement because this is after the fact. So the NRA had 7 filed bankruptcy. I come on to the board, and I had talked to 8 Judge Journey about the independent examiner motion. And after 9 a few weeks I called him back and asked him if I could join that 10 motion as part of that process.

11 Q And did you in fact join the motion for an examiner?

12 A I did. I joined the motion.

13 Q Was that motion successful?

14 A It was not.

15 Q What happened? What was the end result of that motion?

16 A The Court dismissed the motion.

17 Q And what was the end result of the NRA's bankruptcy to 18 the best of your understanding?

19 A Judge Hale was the judge at the time, and he dismissed
20 the case as -- as lacking proper filing.

21 Q Were there costs associated with you joining Judge
22 Journey's motion for an examiner?

23 A Yes. We had legal representation. There is always 24 costs with legal representation.

25 Q Did you contribute to those costs?

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

191

1 A I did.

2 Q How much did you contribute?

3 A I think I kicked in $25,000.

4 Q Did you engage in any communications with the board
5 outside of the motion for an examiner?

6 A Yes, I did.

7 Q And how did you engage in those communications?

8 A I'm laughing because I write a lot. So I wrote a ton
9 of e-mails to the board as a director I think from early
10 February is when I started writing and continued to write
11 multiple e-mails to the entire board until I left in October of 12 that year.

13 Q Why were you writing e-mails to the board at that time?

14 A Well, this was a strange situation for me having served
15 on boards and been an executive for a Fortune 150 company. I've 16 seen a lot of things over about 40 years in the industry. And 17 it was odd to me that I was not getting any updates. I wasn't 18 receiving any information. I'm a director. So the director is 19 the oversight of any organization of the board. And there was 20 nothing coming from the NRA. I thought that was peculiar. So,
21 what I began to do was to write e-mails to the board on things I
22 felt like they should be aware that was not being communicated.
23 So, I was trying to fill a void of information that was not
24 available.

25 Q Mr. Marshall, there is a white binder in front of you.

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

192

1 I'll ask you to open that up and turn to tab two if you will.

2 A Okay.

3 MS. EISENBERG: What's the exhibit number, counsel?

4 MR. WANG: PX 3572.

5 A (Examining).

6 Q Mr. Marshall, I'm showing you a document that has been
7 premarked Plaintiff's Exhibit 3572. Do you recognize this
8 document?

9 A (Examining). I do.

10 Q What is it?

11 A This is -- this is an e-mail that I wrote. It's 12 actually showing that I wrote it to myself. I did a blind copy
13 to all the board. I did that to make sure their e-mail wasn't
14 being sent out anywhere. But this is the first e-mail that I
15 ever sent to the board of directors. And what I was trying to 16 do was to communicate what -- not only who I was, 'cause I had 17 not met anybody yet at this point. So, I was trying to 18 communicate that. But also start to bring them up to speed on 19 what was happening with the bankruptcy, which I was quite sure
20 they had no idea.

21 Q Directing your attention to the top of the document, do
22 you recognize that e-mail address in the very first line of the
23 document?

24 A Yes, that's my address.

25 Q And does this document accurately represent an e-mail

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

193

1 that you sent to the NRA board on March 15th, 2021?

2 A Yes. Yes, this is the e-mail that I wrote.

3 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I move for the admission of
4 PX 3572.

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MS. EISENBERG: Yes. We object to portions of it
7 coming in for its truth, also as an improper legal opinion.

8 MR. WERBNER: Your Honor, I object that it's 9 hearsay on its face. It says it's related from what people
10 have told them.

11 MR. WANG: Your Honor, may I respond?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. WANG: Your Honor, this is Mr. Marshall's own
14 impressions. He indicates in the document himself what his 15 impressions are based on, including a review of numerous
16 amounts of documents. He's testifying. He's on the stand.
17 He's testifying. We're not offering the specific paragraphs
18 for the truth of the matter asserted but for the fact that 19 he's reaching out to the board. He's trying to express
20 concerns to the board and he's communicating to them. He's 21 introducing himself to the board. He hasn't had a board
22 meeting yet, as he testified to, and he's trying to explain
23 who he is and what his opinions are and how he can make a
24 contribution.

25 THE COURT: Objection is overruled. It's admitted.

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

194

1 Q Mr. Marshall, just directing your attention to the
2 first two paragraphs at the very top of this document. What is
3 the purpose of this communication?

4 A Well, so this was -- this was an odd situation. I'm
5 writing to people that I have never met. And I hope that I
6 could meet them at the first board meeting. Keep in mind that 7 this is when COVID was going on. So, the board meeting got 8 canceled. So, we weren't going to meet. And I was really 9 concerned at that point because all of this bankruptcy stuff is 10 happening. So, what I was trying to do is a couple of things.
11 One is I was trying to introduce myself but also I was trying to 12 share with the board I have a lot of experience here in terms of 13 industry and other things. So, I was trying to get through that 14 as quick as I could and start talking about the concerns that I 15 have.

16 Q What kind of response did you receive to this e-mail
17 message?

18 A Well, it wasn't received well.

19 Q And what do you mean by not received well?

20 A Well, so some of what I was trying to accomplish here
21 was I expected directors to respond to me either with 22 information that I did not have or if they had a different
23 opinion about some of the things that I was talking about, I
24 thought I could start a dialogue and at least start this process
25 of figuring out where can we go with the bankruptcy. Instead I

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

195

1 received some hate mail from a couple of the board members.

2 Q Who did you receive hate mail from?

3 MS. EISENBERG: Objection.

4 THE COURT: To that question?

5 MS. EISENBERG: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Overruled.

7 A I received an e-mail, a joint e-mail from Marion
8 Hammer, David Keene and Kayne Robinson.

9 Q Who is Marion Hammer?

10 A Marion Hammer is a longtime serving board of director
11 member, former president of the NRA. David Keene is also a long
12 time NRA member, former president of the NRA. And Kayne
13 Robinson is also a long-term, actually he was on staff at one
14 point but also on the board for a long time.

15 Q And what was the sum and substance of the negative
16 responses you received from these individuals?

17 A Well, basically they said I didn't know what I was 18 talking about. So, I mean, it was a lengthy mail that was sent 19 out to the entire board. And they were challenging some of the 20 comments I said by inferring that I didn't have any background
21 to talk about these things.

22 Q Did you receive any positive responses to your e-mail?

23 A I did.

24 Q And what was the nature of the positive responses?

25 A So, I got e-mails and phone calls. So, at this point

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

196

1 so I only know a couple of board members and some boards members
2 would actually call me. We would have talks about it. Then I
3 got some positive e-mails. The positive e-mails I noticed were 4 just from that board member to me instead of it being to all the 5 board, which I thought was peculiar, because I'd already started
6 this dialogue with everyone and they wouldn't respond to me
7 individually about they supported the things that I was saying
8 here.

9 Q Were the negative responses sent to you individually or 10 distributed widely?

11 A They were sent to the entire board.

12 Q You had mentioned you wanted to attend a physical board
13 meeting. Did you ever attend any physical board meetings while
14 you served on the board?

15 A I did. In 2021 I think I attended every board meeting
16 that actually physically happened. I think there were four or 17 five total board members that year.

18 Q To the best of your recollection what was the first
19 board meeting you attended in person?

20 A That was in March of 2021.

21 Q And what was the purpose of this board meeting?

22 A So the only real purpose, I mean I think there was like
23 general business that was scheduled to occur. The primary 24 purpose was to ratify the bankruptcy filing that occurred in 25 January.

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

197

1 Q What does it mean to ratify a bankruptcy filing?

2 A Okay. What the goal was was to present to the board of
3 directors the bankruptcy filing and then have the board vote to 4 approve the bankruptcy filing.

5 Q This was for a bankruptcy filing that had already been
6 made?

7 A It had already occurred, yes.

8 Q Did you receive any documents prior to this board
9 meeting?

10 A I did not.

11 Q How does the lead up to this board meeting compare to 12 the lead up of board meetings you would have attended at other
13 nonprofits?

14 A This was pretty odd. I haven't done this in a long
15 time. In the boards that I've managed and chaired we -- we send 16 tons of information to the directors. We don't want them coming
17 to a meeting and not know what we're talking about. We 18 literally would send hundreds of pages of documents. The NRA
19 would send an agenda that typically was a one page agenda,
20 mostly an outline of what time the meeting started, what time is 21 lunch, what time is the meeting over. Generally there was not
22 any information provided regarding what would be discussed.
23 There might be a notation about committee meetings and things
24 like that. Really nothing provided other than just an outline.

25 Q Would you say that is similar or different than your

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

198

1 prior experience?

2 A This is -- this is not like any board I've ever been
3 on.

4 Q And did this lead up to the board meeting make it
5 difficult for you as a board member?

6 A Well, yes, 'cause you're coming to a board meeting not
7 prepared. It's the worst case scenario, because as a director
8 you're voting on things that you should research and spend time
9 reading and understanding and that was not happening. So, I was 10 coming to the meeting with no idea. We were guessing what the 11 point of the meeting was and did not find that out until we were 12 actually in the meeting.

13 Q Was there a vote taken at this meeting?

14 A There was a vote taken.

15 Q And did you vote at the meeting?

16 A I did.

17 Q What was the subject matter of the vote?

18 A The subject matter was to again ratify or approve the 19 bankruptcy filing that occurred in January.

20 Q How did you vote?

21 A I voted no.

22 Q And did the vote pass?

23 A The vote passed.

24 Q Do you recall if anyone else voted no?

25 A Yes. Well, actually no, I was the only no vote on that

LAS

Direct-Marshall-Wang

199

1 particular vote.

2 Q Did you ever try to change that vote?

3 A I did.

4 Q Why?

5 A So during the course of this -- So keep in mind this is
6 a large board meeting. There are 76 directors. I think at that
7 meeting there might have been 40 or so there. I voted no.
8 There were several abstains. I think there were three or four 9 abstains, which means there is no voting. In the course of that 10 process a board member got up, came to speak with me and 11 requested that I change my vote to abstain instead of no.

12 Q Did the NRA allow you to change that vote?

13 A No, they did not.

14 Q Other than the vote to ratify the bankruptcy, did
15 anything else take place at this board meeting?

16 A Well, yes. There was a discussion of the independent
17 examiner motion that had been filed by Judge Journey.

18 Q And what was the tenor of that discussion?

19 A It was pretty hostile.

20 Q And how would you describe that hostility?

21 A I think the best example, if you've ever seen the movie
22 Animal House, it was kind of like that food fight scene in the 23 lunchroom, it was along those lines. I mean, there was a lot of 24 shouting and yelling and that kind of thing.

25 Q Was the shouting directed at anyone in -- any

LAS

1 particular individual?

2 A Yes. It was directed at Judge Phil Journey.

3 Q And what did you observe happen with respect to Judge
4 Journey?

5 A It's actually shocking. I've not seen a board act that 6 way. People would stand up and actually, you know, shout at 7 Judge Journey because of the independent examiner motion that he
8 had filed. So it was pretty contentious, very hostile.

9 Q Was Judge Journey allowed to speak?

10 A He asked for a point of order because of Robert's Rules
11 of Order, to have a personal point of order so he could speak.
12 They allowed that. He got up to a microphone. He began to 13 speak. And they immediately cut him off. The lawyer, Witt
14 Davis, got -- went up to the dais. Charles Cotton I think was 15 leading the meeting. They stopped him and they said you're not 16 allowed to speak.

17 Q Did you attend any other board meetings while you were 18 a board member?

19 A Yes.

20 Q What was -- Do you recall when the next board meeting
21 you would have attended occurred?

22 A I think it was the May 1st meeting of that year.

23 (Continue on the next page.)

201

1 Q What was the purpose of that meeting?

2 A So the purpose of that meeting really was to approve
3 the reorganization plan that they were going to present to the 4 court because of the bankruptcy filing.

5 Q Were there -- were there any other issues --

6 Let me back up for a second: Did that -- did that --
7 was there a vote taken on that topic?

8 A There -- there was a vote taken.

9 Q And what was the result of that vote?

10 A It -- it passed.

11 Q Were there any other issues brought to light at this
12 board meeting?

13 A Oh. Um, not really. I think that was the primary
14 pur -- I mean, again, there's -- there was always certain things
15 that were discussed, things -- certain committee reports were -- 16 were discussed. There were opening comments, generally. But 17 that was the purpose, was to ratify this bankruptcy plan.

18 Q Mr. Marshall, are you familiar with a Special
19 Litigation Committee?

20 A I am.

21 Q And what do folks at the NRA generally refer to that 22 as?

23 A The "SLC."

24 Q And was there any business discussed by the SLC -- or 25 business regarding the SLC discussed at this board meeting?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

202

1 A Yes.

2 Q And what business was that?

3 A Okay. So the SLC --

4 Just let me back up just a little bit: The SLC was --
5 was created to handle not only the bankruptcy but other legal
6 matters. So, normally, on something like a bankruptcy, that --
7 that would -- the board of directors would be involved with 8 that. But before our -- or before my time, they created the 9 Special Litigation Committee to manage that process and to make 10 decisions and do the work of -- regarding those legal matters at 11 that point in time.

12 At this board meeting -- and, obviously, this was 13 contentious because on the SLC, there's really -- were two 14 people. You had this -- the first vice president and the second
15 vice president, and the president of the board. Carolyn Meadows
16 was the president of the board, but was also having some family
17 issues and she was gone a lot, so I wasn't sure that she 18 actually was participating. But Charles Cotton and Willes Lee, 19 who were the officers, were participating, and that was the 20 entire size of the board. So I -- it looked to me like there
21 were two people making a lot of decisions here.

22 Q Did you think that was a good idea?

23 A I did not think that was a good idea.

24 Q Did you make any suggestions for a potential change?

25 A I did.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

203

1 So, at this board meeting, I -- I had -- I created a
2 motion that we needed to expand the Special Litigation Committee
3 and add five additional board members so that the board could be
4 more fully represented, because you're making huge critical
5 decisions that affect the entire NRA by a couple of people. So
6 that -- that was the motion I made.

7 Q Was that motion successful?

8 A It was not successful.

9 Q How was this motion voted down?

10 A They had -- they took a vote and I think I received
11 two -- two or three -- votes on my motion, and the rest, um,
12 were against the motion.

13 Q Did anyone speak out against the motion?

14 A Oh, sure. Yeah, a lot -- a lot of people did.

15 Q Can you describe the resistance to this motion?

16 A It was pretty hostile. So, it wasn't as bad as the 17 "food fight" I described earlier; it's kind of less of a food
18 fight, but -- but it was pretty hostile. There were some --
19 some unprofessional comments made, like, "This is the stupidest
20 motion I've ever heard" and things like that. So --

21 Q And who was involved in making those kind of 22 statements?

23 A I don't know if I can remember everyone that was there,
24 but it was -- it was some of the more central people on the 25 board that had been there a long time.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

204

1 Q And when you refer to people who were central and who
2 had been there for a long time, can you give us an example of 3 who that -- who those individuals are?

4 A Okay. Yeah.

5 So -- I hope I can say this correctly: Okay. We had a
6 nickname for this group; we called it "The Cabal." And I
7 didn't -- that's not a name I came up with; another board member
8 told me that. And I said, "What's The Cabal?" and they said,
9 "It's kind of a core group that actually made most of the 10 decisions regarding the board and they were the ones mostly 11 informed." Typically, those people were former officers of the 12 board; they were former presidents of the board, been on the 13 board for 20-plus years. So it was a very small group; I would 14 say, maybe a dozen to 15 people.

15 Q Do you recall who some of those individuals were?

16 A Yes. Marion Hammer, Sandra Froman, Kayne Robinson,
17 David Keene; and there's others, too. If you give me the list,
18 I'm -- I can tell you who they are.

19 Q Mr. Marshall, I'm going to shift over to the summer of 20 2021 and direct your attention to a document that is in your 21 binder. It's actually not tabbed but it's a sleeve -- it's in 22 the sleeve. It is marked PX 3569.

23 A Yes.

24 Q Does this document look familiar to you?

25 A It does.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

205

1 Q What is it?

2 A Okay. This is a -- this is an e-mail that I wrote to
3 John Frazer regarding the directors and officers insurance
4 policy.

5 Q And just directing your attention to the very top of 6 the e-mail, do you recognize that first line? Whose e-mail is
7 that?

8 A That's my -- that's my e-mail address.

9 Q And whose e-mail address is in the "To:" section?

10 A That's John Frazer's e-mail address.

11 Q Do you recall sending this series of e-mails back and 12 forth with Mr. Frazer in the early-August time frame?

13 A Oh, sure.

14 Q And did you regularly use e-mail to communicate
15 business with NRA staff or NRA board members?

16 A I -- I did. In this case, I actually called John 17 first. And to get the -- to give you the back story: The 18 directors and officers insurance policy had been dropped by 19 Lloyds of London, who was the carrier, so there was no D&O
20 insurance.

21 Q Mr. Marshall, just before we dive into that: Does --

22 A Okay.

23 Q Do these e-mail represent a fair and accurate
24 representation of e-mails you engaged with, with Mr. Frazer?

25 A It -- it does, absolutely does.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

206

1 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I move to admit PX 3569 into
2 evidence.

3 THE COURT: Any objection?

4 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

5 THE COURT: It's admitted.

6 (Image displayed.)

7 BY MR. WANG:

8 Q So, Mr. Marshall --

9 So the way these e-mails work, the bottom e-mail on 10 page 4 of 4 of PX 3569 would be the first e-mail and the first
11 e-mail is dated Monday, August 9th, 2021.

12 Do you see that e-mail that I'm directing your 13 attention to?

14 A I -- I see it.

15 Q And do you recall receiving this e-mail?

16 A Yes.

17 Q What was your reaction to receiving this e-mail?

18 A Okay. Are you talking about the --

19 Okay, which one -- which one are you talking about?

20 Q The first e-mail in the chain, which occurs on Monday,
21 August 9th, 2021 (indicating), from Mr. Frazer.

22 A Okay. That's not here (indicating).

23 THE COURT: The back of the page.

24 THE WITNESS: Ah. Okay.

25 Q I'm sorry. They're double-sided.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

207

1 A Oh, yes. Okay.

2 Yes, I -- I recognize this (indicating).

3 Q What was your reaction to receiving this message?

4 A I was excited. I thought, "Okay, great," because as 5 a -- this is important because if you -- as an -- as a director,
6 you want to have insurance to protect you, and knowing that they
7 had gotten a D&O policy was important to me and I was excited
8 about that.

9 Q Taking a step back, Mr. Marshall: Do you know what D&O
10 insurance is?

11 A Yes.

12 Q What does it stand for?

13 A It's directors and officers insurance.

14 Q And can you explain the concept of directors and 15 officers insurance?

16 A It's -- it's basically liability insurance; so, in the 17 event that you're sued in the course of being a director, you
18 have coverage that protects you in that lawsuit.

19 Q And in this series of communications with Mr. Frazer,
20 what were you asking for?

21 A I wanted to see a copy of it.

22 Q Did you receive a copy of it?

23 A I did not.

24 Q How many times did you ask for a D&O policy?

25 A Actually, I think it was around a dozen times I asked

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

208

1 for it. We -- three phone calls and e-mails, and also -- yeah,
2 mostly e-mails. Yeah.

3 Q Were you given a reason as to why this document
4 couldn't be provided to you?

5 A It was confidential.

6 Q Did that explanation make sense to you?

7 A No, it did not.

8 Q Why not?

9 A The directors and officers insurance policy is 10 purchased to protect people like me and the other directors, so
11 this is the policy that I have ownership in. And I explained to 12 John that I need a copy of this because I -- first of all, I
13 want to know that I'm actually covered. So this is like having 14 a car insurance policy and you want to know that it's going to 15 work. And, um -- and I also wanted to show it to my personal
16 attorney and my insurance company to make sure that this is a
17 good policy and that I don't have to take out additional 18 insurance to make sure I'm protected.

19 Q Were you given any alternatives to viewing the
20 document?

21 A Yes, I was.

22 Q And what alternative was that?

23 A I could fly to Virginia and I could visually read the 24 document in their offices.

25 Q Okay. What state do you live in, again?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

209

1 A I live in Texas.

2 Q And was this alternative feasible for you?

3 A Not -- it really wasn't. I mean, they wanted me to fly
4 to Virginia. This was during COVID, also, and so, you know, I
5 wasn't -- I'm 64. I know I look younger but I'm 64. And I
6 wasn't anxious about crawling on an airplane. And I do have
7 underlying health issues with asthma. I said, you know, "I
8 don't need this risk," but I -- I was frustrated that I just 9 couldn't get a physical copy to -- to review at my leisure.

10 Q Did you feel that Mr. Frazer responded to your
11 concerns?

12 A No, not at all.

13 Q I'm going to direct your attention to tab 1 of the 14 binder that is in front of you, Mr. Marshall, and that's a 15 document that bears a premarked exhibit number of PX 2156, under 16 tab 1 of your binder.

17 A I see it.

18 Q So, for this document, there is an e-mail that begins
19 on page 2 of 2156 and there are a couple of e-mails on page 1.
20 Does this document look familiar to you, sir?

21 A Yes, it does.

22 Q What is it?

23 A Okay. So on -- on page 1 is an e-mail from Wit Davis
24 to Alexander Reid, who's an attorney; and then the other -- the 25 other part of the document is things that I wrote to the Ethics

1 Committee.

2 Q I'm going to directing your attention to the e-mail
3 starting on page 2. Is that your e-mail at the very top of the
4 document?

5 A Yeah, that -- that's my e-mail.

6 Q And who are the recipients in the "2" section of this
7 e-mail?

8 A In this is everyone that resides on the Ethics
9 Committee; it's the chairman, plus everyone else.

10 Q And you recognize their e-mail addresses?

11 A Yes, I do.

12 Q And you recognize this as an e-mail that you sent to 13 members of the Ethics Committee?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And these (indicating) e-mails represent a fair and
16 accurate representation of e-mails that you sent to the NRA
17 Ethics Committee in September of 2021?

18 A That -- that is correct.

19 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I move for the admission of 20 2156 into evidence.

21 THE COURT: Any objection?

22 MS. EISENBERG: There is a section that's hearsay,
23 your Honor, but I just wanted to note that.

24 THE COURT: Which section?

25 MS. EISENBERG: Page 2 of 3, second-to-last

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 paragraph, second-to-last sentence.

2 (Pause.)

3 MS. EISENBERG: It starts with the word "Mister,"
4 period.

5 THE COURT: Is that person Mr. -- someone who is 6 outside counsel to the NRA?

7 MS. EISENBERG: Correct.

8 THE COURT: So I think he's an agent of a party.
9 So, overruled.

10 MR. WANG: I think we were in the middle of -- I
11 was asking for admission of 2156.

12 THE COURT: Right you are.

13 Objection is overruled.

14 The document is admitted.

15 (Image displayed.)

16 BY MR. WANG:

17 Q Mr. Marshall, just directing your attention to your
18 e-mail, the very top of the e-mail where, in the "Re:" -- R-e --
19 section, it says: "Ethics complaint for Mr. John Frazer" --

20 A Yes.

21 Q -- can you describe why you brought an ethics complaint
22 against Mr. Frazer?

23 A Okay. So this was so frustrating because, as a
24 director, I have an absolute right to every record of the 25 corporation -- that's the whole job -- and that cannot be

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

212

1 withheld from me. And so -- especially on something like this,
2 where this is a policy for me. So my frustration had reached
3 the point where I said, "This is totally ridiculous; I need to
4 do something." I filed the Ethics Committee [sic] because I
5 really wanted to document this for the other board members, that 6 this is ridiculous; we're not getting just things that we need
7 to do our job.

8 So that's why I did that.

9 Q Was this (indicating) ethics complaint responded to?

10 A Yes. Actually, it was responded to.

11 Q And how was it responded to?

12 A I -- I received a pretty harsh e-mail from Marion
13 Hammer, who complained that I had copied Alex Reid, who's a
14 lawyer that I had contacted to help me get this policy, and she 15 did not know who Alex Reid was.

16 Q Did you ever get this policy from the NRA?

17 A I did not.

18 Q Did the NRA ever act on this (indicating) ethics
19 complaint you filed against Mr. Frazer?

20 A I have no knowledge of that.

21 Q Mr. Marshall, are you familiar with the NRA's finances,
22 in general?

23 A I am.

24 Q Have you reviewed the NRA's 990s?

25 A I have.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

213

1 Q Have you reviewed NRA financial statements?

2 A I have.

3 Q What general information have you gleaned from your
4 review of recent NRA financial statements?

5 A Okay. So --

6 MS. EISENBERG: Objection.

7 A -- I kind of created ... I'm sorry.

8 MS. EISENBERG: I'm not sure this witness is an
9 expert on the topic about which he was asked.

10 MR. WANG: May I respond, your Honor?

11 We're not offering Mr. Marshall as an expert
12 witness. He's a member of the -- he, at this period of 13 time, was a member of the board of directors. As part of 14 his responsibilities as a member of the board of directors,
15 he is responsible for understanding the financial 16 wherewithal of the organization. He's testified that he 17 studied numerous 990s, financial reports, audits, and he's 18 also testified that he has familiarity with these documents.

19 I think it is appropriate testimony.

20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 You can answer.

22 Q Mr. Marshall, what information have you gleaned from 23 your review of these NRA financial statements?

24 A Okay. So I spent a lot of time going through the --
25 the 990, which is their tax form -- their tax statement -- and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

214

1 the peak of the NRA's revenues was in 2016, when they had $366
2 million in revenue. Last year, it ended at 211 million. The
3 member dues, the amount of monies that come in from the members,
4 had peaked to about $163 million; last year it was $83 million.

5 So I've gone through the numbers at length. Last year,
6 they lost money, for example.

7 And I would say that these financials are in -- in 8 pretty bad shape for any company or any organization.

9 Q What does diminished revenue mean for NRA programs?

10 A Yeah, the big -- the big hurt in all of this, as the 11 revenues have declined, is, the programs that -- that the NRA
12 supports are really valuable. The NRA is known for its lobbying
13 efforts. That's really the small part of what it does. The big 14 part of what it does: It does things like train single moms in 15 Chicago on how to properly handle a firearm. You know, it's --
16 it does gun safety for police officers and military. It
17 supports competition in shooting and those kinds of things. And 18 so it does a whole bunch of things. If there's no monies coming
19 in for those programs, those programs cannot happen.

20 Q Have you found that the spending on those programs has 21 declined?

22 A It absolutely has, yes.

23 Q Have you donated to the NRA in the past?

24 A I have not donated recently, in several years now.

25 Q Why have you stopped donating?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

215

1 A Because I felt like the money was not being used to
2 support the mission.

3 Q Mr. Marshall, what's your current involvement with the
4 NRA?

5 A Currently, I'm actually seeking to be included on the 6 board again, and my name will appear on the -- on the upcoming
7 ballot in March of this year.

8 Q And how did you seek re-election?

9 A I sought re-election through the nominating committee.
10 My name was once again -- my nom -- my name has been submitted
11 every year since I was on the board; it was once again submitted
12 and I was rejected by the nominating committee.

13 And then the second way you can get on the ballot is 14 through petition, so I was able to garner enough signatures on a 15 petition that allowed me to get on the ballot, so my name will 16 appear on the ballot.

17 Q To the best of your knowledge, did your qualifications
18 change between 2019 and 2023?

19 A I got a little older, but my qualifications are the 20 same.

21 Q And you said you are on the ballot by petition. What 22 does that mean?

23 A So that means that I had -- I had to go out and contact
24 members that were eligible to vote and -- and have them
25 physically sign a petition that they wanted me to be included on

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

216

1 the ballot and then submit that documentation to the NRA. And I
2 did and my name was -- was included.

3 Q Why did you choose to run for the board again?

4 A You know, my hope, really, from the beginning until 5 now, was to help it and to put it on a -- on a -- the right
6 path, and they've been on the wrong path for a very long time,
7 in my opinion. And so, that's my entire goal. They still need
8 a lot of help and I think I have a certain skill set, as a -- as 9 a board of director member, that I can help provide some 10 leadership and some direction on -- on where they should go in 11 the future.

12 Q Well, based on your experience on the board,
13 Mr. Marshall, do you have a view as to whether Mr. LaPierre was 14 effective as the NRA's EVP?

15 A You want to define that for me?

16 Q Do you think he did a good job?

17 A You know, um, I'm torn about this, because I do believe
18 that Wayne worked hard as the -- as the EVP director, but -- but 19 then a lot of other things happened along with that that was not 20 appropriate. So, yes, he -- Wayne worked hard. Unfortunately,
21 he made some poor management decisions here.

22 Q Do you have a view as to whether Mr. LaPierre should be
23 allowed to be reappointed or reelected to the position of NRA
24 EVP?

25 A Yeah. Mr. LaPierre should not be reappointed as a --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

217

1 in any role for the National Rifle Association.

2 Q Now, based on your experience on the board, do you have
3 a view as to whether Mr. Frazer was an effective general counsel
4 and secretary for the NRA?

5 A My opinion is, Mr. John Frazer was not effective as 6 general counsel and secretary and should not be reappointed in 7 that role.

8 Q As a candidate for the board and a current NRA
9 Benefactor Member, what would you like to see happen with the
10 NRA?

11 A You know, I don't know how to say this: You know, my
12 mom always said, you know, "The proof's in the pudding."
13 There's a lot of pudding here. There's a lot of pudding. And 14 so there -- over the next six weeks, you're going to hear a lot
15 of things that need to be dealt with, and I -- I'm sure the 16 Judge will consider those things.

17 You know, I would hope that -- that the Court would 18 appoint a monitor to oversee the NRA, so we can get it back on 19 track, on the mission that it was set out to do.

20 And I --

21 MR. WANG: Thank you for your testimony,

22 Mr. Marshall.

23 THE WITNESS: Okay.

24 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, may we approach?

25 (The following occurred at sidebar:)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

218

1 THE COURT: What's the issue?

2 MR. CORRELL: Mr. Wang has just obliterated the 3 line between your phase of the trial for reappointment and 4 monitor.

5 THE COURT: He hasn't obliterated anything. He's 6 mentioned the type of relief that the jury is not going to 7 be asked to provide, so I think it doesn't have any
8 substantive effect on the Court or this trial.

9 So what is it that you request?

10 MR. CORRELL: Well, my objection is that he has 11 introduced a question to the jury of whether or not 12 Mr. LaPierre should be reelected or reappointed. There is 13 no valid --

14 THE COURT: This is about as a board member, and 15 the board does vote on that. He can -- you know, as a board
16 member, he can give that view.

17 There was no objection raised to the question,
18 first of all, but -- so --

19 MR. CORRELL: Mr. LaPierre is not seeking 20 re-election or reappointment, and he was never appointed,
21 so --

22 THE COURT: Well, I mean, you can ask that 23 question, if you want --

24 MR. CORRELL: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: -- on cross.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

219

1 MR. WANG: That doesn't mean that it wouldn't
2 happen in the future.

3 THE COURT: Yeah. I mean, I --

4 So what else -- what do you --

5 Does anybody want any relief?

6 MS. EISENBERG: Yes. The last Q and A, we would 7 like that struck from the record, because we can't defend 8 against that request for relief, and they should never have 9 elicited it.

10 THE COURT: Well, he didn't elicit it. The witness
11 just said it.

12 MR. WANG: Agreed.

13 THE COURT: And just so we're clear, I will 14 reference it to say that that's not an issue for the jury to 15 be concerned with.

16 MS. EISENBERG: That's fine.

17 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

18 MR. WANG: Thank you, your Honor.

19 (Counsel returned to counsel table.)

20 THE COURT: So, members of the jury, just a quick
21 clarification:

22 In the last question and answer, there was a
23 reference to a monitor. I just want to make it clear:
24 There is no issue for you about appointing a monitor.
25 That's not anything that you're going to have to either

1 address or deal with. So that's just not part of the case
2 in front of you.

3 So I'm going to just strike that part of the answer
4 from the record.

5 All right, cross-examination?

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 BY MS. EISENBERG:

8 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Marshall.

9 A Hi.

10 Q My name is Svetlana Eisenberg. I represent the NRA.

11 A All right.

12 Q You are a member of the NRA, right?

13 A Yes, I am.

14 Q Currently, you are not a board member; right?

15 A Currently, I'm not.

16 Q And you served as a board member in the past, right?

17 A Yes, I have.

18 Q That was in 2021?

19 A Correct.

20 Q Between in or around January of 2021 and in or around
21 October 2021, right?

22 A Yes, that's correct.

23 Q That was the only time you served as a board member of 24 the NRA, right?

25 A That is correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

221

1 Q You've never been an employee of the NRA?

2 A No.

3 Q Never been an officer of the NRA, right?

4 A No.

5 Q What are the bylaws --

6 What do the bylaws of the NRA say about the election of 7 the executive vice president?

8 A The election of the executive vice president? So
9 there's -- there's a process, and so the EVP is elected by the
10 board of directors.

11 Q And you ran for that position in 2021?

12 A I didn't run; I was nominated.

13 Q And there was a vote, right?

14 A There was a vote.

15 Q And all the board members cast their votes, right?

16 A All that were present cast their vote.

17 Q And you received two votes, right?

18 A I think I got two.

19 Q And Mr. LaPierre won that race, right?

20 A He did, definitely, win, yes.

21 Q You were rep --

22 You, as a board member, could introduce resolutions;
23 right?

24 A Yes, and I did while I was on the board.

25 Q And in fact, you did that; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

222

1 A Yeah.

2 Q Now, let's talk about what the NRA does. You believe
3 that the NRA performs a valuable service to the community and 4 the society; correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And fights for the Second Amendment?

7 A Yes.

8 Q It provides marksmanship training?

9 A Yes.

10 Q It's involved with law enforcement?

11 A Yes.

12 Q The military?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Also, outreach to the young people; right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And you believe that the NRA does all of those things
17 today, right?

18 A It -- it attempts to do those things, yes.

19 Q And you believe, in 2021, that the NRA did all of those 20 things then; right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q After you were appointed to the board in January of 23 2021, you requested Forms 990 from Mr. Frazer; right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And those forms were provided to you, right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

223

1 A They were.

2 Q You reviewed them?

3 A I have.

4 Q Each one of them?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Every page of them.

7 A Yes.

8 Q You also requested the NRA's financial statements from 9 Mr. Frazer, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And the financial statements that you requested were 12 provided to you, right?

13 A I -- I received -- yes. At that point in time, I think
14 I received them all, yes.

15 Q And you reviewed them, right?

16 A I did.

17 Q Each one?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Every page?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And Mr. Davis, the outside counsel -- board counsel --
22 also provided you with a lot of infor -- with a lot of 23 information, verbally; right?

24 A Verbally, yes.

25 Q Are you familiar with other board members of the NRA?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

224

1 A Again, can you rephrase that? What -- I'm sorry; what?

2 Q There are 76 board members at the NRA, right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q And are you -- do you know any of them?

5 A I -- I knew of a couple of them, but once I was on the
6 board, I knew -- obviously -- I knew, you know, many of them,
7 yes.

8 Q And sitting here right now, do you -- how many board
9 members of the NRA, currently sitting on the board, do you think
10 you can name?

11 A Do you want me to try that?

12 Q Just give us a ballpark example.

13 A I could probably name a dozen, sure.

14 Q A dozen of the 76, about?

15 A Yeah. Either -- the ones that are currently there?
16 Yeah.

17 Q And would you agree with me that the NRA Board includes
18 individuals who are highly accomplished?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Highly credentialed?

21 A Some, yes.

22 Q Senator Larry Craig?

23 A I'm sorry; what?

24 Q Senator Larry Craig?

25 A Right. Yeah, he was on the board.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

225

1 Q Lieutenant Governor Mark Robinson --

2 A Right.

3 Q -- from North Carolina?

4 A He's still on the board, I think.

5 Q Kim Rhode?

6 A Yep.

7 Q An Olympic medalist?

8 A Right.

9 Q Let's take a look at the document that Mr. Wang showed
10 you.

11 MS. EISENBERG: Mr. Lee [sic], would you please
12 display Exhibit PX 3569, which is in evidence?

13 A Is that in this (indicating) binder?

14 Q Yes.

15 THE COURT: It's the one in the sleeve.

16 THE WITNESS: Oh, in the sleeve?

17 (Image displayed.)

18 Q I'd like to focus on an e-mail message in the thread
19 that begins at the top of page 2.

20 (Image modified.)

21 Q And Mr. Wang did not show you this portion of the 22 thread during his direct examination, did he?

23 A I'm sorry; say that again? I -- I can't hear you well.

24 Q I'm so sorry.

25 Is this (indicating) better?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

226

1 A Yeah, that's a little better.

2 Q Okay. Do you have page 2 of the exhibit in front of
3 you?

4 A Yeah, Exhibit 3569, right.

5 Q Correct.

6 A Okay, got it.

7 Q And at the top of page 2, do you see an e-mail message
8 from Mr. Frazer to yourself, sent on August 13th, 2021, at 3:23
9 p.m.?

10 A I see it.

11 Q When Mr. Wang asked you questions, he asked you about 12 certain e-mail messages in this (indicating) e-mail thread;
13 right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q He did not ask you any questions about this 16 (indicating) specific e-mail message, did he?

17 A I don't -- no, I don't think so.

18 MR. WANG: Objection.

19 Q And --

20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 Q And Mr. Frazer wrote you this e-mail on August 13,
22 2021; right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And he apologized to you for his delayed response?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Marshall - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

227

1 Q And he indicated that the forms had not yet been issued
2 by the underwriters, right?

3 A Yeah. I saw that. It didn't make sense to me, but I
4 did see that.

5 Q And in the second-to-last paragraph that starts with
6 the words "To facilitate" --

7 MS. EISENBERG: If we can blow that up ...

8 (Image modified.)

9 Q -- he also offered that he would bring any other
10 available information to Houston, along with the policy, of 11 course, if that's available by then; right?

12 A That's what -- yes, that's what it says, yes.

13 Q And you were in Houston; weren't you?

14 A Yes.

15 Q You didn't ask him for a copy when you were in Houston,
16 did you?

17 A No.

18 Q Who is Oliver North?

19 A Oliver North is a well-known military guy. He was 20 former president of the NRA.

21 Q Would you agree that the NRA has a robust
22 conflict-of-interest policy?

23 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor.

24 The line of questioning is outside the scope of the
25 direct examination.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 THE COURT: I'm going to overrule that.

2 Q Would you like the question repeated?

3 THE COURT: I think the scope was fairly broad in 4 terms of his discussion of the -- of the entity, so I'll let 5 you ask that.

6 MS. EISENBERG: Thank you, your Honor.

7 A One more time?

8 Q Of course.

9 Would you agree that the NRA has a conflict-of-interest
10 policy?

11 A Can I see it?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

229

1 Q I'm asking you sitting here right now are you aware
2 that the NRA has a conflict of interest policy?

3 A I'm sure they must have one. Off the top of my head I
4 can't remember. If I read it, I don't remember what it says.

5 Q So sitting here right now you don't know whether or not
6 the NRA has a conflict of interest policy?

7 A If you let me see it I can tell you.

8 Q Who is Esther Schneider?

9 A Esther Schneider is a former NRA board member.

10 Q Do you know her personally?

11 A I've met her through the NRA, yes. So, I know her
12 personally now, yes.

13 Q When did you first meet her?

14 A At the bankruptcy trial.

15 Q If a board member enters into a transaction with a
16 major vendor of the NRA, do you believe that that is something
17 that the audit committee must preclear before the board member
18 receives any payments from the vendor?

19 A I would love to see -- You're talking about something
20 that sounds specifically. Can I see that or do you have that 21 example that I can see? That I can read?

22 Q I'm just asking you for your opinion.

23 A Okay. Say it again.

24 Q If a board member enters into a transaction with a
25 major vendor of the NRA, do you believe that this transaction

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Eisenberg

230

1 must be preapproved by the audit committee before it goes
2 forward?

3 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor. This is an
4 unclear hypothetical.

5 THE COURT: Well, look, obviously he's not an
6 expert. So there were -- Not an expert witness I should
7 say. Not saying that -- I let the other side ask questions
8 because they were decisions that the board would make. Are 9 you -- I don't think he's here to give a legal opinion about
10 something, but if you want to ask based on his time as a
11 board member whether he understood that this is something
12 within his remit to understand.

13 MS. EISENBERG: Certainly.

14 THE COURT: He's a fact witness not an expert
15 witness.

16 Q Mr. Marshall, you earlier testified that the board's
17 role is to provide oversight, right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And as part of that oversight, you expect board members
20 to be familiar with the NRA's conflict of interest policy,
21 right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And you expected yourself to be familiar with that
24 policy, right?

25 A Right.

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Correll

231

1 Q Yet sitting here right now you don't even remember if
2 the NRA has one?

3 A I suspect they do. I can't recall it. I would love to 4 see it if you have it.

5 MS. EISENBERG: No further questions.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Any further questions? Mr.
7 Correll.

8 CROSS EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. CORRELL:

10 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Marshall. I'm Kent Cornell. I
11 represent Wayne LaPierre.

12 A Yeah. I think we met before.

13 Q Do you still want Wayne LaPierre's job?

14 A I never wanted his job.

15 Q I thought I heard you testify you ran for that
16 position?

17 A I was nominated for that position. I agreed to be 18 nominated.

19 Q Okay. So, you stood for election for that position?

20 A I did reluctantly, yes.

21 Q But you didn't want the job?

22 A I did not.

23 Q Why did you stand for election for that position?

24 A At that point in time we were -- NRA was in some 25 serious trouble. They wanted to nominate me to have someone to

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Correll

232

1 run against Wayne in hopes that we could get a new EBP.

2 Q And who is the they?

3 A Some of the board members.

4 Q Who exactly?

5 A Judge Phil Journey. Mark Skeleton. Buzz Owens.

6 Q Who else?

7 A I think that's all.

8 Q Okay. So three people wanted you to run?

9 A Yeah.

10 Q Okay. Are you planning to run for the EBP position
11 this year?

12 A No, I am not.

13 Q Thank you.

14 A Yep.

15 THE COURT: Anything further? You don't always 16 have to go last by the way.

17 CROSS EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. WERBNER:

19 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Marshall. My name is Mark Werbner.
20 I'm from Dallas, Texas and I represent Woody Phillips.

21 A Okay.

22 Q I want to ask you if you have any personal knowledge,
23 not what somebody has told you, but any personal knowledge of 24 what Willie Phillips has been doing the last five years?

25 A No.

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Fleming

233

1 Q Do you have any personal knowledge, not what someone
2 has told you about, what Willie Phillips has done in the last
3 ten years?

4 A No, I do not.

5 MR. CORRELL: I'll pass the witness.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 CROSS EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. FLEMING:

9 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Marshall. I'm William Fleming, and 10 I represent John Frazer. Just a couple of questions for you.
11 If I could direct --

12 MR. FLEMING: If someone could draw or bring up PX
13 3569, which is in evidence. And I could direct to the 14 second page.

15 Q Ms. Eisenberg just asked you questions about the e-mail
16 from Mr. Frazer dated August 13th, is that right? Do you recall
17 that?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And that was Mr. Frazer's response to your 20 e-mail below on August 12th, correct?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And so he responded within roughly 24 hours to you,
23 right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Now, in that Ms. Eisenberg pointed out to you that

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Fleming

234

1 Mr. Frazer conveyed the forms had not been issued, right?

2 A I'm sorry. Say that again.

3 Q The forms had not been issued, the insurance forms.

4 A He said that, which I thought was odd.

5 Q Did you ever find out that those insurance forms were
6 not delivered to the NRA until September 28th?

7 A I had no information on that.

8 Q By September 28th you had already filed an ethics
9 complaint against Mr. Frazer by then?

10 A I think that's correct, yes.

11 Q Now in this document still, and in the second or really
12 third paragraph, the one beginning "In addition", do you see
13 that?

14 A (Examining). Yes.

15 Q In the second line it says, "the leadership decided 16 that sensitive information such as you request will not be 17 forwarded by e-mail." Do you see that?

18 A I see that.

19 Q Did you understand who Mr. Frazer was referring to?

20 A I -- I -- I think I assumed that he was referring to 21 either Wayne LaPierre, Charles Cotton, maybe Willes Lee, I
22 assumed.

23 Q Is it your view that Mr. Frazer should have flouted the 24 directions of leadership?

25 A Yes. That is my -- my opinion, yes.

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Fleming

235

1 Q Okay. And you see in the last paragraph he assures you
2 that this decision is being applied equally to all similar
3 requests?

4 A I see that.

5 Q Okay. Now if we could go to page 1 of 4 of this
6 exhibit.

7 MS. KRAL: One or four?

8 MR. FLEMING: One of four of that same exhibit.

9 Q At the bottom category, "review in Houston", do you see
10 that?

11 A I see that.

12 Q I will read what it says. "This is unacceptable to me
13 in that I am requesting this document immediately so that I can
14 review with my personal attorney and my risk and coverage
15 inherent in the D&O policy." Do you see that?

16 A I see it.

17 Q So, you're responding to Mr. Frazer saying he doesn't 18 have the insurance policy, right?

19 A That was not my understanding at that point in time.

20 Q Well, you don't dispute that that's what he wrote, do
21 you?

22 A But prior to this e-mail he wrote and said he had the
23 policy.

24 Q You don't dispute that's what he wrote?

25 A That's what he wrote, yeah.

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Fleming

236

1 Q And you're responding to what he wrote, correct?

2 A I'm responding to the denial of having access to it,
3 yes.

4 Q Okay. And do you have any information that he had the
5 policy?

6 A No, other than his e-mail, when he said that we have
7 one.

8 Q That they have secured coverage, correct?

9 A Correct.

10 Q But he's written to you that the forms have not yet
11 been issued, correct?

12 A That's what he wrote, yes.

13 Q Are you saying that was an untruth?

14 A No. I'm not saying that.

15 MR. FLEMING: Okay. Now, if I could cull up the 16 August 31st e-mail for identification.

17 THE COURT: Is there an exhibit number?

18 MR. FLEMING: It would be JFX 103.

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I didn't hear that.

20 MR. FLEMING: JFX 103.

21 THE COURT: JFX 103?

22 MR. FLEMING: Yes.

23 Q Mr. Marshall, let me just ask you a couple final
24 questions.

25 A Sure.

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Fleming

237

1 Q The D&O insurance coverage was not the only issue you
2 were discussing with Mr. Frazer at the time, isn't that right?

3 A Are you talking about specific this line of discussion
4 or something else?

5 Q I'm talking about the time period we're addressing,
6 which is in August of 2021.

7 A Okay.

8 Q I'm asking if you recall discussing any other issues
9 with Mr. Frazer other than the directors and officers insurance
10 policy.

11 A I don't recall if I did. I mean, you have something
12 that you're referring to?

13 Q Sure. Do you recall discussing Lieutenant Colonel Alan
14 West?

15 A I do. Yes. Now I remember that, yes.

16 Q What was that issue?

17 A That issue was Lieutenant Alan West had resigned from 18 the board, and no notice had been given to the board that he had 19 resigned.

20 Q And do you recall talking to Mr. Frazer about the 76th
21 director election?

22 A I do.

23 Q And do you recall him telling you that every candidate
24 had been voted on so there was no one left to fill a 76 director
25 spot?

LAS

Cross-Marshall-Fleming

238

1 A Do you have that document? I think it was in the
2 e-mail, was it not? Not this one, but I think another one. Do
3 you have that? It wasn't this one.

4 Q No, it was not.

5 A I do remember discussing that in an e-mail form. I
6 don't think we talked about it over the phone.

7 Q My question to you is, do you recall him explaining and
8 giving you an answer?

9 A I do. I would love to read it to refresh my memory.

10 Q I have nothing further. Thank you.

11 A Thanks.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Anything on redirect?

13 MR. WANG: Very brief redirect. If we can bring up
14 3569, page 2 again, Jessie.

15 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. WANG:

17 Q Mr. Marshall, on cross examination you were asked a
18 number of questions about the e-mail at the top of this page and 19 you said you found the e-mail unusual. Why did you find it
20 unusual?

21 A Yeah. So, it struck me odd that John was not providing
22 something that I thought he clearly had described in his e-mail
23 that we had secured a policy. Typically when you say that you
24 have the policy. That's why you say that. That means you've 25 looked at it. And I thought this was just strange the way that

LAS

Redirect-Marshall-Wang

239

1 he responded to me in this case.

2 Q Why didn't you ask for the D&O policy at the meeting in 3 Houston?

4 A You know, 'cause I really wanted a copy. What he was 5 referring to is that I could come and read one. I'm not an
6 insurance guy. I'm not a lawyer, thank God. So, I wanted a
7 copy so I could actually give it to my insurance company and my 8 attorney to review, and they were not going to provide it. And
9 I did, in March of that 2021, I did also ask for the current D&O
10 policy, and I couldn't get a copy of that either. This was kind 11 of a continuation of that same thing, and my frustration was 12 pretty high at this point.

13 Q Were you concerned about risk?

14 A Absolutely I was concerned about risk.

15 Q Why were you concerned about risk?

16 A Because the NRA was in bankruptcy. There was a lot of 17 accusations of wrongdoing. The board of directors is 18 responsible to provide the oversight for the NRA. And I was a
19 board of director member.

20 Q Would you have accepted this document by hard copy
21 mail?

22 A Absolutely. Sure.

23 Q Would you have accepted this document by an encrypted
24 e-mail message?

25 A Absolutely. Sure.

LAS

Redirect-Marshall-Wang

240

1 Q Other than the D&O policy, were you denied access to
2 other critical information?

3 A Yes.

4 MS. EISENBERG: Outside the scope, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: That's true. They didn't ask about
6 that on theirs.

7 MR. WANG: No further questions.

8 THE COURT: Anything else?

9 (No response.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

11 THE WITNESS: Yep.

12 (Witness excused.)

13 THE COURT: Would you like to call your next
14 witness.

15 MR. WANG: Your Honor, the People call Esther
16 Schneider.

17 THE COURT: Counsel, do you want to gather back up
18 your binder so we don't confuse the witnesses.

19 MR. WANG: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 MR. WANG: Thank you, sir.

22 THE COURT: Jurors okay? Counsel, just a
23 procedural point. Since we're not -- we're not marking and 24 separately putting copies of the exhibits, they have all
25 been premarked. So I'm relying on counsel to keep a

LAS

3 reporter often times do that. I'm taking it that you all
4 are taking that on.

5 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we will.

6 MR. WANG: We are certainly doing it.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Let's bring the witness in.
8 Good afternoon.

9 THE COURT CLERK: Raise your right hand.
10 E S T H E R S C H N E I D E R, after having been duly sworn by 13 THE WITNESS: Esther Schneider.

14 THE COURT CLERK: Spell your last name.

15 THE WITNESS: S-C-H-N-E-I-D-E-R.

1 DIRECT EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. WANG:

3 Q Good afternoon.

4 A Good afternoon.

5 Q What is your name, ma'am?

6 A Esther Schneider.

7 Q And, Ms. Schneider, where do you reside?

8 A Texas.

9 Q And where are you originally from?

10 A Las Vegas.

11 Q Are you a member of the NRA?

12 A I am.

13 Q When did you join the NRA?

14 A Approximately 1997.

15 Q What is your membership level at the NRA?

16 A The highest one, a benefactor.

17 Q Do you support the NRA's mission?

18 A I do.

19 Q What's the NRA's mission?

20 A Basically to promote the Second Amendment and preserve
21 rights.

22 Q Can you describe, are you involved with the NRA?

23 A Not any longer.

24 Q Were you previously involved with the NRA?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

243

1 Q Can you describe your prior involvement with the NRA?

2 A I went to a lot of Friends dinners. I helped recruit
3 members. Helped recruit money. Raised money for the Women's 4 Leadership Forum and several other ancillary programs that were
5 involved with the NRA.

6 Q You mentioned Friends dinners. What's a Friends
7 dinner?

8 A That is part of the foundation. The money goes to the 9 foundation and raises money that 50 percent of it goes back to 10 the states in the form of grants so to build gun ranges, to help
11 train law enforcement, a multitude of programs for adults and 12 children.

13 Q Have you been involved in NRA committees?

14 A I have.

15 Q And what committees are those?

16 A I was involved with the membership committee and the 17 outreach committee.

18 Q Have you ever been a firearms trainer?

19 A I have.

20 Q And how long have you been a firearms trainer?

21 A I taught women to shoot for decades.

22 Q Ms. Schneider, why are you here today?

23 A I'm here to tell the truth about my experience at what 24 happened as a board member.

25 Q Ms. Schneider, what is your occupation?

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

244

1 A I'm a firearms dealer and instructor.

2 Q Do you have any business experience?

3 A I do.

4 Q Can you briefly describe for the Court your business
5 experience?

6 A So, basically started out after graduating from college
7 in the advertising and media world, worked in the gaming
8 industry and also in politics.

9 Q Have you ever served on the board of a nonprofit other
10 than the NRA?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And can you briefly describe your nonprofit experience?

13 A There has been more than two dozen organizations, Boy
14 Scouts of America, American Cancer Society. Gosh, there is a
15 lot of them.

16 Q Have you ever served on the NRA board?

17 A Yes.

18 Q When did you serve on the NRA board?

19 A I was elected in 2016 and served -- was elected twice
20 and then resigned in 2019.

21 Q How did you come to serve on the NRA board?

22 A I received a phone call.

23 Q Who did you receive a phone call from?

24 A Susan LaPierre.

25 Q And did that phone call have anything to do with you

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

245

1 running for the board?

2 A It did. She asked me if I would be interested in
3 submitting an application to run.

4 Q Who is Susan LaPierre?

5 A The wife of Wayne LaPierre.

6 Q And what was your response to Ms. LaPierre?

7 A I said to her, you know, I'm honored but I'm not
8 qualified. I didn't believe I was qualified to serve.

9 Q And did you end up running for the NRA board?

10 A I did.

11 Q Why did you end up running for the board?

12 A The more we talked about why I was qualified and all of 13 my experience and what I could actually do to help promote the 14 agenda of the NRA, I thought it was a great idea to do then.

15 Q And did you in fact run?

16 A I did.

17 Q How does that process work for running for the board of
18 the NRA?

19 A So, you submit your application. Well actually there
20 is two ways to run. One is by signature petition, where you
21 have to gather enough signatures to earn a spot on the ballot or 22 you can submit an application and be nominated by someone within 23 the organization and it would go in front of the nominating 24 board, the nominating committee.

25 Q And by which method did you end up running for the

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

246

1 board?

2 A I was told I was going to be nominated by Joel
3 Friedman, and that he would make sure that it was passed by the
4 nominating committee.

5 Q And you said you were told you had been nominated by 6 Joel Friedman. Who told you that?

7 A Susan LaPierre.

8 Q Did Mr. Friedman in fact nominate you?

9 A As far as I know. I never spoke to him.

10 Q With respect to the nominating committee, how did that 11 process work?

12 A I can only, since I never was part of the nominating
13 committee, I could only guess as the way the process works.
14 That the committee meets, reviews the applicants and makes a
15 decision on who is nominated.

16 Q Did they report you as a qualified candidate?

17 A Yes.

18 Q When you joined the board -- When did you join the
19 board?

20 A I believe that would have been in 2016.

21 Q Did you attend any NRA board meetings?

22 A Yes.

23 Q How do NRA board meetings work?

24 A You -- Depending on when your committees are is when 25 you are allowed to fly in. And the committee meetings happen

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

247

1 before the board meetings, so you can attend your committee
2 meetings and then the board meeting was on Saturdays and Sunday
3 if need be.

4 Q And what day of the week would committee meetings
5 typically be?

6 A They started on Wednesday.

7 Q How many board meetings were there typically in a year?

8 A Three.

9 Q Where are the board meetings generally held?

10 A They were typically always held in Virginia, and once
11 in a while there would be an offsite board meeting.

12 Q Directing your attention to the board meeting from 13 September of 2018. Did you attend this board meeting?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Can you describe the events of the September 2018 board
16 meeting?

17 A That's when the publicity started to come out I believe
18 with Josh Powell and inappropriate conduct.

19 Q And did you learn about these issues at the 2018 board
20 meeting?

21 A We did not.

22 Q How did you learn about issues?

23 A In newspaper reportings.

24 Q And did you attend the next board meeting in January of 25 2019?

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

248

1 A Yes.

2 Q Can you describe the events of the January 2019 board
3 meeting?

4 A We were hoping to hear, there were subsequently more
5 news reports that came out, and we had hoped that we would hear
6 more about those issues. We've been told that, you know, don't
7 worry about it. We will explain it. That you'll understand
8 there is nothing there.

9 Q Did you raise any concerns at the January 2019 board
10 meeting?

11 A I had conversations with, you know, quite a few people
12 about, you know, my concerns, what had been reported in the 13 media and asked a lot of questions. You know, is this true.
14 You know, is this really happening. Did this occur.

15 Q Who did you ask questions of?

16 A I did ask John Frazer and a couple other board members
17 who I thought would probably know, but they all basically
18 dismissed me.

19 Q Other than John Frazer, do you recall any other board
20 members who you say dismissed you?

21 A Sandy Froman I had spoken to, and I believe I had 22 spoken to Jim Porter. And I spoke to Sandy Perlman later in --
23 in conversations afterwards, but there were other board members,
24 Sean Maloney, Tim Knight, Buzz Mills. You know there were -- A
25 lot of us had questions that we couldn't seem to get answers

LAS

1 for.

2 Q Are you familiar with internal auditors, Ms. Schneider?

3 A I am.

4 Q And how are you familiar with internal auditors?

5 A In my previous employment I was assigned to, by the 6 governor, to clean up an internal million dollar ticket theft
7 from the Hoosier Lottery. And the internal auditor played a
8 huge role in that, because despite being required by the state
9 under the rules of the lottery, they were suppose to have done
10 an audit every year of policies and procedures and none were 11 done.

12 Q Did the NRA have an internal auditor?

13 A No.

14 Q How did you discover that?

15 A I asked John Frazer when things started to come out in 16 the media who was our internal auditor.

17 Q And what was his response?

18 A We don't have one.

19 Q Did this raise a level of concern for you?

20 A Yeah. I said why don't we have one. And he told me
21 Wayne LaPierre didn't want one.

22 Q After you discovered there was no internal auditor, did
23 you take any other actions?

24 A It raised a great deal of alarm for me because of the 25 amount of money that was raised by the NRA every year and the

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

250

1 fact that we had so many different reporting entities. It's
2 critical to every business, especially when you need
3 transparency, that job of the internal auditor is to make sure
4 the policies and procedures are in place and that you're in
5 compliance.

6 Q I'm going to hand you a binder with some documents.

7 MR. WANG: This is for the witness. This is for 8 the Judge.

9 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 Q Ms. Schneider, I'm going to ask you to open up your 12 binder and turn to tab four. This is a document marked PX 3230
13 and it is tab four in your binder.

14 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
15 request of counsel.)

16 A Okay.

17 Q This is an e-mail and it's followed by four additional 18 pages of text. Do you recognize this document?

19 A (Examining). Yes.

20 Q Is that your e-mail on the first page of the document
21 at the very top of the first line?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And are those e-mail addresses of fellow NRA board
24 members at this time?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

251

1 Q In April of 2019?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Do you recognize this document?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Is this document a fair and accurate representation of 6 an e-mail message you would have sent fellow NRA directors in 7 April?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And did you regularly conduct NRA business or 10 discussion of NRA business via e-mail?

11 A Yes.

12 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I move for the admission of
13 PX 3230.

14 THE COURT: Any objection?

15 MS. EISENBERG: Your Honor, objection to the extent
16 if the NYAG were to offer it for its truth, it is an out-of-
17 court statement that's inadmissible for that purpose. But 18 if the only purpose for offering is to just show that these 19 statements were made, we have no objection.

20 MR. WANG: We are offering it to show that 21 Ms. Schneider raised concerns with respect to activities
22 that were going on.

23 THE COURT: So it's the fact that she raised
24 concerns not the -- it's not proof of the underlying truth
25 of the concerns.

LAS

1 MR. WANG: Correct.

2 THE COURT: All right. It's admitted for that
3 purpose.

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

253

1 MR. FARBER: Judge, can we get a limiting
2 instruction and explain that to the jury?

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 As I mentioned, hearsay is a concept that witnesses
5 are on the stand to talk about their personal knowledge and 6 so, generally, we don't let a witness say, "Well, Jim told
7 me this and now I'm telling you this." The only time you
8 can do that, or one of the times, is if it's not to prove 9 that what Jim said is true but just to prove that, for 10 example, it was said.

11 So, if I were to testify, "Somebody told me, across 12 the street, that they were the President," if I were 13 testifying, if it was a commitment hearing as to whether 14 somebody was saying things that were obviously untrue, I
15 would be a firsthand witness to that being said. So I could 16 say, "Yeah, he told me; he said these things." But it
17 wouldn't be truth that he's the President, if you follow my 18 reasoning.

19 So here -- at the moment, anyway -- this is being
20 offered to just show, these are concerns the witness
21 conveyed. It kind of depends on what the underlying thing
22 says, but if in the things she wrote she's talking about
23 things that are not firsthand knowledge, then this document
24 doesn't prove those things but it's being offered to show,
25 these are concerns that were raised.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

254

1 So if you -- hopefully, you understand that
2 distinction. I'm probably going to explain it a number of
3 more times as we go because it's a little bit of a strange
4 concept.

5 But with that instruction, you can proceed.

6 And to the extent, by the way, there are
7 firsthand-knowledge items conveyed in here (indicating), you
8 can also consider it for that.

9 BY MR. WANG:

10 Q Ms. Schneider, I'm going to direct your attention to 11 320, page 2, the very top of the document, and the first full 12 paragraph that begins: "There are two imperative issues that 13 must be addressed."

14 (Image displayed.)

15 Q And just backing up for one second: Did you draft this
16 document?

17 A I did.

18 Q And why did you draft this document?

19 A These were things that I had observed that had been 20 cited in the newspapers and they raised questions, because we 21 have a fiduciary responsibility to the membership and part of 22 our position as a director is to be given information and to be
23 aware of things, and these highlight things that have happened,
24 that were reported in the media, that we were made -- not made
25 aware of in any board meeting.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

255

1 Q And directing your attention to the second sentence of
2 that first paragraph, when you say, "the intentional stifling of 3 critical information to the NRA Board of Directors," what do you
4 mean?

5 A That there were instances where this should have been 6 brought to the board for discussion or for approval and they 7 weren't.

8 Q And did you experience that happening on a firsthand
9 basis?

10 A Explain.

11 Q Yeah. Did you experience stifling of critical
12 information --

13 A Yes.

14 Q -- as a director?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Did you give any examples of instances where you felt
17 critical information was stifled from you?

18 A So, on several occasions I had asked John Frazer, via 19 e-mail or via -- usually via e-mail -- about, you know, if the 20 reporting and the stories in the newspaper were true, and either
21 it was -- from my memory -- it was either told to me that it
22 would be addressed later or that they would -- he would forward
23 it on to the appropriate committee.

24 Q Directing your attention to 3230, page 4, in the middle
25 of the first full paragraph, there is a reference to salaries

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

256

1 being paid to Mr. Kyle Weaver and Mark Marcellin for an entire
2 year after their NRA employment ended. Why was this an issue?

3 A If they are no longer employed by the NRA, why did we
4 continue to pay them?

5 Q And how did you discover this issue?

6 A These were reported in the 990s.

7 Q And is the 990 a public document?

8 A It is.

9 Q Did you review the 990?

10 A I did.

11 Q Did you review the 9 -- how did you review the 990?

12 A After knowing that there would be a record of these 13 expenditures, or should be, on the 990s, on the reporting for 14 the NRA, you go to the source where they are published, and that 15 would be in a particular state, and look them up on their 16 website.

17 Q Did you discuss this document with any fellow board
18 members?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Who did you discuss it with?

21 A Melanie Pepper, Buz Mills, Allen West, Sean Maloney,
22 Tim McKnight. There are quite a few others.

23 Q What was the purpose of gathering all this information
24 in this memo?

25 A Well, again, going back to having fiduciary

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

257

1 responsibility and seeing this information, these excessive
2 expenditures and things that just didn't make sense and wanting
3 to have answers, because, again, you know, it is our 4 responsibility as members -- if you're going to vote and you're 5 going to represent your organization and you're going to 6 represent the members who elected you and they ask you
7 questions, you need to know.

8 Q Were these (indicating) concerns addressed by the NRA?

9 A No.

10 Q And did you attempt to have these concerns raised
11 before NRA leadership?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And what was the response?

14 A Basically, in most cases, there wasn't a response.

15 Q In what period of time is this occurring during your 16 board service?

17 A So this is before -- I'd submitted my -- to run for 18 re-election and the -- I believe the ballots have already been 19 mailed to the members and the actual tallies would be given in 20 late April or May as to whether or not you would be reelected,
21 and I questioned on whether or not I -- I wanted to be on the
22 board.

23 Q And did you decide to run for the board again?

24 A I did.

25 Q And why was that?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

258

1 A I had a conversation with Joe DeBergalis --

2 (Whereupon, the reporter sought a spelling from the 3 witness of the above name.)

4 Q Ms. Schneider, I'm going to direct your attention to
5 the fifth tab of the binder that is in front of you. It is a
6 document that has the Bate -- that has that --

7 THE COURT: And just so it's clear, there was no
8 answer, actually, in the transcript to that question. After 9 she said the name "Joe DeBergalis," there's nothing in the 10 transcript.

11 MR. WANG: Okay.

12 THE COURT: So you may want to get that.

13 Q Can you finish your answer, Ms. Schneider? I'm sorry.

14 A Yes. I believe the question was: What was my 15 discussion with Joe DeBergalis?

16 Q Yes.

17 A I had discussed my concerns about all of these issues
18 that were -- that I didn't have answers to, and given the fact
19 that that I did not have answers, I did not want to serve on the 20 board. I did not want to create more exposure for myself,
21 potentially -- even, you know, sitting in this courtroom -- that 22 I would be in trouble for information that I didn't know about.
23 And Joe assured me that the problems -- that things were being
24 cleaned up, not to worry about it: "Don't worry."

25 Q Who's Joe DeBergalis?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

259

1 A At the time, he was the chief operating officer.

2 Q I'm going to direct your attention to the fifth tab of
3 your -- the binder that is in front of you. It's a document
4 that has been premarked PX 3231.

5 Are you there?

6 A Yes.

7 Q At the very top of this page, do you see an e-mail
8 address?

9 A I do.

10 Q Is that your e-mail address?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And are you sending this e-mail to an e-mail address
13 you understand to be Mr. Wit Davis's e-mail?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And is this a fair and accurate representation of an 16 e-mail that you would have sent to Mr. Davis on May 20th of 17 2019, with a four-page attachment?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And do you re -- did you draft the four-page attachment
20 that follows the first-page e-mail?

21 A I did.

22 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I move for the admission of
23 PX 3231.

24 MS. EISENBERG: Your Honor, the NRA objects to the 25 extent the Government were to offer it for the truth of the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

260

1 matter asserted, including as to any statements that on
2 their face appear to have been based on personal knowledge
3 of the testifying witness.

4 Of course, if the Government is offering it only to 5 show that the questions were asked or concerns were raised,
6 we have no objection.

7 THE COURT: Right.

8 So the same thing as the last one: So, to the 9 extent that it says, "Here's my concern from a newspaper
10 article that says A, B and C," you can take that part for 11 her raising the concern, but it's not proof of A, B and C.
12 That has to come from some direct source.

13 So it's the same thing.

14 So you can take it for the fact that these were 15 concerns that were expressed and if there are 16 firsthand-knowledge pieces of it, that's fine, as well, but 17 just to that limited extent.

18 MR. WANG: Your Honor, the only addition we would 19 have to that is, to the extent the observations are based on 20 statements from defendants, our position is, those are party
21 admissions that are not hearsay, and she will have firsthand
22 knowledge of some of the statements within this document and 23 we intend to elicit that testimony.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 So the second part of your first law school class

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

261

1 is that the Hearsay Rule has a number of objections [sic].
2 So if I were to say, you know, "Mr. Smith told me X" and I'm
3 now conveying that, if Mr. Smith is a stranger to the case,
4 that's hearsay. In a lawsuit, if I'm saying that the party
5 told me something and I'm conveying to you what they said,
6 that is admissible because the party can answer for 7 themselves later on. So that's sort of a complicated mix of 8 things here, because this document has a lot of different
9 things.

10 So, to the extent -- I don't know that it has
11 anything in here, but if it has, "Person X," who is a party,
12 one of the defendants, "told me this," then the only 13 credibility question is the witness saying, "Yes, they in 14 fact told me that." And so you can take her testimony,
15 because the only witness question is: Did the person say
16 it?

17 So we'll learn hearsay together over the course of 18 six weeks, but --

19 So this document -- to the extent she's repeating 20 conversations she's had with others who are not parties or 21 things she's read from other sources, you can consider it
22 only in the sense that she's conveying these concerns.

23 And you can consider her testimony of it coming
24 from one of the defendants as her testimony that she heard
25 it. That's -- you can -- they can cross-examine about

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

262

1 whether she heard it correctly.

2 So, with those crystal-clear clarifications, you
3 can consider this exhibit as admitted.

4 MR. WANG: Thank you, your Honor.

5 BY MR. WANG:

6 Q Ms. Schneider, I'm going to direct your attention just 7 to the cover e-mail on 3231, page 1. You sent an e-mail to 8 Mr. Davis with this document attached to it (indicating)?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Who was your intended audience?

11 A It would be to the Audit, Finance and other committees
12 that could -- would/should be responsible for providing an 13 answer.

14 Q Why were you sending this message to Mr. Davis?

15 A He had informed us that if we had additional questions
16 that had not been covered in the board meeting in Indianapolis,
17 that we could draft any questions and forward those to him and 18 he would make sure that we got answers.

19 Q When you sent these issues to Mr. Davis, did he in fact
20 ensure that you got answers?

21 A He said he would ask.

22 Q And what was the end result of that? Did -- did he --
23 did he in fact ask?

24 A I have no idea whether he in fact did ask, but I can
25 tell you, I got no answers.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

263

1 Q And just directing your attention to the second page of
2 the document, the fourth full paragraph that begins, "Why have
3 accounting ..." --

4 A Um-hmm.

5 Q -- did you raise this issue with the NRA's Audit,
6 Finance and other applicable committees?

7 A I did not, personally, because I was not able to attend
8 a lot of those meetings because they conflicted with my
9 committee meetings.

10 Q Well, how did you know that accounting issues were 11 presented by whistleblowers in 2018?

12 A Again, there were media reports that talked about 13 issues being raised, questions about the 990s that did not make 14 sense, and that's pretty much how I knew.

15 Q Were those presented to the full board?

16 A They were not.

17 Q And the next paragraph, just below that, that begins,
18 "When is WLP going to repay the NRA ...," do you see that 19 paragraph?

20 A I do.

21 Q Who is "WLP"?

22 A Wayne LaPierre.

23 Q And as a board member, were you told about money spent
24 on travel and clothing charged on the A/M credit card?

25 A No. We learned about that in media reporting.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

264

1 Q Who is "A/M" that you're referring to in this document?

2 A Ackerman McQueen, the ad agency.

3 Q Did you ever receive an answer to this question?

4 A No.

5 Q Was this concern ever resolved for you, as a member of
6 the board of directors?

7 A No.

8 Q Just directing your attention to the ninth paragraph of 9 this same page, page 2 of PX 3231, the paragraph begins: "How 10 much compensation is board member Marion Hammer receiving,
11 directly and indirectly ..." Was this question ever answered?

12 A No. The only way we found it was through looking at 13 the 990s.

14 Q Was this issue ever brought to the full board's
15 attention?

16 A I don't know if it was ever brought to the full board's
17 attention; but, again, I had it submitted to the Audit, Finance
18 Committees and any other one, and they were never answered.

19 Q I'm going to direct your attention to 3231, the top 20 par -- the first paragraph of page 4. Here you begin the 21 paragraph with: "There needs to be an end to the secret and 22 predetermined selection of those who will serve as committee
23 chairmen and co-chairmen."

24 Do you see this paragraph?

25 A I do.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

265

1 Q What led you to include this as an issue you were
2 raising with Audit and Finance Committees of the NRA?

3 A There were people who I believed were not qualified to 4 serve on those committees, and the way this transpired was:
5 Before nominations were made from the floor during the board
6 meeting, you would be given a -- a piece of paper and either
7 told how to vote or to nominate -- and/or to nominate -- an 8 individual from the floor; that it was your job to go up to the 9 microphone and nominate that specific person.

10 Q Who would give you a piece of paper with that 11 information on it?

12 A I believe, the first time I received one was from 13 Millie Hallow, and then subsequent ones were from Pete Brownell.

14 Q Who's Millie Hallow?

15 A She is Wayne's executive assistant.

16 Q And you also mentioned Pete Brownell. Who's Pete
17 Brownell?

18 A He was the first vice president of the board of 19 directors.

20 Q Just directing your attention to the third sentence
21 (indicating) of the paragraph, "The Nominating Committee,
22 especially, should have an equal rotation of eligible board
23 members and there shall never be an inferred, implied or direct 24 dictation for support of a candidate or slate of candidates from 25 any NRA officer or NRA employee."

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

266

1 From your experience on the board, is that how the
2 nominating committee performed its duties?

3 A That was my experience, yes.

4 Q Just clarifying your answer, Ms. Schneider: This
5 statement (indicating), this is -- is this statement how you
6 believed the nominating committee was performing --

7 A Oh.

8 Q -- or is this statement how you believed the nominating 9 committee should perform?

10 A That is how the nominating committee should perform.

11 Q And from your firsthand experience, how did the 12 nominating committee actually perform?

13 A There were specific people that were chosen. It was 14 not a rotation of board members. It was what I would be -- what 15 I would perceive as personal favorites of Wayne.

16 Q I'm going to direct your attention to the second tab of 17 your binder and it -- this -- the second tab of your document is 18 a one-page document that has been premarked PX 1594.

19 Are you on the second tab?

20 A I am.

21 Q Does this document look familiar to you?

22 A Yes.

23 Q What is it?

24 A It is a text exchange with Millie Hallow, telling me
25 how to -- to -- to take the list, and I asked her, why, or when,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

267

1 was I supposed to nominate this person?

2 Q At the very top of the document, do you see a phone
3 number next to your name?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Is that a phone number you recognize to be one of your
6 own?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And at the top of the page, there is also a phone
9 number next to the name "Millie Hallow." Is that a phone number
10 you recognize to be Ms. Hallow's phone number?

11 A Yes.

12 Q There's also an e-mail address there, next -- that's --
13 which has the name "Mildred Hallow" next to it. Is that an 14 e-mail you understand to be Ms. Hallow's e-mail?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Is this a fair and accurate copy of text messages that 17 you exchanged with Ms. Hallow on May 23rd, 2016?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And did you regularly conduct NRA business with NRA
20 staff via text message?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And do you recall sending and receiving these text
23 messages in May of 2016?

24 A Yes.

25 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I move to admit PX 1594.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

268

1 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

2 THE COURT: Counsel, before you put it up there
3 (indicating), are you going to have it with the numbers on
4 it?

5 MR. WANG: I am happy to have it with the numbers
6 and then redact the information in the record.

7 MS. STERN: He can hide them.

8 MR. WANG: He can hide them. Great.

9 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we'll redact them now and 10 we'll redact the admitted exhibit. We used the numbers for 11 authentication. It's in a number of locations, so it's not 12 going to be -- not going to be short.

13 THE COURT: But once you put it up on the screen,
14 there are a lot of people who are going to see it. So I
15 think it would be, probably, consistent with privacy
16 concerns, better to take the moment to -- two minutes.

17 MR. WANG: Jesse, can you remove those terms?

18 THE TECHNICIAN: Just give me a minute.

19 BY MR. WANG:

20 Q While we're waiting for the document to come on-screen:
21 What did you understand was the message that Ms. Hallow was 22 intending to convey by this text message?

23 A That, "Get yourself up and there make that nomination
24 as I told you to do it."

25 Q And did you follow that instruction?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

269

1 A I was brand-new; I did.

2 Q Why did you follow it?

3 A I thought that this was the way it was supposed to
4 work.

5 Q What do you understand -- do --

6 We've talked about Millie Hallow. Do you know who that 7 is?

8 A I do.

9 Q What did you understand to be Ms. Hallow's role?

10 A She basically implemented the wishes of Wayne.

11 THE COURT: One -- if you're, sort of, stalling for 12 time for this to -- you can probably just ask her to -- 13 this -- this is four sentences long; you can probably just 14 ask her to read it into the record -- the back-and-forth --
15 and that will probably cover it.

16 MR. WANG: Sure.

17 Q Ms. Schneider --

18 THE COURT: So I'm admitting the document into 19 evidence, so then you can ask that question.

20 MR. WANG: Thank you, your Honor.

21 Q Ms. Schneider, what was the first question that you
22 asked Ms. Hallow?

23 A At 11:13, I asked her: "When am I to use the list?"

24 Q And what was the second question?

25 A You know, and I got no response for four minutes and I

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

270

1 texted again and asked: "Now?", with a question.

2 Q What was Ms. Hallow's response?

3 A Shortly thereafter, she said: "Yes, you have been 4 assigned someone to nominate."

5 THE COURT: "Have you" -- I'm sorry.

6 Do you want to read that one more time?

7 Q Can you read that message one more time? What was her
8 response?

9 A Her response was: "Yes, you have been assigned someone
10 to nominate."

11 Q You're just missing a word (indicating).

12 A "Yes, you" --

13 THE COURT: It starts with "Have."

14 THE WITNESS: Oh. Okay. Sorry.

15 "Yes. Have you been assigned someone to nominate?"

16 Okay.

17 Q And what's the next message that Ms. Hallow sends to
18 you?

19 A "The sheet is how you should vote."

20 Q And what is your response to that?

21 A "Should have known you had it all under control."

22 Q And which emoji are those three emojis that follow?

23 A I little smiley, happy face, kind of.

24 Q What did you mean when you said, "Should have known you
25 had it all under control"?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

271

1 A Millie scurried around and made sure everyone was in
2 their place, everything was proceeding the way it was supposed
3 to. I mean, she was the taskmaster and enforcer.

4 MR. WANG: Jesse, we don't need that anymore. If 5 you do have it, feel free to put it up, but I think we're 6 done with that.

7 THE COURT: It is still worth doing --

8 MR. WANG: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: -- because the document -- the 10 exhibit -- is going to be shown to the jury in redacted
11 form.

12 So, if you want to see this document later on in 13 your deliberations ...

14 (Image displayed.)

15 THE COURT: Or you can just look at it now, on the 16 screen.

17 MR. WANG: Thank you, Jesse.

18 BY MR. WANG:

19 Q Did this process ever discontinue?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Do you have an understanding of why it discontinued?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And why did it discontinue?

24 A Pete was -- stepped down and resigned, and I -- no one
25 followed up with me after that.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

272

1 Q At what -- do you recall around what year that was?

2 A I'm not positive.

3 Q Ms. Hallow [sic], have you ever been on an NRA
4 committee?

5 MS. EISENBERG: "Hallow"?

6 Q Ms. Schneider. I'm sorry.

7 A Yes.

8 Q Do you know how committee assignments are determined at
9 the NRA?

10 A You put -- you are given the option of selecting your 11 own and it is the president's approval to make -- fulfill your 12 recommend -- or your wishes, or not.

13 THE COURT: Counsel, just a heads-up: You have 14 about a ten-minute warning before the day's end.

15 MR. WANG: Thank you, your Honor. I think I'll be 16 able to wrap up before then.

17 Q Did you -- have you previously been on committees?

18 A Yes.

19 Q How did you receive those committee assignments?

20 A I received a letter from the president, telling me --
21 informing me -- that I had been selected for the following
22 committees.

23 Q In 2019, did you ask for committee assignments?

24 A I did.

25 Q Did you receive any?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

273

1 A No.

2 Q How did you discover that you had been denied committee
3 assignments?

4 A I received a letter from President Carolyn Meadows
5 informing me that the following committees had been assigned to 6 me; however, there were no committees assigned and/or listed.

7 Q Who was Carolyn Meadows?

8 A She was the new, incoming president of the NRA.

9 Q I'm going to direct your attention to tab 6 of your
10 binder, which is document PX 5028.

11 Do you see this document?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Is that a -- on the very first line of the document, is 14 that an e-mail you recognize --

15 A Yes.

16 Q -- to be your e-mail?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And it appears you're e-mailing yourself something,
19 because your e-mail is also in the "To:" line. Is that -- do
20 you see that?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And turning to the second page of the document, is this 23 a letter -- did you receive this (indicating)?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And is that (indicating) your handwriting on the bottom

274

1 of the document?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Is this a fair and accurate representation of a letter
4 that was sent to you by Ms. Meadows and then you signed it and
5 returned it to the NRA with a handwritten message?

6 A Yes.

7 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I'm asking for the admission
8 of PX 5028.

9 THE COURT: Do you want to identify the second page
10 as a photograph that she took?

11 Q Ms. Schneider, is the second page a photograph of a
12 document?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And did you e-mail it to yourself?

15 A I did.

16 Q And what was the purpose of that e-mail?

17 A So I would have a record of the letter.

18 MR. WANG: Move to admit 5028.

19 THE COURT: Do you want to ask who took the 20 photograph?

21 Q Who took this photograph, Ms. Schneider?

22 A I did.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 Any objection?

25 MS. EISENBERG: No objection, your Honor.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 THE COURT: It's admitted.

2 (Image displayed.)

3 MR. WANG: Thank you, your Honor.

4 BY MR. WANG:

5 Q Ms. Schneider, do you have an understanding of why you
6 did not receive committee assignments?

7 A Yes.

8 Q What is that understanding?

9 A I spoke out and I was retaliated against for asking
10 questions that they didn't want question -- asked.

11 Q I'm going to direct your attention now to tab 3 of your 12 binder, a document that has been marked PX 2095. It is a two-13 page document.

3 Do you see that?

4 A Yes.

5 Q At the very bottom of the document there is a message
6 from Ms. Hammer, NRA past president. Do you see that?

7 A (Examining). I do.

8 Q Do you recall receiving this message from Ms. Hammer?

9 A I do.

10 Q Do you recall sending an e-mail forwarding Ms. Hammer's
11 message to Mr. Frazer on July 14th of 2019?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Is this -- is this document a fair and accurate
14 representation of an e-mail you exchanged with Mr. Frazer
15 forwarding a document from Ms. Hammer on July 14th, 2019?

16 A Yes.

17 MR. WANG: I move to admit PX 2095.

18 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

19 THE COURT: It's admitted.

20 Q Do you recall receiving this message from Ms. Hammer?

21 A I do.

22 Q What was your interpretation of the message Ms. Hammer
23 was conveying to you?

24 A How dare you question authority. How dare you ask
25 questions at all. And you're questioning why you didn't get

LAS

1 committee assignments.

2 Q I'm going to direct your attention to the third full
3 paragraph of page 2 of PX 2095, that begins "Some board members
4 were".

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q This paragraph begins, "Some board members were in fact
7 stripped of committee assignments." Was it your interpretation
8 from Ms. Hammer's message that you were one of the board members
9 stripped of your committee assignments?

10 A Yes.

11 Q After you didn't receive committee assignments and your 12 questions to Mr. Davis remained unanswered, what did you do
13 next?

14 A Based on the date, we hired our own internal -- our own
15 counsel to represent us, three of us.

16 Q And without revealing any advice that that attorney may 17 have provided to you, what did you believe your options were?

18 A We basically had three options. We could stay on the 19 board and potentially be removed from the board. We could stay
20 on the board and potentially draw a personal lawsuit. And the 21 last one was we could do a noisy withdrawal and resign from the
22 board.

23 Q I'm going to direct your attention now to the first tab
24 of your binder, a document that's been marked PX 590. There is 25 a two page e-mail and then a two page attachment to this.

1 A Okay.

2 Q Does this document look familiar to you?

3 A (Examining). Yes.

4 Q At the very top of this document the e-mail is from 5 Timothy Knight. Do you know who Timmy Knight is?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Who is he?

8 A He was my fellow board member that we hired counsel
9 together and ultimately resigned together.

10 Q Is that your e-mail address in the c.c. --

11 A Yes.

12 Q -- column? And were you sending this e-mail to
13 Mr. Frazer?

14 A I believe that Tim sent it to Mr. Frazer.

15 Q And the title of the attachment is "NRA Board
16 Resignation"?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Do you recall, did you take part in drafting this
19 resignation letter?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And is this e-mail a fair and accurate representation
22 of an e-mail you were carbon copied on between Mr. Knight and 23 Mr. Frazer?

24 A Yes.

25 MR. WANG: I move to admit PX 590.

1 THE COURT: Any objection?

2 MS. EISENBERG: It's hearsay. It doesn't represent
3 the views of the two other individuals. But no objection to 4 the extent it's offered for the purpose of showing what was 5 stated in the resignation letter.

6 THE COURT: It's admitted.

7 Q Ms. Schneider, what is the attachment to PX 590?

8 A This is our actual resignation letter addressed to 9 Carolyn Meadows, John Frazer and the board of directors of the
10 NRA.

11 Q Were you trying to send a message through the 12 resignation letter?

13 A Yes.

14 Q What was that message?

15 A That we asked questions. We tried to fulfill our 16 obligation and our fiduciary responsibility. And in return we 17 were retaliated against. And if we continued or persisted we 18 would personally draw a lawsuit which would be costing us tens
19 of thousands of dollars to defend and that instead we choose to 20 resign.

21 Q Ms. Schneider, did you previously donate to the NRA?

22 A I did.

23 Q Do you still donate to the NRA today?

24 A No.

25 Q Why not?

LAS

Direct-Schneider-Wang

280

1 A I don't want my money wasted on frivolous lawsuits,
2 like just wasted.

3 Q Based on your experience on the board, Ms. Schneider,
4 do you have a view as to whether Mr. LaPierre has been an
5 effective NRA EBP?

6 A I do.

7 Q And what is that view?

8 A I do not believe he has been.

9 Q Why not?

10 A Instead of fighting for the mission of the NRA, which
11 is to preserve our Second Amendment rights, he has raised money
12 and used those for his personal benefit.

13 Q Based on your experience on the board, do you have a
14 view as to whether Mr. Frazer has been an effective NRA general
15 counsel and secretary?

16 A Yes. Yes.

17 Q What is that view?

18 A I believe he's a very nice man, but I believe he has 19 been -- he has not fulfilled his duties as general counsel or 20 secretary.

21 Q Thank you for your testimony, Ms. Schneider. I have no
22 further questions.

23 A Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Okay. We would now turn to cross
25 examination. We're pretty much at the end of our day. Do

281

1 you want to pick it up fresh in the morning?

2 MS. EISENBERG: Certainly, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So, we're going to break for the
4 day and continue with cross examination in the morning. I
5 just would let you know that effectively you're still on the 6 stand and in the middle of your testimony. So you should 7 not discuss your testimony with anyone, including the 8 lawyers in this case. And so basically just keep it
9 together until tomorrow morning. We meet at 9:30.

10 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. And the jury, I'll release
12 you tonight with the same instructions. Don't talk about 13 the case. Don't research the case. And I will see you
14 tomorrow at 9:30. Thank you very much. We'll let the jury
15 leave first.

16 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

17 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

18 THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Schneider, you can step
19 down.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Okay. I think we're off the record for 25 the day.

LAS

282

1 MS. CONNELL: So, thank you for doing the
2 designations for Mr. Tedrick since he cannot appear. Since
3 he's going to be appearing through his audio taped
4 deposition, there are a number of documents that we asked
5 him about in his deposition and weren't admitted. I wanted
6 to make sure that we had told the defendants which ones we 7 wanted to admit. I just want to confirm the process to make
8 sure it goes smoothly.

9 THE COURT: Well, maybe I didn't -- One thing I was 10 not able to fully do was I didn't get the exhibits along
11 with the transcript at least I didn't in what I've received.
12 Maybe I have it. But I was just looking on Sunday at the 13 transcript by itself. I didn't see the exhibits. If they 14 are there, I mean I know I have them somewhere. I just 15 didn't have them at home where I was. So, we'll have to,
16 right before the tape is played, we'll have a short session
17 where I'm sure I can make judgments on these relatively 18 quickly. So, I'll have to just do it that way. Is that 19 going to be done tomorrow?

20 MS. CONNELL: I think it might be.

21 THE COURT: All right. I think we just need to 22 carve out 15 minutes or something for you to give me the 23 documents, and I'll see if there are any objections.
24 Obviously if there are no objections, that would make that 25 go faster. So, you should confer and only limit what we

283

1 have to talk about to those documents as to which there are
2 objections.

3 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor. We'll recirculate
4 the exhibits to you and to all parties again tonight. I
5 know. I'm sorry. And I jut again, your Honor --

6 THE COURT: Look I'm not going to look at them all.
7 I want to look at ones that are disputes about. So I can do
8 it pretty quickly. Try to -- See if you can work them out.
9 You know, I think you've probably seen the lay of the land
10 as to how I'm going to rule on most of these, most of the 11 internal documents or business records just in the ordinary 12 course, just regular finance employees. If it's just 13 e-mails back and forth I don't see what the issue should be.
14 But we'll do it quickly. So we'll give the jury a break at 15 the time before you're going to do the audio. While they 16 are taking a break, we will stay at work. And their usual
17 time for a break is about as long as I think we'll need to 18 deal with the document issues.

19 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor. One final
20 thing. I truly apologize and thank you for going through 21 these voluminous deposition designations on an expedited
22 basis, since these witnesses are not appearing. We 23 appreciate that. I just wanted to ask you about 24 Ms. Meadows, which I could barely spit out. I'm sorry.

25 THE COURT: Look, it's probably six hours of work

LAS

1 for me to do it. I don't have that between now and tomorrow
2 morning. I've asked my law clerk to start getting a head
3 start on all of that. We'll do the best we can. If you
4 have to take them in a different order, you'll have to do it
5 in a different order. There is not a witness involved here.
6 We're trying to cover as many things as we can.

7 MS. CONNELL: Absolutely, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: It's on our list, let's put it that
9 way. All right. See you tomorrow.

10 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Off the record.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Why don't we get started. So,
2 good morning everyone. I do want to start by saying I know
3 everybody is working extremely hard, and I don't mean the 4 following to be a complaint really, but I think we're going
5 to have to work on our cycle time in terms of when things
6 are submitted to me for review the next morning. I did
7 receive a friendly e-mail at midnight with a package of 8 documents and the proposed demonstrative. And while I
9 occasionally miss my time in private practice, that was part
10 of my job, I don't miss it anymore. Anyway, I was able to 11 get through all of it. I can't promise you that I'm always 12 going to be able to do that in terms of what I have to do in 13 the morning and other things. So, I think what I would 14 suggest is you may have to think about exchanging things
15 sooner so that any objections can be bubbled up to me sooner
16 so I can actually use my law clerk to actually do some of 17 the work which I can't do between midnight and 8:00 in the 18 morning. Again, the folks working on this, first of all,
19 horrifying to me how hard people are working, but I know
20 that's life on trial. I hope we can find a way to make it a
21 little more reasonable.

22 So, as I understand it there are two agenda items
23 that the State wants me to take up, which I'm ready to do.
24 Then we'll see if anybody else has anything. We'll have to 25 get to the jury as soon as we can. Keep things moving.

LAS

288

1 So the first thing is the Tenenbaum demonstrative
2 slides. So, do you have these where they can be put up on 3 the screen?

4 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: I'll just cut to it. I think I
6 understand what the issues are. I've gone back and re-read
7 my in limine motion and decision. I think the objection to 8 the slide nine is well taken in part. The ruling basically
9 was the witness shouldn't be giving legal conclusions about,
10 I'm talking about whether the defendants did or did not
11 breach fiduciary duties. But instead I followed some case
12 law from the Southern District where the -- giving the 13 jurors a sense of best practices in the business is 14 something that could be helpful because it's not a business
15 everybody knows about. So, my suggestion or at least one
16 way to deal with it, I think the only issue I have is slide
17 nine is the title, which right now reads "How Nonprofit 18 Officers and Directors Comply With Fiduciary Duties", which 19 to me, you know, suggests a bit more of a legal conclusion
20 than I had in mind with my ruling. If you want to change it
21 to something like best or common practices, that's I think
22 fine. Again, the actual slide itself, I don't know what 23 you're going to ask exactly. The point of the slide is that 24 in this guy's experience, dealing with however many 25 nonprofits, these are the kinds of things he sees nonprofit

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

289

1 officers and directors do. I literally see it being edited
2 in front of me. But the -- that's the way I think it has to
3 be pitched as opposed to, I don't want this guy who is a
4 lawyer I think getting up saying well, I know what fiduciary
5 duties are. Here's what you have to do to meet them.
6 That's the line that I drew. So, the change there to me is,
7 I mean, I didn't that you had to actually say best work
8 common practices, whatever you want. Does that address the 9 concern the defendants had.

10 MR. WERBNER: Yes, your Honor. It says "best 11 practices".

12 THE COURT: Okay. Now it's changing. Industry
13 standards was something that I was also a little 14 uncomfortable with, because this is not like a medical 15 malpractice case where you're judging against some standard.
16 Best common practices. We got them to no objection. And 17 you got me to no objection. I would kind of quit while 18 you're ahead.

19 The other objection to slide ten I didn't fully 20 understand not -- well, because I didn't give the defendants
21 yet a chance to explain what their objection was. I didn't
22 understand it.

23 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, my concern was that we
24 were swaying into federal tax law both law and federal tax
25 area. I know you made a ruling about not getting into IRS

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

290

1 regs. My concern is that it appears to be veering into an
2 area that you had ruled was sort of out of bound, IRS regs,
3 revocation of tax exempt status. There is no claim for that
4 in this -- in this complaint.

5 THE COURT: Well, it's slightly different than the 6 one issue that we did talk about a lot, which was the 7 portion of the excess benefits relating to travel. But
8 agreed. So, just from the plaintiffs, I don't really recall
9 what this is and what you're intending to do. Is he going
10 to get into tax compliance?

11 MR. THOMPSON: Excess benefits is something that -- 12 that has been part of our complaint and it's been disclosed
13 by the --

14 THE COURT: Excess benefits under New York law or 15 excess benefits under tax law?

16 MR. THOMPSON: Well, they are excess benefits under 17 tax law, but that is also relevant to the breaches of 18 fiduciary duty under New York law, specifically the duty of 19 obedience, which requires that you comply with the law and 20 the internal policies of the organization and Mr. Tenenbaum
21 is going to talk about the risks that nonprofits face when 22 they -- like the risk of losing their tax exempt status, and 23 that's something that directors of organizations need to be 24 concerned about and to make sure that they are diligently 25 complying with.

LAS

291

1 THE COURT: Well but are you expecting this witness
2 to come in and explain the IRS angle to all of that, that
3 here's what the Internal Revenue Code requires, and here's 4 how you breach that and all of that? Is that what this guy
5 is going to do?

6 MR. THOMPSON: He's not going to say how they
7 breached it or anything of that nature. We do want him to 8 explain what an excess benefit is because it's a term of art
9 that's not clear to the jury.

10 THE COURT: Under what?

11 MR. THOMPSON: The IRS, the tax code.

12 THE COURT: Well, so, are you envisioning that the 13 jury is going to make a determination as to whether any of 14 the things that are alleged here constitute excess benefits
15 under the tax code?

16 MR. THOMPSON: No.

17 THE COURT: What does this add?

18 MR. THOMPSON: What it adds is an excess benefit is 19 also going to be private inurement for purposes of New York
20 law and waste. So we need them to understand that an excess
21 benefit under the tax code is not just under the tax code,
22 it is also a problem for New York law.

23 THE COURT: Is this -- is this trying to connect up
24 what the 990s are?

25 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

292

1 THE COURT: Okay. So, I'm okay with him explaining
2 what the 990s are and how they fit into what not-for-profit
3 companies do. Those are documents that are going to come in 4 and it's part of understanding the, you know, the 5 nomenclature of this area. So, I think if it's what it's 6 limited to is providing background to the jury as to what
7 these 990s are and if that's what this is, but I guess I'm 8 more concerned whether you're going to have -- this slide is 9 an introduction to him explaining the tax law --

10 MR. THOMPSON: Okay. Understood, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: -- which I don't want.

12 MR. THOMPSON: Understood.

13 THE COURT: At least I don't think you need it,
14 'cause that's not the statute that we're talking about. You
15 know, I'm not familiar with any particular -- Look,
16 obviously losing tax exempt status is the kind of thing that 17 a nonprofit board has to think about. I understand that 18 point. But is that the link here?

19 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor. As we heard in the 20 opening yesterday, the NRA is distancing itself from the 21 individual defendants and is focusing on the board and what 22 the board does or does not do. We need Mr. Tenenbaum to 23 explain what boards typically do or do not do, and one of 24 those things is make sure they are not putting themselves at 25 risk of losing that tax exempt status.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

293

1 THE COURT: I think -- By the way, this question
2 has been lingering in my mind. As a 501(c)(4), part of the 3 NRA, I heard some arguments during the openings that made me
4 wonder is that also tax exempt? Their tax exempt as a
5 social welfare organization.

6 MR. THOMPSON: They do not have to pay taxes on 7 their profits but donations are not tax exempt.

8 THE COURT: So, it's partially tax exempt. It's 9 tax exempt from their perspective but not from the donors'
10 perspective.

11 MR. THOMPSON: Correct, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: So it's still a tax exemption. It's 13 not as if it's -- Okay.

14 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, if I made add a point to 15 that. The question of revocation of tax exempt status is 16 really something totally different. The IRS decides on 17 that, and the intermediate sanctions were developed so that 18 the IRS would have the tools it needed to deal with 19 situations that were short of justifying the nuclear option,
20 which was pulling someone's tax exempt status. So, the 21 revocation of tax exempt status is not in the complaint and 22 it's inappropriate to put that before the jury in this case.

23 THE COURT: Yeah. I think it's going to be a
24 little confusing honestly. If you're going to raise this 25 topic of revocation of tax exempt status, but that's not

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

294

1 going to be in front of the jury as a separate item. In
2 other words, you know, we got the fiduciary duty to think
3 about, the New York statute four provisions to think about.
4 I'm a little concerned that, you know, raising this sort of 5 tax issue is going to be sort of confusing and not actually
6 tied together with anything. Again other than explaining 7 what the 990s are and why they are filled out.

8 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, proper administration of 9 the NRA is the primary issue with respect to the NRA.
10 Proper administration means don't do things that put your
11 tax exempt status at risk.

12 THE COURT: I understand that, but we're not 13 actually putting that issue in front, we're not, because at 14 least I have not understood the complaints to be arguing
15 this and haven't thought that's the way this case was going
16 to be presented to the jury. Since you're not actually
17 going to say that an element of the claim is conduct A, B
18 and C puts at issue their tax exempt status, which to do
19 that you will then have to bring in tax law issues, which 20 we're not going to get into. If you're going to raise this 21 issue but not tie it up with, you know, tax law analysis,
22 which I don't think we're doing, I don't know where this
23 gets you.

24 MR. THOMPSON: The other angle, your Honor, with 25 respect to excess benefit is an excess benefit is a private

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

295

1 benefit for purposes of both the tax code as well as New
2 York law. And so explaining that, what an excess benefit
3 means, is that they got more money than they deserved is an
4 important term that the jury needs to understand.

5 THE COURT: Independent of the tax law
6 implications.

7 MR. THOMPSON: Correct.

8 THE COURT: Right. That part is I think part of 9 his general discussion here, but he's not here as a tax
10 expert. He's not here to give an opinion as to whether what 11 happened here would or could result in a revocation of tax
12 exempt status. So, I would tread very carefully here. I
13 mean, I think he can talk generally among the things they 14 think about is maintaining their tax exempt status, but he
15 didn't I don't think disclose an opinion, did he, that, you
16 know, they would lose their tax exempt status or did he?

17 MR. THOMPSON: Oh, I think he did, your Honor, yes.
18 That was in his initial report.

19 THE COURT: All right. I don't think I, in my 20 denying part granting part, I really was limiting him to 21 best practices, explaining the background of not for profits
22 and I was excluding his legal conclusions part of it. So --
23 Yeah. Especially this penalty with the excess penalty taxes
24 and excess benefits, that gets into the regulation that we
25 have talked about at some length that I don't want to sort

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

296

1 of get. I would like to get -- I would like this not to be
2 part of this. I just -- We're not going -- If we're not
3 going to go the whole way, and we're not, because I already 4 ruled this out, this I think will add more confusion than 5 anything else.

6 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor --

7 THE COURT: I'll sustain their objection to slide
8 ten.

9 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. That takes care of Tedrick,
11 yes? Ten. Sorry. That takes care of the slide deck, yes.
12 I'm seeing nodding.

13 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Thank you. All right. I've looked at 15 the exhibits here, and obviously I only have sort of stick
16 figures for the objections, but I think I understand what
17 they all are. So, I want to go through them one at a time.
18 And I'll tell you what my thoughts are and if people want to 19 argue. I do want to get to the jury. So I have spent time
20 looking at them.

21 With respect to PX 519, I'm going to sustain that 22 objection. This is one whereas I understand it, you know,
23 the body of it is a management letter prepared by Aronson.
24 My point is that this witness is not a vehicle to just 25 introduce that, and I think it's -- it may be a bit

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

297

1 unrealistic to say well, you know, this is just to show that
2 a review occurred because, you know, if you put this report
3 in front of the jury and they then have it, it's -- I think
4 there is a significant risk they will review it for the
5 truth of the matter asserted. Now my question is, is do you
6 have Aronson coming in who can sort of testify as to what 7 this is and how it was prepared in the ordinary course and 8 all of that stuff?

9 MR. THOMPSON: Aronson is on the defendants'
10 witness list.

11 THE COURT: Right. If you can get this in that 12 way. This witness seems to be a particularly I mean
13 unfortunately in part because he's not here to answer any 14 questions about it, but just based on my reading of the 15 transcript, he can't really lay a foundation for what it is.
16 Obviously he can't testify whether this is a business record
17 prepared by Aronson in the ordinary course or whatever. So
18 I think -- Anyway, so I'm going to sustain that. You can 19 keep the testimony from Tedrick that a review was done, but 20 I don't think we can dump this document into evidence yet.
21 Now it may well be admissible with somebody who can testify
22 as to, you know, who prepared it and how it was done and 23 explain the foundation for it.

24 Next is PX 01915, which is a big spreadsheet with 25 flight invoices. What I have here is that it's an objection

LAS

1 to hearsay and response that to seek conditional admission
2 subject to laying a foundation with Ms. Rowling later on.
3 My lean is to sustain the objection at this point only
4 because it will just be shown to the jury. I mean, I
5 suspect if you're telling me this is what will happen, that 6 the person who is going to testify will explain what the 7 spreadsheet is, it probably will be admissible, assuming
8 it's prepared by the NRA and somebody can tell me what it
9 is. But right now with just a two dimensional audio
10 transcript, I've got no basis to admit it. So, it may well
11 be admissible, but I sustain that I'm not going to admit it
12 just with this transcript yet.

13 The next one PX 1396, I'm going to overrule that.
14 These are all internal NRA communications. All party
15 statements, including even the within the -- this -- this 16 maybe applies more to a later one, even the internal 17 conversations about what people talked about, others in the 18 NRA, each level of the hearsay is still not inadmissible
19 because it's still all within the defendant group.

21
22
23
24
25

LAS

Proceedings

299

1 THE COURT: And the invoice itself, which is the
2 first e-mail, is not -- I see it being offered for the
3 truth. It's just offered for the fact that it's an invoice.

4 So I would overrule that objection.

5 This one seems to me more, you know, obviously
6 admissible. And I believe Mr. Tedrick is also on the chain
7 of -- in the e-mail. So it's not just some document
8 dropping out of the sky.

9 PX 831, which is an e-mail chain between NRA --
10 among NRA employees regarding an invoice from a vendor, it's 11 similar. The e-mail from the vendor is not being offered
12 for the truth of anything in it. It's just sort of a chatty
13 transmission letter and it's just in there to show that the 14 invoice came in, and the rest of it is an internal 15 communication about the invoice. So I don't -- I don't see 16 an objection to that. The -- you know, the rest of the 17 document is just internal NRA communications and business
18 records.

19 The next one is PX 1491, which is another e-mail
20 chain among NRA employees. It is, strictly speaking, as the 21 objection suggests -- it has hearsay within hearsay, but all
22 of the levels of hearsay are covered by the same, whether 23 you call it exception or exemption, in that they're all
24 about communications among NRA employees.

25 So, I mean, it's not the most probative thing in

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

300

1 the world, when you start talking about what somebody told
2 you that somebody else said to somebody else. I don't think
3 I -- I don't think it's inadmissible on that ground, in 4 these circumstances.

5 And the final one is PX-1907, which is a long
6 American Express transaction spreadsheet, and this is one
7 that the witness does talk about and engage with, and it's 8 his American Express -- I don't know -- bill or invoice or 9 something. So my lean is to overrule it.

10 I think it -- it sounds like the objection is that 11 it's sort of overbroad, that it includes a bunch of entries
12 that are not covered in the testimony. But, you know, I
13 lean to agree that, you know, if it a business record,
14 clearly, the American Express -- the use of the American
15 Express Card is a relevant issue in the case. And there's 16 no particular reason to get rid of the rest of it, even 17 though the testimony only covers part of it. And since he 18 does, in my view, set the foundation for it, I think it's 19 admissible.

20 So I have, very quickly, glided over a bunch of 21 different objections here, which I think I understand. If 22 you think I have missed something, on the defense side, let 23 me know.

24 Nope? Everybody's -- I mean, I wouldn't say
25 "happy," but they under -- I understood the objections.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

301

1 So those are my rulings on those; call it the
2 "Speed Round."

3 So you can go ahead and start cutting up the 4 transcript and getting it ready.

5 So one other thing: You know, I think I told you,
6 weeks and months ago, that I was going to continually warn
7 you about timing, or not "warn" but just make sure
8 everybody's got their eye on the ball here. My view toward 9 ending the trial, and telling the jury that the trial will 10 be over, February 16th suggests to me that we should be 11 aiming for closing arguments on the 15th, so that on the 12 16th there's nothing more to do other than my instructions
13 and the jury's deliberations. Now, obviously, they may 14 deliberate more than a day; that's up to them. But I think
15 I did not -- I do not mean that -- and I want to make it
16 clear -- that, you know, the last word of the last closing
17 argument happens by the end of the day on the 16th and 18 everything is fine.

19 I will note again, which I've noted also:
20 Everything that's gone on in this case has simplified it,
21 meaning we now have one defendant who's settled. So, you
22 know, at each level, you know, whatever our estimates were,
23 logically, certainly, it shouldn't be expanding. So I don't
24 think -- again, since everybody's had notice of this for a
25 long time, that's my expectation.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

302

1 Now, obviously, February 15th is more than a month
2 away, so there's still plenty time for everybody to plan and
3 be ready. So I don't expect to see surprised faces as we
4 get toward that last part of the process. I really meant
5 it.

6 So I also am -- rather than using my handy chess
7 clock, I'd like to depend on the parties to keep track of 8 the relative use of time. It hasn't been complicated so
9 far. The first day was, basically -- that first afternoon
10 was all the plaintiff's opening statement; the first morning
11 after that was all the defendants' opening statements. So
12 that was pretty easy. And then the rest of yesterday was -- 13 you know, keeping track of the amount of time on direct and 14 cross should be pretty straightforward.

15 So I'd like the parties to keep a running total of 16 that. If I have to do it with my clock, I will, but I have 17 a lot of other things to think about. So, if you can have 18 somebody on your team following that, I'd appreciate it. I
19 don't need an everyday tally, but I probably will want to do
20 it at the end of the week.

21 All right. Anything else?

22 So the order of witnesses today is to finish
23 Ms. Schneider and then what's after that?

24 MS. CONNELL: It's Ms. Schneider, Mr. Tenenbaum,
25 Mr. Erstling and then, if possible, Mr. Tedrick.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

303

1 And before Mr. Tedrick, before we play his
2 testimony, we would ask your Honor just to instruct the jury
3 that Mr. Tedrick cannot appear for health reasons and will
4 testify by audiotape, just to prepare them. That's -- it's 5 unpleasant to listen to a lot of testimony by audio.

6 THE COURT: Now, just so I know, are you going to 7 have the transcript on the screen that they can follow along
8 while they listen?

9 MS. CONNELL: I -- yes, we are, your Honor.

10 And then, as the exhibits come up, those -- the 11 ones that you've admitted -- those will also be brought up
12 at the appropriate times.

13 THE COURT: Okay. I think that's helpful, to have 14 those visual cues whenever you're just hearing an audiotape,
15 which I've not actually seen before.

16 All right, anything else before we get going?

17 MS. EISENBERG: Yes, your Honor.

18 Janet Nyce, an NRA Board member, is here as a 19 corporate representative. I'd just like to introduce her to 20 the Court.

21 THE COURT: Good morning.

22 MS. EISENBERG: And if your Honor wouldn't mind
23 introducing her to the jury, we would appreciate it.

24 THE COURT: Excuse me?

25 MS. EISENBERG: If the Court would be so inclined

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

304

1 and could introduce Ms. Nyce to the jury, we would
2 appreciate it.

3 THE COURT: I won't. I'll let you do it.

4 MS. EISENBERG: Thank you.

5 MR. FARBER: Your Honor, there were a couple of 6 occasions, I believe, yesterday when there was testimony
7 that would have been hearsay; it was admitted because they 8 were party admissions; and it may have come up in some of 9 the exhibits and I'm sure it will come up in the future.
10 But I believe, under the rule, those party admissions are 11 only admissible as against the NRA, not as against other
12 parties for whom those are not agents.

13 So I'd ask that when there are instances when 14 something is going to be admitted as a party admission, that 15 your Honor give that, in essence, limiting instruction: that 16 that is being admitted as against the NRA but not as against 17 the individuals.

18 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm just pausing because I'm 19 thinking about in the context where the defendants are all
20 senior executives of the entity and the communications, for 21 example, are -- include, for example -- communications where 22 witnesses are talking about their conversations with 23 Mr. Phillips, for example.

24 MR. FARBER: I recognize it depends on the 25 circumstances, your Honor. But, for example, you know,

1 Mr. Phillips retired in 2018. If there are things in 2019,
2 etcetera -- it will depend on the circumstances. But I just
3 think, generically, just because something is a party
4 admission and admissible against the NRA doesn't necessarily
5 mean it's admissible against my client, Mr. Correll's client
6 or Mr. Fleming's client.

7 MR. CORRELL: And I join in that objection, your
8 Honor.

9 MR. FLEMING: You've read my mind, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'll think about
11 that. That may be something we have to do as a -- sort
12 of -- a broader instruction rather than doing it each and 13 every time, I think. But I'm just trying to work out the 14 complications of that as it -- as it goes through. But why 15 don't we let that percolate.

16 But it's admissible and there may be -- you know,
17 certainly, with respect to the time issue, there are people,
18 especially somebody who was not there at the time, you've 19 already been pretty effective at making that point on 20 cross-examinations. But I need to mull that, because I
21 haven't really seen briefing yet on the question of 22 admissibility when all of the defendants are either the 23 entity itself or, you know, the highest-level executives for 24 some period of time and whether those kinds of corporate 25 admissions are admissible against senior officers in their

1 own right or whether, you know, the jury would have to parse
2 that.

3 I wouldn't mind you showing me some case law that 4 would bear some -- shed some light on that.

5 MR. FARBER: We'll do that, your Honor.

6 Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 All right. I think we're ready for the jury.

9 Yes?

10 MS. EISENBERG: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Ms. Schneider is here?

12 MS. EISENBERG: Is my mic working? Can you hear
13 me?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MS. EISENBERG: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: And Ms. Schneider is available, I
17 guess, once the jury's here?

18 MR. WANG: Yes.

19 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

15 I just wanted to remind you that you're still under

17 Do you understand that?

18 THE WITNESS: I do.

1 MS. EISENBERG: Thank you, your Honor.

2 Good morning.

3 THE COURT: Ms. Eisenberg.

4 MS. EISENBERG: Your Honor, before we proceed with 5 the examination, may I introduce someone in the audience to
6 the jury?

7 THE COURT: You may.

8 MS. EISENBERG: Thank you very much.

9 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, good morning.
10 I'd like to introduce you to Janet Nyce (indicating).

11 Ms. Nyce, if you would be so kind as to please
12 stand up ...?

13 (Ms. Nyce stood.)

14 MS. EISENBERG: Janet Nyce is an NRA Board member,
15 just like Kim Rhode. She is a firearms instructor; she is 16 an NRA-certified firearms instructor, and she focuses on 17 firearms instruction for women and youth.

18 Thank you very much.

19 (Ms. Nyce was seated.)

20 THE COURT: Okay. You may inquire.

21 CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 BY MS. EISENBERG:

23 Q Ms. Schneider, the NRA fights to protect the Second
24 Amendment; correct?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

309

1 Q In fact, according to your testimony a few years ago,
2 the NRA was, at least then, the only organization that fought to
3 protect the Second Amendment; right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And in your opinion, if we -- at least as you held it
6 in 2021 -- if we don't have the NRA in place, we lose our 7 constitutional rights; correct?

8 A To a degree, yes.

9 Q The NRA has millions of members, right?

10 A As far as I know, they still do, yes.

11 Q And the NRA's membership crosses all races; correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q All ethnicities?

14 A Yes.

15 Q All education levels.

16 A Yes.

17 Q And all income levels as well, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Would you agree that the NRA, in addition to fighting
20 for the Second Amendment, also does several other things?

21 A Such as ...?

22 Q Well, you previously testified, did you not, that the 23 NRA has the nation's premier firearms training and safety
24 program?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

310

1 Q In fact, didn't you previously testify that across this
2 entire country, as of at least 2021, there was no other
3 organization that was so paramount as the NRA in firearms
4 training and safety?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And as of 2021, you were a firearms instructor; right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Sitting here right now, you are a fire -- you are still 9 a firearms instructor?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Just like Ms. Nyce (indicating); correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And it's important to you, as a firearms instructor, to 14 have insurance; fair?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And in 2021, you had such insurance?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And that insurance existed thanks to the NRA's premier
19 firearms training and safety program; fair?

20 A It was through Lockton -- Lockton Insurance.

21 Q And you're familiar with the NRA's bylaws?

22 A Yes.

23 Q You read them when you were on the board?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And you're familiar with the provision regarding

1 committees, right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And it states that it's the president who decides who
4 to appoint to a committee, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And the bylaws also state that the appointment is only
7 for one year; correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q You attended NRA Board meetings, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q In fact, you told us you were at a board meeting in 12 January of 2019?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And also in April of 2019, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q In January 2019, did you have any concerns about the 17 matters that you discussed with Mr. Wang yesterday?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And you spoke to the entire board about your concerns,
20 right?

21 A Not to the entire board.

22 Q In April of 2019, did you continue to have those
23 concerns?

24 A Yes.

25 THE COURT: Sorry, counsel. Can --

3 THE COURT: For some reason, it's --

4 Can you just move your mic over a little closer to
5 you?

6 MS. EISENBERG: Of course, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Sorry.

8 MS. EISENBERG: Is this better?

9 THE COURT: A little bit. It's not really coming
10 through here (indicating), but ...

11 MS. EISENBERG: Is this better?

12 THE COURT: Not that much better, really. But it
13 may just be me. I can hear the other mics a little louder.
14 So it's all right. But if the jury can hear you, that's 15 more important.

16 MS. EISENBERG: Thank you, your Honor.

17 BY MS. EISENBERG:

18 Q In two thousand -- in April of 2019, you attended an 19 NRA Board meeting; right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And as of that time, you had concerns of the nature
22 that you discussed with Mr. Wang yesterday; right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And you raised those concerns to the entire board,
25 right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 A No.

2 MS. EISENBERG: Let's display for the jury and the 3 witness PX 1594, which is a text exchange between 4 Ms. Schneider and Ms. Hallow.

5 THE COURT: That was admitted yesterday; yes?

6 MS. EISENBERG: Yes, your Honor. It's in evidence.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 (Image displayed.)

9 Q Ms. Schneider, do you have PX 1594 in front of you?

10 A Yes.

11 MR. FARBER: Judge, this is not the version, your
12 Honor.

13 MR. WANG: It's 1954 that's on the screen. The 14 admitted version is 1594.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Can we switch that to 1594?

1 MR. FARBER: There is information on here.

2 THE COURT: This isn't the version that was
3 actually admitted. Just take that one down. I think maybe
4 the plaintiffs have the version where we took the -- some of 5 the personal information out, the cell phone numbers. Hang
6 on one second. Thank you, counsel.

7 Q You testified that this text exchange with Ms. Hallow
8 is about nominating individuals to the nominating committee,
9 right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And you testified that Ms. Hollow gave you a name or 12 multiple names and asked you to nominate those individuals?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And you responded to her, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q At 11:21 a.m. you wrote, "Should have known you had it
17 all under control." Three smiley faces, right?

18 A Mm-hmm.

19 Q Did you follow Ms. Hollow's alleged instructions?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And in doing so, were you nominating someone who you
22 didn't think was a good candidate for the nominating committee?

23 A I was asked to nominate on numerous occasions, and I
24 don't recall who the specific person was in this particular
25 instance.

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Eisenberg

315

1 Q But surely you wouldn't have nominated someone to the
2 nominating committee if you didn't think they had the best
3 interests of the NRA at heart, right?

4 A Repeat the question.

5 Q Surely you would not have nominated someone to the 6 nominating committee if you thought that they didn't have the 7 NRA's best interest at heart?

8 A I don't recall who the individual was at the time. And
9 I did what I was asked to do in the beginning because I didn't
10 know any better.

11 Q So, it's possible that you nominated someone who you
12 thought was a bad candidate for the nominating committee?

13 A I can't answer that question without specifics. Who 14 was the name?

15 Q You attended a dinner with Carolyn Meadows in April of
16 2019, right?

17 A I guess. Yes. I had a dinner -- Which dinner are you
18 referring to? I had several dinners with Ms. Meadows.

19 Q It was a dinner which multiple donors were present.

20 A Are you speaking of the Heston Society?

21 Q Yes.

22 A Yes. I did not have dinner with her. She was in 23 attendance.

24 Q You and she were both in attendance, right?

25 A Correct.

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Eisenberg

316

1 Q And there were multiple donors?

2 A Yes. And she is not a donor to that particular
3 society.

4 Q And there were multiple donors, yes?

5 A As far as I know. There were a lot of people there who 6 were not donors.

7 Q And you referred to her using expletive, right?

8 A No.

9 Q You didn't ask her if she was F'n stupid?

10 A That's not referring to her. It was referring to a 11 situation of her standing. That wasn't directed at her. It was 12 an adjective.

13 Q And that was before she didn't appoint you to 14 committees, correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q You testified yesterday that Susan LaPierre gave you a
17 call and according to you suggested that you should run for the 18 board. Do you recall that testimony?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you also told us that you told her that you were 21 not qualified, remember that?

22 A I do.

23 Q And when you told her that you weren't qualified, did
24 you explain what qualifications specifically you were missing?

25 A I did. I said to her I was not an attorney and I

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Eisenberg

317

1 wasn't a legislator.

2 Q Did you tell her about any problems in your past or any
3 reputational problems that you thought she should be aware of in 4 assessing your candidacy?

5 A No.

6 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor. Relevance.

7 THE COURT: Not yet. I mean, there is no objection
8 yet. I don't know what's coming. But it's cross
9 examination.

10 Q Before that conversation, you had worked at the Indiana
11 State Lottery Commission, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q You were its executive director?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And there was a reported settlement of 2 million -- of 16 over $2 million in a case where seven individuals accused you of 17 racial discrimination, correct?

18 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor. Relevance. And 19 also this is an attack on the witness' character.

20 THE COURT: Sustained unless the --

21 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, may I be heard, please?

22 THE COURT: Does it go to credibility?

23 MS. EISENBERG: Yes, your Honor.

24 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, it goes to credibility.

25 It also goes to concealment of issues in her past. And it

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Eisenberg

318

1 also goes to another issue that I think Ms. Eisenberg is
2 going to raise.

3 MR. WANG: Can we have a side bar, your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Hang on. Yes, but hang on one second.

5 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, the witness' testimony
6 yesterday covered her qualifications, her background.

7 THE COURT: Hang on one second. I'm just checking
8 something. Okay. We can have a side bar.

9 (Whereupon the following proceedings were held at a
10 side bar conference.)

11 THE COURT: All right. What's the issue?

12 MR. WANG: This testimony is not related to her
13 experience on the board. It's not probative of her
14 testimony, her experience as a board member of the board of 15 directors. It's prejudicial to her. It's about settlement
16 in a legal case where she was involved as an employee. One
17 of her prior employers. It's an attempt to attack her
18 character. And her testimony on direct just related to the 19 importance of an internal auditor. And she raised -- she 20 said it's important to have an internal auditor at the NRA.
21 So, it's our position that this line of questioning is --

22 THE COURT: Not all -- You know, for impeachment
23 purposes I think the -- you know, there is no criminal 24 conduct or malicious conduct or anything going to 25 credibility as to what I've heard so far.

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Eisenberg

319

1 MR. CORRELL: It's not the issue, your Honor. The
2 issue is she testified that she was retaliated against. She
3 was not appointed to committees because of something she had
4 done. The fact is the evidence will show that she attacked
5 the president of the organization.

6 THE COURT: Well, that you can get into.

7 MR. CORRELL: But she also, we have evidence that
8 she also has a hot temper and she tends to go off on people.

9 THE COURT: What we're talking about now is whether 10 to bring in a specific event from her that is not 11 credibility related as far as I can tell and, you know, if 12 you're going to tell me that the NRA found out about it and 13 that's why they removed her from committees, that would be 14 relevant. So, that's not what this is.

15 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, character is an important
16 consideration.

17 THE COURT: The law does not permit broad based,
18 dredge up anything and finding anything about anyone and 19 bring it in on cross examination. There are limits to it.
20 And, you know, the most important is those going to 21 credibility. So embezzlement or something like that would 22 be a different kind of issue.

23 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, if I may bring up one
24 more point, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Yes.

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Eisenberg

320

1 MR. CORRELL: She tore up pieces of paper and threw
2 it in the face of the general counsel while she was
3 executive director of the lottery, appointment from the 4 governor and she was discharged after that.

5 THE COURT: I understand the -- If what this line
6 is getting at is that prior event and there is no connection
7 to credibility, I'm not permitting it.

8 MR. FLEMING: May I be heard? Your Honor, the NRA
9 did know about it. It went into the reputation, which may 10 have influenced the president's decision not to assign her
11 to committees. And there is also sort of a quickness
12 demonstrated by this witness to fire employees. She's 13 gotten on the stand yesterday and very cavalierly said John
14 Frazer and Wayne LaPierre should have been dismissed. I
15 think it goes exactly to her testimony.

16 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor she --

17 THE COURT: I do not agree.

18 (Whereupon the following proceedings were held in 19 open court.)

20 THE COURT: Okay. The objection is sustained and 21 the jury will disregard the question. So, proceed.

22 Q Ms. Schneider --

23 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, before we proceed can we 24 make a record of this, an offer of proof at the conclusion
25 of the examination to just preserve the record?

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Correll

321

1 THE COURT: You have your record preserved. Yes,
2 we can talk about how to do that. Let's get moving.

3 MR. CORRELL: Thank you.

4 Q Ms. Schneider, you resigned from your position as the 5 executive director of the lottery commission in less than two 6 years, right?

7 A It was about at two years.

8 MS. EISENBERG: I'll pass the witness.

9 CROSS EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. CORRELL:

11 Q Good morning. I'm Kent Correll. I represent --

12 THE COURT: You have to get the microphone.

13 MR. CORRELL: Hello.

14 Q Good morning. You testified yesterday that you spoke 15 with Susan LaPierre about the possibility of running for 16 director of the NRA, correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q How did you come to know Susan LaPierre?

19 A Through the Women's Leadership Forum.

20 Q What is the Women's Leadership Forum?

21 A It is a group that is designed to include more women in 22 participating in shooting activities and supporting the Second
23 Amendment and just ancillary supporting organization for the
24 NRA.

25 Q Were you involved in that organization --

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Correll

322

1 A Yes.

2 Q -- that Women's Leadership Forum? What was your
3 involvement?

4 A I was a donor.

5 Q You were asked to arrange to be a chair of a luncheon
6 in Indianapolis at one point, correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And you undertook that obligation, correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Or that responsibility, correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And you were praised for your assistance in putting on 13 that luncheon, correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Do you think that the Women's Leadership Forum is a
16 valuable organization to the NRA?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And what value did that organization bring to the NRA?

19 A I believe it encouraged more women to join.

20 Q Was it effective in raising money for the NRA?

21 A Yes and no.

22 Q And when you say "yes and no", what do you mean by
23 that?

24 A They made a lot of money, but they spent a lot of 25 money.

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Correll

323

1 Q Did you make money on the luncheon that you organized
2 as a cochair?

3 A I was told we raised a certain amount but never saw the
4 expenditures.

5 Q You testified about -- Let me ask you this. Do you
6 know whether Susan LaPierre had any discussion with her husband
7 about her conversations with you?

8 A I would assume that she did based on what she said.

9 Q And so you're assuming. You don't know?

10 A I don't know.

11 Q What did she say?

12 A She said I want you to run for the board because I need
13 someone to protect my husband.

14 Q Did you have any reason to believe that -- Did you ever
15 talk to Mr. LaPierre about this?

16 A No.

17 Q Have you ever spoken to Mr. LaPierre?

18 A Very infrequently. When he does, he doesn't even look
19 at me.

20 Q Okay. But you never spoke to him about this, the 21 matter of you running for the board, correct?

22 A It may have been something in passing. There was never 23 an in-depth conversation with Mr. LaPierre.

24 Q And you said when you saw him he never even looked at 25 you, is that it?

LAS

1 A He would never look me in the eye.

5 A No, because some people are shy.

6 Q You talked about Josh Powell yesterday. Do you recall
7 testifying about Josh Powell?

8 A Vaguely.

9 Q Okay. And you alluded to some accusations that had 10 been made against Josh Powell; correct?

11 A Yes, that appeared in the newspaper.

12 Q Right.

13 Do you believe everything you read in the newspaper?

14 A Well, when the sources are from within the NRA
15 themselves, I would tend to believe they are true.

16 Q And who were the sources within the NRA?

17 A I don't -- you'd have to pull up the specific article,
18 but they -- I believe it was the attorney Bill Brewer.

19 Q Do you believe everything that the attorney general has 20 written in the complaint in this case?

21 A I haven't read the entire complaint.

22 Q Okay. So you have no personal knowledge as to whether 23 Mr. LaPierre spent money inappropriately or not; is that
24 correct?

25 A My knowledge comes from what is written in the

1 newspaper and reported by people who represent -- who were paid
2 to represent -- the NRA. Why would I believe otherwise?

3 Q Are you saying that someone in the NRA reported that
4 Mr. LaPierre had spent money improperly?

5 A I'd have to go back and look at the newspaper, see what
6 the newspaper article wrote. That's my only source of
7 knowledge.

8 Q What newspaper are you referring to?

9 A The Wall Street Journal.

10 Q And what time period are you referring to?

11 A 2018, 2019.

12 Q So you read a newspaper article and concluded that
13 Mr. LaPierre had done something because someone in a newspaper
14 article -- because the reporter -- said that Mr. LaPierre had 15 done something; is that fair?

16 A No. I said, I believed the source who made those 17 claims, who were paid by the NRA to represent the NRA, made
18 those claims.

19 Q Who are you referring to?

20 A Bill Brewer.

21 Q Are you saying that Bill Brewer made the claim that 22 Wayne LaPierre used money from the NRA improperly?

23 A I am saying that he said things, which he was quoted in 24 the newspaper, that led anyone to believe that they were true.

25 Q Can you recall exactly what you say he said?

5 Q Were you aware that the NRA had an outside auditor?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Had you spoken to the outside auditor?

8 A No.

9 Q Had you spoken to the Audit Committee about the outside
10 auditor?

11 A No, but I asked John Frazer for copies -- the certified
12 copies -- of the audit and all I was given was the condensed
13 annual report --

14 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, move to strike as not
15 responsive.

23 THE COURT: When he asks a yes-or-no question on 24 cross-examination, although it's sometimes awkward, if you
25 can answer it "yes" or "no" or say, "I can't answer it that

1 way," that's the best way to keep things moving along. If
2 you want to elaborate, then, on redirect, you can have a
3 chance to do that.

4 BY MR. CORRELL:

5 Q You talked yesterday about a conversation you had with 6 Joe DeBergalis. Do you recall that testimony?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Joe DeBergalis. You described him as the COO; is that
9 correct?

10 A Yes.

11 Q He's not the COO, is he?

12 A He was promoted to that capacity after Josh Powell
13 left. What is the correct title?

14 Q Well, the -- he's actually the -- he's the executive
15 director of general operations; correct?

16 A Okay.

17 Q Does that refresh your memory on that?

18 A That's fine.

19 Q You talked yesterday about -- well, you testified --
20 that you were told by Mr. DeBergalis that things were being 21 cleaned up. Do you remember that testimony?

22 A I do.

23 Q And did you circle back with anyone to determine
24 whether things had, in fact, been cleaned up?

25 A That conversation took place during the time period

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

329

1 when a lot of bad publicity was coming out or the newspaper
2 articles were coming out. I never did receive any answers to my
3 questions that were submitted after that conversation.

4 Q And what was that time period?

5 A Sometime between January and May.

6 Q Of what year?

7 A Of 2019.

8 Q So that was five years ago.

9 A Correct.

10 Q Have you inquired to determine whether any of the 11 issues that you had expressed concern about had been addressed
12 and resolved?

13 A No.

14 Q Do you know whether Mr. LaPierre has made payments to 15 the NRA to address issues raised concerning travel expenses?

16 A I did see that.

17 Q Where did you see that?

18 A It was in one of these supporting documents, I believe,
19 that were submitted to the Court.

20 Q Okay. And if it were true that Mr. LaPierre had 21 written checks to the NRA to cover travel expenses about which 22 questions had been raised, would that satisfy you?

23 A No.

24 Q Why would that not satisfy you?

25 A Because it was only for a specific time period.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

330

1 Q And how do you know that?

2 A The dates on this report were from 2011 to 2018.

3 Q And what report are you describing?

4 A It -- Mr. Marshall gave me a copy of a document that I
5 believed was derived from the 990s.

6 Q So you talked to Mr. Marshall before you took the stand
7 today?

8 A No. I did -- I did, before we came to this trial.

9 Q Well, that's before you took the stand today --

10 A Yes.

11 Q -- correct?

12 A Correct.

13 Q And he gave you information to help you prepare to 14 testify in support of the AG's position; correct?

15 A No.

16 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor.

17 Mischaracterization; assumes facts not in evidence;
18 no foundation.

19 THE COURT: You can ask --

20 MR. CORRELL: I'll restate the question slightly.

21 Q Did he give you information to assist you in preparing
22 for your testimony today?

23 A It had no relevance on my testimony.

24 Q Well, you've just -- well --

25 So, did he give you anything else; any other documents?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

331

1 A No.

2 Q Did you have any discussions with him? Any
3 conversations?

4 A No.

5 Q How much time did you spend with him?

6 A We had dinner, but there were also six people there and
7 he was seated across the table from me.

8 Q Who were the other six people?

9 A Personal friends of mine that live here in New York.

10 Q Were they members of the NRA?

11 A No.

12 Q You testified yesterday that the nominating committee
13 was populated by -- and I hope I get this right -- "what I would 14 perceive as personal favorites of Wayne"? Do you remember
15 giving that testimony, or substantially that testimony?

16 A Yes.

17 Q You used the word -- the words -- that "what I would 18 perceive." What was the basis of your perception?

19 A The people that were on the nominating committee were 20 also the same people on the executive committee, and there were 21 many individuals who had been in the NRA for a long time that 22 had never served on either one of those committees.

23 Q And you -- based on that observation, you concluded
24 that these were -- these people were -- favorites of Wayne?

25 A Based on longtime observations of being at different

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

332

1 events, yes.

2 Q In fairness, these were people that Wayne had worked
3 with for a long time to advance the mission of the NRA; correct?

4 A Not all of them.

5 Q Can you tell me who wasn't one of those people?

6 A Mitzy McCorvey was on the nominating committee and she
7 was brand-new. She wasn't even a board member; she was the 8 outside person. She's been since elected to the board.

9 Q If you had been allowed to serve on one of these
10 committees, how could you -- what would you have done
11 differently than just continuing to support the NRA as a -- as a
12 general member?

13 A To ask other people with better business backgrounds to 14 join our board.

15 Q You understand that in an association like the NRA,
16 it's important to have people on committees who work well
17 together?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And do you view yourself as a person who works well
20 with other people?

21 A I do.

22 Q Do you recognize the name "Shisler"?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And who is Ms. Shisler?

25 A She was my former general counsel at the lottery.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

333

1 Q Okay. Did you have a good working relationship with
2 Ms. Shisler?

3 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor.

4 Counsel is venturing into territory that you --
5 your Honor has already sustained.

6 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I'm trying to lay a
7 foundation to show relevance, and I think we're getting
8 there.

9 THE COURT: I heard you out on that. It's the 10 same.

11 MR. CORRELL: All right.

12 No further questions.

13 MR. FARBER: May I proceed, your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes, thank you.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. FARBER:

17 Q Good morning, Ms. Schneider.

18 A Good morning.

19 Q My name is Seth Farber and I'm one of the attorneys
20 representing Wilson Phillips.

21 MR. FARBER: Could we get Plaintiff's Exhibit
22 3230 -- it's been admitted into evidence -- up on the 23 screen, please?

24 (Image displayed.)

25 Q So, Ms. Schneider, this was one of the exhibits that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

334

1 you testified about yesterday. You remember that?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And this was an e-mail message that you sent to a
4 number of people, and what was the date on which you sent that?

5 Can you see that?

6 A It says: "April 22nd, 2092."

7 COURT REPORTER: Sorry?

8 A "2019."

9 Sorry.

10 MR. FARBER: And could we go to page 3 of this
11 document?

12 (Image scrolled.)

13 MR. FARBER: And if we could scroll down, please,
14 to the last paragraph ...?

15 (Image scrolled.)

16 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

17 Q And, Ms. Schneider, you see, you refer in the last
18 paragraph -- the carryover -- the first line, the second line,
19 to "NRA treasurer Craig Spray." Was Mr. Spray the treasurer and 20 CFO of the NRA at the time you sent this e-mail?

21 A Yes.

22 Q I'm sorry --

23 A Yes.

24 Q -- I didn't hear you.

25 A Um-hmm.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

335

1 Q And the other documents that Mr. Wang went through with
2 you yesterday, those were all from 2019, as well; isn't that
3 correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q When Mr. Spray was the CFO and treasurer; is that
6 correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. That was after my client, Mr. Phillips, had 9 retired; is that correct?

10 A Yes.

11 MR. FARBER: No further questions, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Anything further?

13 MR. FARBER: We need to trade (indicating).

14 I apologize.

15 (Microphone handed to Mr. Fleming.)

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. FLEMING:

18 Q Good morning, Ms. Schneider.

19 A Good morning.

20 Q How are you?

21 A I'm fine, thank you.

22 Q I'm William Fleming; I represent Mr. Frazer. So I have 23 a few questions for you; it won't take too much time.

24 I believe your testimony yesterday included testimony
25 that you only learned about Marion Hammer's compensation from

1 reviewing Form 990s; is that right?

2 A I believe so.

3 Q So it was disclosed in the Form 990; correct?

4 A Correct.

5 Q Okay. And you were a director?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Did you have access to reports that were furnished to 8 directors on the board?

9 A Some, not all.

10 Q Did you, in the usual course of events, get Audit
11 Committee reports?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay.

14 MR. FLEMING: Can we call up JFX 52, which is not 15 in evidence; for identification?

16 Q And I would have you look at that when it comes up.

17 THE COURT: Is that going to come up on her screen?

18 It can't go up on the screen --

19 MR. FLEMING: No, it can't go up on the screen
20 (indicating).

21 THE COURT: I thought that it would work on your 22 screen. Is that not ...?

23 (Pause.)

24 THE COURT: Oh. I thought they usually set it up
25 that the witness' screen can see it. But if that's not been

1 set up, we'll have to get that set up that way.

2 Do you have a hard copy?

3 MR. FLEMING: I don't. It's big and thick. I
4 don't.

5 Let me just ask questions around it. The document
6 will come in at some point.

7 BY MR. FLEMING:

8 Q You're familiar with what an Audit Committee report is?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Can you explain to the jury what it is?

11 A It is the minutes of the meetings that are -- been 12 transcribed and put into the board packet.

13 Q And you were a director in 2018; correct?

14 A Correct.

15 Q And do you recall there being a September 2018 Audit
16 Committee meeting?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And I think you testified that you couldn't attend
19 because you had a conflict; is that right?

20 A I believe that's the case, yes.

21 Q Do you recall seeing the Audit Committee report from 22 September 2018?

23 A I may have; I don't recall its contents.

24 Q Do you recall, at all, seeing that Marion Hammer's
25 compensation was included in that report?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

338

1 A That sounds familiar.

2 Q Okay. And as a director, you also get reports from the
3 office of the secretary; correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And the office of the secretary is John Frazer's
6 office, right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And the secretary's reports come out every year;
9 correct?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And they disclose to directors all payments made to 12 officers and directors -- is that right? -- that are over 13 $2,000.

14 A Yes.

15 Q All right. And you recall seeing Marion Hammer's
16 compensation on those, as well?

17 A I don't recall off the top of my head, no.

18 Q But you've seen the secretary's report.

19 A Yes.

20 Q Now, you also testified yesterday about the nominating
21 committee?

22 A Yes.

23 Q You recall it?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. And you kept an eye on that committee,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

339

1 apparently; is that right?

2 A I'm sorry?

3 Q Kept an eye on that committee?

4 A Tried to.

5 Q And you formed a conclusion that its members were
6 chosen --

7 A Correct.

8 Q -- selected carefully; correct?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And I believe you said that those members were chosen
11 to be favorites of Wayne; is that correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And you were a director in 2017; is that right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Do you consider Marion Hammer to be a favorite of 16 Wayne?

17 A I do.

18 Q She would qualify, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. And so, are you aware, having kept an eye on the 21 nominating committee, that Ms. Hammer bid for a seat on that 22 committee in 2017?

23 A I don't know that.

24 Q Are you aware that she lost that bid?

25 A I am not.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

340

1 I do know that Ms. -- Ms. Hammer did not attend any
2 board meeting except one my entire time on the board.

3 MR. FLEMING: Move to strike, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: That wouldn't be responsive to the 5 question, so it's stricken.

6 Q Now, I believe you submitted, or evidence was submitted
7 of, a memo you wrote to Mr. Wit Davis in May of 2019.

8 A Yes.

9 Q Do you recall that?

10 (Witness nodded.)

11 MR. FLEMING: Okay. Can we call up PX 3231, which 12 is in evidence?

13 (Image displayed.)

14 Q And can you confirm for the jury that this (indicating)
15 is the memo we're talking about?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. Now, on the first page, it says: "These are 18 questions for the Audit and Finance Committees"; is that right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Now, those committees are filled with directors of the 21 NRA; right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. Other directors.

24 You're a director; they were directors.

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

341

1 Q And Wit Davis was a lawyer for the board of directors,
2 right?

3 A So we were told.

4 Q But that's what he was; correct?

5 A In my conversations with him, he led me to believe that 6 he didn't really represent us to the extent that he was 7 exclusively for us.

8 Q Well, putting aside what he represented, his title --

9 A His title was such.

10 Q -- was the lawyer for the board; right?

11 A Correct.

12 Q Okay. And that's why you reached out to him, because 13 you were a director and the Audit and Finance Committees were 14 filled with directors. You went to the lawyer for directors;
15 correct?

16 A We were told, if we had additional questions, that we
17 should refer those questions to Mr. Davis.

18 Q Okay. But you didn't dispute the logic of that, right?

19 A No.

20 Q Now, a few days later, after sending this (indicating)
21 memo, you reached out to Mr. Frazer. Do you recall that?

22 A You'd have to refresh my memory.

23 Q Okay.

24 MR. FLEMING: Can we call up PX --

25 Well, we're going to have the same problem.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Schneider - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

342

1 (To counsel) It's one of your exhibits. It's not
2 admitted yet. Is there a way to get it up for the witness
3 to see?

4 MS. CONNELL: It's not admitted?

5 MR. FLEMING: No.

6 MR. WANG: Something from yesterday?

7 (Discussion among counsel outside the hearing of 8 the reporter.)

9 THE COURT: I have a call into IT.

10 That's the way we had the wiring set up yesterday.

11 (To jury) Normally, the way it works is that the 12 witness and lawyers can see. We're not trying to keep 13 anything from you, but until I admit it, it's not supposed
14 to go up on the screen for you.

15 So do you want to take that one down?

16 MR. FLEMING: All right. I'll get -- I'll try to 17 ask questions around the document.

18 THE COURT: Can we just take that one down?

19 MR. PETERS: May we move it into evidence?

20 MS. CONNELL: That one (indicating) is admitted
21 into evidence.

22 THE COURT: Oh, that was in evidence.

23 The one that was up there was admitted into
24 evidence?

25 MS. CONNELL: Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 BY MR. FLEMING:

3 Q I want to ask questions around the document. If you
4 don't recall it, just tell me.

5 A Okay.

6 Q Okay?

7 Mr. Davis. You sent him that memo on May 20th, 2019.
8 Do you recall that?

9 A Yes.

10 Q All right. On May 29th, you reached out to Mr. Frazer.
11 Do you recall that? Roughly?

12 A Roughly.

1 THE COURT: Actually, counsel had a good point. If
2 this is a PX exhibit, meaning it's one of the exhibits that
3 the plaintiff wants to introduce and the defendants want to
4 have it be admitted, seems to me it's probably not objected
5 to. That's what PX means, right?

6 MS. CONNELL: Generally means, your Honor, yes.
7 Can we just look at the number?

8 MR. FLEMING: 2087.

9 MS. CONNELL: Thanks. That's fine.

10 THE COURT: Thanks for the idea, but so you can --
11 What number was it?

12 MR. FLEMING: 2087.

13 THE COURT: PX 2087 is admitted on consent.

14 Q Take your time, Ms. Schneider, and just tell me if you
15 recall this?

16 A (Examining). Okay.

17 THE COURT: I think she's finished.

18 Q All set?

19 A The next page just came up.

20 Q Yep.

21 A (Examining). Yes.

22 Q Okay. So, do you recall sending this e-mail?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. And Mr. Frazer got back to you the next day,
25 right?

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Fleming

345

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And he even went further and he forwarded your 3 questions to the president and the two vice presidents, the 4 three board officers, right?

5 A That's what he said, yes.

6 Q Well, do you dispute that?

7 A I don't have a way to confirm it or dispute it.

8 Q Okay. Do you know Mr. Frazer to mislead?

9 A No.

10 Q Okay. Now, you reach out to him and say "Might you 11 call me tomorrow." Do you see that?

12 A Mm-hmm.

13 Q And he called you, right?

14 A I -- I had many conversations with Mr. Frazer.

15 Q Okay. And he was generally responsive, right?

16 A Again, I have no context.

17 Q Well, he was available to you, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And you spoke this time, didn't you, for a long
20 time?

21 A In this particular conversation?

22 Q Yes.

23 A I don't know. You can't -- you can't say. As I just 24 explained, I had many conversations with Mr. Frazer over a
25 period of time.

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Fleming

346

1 Q Okay.

2 A And he was always agreeable to take my call.

3 Q Do you recall on this occasion speaking to Mr. Frazer
4 right after you asked him to call you for approximately 5 40 minutes where he explained to you all the investigations he
6 was doing into the very issues that you had raised?

7 A I don't -- I don't know. I don't recall that at all.

8 Q Do you recall ever having a conversation like that with 9 him?

10 A No. You'll have to give me more context. You can't 11 tell me it was a 40 minute conversation and I have nothing to 12 verify that with.

13 Q My question to you is this. You spoke to him, right?

14 A If you have the 40 minute documentation, why not show
15 it to me?

16 Q You have to answer my question. You spoke to him that 17 day, right?

18 A Again, I cannot verify or deny.

19 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor, to the extent
20 there is a hearsay element to the conversation that 21 Mr. Fleming is attempting to elicit and there is a potential
22 sword and shield on a privilege issue.

23 THE COURT: All of that is premature because we 24 don't even know what the question is going to be. And he's 25 just asking I think for your present recollection whether

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Fleming

347

1 you recall the conversation. I don't -- I don't -- I think
2 that's all you're asking, right, her present recollection?

3 MR. FLEMING: I'll go further, your Honor. So,
4 Ms. Schneider answered that she remembered --

5 THE COURT: You don't have to talk to me anymore.
6 You can ask her.

7 MR. FLEMING: Okay.

8 Q You remember that he called you. You already said
9 that, right?

10 A No. Again, I answered your question and said I had 11 many conversations with Mr. Frazer over that time period.

12 Q So, you don't recall?

13 A I cannot. Until you give me more context, if you know
14 it was 40 minutes how -- show me it was 40 minutes. I don't 15 know.

16 Q So, Ms. Schneider, is it your testimony that you don't 17 recall having a conversation after you wrote "Might you call me
18 tomorrow", is that your testimony?

19 A If -- if John -- if I asked John to call me, he 20 probably did.

21 Q Okay. And my next question is, do you recall either
22 then or ever talking on the phone or in person with Mr. Frazer
23 about the investigations he was conducting into the issues that 24 were raised in the articles that you had talked about with 25 Mr. Davis?

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Fleming

348

1 MR. WANG: Just preserving, your Honor,
2 sword-and-shield objection to this line of questioning.

3 THE COURT: Well, they haven't thrown the shield up
4 yet. So, they can ask. And if they open the door by asking
5 questions, then we'll see what happens.

6 A I would have to go back and look and see what the dates
7 are on my documents. As I said earlier, it's been more than 8 five years and you're asking me for very specific details.

9 Q Do you document all of your phone calls?

10 A Not all of them, no.

11 Q Okay. A lot of them?

12 A I did back then, but I don't recall doing -- I mean,
13 again I had a lot of conversations with Mr. Frazer over this 14 time period.

15 Q Do you generally document -- did you generally document
16 your phone calls from Mr. Frazer?

17 A No.

18 Q Now, every year directors elect the paid officers of 19 the NRA, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q All right. And you testified yesterday that your view
22 was John Frazer had not fulfilled his duties, is that right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Now, in your three years on the board, did you ever
25 vote against him?

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Fleming

349

1 A No, I don't believe so. I don't -- Again, a lot of
2 those were voice votes and there were many times I didn't vote.

3 Q Now, in fact, you told Mr. Frazer in person to his face
4 that the NRA was blessed to have him, didn't you?

5 A You have to give me context, because John Frazer is a
6 very lovely man. I never had any dispute with John. I do have 7 issues with some of the decisions that he made without board
8 approval.

9 Q Did you ever say to him, to your recollection, The NRA
10 is blessed to have you?

11 A In a three year time period I may have.

12 Q Now, last question. You talked about articles coming
13 from reliable sources, right, and that's why you trusted what 14 was in news articles, right?

15 A I don't know if I trusted them, but it gave greater
16 pause for thought to really understand what was happening.

17 Q Now you've had articles written about you, haven't you?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And those articles were based on sources that were 20 inside the organization you worked for, isn't that right?

21 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor. We're going into 22 the same line of questioning that your Honor has already 23 sustained an objection to.

24 THE COURT: You're talking about the NRA or a
25 different entity?

LAS

Cross-Schneider-Fleming

350

1 MR. FLEMING: Different entity.

2 MR. WANG: Same that we objected to previously,
3 your Honor.

4 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, I'm just establishing 5 that there are articles written by sources and trying to 6 find out simply whether the witness agrees with those
7 sources or not. That's all.

8 MR. WANG: Same objection that we presented.

9 THE COURT: Sustained. I think the jury has heard
10 this from me before. Newspaper articles are hearsay. They 11 are not evidence of anything. So, for our purposes that's 12 really all that's relevant about this.

13 MR. FLEMING: Thank you.

14 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Any redirect?

16 MR. WANG: Just brief redirect, your Honor. May I
17 proceed, your Honor?

18 THE COURT: You may.

19 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. WANG:

21 Q Good morning, Ms. Schneider.

22 A Good morning.

23 Q On your cross examination you spoke a little bit about 24 press reports dealing with NRA. Did you review press reports in 25 the 2018 and 2019 time period?

LAS

Redirect-Schneider-Wang

351

1 A Yes.

2 Q Did those raise concerns about the NRA to you?

3 A Absolutely.

4 Q When you were concerned about the NRA, what did you do?

5 A Asked more questions.

6 Q And who did you ask those questions of?

7 A I sent questions to John Frazer. I asked questions of 8 Jim Porter. I asked multiple people questions who I thought,
9 Scott Bach, who could give me the answers based on the 10 committees they served on.

11 Q Did you want to understand what was happening?

12 A I did.

13 Q And did you feel like those questions were responded
14 to?

15 A No.

16 Q Did you get information that you were requesting?

17 A No.

18 Q Did you ask for information from the NRA?

19 A I did.

20 Q And did you feel like you got a sufficient -- a
21 satisfactory response?

22 A No.

23 Q What did you hope would happen in response to 24 the concerns you raised with NRA leaders?

25 A I hoped that they would change course and provide those

LAS

Redirect-Schneider-Wang

352

1 answers, make provisions, put provisions in place, policies and
2 procedures to prevent it from happening again.

3 Q Did you serve on committees while you were a board
4 member?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Were there ever any complaints raised about your
7 committee service while you were a board member?

8 A No.

9 Q You testified about understanding that Mr. LaPierre
10 made some repayments to the NRA recently, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And do you know what went into those -- Do you know how 13 much he repaid?

14 A I have no idea. I have a general idea, but I didn't 15 put a calculator to it.

16 Q Do you know if they were repayments that included for 17 private flights?

18 A I believe some of that was, yes.

19 Q Do you know which flights were included?

20 A No.

21 Q Do you know if repayments included repayments from a
22 limousine service?

23 MR. CORRELL: Objection. She said she read
24 newspaper articles about them. She didn't say she didn't 25 have personal knowledge about this stuff.

LAS

Redirect-Schneider-Wang

353

1 MR. WANG: She said she read a court --

2 MR. CORRELL: She read court filings.

3 THE COURT: Well, the question is not
4 objectionable. You're just asking what she knew. What she 5 learned.

6 Q Do you know if limousines were included?

7 A I don't recall.

8 Q Do you know if five star hotels were included in those 9 repayments?

10 A No. It was a very quick look.

11 Q You were also asked about who the treasurer was in 12 2019. Do you recall who the treasurer was?

13 A Craig Spray.

14 Q And you were raising some concerns in the 2018/2019
15 time period. What time period did the conduct you were raising
16 concerns about cover?

17 A Basically I believe '17, '18.

18 Q Earlier than just 2019?

19 A Yes.

20 Q You testified about raising concerns with John Frazer?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Did he resolve those concerns?

23 A A lot -- No. I mean, he was very gracious in taking 24 the call and listening to what I had to say but could not 25 provide answers.

LAS

Redirect-Schneider-Wang

354

1 Q Did you raise concerns with Mr. Davis?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Did you feel like Mr. Davis helped resolve your
4 concerns?

5 A Not at all.

6 MR. WANG: No further questions, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Anything further?

8 (No response.)

9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

10 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: You're free to go.

12 (Witness excused.)

13 THE COURT: Typical standard would be to have our 14 morning break at 11:00 so that we can then refresh and be 15 ready to go for the rest of the morning. So why don't we 16 take a short break. Everybody can use the facilities and 17 come back for the next witness.

18 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

19 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

20 THE COURT: Okay. Off the record.

21 (Whereupon a discussion off the record was held.)

22 THE COURT: Back on the record. I think your 23 question was not on the record if you want to ask that
24 again.

25 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, would this be a good time

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

355

1 to handle the proffer?

2 THE COURT: Is this about the impeachment evidence
3 that you were seeking to have introduced?

4 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: If you want to make a record as to what
6 it would be. I think I heard most of what you were talking
7 about, but go ahead.

8 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, had we been allowed to 9 proceed, we would have questioned about information
10 reflected in certified documents we have from the United 11 States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana,
12 Indianapolis Division. They are public records of which you
13 can take judicial notice. They include statements regarding 14 allegations made against Ms. Schneider by a quadriplegic who 15 served as general counsel for the lottery, who alleged that 16 she was abused verbally in front of other co-workers and 17 that at one point Ms. Schneider tore up a document and threw 18 it in her face. On another occasion threw a document on the 19 ground, knowing she would not be able to pick it up, and 20 told her to pick it up. The documents also show that there
21 was a suit for discrimination brought by, I believe, eight
22 or nine African American employees that Ms. Schneider was 23 the executive director of the organization at the time all
24 of this occurred. And a substantial amounts of money were 25 paid out by the state of Indiana to address the issues. I

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

356

1 would like to offer these into evidence, your Honor. Well,
2 offer them as proffer for identification.

3 MR. WANG: Your Honor, the evidence is highly
4 prejudicial, not probative.

5 THE COURT: Can you talk into the mike.

6 MR. WANG: Your Honor, the evidence is highly
7 prejudicial and not probative to any issues in this
8 litigation. It's just designed to make Ms. Schneider look
9 like an unlikable witness. It doesn't have -- It's 10 collateral evidence. It doesn't have anything to do with 11 her service on the NRA board of directors. Her raising of 12 concerns. Her testimony about the need at the NRA to have 13 an internal auditor. It's our position that proffered
14 evidence is irrelevant.

15 THE COURT: Yeah. I think it's being offered for 16 impeachment. So, you know, there are situations where prior 17 conduct can be used, but the question is whether this is one
18 of those situations. And again this is just allegations,
19 right.

20 Look, I -- I understand the issue. Putting aside
21 the fact that these are only allegations, there is a limit
22 to the kind of prior conduct one can bring up in cross
23 examination. And the general principle is that the nature
24 of the conduct or the circumstances in which it occurred
25 bare logically and reasonably on the witness' credibility.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

357

1 And what you have all presented is, I think, you know,
2 Mr. Wang fairly states, it more goes to just, you know,
3 general character and I think it certainly is -- whether 4 it's intended or otherwise would be more inflammatory than 5 anything else. It's not conduct going to credibility in my 6 view logically or reasonably. So, I'm sticking with my 7 ruling.

8 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, if I may add one thing.
9 The issue is whether Carolyn Meadows exercised her business
10 judgment as president of the NRA appropriately in deciding 11 not to let this person on the committee. She had knowledge
12 of the incident that occurred with her. She witnessed
13 personally. And there was press coverage of this prior 14 conduct by Ms. Schneider that we -- that may have been part
15 of the consideration as well.

16 THE COURT: Well, is there any evidence that those 17 making the decision not to appoint her to committees were 18 aware of those prior events?

19 MR. CORRELL: We are going to explore that with 20 other witnesses, I believe. I know one witness will testify
21 that they became aware of this two years after the fact.
22 And that it's also relevant she did not disclose this. When 23 she was seeking to run for the board, she concealed this 24 from the board. And that that conflicted with her getting 25 on the board and may have been affected by her own

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

358

1 concealment.

2 THE COURT: Look, I just disagree. If it had been
3 part of the factual background for her being kept off
4 committees, then that's a different issue. That becomes
5 part of the decisionmaking process. That was not. The fact
6 that it was found out two years after the fact, it's just,
7 in my view, being offered to, you know, tarnish her in 8 certain ways. But it had nothing to do with the decision to 9 -- with respect to her -- her committee membership. So it's 10 not factually relevant. It can only be relevant, if at all,
11 to impeach her credibility. And it is not suffice to do
12 that. I heard the arguments, and I'm sticking with my 13 ruling.

14 All right. Let's take a short break. Five
15 minutes. Let's try to return in five minutes if we can.

16 (Whereupon a recess was taken.)

17 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I would like to know how 18 you would like us to offer the documents marked for 19 identification just to make them part of the court record.

20 THE COURT: Part of the court record.

21 MR. CORRELL: We're not moving to admit them.
22 We're asking to have them marked for identification.

23 THE COURT: You can mark them for identification as 24 -- What do you want to mark them as?

25 MR. CORRELL: We'll give them a special number.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

359

1 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, may be have these?

2 THE COURT: You'll have to also give copies to the 3 Attorney General's Office. We can mark them as Defendants'
4 Exhibit 1 for identification or I don't know what you want
5 to call it.

6 MR. CORRELL: That's fine. We'll make them
7 together as a set.

8 THE COURT: Yeah. Maybe it's better to pick a
9 number that is not being used for anything else. You can
10 work out the numbering.

11 MR. CORRELL: We'll work it out with the State,
12 your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Let's get the jury,
14 please.

15 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

16 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

17 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome back. Have a seat. Is 18 plaintiff ready too call its next witness?

19 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor. The People call
20 Jeffrey Tenenbaum.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Please get the witness, Mr.
22 Tenenbaum.

23 THE COURT CLERK: Raise your right hand.

24 J E F F R E Y T E N E N B A U M, after having been duly sworn

1 THE COURT CLERK: State your name.

2 THE WITNESS: Jeffrey Tenenbaum.

3 THE COURT CLERK: Can you spell your last name.

4 THE WITNESS: T-E-N-E-N-B-A-U-M.

5 THE COURT CLERK: Business address, if you have
6 one.

7 THE WITNESS: 1101 K Street Northwest, Suite 700,
8 Washington, D.C., 20005.

9 THE COURT CLERK: Thank you. You may be seated.

10 THE COURT: Good morning, sir.

11 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

12 THE COURT: Counsel, you may inquire.

13 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you, your Honor. Good
14 morning, members of the jury. My name is Stephen Thompson,
15 one of the attorneys for the plaintiff.

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. THOMPSON:

18 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, can you just take a look at the first 19 document in your binder and let me know if you recognize it.

20 A (Examining).

21 Q The one you just pulled out, Mr. Tenenbaum. Yeah.

22 A Yes. These are my demonstrables or slides for today's
23 testimony.

24 Q Great. So we have those up on the screen for the jury
25 as well.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

361

1 THE COURT: Just so it's clear folks, when people
2 call something a -- I think you said demonstrable -- a
3 demonstrative, it's not evidence. It's a presentation that
4 kind of organizes things. It's helpful to organize things.
5 It should be -- It's not evidence itself. It's just sort of 6 a guide. So, just a heads up on that.

7 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, do you have any professional degrees?

8 A I do.

9 Q What are they?

10 A I have a Bachelor of Arts from the University of 11 Pennsylvania, and I have a Juris Doctor, a law degree, from The 12 Columbus School of Law of Catholic University.

13 Q And could you please provide the jury with a brief
14 review of your professional background since graduating from law
15 school?

16 A Sure. So, I got my start really in this career when I
17 was going to law school at night. I worked during the day at a
18 place called The American Society of Association Executives.
19 It's basically a professional association for people that run
20 membership associations. Was doing public policy issue analysis
21 and then managing the legal section there. Learned a lot about 22 the law governing membership associations. Kind of fell in love
23 with it. Decided that's what I wanted to do. And for the last
24 28 years I've been in private practice in D.C. exclusively
25 representing nonprofit organizations including membership

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

362

1 organizations as outside counsel.

2 THE COURT: I thought that was the association that
3 most epitomized Washington, The Association of the 4 Association Executives.

5 THE WITNESS: It is.

6 THE COURT: Is there an association of the people
7 who are in the association of the association?

8 THE WITNESS: It's a great organization.

9 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, are you currently employed?

10 A I am. I am currently a managing partner of a five
11 lawyer boutique firm in Washington D.C., Tenenbaum Law Group.
12 I've done my whole career exclusively representing nonprofit
13 organizations as outside counsel.

14 Q Do you have any experience consulting with nonprofits
15 on governance-related issues?

16 A Yes, extensive experience. I sometimes view myself not 17 only as a lawyer but as a governance consultant. I said that 18 many times to many clients and others. I do a lot of board
19 trainings for not profit boards on governance-related issues and 20 I consult regularly, probably almost every day with different
21 clients on a wide variety of nonprofit governance matters.

22 Q All right. And, Mr. Tenenbaum, do you know
23 approximately how large the NRA is in terms of its annual 24 revenue?

25 A I believe the last IRS Form 990 that I looked at, I

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

363

1 think it was 2022, it was maybe $227 million in annual revenue.

2 Q And do you have any clients currently who are the same
3 size or larger than the NRA?

4 A Yes.

5 Q In terms of annual revenue?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Approximately how many?

8 A Out of our 700 or so clients, probably about ten or 12.

9 Q And do you work with membership organizations ever?

10 A Yes. I mean, as I said earlier, I've spent the first 11 ten years of my career probably roughly doing nothing but 12 working with membership associations. Over the rest of my 13 career, it's still a significant part of our practice. Probably 14 60 percent of our firm's practice is representing membership
15 associations. And then the rest is all other types of 16 nonprofits from charities, foundations, conservation groups, et
17 cetera.

18 Q Currently can you estimate approximately what 19 percentage of your client base is composed of membership
20 organizations?

21 A Yeah. I mean by number of clients, like I said,
22 probably around 60 percent.

23 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, in your career have you ever
24 observed governance failures in nonprofits?

25 A Oh, yes. Many, many times.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

364

1 Q Have you ever observed governance failures at the
2 executive level of a nonprofit?

3 A Absolutely.

4 Q What about at the board level of a nonprofit?

5 A Yes. Both.

6 Q So, to take a step back, Mr. Tenenbaum. Can you please
7 explain to the jury your unique role as a witness in this case.
8 Why are you here today?

9 A I believe I'm here and was asked to be here to kind of 10 provide a benchmark and context for what are kind of standard
11 typical practices in the nonprofit community, especially with 12 governance matters.

13 Q Were you engaged by one of the parties in this
14 litigation?

15 A Yes, by the Attorney General's Office.

16 Q And were you asked to provide any specific opinions?

17 A I was. I was asked to provide primarily three 18 opinions. You want to know what those are?

19 Q Yes, please.

20 THE COURT: Not yet.

21 Q Would you please say what your opinions are?

22 THE COURT: No, not yet.

23 MR. THOMPSON: Okay.

24 THE COURT: You have to move -- Before he can state
25 his opinions to the jury, you have to seek to have him be

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

365

1 qualified as an expert.

2 MR. THOMPSON: Yes. At this point, your Honor, I
3 would move for Mr. Tenenbaum to be qualified as an expert.

4 THE COURT: Any objection?

5 MS. ROGERS: Yes. Your Honor, we object, to the
6 extent that Mr. Tenenbaum is being qualified as an expert
7 obviously -- Can you hear me, your Honor?

8 THE COURT: Sort of.

9 MS. ROGERS: I'll try this microphone. To the
10 extent that Mr. Tenenbaum is being qualified as an expert,
11 we object to the extent that his testimony is offered on the 12 subjects previously contested which were a subject of motion
13 practice before your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Right. So, this is the first expert
15 witness that you have seen. There will be others. If the 16 appropriate qualifications are shown, then a witness is 17 allowed to provide either background or opinion testimony.
18 They're different from fact witnesses who tell you whether 19 the light was green or red. This is more for situations
20 where some specialized expertise can be helpful to the 21 factfinder, that is you all. And so my conclusion is is 22 that he is admitted as an expert limited to the topics that 23 as Ms. Rogers pointed out have been agreed in advance. And 24 so with those provisos.

25 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, if I may. I join that

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

366

1 objection, but I would also ask the Court to instruct
2 counsel to elicit exactly what he is an expert on. Just
3 trying to set the parameters, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay. I thought that he had. But what
5 is the area of expertise, Mr. Thompson, that you're offering
6 the witness.

7 MR. THOMPSON: We're offering Mr. Tenenbaum as an 8 expert on nonprofit governance and particularly at the 9 executive and at the board level.

10 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. He's admitted. Now you can ask
12 about his opinions.

13 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, what opinions were you asked to provide?

14 A I was asked to provide opinions on three topics. One
15 is kind of typical customary nonprofit practice when it comes to 16 conflicts of interest and related-party transactions. I was 17 also asked to provide opinions on common and typical nonprofit
18 practice when it comes to whistleblower policies and 19 whistleblower protection. I was asked to provide an opinion on 20 customary and typical nonprofit practice when it comes to the 21 safeguarding of nonprofit assets and avoiding waste and abuse.

22 Q So, Mr. Tenenbaum, at a high level what is a nonprofit
23 organization?

24 A So, a nonprofit organization, let me explain. So the 25 term nonprofit typically comes from the fact that an

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

367

1 organization is incorporated as a nonprofit corporation in a
2 particular state, one of the 50 states or D.C., in this
3 particular case it's New York. That's what makes it a nonprofit
4 corporation. And that's what makes it subject to the law of the 5 state of incorporation. Wherever you are incorporated,
6 regardless of where you are located, you're always going to be
7 governed by that state statute, which has a lot of rules,
8 restrictions, prohibitions, et cetera.

9 Separate and apart from that, a lot of people presume
10 that nonprofit also means tax exempt organization. But that 11 actually comes from a separate process where you go to the 12 Internal Revenue Service, IRS, and ask them to recognize your 13 federal tax exempt status, meaning you're extent from federal 14 and state corporate income tax. And together that's what most 15 people think of as a nonprofit organization. That is what is 16 the case in this particular case.

17 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, can you provide a brief overview of 18 what role, if any, nonprofits play in the United States economy?

19 A A really important role. I spent my entire career
20 devoted to nonprofit organizations. As you can see in this
21 slide, nonprofits are the third largest employer in the country.
22 A lot of people don't know that. Part of it is there are all
23 different types of nonprofits. Some you don't even think of as 24 nonprofit organizations. They really fulfill a critical
25 function. You know, all different types of nonprofits do

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

368

1 different things. But the ones that we typically think of as
2 nonprofits from the charities, philanthropic organizations,
3 social welfare organizations, they really do a very important
4 job of kind of helping to relieve the burdens of government.
5 Filling a social safety net. Providing assistance to people.
6 As you can see from the slide, more than half of Americans
7 typically make donations to nonprofit organizations. It's a
8 critical part of the American economy and they play a critical
9 role.

10 Q And generally speaking what, if anything, makes a
11 nonprofit different from a for profit entity?

12 A Well, the most important distinction is that a
13 nonprofit has no owners. So what that means -- The term is 14 actually misnomers. It really has nothing to do with profit,
15 although the New York general not-for-profit corporation law
16 does say that a New York nonprofit is only suppose to make 17 incidental profit. Generally speaking there is no real 18 restriction how much profit a nonprofit can make. It's just 19 that those profits get reinvested in the organization, where a
20 for profit company, you know, the owners typically kind of take 21 out the profits at the end of the year or however they are 22 distributed.

23 Q And what role, if any, do state's Attorney Generals
24 play in the regulation of nonprofits?

25 A They play a critical role, 'cause the Attorney Generals

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

369

1 are in most states the principal enforcer of the state nonprofit
2 corporation law. So, I talked about kind of the IRS being an
3 enforcer of the federal tax exemption laws, like 501(c)(3),
4 (c)(4) organizations. But at the state level, in terms of the 5 state nonprofit corporate laws, like the one in New York, these 6 are enforced by the State Attorney General. So because all of 7 the profits have to be reinvested back in the mission and 8 purpose of the organization, from a state corporate law
9 perspective it falls to the State Attorney General to help
10 ensure that those profits are in fact being reinvested back in 11 the organization and not being diverted to private individuals
12 or corporations or other parties.

13 Q And Mr. Tenenbaum, are you familiar with the IRS Form
14 990?

15 A Very.

16 Q What is it?

17 A So, some people call it the nonprofit tax return. It's 18 technically referred to as an information return because unless 19 they earn something called unrelated business income tax, tax
20 exempt organizations don't pay corporate income tax. So, the 21 form, it's an information return, because it provides a whole
22 bunch of information to the IRS and also to state regulators,
23 because in states like New York a copy has to be provided to the 24 state regulator as well for certain types of nonprofits.

25 The form allows the IRS and state regulators to be able

LAS

370

1 to kind of determine compliance with the tax laws. It has a
2 whole bunch of information, unlike the individual tax returns
3 that we all file that are mainly just numbers, this of course
4 has numbers, but it has a whole bunch of other information
5 relating to governance and relating to diversion of assets and 6 related to related-party transactions and whether the 7 organization board has adopted certain policies. A whole bunch
8 of other things to enable the IRS and state regulators to 9 determine compliance with the tax and the state corporate laws.

10 And then as you can see in this slide it serves an 11 equally important function in that it's subject to what's called 12 public disclosure. So unlike corporate income tax returns and 13 individual tax returns, which are not subject to public
14 disclosure, this form is. With the exception of one schedule on 15 the form Schedule B. The rest of it is subject to public
16 disclosure. Anyone who wants to request a copy of a Form 990
17 can go to the organization and request a copy for any reason.
18 It has to be provided by law. There is also websites like
19 GuideStar and Pro Public and others and even the IRS website
20 itself where you can see copies of the Form 990. So, it allows,
21 it serves a really important function of allowing like donor,
22 potential donors and grantors and whatnot to determine, you
23 know, is this an organization we want to give money to. Is it
24 using its funds wisely. Is it violating the tax laws. Is it
25 spending too much on fundraising expenses and not enough on

LAS

1 other programatic expenses and carrying out the mission and
2 purpose of the organization. It provides a really important
3 function on that regard.

4 THE COURT: You may have to talk a little bit more
5 slowly for the court reporter to keep track.

6 THE WITNESS: Sorry. I tend to talk fast.

7 THE COURT: We all do.

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

372

1 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, you used the phrase "diversion of
2 assets." Can you tell the jury what that means, please?

3 A Well, I think -- at its most basic, I think of it as,
4 in terms of a not-for-profit organization, having the
5 organization's assets, its money, its resources being utilized
6 in a manner that's, kind of, not in furtherance of the mission
7 and purpose of the organization. Whether that means just being 8 wasted, whether it means going to the benefit of insiders that 9 run the organization, whether it means paying too much to 10 outside vendors, these sorts of things are what I would
11 typically think of as a diversion of -- of assets.

12 Q And are there any questions on the Form 990 aimed at 13 whether or not there had been a diversion of assets?

14 A Yes. In the -- in the governance section of the Form
15 990, that asks a whole bunch of governance-related questions.
16 And this is relatively new. I've been doing it for 30 years;
17 it's relatively new to me. It's only since 2008 that the IRS
18 overhauled the Form 990 and put all these new questions on 19 there, including, in the governance section, they added one
20 about: Has the organization been subject to a significant or 21 material diversion of assets in the last year? So the 990 is 22 filed on an annual basis, so they're asking, like, what happened
23 over the course of the last fiscal year? And if you answer
24 "yes," then, on what's called Schedule O, which is basically a 25 blank piece of paper, you're supposed to put a description of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

373

1 exactly what happened.

2 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, are related-party transactions
3 required to be disclosed on the Form 990?

4 A Yes.

5 It is schedule L, I believe, that is the schedule where 6 you disclose what are called "related-party transactions"; and 7 there's a very specific definition on there of what that means.
8 But that's where related-party transactions are supposed to be
9 disclosed, yes.

10 Q And you also mentioned that there is a section on 11 governance-related questions in the 990; is that correct?

12 A Correct.

13 Q And what other -- so we --

14 We talked about diversion of assets, but what other
15 governance-related questions are on the 990?

16 A I don't remember all of them, but some of the 17 highlights that I do remember -- you know, for instance, it asks
18 whether the organization's board has adopted certain policies
19 that the IRS believes are really important for, kind of, the 20 healthy governance and management of tax-exempt organizations.
21 So it asks whether the organization has -- its board -- has 22 adopted a conflict-of-interest policy, a whistleblower-
23 protection policy, a record-retention policy, an executive-
24 compensation policy, things like that; and then it asks some 25 related questions about, essentially, whether those policies are

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

374

1 being complied with and whatnot.

2 Q And what role, if any --

3 In your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, what role, if any,
4 do those questions about governance have on the public
5 perception of a charity?

6 A A huge impact. I mean, because think about it: If 7 you're a potential grantor, whether it's, like, a big private 8 foundation or a government agency or just a big donor or 9 donor-advised fund and you think about giving money to a
10 nonprofit, if you see that the organization hasn't adopted the 11 policies that the IRS says should be adopted or it's not
12 enforcing them properly or engages in related-party transactions
13 or has substantial diversion of assets, you know, if you think 14 about it, you're probably not going to want to give money to 15 that organization.

16 So it's -- you know, it -- it's critically important --
17 and, you know, the form -- whoever signs it signs with the 18 penalty of perjury. It's -- it's critically important that the 19 form be completed accurately and completely.

20 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, have you ever had occasion to provide 21 any trainings to board members?

22 A I do it, probably, twice a month, on average, I'd say.
23 I've been doing it for years and years.

24 Q And do those trainings involve any governance-related
25 training?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

375

1 A It's primarily -- I actually call it "governance and
2 legal training" or "orientation," and these are all to
3 not-for-profit boards. I get asked to do it all the time. And
4 it's basically to help not-for-profit board members understand,
5 you know: "What does it mean to be a board member of a
6 not-for-profit, tax-exempt organization? What responsibilities
7 do I have?" You know: "What's the role of the board versus the 8 role of staff versus the role of officers and committees?" You
9 know: "How do I fulfill my responsibilities as a board member?
10 How I do keep myself out of personal liability risk?"

11 And so, those are the typical kinds of things that --
12 that I talk about when I do these trainings.

13 Q And typically speaking, what are the best practices
14 that you train board members on in order to fulfill their
15 responsibilities?

16 A So you're kind of looking at them right here
17 (indicating) on the screen, and these are kind of the three core
18 responsibilities that not-for-profit officers and directors --

19 And I should say, these duties apply to board members,
20 but also to officers who are sometimes board members, sometimes
21 not, and to all senior staff of the organization. So it applies
22 to all of them.

23 You're looking at the three duties: the care, loyalty,
24 and obedience.

25 Are you asking me to walk through each one of these

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

376

1 (indicating)?

2 Q No. That's all right, Mr. Tenenbaum.

3 A Okay.

4 Q But just to take one example: So the slide says that 5 it's a best or common practice for, you know, board members to 6 ask questions. Can you just elaborate on that, please?

7 A Yeah.

8 So that's the -- you know -- the responsibility related
9 to care, which I always, when I'm doing these board trainings,
10 explain as, you know, it's a duty to be a prudent steward and 11 overseer of the organization; to exercise due diligence; to ask
12 questions; to raise red flags where warranted; to bring in 13 outside experts where there's things of concern that you want to 14 look into more; and to exercise sound, prudent judgment, because 15 ultimately, the board is the ultimate, what we call, "fiduciary"
16 of the organization; it's ultimately responsible for everything
17 that the organization does. And so, the board has a duty to,
18 kind of, not turn a blind eye, not to be asleep at the switch,
19 and to ask questions and dig deeper where appropriate.

20 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum --

21 MR. THOMPSON: Well, strike that, and I'll step
22 back for a moment:

23 Q So, at the highest level, in your experience, who is 24 responsible for governing a not-for-profit organization?

25 A The board of directors.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

377

1 Q And --

2 A And the -- well, it's very clear, yes.

3 Q And then, are you familiar with what officers are in
4 the context of a nonprofit?

5 A Yes.

6 So the way I always describe this when I'm doing
7 not-for-profit board trainings is, you know, you have the board
8 at the top; they're the ultimate, you know, responsibility for 9 the organization. And even when there are voting members -- a
10 lot of people think, "Oh, there's voting members; that's the 11 bigger group; they must be ultimately responsible." They're 12 actually not. Their role and responsibilities are fairly
13 limited in most organizations, like the ability to, you know,
14 approve a major transaction, to -- in a lot of organizations, to 15 elect board members. But beyond that, the board has the 16 ultimate responsibility.

17 But then you have officers that have, kind of, a higher
18 level of responsibility, beyond a typical board member. You
19 know, they're typically charged with extra responsibilities,
20 certain leadership responsibilities. As I said before, you
21 have, sometimes, board officers as well as staff officers.

22 And then you also have the role of committees, where,
23 particularly for organizations with large boards of directors,
24 like in this particular case, the role of committees is 25 critical, because it's -- it's impossible for the board to fully

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

378

1 carry out its responsibilities at that, you know, big board
2 level, particularly when you say they have 76 board members.
3 And so you have to use committees very wisely to be able to help
4 carry out the responsibilities of the board.

5 Q I think you mentioned, Mr. Tenenbaum, that there are 6 both staff officers and then also board officers; is that right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And can you distinguish those for the members of the 9 jury?

10 A And sometimes they could be both. Like, in this
11 particular case, some of the officers who are staff also serve
12 what's called "ex officio" on the board, meaning whoever is in 13 that officer/staff position also serves as a board member.

14 But in addition, you can have officers who are just 15 staff who don't serve on the board.

16 And then, finally, you can have officers who are just 17 volunteers. Like, in this particular organization, the 18 president is a volunteer leader of the organization, not a staff
19 person, but is also an officer.

20 And they all have different responsibilities. Some of 21 it comes from the -- like -- the New York statute, and a lot of 22 it comes just from the organization's own governing documents;
23 mainly, something called the "bylaws," which is, like, the 24 principal governance framework for a not-for-profit that 25 allocates who has what responsibilities in governing or in

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

379

1 managing the organization.

2 THE COURT: If we can stick to the best practices,
3 from your observation; and the legal obligations would be
4 something I'll cover with the jury in instructions ...

5 THE WITNESS: Okay.

6 BY MR. THOMPSON:

7 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, do you know what the size of the NRA
8 Board of Directors is?

9 A Last I saw, I believe it had 76 members.

10 Q In your experience, is there an -- is there a best
11 practice for what the size of a not-for-profit board should be?

12 A Absolutely.

13 Q And what is that size?

14 A It's not 76.

15 You know, the -- the -- the, um -- the IRS recommends
16 not-for-profit, tax-exempt boards be in the size of somewhere,
17 like, between 12 and 20 people. That's generally the -- you
18 know, it depends on how large the organization is, of course.
19 But, basically, in my experience, any board that's too large
20 like that -- you know, anything more than 30 people, say -- it's 21 just impossible for it to fulfill its responsibilities. It's --
22 it's too many people that talk in a meeting. It's just -- it
23 becomes impossible.

24 And I've worked with, you know, a number of clients
25 over the years that have really large boards, some of them even

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

380

1 larger than this one, where we've worked to shrink it down to
2 less than 20, because it's just impossible for the board to
3 fulfill its duties when it's that large.

4 What ends up happening is that the responsibilities end
5 up getting fulfilled by a much smaller group of people; by 6 senior staff, by an executive committee, things like that; and 7 the full board is not able to really carry out its -- its
8 responsibilities.

9 THE COURT: Just another clarification:

10 This witness has not been qualified to give 11 opinions as to whether there are any failings in this 12 particular case, and is giving opinions about 13 not-for-profits as a whole and the best and common practices
14 with respect to the industry.

15 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, you mentioned a few minutes ago
16 that there are often committees of the board; is that right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And are you familiar with what an audit committee is?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Generally speaking, what is an audit committee?

21 A So, an audit committee, you tend to find in larger
22 organizations, not -- sometimes smaller organizations but you
23 don't see it that often.

24 Audit committees can serve different functions. Some 25 of it comes from what's mandated by the state statute, but other

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

381

1 of it comes just from what are typical common practices.

2 And I'd say, first and foremost, the responsibility is
3 to, kind of, oversee and deal with the external auditor for the 4 organization. That's the CPA firm, the audit firm that's kind
5 of auditing what's called the "external financial statements" of 6 the organization; testing and making sure that they're accurate.
7 And the audit committee is the principal interface with the 8 auditors and is designed to be, kind of, an independent group,
9 meaning -- "independent" meaning -- none of the audit committee
10 members are supposed to be compensated by the organization.
11 That's where the independence comes from. And the idea is that 12 those independent audit committee members are dealing with the 13 auditors and can -- can hear things and decide what they need to 14 do about them.

15 But beyond that, in most larger organizations, the 16 audit committee serves multiple other functions; largely, kind
17 of, overseeing compliance within the organization; dealing with 18 ethical issues; being the vetter of, and the arbiter of,
19 conflicts of interest and related-party transactions; things
20 like that. And that's a very typical, common role for -- for an 21 audit committee of a large not-for-profit.

22 Q So, Mr. Tenenbaum, you mentioned these, sort of,
23 external audits that can happen for a not-for-profit. Are you
24 familiar with those external audits?

25 A I'm -- I'm not an auditor myself, but certainly, I -- I

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

382

1 work with auditors all of the time at not-for-profits and I'm
2 very familiar with the process, yes.

3 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, is there a
4 difference between an external audit and an internal audit?

5 A Yeah, a big difference.

6 Q What is that difference, in your experience?

7 A So, like I said, the external audit is basically
8 testing the numbers that are on the external financial 9 statements -- you know, income, expenses, assets, liabilities,
10 all of that stuff, different categories -- to test whether 11 they're accurate, whether it's an accurate reflection of the 12 finances of the organization; and they do that testing in lots
13 of ways. It deals with a few other things, but it's pretty 14 narrow in scope.

15 Whereas an internal audit -- and I kind of misstated --
16 it shouldn't say "internal controls" on it. It's an internal 17 audit. It's very different. It's much broader in scope. It's 18 designed to look at all sorts of aspects of compliance, and 19 certainly including what are called "internal controls" -- think 20 of it like checks and balances -- to be sure that, you know,
21 funds are being spent appropriately and not being abused or 22 misused or, you know, going into people's pockets where they
23 shouldn't or that vendors aren't being paid too much. Things
24 like that.

25 And it's often, you know, a process that large

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

383

1 organizations always have, certainly should have. Every year,
2 there should be dedicated staff that work on that. And
3 oftentimes, those same firms that do an external audit, like,
4 you'll hire a separate firm to come in, sometimes, and assist
5 you with an internal audit.

6 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum --

7 Well, stepping back: At the end -- what happens at the 8 end of an external audit?

9 A The auditor -- the audit firm -- issues their opinion;
10 it's either qualified or unqualified. You want to have an 11 unqualified opinion, meaning there's no findings of anything
12 problematic or, you know, any troublesome issues of concern.
13 And then they -- they issue their opinion, and it goes with the 14 financial statements, and the audit committee will typically 15 hear that report and then accept the audit report.

16 Q And colloquially, is an unqualified audit opinion
17 sometimes called a "clean audit"?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, what, if 20 anything, does a clean audit opinion say about the internal 21 controls of a not-for-profit?

22 A From -- again -- sorry. No pun intended, but 23 qualifying my answer, it's not -- it doesn't -- it -- it doesn't
24 mean much at all, their internal controls. The external audit
25 deals a tiny bit with internal controls but not much, and it

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

384

1 really doesn't say anything because it's not really testing the
2 internal controls. It's not what an external audit is designed
3 to do. And so, you know, as I said here on the slide
4 (indicating), a clean financial audit does not mean that the 5 organization is, kind of, healthy or compliant, especially from 6 the internal-controls perspective.

7 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, have you ever
8 encountered a client that had a clean audit opinion in a given
9 year and, nevertheless, had governance failures of other kinds?

10 A Oh, yes.

11 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, I'd like to turn to talk about some 12 sort of general policies and procedures in not-for-profits.

13 Are you familiar with conflict-of-interest policies in 14 not-for-profits?

15 A Very much so.

16 Q And generally speaking, what purpose does the 17 conflict-of-interest policy serve in the governance of a
18 not-for-profit?

19 A So it serves a really important function.

20 Some people say that the conflict-of-interest policy is 21 the most important policy that a not-for-profit organization
22 should have and it's basically designed to, again, ensure that 23 those profits that get reinvested back in the organization in 24 furtherance of its mission and purposes -- at least the primary
25 purpose, at least -- are being used appropriately and are not

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

385

1 being used to benefit, you know, people that have some inside
2 connection, like staff or officers or directors or committee
3 members or other leaders in the organization.

4 It's designed to help ensure that that responsibility,
5 the "loyalty" one that we talked about before that was on that
6 other slide -- we didn't really talk about that, but that said,
7 you know, we have to be loyal to the mission and purpose of the 8 organization, and make decisions that are in the best interests
9 of the organization and not in the best interests of yourself or 10 your family or your company or your relatives or some other 11 organization that you're a part of. It's designed to, kind of,
12 weed all of that out.

13 And then, in a situation where there is a conflict --

14 And not all conflicts are bad. Some conflicts can 15 actually be helpful. Like, if a board member, you know, for 16 instance, you know, had -- provides some service and they're 17 really good at it and they -- and they -- and they're willing to 18 provide it to the organization at a really good price, like half
19 of their going rate, that's not necessarily bad.

20 But the critical thing -- this is what a conflicts
21 policy is designed to do -- is to be sure that you go through 22 the right process in evaluating that; namely, disclosure,
23 because we can't do something about a conflict if we don't know
24 about it; two, what's called "recusal," meaning you remove 25 yourself from decision-making and let others, who have no

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

386

1 conflict of interest, decide what to do about it; and then the
2 third is that you have those disinterested decision-makers,
3 people that don't have a conflict of interest, like, for
4 instance, an audit committee, deciding what is in the best
5 interests of the organization: "Should we go ahead with this?
6 Should we look at other alternatives? Is this the best price?
7 Is this going to, you know, pose any -- any risk to the 8 organization from a legal or other perspective?" All of those
9 sorts of things. You know, and -- and again, ultimately,
10 deciding what is in the best interests of the organization.

11 So, as I explain in board trainings all the time, it's 12 about the process; that's what matters so much.

13 And the conflict-of-interest policy, a good one, will 14 spell out that process that has to be followed. And it's 15 typically accompanied with an annual disclosure form, or what 16 this (indicating) slide called a "questionnaire," where you're 17 answering a bunch of questions about whether you have a
18 conflict; if so, what is it? So you have to disclose all of 19 that, so then you have those independent decision-makers who can 20 decide what's in the best interests of the organization.

21 Q And with respect to those questionnaires,
22 Mr. Tenenbaum, in your experience, when it comes to providing 23 the questionnaires and getting responses from the 24 executive-level staff and the board of directors, who typically 25 reviews those conflict-of-interest forms?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

387

1 A So, again, a larger not-for-profit, where you have an
2 audit committee, it's typically going be to the audit committee
3 that does that. But, most importantly, whoever it is, you have
4 to make sure that it's a group of, kind of, disinterested
5 decision-makers, people that are not compensated by the 6 organization; certainly, people that don't have a conflict
7 themselves. Like I said, typically, it's going to be an audit
8 committee in a large organization, a large not-for-profit.

9 Q In terms of the, you know, hierarchy of the board and 10 the executive-level members of the staff, do executive-level
11 members of the staff typically review conflicts of interest at 12 the board level?

13 A No. That should never happen, because, you know,
14 basically, staff ultimately report to the board. So the CEO or 15 executive president, whatever the title is, kind of, reports up
16 to the board; the rest of the staff reports to that person. And 17 so it's always a best practice, a common practice, almost a
18 norm, that you should never, you know, have someone beneath you
19 reviewing your conflict-of-interest disclosure. It should 20 always be, kind of, someone above in that kind of governance or 21 management hierarchy.

22 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, is there a
23 difference between having a written conflict-of-interest policy
24 and enforcing it?

25 A Yes, a big difference.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

388

1 Q And what is that difference?

2 A I mean, having a great conflict-of-interest policy and
3 disclosure form is great, but if you're not enforcing it, people
4 aren't complying with it, if conflicts aren't being disclosed,
5 if you don't have proper management of the conflict, meaning a
6 group of disinterested decision-makers deciding what to do about 7 the conflict, to have the person that has the conflict removed
8 from the decision-making -- you know, for instance, like, if you
9 disclose a conflict of interest with a particular vendor -- if 10 you disclose that conflict and then you have a group of 11 disinterested decision-makers decide what's best, typically,
12 what will also happen is, that person who has a conflict cannot 13 be involved in any way with managing that vendor; can't be, you
14 know, charged with expanding the scope of services or the amount 15 of money that's going to be paid to the vendor or extending the 16 term of the relationship or the contract with the vendor. You
17 want to make sure that that person that has the conflict -- and 18 this is where, like, an audit committee can come in, is making
19 sure that you have that right process in place.

20 So, if it's decided that it makes sense to go ahead
21 with this vendor despite the conflict, that you have insulation, 22 complete recusal, so the person that has the conflict cannot in 23 any way affect the nature and scope and dollar amount of that
24 relationship.

25 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, is the procedure

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

389

1 for reviewing a conflict of interest different when the conflict
2 of interest is not disclosed before the relevant transaction
3 happens?

4 A Oh, yeah.

5 I mean, you can't -- like I said earlier, you can't do
6 something about a conflict if you don't know about it, if it's
7 not disclosed, and that's step one. Like I always tell boards
8 in the training, it's critically important -- it's not the only
9 step; it doesn't start -- it doesn't stop with disclosure but it
10 has to start with disclosure, because if we don't know about the 11 conflict, then we can't do all of those other things that I've 12 explained just now that are so important to make sure it gets 13 managed properly.

14 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, you've been practicing as a
15 governance consultant for approximately 28 years; is that right?

16 A Well, as a nonprofit lawyer doing a lot of 17 governance-related work for not-for-profits, 28 years, yes.

18 Q In your experience, have you ever encountered a
19 nonprofit organization that has ratified a conflict of interest
20 after the fact?

21 A Once in a while. Rarely. It's not common. It's 22 certainly disfavored. But once in a while, I -- I've seen it
23 happen, yes.

24 Q Have you ever encountered a client that has ratified
25 more than two dozen conflicts of interest after the fact?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

390

1 A No, never.

2 Q What about one dozen?

3 A Never.

4 Q More than five?

5 A No.

6 And the -- and the times that I've seen it are usually
7 where it's something that's kind of hypertechnical: the person
8 that, you know, was supposed to disclose a conflict really
9 didn't understand that it was a conflict because it wasn't
10 crystal-clear and later, once it was understood and disclosed,
11 then there's an after-the-fact ratification. That --

12 By the way, you know, it's typical to follow up -- you
13 know, it's not just blindly saying, "Oh, the conflict is fine;
14 let's go ahead and ratify it." You know, it's looking -- 15 look -- kind of, doing a deeper dive; you know: "Was this
16 transaction in the best interests of the organization? Did it
17 put the organization at any undue risk? Were there other
18 alternatives, better alternatives, less expensive alternatives?"
19 Documenting -- you know, contemporaneously, meaning at the same
20 time -- documenting why that ratification occurred, and putting 21 in place procedures to make sure that this doesn't happen again;
22 like, for instance, if you need to clarify what is a conflict in 23 your policy so that people understand. Like, going through all 24 of those steps is critically important for a conflict, kind of,
25 after-the-fact ratification.

1 Q And have you ever encountered, Mr. Tenenbaum, a
2 not-for-profit organization that, after the fact, has ratified a
3 conflict of interest where there is no written agreement?

4 A No written agreement for what?

5 Q No written agreement with respect to the --

6 MR. THOMPSON: Withdrawn.

7 Q I'll just move on.

8 A Okay.

9 Q So, Mr. Tenenbaum, are you familiar with contract
10 policies?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And are you familiar well procurement policies?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Can you please, briefly, describe for the members of 15 the jury what role contract policies play in the governance of a
16 nonprofit?

17 A So I -- I broke them out here (indicating), on this 18 slide, into two different categories. Sometimes, though,
19 they're actually combined in a -- in a single policy.

20 But, you know, in short, the -- the contract -- some 21 people call a contract policy a "contract-signing policy"; like,
22 who has the ability to sign contracts over certain dollar
23 amounts? What sort of approval procedures do you have to go
24 through? Like, for some of our clients, you know, the health
25 form; it has -- you know, it has to be approved by this person

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

392

1 in this department, Legal has to sign off it, the CFO has to
2 sign off on it, things like that.

3 You know, it provides other requirements for how long a
4 contract can be; like, it can't be more than three years; you
5 know, over a certain dollar amount has to be reviewed, you know,
6 to make sure it's still in the best interests of the 7 organization. That -- that sort of thing.

8 Q And what about with respect to procurement policies?
9 Can you, briefly, describe for the jury -- members of the 10 jury -- what role they play in not-for-profit governance?

11 A Yeah.

12 So, "procurement" is a term that basically means, like,
13 when you're going out to purchase products or services; goods or 14 services; and again, it's designed to be sure that the 15 not-for-profit organization is doing this in a responsible way,
16 because again, those -- those profits that the organization has 17 have to get reinvested back, in furtherance of the mission and 18 purpose of the organization, and we want to make sure that 19 they're being safeguarded.

20 So, a procurement policy will say, for instance, you
21 know, the idea of, you know, any acquisition of a good or 22 service over a certain dollar amount has to have a written
23 contract, has to be approved by XYZ people; for over a certain
24 dollar amount, you have to go through some sort of a competitive 25 bidding process, what you see on the slide called a "request for

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

393

1 proposal" or an "RFP," a very common, standard practice in
2 nonprofit organizations. So that, you know, larger, you know,
3 vendor contracts and other things like that where you're 4 spending a lot of money, you want to make sure that you're
5 putting out a proposal to a whole bunch of interested parties --
6 qualified parties -- so that you're evaluating, you know:
7 "Which one is -- which one's best? Which one's going to, you
8 know, give us the best value, do the best work at the best price
9 and that will safeguard our assets?"; making sure that process
10 recurs, say, every three years, again, for larger-dollar
11 acquisitions; and, of course, making sure that everybody has a
12 written contract, that it's signed by the appropriate people,
13 that there's a proper justification -- some people call it
14 "business-case justification" -- basically, you know: "What's 15 the business case for why we're going with this vendor?" You
16 know: "How is it in the best interests of the organization?
17 What about other alternatives," meaning less expensive
18 alternatives; "why didn't we go with that?"

19 And then, finally, once in a while, I mean, the 20 procurement policy will have something called, like, a
21 "sole-source justification" -- again, rarely used, very much
22 disfavored -- to not do an RFP. But, once in a while, it will
23 be, like, a provider that's so uniquely qualified to provide a
24 service, for instance, that no one else is -- I should say,
25 product or service. And we're not talking about basic things

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

394

1 like, you know, fund-raising or public relations or legal
2 services or lobbying services. You know, we're talking about
3 something that's really, really unique.

4 And in a situation like that, if that provider is
5 really the only one who can do that, or maybe they've developed
6 a really, really unique expertise and it's just clear there's no
7 one else that can do it, then you'll have to justify why you're
8 doing not an RFP and why you're going with that sole-source
9 provider.

10 But, again, very rare and it has to follow, typically,
11 very detailed procedures to justify that.

12 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, in your experience, how common is 13 it for a not-for-profit to require that contracts be in writing?

14 A Oh. I mean, virtually all the time. I mean, maybe if,
15 you know, you're going down and, you know, purchasing, you know,
16 lunch for the staff, you know, you don't need to have a
17 contract, necessarily, with a caterer. But for virtually
18 everything else, you know, certainly over a certain dollar
19 amount, it's virtually unheard of to not have a written
20 contract.

21 Q In your experience, is there a dollar-amount threshold
22 that most not-for-profits use for when a contract is required?

23 A I'd probably say -- I'd probably -- again, it depends
24 on the size of the organization, but I'd probably say $5,000,
25 based on my recollection.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, you mentioned requests for
2 proposals, or RFPs. So, is it fair to say that those are a type
3 of competitive bidding process?

4 A It is a type of competitive bidding, but it's kind of a
5 more formalized type of competitive bidding. And, like, for 6 instance, I deal with them all the time in my role as, you know,
7 an attorney and a managing partner of a law firm where we will
8 receive an RFP from, let's say, a not-for-profit that wants to 9 potentially retain us to provide legal services and will send it
10 to five other law firms, as well, you know, and have very 11 detailed questions and information that they need. I do these 12 all the time. And the idea is for the not-for-profit to be able 13 to see, you know, who's the most qualified, who has the most 14 competitive pricing and who -- and it's always going to involve
15 checking references and things like that. So it's kind of a
16 more formalized, competitive bidding process. And then it then 17 allows the not-for-profit to receive those proposals, evaluate 18 them all; usually leading to, like, a round of interviews with 19 leading candidates. This always should happen with big-dollar
20 contracts and acquisitions; you know, to evaluate and check any 21 references and all of that; you know, which provider is the best
22 -- in the best interests of the organization at this particular
23 time. And then, typically, that will get reviewed, renewed, you
24 know, say, every three or five years. So ...

25 (Continued on next page.)

396

1 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, have you ever
2 encountered a procurement policy that exempted legal counsel
3 services from the RFP process?

4 A Never.

5 Q What about for lobbying services?

6 A No.

7 Q What about for public relations services?

8 A Never.

9 Q For membership services?

10 A If you mean like membership marketing, like developing,
11 recruiting, developing new members, no.

12 Q What about for fundraising services?

13 A No.

14 Q And what about for marketing services?

15 A No.

16 Q And you mentioned that typically there is a time limit
17 on when something has to go up for RFP again, is that right?

18 A Yeah. A typical, well written procurement policy, you
19 know, will say for, you know, contracts, vendors over a certain 20 dollar amount, that it has to be rebid every say usually three,
21 four or five years. Probably three and five years the most.

22 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, have you ever encountered a
23 procurement policy that permitted verbal agreements for services
24 over $5,000 in worth?

25 A No.

LAS

Direct-Tenenbaum-Thompson

397

1 Q So then turning, Mr. Tenenbaum, are you familiar with
2 whistleblower policies and the role that they play in nonprofit
3 governance?

4 A Very. All these policies you're asking about we either
5 write them, review them, analyze them and apply them on an
6 almost daily basis.

7 Q So what role generally speaking do whistleblower
8 policies in nonprofits?

9 A Well, first off they are critically important. It's 10 one of the reasons why the IRS asks on that governance section
11 of the 990 whether you have, the board has adopted a
12 whistleblower policy. Also many of the state nonprofit laws
13 have very specific requirements, including New York, when it
14 comes to whistleblower policies.

15 The number one reason in my experience is to provide a 16 safe environment for people to come forward with blowing the 17 whistle on their concerns. And blowing the whistle by the way
18 can mean a lot of different things, financial impropriety, mean
19 overpaying vendors, employment-related issues, discrimination,
20 things like that. It can mean a whole host of different things.
21 The idea is that you want to encourage employees and board
22 members and officers and committee members, you know, to be able 23 to come forward in a safe space with their concerns. And then
24 to make sure that, as I said here on the top of the slide, the 25 number one most important provision in any whistleblower policy

LAS

Direct-Tenenbaum-Thompson

398

1 is to prohibit retaliation against the people that are blowing
2 the whistle.

3 And then the other kind of key element of the policy
4 are to spell out okay, when someone -- you know, how do you blow
5 the whistle. Who do you report it to. You want to have
6 multiple avenues of reporting. In a large organization you
7 typically have some sort of hotline, whether it's a telephonic
8 hotline or online reporting or both, where you can report things
9 anonymously as well.

10 Then you want to have a procedure for what happens once
11 the whistle is blown. You know, what happens next. You know,
12 who is in charge of this. What's the process. I get involved
13 in these a lot in my role as outside counsel in that I get
14 brought in a lot of time to lead an internal investigation
15 following whistleblower complaints. You know, coming in and 16 reporting directly to the board after we complete our 17 investigation and issue our factual findings and our 18 recommendations. That's typically part of the process that's 19 spelled out in a whistleblower policy.

20 Then, finally, as I put here on the slide, what
21 remedies can result from that. What are the different things
22 that can happen. They are critically important policies for a
23 nonprofit to have.

24 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, is it typical for nonprofit
25 whistleblower policies to require the whistleblower to be making

LAS

Direct-Tenenbaum-Thompson

399

1 their complaint in good faith?

2 A Yeah, it is typically kind of an element of a policy
3 that you are -- you should make whistleblower complaints only if 4 you believe it to be in good faith. That doesn't necessarily 5 mean that it's always accurate. Sometimes people think there is 6 some impropriety going on, something improper and it turns out
7 to not be the case. If someone truly believes that to be the 8 case, that's kind of the requirement, that's what the good faith
9 requirement means.

10 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, when during the 11 process, a whistleblower raises a concern, when during the 12 process does a determination about whether the whistleblower was 13 acting in good faith occur?

14 A So that's like, for instance, when we do our 15 investigations as outside counsel, that's partly what we're 16 trying to determine. You know, what's the merit. So it's 17 basically after the complaint is made and after the 18 investigation occurs. You can't determine if it's in good faith
19 until you kind of dig deep and you interview all the relevant
20 parties and you figure out, you know, maybe this person was 21 right. Maybe they were wrong. Maybe they had an ax to grind.
22 In fact, a lot of the whistleblowers, some of the most famous
23 whistleblowers in this country come from people that did have an 24 ax to grind, but it was still a very much good faith and 25 accurate blowing of the whistle that ended up, you know,

LAS

Direct-Tenenbaum-Thompson

400

1 disclosing huge amounts of impropriety, things like that.

2 But just because someone might have a disgruntled
3 former employee or someone who was, you know, shoved out of some 4 opportunity or something, they might have an ax to grind but it
5 doesn't mean that the complaint wasn't in good faith. And it's 6 -- it's incumbent on the organization, whether it's the board or 7 the audit committee, to go through that investigative process
8 first to determine whether it was in good faith.

9 Q So, turning to our last policy, Mr. Tenenbaum, are you
10 familiar with policies governing how executive level expenses
11 are reimbursed?

12 A Yes, very much.

13 Q And can you describe generally speaking what those 14 policies require?

15 A Yes. So, without getting too much in the weeds here,
16 again purpose of expense reimbursement policies first and 17 foremost are to make sure that the organizations funds are being 18 used wisely, prudently, in the best interest of the organization
19 in furtherance of its mission. Minimizing waste. Making sure
20 that we're not overpaying for things. Making sure that expenses
21 that are being reimbursed are appropriate.

22 So, you know, one of the core elements of any expense
23 reimbursement policy is that the expense has to be kind of an
24 IRS term is ordinary and necessary, kind of a reasonable expense
25 that has some mission-related purpose for the organization.

LAS

Direct-Tenenbaum-Thompson

401

1 That if the organization is either going to reimburse you or
2 sometimes pay directly, you know, if you have a corporate card
3 for instance it's not technically a reimbursement. It's just
4 being charged to the organization. But you have to make sure
5 that every expense has a -- you know, it's related to the 6 mission. It's reasonable. It's appropriate. It's no greater
7 than necessary in order to accomplish that key purpose. For 8 instance, things that are just personal in nature, that benefit
9 someone personally but don't predominantly have a business
10 reason, something related to the nonprofit mission and purpose,
11 that's not appropriate for expense reimbursement.

12 So an expense reimbursement --

13 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I think he's crossing a 14 line into legal opinions, what's appropriate and what's not
15 appropriate.

16 THE COURT: Again, the purpose of the testimony is 17 to talk about practices in this area. So, you know, I know
18 this wasn't -- the testimony is not about any particular
19 entity, but you heard the concerns. We're trying to, you
20 not giving legal advice to the jury here. You're giving
21 your experience based on seeing how it works in the real
22 world. If you can broaden it to that, I would appreciate
23 it.

24 MR. CORRELL: Also if the witness could break up
25 his responses. It's hard to object to an answer that goes

LAS

Direct-Tenenbaum-Thompson

402

1 as long as an answer like this one. If you could direct it
2 to just be broken up a little bit, your Honor. I hate to 3 interrupt with an objection.

4 THE COURT: I'm not going to give that guidance.
5 You can object when you need to.

6 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

7 Q I can move on to another question, Mr. Tenenbaum. So,
8 in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, who reviews the expenses of 9 the chief executive officer of the nonprofit?

10 A So, as I said earlier when I was talking about typical 11 practices, with reviewing disclosed conflicts of interest, it's 12 got to be someone whose above that person. So, in many 13 nonprofit organizations, for instance, the treasurer is like an 14 elected officer, volunteer, not an employee. That person would 15 be above the CEO or executive vice president. I would say
16 that's the most common person that I've seen in nonprofit
17 organizations to review and approve the expenses of the chief
18 staff officer, like the executive vice president. And sometimes
19 it will be the chair of the board or what's sometimes called a
20 president. It's got to be someone more senior to that person,
21 certainly not someone more junior.

22 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I object to the "it's got 23 to be" language, that's again suggesting there is a standard
24 to which all people have to adhere as opposed to a custom
25 that he's observed.

LAS

Direct-Tenenbaum-Thompson

403

1 THE COURT: Overruled.

2 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, have you ever encountered in your
3 experience a nonprofit where the employees expenses are paid for 4 by a vendor of the nonprofit and then passed through back to the 5 nonprofit?

6 A Never.

7 Q And -- Withdrawn. All right. So just two last
8 questions, Mr. Tenenbaum. How frequently in your experience
9 have you seen a nonprofit authorize charter private jets for 10 executives?

11 A Rarely. The only time that I've seen it are with some 12 of our what we call INGO, international nongovernmental
13 organizational clients. These are typically large tax exempt
14 relief and development organizations that, you know, you're 15 familiar with many of them like Care and so many others that go
16 around the world typically to developing countries to provide 17 different relief and development services. They are often 18 funded in the U.S. by USAID, a federal agency. Sometimes they 19 have to go to very remote parts of the world to deliver
20 services, to deliver goods or things like that. So, sometimes 21 I've seen charter flights in those situations, because they are 22 just simply no commercial flights available. That's the only
23 time that I've, in my experience, have seen that.

24 Q And then towards the beginning of your testimony, Mr.
25 Tenenbaum, we were discussing the types of questions that board

LAS

Direct-Tenenbaum-Thompson

404

1 members can ask. So the question is, what role do the executive
2 level staff play in responding to questions from board members
3 typically speaking?

4 A Well, in my experience the executive staff are 5 extremely responsive to board members, because the board is 6 their boss. And so in most nonprofit organizations that I work
7 with almost always, you know, the board asks a question and, you
8 know, the executives, you know, they scramble to provide
9 anything and everything they can to provide answers, backup
10 documentation, other things like that. It's just the custom in 11 an organization and, you know, typically it's the -- anyone who 12 has a reporting line to the board is going to, in my experience,
13 always kind of act in that manner.

14 Q In your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, have you ever
15 encountered a nonprofit where the executives decline to provide 16 information to a board member because of confidentiality
17 concerns?

18 A I've seen it happen a few times, and they got fired
19 pretty quickly.

20 MR. THOMPSON: No further questions, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Do you want to start the cross
22 now?

23 MS. ROGERS: Yeah. I probably have about 24 20 minutes. I don't know if the Court's preference is to 25 break for lunch.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

405

1 THE COURT: We have until about a quarter of. So,
2 I mean --

3 MS. ROGERS: Yeah.

4 THE COURT: -- I would like to give you the time to 5 get started on it. If we run a little long, we'll take a
6 break and continue after. I usually like to break around 20
7 of. That's in lawyer time. Twenty of becomes 15 of. I'm 8 baking that into my guidance.

9 MS. ROGERS: I will do my very best to observe
10 civilian time, especially before lunch.

11 CROSS EXAMINATION

12 BY MS. ROGERS:

13 Q Good morning, Mr. Tenenbaum. We haven't met before.
14 My name is Sarah Rogers. I'm a lawyer for the NRA.

15 A Good morning or afternoon.

16 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, good midday to you. All right. So you
17 testified that the board is the ultimate governing body of a
18 nonprofit, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And board members of nonprofits can come from all
21 backgrounds, right?

22 A Correct.

23 Q Isn't it true that anybody over the age of 18 is 24 legally qualified to serve on a nonprofit board?

25 A I believe that's the law in every state, the nonprofit

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

406

1 corporation law that I reviewed.

2 Q Right. We understand that you're not here to testify
3 as a lawyer offering legal conclusions. So, I do want to ask
4 you about another source of authority. You testified that
5 states Attorney General play a critical role in nonprofit
6 governance, right?

7 A In enforcing state nonprofit corporation laws, yes.

8 Q Are you aware of whether state attorneys general, like
9 the New York State Attorney General typically issued public
10 guidance about what nonprofits -- about nonprofit best practices
11 for organizations incorporated in their states?

12 A Yes. In fact, New York does it probably more than most 13 other states.

14 Q And in formulating your testimony did you review the 15 contents of the guidance on plaintiff's websites?

16 A I mean, certainly I reviewed all of the relevant New 17 York State laws. I don't remember if I reviewed any AG
18 guidance. I certainly have in the past, the best practices for 19 cross marketing, things like that are pretty widely accepted and 20 used in the nonprofit world.

21 Q But you didn't review any of the white papers issued by 22 this plaintiff telling my client how to govern itself, right?

23 A I don't believe so. No.

24 Q Okay.

25 A I reviewed a lot of stuff, Ms. Rogers.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

407

1 Q Okay. I believe you. I'm sure. We're all very good
2 at reviewing big piles of paper.

3 THE COURT: One at a time, please.

4 MS. ROGERS: Sorry.

5 Q So, the board is the ultimate governing authority, but 6 the board doesn't manage the day-to-day affairs of the 7 association, correct?

8 A Correct.

9 Q That usually falls to officers, right?

10 A It's a combination. It falls to officers. Also falls
11 to committees and also falls to staff.

12 Q And the board can grant authority for day-to-day
13 management to officers or staff, right?

14 A Absolutely, as long as they exercise proper oversight.

15 Q And salaried officers have more formal responsibility
16 than ordinary salaried employees, right?

17 A Correct.

18 Q And they also have more formal responsibility than non-19 salaried volunteer board members when it comes to day-to-day
20 affairs?

21 A I would agree with that, yes.

22 Q We talked about how the audit committee is an important
23 nonprofit governance device, right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And it should be composed of independent directors,

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

408

1 which you testified means directors who aren't compensated by
2 the nonprofit, right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q And you testified later that conflicts should be
5 reviewed by which you said disinterested decisionmakers. I just 6 want to clarify for the jury because you used a couple of 7 different terms. And audit committee, independent directors,
8 that's an adequate body of disinterested decisionmakers for that
9 kind of review, right?

10 A So long as in any particular review of a transaction
11 for instance it's conceivable that one of the audit committee
12 members themselves have a conflict of interest.

13 Q Right. I assuming none of them are conflicting and 14 they are all independent, meaning not compensated, that's an 15 appropriate body to review conflicts, right?

16 A Yes, but if I can just clarify. By independent, it
17 largely means not compensated, but it also means that they don't 18 have any conflicts of interests themselves with respect to the 19 matter.

20 Q All right. Let me offer you a definition of an
21 independent director. And you tell me if you think it comports
22 with your view of nonprofit best practices, okay.

23 A Sure.

24 Q All right. How about an independent director is a
25 member of the board who is not paid by the organization and

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

409

1 neither they nor their family members have any financial
2 relationship with the organization.

3 A I would say that's a good start, but I don't think it's 4 fully complete. Sometimes you can have a conflict of interest
5 that doesn't involve receiving compensation from the
6 organization.

7 Q What if the State Attorney General tells you that
8 that's the standard for independence in their jurisdiction,
9 would that influence the judgment of a reasonable director in 10 your view?

11 MR. THOMPSON: Objection. Calling for a legal
12 conclusion.

13 THE COURT: That had been their objection earlier.

14 MS. ROGERS: I can clarify. I'm not asking him
15 whether the State Attorney General's guidance is legally
16 binding, only whether it's part of a reasonable prevailing
17 practice for a board to consider what the Attorney General
18 says and acts on it.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 A Well, like, for instance, I'm going to answer in a
21 slightly different way. Like the IRS has like a model, a
22 conflict of interest policy that they put out, which most of us
23 in kind of the nonprofit bar, nonprofit lawyers believe is 24 insufficient because it focuses just on financial transactions,
25 like compensation of board members and doesn't count other

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

410

1 things like say a board member, an audit committee member serves
2 on the board of a competing organization or something like that.
3 Like these situational conflicts. So, just because there is 4 some standard in the IRS or New York doesn't necessarily mean in 5 my opinion that it's complete enough. So, I'm not sure what
6 you're asking me.

7 Q Well, I'll ask this a different way. We looked at 8 slide nine before, which talked about best practices for 9 business judgment by a director of a nonprofit.

10 MS. ROGERS: Would you mind putting that back up.
11 Slide nine of plaintiff's dec.

12 THE COURT: There it is.

13 MS. ROGERS: Great. Perfect. It was up. It's 14 gone now.

15 THE COURT: Try it again. There you go.

16 Q Here we go. We talk here about due care, sound,
17 prudent judgment, right. You testified before that even if the 18 IRS or the Attorney General says something is okay, that might 19 not make it adequate in your opinion. Is that your testimony?

20 A I don't think that's what I was saying.

21 Q All right. Would the court reporter read back --

22 A If you want to give me more detail.

23 Q Sure. Well, I just want to clarify for the jury. When 24 you say it's the best practice to exercise sound, prudent
25 business judgment, that's prudent by the standard of an

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

411

1 ordinary, reasonable person in the same shoes as that director,
2 right?

3 A I use that same exact term when I do board trainings.
4 The reasonable person standard, that you're suppose to evaluate
5 what is -- you know you're -- you're duty to exercise that care
6 has to be informed by what a reasonable person with your level
7 of experience and expertise would do under that circumstance.

8 Q Right. If you were standing in their shoes, right?

9 A Correct. Like I used the example if someone has like a
10 financial background, you know, an accountant or something like 11 that, they are going to be expected to have a higher level of 12 knowledge and expertise when it comes to financial matters than 13 someone who has no financial background, yes.

14 Q So, let's talk about the standards for director
15 independence. Would it be fair to say that being friends with 16 the CEO does not disqualify you as a independent director?

17 A I would agree with that.

18 Q Right. And, in fact, it's fair to say that no
19 jurisdiction, not in New York, not D.C., not Delaware, not the 20 IRS, nobody says that being friends destroys director
21 independence?

22 A I agree with that.

23 MR. THOMPSON: Objection, your Honor. This is 24 getting into the law as opposed to industry standards.

25 MS. ROGERS: I won't go further into the law.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

412

1 Q Serving for a long time on the board, according to
2 industry standards for director independence, that doesn't
3 destroy director independence either, right?

4 A Agreed.

5 Q Okay. Aside from independence, what other kinds of 6 qualifications are there to serve on an audit committee?

7 A Are you asking me like what does, for instance, New 8 York require? I don't think you're asking me that.

9 Q I'm not asking you about the law. I'm just asking
10 according to sound, prudent, prevailing nonprofit practice, what 11 kinds of qualifications should I look for when appointing my 12 audit committee? What kinds of relevant expertise?

13 A Well, it certainly doesn't hurt to have some people
14 with a financial background because of the interface with the 15 outside auditor I described earlier. I think it also, in my 16 opinion, takes people who are willing to ask questions and raise
17 red flags and dig deeper and care about compliance and things
18 like that. That's part of the function of the audit committee.

19 Q So people who are CPAs might be good, right?

20 A Sure.

21 Q People who have been lawyers?

22 A Sure.

23 Q People who worked in law enforcement and investigated
24 financial crime?

25 A Yeah. I don't know of any list of requirements like

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

413

1 this I've ever seen. Certainly those would seem to be well
2 qualified people to serve on an audit committee.

3 Q We talked before about whistleblower. And you noted
4 that to be a whistleblower you've got to come forward in good
5 faith, right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And that means the whistleblower must believe that what
8 she is saying is true, right?

9 A Believe to the best of their knowledge that what
10 they're saying, accusing, blowing the whistle on is true, yes.

11 Q A whistleblower isn't just someone who complains about 12 any old thing. It's someone who reports specific types of 13 concerns, right?

14 A Correct.

15 Q It has to be a suspected illegal act or a violation of 16 policy, right?

17 A Those are two areas. Not necessarily limited to that.
18 For instance, there could be some financial impropriety that 19 someone is aware of or believes to be true that's not prohibited
20 by some policy because the policy is insufficient or something
21 like that. I wouldn't limit it to just violations of policy or 22 law. Those are certainly two big areas.

23 Q Could I read you a proposed definition of what a 24 whistleblower reports and you tell me whether you think that's 25 an adequate definition?

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

414

1 A Sure.

2 Q A whistleblower is someone who reports any action or
3 suspected action taken by or within the corporation that is 4 illegal, fraudulent or in violation of any adopted policy of the 5 corporation. Is that fair?

6 A I -- I mean, I review and write whistleblower policies.
7 I would say, if I was reviewing that and my colleagues were, we
8 would say that is insufficient, because I think there are other
9 categories that are not covered by those three things.

10 Q In preparing to testify as an expert on best practices
11 for New York nonprofits, did you check whether the text I just 12 read is the exact text of New York law?

13 A Again, I can't comment. I'm not suppose to comment on 14 the law.

15 MR. THOMPSON: Objection, your Honor. We're
16 getting into the definitions of New York law.

17 THE COURT: I don't think the question asked that.
18 Go ahead.

19 Q Okay. And to act in good faith, a whistleblower not 20 only needs to believe that what she's saying is true, she's got 21 to reasonably believe that the facts she's reporting amount to 22 one of those reportable violations, right?

23 A Again, I believe that those three things are too narrow
24 and there should be other broader things. Yes, whatever that 25 list is, any good whistleblower policy will define what that

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

415

1 list is. The person should believe in good faith that one or
2 more of those things occurred or failed to occur.

3 Q In your experience applying that objective
4 reasonableness standard, again I'm not asking about the law just 5 common sense and common practice, in your experience might 6 someone with a grudge or an ax to grind believe things which 7 deviate from an objectively reasonable standard?

8 A I can't get in the mind of someone that has an ax to 9 grind. Like I said earlier, I will say some of the most notable
10 whistleblowers that we have seen in this country in the last few
11 decades have almost all been people with an ax to grind.

12 Q But in your broad and ample experience looking at these 13 types of situations and how people in them behave, you've never 14 seen someone behave unreasonably because of a grudge?

15 A Of course I have.

16 Q You've seen people perceive things unreasonably because 17 of a grudge, right?

18 A Absolutely.

19 Q All right. Well let's talk about what we mean --

20 A Just to put a finer point on that. I recently did an 21 internal investigation --

22 THE COURT: You answered the question.

23 THE WITNESS: All right. That's fine.

24 Q All right. Let's talk about what we mean when we talk
25 about whistleblower retaliation. So, it would be fair to say

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

416

1 that whistleblower retaliation includes adverse employment
2 consequences, right?

3 A If the whistleblower is an employee, yes.

4 Q Firing somebody, an obvious example of whistleblower
5 retaliation?

6 A That's one thing. Not promoting them, demoting them,
7 not giving them a raise or bonus, putting them in a different,
8 new position that's unfavorable, any of those things.

9 Q If I call my colleague Ms. Eisenberg fucking stupid in 10 front of donors to our nonprofit, and she as a consequence stops
11 sitting with me at lunch, would you call that whistleblower
12 retaliation?

13 A I mean, public shaming or shaming before a board of 14 directors, for instance, I certainly think could be considered
15 to be retaliation.

16 Q In this hypothetical, I'm the one that publically
17 shamed and insulted profanely my colleague, and she responded by 18 reducing her association with me socially. So my question is,
19 is that the kind of action you would consider whistleblower
20 retaliation?

21 A No, I would not.

22 Q Okay. All right. What if she doesn't pick me for her
23 committee, is that whistleblower retaliation as a consequence of 24 that action?

25 A Assuming that Ms. Eisenberg has the ability to appoint,

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

417

1 you know, for instance board members to committees and people
2 want to serve on committees, it's favorable, high profile,
3 prestigious and all of a sudden she decides to take away your
4 committee appointment, I would consider that retaliation when it
5 comes to board members.

6 Q If she did it because I called her fuckin stupid in 7 front of our donors, you would call it whistleblower
8 retaliation?

9 A Well, calling someone fuckin stupid isn't blowing the 10 whistle.

11 Q Indeed. Thank you. All right. In New York a
12 whistleblower doesn't get immunity if he participated in a
13 violation of policy or law, right?

14 A Again, I'm not suppose to comment on the laws.

15 Q Let's talk about best practices. Is it best practice
16 to have a whistleblower policy where no matter what I did wrong,
17 no matter how much I stole, if I come forward and blow the 18 whistle on someone else, I'm immunized from my own misconduct?

19 A Well, in my experience I've been through many 20 situations where the whistleblower might have some culpability
21 as well and that needs to be dealt with without question, but it
22 doesn't mean what they are blowing the whistle on isn't real,
23 isn't a problem and shouldn't be investigated, no.

24 Q But let's say hypothetically I have a whistleblower who 25 is party to an illegal contract. He should -- It's fair for him

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Rogers

418

1 to expect that contract might be cancelled, right?

2 A So, if he blows the whistle on that contractual
3 relationship, is one of the consequences that he might envision
4 that the contract could be canceled, yes, but it doesn't mean he 5 shouldn't be blowing a whistle on the contract being improper in 6 the first place.

7 Q But if he blows the whistle on something else, can he
8 do that as a gambit to immunize his seven figure illegal
9 contract from termination by his employer?

10 A I don't view it that way. I think if you're a person
11 that is blowing the whistle on an improper contractual 12 relationship, and he truly believes in good faith that it's 13 improper, that needs to be investigated. I don't know
14 necessarily that I would agree that immunizes him in any way.

15 Q Right, it shouldn't, should it?

16 A No, like I said if, you know, he blows the whistle, has 17 to be that proper investigation, looking into it, and then later
18 if you determine that he did something improper, then you take 19 action against him. Absolutely.

20 Q You should take action against him, right?

21 A If it's determined that he did something improper, yes.

22 THE COURT: Counsel, we're going to need to take
23 our lunch break.

24 MS. ROGERS: Okay. I'm sorry. I underestimated my 25 time, which is something I do.

LAS

1 THE COURT: I don't blame you. All right. We're
2 going to reconvene at 2:15. As usual same instructions
3 about keeping your focus on lunch and not on investigation
4 or discussion. All right. See you all at 2:15.

5 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Tenenbaum, before we leave, during
7 the break you're still effectively on the stand. You
8 shouldn't discuss your testimony with anyone, including
9 counsel for either party.

10 THE WITNESS: Got it.

11 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: I asked them to check the mikes again.

13 MS. ROGERS: Thank you.

1 A f t e r n o o n S e s s i o n:

2 THE COURT: Good afternoon, counsel.

3 One just small to-do item that I had my list but
4 just haven't done yet:

5 I have the Powell set of papers that have a "so
6 ordered" line. I don't know that it's something that 7 requires judicial approval, but there is a "so ordered"
8 line. I saw a letter that said some things of concern about 9 it, from the defense side, but not, seemingly, a request for 10 me not to sign it, but I'm not really sure. So I'll have -- 11 you know, if we have time at the end of the day today or 12 before we start tomorrow, I'll just hear whatever anybody
13 has to say. But otherwise, I'd like to get on with that,
14 one way or the other.

15 MR. PETERS: Yeah. We would appreciate an 16 opportunity to talk about it, briefly, with your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Sure.

18 MS. ROGERS: And tomorrow morning is probably 19 better than this evening. There is a procedure for us to 20 object, and I think we intend to.

21 THE COURT: There is a procedure for you to object?

22 MS. ROGERS: We believe so, and that's what we'll 23 discuss. We're happy to put in a letter tonight or just 24 raise it in the morning.

25 THE COURT: Right.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

421

1 Is it bound by time or is it something that you
2 just --

3 I mean, I've been waiting to see if there were any
4 things that came up that indicate I shouldn't sign them. I
5 just haven't seen anything other than a letter that wasn't
6 entirely clear to me what I was supposed to do with it.

7 MS. ROGERS: We'll apprise the Court with -- we'll
8 have more detail and concrete authority.

9 THE COURT: And just -- my understanding is, you
10 know, this action is not a derivative action, and I don't 11 believe there's something in the settlement that would 12 constitute a release of claims that the NRA might have. So
13 it wasn't -- I have had other situations where the attempt 14 to release derivative claims gives rise to an objection from 15 the company, but I didn't see that here.

16 But I just wanted to make sure you had a chance to 17 tell me if there's some reason why you think I shouldn't go
18 forward with finalizing that.

19 All right, let's get the jury.

20 (Pause.)

21 (Discussion between the Court and court officer
22 outside the hearing of the reporter.)

23 THE COURT: The jury wants me to remind them of the 24 days we're on and off; just the schedule.

25 Assuming -- I'm going to ask you all to check me

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

422

1 after I give them that.

2 (Laughter.)

3 (Pause.)

4 COURT OFFICER: Is the Court ready for the jurors?

5 (The Court nodded.)

6 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

7 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

8 THE COURT: Welcome back. Have a seat.

9 I wanted to go over, briefly, our trial days, where 10 we're on and we're off. I went through that, probably, very 11 quickly during the opening instructions and you may want to 12 know. So --

13 I'll wait until you all get your Post-it notes.

14 Is Post-it notes the official record?

15 (Laughter.)

16 (Pause.)

17 THE COURT: So, as I mentioned, generally, we sit
18 four days a week. This week, because we started the first
19 day late, I'm going to have -- we're going to be, tomorrow,
20 back in my courtroom, downstairs; and then Friday, just for 21 the morning, so 9:30 to 12:40, roughly.

22 Then next week, Monday is a court holiday, so
23 that's our off day. So we will have trial all the rest of 24 the four days.

25 The following week -- the rumors of Friday being

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

423

1 our off day are exaggerated, because they need this room on
2 Thursday, so we're going to be off on the 25th; Thursday,
3 the 25th. So no trial on the 25th. We will be on, in this
4 room, on the 26th, Friday.

5 Then the next week, the week of January 29th, we
6 are sitting Monday through Friday -- through Thursday -- off
7 on Friday, February 2nd.

8 The following week, the same: We'll be off on 9 Friday, February 9th.

10 The following week, Monday, the 12th, is a court
11 holiday and we will be sitting the other four days, Tuesday
12 through Friday.

13 So that's our schedule.

14 All right, let's get the witness.

15 (Pause.)

16 COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

17 (The witness entered the courtroom and resumed the 18 witness stand.)

19 THE COURT: Welcome back, sir.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

21 (Witness seated.)

22 THE COURT: Just a reminder that you're still under
23 oath.

24 THE WITNESS: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

424

1 Counsel, you may continue your cross.

2 MS. ROGERS: Thank you, your Honor.

3 I think I'm continuing with a working microphone.

4 (To jury) Can the jury hear me okay? Great.

6 BY MS. ROGERS:

7 Q All right, Mr. Tenenbaum, welcome back from lunch.

8 A Thank you.

9 Q This morning, I thought I heard you testify that good
10 not-for-profit governance is not possible if the board is too
11 large. Is that your testimony?

12 A I didn't make that broad of a statement.

13 Q I think you used the word "impossible," right?

14 A No. What I -- what I said was that it's extremely 15 difficult for a board that large to exercise its fiduciary
16 responsibilities properly.

17 Q Are you aware of prominent not-for-profit advocacy
18 organizations that have large boards of directors?

19 A I'm honestly not, but I wouldn't be surprised. But it
20 wouldn't change my opinion.

21 Q How many people are --

22 Do you know how many people are on the board of the 23 ACLU?

24 A I don't.

25 Q If I told you it was 80, would that surprise you?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

425

1 A Like I said, it would not surprise me to know that
2 there are other large-board, large not-for-profit organizations,
3 whether they're advocacy groups or not. But it doesn't change
4 my opinion about the appropriateness of, and the effectiveness
5 of, that -- a board that size.

6 Q Are you aware of any governance problems at the ACLU?

7 A I, frankly, don't -- they're not a client of mine and I
8 have never worked with them.

9 Q What about the NAACP; do you know how many people are 10 on the NAACP board?

11 A I do not.

12 Q If I told you it was 69, would that surprise you?

13 A Again, it would not surprise me, but it doesn't change
14 my opinion.

15 Q And it's not impossible that the ACLU and NAACP are 16 governed well, right?

17 A Again, I was talking about the board's ability to 18 exercise its fiduciary duties; not about overall governance,
19 generally, in an organization.

20 Q Well, is it possible that the members of the ACLU board
21 exercise their fiduciary duties properly?

22 A I don't know anything about them.

23 Q Is it impossible that the members of the NAACP board
24 exercise their fiduciary duties properly?

25 A I don't know anything about them.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

426

1 I'm just saying, in my experience, in every case that
2 I've seen of large boards like that, they have extreme
3 difficulty properly exercising their fiduciary responsibilities.

4 Q You talked earlier about how a government agency or a
5 donor-advised fund is reviewing the Form 990; they would care
6 about related-party transaction disclosures. That was the sum
7 and substance of your testimony, right?

8 A Along with other things that I was referring to on the 9 Form 990, as well, yes.

10 Q And you would agree that a government agency or a
11 donor-advised fund are important audiences for Form 990?

12 A I was referring to grantors, donors, generally; and 13 whether they're, like, you know, a federal or state agency
14 that's granting funds, a donor-advised fund, a private 15 foundation, a corporate foundation, an individual donor, all of 16 them tend to care about things like that, yes.

17 Q Right. And would one of those readers who cares about 18 things like related-party transactions just be looking at the 19 checkbook or bother to read the schedule of related-party
20 transactions (simulating)?

21 A Well, put it this way: If I was advising a potential
22 donor or if I was a potential donor, I would not just be looking
23 at the first page of -- I think it's Schedule L of the 990. I
24 would look at where you have to provide more details about it.

25 Q Before lunch, you talked about an internal audit

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

427

1 function and I believe your words were that larger organizations
2 "often don't always have it." Do you recall that testimony?

3 A I thought what I said was that, typically, large
4 organizations do have an internal audit function.

5 Q And that's because a clean audit from an outside
6 auditor might not tell you much about your internal controls,
7 right?

8 A It tells you some. I believe they changed, like, the 9 audit rules for external auditors a number of years ago to, in 10 part, deal with internal controls, but it's from far from --
11 from everything I've heard and learned from auditors and CFO's
12 and others over the years, it's very insufficient in terms of 13 being an overall judge of the effectiveness of the internal 14 controls of the organization.

15 Q Because the scope of the typical outside audit is just 16 not extensively concerned with internal controls, right?

17 A Right. Like I said, it's mainly testing the accuracy
18 of the numbers that show up on financial statements.

19 Q Right. Have you ever heard the term "special
20 procedures" in connection with an outside audit?

21 A I have.

22 Q Can you tell the jury your understanding of what that
23 is?

24 A I honest -- like I said, I'm not an auditor. I've 25 heard the term before but I don't know exactly what it means.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

428

1 Q If I represent to you that a client can ask its
2 auditor, or the auditor can decide, to conduct special
3 procedures which change the scope of the audit to look at things
4 like internal controls, would that be consistent with your 5 expertise?

6 A My general recollection is that special procedures do
7 involve the auditor going somewhere beyond what they would 8 typically do, but beyond that -- that's about the extent of my
9 knowledge.

10 Q Okay. You testified, with Mr. Thompson, earlier that 11 it's not enough to have a conflict policy, you've got to enforce
12 it; right?

13 A Well, it's not just those two. You have to have an 14 appropriate conflict policy; you have to educate people on it
15 and train people on it; and then, yes, you have to enforce it.

16 Q And you also testified that if a related-party
17 transaction or a conflict does happen and it's ratified after 18 the fact, best practice says you've got to put in place some 19 procedure to stop that from happening again. Is that your 20 opinion?

21 A I think I rattled off a number of things that should 22 happen with an after-the-fact ratification; I'm happy to go
23 through those again. One of those was that -- that the -- the 24 ratifier needs to be sure that there are appropriate
25 protections, procedures, whatever else, put in place to make

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

429

1 sure that it doesn't happen in the future, yes.

2 Q All right. So, for example, if an organization were to
3 clarify the deadlines for submission of conflict forms, that's 4 one thing they might do to prevent late-submitted forms from 5 happening again; right?

6 A You mean, if that's one of the problems, then that's 7 one of the things that should be addressed. To me, that would
8 be a very small thing. I think, you know, the much bigger thing
9 that I tend to see is these conflicts not being disclosed,
10 period, when they should be disclosed or a conflict being 11 disclosed but then the person not being recused from the 12 decision-making about what to do about the conflict. Things
13 like that.

14 Q All right. What about walling off a conflicted
15 employee from relevant contract negotiations? Is that an 16 appropriate procedure to prevent issues from recurring?

17 A That's one of them. I think I mentioned that earlier,
18 and that could be a very important one in certain circumstances,
19 yes.

20 Q What about replacing -- firing and replacing -- a
21 conflicted executive with a new one?

22 A That certainly -- if -- if it's warranted; for 23 instance, if an executive is repeatedly entering into 24 conflict-of-interest transactions and not disclosing them, would 25 termination potentially be an appropriate remedy? Sure.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

430

1 Q And what about terminating a vendor that was the source
2 of that conflict? That's a procedure that could prevent that
3 conflict from recurring, right?

4 A Well, yes. I mean, in a certain circumstance,
5 terminating a vendor who is perpetuating the conflict could be 6 part of this solution, but you still have to be sure you're 7 dealing with the underlying issue of making sure you have
8 disclosure, recusal, and independent decision-making.

9 Q What about instituting compliance training? That's a
10 procedure that might prevent something like this from arising
11 again?

12 A Again, part of the solution, yes.

13 And trainings on this stuff -- like I said, I do them a
14 lot -- it's really, really important, because in my experience,
15 a lot of times, board members and even officers and staff don't 16 quite understand the concept of how broad a conflict is and they 17 think about it in a very narrow sense.

18 Like, for instance, some might think a conflict only
19 involves me getting compensated by an organization as, say, a
20 board member; but they might not think of, well, me also getting 21 a lot of gifts from a vendor that we do a lot of business with 22 could be a conflict, as well.

23 So it's important, for instance, to help educate people
24 who are subject to the policy -- officers, directors,
25 employees -- that receiving significant gifts from a big vendor

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

431

1 to the organization can constitute a conflict of interest; a big
2 one.

3 Q So, in your experience, that kind of education is 4 important.

5 A Very.

6 Q It's essential, right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And that's because, sometimes, people can fail to 9 disclose conflicts without trying to violate policy because they
10 aren't aware that the specific relationship or situation amounts
11 to a conflict under that policy; right?

12 A I've seen plenty of situations where people don't 13 disclose conflict because it's -- it's usually where it's not 14 something that's readily apparent; it's not, like, a -- someone
15 that everyone -- everything -- everyone instinctively knows,
16 yes, this is a conflict. It can be something more nuanced. And 17 those are the situations where I've seen that, yes, sometimes a 18 failure to disclose conflicts can be inadvertent and not 19 intentional, sure.

20 Q You testified before lunch that you, in your 21 experience, have seen RFP or contract-out-for-bid policies with 22 certain exceptions to them; right?

23 A Very rare exceptions, and I talked about one notable 24 exception; kind of, the sole-source justification. I've never 25 seen huge categories of exempted activities. And when

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

432

1 Mr. Thompson went through a list of a whole bunch of activities
2 that would -- that I've not seen exemptions for, when you think
3 about it, there's not much left. There's maybe, like, IT
4 services and facilities management and payroll and employment
5 services. And beyond that, it's pretty much most of what most 6 nonprofit organizations do.

7 And so that's why I said that I have not seen those
8 sorts of broad -- huge, I would say -- kind of loopholes in a
9 procurement policy.

10 Q All right. So, before lunch, we talked about how 11 you're testifying about practices, not about law, and I'm not
12 asking you here about law but I'm asking you -- I'm going to ask
13 you -- if you heard of the Heller Supreme Court decision.

14 A No.

15 Q Have you heard of the McDonald Supreme Court decision?

16 A No.

17 Q Have you heard of the Bruin Supreme Court decision?

18 A No.

19 Q If I represent to you that those are all recent Supreme 20 Court decisions that were highly controversial and impactful in 21 the arena of the Second Amendment, would that refresh your
22 recollection?

23 MR. THOMPSON: Objection, your Honor; outside the 24 scope.

25 MS. ROGERS: That's going to be my last question

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

433

1 about this.

2 THE COURT: I don't know what the question really
3 is yet, so -- or --

4 Q Well, I'll ask you this, Mr. Tenenbaum: You
5 testified -- and I think you just used the words "huge 6 loophole" -- that you have never seen a procurement policy that 7 exempted legal services from RFP. Do you recall that testimony?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Have you ever counseled an organization, like the NRA,
10 whose not-for-profit mission entails bringing and winning very
11 important and controversial Supreme Court cases?

12 A Obviously, I do not provide legal counsel to the NRA,
13 and I have not. I have provided legal counsel to other
14 organizations who -- whose litigation served the -- you know,
15 the -- the litigation it brings on behalf of its mission is a
16 critically important part of what it does, yes.

17 Q Supreme Court litigation?

18 A I'm sorry?

19 Q Supreme Court litigation?

20 A All sorts of litigation.

21 Look, I'm not a litigator myself, so I'm not going to 22 purport to be an expert in this stuff, but I have provided legal 23 counsel to nonprofit organizations that have large litigation
24 departments that bring litigation on behalf of their mission or 25 their purpose.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

434

1 Q Have you ever seen Supreme Court litigation subject to
2 an RFP?

3 THE COURT: U.S. Supreme Court litigation.

4 MS. ROGERS: U.S., yes; United States Supreme
5 Court.

6 (Laughter.)

7 A Honestly, that's outside of my wheelhouse.

8 Q Okay. All right. I'm going to rattle off a list for 9 you of not-for-profit governance practices and I'd like you to 10 tell me if these practices are consistent with your 11 understanding of good not-for-profit governance. Okay?

12 A I -- I will. I'm happy to do that, as long as -- you
13 know, sometimes this stuff is more complicated than a "yes" or 14 "no." It's --

15 Q All right.

16 A You can't -- you can't analyze it in a vacuum.

17 Q Okay. Well, what about policy that expense reports
18 which are submitted too late are ineligible for repayment?
19 That's a good policy, right?

20 A I've seen policies like that, but I've also seen
21 exceptions to those policies.

22 Q All right.

23 MS. ROGERS: Well, let's put plaintiff's slide 15
24 back up.

25 (Image displayed.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

435

1 Q All right. So this (indicating) is one of your
2 demonstrables [sic], right?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And this invoice on the right (indicating), that's an
5 example of a bad invoice; right? That's why it's got a red "X"?

6 A Well, yeah. And I purposely put "two years later."

7 Yes, an expense reimbursement that was submitted two
8 years later, I can't imagine a policy allowing that to go
9 forward for reimbursement.

10 Q Right.

11 And so, in fact, it's good governance to not allow that 12 and to rule that expenses submitted too late are ineligible for 13 reimbursement; right?

14 A Well, if you look at the slide on the left side, you
15 have one week later being okay -- like, basically, one week
16 late, versus two week -- two years late not being acceptable.

17 Q Right.

18 So, in other words, we shouldn't be paying expenses
19 that are submitted two years later; right?

20 A Yes, I agree.

21 Q Even if it's a senior, trusted executive and even if 22 it's hundreds of thousands of dollars in expenses, best
23 governance is to say, "No, too late; we're not paying."

24 A Agreed.

25 Q Agreed.

436

1 Hiring a compliance officer who reports to the board,
2 that's good governance, right?

3 A A chief compliance officer that has a direct reporting
4 line to the board or the audit committee, yes, absolutely, a
5 favored practice.

6 Q And where contracts are issued under an RFP exception,
7 is it good governance to report to the board or a committee a
8 list of those contracts?

9 A So you're saying, if there are -- if a contract is --
10 I don't want to use a legal term "let," but if you
11 enter into a contract that's being issued pursuant to an
12 exemption to the procurement policy, would it be a good practice
13 to inform the board and the audit committee about that contract
14 and provide a copy? Absolutely.

15 Q Absolutely.

16 A And generally, with an explanation that accompanies as 17 to why it's exempted.

18 Q And having a whistleblower hotline, that's good
19 governance; right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q All right.

22 And, let's say, a related-party contract has been 23 approved but new material information comes to light about that
24 relationship. Would it be good governance for the audit
25 committee to revisit that transaction?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

437

1 A Yes, absolutely.

2 Q Absolutely.

3 And if an employee has been accused of corruption, is 4 it consistent with best practices to have an outside law firm
5 investigate that accusation?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Would it also be consistent with best practices to hire
8 a forensic accounting firm to investigate that accusation?

9 A If the allegations regard potential financial 10 improprieties, absolutely, yes.

11 Q What about allowing the president of a not-for-profit
12 to have a $980,000, under-the-table contract with a major
13 vendor? Is that a good practice?

14 A So, again, you have to put it in context: Is it being 15 done pursuant to, and compliant with, a procurement policy and 16 the conflict-of-interest and related-party-transaction policy,
17 or not?

18 Q So, if the president of a nonprofit has a $980,000
19 contract with a vendor which he does not disclose, we're not 20 sure if that's good governance because it might be done pursuant 21 to the procurement policy? Is that your testimony?

22 A Well, again, I'm just asking for the full facts.

23 And by "the president," first off, do you mean the 24 volunteer president or do you mean the chief staff executive,
25 like --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

438

1 Q Well, let's hypothesize an organization where the
2 bylaws prohibit the president from being paid, but he has an
3 undisclosed $980,000-a-year contract with a major vendor.

4 Is it good governance to allow that?

5 A No. That would be problematic, for sure.

6 Q And if the audit committee discovered that, it should 7 take action with respect to that contract; right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And if you found out that the president hadn't even 10 performed those services he was being paid $980,000 to perform,
11 that would make the concern even more acute; right?

12 A Well, is the president supposed to be performing 13 services on behalf of the nonprofit that he or she is the 14 president of?

15 Q Well, I don't want to make the hypothetical too
16 detailed. I think we've got the parameters of what you think is 17 permissible with the secret million-dollar contract.

18 MS. ROGERS: So I have nothing further, for now.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 Any further cross?

21 MR. CORRELL: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Transfer the mic.

23 (Microphone handed to Mr. Correll.)

24 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

1 (To jury) Good afternoon.

2 CROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. CORRELL:

4 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Tenenbaum.

5 A Good afternoon.

6 Q You said you went to Columbus School of Law?

7 A It's the law school at Catholic University of America,
8 yes.

9 Q And where is that located?

10 A In Washington, D.C.

11 Q And you testified you're not a New York lawyer;
12 correct?

13 A I am not a New York lawyer, no. I'm not a member of 14 the New York Bar, if that's what you mean.

15 Q You said you worked for the Association of the --

16 A American Society of Association Executives.

17 Q And for how many years?

18 A About three years; a little less than three years.

19 Q You testified you're not a litigator.

20 A I'm not a litigator.

21 Q You've never been to the U.S. Supreme Court.

22 A For social functions, but not for -- I've never 23 litigated there. I've been a member of a case -- part of a case
24 -- there.

25 Q Have you ever helped anybody work up a case for the

1 Supreme Court?

2 A No.

3 Q You have organized seminars; correct?

4 A Yes, many.

5 Q And can you just tell us, briefly, how that works;
6 organizing the seminar?

7 A I mean, I do all of -- I do a lot of public speaking on 8 nonprofit legal issues. Some I do for other organizations, like
9 the American Society of Association Executives and the American
10 Bar Association and others; some I've done on my own; some I
11 moderate and organize. I -- I just -- it's a whole variety
12 of -- I probably give -- I don't know -- 50 presentations a
13 year.

14 Q And do you get paid to do those seminars?

15 A Almost never.

16 Q Okay. You're a paid witness today; correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q What is your hourly rate?

19 A For this case, I don't remember if we had a -- a 20 special hourly rate, but my typical hourly -- hourly rate -- for 21 the last four years, has been 595 an hour; effectively hourly
22 rate.

23 Q And how many hours have you billed on this case?

24 A Oh, I don't know the number of hours.

25 Q Do you know the amount of money?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

441

1 A I haven't checked at all recently. I would venture to
2 guess, probably somewhere in the 175,000 to $200,000 range.

3 Q And who do you bill for your time?

4 A The New York State Office of the Attorney General.

5 Q And can you tell the members of the jury how you came
6 to be engaged by the --

7 Well, let me ask this question: Have you been engaged
8 by the Office of the Attorney General on this case?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And how did you come to be engaged?

11 A I was approached by a now-former member or employee of 12 the office who I had known through nonprofit conferences and a
13 speaking engagement that -- she was on a panel that I had 14 organized and, just generally, through the nonprofit world. She 15 reached out, told me -- actually, I don't think she told me
16 that -- the name of the -- the case or the party, but she told
17 me, generally, what this was about and if this was something
18 that I might feel comfortable being an expert witness about, and 19 if so, then she wanted me to meet with other members of the 20 team, which I did.

21 Q And was her name Yael Fuchs?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And you had met Yael Fuchs at a seminar; correct?

24 A I believe I met her first at a seminar, yes; I don't
25 remember exactly which one.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 Q And after the seminar, you asked her to go out for a
2 drink with you; correct?

3 A I think that was the first time I met her in person
4 and, yeah, we did meet for a drink afterward, before she took a
5 train back to New York.

6 Q And did anyone else accompany the two of you?

7 A I don't believe so, but I -- it's been a while now.

8 Q And you went across the street to a restaurant near 9 your office; correct?

10 A Correct.

11 Q And you were with her for about 30 minutes? Is that
12 about right?

13 A Maybe 30, 45 minutes. That sounds about right.

14 Q And you talked about the possibility of working
15 together again; correct?

16 A Well, we didn't talk about anything such as potentially 17 being an expert witness or anything like that. I think we 18 talked about potentially doing other speaking engagements
19 together but had never contemplated any sort of a -- a client
20 or -- you know -- paid-engagement-type relationship.

21 Q Okay. And then she was the point of outreach from the 22 Attorney General's office on this case; correct?

23 A Initially, yes.

25

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

443

1 Q You talked earlier about membership organizations. How
2 are they different from other nonprofit organizations?

3 A So, they are different. When you incorporated a
4 nonprofit corporation, you have to indicate in most states on
5 the article of incorporation -- So, in most states perhaps all
6 states, I don't know offhand for sure, but when you incorporate
7 you have to indicate whether or not they are going to be voting
8 members of the organization. And if they are voting members,
9 then each of the state nonprofit corporation statutes in D.C.
10 has a whole set of provisions that relate to the voting members.
11 Certain rights that voting members have compared to the board.
12 Without voting members, kind of all the basically premier
13 governance rights belong to the board or when you have voting
14 members, like for instance, only voting members can approve a
15 merger, a consolidation or a dissolution or an amendment of the 16 article of incorporation or substantial transfer of assets. And 17 then it's common practice when you have voting members in a
18 membership association for the members to be able to elect the 19 board. Sometimes to elect the officers. And to amend the 20 bylaws. It's not required by law, but it's a common practice.

21 Q Do you know how many members the NRA has?

22 A I believe they have about 4 million members.

23 Q Have you ever represented or advised an organization
24 with that many members?

25 A No.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

444

1 Q What's the largest membership organization you've ever
2 advised and represented in terms of membership?

3 A So, I represented organizations, as I said earlier,
4 with budget sizes larger, as larger or larger than -- than this
5 one. I don't -- I honestly don't know offhand. Maybe 500,000
6 members, something along those lines.

7 Q And can you describe the kind of membership
8 organization that was?

9 A These are -- Most of my clients that I represented over
10 the years that are membership organizations are what are called
11 trade and professional associations. So, they are associations
12 that represent a particular industry or profession. They 13 advocate for that industry or profession.

14 Q That would be like a 501(c)(6) organization, correct?

15 A Many of them are, although there are a lot of 501(c)(3)
16 associations and obviously there are some 501(c)(4).

17 Q Is there any magic to the difference between (c)(3),
18 (c)(4) or (c)(6) in terms of membership organizations?

19 A So, there is a lot of difference between (c)(3) and 20 (c)(4) or a (c)(3) and a (c)(6). But (c)(6) and (c)(4)s are 21 very, very similar. The basic rules are the same for the most 22 part with the exception that (c)(4)s, because they are social 23 welfare organizations, there is something called a private 24 benefit doctrine that applies to them that does not apply to 25 (c)(6)s.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

445

1 Q Are you familiar with -- You had drawn a distinction
2 between membership organizations and charities earlier. Do you
3 recall that?

4 A Well, I drew a distinction between membership
5 organizations and nonmembership organizations.

6 Q Okay. Are you familiar with the term charities?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And what does that term mean to you?

9 MR. THOMPSON: Objection.

10 A So, it means different things in different context.

11 MR. THOMPSON: Calling for a legal conclusion, your
12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: I think in this context, overruled.

14 Q I certainly don't mean to ask you for a legal opinion.
15 If you could describe in your practice of advising people what 16 is the custom and practice in the nonprofit world in terms of 17 use of the word charities?

18 A So it depends in what context. From an IRS
19 perspective, the IRS uses the term a lot on its website and 20 elsewhere, it doesn't really have any special legal meaning from 21 an IRS prospective. But for purposes of New York nonprofit law
22 it has a lot of meaning, because both (c)(3)s and (c)(4)s, so
23 the welfare organizations are considered charities under New 24 York State law.

25 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, move to strike. He just

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

446

1 crossed the line into giving advice on New York law that
2 he's not allowed to give.

3 THE WITNESS: I don't know how else to answer the
4 question.

5 THE COURT: Yeah. I mean, it's a little unfair
6 because it was responsive to the question. The question was 7 not looking at the legal niceties of any particular state's 8 law, but do you have a view based on your general
9 experience.

10 A Yeah. I would say if you're asking me from that 11 perspective, I would say generally a charity is an organization
12 that has to put the public benefit by far above any private
13 interest. Whereas that doesn't necessarily apply in a 501(c)(6)
14 association where you can promote the interest of the 15 profession, the industry and it doesn't have to benefit the 16 general public.

17 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, could I get a ruling on 18 the prior objection? Because I do think it was an 19 appropriate objection to strike the --

20 THE COURT: We'll strike -- Again this witness
21 isn't here to give you advice on New York law. For better
22 or worse I'm your source for that. So, the answer about New 23 York law you should disregard.

24 Q So, you're not an expert on compensation and benefits,
25 correct?

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

447

1 A Well, yes and no. I advise a lot of nonprofit
2 compensation committees on executive compensation, structures,
3 legalities, all those other sorts of things. I am not like a
4 compensation consultant that comes in and does a compensation
5 study to determine what's reasonable, fair market value, et
6 cetera.

7 Q But when I asked earlier what you were an expert on,
8 you didn't include compensation and benefits, correct?

9 A Well, I consider myself an expert on nonprofit law and 10 governance generally, which includes a lot of different things.
11 One of the things that I've always advised on is executive
12 compensation. And I negotiate, you know, nonprofit CEO
13 employment contracts. I advise compensation committees. I
14 advise on compensation plans. I advise on expense reimbursement
15 policies. These are all things I lump into that.

16 Q But you're not offering an opinion on compensation and 17 benefits today, correct?

18 A I'm offering an opinion on what I was asked about.

19 Q You did not in your expert disclosure say that you were 20 going to offer an opinion on compensation benefits, correct?

21 A Are you talking about in my expert report?

22 Q Correct.

23 A Well, in my expert report I did weigh in on certain
24 executive compensation benefits and, you know, the need that 25 they have to follow certain rules and an accountable planning

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

448

1 and things like that. So, I'm not sure what you mean by that.

2 MR. CORRELL: Well, your Honor, I'm just trying to 3 draw a line between the expertise that was declared at the 4 beginning of the examination and what's happening today.

5 Q You're not offering any opinion today to this jury on 6 compensation of benefits, correct?

7 MR. THOMPSON: We offered Mr. Tenenbaum for what we
8 offered him for. This seems to be outside the scope.

9 THE COURT: Well, I mean, I'm not sure it's a black
10 and white thing. I think the witness has said compensation
11 and benefits is part of the broad category of nonprofit
12 governance. I'm not sure -- And he's also said he's not a
13 compensation expert in terms of setting compensation. I'm 14 not sure how much -- I'm not sure how to help you here.

15 MR. CORRELL: Well, I think I can move away from 16 this just because when you asked -- when he was asked to be 17 qualified as an expert, I was very careful to ask what are 18 you an expert on, and he did not say that. So, I'm going to 19 drop this line of questioning and move on.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. CORRELL: But I reserve the right to circle
22 back and challenge his qualifications as a compensation and 23 experts expert in an attempt that he opines on that subject.

24 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, can we approach?

25 THE COURT: No, I don't think we need to. I think

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

449

1 he's been clear about what his expertise is, and
2 compensation is a part of a broad category, but he's not a
3 compensation specific -- We know what compensation experts
4 look like. He's not saying that's what he is.

5 Q You're not an auditor, are you?

6 A No.

7 Q You're clear about that, you're not an auditor?

8 A I made that very clear in some of my prior answers.

9 Q Okay. You've seen a lot of auditors, but you're not an 10 auditor?

11 A Correct.

12 Q You're not an accountant, correct?

13 A No.

14 Q You've seen a lot of people do accounting work for 15 nonprofits, but you're not an accountant?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And have you ever run a nonprofit?

18 A No.

19 Q You've never been a chief executive of a nonprofit?

20 A No.

21 Q So, you're a quarterback whose never been on the field
22 in terms of nonprofit executive function, is that fair to say?

23 MR. THOMPSON: Argumentative, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer.

25 A I mean, I would say I'm more like the coach that's

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

450

1 never been a quarterback, but it doesn't mean that the coach
2 doesn't know everything about what's going on on the football
3 field. I've never run a nonprofit. I've never been employed by 4 a nonprofit except when I worked at that place at ASE, when I
5 went to law school. But I've worked with probably well over
6 2,000 nonprofits and about every aspect of their operations and 7 governance. So, I feel like I'm very much an expert on how
8 nonprofits typically work, should work, best practices, bad
9 practices, but no, I've never run a nonprofit.

10 Q Is the NRA a typical nonprofit?

11 A No. Definitely not typical.

12 Q Have you ever raised a million dollars a day to support
13 a cause?

14 A No.

15 Q A million dollars a day?

16 A No.

17 Q Have you ever engaged in constitutionally protected
18 activity that puts you at personal risk?

19 MR. THOMPSON: Outside the scope, your Honor.

20 MR. CORRELL: He's a nonprofit expert.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 A No, I have not.

23 Q Have you ever advised a nonprofit organization where 24 there was an executive who was at substantial personal risk due
25 to death threats?

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

451

1 A No.

2 Q You testified earlier that -- Well, I'll move in order.
3 You said in 2008 the federal form IRS 990 form was changed,
4 correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q They added some questions, correct?

7 A Yeah. They completely overhauled the form and added a
8 lot of questions.

9 Q You focused on the questions regarding significant
10 material diversion of assets, correct?

11 A I was asked a question about that by Mr. Thompson.
12 Yes. I wouldn't say I focused on it.

13 Q They also put new questions in there, isn't that true
14 in Schedule J?

15 A They put a whole bunch of new schedules and a whole
16 bunch of new questions. I was not trying to suggest that that 17 was the only significant change to the form.

18 Q And Schedule J they asked a new question which was in 19 the past year did you provide, did the corporation provide any 20 of the following things to any person, correct?

21 A I know exactly what you mean, yeah. It's right up at 22 the top.

23 Q Right. And the top left box is first class or charter
24 travel?

25 A Correct.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

452

1 Q And then if you check any of the boxes there are other
2 things, companion travel, correct?

3 A I don't remember every one of the things like social
4 club dues. If you have like a chauffeur or private chef or
5 things like that.

6 Q Okay. And this indicated to you that the IRS knew that
7 some nonprofits were providing these things to certain people,
8 correct?

9 A Well, I don't know the IRS motivation behind putting 10 those.

11 Q Fair enough. They asked the question. They wanted to 12 know the information.

13 A But it could be because they don't think it's 14 appropriate and they want it to be disclosed so either they know 15 there is red flags or the potential donor public knows there is 16 red flags.

17 Q You don't know what they were thinking when they put 18 those questions in there?

19 A I don't.

20 Q Fair enough. Below that there is a line that says, If 21 you check any of these blocks, then answer the following
22 questions. And one of them was if you check the box for first
23 class -- well, it said I think for all of them do you have a
24 written policy, correct?

25 A Correct.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

453

1 Q Right. And so is -- Then it has another line where it
2 says, If you want to provide more information, you can go to
3 part three. Do you remember that?

4 A I believe so. Yeah. I don't have the form. It sounds
5 about right.

6 Q You go to part three and then you provide whatever
7 information you think the IRS might want to know, but they don't 8 really tell you what they want to know, correct?

9 A Correct.

10 Q Okay. So people have to kind of interpret the form and 11 decide what they want to put in there and that's something that 12 who typically would do in a nonprofit?

13 A Who typically prepare a Schedule J, is that what you're 14 asking?

15 Q Yeah. Well, the explanation for part three of Schedule
16 J who would do that typically?

17 A Well, I mean, it's really a question about who 18 typically prepares the 990 more generally, that's part of it.
19 In my experience it's a team effort. It's not just the person
20 whose signing it. That's impossible. As I said earlier, the 21 990 is far more than just like the Form 1120, which is the 22 corporate tax return, which is largely just numbers. This is 23 all about activities and governance. It allows the IRS to 24 figure out whether you are complying with the tax rules. The 25 IRS serves much more than just a financial role when it comes to

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

454

1 tax exempt organizations.

2 And so in my experience, especially with larger
3 organizations, you know, there is a number of people involved.
4 There is the outside auditor who usually takes the lead on their
5 tax department on preparing the first draft of the 990. They 6 get input from the CFO and general counsel and CEO and other
7 departments. In some large organizations I work with, you know,
8 each department has to like signoff in different portions of the 9 990 to make sure it's complete. So, the Schedule J, if it has 10 questions, I mean I would think people like the CFO and the 11 general counsel would be two of the key people, but I certainly 12 can't say for sure.

13 THE COURT: Keep in mind the pace. I'm in carpal
14 tunnel syndrome avoidance.

15 THE WITNESS: Sorry about that.

16 Q Who typically signs these 990s?

17 A Typically it's usually the CFO, but that's what I see
18 the most on the signatures is the CFO.

19 Q And what typically happens after these 990s are signed?

20 A I mean after it's signed it gets filed.

21 Q And is there typically a review process that you've 22 seen in nonprofits before it gets signed and filed?

23 A Yes. That's what I was talking about. Yeah, there is 24 usually like a multi department signoff because it involves 25 inputs from so many different department, and they want to make

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

455

1 sure they are capturing it and it's accurate and it's complete
2 and things like that, yes.

3 Q Do they typically in your experience are these things
4 submitted to the board of directors in draft form before they
5 are signed?

6 A Yeah. I mean the 990, since 2008 actually has a
7 question on there that says -- it doesn't say has the board
8 approved the 990, but they said has the board seen the draft of 9 the 990 before it was filed. So, because most want to check
10 yes, they make sure the board has viewed or had an opportunity
11 to view the draft 990 before it gets signed and filed.

12 Q You say "they make sure". Who makes sure?

13 A I mean, typically staff is making sure it gets before
14 the board. You know, I've seen it done different ways. It can 15 be a lot of big nonprofits have board, you know, portals that 16 they use for things like that. You'll get a message, you know,
17 that 2023 draft 990 is now available on the board portal. You
18 know, please be sure, if you're interested, take a look at it
19 and give us any feedback within the next 14 days or something
20 like that.

21 Q Or you can take it to a board meeting in draft form and 22 put it on the table and --

23 A Yeah.

24 Q -- and say to everyone --

25 THE COURT: Wait until the question is asked.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

456

1 THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry.

2 Q You can take it to a board meeting and say everyone
3 back there, go ahead and go back and look at it?

4 A I've seen that done before, but when I've advised
5 clients on it it's a pretty robust document. It's not just a,
6 you know, three or four page document. So, you kind of force
7 people to just quickly thumb through it at a break in a board
8 meeting to me isn't the most effective way to do it. It's not a
9 preferred way, but I've seen it done that way.

10 Q Once you've seen a 990, you know where the information
11 is that you're looking for, correct?

12 A I mean, I can only speak for myself. I can't speak for 13 others. I know where to look for things.

14 Q Well, you were pretty good in going from Schedule J
15 with me to the question to the box to the question to the 16 explanation. So, someone who has seen these year after year as 17 a director, if they were interested in knowing whether the 18 corporation was providing first class or charter travel to an 19 executive, they would know exactly where to look, correct?

20 A Presumably. Again, I can't read into someone else's
21 mind. I don't know how much they are paying attention to it.
22 Yeah, if someone has looked at a 990 for ten years in a row and 23 they know exactly what they are looking for, then they probably 24 know where to look for it, yeah.

25 Q Okay. Are transaction related to compensation -- Well,

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

457

1 in your experience is there a custom and practice with respect
2 to treatment of transactions related to compensation of 3 employees with regard to whether or not to -- those are 4 considered related-party transactions?

5 A Are you saying just paying like a salary for instance
6 to an employee, is that a related-party transaction? Is that
7 what you're asking?

8 Q I'm talking about if there is a transaction that 9 relates to compensation of an employee, is that typically 10 considered in your experience a related-party transaction?

11 A That's what I'm asking you. If you're saying like just 12 paying salary and benefits to an employee is not considered a
13 related-party transaction. For instance, if the organization is 14 hiring a vendor where, you know, an employee or board member or 15 someone has some financial interest or like they are just hiring
16 a board member to provide services, an otherwise uncompensated
17 board member providing services, that would be considered a
18 related-party transaction. There is a very specific definition
19 both for IRS and New York State law.

20 Q But if it's just an employment contract with an 21 employee, that's not a related-party transaction, right?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay. In your experience, do you typically see chief
24 executives relying on information from others to do their jobs?

25 A Absolutely.

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

458

1 Q And what kinds of people do they typically rely on?

2 A They typically rely on their senior staff. They rely
3 on their outside advisors, consultants, like attorneys and 4 accountants and investment advisors and insurance brokers and
5 consultants generally. There are a lot of consultants in the 6 nonprofit world in different areas. They rely on outside
7 lobbyists, outside PR and crisis communication consultants. You
8 know, a whole host of different folks.

9 Q Do they rely on other officers?

10 A When I say "senior staff", that's what I meant. But it
11 can also be relying on the volunteer officers, the unpaid
12 officers as well.

13 Q Do they rely on board counsel?

14 A You're talking about board legal counsel?

15 Q Yeah.

16 A Of course. Yes. I mean in some nonprofits the board
17 will have its own counsel separate from counsel for the 18 organization, which I've never been a fan of and I don't quite 19 understand the purpose of it except where you have an issue
20 where the board needs some independent counsel to look into like 21 what's going on at the staff level. But, yeah, a whole host of 22 folks.

23 In a lot of nonprofits too the CEO relies heavily on 24 the executive committee, you know, which is in most nonprofits
25 that's a smaller group, maybe six people or so that are

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

459

1 typically comprised of the core volunteer officers of the
2 organization, and that's a very important group that the CEO
3 typically relies on.

4 Q Have you ever advised a nonprofit organization that
5 formed a special litigation committee?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. And is -- is typically in your experience does a
8 chief executive rely on the special litigation committee to 9 handle litigation related matters?

10 A With the caveat that I'm not a litigator and I don't 11 provide litigation advice to my clients, but just from a
12 governance perspective --

13 Q Yes.

14 A -- that's the litigation committee that's going to be 15 advising on when we want to bring a case or appeal a case,
16 things like that, yeah, absolutely.

17 Q And typically in your experience the executive, chief
18 executive or senior executive would defer to the special
19 litigation committee on those kinds of matters, correct?

20 A I mean, it depends. You're talking about the sausage
21 making process of decisionmaking at a nonprofit. It's always a
22 combination of different votes. Sometimes some voices are more
23 significant than others. Have more experience. It's hard to 24 generalize on that.

25 Q You mentioned ex officio officer. Can you explain

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

460

1 typically how that works in nonprofit practice? And I'm talking
2 about not legal practice but custom and practice.

3 A Yeah. Yeah. Sure. Ex officio, it's a Latin word that
4 means by virtue of the office. What that means is like for 5 instance it's common in most nonprofits for whoever serves as
6 the CEO, whatever you call it, executive vice president,
7 whatever the title is, sometimes it's the president, the CEO,
8 but whoever is the chief staff executive, it's not uncommon for 9 that person to serve ex officio as a member of the board often
10 in a nonvoting capacity. So, the CEO automatically being ex
11 officio nonvoting member of the board. That's a common
12 construct. And sometimes that will be the case for other
13 officers as well, like staff officers.

14 Q And in your experience in advising nonprofits have you
15 distinguished between voting directors and nonvoting directors
16 or nonvoting members of the board who are there simply ex
17 officio?

18 A So, I always have to explain this to clients. Ex
19 officio in voting or nonvoting are two completely different
20 constructs. One just means you're serving in this other role by 21 virtue of your office. So that if, you know, Jane Doe is 22 serving as the CEO, Jane automatically serves on the board of 23 directors. That person is a member of the board. Whether they 24 are voting or a nonvoting member is a separate issue. They 25 could be either. It's not really a favored practice for like

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

461

1 staff to have a vote on the board of a nonprofit. I've
2 certainly seen it once in a while.

3 Usually the typical construct is whoever is going to
4 serve ex officio say on the board, they are going to serve in a
5 nonvoting capacity. That's not a legal issue. It's however you
6 want to define it.

7 Q Right. Have you ever, in your experience advising
8 nonprofits, seen an ex officio member of the board of directors
9 held liable for a vote that was taken by the board of directors
10 where that person, the ex officio person had no right to vote?

11 A So, I need a clarification. Are you saying the ex
12 officio member of the board was a voting member or a nonvoting
13 member?

14 Q Nonvoting.

15 A Well, obviously if they are a nonvoting member of the 16 board, they should not be voting.

17 Q Right. And if they don't vote the question is have you
18 ever seen anyone held liable for action taken by a board
19 pursuant to votes in which the ex officio member did not have 20 the right to vote?

21 A I mean so just because you don't have a vote, you're
22 still a member of the board. You still owe fiduciary duties.
23 So, if you're asking me have I seen a situation where a
24 nonvoting member of the board who owes fiduciary duties has been 25 accused of breaching their fiduciary duties, yes, but it's not

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

462

1 because they didn't vote.

2 Q That's not the question I asked. The question that I
3 meant to ask was that have you ever in your experience seen
4 someone who did not vote for certain board action held liable
5 for the board action when they --

6 A Solely because they didn't vote?

7 Q They had no right to vote and didn't vote because they
8 didn't have the right to vote.

9 A Other than a situation where for instance they breached
10 their fiduciary duties, no, I wouldn't say that I've seen a
11 situation where someone was held or threatened to be held liable 12 solely because they did not vote when they did not in fact have 13 a right to vote.

14 Q Thank you. You talked about, and I'll do this very 15 quickly, you talked earlier about certain vendors who provide 16 unique services. You said really, really unique.

17 A Yeah. I was referring to when there is a sole source
18 exception to a procurement policy.

19 Q Right. So in your experience if you -- have you ever
20 seen a nonprofit organization develop a close relationship with 21 a membership recruitment firm that was recruiting members and 22 keeping member lists and communicating with members? Have you
23 ever advised anyone like that?

24 A Oh, sure. In the membership association world we 25 usually call that membership marketing. It means like marketing

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

463

1 the sale of memberships basically.

2 Q And there is something special about that function,
3 correct, because you're dealing with people's personal
4 information, their names, personal data, correct?

5 A It's definitely a very important function for sure,
6 yeah.

7 Q And confidentiality is hugely important there, because 8 if people think they give you their name and they give you their 9 information they want to be sure that that's used in a proper
10 way, correct?

11 A Always. Yes. I would say that not just for members
12 but for donors generally.

13 Q So, if you're a nonprofit organization engaged in a
14 constitutionally protected activity, where you have the 15 obligation to protect the identities of the people who asked you
16 to speak for them, it would be particularly important to 17 maintain a long-term relationship with an organization that you
18 felt confident would protect the identities and personal
19 information of these members, correct?

20 A That's not what I said. I said it's really important
21 to maintain the confidentiality of the members/donors. What I
22 did not say is that it's important to have a long-term
23 relationship with a vendor solely because of that. I mean that
24 presumes that other companies, other vendors that do the same
25 thing aren't able to maintain the same degree of

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

464

1 confidentiality. That would be a very unusual statement to
2 make.

3 Q So, I think you admitted that the NRA is an unusual
4 organization, correct?

5 A Sure.

6 Q Would you call it unique?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. And would you call its members -- Well, I don't
9 want to characterize the members of the NRA. So you see the NRA
10 in a category apart from the other nonprofits that you have 11 advised in the past, at least in the sense of the activities in 12 which it engages, correct?

13 A It's a unique organization in terms of what it does for 14 sure and in terms of the number of members for sure. I wouldn't 15 say it's unique though in terms of how it carries out its 16 procurement policy or should carry out the conflict of interest
17 and related-party transactions policies, which is what I think
18 you're getting at. So, no, I wouldn't say those unique aspects
19 would justify, you know, what I said earlier having, you know,
20 an RFP for big vendors. And going through that RFP process ever
21 three or five years. I don't think anything about the NRA would 22 justify that sort of a practice, no.

23 Q Are you familiar with the case NAACP versus Alabama?

24 A Generally. It's been a while.

25 Q Do you -- What's your understanding of that case?

LAS

Cross-Tenenbaum-Correll

465

1 A Honestly, it's been a while. I thought I'm not suppose
2 to opine on the law.

3 Q I'll represent to you that it was a case involving an
4 action. It was a case involving action by a state Attorney
5 General to try to get membership information from the NAACP,
6 which was a civil rights group that was operating in Alabama but 7 had been formed in New York. Does that refresh your memory as 8 to what that case was?

9 A Yes.

10 MR. THOMPSON: Objection, your Honor. Scope,
11 relevance.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 Q And in that case the U.S. Supreme Court, not the New 14 York Supreme Court, ultimately ruled that it was 15 unconstitutional for the state Attorney General to try to force
16 this information from the NAACP to be disclosed because it would 17 chill free speech. Does that refresh your recollection?

18 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, counsel is testifying,
19 representing a case.

20 MR. CORRELL: I'm trying to refresh the witness'
21 recollection.

22 THE COURT: He's setting up a question, which I
23 would try to get to if you could.

24 MR. CORRELL: Thank you.

25 A That sounds generally consistent with my understanding

LAS

1 of the case. Like I said, it's been a while since I reviewed
2 the details of it. That sounds about right to me.

3 Q So, if you were the chief executive of an organization
4 like the NAACP or the NRA and you saw one of your duties as the 5 chief executive was to protect the member information that
6 members were giving to you, then that would create a situation
7 that would be unusual in your experience if not unique, correct?

8 A I would agree that it's critically important to protect 9 that member information for sure. I would never argue with 10 that, no.

1 Q You talked earlier about -- about private -- travel by
2 private jet. You remember testifying about that?

3 A Um-hmm. Yes.

4 Q And you testified that you -- that there are some -- I
5 think you called them "NGOs" -- that conduct activities around
6 the world, and then you said, that's the only time you've seen
7 that happen. Is that your testimony?

8 A Yeah, when -- in response to a question from 9 Mr. Thompson. He asked me, have I seen the use by nonprofits of 10 private-charter travel and I said, in my experience, that's the 11 only time that I've encountered it outside of this case. It's 12 kind of with that NGO community, you know, doing relief and 13 development work in remote parts of the world where it's 14 impossible or very difficult to get to with commercial airlines.

15 Q And that's the only time you've seen a nonprofit
16 provide charter travel to executives?

17 A In my own personal experience, but again, that's just 18 my own personal experience. I -- I can't speak beyond that.

19 Q Have you ever heard of the "PGA Tour"?

20 A Sure.

21 Q And what is it?

22 A Well, my understanding is that the P -- I don't know if
23 the formal name is the Professional Golf Association or PGA
24 Tour, but they're a nonprofit 501(c)(6) professional

2 A I have not.

3 Q Would it surprise you to know that the PGA Tour is a

6 A It would not surprise me to see that, but I didn't know

16 Compensation Information and that's one of those, since 2008,
17 newer schedules that the IRS asks for much more detailed

4 THE COURT: It's the page before that, I think.
5 You need the page before that.

6 Oh, no. It's all together.

7 MR. CORRELL: Actually, I think you've gotten ahead
8 of me.

9 THE TECHNICIAN: Okay.

10 MR. CORRELL: We're looking for the box, upper 11 left-hand corner.

12 (Different image displayed.)

13 Q Okay, there we go. It says: "Check" --
14 Could you read 1a, please, for the jury, Mr. Tenenbaum?

15 A Can I read 1a? Is that what you said?

16 Q Yes. Yes, just read it aloud.

17 A "Check the appropriate box(es) if the organization
18 provided any of the following to or for a person listed on Form
19 990, Part VII, Section A, line 1a. Complete Part III to provide 20 any relevant information regarding these items."

21 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, may I now direct your attention to the 22 explanation -- well, down to the box below?

23 (Image scrolled.)

24 MR. CORRELL: Ali, if you could take it to the line
25 below, where it asks if there is any written policy ...?

2 BY MR. CORRELL:

3 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, would you read line -- item b, please?

4 A Sure.

5 "If any of the boxes on Line 1a are checked, did the 6 organization follow a written policy regarding payment or 7 reimbursement or provision of all of the expenses described 8 above? If 'No,' complete Part III to explain."

9 Q And then would you read 1b and the response?

10 A Oh. The response is "Yes."

11 Q Now, is there a place you go to see whether there is 12 any further explanation or further information in answer to that
13 question?

14 A Well, yes. If you look on the next page, Part III
15 [sic], "Supplemental Information," there is --

16 MR. CORRELL: May we have that, please, Ali?

17 (Image scrolled.)

18 THE WITNESS: No, it's the next page.

19 MR. CORRELL: Next page.

24 MR. CORRELL: There we go. All right.

25 And, Ali, will you please highlight the --

1 Where it says, "Schedule J, Part I, Line A," it
2 starts, "In some cases ...", would you highlight that
3 sentence? Just the sentence, please? The first sentence.

4 (Image modified.)

5 BY MR. CORRELL:

6 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, will you please read that sentence
7 to the jury?

8 A Sure.

9 "In some cases, certain individuals listed on Part VII
10 and Schedule J may use first-class or charter travel," 11 specifically, "a corporate plane of a tour subsidiary and/or a
12 third party) for business or personal use based upon security 13 concerns, privacy concerns, timing concerns, and length of 14 trip."

15 Q Thank you, Mr. Tenenbaum.

16 So, having seen this, do you still stand by your 17 previous answer: that you're not aware of any nonprofit
18 organization that provides charter travel, except NGOs that 19 provide travel abroad?

20 A Well, at the time I answered that question -- I was 21 asked if I was aware of any organizations that used charter
22 travel and my answer was accurate based on what I knew. Now
23 that I see this one (indicating), I would add this to the list
24 of nonprofits that I'm aware of where charter travel is 25 utilized.

1 Q All right.

2 MR. CORRELL: Ali, could you put up the NRA's 990?

3 THE COURT: What number?

4 MR. CORRELL: I'm afraid I don't have the exhibit
5 number, your Honor.

6 All right, this is fine.

7 Q I've got a couple more questions for you.

8 Do you have any knowledge -- personal knowledge -- as 9 to what the threat level is for the NRA today, as we sit here?

10 A None, no.

11 Q Have you had --

12 Do you have any personal knowledge as to what the 13 threat level was when you started this assignment?

14 A No.

15 Q Do you have any idea how it fluctuates from day to day?

16 A I -- I really don't.

17 Q All right. And I think you testified earlier that 18 you've never advised or represented any chief executive who had 19 a threat level -- a personal threat level. Is that fair?

20 A Correct.

21 Q And you have no personal knowledge as to the threat
22 level that exists with respect to Mr. LaPierre --

23 A No.

24 Q -- correct?

25 And so, in giving all these opinions that you've given,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

475

1 you were not taking into account the special nature of the NRA
2 in terms of threats to the NRA or to its chief executive;
3 correct?

4 A No, because I was instructed to not comment on the NRA.
5 I was instructed to comment, just generally, on the nonprofit
6 industry practices and common, best practices that I'm aware of.

7 MR. CORRELL: Thank you.

8 MR. WERBNER: Mr. Phillips does not have any
9 questions.

10 MR. FLEMING: Very brief questioning.

11 (Pause.)

12 (Microphone handed to Mr. Fleming.)

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. FLEMING:

15 Q Hi, Mr. Tenenbaum. How are you?

16 A Good, thank you.

17 Q William Fleming for Mr. Frazer. I just have a few
18 questions for you.

19 A conflict-of-interest and related-party transaction
20 policy is a good thing, right?

21 A Having such a policy is a good thing, presuming that 22 the policy is complete and fulsome and -- and says and does the 23 right things. Yeah, you can't -- I would never say, just having 24 a policy that says "Conflict-of-Interest and Related-Party
25 Transaction Policy" at the top is, itself, going to be a good

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

476

1 thing. The devil's in the details.

2 Q Okay. But if the state regulator called your
3 conflict-of-interest policy "comprehensive" and defining 4 conflicts of interest more broadly than required by law, that
5 would be a good thing; right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Now, you would agree that --

8 You talked about questionnaires. Do you recall the 9 testimony?

10 A I'm sorry; could you repeat that?

11 Q Questionnaires.

12 A Questionnaires, yes. Conflict-of-interest
13 questionnaires.

14 Q Yes.

15 Would you agree that an ever-broader questionnaire that 16 captured more conflicts would be a good practice?

17 A More than what? I don't know what you mean.

18 Q To develop -- you -- you would be in favor --

19 If you advised clients, you would advise them to ask
20 more and more questions of your board to discern what are 21 conflicts of interest; right?

22 A You mean, is it better to be broader and more expansive
23 rather than narrower? Yes, absolutely.

24 Q All right.

25 Now, you explained that you advise clients, sort of --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

477

1 you called -- you said, as "outside general counsel." Do you
2 recall the term?

3 A Yes.

4 Q So, even though you're outside the business, you serve
5 in, sort of, a general counsel capacity; correct?

6 A Well, it depends on the client.

7 For some of our clients that have no in-house lawyer,
8 yes, I serve as their general counsel or our firm serves as 9 their general counsel firm. For those larger organizations that 10 have in-house counsel, I serve as outside counsel. I don't have 11 any, you know, legal title of "general counsel," but I use that 12 term more colloquially to mean, kind of, the broad array of 13 advice and counsel on nonprofit-specific legal issues.

14 Q Okay. And if a client came to you with a question
15 about a problem that you were not -- didn't feel -- sufficiently 16 expert in, you might refer that out to a different lawyer;
17 right?

18 A Happens all the time, yes.

19 Q You're not an expert on everything, right?

20 A No. I wish I was, but no.

21 (Laughter.)

22 Q And have you ever had occasion, as a lawyer, to rely on 23 third-party professionals; accountants, forensic people of 24 that -- people of that sort?

25 A Sure.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

478

1 In fact, a lot of times, when I'm conducting -- leading
2 -- an internal investigation for a nonprofit board involving,
3 say, financial improprieties, our firm will retain a forensic
4 accounting firm to dig in, you know, to the numbers and the 5 details and the transactions and the receipts and the payments
6 and all of those other things, because that's well outside of --
7 of my or our wheelhouse.

8 Q And where you do that, where you have hired another
9 firm to do that, you trust that they're going to do a good job;
10 correct?

11 A You always try, yes.

12 Q Okay.

13 A And, yes, if you hire a good firm, you have a lot of 14 trust.

15 Q And do you feel justified in relying on their work?

16 A So far, I've never had a bad experience with a forensic
17 accounting firm that we hired, if that's what you mean.

18 Q Okay.

19 A Some were stronger than others.

20 Q Now, I think you also testified that with respect to 21 officers, "the board or their bosses," I think you said. Does
22 that, roughly, encapsulate what you said?

23 A I was referring -- and I think I specifically said,
24 staff officers; like, officers who are employees of the 25 organization. Yes, the board is their boss.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

479

1 Q Okay. Now, you also indicated -- I think it's right
2 here (indicating) -- that where executives make information not
3 available, that would be something that would not be good --
4 good practice; right?

5 A Yeah. I -- I believe what I said was that if a board
6 or a committee of the board was asking, you know, some senior
7 staff to provide information or documentation about something
8 that they were concerned about, it would be problematic, in my
9 view, if the staff refused to comply with those requests.

10 Q Okay. But if the information was accessible, you're 11 aware, are you not, that there are time, place and/or manner
12 restrictions that can be put on it? Right?

13 A I mean, sometimes, like, I get the question from a CEO,
14 you know: "The board is asking for this; I'm concerned; you
15 know, this is really sensitive information." And what my usual 16 answer is: "Look, we have to provide it, at least to the 17 executive committee, but we can" -- you know -- "we can have 18 them sign an additional nondisclosure agreement; we can give 19 them reminders about confidentiality; but you just can't fail to 20 provide the information if it's something relevant."

21 Q Right. But if you provide it, you can put certain
22 reasonable restrictions on its accessibility; fair?

23 A Do you mean, like, for instance, providing only access
24 through some online portal so someone can't make a copy of it,
25 or that sort of a thing?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Cross/Fleming

480

1 Q Precisely.

2 A Yeah, that would absolutely be appropriate, as long as
3 they can, you know, freely access it and, like I had said
4 earlier with the example of the 990, not be rushed, you know, in 5 a 15-minute break at a meeting, to have to review something.

6 MR. FLEMING: Thank you.

7 THE WITNESS: Sure.

8 THE COURT: Anything further on redirect?

9 MR. THOMPSON: A few questions, your Honor.

10 (To Jury) Am I coming through all right? Can you
11 hear me? Great.

12 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. THOMPSON:

14 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, you were asked a few questions by 15 Ms. Rogers about the qualifications for members of the audit
16 committee. Do you remember that?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And I believe you said that being a CPA or being a
19 lawyer, those would be good qualifications; is that right?

20 A Yes. Along with others, yes.

21 Q What are the other qualifications you would expect to 22 see in an audit committee member?

23 A I think I actually said some of them; things like
24 caring about compliance; you know, having an ability to not be a
25 wallflower; to -- to raise questions, raise red flags -- or ask

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

481

1 questions, raise red flags -- not be, you know, just kind of a
2 yes-man, so to speak.

3 Q And, Mr. Tenenbaum, do you recall, Ms. Rogers asked you
4 a series of hypothetical questions about a hypothetical board
5 member using some salty language? Do you remember that?

6 A I sure do.

7 Q All right. And, I believe, part of the hypothetical
8 was whether this poor-language-using board member raised some 9 concerns at a future date -- whether they could still be 10 stripped of their committee assignments. Do you recall that?

11 A I recall it, but --

12 MS. ROGERS: Objection; mischaracterizing --

13 THE COURT: I can't hear you. I'm sorry.

14 MS. ROGERS: Sorry.

15 Mischaracterizes the prior testimony.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 You mean, it's not the exact question that was 18 asked?

19 MS. ROGERS: Correct, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Well, the record will 21 ultimately show if it's exactly the same question.

22 Do you want to ask your question?

23 MR. THOMPSON: Yes. Thank you, your Honor.

24 BY MR. THOMPSON:

25 Q So let me step back, then: Let's take this

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

482

1 potty-mouthed board member and let's assume that the board
2 member later makes -- raised concerns about the finances of the
3 organization.

4 Would it cause you concern if that board member was 5 then subsequently stripped of their board committee assignments?

6 A So, yeah. I think, if I recall the prior question, and 7 it was a hypothetical that was basically just using the 8 potty-mouth words; you know, like, that alone, is that enough
9 to -- to be a whistleblower, or something like that. I honestly
10 don't recall the details. But, you know, if -- if the same
11 person who, you know, used some salty language then later, you
12 know, was a whistleblower raising certain concerns, does that 13 mean that that person's concern should not be dealt with and 14 investigated? Absolutely not.

15 Q And if this hypothetical board member was joined in 16 raising her concerns by other board members, would those other
17 board members be tainted by the conduct of this one board
18 member?

19 A Well, like I said, if a -- one -- board member or a
20 bunch of board members are blowing the whistle on certain
21 concerns, regardless of what -- whether, you know, the board
22 chair or whoever believes that their president were acting in 23 good faith or not, whether they believed that it -- this was 24 sparked or motivated by some salty language, frankly, it doesn't
25 matter. It's still -- would still need to be investigated.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

483

1 And then later, like I said -- I was asked some other
2 hypotheticals along those lines. Later, if it turns out that
3 the people that blew the whistle themselves engaged in some 4 problematic or bad activity or violated some rules, then they 5 should be dealt with.

6 But it doesn't mean -- you still have to investigate
7 the concerns that are raised at the outset, regardless of what 8 you think someone's motivation is.

9 Q And Ms. Rogers also asked you a hypothetical about the 10 president of the organization receiving a $980,000 contract. Do
11 you recall that?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And hypothetically, if the board were to ratify that 14 arrangement, what information would you expect them to have 15 before ratifying it?

16 A Well, first, I was unclear exactly what Ms. Rogers
17 meant by this. I didn't know if the -- if this was a volunteer
18 president or the -- or the executive vice president, paid CEO.
19 But I think she clarified that it was the -- kind of -- the 20 volunteer president. And I wasn't clear if it was, the 21 volunteer president is getting a contract to perform some 22 services for the organization or has, you know, a pot of money
23 that they can use to hire other vendors to perform services.
24 I -- I -- I honestly don't know. But here, maybe it doesn't
25 matter for purposes of your question.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

484

1 Either way, if the audit committee is later asked to
2 ratify that transaction, what I would expect, and just as New
3 York requires, is that --

4 THE COURT: We're not -- we're just talking about
5 your general experience.

6 A What I would expect is that the audit committee would
7 look and say: "Was it fair and reasonable and in the best
8 interests of the organization to enter into that? Does it put 9 the organization at risk for any violations of state or federal,
10 you know, nonprofit, corporate or federal tax law? Were there
11 other, better or less expensive alternatives or were 12 alternatives considered?" I would expect the audit committee to 13 document the basis for its decision, contemporaneously, through 14 meeting minutes. And then, finally, I would expect the audit
15 committee to ensure that new policies or procedures or practices
16 are put in place, moving forward, to be sure that that does not 17 happen again in the future.

18 Q And assuming that this $980,000 contract was in 19 writing, would you expect the audit committee look at the 20 contract before ratifying it?

21 A Absolutely.

22 Q And would you expect the audit committee to ratify the 23 contract if the board member refused to provide it?

24 A Absolutely not.

25 Q Several of the defendants asked you questions about

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

485

1 Schedule J of the 990. Do you recall those questions,
2 Mr. Tenenbaum?

3 A Generally, but you'll have to refresh my memory if you
4 want a specific ...

5 Q So, with respect to Schedule J, there's an item that
6 asks about first-class and charter travel; is that correct?

7 A Correct.

8 Q And it combines the two together; is that right?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And then it also asks whether or not any such travel
11 arrangements were pursuant to a written policy, right?

12 A Correct.

13 Q And you were shown an example regarding the PGA Tour.
14 Do you remember that?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And what kind of organization is the PGA Tour?

17 A They are a -- from what I generally know, and I
18 think -- actually, it's right here (indicating). Yeah, they're 19 a 501(c)(6), as I thought. They're a 501(c)(6) professional
20 association.

21 Q And you're referring to Wayne LaPierre Exhibit 221; is
22 that right?

23 A Correct.

24 Q All right.

25 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

486

1 Q And --

2 A And they're a Maryland nonprofit corporation, according
3 to that exhibit.

4 Q And I believe you --

5 MR. THOMPSON: Would it be possible to have the 6 exhibit brought back up? I don't think we have the 7 electronic version ourselves.

8 MR. PETERS: I would just object.

9 The point about the Maryland nonprofit versus the 10 New York nonprofit, those are -- that's a legal-conclusion
11 type of answer.

12 THE COURT: It's on the face of the exhibit, so ...

13 THE WITNESS: And I was just re --

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

15 THE WITNESS: You said, what type of organization
16 is it?

17 THE COURT: You might say it was not responsive to 18 any question, to which I would say, "Then it should be 19 stricken as not responsive. "

20 MR. PETERS: Objection, your Honor, as not
21 responsive.

22 THE COURT: Sustained.

23 MR. THOMPSON: And could we please go back to the 24 large box of text that was shown from Schedule J on page 39
25 of the exhibit?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

487

1 Thank you.

2 (Image displayed.)

3 BY MR. THOMPSON:

4 Q So, Mr. Tenenbaum, do you recall being asked a few
5 questions about -- it's at the bottom of page 39 of this
6 exhibit, the box of text.

7 A Yes.

8 Q And let's see ...

9 If I could please take you down --

10 So, in the next box of text, four lines down, towards 11 the end, where it reads, "first-class or charter travel is 12 in ..." Do you see that?

13 A You're talking about the box that's highlighted on the 14 screen (indicating)?

15 Q Yes, that's right.

16 A And --

17 Q So, four lines down, at the end of that line, it -- it
18 starts: "First-class and charter travel"?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Can you please read that for the jury?

21 A You're talking about the sentence that begins, "This 22 provision ..."?

23 Q Yes, that's right.

24 A "This provision of first-class or charter travel is in 25 accordance with written company policy and, when required" ([for

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

488

1 example], personal use), the appropriate value is calculated and
2 reported as taxable to each applicable recipient in accordance
3 with the applicable tax rules."

4 Q In your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, with respect to the
5 international NGOs that you've had experience with, is charter
6 travel governed by written policies, generally speaking?

7 A In my experience, yes.

8 Q Had you ever encountered charter travel at a nonprofit
9 that has not been governed by a written policy?

10 A Not that I'm aware.

11 Q And if a NR -- a nonprofit -- reports on its 990 that 12 it does have a written policy for charter travel, would you
13 expect it to have a policy -- a written policy -- for charter
14 travel?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay.

17 Do you recall, earlier, Mr. Tenenbaum, testifying about 18 the difference between a 501(c) -- a 501(c)(6) and a 501(c)(4)
19 organization?

20 A Yes.

21 Q What is that difference?

22 A So there's a lot of similarities, I would say. The 23 basic limitations, prohibitions, for the most part, are the same 24 between a -(c)(6) and a -(c)(4). Like, they can both engage in 25 unlimited lobbying; they can both engage in political campaign

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

489

1 activity, as long as it's not more than half of their activity.
2 But the -- probably, the biggest difference from a federal
3 tax-law perspective is that a -(c)(6) has to primarily support
4 and further and promote an industry or a profession --

5 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor.

6 I think we're getting into federal tax law here.

7 THE COURT: I think it's a question that came up
8 earlier, so it's fine.

9 A So the -- to repeat that last part:

10 A -(c)(6) organization has to primarily further the 11 interests of an industry or profession, whereas a -(c)(4) has to 12 have primarily a public benefit, as opposed to a private 13 benefit, and that's called a Private Benefit Doctrine. It only
14 applies to -(c)(3)s and -(c)(4)s, not to -(c)(6)s. So, to me,
15 I've always viewed that as the principal -- the biggest -- 16 distinction, from a federal tax law perspective, between the two 17 categories.

18 Q And do you recall being asked some questions by counsel
19 for Mr. LaPierre about the, sort of, membership marketing
20 organizations and the role they play as vendors?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And in your experience, Mr. Tenenbaum, do membership 23 marketing vendors generally provide for the confidentiality of 24 the donor names for nonprofits?

25 A Well, generally, if, say, a membership marketing vendor

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

490

1 is going out and soliciting and bringing in new members and
2 collecting, like, member -- you know -- names, addresses,
3 e-mails, things like that, absolutely. I would think that the 4 contract would have a provision that mandates confidentiality.
5 Same would go with donors, generally, like for a professional
6 fund-raiser.

7 Q Is that uncommon in the membership marketing industry,
8 in your experience?

9 A No. I would expect to see that in -- in every
10 contract.

11 Q And you were also asked a few questions, Mr. Tenenbaum,
12 about special litigation committees. Do you recall that?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And what are the situations in which an organization
15 might convene a special litigation committee, generally
16 speaking?

17 A Again, with the caveat that I'm not a litigator and I
18 don't advise my clients on their litigation strategy or anything
19 that -- like that, just from a general governance perspective,
20 when I've seen that -- and it's not the norm, but where I've 21 seen them is, you know, where a nonprofit organization engages 22 in substantial litigation. I've seen that from trade or 23 professional associations; I've seen it from -(c)(4)s, like the 24 NRA, that, you know, further a particular mission or cause and 25 that engage in active litigation in support of their mission.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Tenenbaum - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Thompson

491

1 It's not uncommon to have a special litigation
2 committee to advise the board and the staff and others on 3 litigation strategy, what cases are most important, most
4 impactful to the cause, the mission, the industry, etcetera.

5 Q Is a special litigation committee ever used where there
6 might be a conflict-of-interest situation?

7 A I've never heard of that, no.

8 MR. THOMPSON: No further questions, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Recross?

10 MS. ROGERS: Very short.

11 RE CROSS-EXAMINATION

12 BY MS. ROGERS:

13 Q So short that I'm not going to mess with this 14 microphone (indicating).

15 Mr. Tenenbaum, there's been a line -- a couple lines --
16 of the questioning about a president with a vendor contract.
17 They're a bit muddy, so just to tie that up:

18 In your expertise, based on your experience, in your
19 opinion, should the volunteer president of a nonprofit accept a
20 $980,000 employment agreement from a vendor of the nonprofit
21 without getting approval from the board?

22 A Well, if the board has delegated that responsibility
23 for vetting related-party transactions, which is what that would 24 be, then -- and certainly, a conflict-of-interest transaction,
25 either way, if the audit committee is charged with vetting that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 and managing it and deciding what is in the best interests of
2 the organization, then the audit committee should be charged
3 with evaluating that and weighing in and signing off on that in 4 advance, before it happens.

5 Q So, if that president didn't get advance approval from 6 the audit committee in the situation you described, he'd be
7 doing something wrong; right?

8 A I would say, yes, that would be problematic.

9 MS. ROGERS: Thank you.

10 Nothing further.

11 MR. CORRELL: One or two.

1 RE CROSS EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. CORRELL:

3 Q Mr. Tenenbaum, you said you would expect to see that --
4 you testified earlier that in sum and substance you would expect
5 to see that in a membership contract referring to a
6 confidentiality provision. Do you remember that testimony?

7 A Yeah. I said I would expect to see a strong
8 confidentiality provision in a contract between a nonprofit
9 organization and a membership marketing vendor that's going out
10 and soliciting new members and collecting their personal
11 information to provide to the nonprofit, yes.

12 Q Have you ever actually looked at a contract like that?

13 A Oh, sure.

14 Q Okay. And did you see a confidentiality provision in
15 it?

16 A Are you asking have I looked at these generally? I
17 probably reviewed hundreds of them. I'm not sure what you mean.

18 Q I'm asking if you've looked at hundreds of them, do you
19 recall seeing a confidentiality provision in all hundred of 20 them?

21 A I mean, I can't tell you for absolute certain, but I
22 cannot ever remember reviewing a contract with either a
23 membership marketing vendor or professional fundraiser, which is 24 a company that goes out and raise funds for an organization and 25 collect donor information that did not contain a confidentiality

Recross-Tenenbaum-Correll

494

1 provision. I can't say that it's -- there has never been one.
2 I'm just saying in my recollection that would really strike me
3 as unusual. If we were reviewing it as a firm, we would insist
4 on putting that provision in there.

5 Q In your long practice as a nonprofit advisor, have you
6 ever seen a party to a membership marketing contract violate the 7 confidentiality provision?

8 A It's really hard to say. And I don't always know about
9 it. You know, we worked on these contracts in the beginning,
10 negotiating them, drafting them.

11 THE COURT: Just a yes or no.

12 A We deal with breaches. I really can't say. It's not 13 coming to mind. I can't say it didn't happen.

14 Q In fact, a client would not necessarily know if a
15 confidentiality agreement was violated because they wouldn't 16 know where their membership information went?

17 A They wouldn't necessarily be aware of a breach,
18 correct. Certainly possible, yes.

19 Q Okay. That's why you trust people you've worked with 20 for years and who have provided good service for years rather 21 than trying to shop around for the cheapest service provider
22 sometimes, correct?

23 A I wouldn't quite agree in that verbiage. What I would 24 say is that when you have a trusted vendor who does great work
25 for you and delivers great results and you trust them, then of

Recross-Tenenbaum-Correll

495

1 course there is going to an incentive to want to continue to
2 work with them. But if you're asking does that alone justify a
3 sole source, you know, none RFP exception to a procurement
4 policy, I would not agree with that.

5 Q But you agree that institutional knowledge is important
6 in a relationship, correct?

7 A Yes. Absolutely.

8 Q Because people learn, they come to understand your 9 mission, correct?

10 A Yes.

11 Q They come to respect your mission, correct?

12 A Correct.

13 Q You don't want to go out and hire a mercenary who 14 doesn't care about your mission but is lowballing the person who 15 has served you well for years, correct?

16 A I would say all of those goals, desires are important
17 ones. But they don't justify sole source exceptions or non RFP
18 exceptions to a procurement policy. That's all.

19 Q Do you think in personal relationships people should 20 shop around occasionally to see if they could get a better deal?

21 A I mean, I see it happen all the time. All my auditor
22 friends hate it, because every three or five years and then the 23 organization has to do a new RFP. For auditors, they sometimes
24 end up with the same auditor. Even though they have very close
25 relationships with board members and the CFO and CEO, that's

Recross-Tenenbaum-Correll

496

1 just the way that procurement policies work.

2 Q Do you have any clients who have been with you for
3 20 years?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. And do they shop you around? Do they shop
6 services around?

7 A I will say that legal services tend to be one of those
8 areas that doesn't -- is not subject to RFPs in the same area,
9 in the same degree, but for those organizations that have 10 procurement policies that require that and have been part of 11 that, they do have to do an RFP, and a lot of times they come
12 back and hire me or us again and sometimes they don't. But 13 generally speaking legal services, and I've had these 14 conversations with auditor friends over the years, tend to not 15 be as subject to that as other types of vendors.

16 Q Thank you, Mr. Tenenbaum.

17 THE COURT: Anything further?

18 MR. THOMPSON: No, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You're free to go.

20 (Witness excused.)

21 THE COURT: Can you stay with us another half hour
22 or do we need -- You need a break. Okay. We need a break.
23 It's fair.

24 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

25 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

PROCEEDINGS

497

1 THE COURT: Okay. Just before we take our break I
2 received an inquiry through our public information office
3 what seems to be a request from a member of the press as to 4 whether we would post the admitted exhibits on NYSCEF. And,
5 you know, my view is that once a document is admitted as an
6 exhibit in a public trial, it is available. So, I would be
7 fine with that, using NYSCEF as the mechanism to do it. You
8 know, again at this point we're not into the thousands of 9 exhibits, but I'll just put that request out there and let 10 you all think about it. But from my perspective, in terms
11 of public access, it seems a reasonable request to me.

12 All right. I'll talk to you in about five minutes.

13 (Whereupon a recess was taken.)

14 THE COURT: While we're waiting for the jury, I was 15 reminded in terms of the Stipulation of Settlement, because 16 it doesn't involve all parties, it probably does require
17 Court signoff. So, we'll talk about it in the morning.

18 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, is the jury coming in?

19 THE COURT: They are. I mean, I don't know where 20 they are.

21 MR. FLEMING: Exhibit 4 for Mr. Erstling appears to 22 be an inadvertently disclosed attorney/client communication.

23 THE COURT: An inadvertently what?

24 MR. FLEMING: Disclosed attorney/client
25 communication. It's Exhibit 421, PX 421. It might be

PROCEEDINGS

498

1 fixable by literally just removing the first page, but I
2 just noticed it.

3 THE COURT: You're going to get to that in the 4 first --

5 MR. THOMPSON: It is one of the sooner exhibits,
6 your Honor. We're going to be walking through the policies.

7 THE COURT: Well --

8 MR. THOMPSON: We're happy to remove the top page.

9 THE COURT: You can show the rest of it and then we 10 can modify the exhibit to just not include the cover e-mail.

11 MR. THOMPSON: That's fine with plaintiff, your
12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: Does that work?

14 MR. FLEMING: It works. So the jury won't see it,
15 right?

16 MR. THOMPSON: Yes. We'll do that.

17 MR. FLEMING: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So you are all able to negotiate
19 out of disputes every once in a while, so I appreciate that.
20 On that exhibit issue that I mentioned, I'm told in this 21 request that that was the procedure that was used in the 22 recent Attorney General action that was held in this 23 courtroom. So that's what lead the person to ask if we 24 could follow the same protocol in this case.

25 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

PROCEEDINGS

1 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

2 THE COURT: Have a seat. Taking a break was a good
3 idea. We all needed a break.

4 Plaintiff, do you have your next witness ready?

5 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor. Plaintiff calls
6 Michael Erstling to the stand.

7 THE COURT: Okay. If you can please get the
8 witness.

9 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entered.

10 THE COURT: Good afternoon. Please remain standing
11 and the clerk will swear you in.

12 THE COURT CLERK: Raise your right hand.

13 M I C H A E L J. E R S T L I N G, after having been duly
14 sworn by the court clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

15 THE COURT CLERK: State your name.

16 THE WITNESS: Michael J. Erstling.

17 THE COURT CLERK: Spell your last name.

18 THE WITNESS: E-R-S-T-L-I-N-G.

19 THE COURT CLERK: Business address.

20 THE WITNESS: 11250 Waples Mill Road, Fairfax,
21 Virginia, 22030.

22 THE COURT CLERK: Thank you. You may be seated.

23 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir.

24 DIRECT EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. THOMPSON:

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

500

1 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Erstling. My name is Stephen
2 Thompson. I am an attorney with the plaintiff.

3 Mr. Erstling, prior to 2021 you were the NRA's director
4 of budget and financial analysis, is that correct?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And currently you are the director of finance, is that
7 correct?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q Do you have any additional titles other than that?

10 A No, sir.

11 Q And you are a certified public accountant, is that
12 right, Mr. Erstling?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q In your role as director of budget and financial 15 analysis your supervisor for a number of years was Rick Tedrick,
16 is that right?

17 A That is correct.

18 Q And Mr. Tedrick reported to Mr. Phillips when he was 19 the treasurer of the NRA, is that right?

20 A That is also correct.

21 Q And currently in your current position as director of 22 finance you report directly to the treasurer, Ms. Rowling, is
23 that correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And that's Sonya Rowling, who is the current treasurer?

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

501

1 A That's correct.

2 MR. THOMPSON: Could we please bring up PX 3341 for
3 identification.

4 Q Mr. Erstling, in your binder that is tab 27. It will
5 also be on the screen in front of you, whichever is easier for 6 you. I'm sorry. Let's just look at the binder first so we 7 don't have to turn the screens off.

8 THE COURT: What tab is it?

9 MR. THOMPSON: Twenty-seven, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Why do they never start with tab one?
11 Never has it ever happened.

12 Q Do you have the document in front of you, Mr. Erstling?

13 A I do.

14 Q Do you recognize this to be the NRA's organizational 15 chart as of 2018?

16 A It appears, yes.

17 MR. THOMPSON: We would like to move for Exhibit PX
18 3341 into evidence, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Any objection?

20 MR. PETERS: No objection.

21 THE COURT: Any objection from anyone?

22 MR. PETERS: No objection.

23 THE COURT: It's admitted.

24 Q So, Mr. Erstling, are you generally familiar with how 25 the NRA is structured in terms of its divisions?

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

502

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q And looking at the top of Exhibit 3341, the NRA is
3 governed by a 76 member board of directors, is that correct?

4 A That is correct.

5 Q And then there are three officers of the NRA who are 6 elected from among the members of the board of directors, is
7 that correct?

8 A I believe that is correct.

9 Q And that includes the president, yes?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And for a period of time the NRA's president was 12 Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North, is that right?

13 A That is collect.

14 Q Currently the president is Charles Cotton, is that
15 correct?

16 A That is correct.

17 Q And then there is also a first and a second vice 18 president, is that correct?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And so in 2018 the first and second vice president
21 respectively were Mr. Childress and Ms. Meadows, is that
22 correct?

23 A Yes. According to this, this timeframe, yes.

24 Q And then there are, according to the bylaws of the NRA,
25 there are three salaried officer positions, is that correct?

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

503

1 A Yes. That's correct.

2 Q And so that includes the executive vice president, is
3 that correct?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q Which is effectively the CEO of the NRA, is that fair
6 to say?

7 A That's fair to say, yes.

8 Q Currently that is Mr. LaPierre, is that right?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q And then at the end of the month it will be Mr.
11 Arulanandam, is that correct?

12 A Yes, that is correct.

13 Q And one of the other salaried officer positions at the 14 NRA is the treasurer, is that correct?

15 A That is correct.

16 Q So, in 2018 or well Mr. Phillips was the treasurer of 17 the NRA for at least part of 2018, is that correct?

18 A That is correct.

19 Q And then he was replaced subsequently by Mr. Spray, is
20 that right?

21 A That is correct.

22 Q And then the other salaried officer position at the NRA
23 is the secretary, is that correct?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And currently that is Mr. Frazer, is that right?

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

504

1 A That is correct.

2 Q And Mr. Frazer has been the secretary since
3 approximately 2015, is that right?

4 A I can't give you a specific date, but it's been a
5 while.

6 Q Okay. In 2018 Mr. Frazer was the secretary, is that
7 correct?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Okay. So, the treasurer of the NRA is the top finance
10 officer for the NRA, is that correct?

11 A I would agree with that.

12 Q And often times but not always the treasurer also holds
13 the role of chief financial officer, is that right?

14 A That is correct.

15 Q Okay. So those are two distinct positions within the 16 NRA, is that correct?

17 A That is correct.

18 Q And Ms. Rowling at the moment is both the chief
19 financial officer or CFO as well as the treasurer, is that
20 right?

21 A That is correct.

22 Q Mr. Phillips, for the time that he was -- for most of 23 the time he was at the NRA was also the treasurer and CFO, is
24 that right?

25 A That is correct.

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

505

1 Q And same thing for Mr. Spray?

2 A Mr. Spray came in as, I believe, CFO and he took over
3 the treasurer role as well a short while later.

4 Q And then the NRA has a number of other executives who
5 are not officers under the bylaws, is that correct?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. So that includes, if we look at the 8 Exhibit 3341, if you look at the left-hand most side there is 9 publications. That's one of the divisions of the NRA, right?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q And there is an executive director of publications who 12 is a not a bylaws officer of the organization, is that right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q But is still a senior executive of the NRA, is that
15 correct?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q And the executive director level positions, those 18 report to the executive vice president, is that right?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And in addition to Publications there is also the 21 Institute for Legislative Action, is that correct?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q Often called ILA or ILA?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And that's the chief lobbying division for the NRA, is

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

506

1 that fair to say?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And then there is also General Operations, is that
4 right?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And the -- What occurs in the general operations
7 department?

8 A For the most part it's our C3 programs. That's going
9 to be your gun safe program. It's going to be education and 10 training. It's going to be law enforcement training. It's 11 going to include our museum and also include for a small section
12 our adman services, which covers the building, the cafe at one 13 time, the range downstairs in the building. Those would be 14 included in that as well.

15 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, do you mind if I ask the 16 jury if they are able to hear Mr. Erstling all right?

17 THE JUROR: Barely.

18 THE COURT: Maybe if you could move closer.

19 MR. PETERS: May I ask that his answer be read back
20 again, because people had trouble hearing it.

21 THE COURT: Lori, do you want to read the last
22 answer back.

23 (Whereupon the above-requested testimony was read
24 back.)

25 Q And under the bylaws of the NRA, Mr. Erstling, the

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

507

1 executive director of general operations is next in line to the
2 executive vice president position, is that correct?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q So if something were to happen to the executive vice
5 president, the executive director of general operations would
6 then step up to take that position, is that right?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q And that would be until there is a new election by the 9 board for the position, is that right?

10 A I believe that's correct.

11 Q Okay. And until December of last -- Withdrawn. Until 12 late last year Joe DeBergalis was the executive director of 13 general operations, is that correct?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And Mr. DeBergalis is no longer with the NRA, is that
16 right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And in his stead is Mr. Andrew Arulanandam, is that
19 right?

20 A That is correct.

21 Q So, prior to becoming the executive director of general
22 operations, what was Mr. Arulanandam's position in the NRA to
23 the best of your knowledge?

24 A He was the managing director of public affairs.

25 Q And is it fair to say that public affairs is the public

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

508

1 relations part of the NRA?

2 A I -- I don't if I would call it total public relations,
3 'cause I have a different understanding of public relations.
4 But yes, he's -- he's the speaker for the association
5 externally.

6 Q Okay. And so is Mr. Arulanandam now serving both the 7 role of director of public affairs as well as the executive
8 director of general operations?

9 A I -- I don't know what his responsibilities are as far
10 as public affairs. I do know he has taken over for general
11 operations. So, I just don't know the answer to what his 12 additional responsibilities are.

13 Q Okay. And just to close a loop on a few of the other 14 divisions. There is also the membership division, is that
15 right?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q And membership is the division responsible for 18 communicating with and also fundraising from and recruiting new 19 members for the NRA, is that fair?

20 A More -- more acquisition, renewal, fundraising. There
21 is a small component of communication, but that's usually 22 handled by the publications, because they are communicating with 23 our members on a monthly basis.

24 Q Okay. And until -- Well, withdrawn. Todd Grable was 25 formerly the executive director of membership, is that correct?

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

509

1 A That's correct.

2 Q And do you know approximately when he left the NRA?

3 A I cannot give you a date.

4 Q And who is the current executive director of 5 membership?

6 A Derek Robinson.

7 Q Mr. Robinson used to be one of the people who reported
8 to Mr. Grable, is that correct?

9 A That is correct.

10 Q And then last but not least there is also the division
11 of advancement, is that correct?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q And advancement is responsible for donor cultivation
14 and high dollar donor -- Withdrawn. Advancement is responsible 15 for high value dollar donor cultivation, is that correct?

16 A As one of their sections, correct.

17 Q What else are they responsible for?

18 A In the Office of Advancement is our field operations
19 division. So, we have roughly 50 field representatives that are 20 out in each state, and they help committees in each state do
21 fundraising dinners.

22 Q Those are The Friends of the NRA events, is that right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q Sometimes called FONRA?

25 A That is also correct.

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

510

1 Q And, all right. Turning then to the Department of the
2 Treasurer. Underneath the Department of the Treasurer there is
3 the financial services division, is that correct?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q And that's where you sit, is that right, Mr. Erstling?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q And until Ms. Rowling became the current treasurer of 8 the NRA, that is also where she sat, is that right?

9 A That is also correct.

10 Q Mr. Tedrick, Rick Tedrick, he is the former head of 11 financial services division, is that correct?

12 A No, that's incorrect. So, he was always within the 13 treasurer's office. We, from financial services, reported up to 14 him though.

15 Q And within financial services there were different
16 departments as well, is that right?

17 A Yeah. There was accounting operations, which was 18 Sonya's sort of realm, and there was budgeting and financial 19 analysis which was my side of the organization.

20 Q Any other sort of divisions within financial services?

21 A Just underneath those -- those areas.

22 Q Okay. So, budgeting and financial analysis on the one
23 hand and accounts payable and accounting on the other hand
24 generally speaking?

25 A Accounts payable is a part of accounting operations,

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

511

1 yes.

2 Q And Ms. Rowling was on the accounting operations side
3 before she became the treasurer, is that correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q I believe you said that both you and Ms. Rowling used
6 to report to Mr. Tedrick, who himself sat in the treasurer's
7 department, is that right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And that reporting structure has changed, is that
10 correct?

11 A It has.

12 Q So you -- Is it fair to say that your current role is a
13 combination of your previous role, doing budgeting and financial 14 analysis, as well as Ms. Rowling's role on the accounting
15 operations side?

16 A That is correct.

17 Q You now report directly to the treasurer rather than to 18 Mr. Tedrick, is that right?

19 A That is correct.

20 Q Mr. Erstling, the NRA has a policy governing approvals
21 for contracts, is that correct?

22 A That is correct.

23 Q And are you familiar with that policy?

24 A I am.

25 MR. THOMPSON: If we could please mark Plaintiff's

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

512

1 Exhibit 421 for introduction.

2 Q This is tab one of your binder, Mr. Erstling.

3 THE COURT: It's marked already.

4 MR. THOMPSON: I'm sorry. To introduce it for
5 identification.

6 THE COURT: Was that tab one, did you say?

7 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Finally.

9 MR. THOMPSON: Second one, your Honor.

10 Q Do you have the document, Mr. Erstling?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Do you recognize this to be the NRA's policy manual as 13 of March of 2020?

14 A (Examining). I recognize it as a policy manual, but 15 this is not one that I would have used.

16 Q What is the document that you typically would have 17 used?

18 A There is the employee handbook and there is an 19 accounting operations policies. So, we would take pieces of 20 this that are specific to accounting operations and put it in 21 our own manual. This includes a significant amount of detail
22 that may not be relevant to the financial services division.

23 Q All right. Maybe we can try and pinpoint a little bit
24 more. So, using the page numbers at the bottom of the exhibit
25 it should say one out of however many. Can you please turn to

513

1 page 101.

2 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
3 request of counsel.)

4 Q And my question, Mr. Erstling, is just if you recognize
5 the policy towards the bottom of that page to be the NRA's
6 current purchasing policy?

7 MR. PETERS: Can you remind me of the page number
8 you're on right now?

9 MR. THOMPSON: Page 101, using the bottom most page
10 numbers.

11 THE COURT: Do you have the question in mind?

12 Q Sorry. The question is, do you recognize the policy
13 starting on page 101 of this exhibit to be the 2006 procurement
14 policy?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q And is this the policy that's currently in effect at
17 the NRA?

18 A I believe the policy has been updated.

19 Q But do you recognize this to be the policy that was in 20 effect in 2020?

21 A I believe so. Yes.

22 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, I would like to offer
23 the policy manual into evidence.

24 MR. WERBNER: No objection.

25 THE COURT: Okay. It might be faster going forward

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

514

1 if there are some exhibits that you see in advance there is
2 no issue on, we could skip through the foundation thing. A
3 minute here, minute there. We're talking realtime.

4 MR. THOMPSON: Sure, your Honor.

5 Q So, Mr. Erstling, if I could take you to the next page.
6 This is page 102 using the exhibit page numbers. Under the 7 headline "Standards of Conduct and Ethical Guidelines", do you
8 see that?

9 A (Examining). Yes, sir.

10 Q These are the standards of conduct and ethical 11 guidelines that the NRA requires of all employees, officers and 12 members of the board of directors, is that correct?

13 A That is correct.

14 Q Okay. And it requires, for example, if you look at 15 point two, "Ethical business standards shall govern procurement
16 transactions, independence of judgment from vendors,
17 contractors, suppliers and others must be maintained", correct?

18 A That is correct.

19 Q And the next point number three, "Significant gifts
20 including but not limited to any item, service, favor, monies,
21 credits or discounts not available to others may not be part of 22 any purchasing decision or appear to influence any such 23 decision." Is that right?

24 A That is correct.

25 Q And this policy has been in effect since 2006, is that

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

515

1 correct?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And has it materially changed in that time to the best
4 of your knowledge?

5 A To the best of my knowledge it has not changed
6 materially.

7 Q Okay. This policy, the purchasing policy does not
8 permit verbal contracts, is that correct?

9 A I -- I don't know if that's in the policy. I'm sorry.

10 Q Does the NRA have a policy concerning verbal as opposed
11 to written contracts?

12 A Is there anything that you can show me in the document?

13 Q So let me withdraw it and ask it a different way. In 14 your opinion, Mr. Erstling, would a verbal contract violate any 15 of the NRA's policies?

16 A Not necessarily.

17 MR. THOMPSON: Can we please bring up Mr.
18 Erstling's litigation deposition at page 403.

19 MR. WERBNER: Your Honor, I'm going to object to 20 bringing up the deposition testimony. It's not proper
21 impeachment and it's hearsay.

22 THE COURT: Prior testimony can't be used to 23 impeach an answer?

24 MR. WERBNER: It can be used to refresh his 25 recollection but not to bring it up on the screen, the whole

516

1 page of his testimony.

2 THE COURT: He can be shown his prior testimony and
3 asked -- No. The question is whether it's going to be shown
4 on the screen or not.

5 MR. WERBNER: Right.

6 THE COURT: Right. You can ask him to review it
7 and go through the questions and answers that were given,
8 but first of all it is also separately admissible as a
9 statement by party employees. So, actually if it's -- Well,
10 you can use it. Whatever is the easiest way to do it. I
11 can see why people typically give it to the witness to read,
12 but since it's testimony of a party, I don't really have a
13 problem with you doing it either way.

14 MR. THOMPSON: Is it all right if we show it on the 15 screen, your Honor?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MR. THOMPSON: All right. Thank you.

18 Q So, Mr. Erstling, you were deposed in connection with 19 this litigation, is that right?

20 A That is correct.

21 Q And you gave truthful testimony at that deposition?

22 A I did.

23 Q And so do you recall the questions and answers that you
24 see on the screen from your deposition?

25 "QUESTION: Does the NRA have a policy regarding

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

517

1 verbal as opposed to written contracts?

2 "ANSWER: When I read the policy I don't -- I don't
3 see an option for a verbal contract."

4 Do you see that?

5 A I do.

6 Q Was that testimony truthful at the time you gave it?

7 A It is truthful.

8 Q Okay. Verbal contracts are not best practices, would 9 you agree with me, Mr. Erstling?

10 MR. PETERS: Objection. Leading.

11 THE COURT: He's an employee of the defendant.

12 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 A Can you ask the question again, please.

15 Q Yes. Verbal contracts are not best practices, is that
16 right, Mr. Erstling?

17 A I would agree with that.

18 Q Looking at Exhibit 421, if you could please turn to 19 page 105. Looking under the section that starts "Competitive
20 bidding". Do you see that, Mr. Erstling?

21 A (Examining). Yes, sir.

22 Q "The NRA requires competitive bidding on goods or 23 services valued at or above $5,000", is that correct?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And if you could please turn to the next page. "A

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

518

1 request for proposal is required for all purchases equal to or
2 above $100,000", is that correct?

3 A That is correct.

4 Q And what is a request for proposal, Mr. Erstling?

5 A A request for proposal is a request to use funds of the 6 association.

7 MR. PETERS: I want to back up and object to 8 something before. I think we jumped to the second paragraph 9 without reading the first paragraph, which is "The NRA will 10 make every effort" --

11 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, objection.

12 THE COURT: Counsel, you can cover this on cross if 13 you want to add anything.

14 Q Now, Mr. Erstling, the policy does allow for certain 15 exceptions to the request for proposal process, is that correct?

16 A That is correct.

17 Q Those are listed under the heading labeled "Exceptions"
18 on page 106, is that right?

19 A Can you show me, please.

20 Q So page 106, bolded word "Exceptions". Do you see
21 that?

22 A Yes, sir. Now I do.

23 Q So this lists the exceptions to the requests for 24 proposal process, is that correct?

25 A Yes, sir.

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

519

1 Q And so it includes exceptions for legal counsel
2 services, is that right?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q And political strategy?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: We're just about at the end of our day.
7 If you can wind up and we'll continue in the morning.

8 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

9 Q Public relations is another exception?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q Membership?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q Fundraising and marketing?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 MR. THOMPSON: We can stop there, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: So we're going to stop for the day.
17 We'll reconvene at 9:30 in the morning. Just to advise the 18 witness, during the break you're essentially still on the 19 stand, so you shouldn't discuss your testimony with anyone
20 really, but including counsel for either side while you're 21 still testifying, okay.

22 THE WITNESS: All right.

23 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. See you tomorrow
24 morning everyone, 9:30.

25 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

1 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

2 (Witness excused.)

3 THE COURT: Okay. I hope not to see or hear from 4 you before 9:30. Remember tomorrow we're down in 208 and
5 the overflow room -- Officer, is the overflow room 412
6 tomorrow?

7 THE COURT OFFICER: Yes.

8 THE COURT: We're in the smaller courtroom. The 9 overflow room will be 412. I'm not sure why it's a
10 different room. That's above my decisionmaking authority
11 apparently. So, I'll see you then.

12 (Whereupon the trial was adjourned to January 11,
13 2024 at 9:30 a.m.)

Proceedings

1 THE COURT: All right, good morning.

2 So the issue that I flagged for this morning to
3 talk about was the Powell settlement, and I received a
4 letter this morning. I cleverly waited till the next day to 5 send it, so, thank you for that, but -- so I've reviewed
6 that.

7 Does the Government want to start?

8 There's, kind of, one provision I just want to ask
9 about, that they focus on, the provision in paragraph 10
10 that Powell "shall not take any action or make any statement
11 denying, directly or indirectly, the propriety of this 12 stipulation or expressing any view that the action is 13 without a factual basis." I just want to understand what 14 the breadth of that is.

15 I mean, obviously, nothing can overcome somebody's
16 oath.

17 MS. CONNELL: That's absolutely right, your Honor;
18 nothing can overcome somebody's oath.

19 The idea was that in -- typically, when charitable
20 officials or nonprofit officials settle with the Attorney
21 General's office, we do ask, and require, that they make 22 admissions of wrongdoing, which this contains.

23 So that's really talking about, you can't say,
24 "Well, I just signed that and I didn't" --

25 THE COURT: Well, the admissions -- I get that.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

524

1 MS. CONNELL: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: And so, expressing any view that the
3 action as against Mr. Powell is without merit --

4 MS. CONNELL: Yeah.

5 THE COURT: -- I understand that.

6 But the way it's written could be read --

7 MS. CONNELL: Yeah.

8 THE COURT: -- to say that he can't express any 9 view that the action against others is without merit, so
10 I'm -- that's what, obviously, the defendants are more
11 concerned about.

12 MS. CONNELL: Right.

13 Your Honor, I -- and I apologize not to have case
14 law ready for you, since I only just got this late last 15 night/early this morning. But there's a severability clause
16 in the agreement, I recall, and if that sentence is the 17 problem, we can just take that sentence out.

18 THE COURT: Yeah.

19 Well, I think, what I would say is that --

20 MS. CONNELL: Right. Just as to --

21 THE COURT: -- I would have to interpret that --

22 MS. CONNELL: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: -- in context as -- you know, if he's 24 asked questions about other defendants --

25 MS. CONNELL: Yeah.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

525

1 THE COURT: -- this settlement, in my judgment,
2 would not bind him to take any position other than whatever
3 he wants to say about the claims against others.

4 MS. CONNELL: Absolutely, your Honor.

5 A provision of the settlement is that he come to 6 court and offer truthful testimony. That's it. That's 7 the --

8 THE COURT: So what you're saying is that the 9 intention -- the reference to the "action" in paragraph 10
10 is intended to be limited solely to the action as against 11 Mr. Powell?

12 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

13 And if we can amend that language to make it
14 clearer, that's fine with us.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Then let me -- with that, let
16 me --

17 I guess, Ms. Rogers, it was your letter.

18 It seems to me that, putting that issue aside, all
19 the rest of this is cross-examination, typical things that 20 you can do with somebody who has settled and agreed to come
21 to court to testify. I had a similar issue, as you flagged
22 in here (indicating), that, you know, somebody can agree not
23 to contest the charges against themselves -- and, frankly,
24 you have stood up in court and said not entirely flattering
25 things about Mr. Powell's conduct --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

526

1 MS. ROGERS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: -- either.

3 So why don't you just briefly summarize what you
4 think should happen, given this clarification that we just 5 had.

6 MS. ROGERS: Certainly, your Honor.

7 So that clarification does, I think, address the 8 most acute concern with the language of the settlement
9 agreement. But, given that this is an eleventh-hour, sudden
10 reversal of the testimony of a very key witness and given 11 that Mr. Powell's not scheduled to go on for a couple of 12 weeks, we also think a tailored deposition is appropriate
13 and can be accomplished.

14 THE COURT: Well, there's been new developments
15 with respect to a number of folks. Are you suggesting that,
16 you know, there should also be depositions of Mr. LaPierre,
17 Mr. Phillips? Because some things have changed, especially 18 with Mr. LaPierre.

19 MS. ROGERS: Well, some things have changed, your 20 Honor, but Mr. LaPierre has not suddenly gone on record and 21 endorsed statements that he previously denied, specifically
22 and unequivocally, under oath. This is a bit more of a
23 sudden reversal and in this analysis, how prejudicial is it,
24 how sudden is it, it's kind of a graduated analysis.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. The reason I don't find that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

527

1 terribly persuasive is, you know, it's not as if your
2 defense is predicated on Mr. Powell's conduct being
3 legitimate.

4 MS. ROGERS: It's not. But there are certain
5 allegations he previously denied that, at least, plaintiff
6 will allege indicate improper administration on the part of
7 the NRA.

8 So, for example, this McKenna transaction is one
9 fact pattern that we did expect Mr. Powell to defend on the 10 stand, and the NRA is aligned with him on some of those 11 granular factual contentions, and we don't know where he 12 stands on them now; presumably, not where he stood when he
13 testified under oath several times before.

14 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor --

15 THE COURT: Well, but you have that prior testimony
16 to impeach whatever he does say here.

17 So, I mean, it is -- it would be unusual to do this 18 kind of discovery now. And I recognize, you have to be 19 flexible as things happen, but it's not as if you don't have 20 him on the record if you need to cross-examine him.

21 MS. ROGERS: Correct, your Honor.

22 What we don't have is notice as to, specifically,
23 what granular factual sections he's reversing him himself
24 on. We're, presumably, going to find that out on the 25 witness stand in -- from a very significant witness in our

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

528

1 trial.

2 So we have Fridays; we have weekends. We could
3 take two hours. It would be a tailored deposition, which we 4 offered Ms. Connell. We offered a couple of those. We
5 offered a tailored deposition of Ms. Rowling, of 6 Mr. Mensinger. So we've been amenable to some of that 7 last-minute discovery where there are significant new 8 developments and this is a significant new development.

9 THE COURT: Well, okay.

10 Let me hear from the AG.

11 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, Mr. Powell was accused by 12 the NRA of taking approximately $56,000 in excess benefits.
13 Mr. Powell proffered to the NRA -- he testified to all of 14 this; he disputed some of those charges. I think he 15 proffered something like $45,000. He testified at length;
16 he was cross-examined by the NRA. He testified about the 17 McKenna transaction, and he's not going to, to my belief,
18 say that he lied or say that his view of that transaction is 19 different than what he testified to. There's no reason to 20 believe that.

21 An eleventh-hour settlement is, sort of, dramatic.
22 I think. As your Honor probably has experienced, in civil 23 matters, defendants frequently settle the claims as they 24 head into trial. There's nothing to see here. If 25 Mr. Powell contradicts his prior testimony, then they can

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

529

1 certainly cross-examine him on the truth of that. They had
2 a full and fair opportunity to question him previously.

3 And in regard to the comparison, your Honor, even 4 as of last night or this morning, we're getting new
5 productions from defendants. We got a new expert report,
6 dated December 4th, from one of the experts in this case.

7 Mr. Mensinger, who Ms. Rogers mentioned, is a new
8 compliance officer who apparently was -- I don't know --
9 selected or hired in September 2023. I don't even know if 10 he started yet. We don't even have document discovery. We 11 have a few documents about him.

12 If we're reopening discovery about recent events,
13 then I think it's going to weigh heavily in favor of the 14 plaintiffs [sic] here. As you know, we have gotten charts
15 of recent repayments by Mr. LaPierre, and memos from 16 Ms. Rowling that appear to bless his repayments, for suits,
17 for travel, for other things we don't even know. If we're
18 going to talk about having fair discovery of recent events
19 and bringing this case up to the present moment, then it is 20 absolutely prejudicial to make it one-sided and offering us,
21 on the eve of trial, "Oh, you can have a tailored 22 deposition" of someone who shouldn't be testifying, is not
23 fair.

24 But, for Mr. Powell, they had that opportunity to 25 depose him. He has not worked at the NRA since January of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

530

1 2020. He was suspended before that; I think he was
2 suspended in September 2019.

3 So the record is what the record is, and I think,
4 your Honor, that this application should be denied.

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 Look, I'm going to take all of these requests for,
7 you know, horseback discovery during trial one by one, so
8 it's not going to be whataboutism just for that sake.

9 I don't think additional discovery is warranted
10 with respect to Mr. Powell, on this record.

11 I see somebody standing that I haven't heard from,
12 so let me ask you for your views before I finish.

13 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

14 Mr. LaPierre's name was mentioned. I just wanted
15 to say that your Honor should not use -- Mr. LaPierre's
16 prepared to submit to tailored discovery to address any 17 issues the attorney general feels she has.

18 Also, the expert report she referred to, she made
19 it sound like it was some big expert report. I think it was 20 one page or two, something that could be dealt with in 15
21 minutes in a deposition. So we're happy to do that, and I
22 wouldn't want the Court to keep that idea -- to take that as 23 a reason for denying the NRA the relief it's seeking.

24 THE COURT: Yeah, that's not the rationale.

25 I'm going to take each one of these on their own

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

531

1 merits.

2 This kind of thing happens, and I think he's been
3 subject to discovery on his prior statements. And, you
4 know, witnesses sometimes testify and change when they're on 5 the stand. That's -- I think you've had the discovery that 6 the rules permit to prepare you for that.

7 Further, just to address one other thing that is
8 somewhat in the letter: I don't think that this settlement
9 prejudices the NRA's ability, to the extent that the statute
10 of limitations hasn't run, at least to pursue whatever
11 remedies it wants as to anyone.

12 You know, there are ways that the attorney general
13 can bring a derivative action on behalf of the NRA. That's 14 not what they did here.

15 So I don't think that the release that's in this 16 settlement -- to my reading, it doesn't bind the NRA, and 17 therefore -- so I don't think it prejudices the NRA's rights
18 to recover if it thinks that this is insufficient.

19 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, would the Court --

20 Sorry. I'm too close to the microphone.

21 THE COURT: You got to find the goldilocks spot,
22 right?

23 MS. ROGERS: I'm working on it. Every day, I'm in 24 a new room with a new microphone, so --

25 THE COURT: You're good.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

532

1 MS. ROGERS: Would your Honor consider granting the
2 NRA leave to a sort of cross-claim in this action against
3 Mr. Powell, subject to statute of limitations and any other
4 defenses he might have?

5 THE COURT: To the extent that that's --

6 Based on just the request that you made, no. You
7 know, you can submit whatever you want. I -- this -- it's 8 too late and prejudicial to add a claim, in my view, that 9 could have been added whenever you wanted to, and so my 10 reaction to that, just off the cuff, is no. One thing that 11 we're not bereft of is enough claims to keep us busy.

12 But if you want to pursue that claim, preferably
13 somewhere else --

14 (Laughter.)

15 MS. ROGERS: We understand, your Honor. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: -- that's fine.

17 All right. And then, on the -- the last thing that 18 I had mentioned the night before: I, having thought about
19 it, think that the protocol that was used in the AG action
20 pending upstairs with respect to evidence that comes in --
21 both sides have made the point that this case involves a
22 fairly significant amount of public interest, and so it
23 seems to me that it would be consistent with the general
24 public's right to be informed as to public court proceedings
25 that the same protocol be followed here with respect to

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

533

1 putting admitted evidence on the record [sic]. I'm going to
2 leave it to -- I think the attorney general probably has
3 experience with however it worked in the other trial.

4 I would be, certainly, open to individual requests.
5 For example, we redacted cell phone numbers, and if things
6 like that might require redaction, you know, I don't think
7 that being a witness here or being involved in discovery
8 necessarily means that we have to gratuitously broadcast
9 someone's cell phone or other kinds of personal information.

10 So, if it's ancillary and not relevant to really
11 understanding the case, I'll be open to a limited kind of 12 personal redaction along those lines, but otherwise, I think
13 that we should follow that approach.

14 Is that --

15 Yes, sir?

16 MS. CONNELL: Acceptable to the plaintiff.

17 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, Kent Correll, for Wayne
18 LaPierre.

19 Would that apply also to healthcare information?

20 THE COURT: I'll look at each one separately, but 21 it might. I mean, it -- the relevance to the substance of 22 the case -- is a relevant consideration; in some of the 23 sealing opinions, that is taken into account.

24 So, you know, understanding somebody's cell phone
25 has literally nothing to do with the merits of the lawsuit,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

534

1 I would certainly be sensitive to, you know, personal
2 healthcare information. I would just have to at least
3 consider whether -- if it is particularly relevant to an
4 issue in the case -- whether redaction would be appropriate.

5 I'll just take them one at a time.

6 MR. CORRELL: That's all we ask, your Honor. Thank
7 you.

8 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, one -- I'm sorry. One
9 last thing on that point:

10 The NRA has asserted that Mr. Tedrick is 11 unavailable and, I believe, supplied to the Court and 12 supplied to us an affidavit of health reasons. We ask that
13 that be made a record or an exhibit in this case. It's -- I
14 assume the NRA will say it's confidential, so that may be 15 one thing that you might want to exempt. It does not have a
16 PX number. I don't know how you'd like to handle the 17 admission. It could be a judicial -- whether it should be 18 an exhibit or just, in some way, placed in the record, we 19 would appreciate it.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. I, sort of, remember it being in 21 the record, but I must be wrong about that.

22 I -- yeah. I mean, it can be part of the record,
23 because the reason why we're permitting this testimony to 24 come in the way we're permitting it to come in is based on 25 demonstration, seemingly to everyone's satisfaction, of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

535

1 unavailability, but it -- well, at least nobody's challenged
2 it and asked for additional information. So that's fine.

3 I mean, we -- it can be -- we can handle it however
4 you want. It could be -- it should be in the court record,
5 one way or the other. If you want to make it an exhibit for 6 trial, that's fine, as part of explaining, you know, perhaps
7 to the jury that he's not here because of a health reason
8 and that's why we're hearing this testimony this way.

9 MS. CONNELL: Yeah. I had asked, yesterday, if we
10 could have the jury instructed that due to health concerns,
11 Mr. Tedrick cannot appear personally and testify, and that 12 he's appearing by audio deposition.

13 THE COURT: Right. The question is is whether, as 14 part of that, you need to --

15 MS. CONNELL: Right.

16 THE COURT: -- put in the record all of the details
17 around that.

18 MS. CONNELL: I do not believe we need to put it in 19 all the records, but I think -- records around that, on the 20 record, to the jury -- but I think, as part of that, we need
21 to put in, first, his affidavit; the health affidavit.

22 (To counsel) That wasn't filed on the docket,
23 right?

24 MS. ROGERS: It was not filed on the docket. We 25 designated it "highly confidential" because it contains

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

536

1 details of a sensitive health condition.

2 And we have no objection to Ms. Connell's proposed
3 instructions to the jury that he's testifying by audio for 4 health reasons.

5 And to the extent that the affidavit needs to be
6 part of some court record, we don't object to that, either.
7 We would ask that if it's going to be publicly disclosed,
8 that we heavily redact it.

9 THE COURT: Yeah.

10 My preference on this is to have this be filed on 11 NYSCEF, not as an exhibit at trial, and you can file it
12 under seal. You're probably going to have to submit the 13 normal motion, but I would likely grant it.

14 MS. CONNELL: And, your Honor, we will also have to 15 file the Clip Report for Mr. Tedrick's deposition to be 16 played. That goes on the record, since it's my 17 understanding the court reporters don't retype down
18 (simulating) the transcript. So I understand that the Clip
19 Report should be made an exhibit of the Court, and we will
20 submit that to you.

21 THE COURT: The "Clip Report" is --
22 You mean the transcript excerpts?

23 MS. CONNELL: That's exactly right.

24 THE COURT: I don't know the lingo. Okay.

25 Yeah, I think that's right. It would not

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

537

1 otherwise -- the testimony would not otherwise be in the
2 record unless it's in as a transcript.

3 MS. CONNELL: That's right.

4 So we'll assign it a PX number and provide it to 5 the parties and the Court.

6 Thank you.

7 THE COURT: All right, I think we're ready for the 8 jury.

9 (Pause.)

10 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

11 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: Have a seat.

13 Welcome back. Just another quiet day at the 14 courthouse, right?

15 All right, let's bring the witness in, please;
16 Mr. Erstling.

17 Is he out in the hallway?

18 COURT OFFICER: Yeah. Tom is getting him.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 (Pause.)

21 COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

22 (The witness entered the courtroom.)

23 SECOND COURT OFFICER: Just come right up here
24 (indicating) and remain standing.

25 (The witness resumed the witness stand.)

1 THE COURT: Have a seat.

2 (To court officer) He's already been sworn.

3 COURT OFFICER: Oh.

4 THE COURT: Have a seat.

5 (Witness seated.)

6 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Erstling. How are
7 you?

8 THE WITNESS: Very good, thank you.

9 THE COURT: Just a reminder that you're still under 10 oath from yesterday.

11 Do you understand that?

12 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And just remember to stay
14 close-ish to the microphone.

15 Counsel, you may continue.

16 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you, your Honor.

17 M I C H A E L E R S T L I N G, called as a witness by the
18 plaintiff, having been previously duly sworn/affirmed, was
19 examined and testified further as follows:

21 BY MR. THOMPSON:

22 Q Good morning, Mr. Erstling.

23 A Good morning.

24 Q You still have your binder with you; is that correct?

25 A I do.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

539

1 Q Great.

2 So, before we pick up where we left off yesterday
3 afternoon, Mr. Erstling, I'd like to ask a few questions about
4 Mr. DeBergalis.

5 So we spoke yesterday -- Mr. DeBergalis is the former
6 Executive Director of General Operations; is that correct?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q And did you have an understanding as to why
9 Mr. DeBergalis left the NRA?

10 A I do not.

11 Q Has anyone communicated to you a reason for 12 Mr. DeBergalis leaving the NRA?

13 A There was a -- a letter sent out, just thanking Joe for 14 his -- his service and announcing Andrew as the new temporary
15 head of General Operations.

16 Q And that was a letter from Mr. LaPierre; is that right?

17 A I believe that's correct.

18 Q So, Mr. Erstling, if you could please open back up tab
19 1 in your binder, which is PX 421, and if you could please go to
20 page 106 ...?

21 (Image displayed.)

22 MR. THOMPSON: For the members of the jury: The 23 exhibits will be back, sort of, over your shoulder this 24 morning (indicating).

25 A I'm there. Thank you.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

540

1 Q So we were -- we ended the day yesterday talking about
2 the "Exceptions" on page 106. Do you remember that,
3 Mr. Erstling?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q And then, if you could draw your attention to the last
6 sentence of that paragraph in the "Exceptions": "Any contracts
7 or Association business awarded in this capacity shall be
8 reported to Finance Committee on an annual basis."

9 Does that reporting happen, to the best of your
10 knowledge?

11 A Yes, it does.

12 Q How long -- or who is responsible for that reporting?

13 A The chief financial officer, treasurer.

14 Q So Ms. Rowling, at the moment; is that right?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Do you know whether or not it happened while Mr. Spray
17 was the treasurer?

18 A I don't recall whether it happened or not. I know
19 it -- it's happened with Mrs. Rowling.

20 Q And do you know whether or not it happened while 21 Mr. Phillips was the treasurer?

22 A I don't recall it happening while Mr. Phillips was the
23 treasurer.

24 Q Do you regularly attend the Finance Committee meetings?

25 A Yes, I do.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

541

1 Q And there are, typically, four Finance Committee
2 meetings per year; is that right?

3 A That is correct.

4 Q It's usually one in January?

5 A Correct.

6 Q And then another at the annual meeting, in April or 7 May?

8 A Correct.

9 Q And then, is there another around September?

10 A That's also correct.

11 Q And a final one in December.

12 A The December one is not associated with a full board
13 meeting; it's primarily to discuss the -- the budget.

14 Q Okay. And do you typically attend all four committee
15 meetings per year, for the Finance Committee?

16 A I try to attend them. Sometimes I'll be attending
17 tele -- telephonically; I might not be in person.

18 Q Okay. And to the best of your recollection, you cannot 19 recall, while Mr. Phillips was the treasurer, the contracts
20 awarded pursuant to an exception to this policy being presented
21 to the Finance Committee; is that correct?

22 A I do not recall that happening.

23 Q And same thing with respect to Mr. Spray: Do you
24 recall the exceptions to this policy being presented to the 25 Finance Committee?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

542

1 A I -- I don't -- I can't recall that one.

2 Q And you said that Ms. Rowling has presented the
3 exceptions to the Finance Committee; is that right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q When did that start, to the best of your recollection?

6 A I -- I know it's been presented at least two years,
7 because I've been involved in -- in preparing the -- the
8 document.

9 Q Okay. So since approximately 2021?

10 A Correct.

11 Q Before or after the bankruptcy in 2021?

12 A I don't know if I can put the timing on that. I'm
13 sorry.

14 Q And is review of the exceptions -- does that appear in 15 the minutes for the Finance Committee?

16 A Unfortunately, I -- I don't know -- I don't prepare the 17 minutes, so I don't know what's physically in the minutes.

18 Q Who's responsible --

19 Who is the secretary for the Finance Committee?

20 A Today it's David Warren.

21 Q And has Mr. Warren been the secretary for a number of 22 years?

23 A For a few years. Prior to that, I believe it was
24 Mr. Tedrick.

25 Q So, looking back at the policy, Mr. Erstling -- and if

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

543

1 I could take you down to the Contracts and Approval Authority
2 section on the same page, 106 ...?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 (Image displayed.)

5 Q So this section outlines the approval procedures for 6 contracts that reach certain dollar thresholds; is that fair to 7 say?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q So the first one on page 106 -- page 106 -- is for 10 contracts worth greater than a hundred thousand -- or equal to 11 or greater than -- a hundred thousand dollars in a 12-month
12 period; is that right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q All right. And for those contracts, A, they must have 15 the division director's signature, the executive vice 16 president's signature and the treasurer's signature; is that
17 correct?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And then they also must be reviewed by the president
20 and one of the vice presidents; is that right?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q All right.

23 And then, turning to the next page, page 107 --

24 (Image scrolled.)

25 Q -- for contracts worth between $50,000 and a hundred

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

544

1 thousand dollars in a given year, they must have the appropriate
2 division director's signature and then one officer's signature;
3 is that right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q Where an officer would be the executive vice president
6 or an exclusive director of ILA or General Operations or the 7 treasurer or secretary; correct?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And then contracts under $50,000 require the approval
10 of the division director and anyone who is assigned
11 responsibility for supervising the contract; is that right?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And this policy (indicating) is still in place today;
14 is that right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And has been in place since at least 2006?

17 A I would agree; yes.

18 Q All right.

19 MR. THOMPSON: If we could please --

20 Q If you could please turn to tab 25 of your binder,
21 Mr. Erstling, this is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2566.

22 MR. THOMPSON: And, your Honor, I haven't heard any 23 objections to this exhibit, so I would move for its 24 admission.

25 THE COURT: Which tab is it, again?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 MR. THOMPSON: 25, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Any objections from the defense side or
3 do you want to hear questioning?

4 MR. PETERS: What was the number?

5 MR. THOMPSON: PX 2566.

6 MR. WERBNER: I have no objection, your Honor.

7 MR. PETERS: I have no objection.

8 THE COURT: Okay, it's admitted.

9 (Image displayed.)

10 BY MR. THOMPSON:

11 Q Mr. Erstling, do you recognize this document?

12 A I do.

13 Q This is a policy from Mr. LaPierre that supplements the 14 policy we were just looking at a moment ago; is that right?

15 A I wouldn't call it a "policy" because I think the -- 16 only the board could create policy, but, yes, it does reinforce 17 the policy that the board had.

18 Q Would you agree with me if I refer to it as a procedure
19 that Mr. LaPierre implemented?

20 A I -- I could agree with that.

21 Q And, Mr. Erstling, it's your understanding that this
22 memorandum, Plaintiff's Exhibit 2566 -- this applies to contract
23 renewals, right?

547

1 THE COURT: You can answer.

2 A It doesn't necessarily state that, but I would say yes.
3 It would probably be for contracts that renewed also.

4 Q If you could please turn to the second page of
5 Exhibit 2566, and if I can take you down towards the bottom
6 there is point under "action", that begins "When approving a
7 contract". This provision of this memorandum requires a
8 business case analysis for contracts that exceed $100,000 in 9 value, is that correct?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q And what is a business case analysis, Mr. Erstling?

12 A A business case analysis describes the type of the 13 events. Who the vendor might be. What the amount is and what 14 the business purpose is. Why are we doing it. What is the --
15 What's the goal.

16 Q And there is a standard form that the NRA has for 17 completing a business case analysis, is that correct?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And if you would please turn to page 4 of Exhibit 2566.
20 This is the form for completing a business case analysis, is
21 that right?

22 A (Examining). That's correct.

23 Q And then on the following page, page 5, this is the 24 form for obtaining the signatures of the appropriate persons for 25 contracts, is that right?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

548

1 A That's correct.

2 Q So, we've spoken a little bit about Mr. Spray. Craig
3 Spray was the CFO and treasurer between 2018 and beginning of
4 2021, is that right?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And under Mr. Spray he implemented a procedure where 7 accounts payable must, to the best of its ability, tie invoices
8 that come into the NRA to existing contracts, is that correct?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And that procedure did not exist prior to Mr. Spray
11 joining the NRA, is that correct?

12 A The procedure happened, but it wasn't -- it wasn't sort
13 of enforced, right.

14 Q So -- Great. Okay. Let's walk through that process a
15 little bit. So, a contract comes in. I'm sorry. An invoice
16 comes in that's related to an existing contract. Can you walk
17 me through what the procedure is for accounts payable when that 18 invoice comes in?

19 A So, accounts payable will look at a particular invoice
20 and first looking at its size they will make -- they will try to 21 make a determine if there is a purchase order. If there is a
22 contract for that particular item. Small items, $25 items they
23 are not going to have a contract. Large items, $25,000, $50,000
24 or more they will attempt to figure out who the owner of that is 25 and see if we have a contract in our Excell database.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

549

1 A lot of times what they'll do is when they see an
2 invoice come in twice, that's a real trigger. So sometimes they
3 will see an invoice. They might not know if there is a contract
4 associated with it. When it comes in a second time that's a
5 trigger for them to say hey, this is the second time this has 6 come in. There should be -- there should be a contract for 7 this.

8 Q Great. And just to break down a few of the terms that
9 you used for the members of the jury. You referred to the owner
10 of the contract. And by that you mean the person responsible
11 for supervising it, is that correct?

12 A Yes. Contract or the invoice too. So, when you see 13 the face of the invoice, there might be someone's name on the 14 top. They might be the owner. Or a signature of approval on 15 the invoice, that might be the owner. So, yes.

16 Q Then you also mention the purchasing orders. So the 17 NRA utilizes both contracts and purchasing orders, is that
18 correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q And can you just briefly explain the difference between 21 a purchasing order and contract for the members of the jury?

22 A A purchasing order goes through our purchasing
23 department. So, they would go out and try to find a vendor that 24 can satisfy the request at the best price. So, they go out.
25 They look for that vendor. And they create a purchase order.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

550

1 And then when the invoice comes in, the invoice is matched to a
2 purchase order. So there is sort of -- we know that there has
3 been some review of -- of the request.

4 Q So, stepping back to talk about this process for
5 reviewing invoices and time of contracts when they come in. I
6 believe you testified that the process existed under
7 Mr. Phillips but was inconsistently followed, is that correct?

8 A I would say yes.

9 Q And this process occurs in accounts payable, is that
10 correct?

11 A That's the first line of defense, yes.

12 Q So, it sort of starts in accounting operations and then
13 works up, is that right?

14 A That is correct.

15 Q Okay. And Ms. Rowling was the head of accounting
16 operations under Mr. Phillips, right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q So, while Ms. Rowling was the head of accounting
19 operations, she did not ensure that this process was 20 consistently followed, is that right?

21 A I said it's a process. We look for the invoice. We 22 look for the contract. If there is not a contract, then it gets 23 reported up, right. So she would get information from Portia,
24 and then she would then go higher. So I'm assuming she would
25 report that to Rick, and then Rick would report that to Woody.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

551

1 MR. THOMPSON: Move to strike as nonresponsive,
2 your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 Q So, you are assuming that she was reporting up when
5 this process was not followed, is that right, Mr. Erstling?

6 A I can't -- I don't -- I wasn't -- My responsibility at 7 that time was budgeting. So I have no real insight into exactly
8 what the process was happening on her side of the -- of the 9 operation. I can tell you what the process is. I can't tell
10 you what was happening.

11 Q You know it was inconsistently followed while
12 Mr. Phillips was the treasurer, right?

13 A I believe it wasn't consistently followed.

14 Q And Ms. Rowling was the head of accounting operations
15 at that time, right?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q Mr. Erstling, is it fair to say that while Mr. Phillips
18 was the treasurer, you did not get the support that you felt you
19 needed from him as your boss' boss?

20 A I felt he wasn't present.

21 Q And can I expand on that, what you mean by "he wasn't 22 present"?

23 A We -- we did not as a staff meet regularly with 24 Mr. Phillips. When Mr. Spray arrived, we started to meet as a
25 staff on a regular basis, on a monthly basis. And it was

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

552

1 extraordinarily enlightening to hear what was going on in all
2 aspects of -- of the financial staff, right. So, it wasn't just 3 me. It was everyone. It was Sonya. It was myself. It was
4 Emily Cummins. It was Rick Tedrick. It was Craig Spray. It
5 was David Warren. So, we were all sitting around a table
6 discussing the financials. We were discussing whatever finance
7 topics were of the day. That did not happen under Woody
8 Phillips.

9 Q And you thought that Mr. Phillips was not enforcing the 10 NRA's internal controls, right?

11 A I believe that to be correct.

12 Q And you thought that Mr. Phillips permitted millions of 13 dollars of spending that wasn't budgeted for, correct?

14 A I would say yes.

15 Q And you thought that Mr. Phillips permitted vague
16 invoicing from NRA vendors, correct?

17 A That is correct.

18 Q And you thought -- Withdrawn. How long were those 19 things going on for, Mr. Erstling, the vague invoicing for 20 example?

21 A Decades.

22 Q And what about the failure to enforce the NRA's
23 internal controls?

24 A It would have to be the same.

25 Q Mr. LaPierre was the executive vice president for that

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

553

1 entire time, wasn't he?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q So all of the bad actions under Mr. Phillips' time as
4 the treasurer of the NRA happened on Mr. LaPierre's watch,
5 right?

6 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I -- I think the -- I'm going to
8 sustain that. Just the language is a little vague.

9 Q Mr. Phillips as the CFO of the NRA reported to Mr.
10 LaPierre, correct?

11 A Correct.

12 Q And as treasurer of the NRA he reported to the board of 13 directors, correct?

14 A Correct.

15 Q And for the entire time that Mr. Phillips was the CFO
16 and treasurer of the organization, Mr. LaPierre was the 17 executive vice president of the organization, correct?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And Mr. Phillips was communicating with the board of 20 directors at the same time, right?

21 A What I visionally saw was at those meetings. I don't 22 know of any other times that he may have been communicating.

23 Q You would agree with me that Mr. LaPierre was 24 ultimately responsible for the bad management under 25 Mr. Phillips, right?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

554

1 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor. Calls for a
2 legal conclusion.

3 MR. THOMPSON: I don't think it calls for a legal
4 conclusion, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: I -- I refer -- The prior question
6 talked about all the bad conduct. Just left it that way.
7 You just said bad management. I think again it's just a
8 broad and sort of undefined phrase.

9 MR. THOMPSON: Sure.

10 Q So, would you agree with me, Mr. Erstling, that 11 permitting vague invoicing from vendors is bad management?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And would you agree with me that allowing millions of 14 dollars that are not budgeted for to be spent is bad management?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And so with that understanding of bad management would 17 you agree with me that Mr. LaPierre was ultimately responsible 18 for that bad management?

19 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor. Same grounds.

20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 A Yes.

22 Q The board of directors at the NRA also has a supervisor
23 responsibility, doesn't it, Mr. Erstling?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And the board of directors is the highest authority in

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

555

1 the NRA, is that right?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And so the NRA board of directors was also responsible
4 for supervising the NRA during this period of bad management
5 that we've discussed, right?

6 A I would agree.

7 Q If you could please take a look at tab six of your
8 binder, Mr. Erstling. This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 964.

9 MR. THOMPSON: I haven't heard an objection to this
10 document, so I would move for its admission.

11 THE COURT: What tab again?

12 MR. THOMPSON: Tab six, your Honor.

13 MR. PETERS: What number?

14 MR. THOMPSON: 964.

15 MR. PETERS: No objection.

16 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted.

17 Q So, Mr. Erstling, I'm not going to read it into the 18 record, but on the top of the page, the to -- the to line that 19 reads Erstling comma Michael, does that reflect to your work
20 e-mail address?

21 A (Examining). It does.

22 Q And you still use that work e-mail address?

23 A I do.

24 Q So if I could please take you to page 3 of this 25 exhibit, and looking at the bottom most e-mail on this page that

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

556

1 is -- am I correct this is an e-mail from you to Mr. Tedrick
2 dated June 5, 2015?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q And take a moment please to just read your e-mail. Can
5 you tell me, Mr. Erstling, what was interesting about the 6 amounts being just under $50,000 for each of the five
7 installments referred to here?

8 A It falls just under the $50,000 policy level.

9 Q And we discussed that policy level a few minutes ago,
10 but that requires a certain number of signatures, is that right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q It requires is it one officer's signature?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q And then also the division head responsible for it, is
15 that right?

16 A That's also correct.

17 Q Okay. And so was it your understanding at the time,
18 Mr. Erstling, of this e-mail that Mr. Phillips was attempting to 19 circumvent the $50,000 threshold for invoices?

20 A I can't say that. I can say it's interesting, but I
21 don't know what his intent was.

22 Q So, Mr. Erstling, we were talking about the supervision
23 of the NRA. Mr. Frazer is currently the secretary and general
24 counsel at the NRA, correct?

25 A Correct.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

557

1 Q And approximately how long has he been in that position
2 to the best of your knowledge?

3 A More than five years.

4 Q And with respect to the bad management that you were 5 discussing, the vague invoicing and the failure to stay within 6 the budget, that occurred under Mr. Frazer's watch as well,
7 right, Mr. Erstling?

8 A Mr. Frazer was there.

9 Q And he's the general counsel of the organization,
10 right?

11 A That is correct.

12 Q He has a supervisory responsibility, right?

13 A I believe he does.

14 Q He's one of the NRA's officers?

15 A That is correct.

16 Q So, with respect to this tab six of your binder,
17 Exhibit 964, this payment of multiple installments just under 18 $50,000, did that raise a red flag for you, Mr. Erstling?

19 A Not particularly, other than just the size of the 20 installments.

21 Q So, it didn't concern you that there were these 22 multiple installments just under the threshold for additional 23 signature requirements under the NRA policy?

24 A No, because I would have looked at what the sponsorship
25 was. I mean, what is the -- What's the total. What's the --

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

558

1 what's the expense for. I mean, the $50,000 requirement, that's
2 one thing, but it's not all the things. You have to look at the
3 totality of the transaction.

4 Q And do you recall looking at the totality of the 5 transaction for this particular transaction?

6 A I mean, this is 2015. So, I -- my memory is a bit
7 shaky for eight years ago.

8 Q So we've spoken a little bit about Mr. Spray. He 9 joined the NRA as CFO first in 2018, is that right?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q He joined in the spring of 2018?

12 A I believe that's also correct.

13 Q And then he was officially elected to treasurer towards
14 the end of 2018, is that right?

15 A I think that would have been -- I don't know the exact
16 day. I'm sorry.

17 Q That's fine. So, you mentioned that when Mr. Spray
18 joined the NRA he started having these regular meetings,
19 correct?

20 A Correct.

21 Q That was not something that you did with Mr. Phillips,
22 right?

23 A That's also correct.

24 Q And Mr. Spray started asking questions at those 25 meetings about the NRA's finances, right?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

559

1 A Not only was he asking but we were telling.

2 Q Please finish your answer.

3 A We were -- we were obviously excited to have somebody
4 that was listening. So, we go in and share what we could.

5 Q And you felt comfortable sharing your concerns with Mr.
6 Spray, is that right?

7 A That's right.

8 Q That's not something you felt comfortable about with 9 Mr. Phillips, is that fair to say?

10 A I didn't have the opportunity.

11 Q Why didn't you have the opportunity?

12 A There weren't meetings.

13 Q And Mr. Phillips was frequently not in NRA headquarters
14 in Alexandria, is that right?

15 A The headquarters are in Fairfax.

16 Q Fairfax, I'm sorry.

17 A He was not -- he was not in Fairfax a lot.

18 Q Mr. Phillips, for the last several years that he was at 19 the NRA, spent a great deal of time in Texas, is that right?

20 A That is also correct.

21 Q And so during these meetings with Mr. Spray that began
22 happening in 2018, you were discussing concerns about costs
23 increasing, right?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And you were discussing concerns about variances

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

560

1 between the budget versus actual spend, right?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q And so you mentioned that these meetings would be you
4 and several of your colleagues as well, is that right?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q Just to introduce them to the members of the jury. So
7 there is Sonya Rowling. We've spoken about.

8 A Yep.

9 Q At the time she was the head of the accounting
10 operations?

11 A Correct.

12 Q And then there was Lisa George as well, is that
13 correct?

14 A She's purchasing, yes.

15 Q And purchasing is separate from financial services but 16 also under the treasurer's office is that right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q Okay. And then there was Rick Tedrick?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q Mr. Tedrick at the time and still is the managing 21 director of finance, is that right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q And he sits in the office of the treasurer?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And then there is David Warren also?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

561

1 A That's correct.

2 Q What's Mr. Warren's title?

3 A I don't know what his title is now. Sorry.

4 Q Is it fair to say Mr. Warren does a lot of financial 5 analysis, is that correct?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And he came in with Mr. Spray, is that right?

8 A He came in shortly after Mr. Spray.

9 Q And does Mr. Warren sit in financial services or in the 10 treasurer's office?

11 A Physically or from a reporting structure? I'm not sure
12 how to answer the question.

13 Q Let's start with physically.

14 A Physically he used to sit up with the treasurer. Now
15 the treasurer is on the second floor. So, he sits with 16 financial services and the treasurer.

17 Q Okay. And then in terms of the organizational chart do
18 you know where he sits technically?

19 A He would be in the treasurer's office not in financial
20 services.

21 Q So, when Mr. Spray joined the NRA, he began making a
22 lot of internal control changes, is that fair to say?

23 A That's fair to say.

24 Q And is it fair to say that Mr. Spray was the one who 25 was leading the charge with respect to these changes -- to the

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

562

1 enforcement of the NRA internal policies?

2 A He was a catalyst.

3 Q And then Mr. Spray left the NRA in January of 2021, is
4 that right?

5 A I believe that's correct.

6 Q And what is your understanding of why Mr. Spray left,
7 Mr. Erstling?

8 A At the time it was medical reasons. I've heard that he
9 was fired throughout this process.

10 Q And shortly before he left the NRA in 2000 -- I'm sorry
11 -- 2020 Mr. Spray refused to sign the NRA's Form 990, is that
12 right?

13 A That's -- Yes. To my understanding, yes.

14 Q If you could please turn to tab 26 of your binder, Mr.
15 Erstling. This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2605.

16 MR. THOMPSON: I don't believe there has been an 17 objection to this one, your Honor. So, I would move for its 18 admission.

19 THE COURT: Any objection to Plaintiff's 2605?

20 MR. WERBNER: No objection.

21 MR. PETERS: No objection.

22 THE COURT: It's admitted. Counsel, I've been
23 mulling when to raise this. I've just been reconsidering
24 one earlier ruling I made and I want to clarify something --

25 MR. THOMPSON: Sure.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

563

1 THE COURT: -- to the members of the jury. The
2 witness is here to give his personal testimony about people
3 he worked with and things he observed. To the extent the 4 question was asked whether Mr. LaPierre is responsible for
5 things, initially I overruled the objection, but as I
6 thought about it, that's not really a fact question for this
7 witness. If there is testimony that he worked with Mr.
8 LaPierre and interacted with and can give testimony about 9 that, that's fine. But it's ultimately going to be your 10 decision as to, you know, people's responsibility for 11 things. So, it is, with deference to Mr. Correll, I think 12 it is correct as asked, as I scrolled back and looked at,
13 its in the nature of a legal conclusion. So, I'm going to 14 strike that question and answer. You can ask factual
15 questions about the witness' understanding of who supervised
16 who, and it will be up to the jury applying my instructions
17 what the legal responsibility is.

18 So, I think as I look back at that question as 19 asked, I think Mr. Correll's objection was well founded.
20 So, I didn't want to wait too long to tell you that in case
21 you want to ask other questions.

22 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

23 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor --

24 THE COURT: And he did not ask the same question
25 about Mr. Frazer.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

564

1 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, there was an insinuation.
2 Based on your Honor's prior ruling I did not object.

3 THE COURT: I was listening very carefully, because
4 that's when I realized that if he did ask that question --
5 What I'm focused on to the jury is fact questions. Who did
6 what. What did he observe. And that's really what this
7 witness is here for. And going beyond that to talk about 8 whose responsibility legally it might be is -- is -- Even if 9 people might have a view of that, in this context that's 10 really your job and my job.

11 MR. PETERS: I also want to note that there wasn't 12 a foundation laid for the last set of questions about 13 Mr. Spray and why Mr. Spray left and what the basis for his 14 knowledge was.

15 THE COURT: That ship sailed. I just wanted to 16 correct an objection that I -- Just sometimes you reconsider
17 things and I did. All right.

18 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you, your Honor.

19 Q So, Mr. Erstling, is it your understanding that -- 20 Withdrawn. From time to time, Mr. Erstling, Mr. Phillips would 21 communicate to you and your colleagues instructions from Mr.
22 LaPierre, is that correct?

23 A That is correct.

24 Q And Mr. Tedrick would do the same, is that correct?

25 A That is correct.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

565

1 Q So, you would sometimes get e-mails or other
2 communications that would say, from Mr. Phillips, that would say
3 Wayne wants us to do X, Y or Z, is that correct?

4 A That is correct.

5 Q So did you have any reason to doubt that those
6 instructions were being relayed from Mr. LaPierre through
7 Mr. Phillips?

8 A No, I did not.

9 MR. PETERS: Objection. It's not based -- There is 10 no foundation being laid for any of these.

11 THE COURT: Sustained. Just as to that question.

12 Q All right. So, we were looking at tab 26, Mr.
13 Erstling. Do you have that open? This is Plaintiff's
14 Exhibit 2605.

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q And so looking specifically at the second page. Do you
17 recognize this to be the list of top concerns that you and your 18 colleagues presented to the auditing committee in 2018?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And this was a collaborative effort between you and 21 several of your colleagues, is that right?

22 A That's right.

23 Q That was yourself, Ms. Rowling, Ms. George -- Oh,
24 withdrawn. I realize we didn't ask about two people. So, one
25 of the other individuals who was part of the meetings that you

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

566

1 began having with Mr. Spray was Emily Cummins, is that correct?

2 A That is correct.

3 Q What was Ms. Cummins' title at the time?

4 A She was director of tax and there might have been some
5 other areas.

6 Q Is it fair to say she was one of the people responsible
7 for the Form 990 filing for the NRA?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And then she left the NRA in late 2018, is that 10 correct, approximately?

11 A Approximately.

12 Q And then one of the -- Was Portia Padilla ever a part
13 of those meetings?

14 A She wasn't part of the meetings but she provided -- she 15 provided input.

16 Q And so turning back to this top concern memo,
17 Exhibit 2605. It was a collaborative effort between yourself,
18 Ms. Rowling, Ms. George, Ms. Cummins and then to a lesser extent
19 from Ms. Padilla, is that correct?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q Okay. And then --

22 MR. PETERS: You made a reference in a previous 23 question about "these meetings". What were you referring
24 to?

25 THE COURT: That's not a proper objection. Go

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

567

1 ahead.

2 Q So, this list of top concerns came about as a result of
3 your meetings with Mr. Spray in early 2018, is that correct?

4 A He was the catalyst that allowed us to come together
5 and -- and sort of discover the puzzle pieces, right. Not --
6 Each one of us did not have a total view of what was going on,
7 but together we were able to sort of piece together pieces of 8 information and to come up with this list.

9 Q And then ultimately this list was presented to the 10 auditing committee in July of 2018, is that correct?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q Who were the members of the auditing committee at the
13 time?

14 A It was Mr. Cotton. It was Mr. Coy. It was 15 Mr. Jenkins. It was -- There were two more. Right now I'm -- I
16 just can't come up with the names. Sorry.

17 Q Do you know if Carolyn Meadows was a member?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And what about Herb Langford?

20 A Yep. Correct.

21 Q Those were the five members of the audit committee?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q And at the time Ms. Meadows was also a board officer,
24 is that correct?

25 A I believe that's correct.

LAS

1 Q So, who from -- from the people who prepared the list
2 of top concerns, who presented it to the audit committee in 3 2018?

4 A We were all there. We were all sitting around the 5 conference table. So, I would say all of us.

6 Q Was Ms. George there at the actual audit committee
7 meeting?

8 A Ms. George could not make it.

9 Q What about Ms. Padilla?

10 A Ms. Padilla was not there.

11 Q And Mr. Cotton, he was the chair of the audit committee
12 at the time?

13 A He was.

14 Q And Mr. Cotton and Ms. Meadows left the meeting before
15 your presentation began, is that correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q And that frustrated you, didn't it?

18 A It did.

19 Q After the July 2018 audit committee meeting when was 20 the next time that you spoke to a member of the audit committee?

21 A I -- I can't recall.

22 (Continue on the next page.)

23

24

25

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

569

1 Q When was the next time you attended a meeting of the
2 Audit Committee, to the best of your recollection?

3 A It -- it may have occurred at the September board of 4 directors meeting.

5 Q But you're not sure?

6 A I'm not sure.

7 Q So let's walk through the Top Concerns memo for a bit,
8 Mr. Erstling.

9 So, looking again at page 2 of Exhibit 2605 --
10 Plaintiff's Exhibit 2605 -- let's start at the top.

11 (Image displayed.)

12 Q So item number 1 is, "Financial Conflicts of Interest
13 at the Senior Management and Board of Directors Level"; is that
14 right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And item 1-a. is, "Mr. Phillips and payments made to a
17 'significant other'"; is that right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q What payments are referred to there?

20 MR. WERBNER: Your Honor, I'll object unless 21 there's a predicate of personal knowledge -- there's a lack 22 of personal knowledge, until that predicate is laid.

23 THE COURT: Um --

24 MR. THOMPSON: I could ask a foundation question.

25 THE COURT: I think that would be --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

570

1 So it's sustained.

2 BY MR. THOMPSON:

3 Q Mr. Erstling, do you have any personal knowledge about 4 the payments made to the "significant other" referred to in the 5 Top Concerns memo?

6 A At the -- at that time, I did not; now I do.

7 Q And what's the basis for your knowledge?

8 A These proceedings.

9 Q And so what is your understanding, Mr. Erstling, of the 10 payments made to a "significant other" referred to in the Top
11 Concerns memo?

12 MR. WERBNER: Your Honor, I'll object; hearsay.

13 THE COURT: By "these proceedings," you mean this 14 lawsuit?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Sustained.

17 Q So, walking through the List of Top Concerns memo,
18 Mr. Erstling, can you identify for me which, if any one, of 19 these were the items that you added to the list?

20 (Pause.)

21 A Item -- sorry.

22 Q No, please go ahead.

23 A Item number 2-b., "Lance Olson invoices for the 24 purchase of firearms."

25 Item 2-c., "Josh Powell purchase of computer assets."

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

571

1 Item 4-a.

2 Item 4-d.

3 Part of 5.

4 I would say, that's pretty close.

5 Q Okay. So let's focus on the items under number 4.

6 We'll start with 4-a., "Associated TV." So this was related to 7 billing of $1.8 million for rental of a house that belongs to 8 Stanton/McKenzie, an owner of Associated TV; is that right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And "Stanton/McKenzie," that refers to David McKenzie;
11 is that right?

12 A That is correct.

13 Q Also known as "David Stanton"?

14 A I believe that's also correct.

15 Q And Mr. Stan -- Mr. McKenzie -- I'm sorry -- was the 16 owner of Associated Television; is that right?

17 A Correct.

18 Q Mr. McKenzie is also, to the best of your 19 understanding, the owner of Membership Marketing Partners; is
20 that right?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q As well as Concord Social and Public Relations?

23 A Correct.

24 Q And Allegiance Creative Group; is that right?

25 A Correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

572

1 Q And if I refer to Membership Marketing Partners,
2 Allegiance Creative Group, and Concord Social and Public
3 Relations collectively as the "MMP entities," will you
4 understand what I'm referring to?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q Okay. Do you have an understanding as to what services
7 Associated TV provided to the NRA?

8 A At what -- at what point?

9 Q Let's say, between 2015 and 2018.

10 A I -- I know they did a -- a "Crime Strike" program;
11 they did some work with Eddie Eagle programs; they did some town
12 hall meetings; we sponsored a -- a -- a veterans viewing area at 13 a Christmas parade, and those are the things I would remember.

14 Q With respect to "Crime Strike," can you explain for the 15 members of the jury what "Crime Strike" is?

16 A From -- from the documentation that I've seen, "Crime
17 Strike" was a -- a program that, in segments, went over crimes
18 that occurred and how people defended themselves in those --
19 during those crimes.

20 Q Have you ever seen an episode of "Crime Strike,"
21 Mr. Erstling?

22 A I have not.

23 Q Do you have any personal knowledge as to whether or not
24 an episode of "Crime Strike" was filmed between 2015 and 2018?

25 A I have no knowledge.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

573

1 Q So, turning back to the Top Concerns memo and this item
2 4-a., it was your understanding that the NRA paid approximately 3 1.8 million to rent a house from Mr. McKenzie; is that right?

4 A That's what the invoice stated.

5 Q So, if you could please turn to tab 2 of your binder,
6 Mr. Erstling, this is Plaintiff's Exhibit 821.

7 MR. THOMPSON: I haven't heard an objection to 8 this, either, your Honor, so I would move for its admission.

9 THE COURT: It's actually -- I don't think the 10 document itself is --

11 MR. THOMPSON: If this is --

12 So it's a large Excel, your Honor, and if this is 13 one that we could show just to Mr. Erstling on this screen,
14 if we have to turn it off for the jury, if there's no
15 objection ...

16 THE COURT: Let's just see.

17 MR. PETERS: We had been told that you --

18 Oh. Is this one of the huge Excel PDFs?

19 MR. THOMPSON: It is not one of the general
20 ledgers. It's a collection -- well, I don't want to read
21 into the record what it is.

22 MR. PETERS: I mean, it's not in my binder, either.

23 We have the huge spreadsheets printed out, but I
24 didn't think we would need them.

25 THE COURT: That's not what this is, right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

574

1 MR. THOMPSON: No, it's not a huge spreadsheet. It
2 is a spreadsheet.

3 THE COURT: All right. Do we have the ability --
4 I think this room has the ability to just show to 5 the witness. So, if you can identify it for -- or show it
6 for identification.

7 Hang on one second.

8 I don't know what -- I think this room is set up
9 for this; this is what we've done before.

10 This is off the record:

11 (Whereupon, the Court addressed the jury, off the 12 record.)

13 THE COURT: All right, we can go back on the 14 record.

15 So you can now show this just to the counsel and
16 the witness.

17 BY MR. THOMPSON:

18 Q So, first things first, Mr. Erstling: Just looking in 19 your binder, there's a cover e-mail for this Excel. Do you
20 recognize the sender of that e-mail?

21 A I do.

22 Q He was a staffer at the NRA who reported to you; is
23 that correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And then do you recognize the attachment, which is on

2 A I do.

3 Q And was this created for you by -- I'm going to ask you
4 to pronounce his name for me, please.

5 A Kai Hsieh.

6 Q Hsieh. Okay, thank you.

7 THE WITNESS: (To reporter) Would you like a
8 spelling?

9 COURT REPORTER: Yes, please.

10 THE WITNESS: K-a-i; Hsieh, spelled H-s-i-e-h.

11 Q Thank you, Mr. Erstling.

12 And did you request that Mr. Hsieh prepare this for
13 you?

14 A I'm guessing I did, because he provided it.

15 Q And to the best of your knowledge, is the information
16 in the attachment accurate and complete?

17 A Yes.

18 MR. THOMPSON: Move for admission of this exhibit,
19 your Honor.

20 MR. WERBNER: No objection.

21 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

22 MR. PETERS: No objection.

23 THE COURT: It's admitted.

24 Q So, Mr. Erstling, this is a -- this -- the attachment
25 to --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

576

1 THE COURT: Now we have to turn it back on.

2 MR. THOMPSON: Oh, I'm sorry.

3 THE COURT: There's got to be a better way to do
4 this, but for now, we're just going to rely on the --

5 (Image displayed.)

6 THE COURT: There you go.

7 BY MR. THOMPSON:

8 Q So, Mr. Erstling, the attachments to Exhibit 821 is a
9 collection of ATI invoices and information about the invoices
10 that was prepared by Mr. Hsieh; is that correct?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And if you can please look at tab 3 of the Excel ...

13 (Image scrolled.)

14 MR. THOMPSON: Oh, I'm sorry. No. If we can 15 please go to the 2015 "By Project" tab ...?

16 (Image displayed.)

17 MR. THOMPSON: Yeah.

18 Q And if you could look at row 16, where it reads, "Home
19 rental during filming in Hollywood Hills, California" ...?

20 Hopefully, we'll be able to expand that for you, but do
21 you see that?

22 A I do.

23 Q Okay. This is one of the invoices that you were 24 describing in the Top Concerns memo; is that correct?

25 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1 Q And so it was a $245,000 payment in August 2015?

2 A That's what the invoice said. That's what it was.

3 Q Okay.

4 MR. THOMPSON: And then, if we can please go to the 5 "Chart" tab ... And I think it may be -- you may have to 6 scroll over to get to it.

7 (Image scrolled.)

8 Q So, looking at the seventh row of the "Chart" tab,
9 where it reads, "Home rental" --

10 Do you see that?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q -- this shows how much the NRA paid for the home
13 rental, in total; is that correct?

14 A Through 2017, correct.

15 Q So it was about 1.795 million; is that right?

16 A 1.8 million, yep.

17 Q Right. And this was to rent Mr. McKenzie's home in 18 Hollywood; is that right?

19 A That's what the invoice said.

20 Q To the best of your knowledge, Mr. Erstling, did the 21 NRA ever receive any reimbursement for this payment -- these 22 payments -- for this house rental?

23 A I don't think reimbursement was --

24 Let me rephrase: I believe they went through and came
25 up with a more precise invoice.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

578

1 Q And when was that, to the best of your recollection?

2 A I don't recall.

3 Q And what's the basis for your understanding?

4 A I was told that they -- they had researched it and --
5 and determined it was equipment and things like that.

6 Q Who had researched it?

7 A And now I can't remember; I can't remember who.

8 MR. THOMPSON: So, your Honor, move to strike as
9 speculation.

10 MR. PETERS: I don't see how you can move to strike
11 this as speculation versus --

12 THE COURT: He's answering the question as best he 13 can.

14 MR. THOMPSON: So we can go ahead and take down
15 that exhibit.

16 (Image removed.)

17 Q One of the problems that Mr. Spray attempted to correct
18 was to move away from a "Wayne said" culture; is that fair to 19 say, Mr. Erstling?

20 A That is correct.

21 Q And if you could just please take a look at tab 4 of 22 your binder ...?

23 MR. THOMPSON: And this is Plaintiff's Exhibit 936,
24 which I will move to admit.

25 THE COURT: Any objection to 936?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

579

1 MR. PETERS: I think I know what he's talking
2 about.

3 No objection.

4 MR. WERBNER: No objection, your Honor.

5 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

6 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: It's admitted.

8 (Image displayed.)

9 BY MR. THOMPSON:

10 Q So, Mr. Erstling, Exhibit 936 --

11 You have it in front of you?

12 A I do.

13 Q And this is an e-mail train -- e-mail chain -- between 14 you and Mr. Spray -- is that correct? -- as well as Mr. Tedrick
15 and Ms. Rowling?

16 A The top one is from Craig to the three of us.

17 Q And in Mr. Spray's e-mail, at the top of this e-mail
18 chain, he asks you to identify for him "odd" or "agreements with 19 Josh's fingerprints on it"; is that right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And he says, "Don't be cowed by people saying, 'It's 22 for Wayne'"; is that right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And so, into 2020 -- October of 2020 -- there was still 25 an issue of people trying to get things done through "Wayne

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

580

1 said" approvals; correct?

2 A Change -- change is slow.

3 Q Change was slow; is that right, Mr. Erstling?

4 A Change happens over time, yes.

5 Q And so, this is two and a half years after Mr. Spray

6 joined the NRA; is that correct?

7 A It is.

8 Q And it's two months after this litigation was

9 commenced; is that right?

10 A I -- I don't know when the litigation was commenced;

11 I'm sorry.

12 Q So let's talk a little bit about Membership Marketing
13 Partners. The MMP entities -- Membership Marketing, Allegiance,
14 and Concord -- were NRA vendors for a number of years; is that
15 correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q Do you know approximately when they began as NRA
18 vendors?

19 A Maybe 2011, 2012?

20 Q So is it fair to say that they were vendors for 21 approximately a decade?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. And Membership Marketing Partners and Concord
24 are no longer vendors of the NRA; is that correct?

25 A I -- I think it's Allegiance, maybe doing business as

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

581

1 Membership Marketing Partners. I -- I -- I don't -- I know one
2 of them exists with a d/b/a.

3 Q Okay. So the NRA is still doing business with 4 Allegiance; is that correct?

5 A I believe that's correct.

6 Q Okay. And I believe you testified -- testified
7 before -- that, to the best of your understanding, David
8 McKenzie owns all three of the MMP entities; is that right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q The MMP entities all have the same employees; is that
11 correct?

12 A Oh, I -- I have no idea what their employee structure
13 looks like; I'm sorry.

14 Q Do you know --

15 Between, let's say, 2018 and 2021, do you know where 16 the MMP entities' offices were located?

17 A There is one MMP office in the south tower of -- of our 18 headquarters building.

19 Q And thinking back to the Top Concerns memo,
20 Mr. Erstling, and we can bring it up if you would like to look
21 at it, but one of the other items that you specifically raised
22 was that MMP -- the MMP entities -- were being paid more than 23 what was called for in their contracts; is that correct?

24 A That is correct.

25 Q And you actually conducted an analysis of that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

582

1 overpayment; is that correct?

2 A That is correct.

3 MR. THOMPSON: And if we could please look at tab
4 12, which is PX 2361 ...?

5 Which I will move to admit.

6 (Pause.)

7 THE COURT: Without objection, it's admitted.

8 (Image displayed.)

9 Q So do you have tab 12 in front of you, Mr. Erstling?

10 A Visually, yes.

11 Q Okay. And do you recognize this document, or this 12 collection of documents, I should say?

13 A Can you scroll through the documents for me, please?

14 THE COURT: It's in the binder, as well.

15 THE WITNESS: What's the number?

16 Q Tab 12, Mr. Erstling.

17 (Pause.)

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q This is a collection of documents that you prepared in 20 anticipation of that Audit Committee meeting in July of 2018; is
21 that right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q Okay. And if I could please take you to page 5 of
24 Exhibit 2361 ...

25 (Image scrolled.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

583

1 Q I apologize for how small it is, but my question is:
2 Is this the analysis that you performed of the overpayment on
3 the MMP-entity contracts?

4 A This is the analysis I performed on the contracts that
5 I had in my hand.

6 Q And that was going to be my next question,
7 Mr. Erstling: There is a -- you later found out that the 8 contracts you had differed from the actual final contracts; is
9 that correct?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q And they differed in that the contracts you had 12 provided for an automatic ten percent increase in the fee every 13 year; is that correct?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q That ten percent increase was not in the final
16 contracts; is that correct?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q So, in your analysis, you were assuming that that ten
19 percent increase was happening every year; is that right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And if --

22 Looking down at the bottom of page 5, where it says,
23 "Lifetime Value," am I correct that you estimated that there was 24 an approximately $15 million gap between the as-written value of 25 the contracts and what was actually paid to the entities?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

584

1 A Correct, based on -- on the incorrect contracts I had.

2 Q Sitting here today, Mr. Erstling, do you know, if you
3 had not applied that ten percent that was not in the actual 4 final contracts, what the overpayment amount would have been?

5 MR. PETERS: Objection; compound.

6 THE COURT: Overruled.

7 A Can you ask the question again for me?

8 Q Of course.

9 Have you --

10 MR. THOMPSON: Let me withdraw and ask a different
11 question.

12 Q Have you conducted an analysis of what the overpayment
13 on the contracts was without taking into consideration that ten
14 percent increase?

15 A I -- I didn't complete any analysis like that.

16 Q Okay. And while we're in this exhibit, Mr. Erstling,
17 if I can take you back one page, to page 4 --

18 (Image scrolled.)

19 Q -- is this an analysis that you prepared of invoices
20 for McKenna and Associates?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q And if I can take you over to the --

23 Well, stepping back: One of the concerns that you and 24 your colleagues raised to the Audit Committee were large 25 payments to McKenna and Associates that were not called for by

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

585

1 any written contract; is that correct?

2 A I believe that was correct, yes.

3 Q And if I can take you over the "Approvals" column on 4 page 4 of Exhibit 2361, does this reflect the approvals on the 5 invoices listed in this table?

6 A I believe that's correct, but without seeing the actual
7 invoice, I couldn't confirm. But I believe that that's correct.

8 Q And "WHP," does that refer to Mr. Phillips?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And "WL," does that refer to Mr. LaPierre?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And then, going down to where it says, "JLP" --
13 Do you see that?

14 A Yes.

15 Q -- is that Mr. Powell?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q Okay. So, to the best of your understanding,
18 Mr. Erstling, referring to this (indicating) document, some 19 combination of Mr. Powell, Mr. LaPierre and Mr. Phillips
20 approved these payments to McKenna and Associates; is that
21 correct?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q The NRA continued to pay the MMP entities above the 24 amount called for in the written contracts until 2022; is that
25 correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

586

1 (Image removed.)

2 MR. PETERS: Objection.

3 I don't think there's been a foundation for this
4 compound question, and I don't think it accurately states
5 the testimony thus far.

6 THE COURT: Well, he's asking a new question, so it
7 wouldn't be in the prior testimony. But I think the 8 objection as to foundation is probably fair.

9 So, sustained.

10 Q The NRA renegotiated its relationship with the MMP
11 entities in 2022; is that correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Prior to that renegotiation, are you aware of any 14 contracts -- written contracts -- that provided for the amounts
15 that the NRA was paying to the MMP entities?

16 A There was not a written contract for that amount.

17 Q To the best of your understanding, the amounts above
18 and beyond what was called for in the written contracts were the 19 result of verbal approvals; is that correct?

20 A They were verbal agreements, correct.

21 Q And those verbal agreements were --

22 MR. THOMPSON: Withdrawn.

23 Q To the best of your understanding, Mr. Erstling, who 24 entered into those verbal agreements?

25 A Oh, I -- I -- I can't answer that question. I just --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

587

1 I'm not part of that relationship, so I don't know who asked
2 for -- for additional services.

3 Q Are you aware, Mr. Erstling, that there were several
4 amendments to the Membership Marketing Partners agreement
5 between 2011 and 2018?

6 A I believe I've seen -- seen amendments.

7 Q And those amendments did not change the dollar amount
8 called for in the underlying contract; is that correct?

9 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor; Best Evidence
10 Rule.

11 THE COURT: You can answer.

12 Overruled.

13 A You would have to show me the amendments. I -- I don't 14 know what was -- I can't recall what's in those amendments at 15 this moment.

16 Q So you agreed earlier, Mr. Erstling, that the procedure
17 set forth by Mr. LaPierre with respect to business case analyses
18 applies to contract renewals; is that correct?

19 A I believe it -- it does.

20 Q Okay. Did you --

21 Have you, personally, ever seen a business case
22 analysis for any of the contract renewals with any of the MMP
23 entities?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Which one?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

588

1 A This last one.

2 Q So the most recent one, in 2022; is that correct?

3 A I believe, yes.

4 Q Prior to that, have you seen -- do you recall seeing --
5 any business case analyses for any other renewal or amendment of 6 an MMP entity contract?

7 A I -- I don't recall, but that doesn't mean it doesn't
8 exist.

9 Q You are currently the head of both Accounting
10 Operations and Budget and Financial Analysis; is that correct?

11 A That is correct.

12 Q And whose responsibility within the NRA is it to 13 maintain records of business justifications?

14 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor; calls for a
15 legal conclusion.

16 THE COURT: I think, in this case --

17 By "responsibility," you mean functionally, who 18 is -- who is tasked with doing it?

19 MR. THOMPSON: That's right, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 MR. CORRELL: Objection withdrawn, your Honor.

22 A Functionally, everyone's responsible for keeping track
23 of -- of their contracts. It is -- it is the job of both [sic]
24 the Office of the General Counsel to have copies of contracts.
25 It's also the responsibility of Financial Services to have a

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 copy of contracts.

2 Q And is it one of the functional responsibilities of
3 Financial Services to maintain copies of the business case
4 analyses for contracts?

5 A They would be part of the contract itself. It should
6 be a -- one package.

7 Q And so, to the extent that they exist, any business
8 case analyses for any of the MMP entity renewals or amendments
9 should be in Financial Services; is that correct?

10 A They should be, yes.

11 Q And to the best of your knowledge, you've never seen
12 one; is that correct?

13 A Well, I've seen the newest one.

14 Q Other than the most recent one, from 2022, you have not
15 seen one; is that correct, Mr. Erstling?

16 A I -- I don't recall seeing one.

17 Q Okay.

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

590

1 Q To the best of your understanding, Mr. Erstling, is the
2 Office of General Counsel also functionally responsible for
3 maintaining contracts?

4 A They don't maintain contracts. I think they keep 5 copies of contracts.

6 Q Okay. And would their files, to the best of your
7 understanding, also include business case analyses to the extent
8 they exist?

9 A I'm not sure what their files would contain.

10 Q Within the NRA between 2015 and 2018 do you know who 11 was in charge of the -- of supervising the MMP entity
12 relationship?

13 A I believe that would have been Todd Grable.

14 Q And Mr. Grable is the former executive director of 15 membership, is that correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q One of your roles and responsibilities, Mr. Erstling,
18 is to prepare the NRA's budget every year, is that correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q That's been your responsibility since you joined the 21 NRA, is that correct?

22 A That is correct.

23 Q That was in 2001?

24 A It is.

25 Q And so typically speaking around Labor Day each year

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

591

1 you meet with each division in the NRA to talk about the budget
2 for the following year, is that correct?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And one division that has its own budget is the 5 executive vice president is that correct?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q So when you meet with the division, typically speaking
8 who within the division do you meet to discuss the budget?

9 A I would meet with the head of usually the different
10 divisions.

11 Q So, for example, you would meet with Mr. Grable for
12 Membership, is that correct?

13 A I would meet with Mr. Grable and his staff.

14 Q Mr. Schropp for Advancement?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And Mr. DeBergalis for General Operations while he was 17 the executive director?

18 A I would meet with Joe, yes.

19 Q But you didn't meet with Mr. LaPierre to talk about the 20 executive vice president budget, is that correct?

21 A That is correct.

22 Q And that -- the task of meeting with Mr. LaPierre was 23 left up to Mr. Phillips, is that right?

24 A It's left up to the treasurer, yes.

25 Q So, Mr. Spray, while he was the treasurer, would be the

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

592

1 one who would meet on the executive vice president budget?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q And currently Ms. Rowling?

4 A Correct.

5 Q Within the executive vice president budget there is 6 also the executive vice president consulting budget, is that
7 correct?

8 A That is one line item, yes.

9 Q And as its name suggests, it's a part of the budget
10 that has those consultants for the executive vice president, is
11 that right?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q The process each year for -- Withdrawn. So, you would 14 never directly participate in any conversations about the 15 executive vice president budget period, is that correct?

16 A Can you ask that question again?

17 Q Yes. Withdrawn and I'll move on. You completed the 18 executive vice president consulting budget in a vacuum, is that
19 fair to say?

20 A It is fair to say that I am an expert in budgeting, and 21 I budgeted the EVP's office. It's also fair to say that I use
22 trend analysis to come up with a list of the EVP's consultants,
23 and I provide that list of consultants and the EVP budget to the 24 treasurer, so the treasurer can then talk to the EVP. Rarely
25 does a high level executive like the governor of New York or JP

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

593

1 Diamond complete their own budget. They usually leave it to
2 staff people. And that's what I do.

3 Q So, if we can please look at tab five of your binder,
4 Mr. Erstling. This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 957.

5 MR. THOMPSON: I would move for admission of this
6 exhibit, your Honor.

7 MR. WERBNER: No objection.

8 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

9 MR. PETERS: No objection.

10 THE COURT: Admitted.

11 Q Mr. Erstling, this is an e-mail chain between you and 12 Mr. Tedrick in 2015, is that right?

13 A (Examining). That's correct.

14 Q And looking at the top most e-mail, which is from you
15 to Mr. Tedrick, is that right?

16 A Yep.

17 Q And you write, "No. Sonya and I complete this budget
18 'in a vacuum'. We get no support/information from EVP office",
19 is that right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q Was that accurate?

22 A It's -- it's accurate when I create the budget, yes.
23 But the budget is then turned over to the treasurer. The 24 treasurer then talks to the EVP, and the treasurer returns with 25 any changes. So if there are changes to be made to the budget,

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

594

1 we would get those from the treasurer. But I don't work with
2 Wayne LaPierre directly on the budget.

3 Q You work with all the other executives, don't you, Mr.
4 Erstling?

5 A Different levels of executives have different
6 responsibilities. And that's the case with any organization.
7 The Attorney General doesn't do her own budget.

8 MR. THOMPSON: Move to strike as nonresponsive,
9 your Honor.

10 THE COURT: That one I'll agree with. So it's 11 stricken.

12 MR. PETERS: Not the whole answer, just the last
13 part, right?

14 THE COURT: Just the part that the Attorney General
15 budget.

16 Q If you could please take a look at tab seven of your
17 binder, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 1001.

18 MR. THOMPSON: I will move to admit exhibit,
19 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1001.

20 MR. WERBNER: No objection.

21 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

22 MR. PETERS: No objection.

23 THE COURT: It's admitted.

24 Q So, please feel free to look at the entire exhibit, Mr.
25 Erstling. But I'm going to be focusing for my first questions

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

595

1 on page 2, which is the -- Well, do you recognize this to be the
2 Excell attached to the cover e-mail that is titled "EVP
3 Consulting"?

4 A (Examining). Yes, sir.

5 Q Okay. Or rather it's a PDF and not an Excell, is that
6 correct?

7 A Correct.

8 Q So, this is the budget for 2019 for the EVP consulting
9 budget, is that correct?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q So looking at the PDF on page 2, if you could please
12 look at row two where it reads "Froman, Sandra". Do you see
13 that?

14 A I do.

15 Q And Ms. Froman was a board member at the time, is that
16 right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And is she still a board member to the best of your
19 understanding?

20 A To the best of my knowledge, yes.

21 Q Okay. And so am I correct, Mr. Erstling, that the 2019
22 budget called for a total payment of $39,180 to Ms. Froman for 23 speaking engagements?

24 A That's what I placed in the budget, yes.

25 Q Where did this information come from?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

596

1 A Historical. Historical averages.

2 Q So basically every year you would take the previous
3 year's budget for the executive vice president consulting budget
4 and then move it forward into the next year?

5 A I would take the previous year's actual expenses and I
6 would trend that into the future.

7 Q Okay.

8 A That's what I would hand over to the treasurer to talk
9 to the EVP about.

10 Q Okay.

11 MR. PETERS: Could you give Mr. Erstling just a
12 moment to read through the whole document.

13 Q If you need to, Mr. Erstling, please feel free to.

14 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
15 request of counsel.)

16 Q Are you ready?

17 A I'm ready.

18 Q Great. Please take a look then at row three on the 19 same page where it reads, "Hammer, Marion". Do you see that?

20 A Yes, ma'am -- yes, sir. I'm sorry.

21 Q And am I correct that the 2019 budget called for a
22 total payment of $270,000 to Ms. Hammer in 2019?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q Ms. Hammer is a former president of the NRA, is that
25 correct?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

597

1 A That's correct.

2 Q And is a current board member?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And if you could please go down to row five where it
5 reads "David Keene".

6 MR. THOMPSON: That's K-E-E-N-E for our reporter.

7 Q Do you see that?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q Mr. Keene is also a former president of the NRA, is
10 that correct?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And is a current board member?

13 A That's -- I believe so. Yes.

14 Q And the 2019 budget called for a total payment of 15 $48,000 to Mr. Keene in 2019, is that correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And again so these are -- You put this budget together
18 using historical trends, is that correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q So for 2018 is it fair to assume that the NRA paid Mr.
21 Keene $48,000, and that you then carried it forward into this
22 budget?

23 A It's fair to assume.

24 Q And then I would like to take you down please to row 14
25 where it reads Phillips comma Woody. Do you see that?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

598

1 A I do.

2 Q And the 2019 budget, executive vice president
3 consulting budget called for payments of $360,000 to
4 Mr. Phillips, is that correct?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q Do you have any understanding as to what those payments
7 were for or were intended to be for?

8 A I was told that.

9 MR. WERBNER: I'll object to hearsay.

10 THE COURT: Told by who?

11 THE WITNESS: I can't remember. Sorry.

12 THE COURT: Another NRA employee?

13 THE WITNESS: Another NRA employee.

14 THE COURT: Sustain.

15 Q The NRA budget is approved by the NRA board of 16 directors every year, is that correct?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q Is that approved by the full board or is it just the 19 finance committee?

20 A The finance committee reviews and approves it and sends 21 it to the board for approval.

22 Q Okay. So it goes to the finance committee first, where 23 there might be some back and forth about the budget, is that
24 fair to say?

25 A That's fair to say.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

599

1 Q The finance committee will then recommend the budget to
2 the board for approval, is that right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q When does the finance committee typically speaking get
5 the draft budget for the next year?

6 A So, we'll try to send it out prior to Thanksgiving. So
7 they have some time to review it by like the December -- the 8 first week of December. That's our goal.

9 Q Okay. And then recognizing that it may vary from year
10 to year, approximately when does the budget go to the full board
11 for approval?

12 A Usually the first week of January.

13 Q And so is it typically at the January meeting of the 14 board of directors that the budget is approved?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q The budget that goes to the finance committee, does 17 that provide division by division breakout of how the 18 individual -- Withdrawn. Let me try that again. The budget
19 that goes to the finance committee, does that provide for 20 example how much is budgeted for the Division of Advancement?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And does it provide how much is budgeted for the 23 Executive Vice President's Office?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And do you -- Are you a participant in the discussions

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

600

1 with the finance committee about the budget?

2 A I am present and will answer questions when asked, but
3 usually it's the chief financial officer/treasurer that does the 4 presentation.

5 Q Okay. And typically speaking you do attend the meeting
6 where the finance committee reviews the draft budget, is that
7 correct?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And in your entire time at the NRA since 2001, do you
10 recall any members of the finance committee asking questions
11 about what is being spent under the executive vice president
12 line item?

13 A I can't say I remember but, you know, there could have 14 been.

15 Q But you can't recall any specifically?

16 A Not, not to me directly.

17 Q Have you ever had any questions from members of the 18 finance committee about consultants that the executive vice 19 president is paying for?

20 A Not to me directly.

21 Q Looking back at Exhibit 1001, which is tab seven of 22 your binder, Mr. Erstling. On the cover e-mail it refers to 23 another PDF attachment, NRA County. Am I correct that should 24 read NRA Country?

25 A It should read NRA Country.

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

601

1 Q What is NRA Country?

2 A NRA Country is an effort to help brand ourselves with
3 country music.

4 Q And was that -- was NRA Country -- Where did that fall
5 in the budget in terms of division?

6 A It's fallen in multiple places. At one point it was in
7 public relations. Now it's within general operations. It shows
8 in exhibits.

9 Q And for the time period that it was in public
10 relations, who would you meet with during the budget preparation
11 process to discuss the public relations budget?

12 A Usually I would roll that up and that would be the
13 treasurer.

14 Q You would meet with the treasurer on that?

15 A On that budget, yes.

16 Q And who would the treasurer speak to, to the best of 17 your knowledge, about the contents of the public relations
18 budget?

19 A I don't know where it went beyond that. I just 20 provided the treasurer with the PR budget, NRA Country, EVP, and 21 those three would come back to me with adjustments and changes.

22 Q And the NRA has a division of public relations,
23 correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And that's lead currently by Mr. Arulanandam?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

602

1 A That's different. That's public affairs.

2 Q I see. Okay. So what is the -- Where in the 3 organizational chart does public relations sit?

4 A Public relations sits by itself, but it's controlled by
5 the EVP.

6 Q So the public relations budget is also controlled by 7 the executive vice president, is that correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. And has that been true for, to the best of your 10 knowledge, the entire time you've been at the NRA?

11 A That's true.

12 Q Okay. Mr. Erstling, the NRA filed for bankruptcy in 13 January of 2021, is that correct?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q The NRA was not insolvent at the time, correct?

16 A That is also correct.

17 Q You first learned about the filing of the bankruptcy
18 after it was filed, is that correct?

19 A That is correct.

20 Q Was that --

21 MR. FLEMING: Objection. Leading.

22 THE COURT: He's an employee of the defendants.
23 Overruled.

24 Q And did you first learn about the filing of the 25 bankruptcy through the sort of press release that went out from

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

603

1 the NRA?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Were you surprised by the filing of the bankruptcy, Mr.
4 Erstling?

5 A No.

6 Q That's because nothing surprised you anymore at that
7 point, is that right?

8 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

10 A There -- there were movements that were happening.
11 Movements that were alerting me that something was a flight.

12 MR. THOMPSON: If we could bring up Mr. Erstling's
13 litigation deposition starting at 241 -- I'm sorry --
14 page 244, line 14 through 245, two.

15 MS. ROGERS: Objection, your Honor. This is 16 improper impeachment. They should give him a chance to 17 refresh his recollection first.

18 MR. THOMPSON: I just ask the question based on his 19 prior statement. I just want to read it into the record.

20 MR. PETERS: Also nothing surprises me anymore when 21 his deposition was taken in 2022 versus how he files now,
22 that's not really impeachment. If he says nothing surprises
23 me --

24 THE COURT: You can state objections. Overruled.

25 Q So, Mr. Erstling, do you recall being asked whether you

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

604

1 had a reaction to the bankruptcy?

2 A I do now.

3 Q And do you recall answering "No reaction"?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And you were asked, "Were you surprised" and --

6 A And I said "Nothing surprises me anymore".

7 Q Was that accurate at the time of your deposition?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Do you have any personal knowledge, Mr. Erstling, of 10 whether Craig Spray was informed about the filing of the 11 bankruptcy?

12 A I know that he knew it was coming.

13 Q And what is the basis for your understanding?

14 A My understanding is is that he transferred $20 million
15 off the line to a bank in McLean to give us working capital
16 during a bankruptcy. So that tells me that he knew it was 17 coming.

18 Q When you say "off the line", are you referring to the 19 line of credit for the NRA?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And when did that transfer occur?

22 A So, the bankruptcy was in 2021?

23 Q I can't answer your questions, Mr. Erstling. I'm 24 sorry.

25 A I believe the bankruptcy was in 2021. That would have

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

605

1 been in late 2020.

2 Q Okay. Do you have any personal knowledge as to whether
3 or not Mr. Frazer knew that the bankruptcy was being filed?

4 A I have no knowledge of that.

5 Q Between 2018 and 2022 who was the head of Compliance
6 for the NRA, Mr. Erstling?

7 A Can you give me that question one more time? I lost
8 track.

9 Q Of course. Between 2018 until 2022 who was the head of
10 Compliance at the NRA?

11 A Compliance would go to the Office of General Counsel.

12 Q So, Mr. Frazer to the best of your understanding was 13 the head of Compliance for the NRA between 2018 and 2022?

14 A Correct.

15 Q The NRA started conducting compliance seminars for 16 staff in 2018, is that correct?

17 A That is correct.

18 Q You've attended some of those compliance seminars?

19 A I have not only attended, but I've given portions of 20 those compliance seminars.

21 Q When did you begin giving portions of those compliance
22 seminars?

23 A Probably 2021.

24 Q And did you attend the first compliance seminar in 25 2018?

LAS

Direct-Erstling-Thompson

606

1 A I've attended every one that's been given at the NRA
2 headquarters.

3 Q And does that include the one that was in 2018 to the 4 best of your recollection?

5 A To the best of my recollection.

6 Q Do you recall, Mr. Powell, giving the introduction to 7 that compliance seminar?

8 A Yes, I do.

9 Q And board members were not in attendance at that first
10 seminar, is that correct?

11 A Board members had their own compliance seminar.

12 Q When?

13 A I don't know.

14 Q Do you know if it was in 2018?

15 A I don't know the answer to that.

16 Q Okay. Mr. LaPierre wasn't in attendance at that first 17 training seminar, was he?

18 A I -- I can't tell you whether he was or not. I -- I
19 remember seeing him at some. I don't remember seeing him -- I
20 can't tell you which ones I've seen him at and which ones I
21 haven't. I'm sorry.

22 Q So, Mr. Erstling, I just have a few documents that we 23 would like to get admitted. So, if I could please take you to 24 tab ten of your binder.

25 THE COURT: Counsel, before we move into this, I

LAS

10 A JUROR: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: I will await your next message about 12 when it's too warm in here, which I expect at some point

20 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you, your Honor.

22 BY MR. THOMPSON:

23 Q Mr. Erstling, at some point, did you conduct a review
24 of Tyler Schropp's expense reimbursements?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

609

1 Q And you identified that Mr. Schropp's expense
2 reimbursements that were being processed by the NRA were less
3 than you would expect for the -- one of the -- NRA's top
4 fund-raisers; is that right?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And did that ultimately lead you to discovering that
7 Mr. Schropp was expensing through Ackerman McQueen?

8 A Eventually, that came out, but that was not my -- I --
9 I didn't know where the expenses were.

10 Q Who did you report your concern --

11 Let me start over: Were you concerned about 12 Mr. Schropp's expenses?

13 A I think, when Craig got here and we were looking for 14 stuff and then we started meeting with everybody, we just 15 started to find things that didn't look, maybe, right. And so,
16 in preparation for the Audit Committee meeting of July 30th, we 17 kept digging -- right? -- we kept looking for stuff, trying to 18 clean stuff up. And so this was one of the -- the, sort of,
19 anomalies that, you know, when you look at it on paper, it just 20 doesn't make sense.

21 Q And have you, personally, conducted any review of 22 Mr. Schropp's expenses on his Ackerman McQueen credit card?

23 A I have not.

24 Q Were Mr. Schropp's expenses one of the concerns you
25 raised to the Audit Committee in 2018, to the best of your

1 recollection?

2 A Yes; it was part of the documents in that section that
3 we brought forward.

4 Q Okay. Going back to our discussion about the 5 Associated Television invoices, do you recall speaking about
6 that earlier?

7 A I do.

8 Q And I believe you said, Mr. Erstling, and please
9 correct me if I'm wrong, that you understand that ATI provided 10 updated invoices after they were approached about this issue; is
11 that right?

12 A I -- I was told that there was other things; there was 13 more technical equipment that was being rented.

14 Q Who were you told by?

15 A I -- I believe it was somebody on the financial staff.
16 It could -- it could have been -- it -- it could have been 17 Craig; it could have been Sonya. I can't recall who mentioned
18 it to me.

19 Q Do you recall ever, personally, seeing any 20 documentation justifying what was paid for in connection with 21 the house rentals?

22 A I did not see that final analysis.

23 Q Okay. So you have no personal knowledge about whether 24 or not there was in fact equipment rental or anything like that;
25 is that correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

611

1 A I was not part of the transaction; I -- I have no -- no
2 knowledge.

3 Q And we were speaking, Mr. Erstling, about the 4 MMP-entity contracts and whether or not they were being paid
5 more than was called for in the written contracts. Do you
6 recall that?

7 A I do.

8 Q Even after you brought your concern to the Audit
9 Committee in 2018, the NRA continued to pay the MMP entities
10 above what was called for in the written contracts; correct?

11 MR. PETERS: Objection; lack of foundation;
12 misstates the prior testimony.

13 MR. THOMPSON: I don't think I was characterizing
14 any testimony, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: It was a new question.

16 Overruled.

17 MR. THOMPSON: (To reporter) Would you mind
18 repeating the question?

19 COURT REPORTER: Your Honor ...?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 (The reporter read back the requested portion of 22 the record.)

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And I believe you testified that, to the best of your
25 understanding, that was pursuant -- that was pursuant to verbal

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

612

1 agreements as to the amounts; is that right?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q Those verbal agreements violated NRA policy, right?

4 A Again, that's -- it's not written in the policy at all
5 about verbal contracts, so it's missing.

6 MR. THOMPSON: Can we please bring up
7 Mr. Erstling's litigation deposition, at page two-twenty --
8 219, starting at line 17, please, and then going to 220,
9 line 10?

10 (Image displayed, then modified.)

11 Q So, Mr. Erstling, do you recall testifying that verbal
12 agreements would violate NRA policy if there is an amendment to 13 a contract that exceeds a hundred thousand dollars per year?

14 (Pause.)

15 MR. PETERS: Again I -- okay. So he's being given
16 an opportunity to refresh his recollection.

17 THE COURT: Well, no.

18 Again, because this is a defendants' employee's
19 witness, all the testimony is, you know, admissible.

20 But are you just asking him to ...

21 MR. THOMPSON: Let me -- I'll rephrase the 22 question, your Honor.

23 Q Mr. Erstling, was your testimony at your deposition
24 that verbal agreements -- it would violate NRA policy if there
25 was an amendment to a contract that exceeds a hundred thousand

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1 dollars per year accurate?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Thank you.

4 (Image removed.)

5 Q Mr. Erstling, we were speaking about the bankruptcy and 6 I believe you said that you inferred that Mr. Spray had 7 knowledge about the bankruptcy because of a $20 million
8 transfer, or that came off of the line of credit, that occurred
9 sometime in 2020; is that correct?

10 A Correct.

11 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor; misstates
12 prior testimony.

13 I don't recall him using the word "inferred."

14 THE COURT: Well, the prior testimony is what it
15 is.

16 You can go ahead.

17 Q Would you agree with me, Mr. Erstling, that you
18 inferred from that transfer that Mr. Spray knew about the 19 bankruptcy?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Do you have any personal knowledge that Mr. Spray did
22 or did not in fact know about the bankruptcy?

23 A I have no personal knowledge. He never told me he knew
24 about the bankruptcy.

25 Q Okay. So you are just drawing an inference from this

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

614

1 $20 million transfer in 2020.

2 A Yes.

3 Q Going back to the Top Concerns memorandum -- and if you
4 would like to look at it, it's tab 26 of your binder, Exhibit
5 2605.

6 (Pause.)

7 (Image displayed.)

8 Q And the question, first, Mr. Erstling, is just: When 9 you and your colleagues were putting together the Top Concerns
10 memorandum, were you sharing documents with each other,
11 substantiating your concerns?

12 A With each other? Yes.

13 Q And did you receive documents from your colleagues
14 about the concerns that they had?

15 A I believe, yes.

16 Q Do you recall whether you received any documentation
17 related to the entity HomeTelos?

18 A I may have, yes, from Emily. Emily would have probably 19 brought that one forward.

20 Q Emily Cummins; is that right?

21 A Emily Cummins.

22 Q And so, to the best of your understanding, Ms. Cummins
23 was --

24 MR. THOMPSON: Well, withdrawn.

25 Q So, looking at the Top Concerns memo, Mr. Erstling,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

615

1 page 2 of Exhibit 2605, item 1-a., to the best of your
2 understanding, was -- this item related to Woody Phillips
3 concerning payments to HomeTelos?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And that's based on the documentation that you reviewed
6 from Ms. Cummins?

7 A I believe that's correct.

8 Q Okay. And it's your understanding that HomeTelos was 9 owned by a "significant other" of Mr. Phillips?

10 A That was Emily's knowledge. I -- I didn't have that 11 knowledge at the time.

12 Q Okay. But Ms. Cummins relayed that information to you.

13 A She did.

14 Q Okay. And is that true for --

15 MR. THOMPSON: Withdrawn.

16 Q Is it fair to say that for the other items on the Top
17 Concerns memo that were not your specific concerns, that your 18 colleagues provided you with information to substantiate their
19 concerns?

20 A I would say yes.

21 Q All right. So, if you'd please turn to tab 10 of your 22 binder, Mr. Erstling ...

23 MR. THOMPSON: And this is Plaintiff's Exhibit
24 1099, and I will move for its admission. I have not heard
25 an objection yet.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

616

1 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, there's a problem with
2 the exhibits. Mr. Conley [sic] had listed exhibits in a
3 certain order and then the order has been changed. So, if
4 we could have a brief delay so that we can locate the tabs
5 that he's referring to, which are different from the -- the 6 documents are in a different order for us -- just so that we 7 can have a chance to look at them before we are required to 8 decide whether to object.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 (Pause.)

11 MR. CORRELL: No objection your Honor.

12 MR. WERBNER: No objection.

13 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted.

14 (Image displayed.)

15 MR. THOMPSON: All right. We can skip this one,
16 then.

17 (Image removed.)

18 Q Thank you, Mr. Erstling.

19 And then, next is tab 36, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit
20 5099, but specifically only pages 1 and 50 from that exhibit.

21 (Pause.)

22 MR. THOMPSON: And I would move for admission of 23 just pages 1 and 50 of Exhibit 5099.

24 MR. WERBNER: No objection.

25 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

617

1 MR. FLEMING: No.

2 THE COURT: Okay. It's --

3 Well, hang on.

4 MR. PETERS: No objection.

5 We might object to the foundation for asking about 6 it to Mr. Erstling, because I don't see his name on it, but 7 subject to a potential objection, it looks fine.

8 THE COURT: So you may object to questions about 9 it, but the --

10 MR. PETERS: Correct.

11 THE COURT: -- the document is --

12 All right. So it's admitted as an exhibit.

13 (Image displayed.)

14 BY MR. THOMPSON:

15 Q And for this Exhibit, tab 36, Exhibit 5099, if you
16 could please take a look at page 50, using the bottommost page
17 numbers, which should be the second page --

18 Do you have that?

19 A I do.

20 Q -- do you recognize this to be an invoice from Ackerman
21 McQueen, Mr. Erstling?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q And is this an example, Mr. Erstling, of the vague
24 invoices that you and your colleagues raised concerns about at 25 the Top Concern -- at the July 2018 Audit Committee meeting?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

618

1 A Yes.

2 Q And that's because it simply calls for payment related
3 to "Out of Pocket Expenses"; right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q With no other detail provided, right?

6 A No other detail provided.

7 Q And looking --

8 Am I correct that, sort of, towards the bottom-right,
9 there is what appears to be a stamp from the Financial Services
10 Division? Is that right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And this is a stamp that's used for processing invoices
13 in the NRA?

14 A Correct.

15 Q And do you recognize the signature on the top line of 16 that, stamped "Mr. Tedrick"?

17 A "Rick Tedrick for Wilson H. Phillips."

18 Q "Rick Tedrick for Wilson H. Phillips"; is that correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q Okay. And the second signature, is that Mr. Frazer's
21 signature?

22 A That's John Frazer's signature.

23 Q Okay. And whose signature is the last signature?

24 A The last signature's going to be someone in AP, and --
25 so they sign it first, before they route it.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

619

1 Q Okay. So somebody in Accounts Payable will first sign
2 the invoice and then send it up the chain to whoever needs to
3 approve it; is that right?

4 A Correct.

5 Q And in this case, it went to Mr. Frazer?

6 A Went to Mr. Tedrick first and then Mr. Frazer.

7 Q Mr. Tedrick first and then Mr. Frazer, okay.

8 And -- all right.

9 So next up is tab 37.

10 (Image removed.)

11 MR. THOMPSON: And this is Plaintiff's Exhibit
12 5101, and we are specifically moving to admit pages 1, 7, 8,
13 39 and 40 of this exhibit.

14 THE COURT: I'll give the defendants a chance to 15 take a look at it.

16 MR. PETERS: Same as before: We have no objection
17 to admitting the exhibit but may have questions about it.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 Any objections?

20 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right, it's admitted.

22 (Image displayed.)

23 Q And for this exhibit, Mr. Erstling, if you could 24 just -- well, take as much time as you need to review it. But 25 if you could please look through the attachments to Exhibit

1 5101, which is pages 7, 8, 39 and 40, and let me know if these
2 are other examples of vague Ackerman McQueen invoices that you
3 and your colleagues were concerned about ...?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 (Image removed.)

6 Q Okay. Next up is tab 35, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit
7 5098.

8 MR. THOMPSON: And for this one, we are only
9 seeking to admit page 24.

10 MR. WERBNER: No objection.

11 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Same issue?

13 MR. PETERS: The same -- thanks.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 It's admitted.

16 (Image displayed.)

17 MR. THOMPSON: And I have a litany of others, your 18 Honor, to get in that I'm not going to ask Mr. Erstling any 19 questions about, so I can read those into the record and see 20 if there are any objections or we can handle it over the 21 lunch break.

22 THE COURT: At some point, are you going to show
23 them to the jury, or what's the plan on that? I mean --

24 MR. THOMPSON: They'll be included in summary
25 evidence, is the intention, your Honor.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 THE COURT: So at some point.

2 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: This won't be mysterious.

4 MR. THOMPSON: No. Okay.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 Well, if you want to take care of the 7 administrative task of moving them in and seeing if there
8 are any objections, that's fine.

9 MR. THOMPSON: Sure.

10 So let me just quickly run through those.

11 MR. PETERS: And you're moving in invoices that 12 look like this, but maybe with other dates and other amounts 13 on them?

14 MR. THOMPSON: Correct. These will all be the 15 Ackerman out-of-pocket expense invoices.

16 MR. PETERS: Okay.

17 MR. THOMPSON: So next would be tab 34, Plaintiff's
18 Exhibit 5097, pages 22, 35 and 62.

19 THE COURT: No, I'm going to suggest something:
20 that we do this, you know, at a break, when the jury is not 21 here, because I think we can probably run through these 22 things relatively quickly.

23 MR. THOMPSON: That's fine with us, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. CORRELL: That's fine with us, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. So let's ...

2 MR. THOMPSON: Okay. In that case, no more
3 questions, Mr. Erstling.

4 Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Okay, you may cross-examine.

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 BY MS. ROGERS:

8 Q Mr. Erstling, good morning.

9 A Good morning.

10 Q I don't have much, so we should be able to get to lunch
11 soon.

12 You're a person of integrity, right?

13 A I believe so.

14 MR. THOMPSON: Objection; character evidence.

15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 Q Is the NRA corrupt?

17 MR. THOMPSON: Objection; character evidence.

18 THE COURT: Um ...

19 MS. ROGERS: You're alleging the NRA's corrupt, so
20 surely, the witness should be able to disagree.

21 MR. THOMPSON: We're alleging that the NRA is 22 violating its internal policies and controls and not 23 managing itself correctly.

24 THE COURT: Sustained.

25 Q Mr. Erstling, to your knowledge, does the NRA violate

623

1 the policies and controls adopted by its board of directors?

2 A Now it --

3 MR. THOMPSON: Objection; vague.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

5 Q You can answer.

6 A Now it does not. We've changed. We're -- we're a
7 different organization than we were back in 2015 to 2018.

8 Q And I think I heard you testify earlier that in 2018,
9 you began to compare notes with some of your colleagues --
10 Sonya, Portia, Lisa, and Emily -- right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q Comparing notes about concerns that some of the board's 13 policies were being overridden, right?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And then you came together and you brought those 16 concerns to the Audit Committee, right?

17 A On July 30th.

18 Q And then the next time you spoke to the Audit
19 Committee, I think you testified, was September of the same
20 year; right?

21 A That's to the best of my recollection.

22 Q So one month later.

23 A Yes.

24 Q Did you face any reprisals?

25 A No, ma'am.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

624

1 Q To your knowledge, did any of the other colleagues who
2 came forward with you face any reprisals?

3 A Not to my knowledge.

4 Q You've been promoted since then, right?

5 A I have.

6 THE COURT: Counsel, leading was okay for the 7 opposing party.

8 MS. ROGERS: Well, I have one last question and 9 it's not a leading one:

10 Q If I worked at the NRA, for you or under you, and I
11 told you I had concerns that controls are being violated, what 12 would you tell me to do?

13 A I would tell you --

14 MR. THOMPSON: Objection.

15 It calls for a hypothetical. Speculation; opinion
16 evidence.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 Q You can answer.

19 A So there's -- there's been the creation of -- of a
20 whistleblower policy; there's been the creation of a
21 whistleblower line, so you can phone this -- this -- this
22 whistleblowing line, be anonymous and make whatever report you
23 want to make. So, from that perspective, you don't even have to 24 be on the front lines. It doesn't have to be your name; you can 25 do it anonymously.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

625

1 So those are the -- the changes that have -- that have
2 occurred.

3 MS. ROGERS: Thank you.

4 Nothing further.

5 Except I do need to note: We're not releasing
6 Mr. Erstling, because we intend to call him as part of our 7 chase in chief.

8 THE COURT: Understood.

9 MS. ROGERS: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Correll?

11 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

12 Kent Correll, for Wayne LaPierre.

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. CORRELL:

15 Q Good morning, Mr. Erstling.

16 A Good morning.

17 Q Or afternoon.

18 I have one question for you: Did you ever talk to 19 Mr. LaPierre about any of your concerns?

20 A I did not.

21 MR. CORRELL: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Any questions?

23 MR. WERNER: Yes, your Honor.

24 CROSS-EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. WERNER:

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Werbner

626

1 Q Mr. Erstling, my name is Mark Werbner and I represent
2 Woody Phillips.

3 THE COURT: Could you go over to the mic. a little?

4 MR. WERBNER: Oh.

5 (Mr. Werbner moved closer to the microphone.)

6 THE COURT: There you go.

7 Q I represent Woody Phillips.

8 We've heard a lot about MMP in this case. Did you say
9 that Todd Grable was the person that was responsible for the MMP
10 relationship?

11 A I believe he might be, yes. He was head of Membership.

12 Q All right. And regarding MMP, weren't the increases
13 evaluated and found to be appropriate?

14 A They were evaluated under Craig Spray.

15 Q And they were found to be appropriate?

16 A And they were found to be appropriate.

17 Q Mr. Phillips. Would you say he was a nice gentleman?

18 A He was a nice gentleman.

19 Q That was your view of him?

20 (No audible response.)

21 Q The policy manual that you were asked about -- 22 remember, you were directed to page 106 early in your
23 examination?

24 A I believe so. Do I need to go there now (indicating)?

25 Q Well, I'm just going to ask you this: How many pages?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Werbner

627

1 Isn't it about 300 pages; that policy manual?

2 A Yes, but that's not the policy manual that we use on a
3 day-to-day basis.

4 Q The one the Government asked you about is not the one
5 that you use on a daily basis?

6 A We use a subset of that policy manual that's related to 7 Financial Services and, you know, we don't worry about the 8 policies of the Air Rifle Committee.

9 Q How many pages is that policy?

10 A I would have to -- to see it.

11 Q Just an estimate.

12 A Probably 200 pages.

13 Q So that's 200 pages, and the one that you were given
14 today is 300 pages. That's 500 pages of policy manuals?

15 A Correct.

16 Q Are there other manuals that govern policies and 17 procedures of the NRA?

18 A There are other procedure manuals, yes.

19 Q How many hundreds of pages are those?

20 A Several hundred pages.

21 Q So could there be a thousand pages of policy manuals at
22 NRA?

23 A There could be a thousand pages of policies and 24 procedures, yes.

25 Q And do they change, from time to time?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Erstling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Werbner

628

1 A They do change, from time to time.

2 Q You went to the Finance Committees, if I understood
3 your testimony correctly; is that right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Did you ever tell the Finance Committee, between 2015
6 and 2018, that Mr. Phillips was doing anything wrong?

7 A I did not.

8 Q You had the opportunity throughout those years to talk
9 to the Finance Committee and state if you felt that there was 10 something he was doing wrong. You had that opportunity; didn't
11 you?

12 A I was there; yes.

13 Q Nothing prevented you from telling them about 14 Mr. Phillips if you felt there was something wrong in what he 15 was doing. Nothing prohibited that, did it?

16 A It did not prohibit it.

17 MR. WERBNER: I'll pass the witness.

18 Thank you, sir.

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. FLEMING:

21 Q Good morning, Mr. Erstling.

22 A Good morning.

23 Q I'm William Fleming. I represent Mr. Frazer.

24 I'd like to ask you some questions about the 25 whistleblowing in July of 2018.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 Can you describe the role that Mr. Frazer played, if
2 any, in responding to your coming forward as a whistleblower?

3 A I -- I think he was genuinely active and listening. I
4 know he was present in the meeting. I know he was taking notes,
5 and he was there; he was present.

1 Q Did he meet with the whistleblowers before the
2 July 30th meeting in front of the audit committee?

3 A I -- I can't remember if he did. I just -- My memory
4 is, you know, a little shady on five years ago.

5 MR. FLEMING: Okay. I'm going to cull an exhibit
6 for identification, JFX 13, please, just for the witness not
7 the jury.

8 THE COURT: This requires coordination among a
9 couple of different experts.

10 MR. FLEMING: It does.

11 MR. PETERS: Can we move it into evidence?

12 Q Mr. Erstling, can you see the document yet?

13 A Not yet. Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 Q You have it. Mr. Erstling, look at this. Take your 16 time. Can you tell me -- Well, withdrawn. At the top, in the 17 to line it mentions your name at MErstling@NRAHQ.org. Is that 18 your e-mail address?

19 A It is.

20 Q Do you recall having, you know, take a chance to review
21 this, do you recall receiving this?

22 A (Examining). This does refresh my memory, yes.

23 Q Okay. And what does it refresh your memory about?

24 A So, it's from John Frazer. It's dated 7/27, which 25 would have been --

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

631

1 THE COURT: Well, we're not going to -- Right now
2 he's asking --

3 MR. FLEMING: I'm sorry.

4 THE COURT: Do you want to move it into evidence?

5 MR. FLEMING: Yes, please.

6 THE COURT: Is there any objection?

7 MR. THOMPSON: Hearsay, your Honor.

8 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

9 MR. PETERS: No objection.

10 THE COURT: Well, the part that I'm looking at 11 doesn't seem to be offered for the truth but just for the 12 fact that it was said, is that correct?

13 MR. FLEMING: Just to establish a meeting and yes.

14 THE COURT: Overruled. It's admitted. I don't 15 know whether there is any more than this, than what I'm 16 looking at though.

17 MR. FLEMING: It's just a one page document.

18 THE COURT: It's admitted. Just keep track of all
19 of these numbers 'cause we'll need it later.

20 MR. FLEMING: Yep.

21 THE COURT: So you can -- you can ask.

22 Q So, Mr. Erstling, July 27th was obviously before the 23 July 30th audit committee meeting?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And Mr. Frazer met with yourself, Emily Cummins and

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

632

1 Sonya Rowling and Rick Tedrick, is that correct?

2 A According to this memo, yes.

3 Q And that's generally the whistleblower group, although
4 I recognize there may be others, is that right?

5 A That's also correct.

6 Q Do you recall if those others were in the meeting?

7 A I can't recall.

8 Q Do you recall the meeting being an opportunity to 9 educate Mr. Frazer about your concerns?

10 MR. THOMPSON: Leading, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Overruled.

12 A So, based on -- on what he's thanking us for, it was 13 our opportunity to explain accounting terminology and accounting
14 transactions to him. Yes.

15 Q Okay. But accounting transactions relating to your 16 concerns?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. Now, it mentions in the document Grassroots 19 Behavioral Services. Do you see that?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 Q Can you -- Do you know what Grassroots Behavioral
22 Services is?

23 A Grassroots Behavioral Services is an offshoot of PM
24 Consulting and that was Brad O'Leary.

25 Q And was that a vendor of the NRA?

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

633

1 A PM Consulting was -- was the membership, recruiting and
2 acquisition and fundraising prior to MMP.

3 Q Now, do you have any -- does this refresh your
4 recollection at all about whether Mr. Frazer directed you all
5 not to make any further payments to Grassroots Behavior?

6 A It says there, "I want to confirm in writing that no
7 payments should be made to Grassroots Behavioral Services until 8 further notice." So, it's him stopping it, yes.

9 Q Was Grassroots Behavioral included in your top concerns
10 that you talked about earlier this morning?

11 A I believe it was.

12 Q If you're not sure, we can turn back to that exhibit.
13 It's PX 2605.

14 THE COURT: What tab?

15 MR. THOMPSON: Tab 26, your Honor.

16 A Yes, sir. It's 4B.

17 Q Okay. Now, do you recall meeting with Mr. Frazer after 18 the July 30th audit committee meeting where you raised your top
19 concerns to the audit committee?

20 A Can you ask the question one more time? I'm sorry.

21 Q After you raised your top concerns or met with the 22 audit committee to express your top concerns, do you recall
23 that?

24 A Yes.

25 Q After that date did you also meet with Mr. Frazer to

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

634

1 further discuss your concerns?

2 A I believe we did. I thought there was a meeting at 3 Sonya Rowling's office.

4 Q Now, this whistleblower occurred more than five years
5 ago now, right?

6 A A long time ago, yes.

7 Q Do you have a view on what if any effect it has had on
8 the organization?

9 A There has been so much change. New policies. New 10 whistle blowing opportunities to report. New policies and 11 procedures. Additional audit requirements. Just a level of 12 scrutiny that has -- was never there prior to us coming forward.

13 Q And how about your view on the levels of the 14 organization's compliance?

15 A Compliance is -- is a moving target. You're always 16 going for protection. You always want to make things better.
17 But it's significantly better than it was prior to 2018.

18 Q Now, in your view has Mr. Frazer played any role in 19 assisting the improvements you just mentioned?

20 A Yes. He's been spearheading compliance. He's been 21 spearheading interrelated party transactions. You know, his 22 review of that has been significant. He's part of the approval
23 process now for, you know, contracts and invoices. So, it's -- 24 it's pretty significant.

25 Q And do you have any -- Last question about

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

635

1 whistleblower -- do you have any view of Mr. Frazer's good faith
2 in that respect?

3 MR. THOMPSON: Objection. Calls for a legal
4 conclusion.

5 THE COURT: Can you narrow it to based on
6 interactions he's personally had with him.

7 Q I'll take the Judge's better question. Based on your
8 interactions with Mr. Frazer, do you have any basis to form a
9 conclusion about his good faith in addressing, after your 10 whistleblower complaints, all the matters you just talked about?

11 MR. THOMPSON: Same objection, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 A I believe Mr. Frazer has been a great partner for me.
14 You know, I've worked with him. I've conducted compliance
15 seminars with him. He's helped me tremendously on the 990 and 16 the 990-T, which I've just taken over. So his review on -- on 17 those matters has been excellent.

18 Q If I could switch topics. I would like to ask you, do
19 you know the process by which the NRA constructs and completes
20 its 990?

21 A That's a -- that's a really long process.

22 THE COURT: Hang on one second.

23 MR. THOMPSON: Outside the scope of direct, your
24 Honor.

25 THE COURT: I can't recall. I don't recall you

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

636

1 asking about the 990s.

2 MR. THOMPSON: No, I don't believe I asked any
3 questions about the 990s.

4 THE COURT: Sustained. You can again in the 5 defense case.

6 MR. FLEMING: Understood.

7 Q Now, you mentioned earlier in your testimony that, I
8 took it down, change happened --

9 THE COURT: Just so the jury -- When I say "out of 10 scope", that just means the cross examination has to be 11 limited to the topics covered on direct. I don't mean it's 12 out of scope of the case. So that's why I mentioned that if 13 they want to bring this up later again, they can.

14 Q So, Mr. Erstling, you previously testified, I believe,
15 correct me if I'm wrong, that change happens over time?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Do you recall those words?

18 A I do.

19 Q And the change that happens over time, is it fair to 20 say is the change that you just discussed with me right now?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q Since the whistle blowing?

23 A Yes. Over the last five years.

24 Q Now, I believe you also testified that Mr. Frazer was 25 responsible for compliance at the organization, do you recall

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

637

1 that?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q I would like to cull up your deposition from June of 4 2022. Go to page 300.

5 THE COURT: Is this impeaching anything or what is 6 this for?

7 MR. FLEMING: It is impeaching.

8 THE COURT: On a question just answered or before?

9 MR. FLEMING: From the Government.

10 THE COURT: Maybe put that in context first.

11 MR. FLEMING: Well I did, which is that before he 12 was asked about compliance, who was responsible for 13 compliance at the organization, and he said Mr. Frazer. So 14 this is directly related to that.

15 THE COURT: Maybe I missed that. Okay.

16 MR. FLEMING: The jury can get that, right? We've 17 been --

18 THE COURT: Yeah. I'll continue the same approach,
19 although it's slightly different when the adverse party
20 culls up prior testimony. In that situation it comes in 21 under a different rationale. This would be purely for 22 impeachment.

23 MR. FLEMING: I'll proceed however you would like
24 me to. I just have a couple of questions on it.

25 THE COURT: I think, given that this is, I suspect,

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

638

1 not a terribly sensitive issue, why don't we proceed the
2 same way we proceed with the Government for now. Generally
3 speaking it is different.

4 MR. FLEMING: You can cull it up.

5 THE COURT: Yep.

6 Q So, I would like to take you through lines ten through
7 21. If you could just read that to yourself.

8 THE COURT: Can you just -- I think reading it is 9 the right way to do it, because it's impeaching. And if you
10 could stay near the microphone.

11 MR. PETERS: I think you might turn it on. I can't 12 hear you.

13 THE COURT: It is on. He's too far away from it.

14 Q Can you read lines ten through 21 to yourself, please?

15 A "QUESTION: You said the NRA" --

16 THE COURT: To yourself.

17 Q To yourself.

18 A I'm sorry.

19 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
20 request of counsel.)

21 Q Did you finish? Okay. Does that refresh your 22 recollection who at the organization is responsible for
23 compliance?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q Okay. And who is responsible for compliance?

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

639

1 A Everyone is responsible.

2 Q And in your testimony you indicated that Sonya Rowling
3 is head of compliance for financial items?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q Is that true today?

6 A That's still true today.

7 Q Mr. Frazer is responsible under your testimony for 8 compliance with governance items?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q What are governance items?

11 A It would be related-party transactions, the whistle
12 blowing. Those are the two that come to mind.

13 THE COURT: Counsel, we're about at the end of the 14 morning. Are you a minute away or do you want to continue
15 after lunch? I don't want to rush you on it.

16 MR. FLEMING: It's not a minute. It could be five
17 possibly, but if you prefer me --

18 THE COURT: Let's break then, because I have some 19 things to do.

20 MR. FLEMING: Okay.

21 THE COURT: Let's reconvene everyone at 2:15. Sir,
22 again during the break you're still on the stand
23 essentially. Don't discuss your testimony with anyone
24 including counsel.

7 THE COURT: Just before the jury comes back. I
8 have been upstairs working on the Meadows transcripts. It
9 is substantially slower and harder going than the other,
10 Tedrick, both because of the nature and number of objections
11 and because it sprawls over three ways. What we're finding 12 is it's difficult to make decisions about something on 13 day one, because it might be relevant to something on 14 day three. And until you go through the whole thing, it's 15 difficult to do. It is -- it is an enormous pain in the 16 neck, all of which is to tell you that you should not expect
17 to get my notes back on this before the weekend. I don't 18 think it matters, because I don't see us getting to this
19 witness, given what you've told me about the other
20 witnesses. But I don't know what you can do to help us, but 21 this is a very difficult logistical problem. I'm doing my 22 best.

23 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

10 Q So, Mr. Erstling, do you recall your testimony earlier
11 this morning about compliance training seminars?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q What were those?

14 A Compliance training seminars were a series of 15 presentations that were started, I believe, in 2018 to go
16 through related-party transactions and to talk about marshaling
17 the assets for the cause and not using assets for private 18 benefit and some other -- other issues that were in the 19 presentation.

20 Q And can I have Exhibit JFX 62 for identification
21 brought up just for the witness not the jury.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Is that it?

23 MR. FLEMING: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Is there going -- Are you going to move
25 this into evidence?

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

642

1 MR. FLEMING: I am.

2 THE COURT: Is there an objection to this?

3 MR. THOMPSON: Hearsay, your Honor.

4 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

5 MR. PETERS: It looks like a business record.

6 THE COURT: Is it being offered for the truth of 7 any matters asserted or just that it exists?

8 MR. FLEMING: Just that it exists and it was given,
9 which I will establish.

10 THE COURT: So it's not being offered for the 11 truth. Why would it be hearsay?

12 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, to the extent that he's 13 going to be testifying as to the contents of the document in 14 that these are the policies and procedures and these are 15 what the NRA's standards are, I think that is for the truth
16 of the matter asserted.

17 THE COURT: Well, I don't think in the hearsay
18 sense that's -- Overruled. Again, this is -- You're going
19 to elicit testimony as to what this is and there are not 20 factual -- Are there factual statements in here that you're 21 going to be offering for --

22 MR. FLEMING: I have about a minute or two of 23 questions. Nothing substantive.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Conditionally I'll admit it. If 25 there is anything in here that seems like it is hearsay,

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

643

1 I'll let you know. But if it's just to show that these are
2 standards and you're going to ask him whether they were
3 implemented or if he knows.

4 MR. FLEMING: I'm going to ask even less than that,
5 your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

7 Q So, Mr. Erstling, can you -- do you recognize this
8 document?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q And can you tell the jury what it is?

11 A This is the PowerPoint presentation discussing
12 compliance and governance.

13 Q Do you recall it being given?

14 A I believe I was there.

15 Q Okay. And do you recall that the date of July 26th,
16 2018 was the date it was given?

17 A That's the date that's on the document. It's hard to 18 remember back five years what day something happened on.

19 Q And who presented the substance of this seminar?

20 A So, there were two --

21 THE COURT: Wait a minute. So, somebody else -- I
22 thought initially -- Somebody else prepared this and he's 23 not testifying this is in fact the one that he saw or at 24 least I don't know that he is. So, do you have somebody
25 later or some point who is going to say yes, this is in fact

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

644

1 one that was prepared and presented?

2 MR. FLEMING: Yes. It was presented. And I don't
3 think Mr. Erstling -- I can ask him -- I don't think he's 4 familiar with how it was created.

5 THE COURT: Well, I know. But he just said he
6 doesn't know if this is exactly the one that he saw on a
7 certain date. I'm not really sure what you're doing with 8 it. I'll let you keep going.

9 MR. FLEMING: Let me try.

10 THE COURT: If you're representing whoever it is 11 that prepared this is going to testify that this is the 12 document that was prepared on that day, I'll accept that 13 representation subject to it happening.

14 MR. FLEMING: Mr. Frazer will ultimately testify
15 about that.

16 THE COURT: That's what I figured.

17 Q Mr. Erstling, do you recall the seminar?

18 A Generally speaking, yes.

19 Q Did you receive or see this document at the seminar?

20 A I saw a document, this document or one very similar to 21 it at the seminar.

22 Q Who presented the substance of the seminar?

23 A The substance of the seminar was presented by John 24 Frazer.

25 Q Had there been subsequent compliance training seminars

LAS

Cross-Erstling-Fleming

645

1 since this first one?

2 A Yes. Multiple. Almost every year. Every year.

3 Q Putting aside the period of time with COVID, where
4 there was stay at home, how often is it given per year?

5 A At least once, sometimes twice. And then there is also 6 a make up version that's given for people that are not able to 7 attend the other in person sessions.

8 Q Do you have any awareness of whether the substance of 9 the seminar changes from seminar to seminar?

10 A The majority of it stays the same. There are some 11 changes. If we want to highlight a particular area, for 12 example, expense reports or something in -- in the area of 13 invoicing.

14 Q And I think you testified that you participate in some 15 of these more recent seminars, is that right?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q And what is your role with respect to that seminar?

18 A So, I would look at -- I would present the areas of 19 expense reports, because my staff deals with expense reports. I
20 would deal with invoices and making sure that people are -- are 21 following the proper coding and sign off on invoices.

22 Q Who do you work with to create the content for these
23 seminars?

24 A I work with John Frazer.

25 Q And are you able to tell the jury what the objective of

LAS

Redirect-Erstling-Thompson

646

1 these seminars is?

2 A The objective of the seminar is to refresh everybody's
3 memory that there are policies and procedures out there that we
4 have to follow, and this is our opportunity to sort of refresh
5 that memory.

6 Q Thank you.

7 MR. FLEMING: Nothing further.

8 THE COURT: Thank you. Any further -- Anything on 9 redirect?

10 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. THOMPSON:

12 Q Just a few more minutes, Mr. Erstling. Mr. Erstling, 13 change happens over time right?

14 A It does.

15 Q You've been with the NRA since 2001?

16 A I have.

17 Q Ms. Rowling, how long has she been with the NRA?

18 A Longer than I have.

19 Q Mr. Tedrick, how long has he been with the NRA?

20 A Longer than I have.

21 Q And Mr. Arulanandam, how long has he been at the NRA?

22 A I do not know when Andrew started, so I can't tell you
23 how long he's been there.

24 Q To the best of your knowledge has he been there the 25 entire time that you have?

LAS

Redirect-Erstling-Thompson

647

1 A I -- I believe so.

2 Q And Mr. Phillips was the CFO and treasurer of the NRA
3 for about 25 years, is that right?

4 A He was there when I arrived up until his retirement.

5 Q Then Mr. LaPierre was the executive vice president of 6 the NRA for approximately 30 years, is that right?

7 A I believe that's correct.

8 Q And it wasn't until 2018 that you and your colleagues
9 brought forth your concerns to the audit committee, is that
10 right?

11 A That is correct.

12 Q You were asked a few questions, Mr. Erstling, about the 13 sort of size of the policy manual. Do you remember that?

14 A Yes.

15 Q If you could please take a look back at tab one of your
16 binder. This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 421. So, Mr. Erstling, I
17 believe you testified this is not the document that you rely on 18 when you are looking for policies, is that right?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q You know the policies that apply to the work that you
21 do for the NRA, is that fair to say?

22 A That's fair to say.

23 Q And so you have those materials, those policies
24 collected in a form for you to refer to, is that right?

25 A That's correct.

LAS

Redirect-Erstling-Thompson

648

1 Q And for your staff as well?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q You would expect the treasurer of the organization to 4 know which policies apply to them, right?

5 A I would assume, yes.

6 Q Okay. So you wouldn't expect the treasurer of the 7 organization to be detoured by the length of a policy manual,
8 right?

9 A If the policy applies, the policy applies.

10 Q You were asked, Mr. Erstling, about reprisals. Do you
11 remember that?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q In 2018 you met with outside counsel for the NRA in 14 connection with your concerns, is that correct?

15 A It is.

16 Q And at that meeting you saw a binder with pictures
17 of --

18 MS. ROGERS: Objection, your Honor. He's asking
19 about contents of communications with outside counsel.

20 MR. THOMPSON: No, your Honor. I'm asking about 21 what Mr. Erstling saw, saw at a meeting with counsel.

22 MR. PETERS: This is also outside the scope of 23 previous examinations.

24 MR. THOMPSON: Any reprisals, and I'm about to get 25 into what we allege is a reprisal.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

649

1 THE COURT: So it's information you have. You're 2 not asking him for information with his discussions with
3 counsel?

4 MR. THOMPSON: Correct, your Honor.

5 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, may we approach?

6 THE COURT: I'm familiar with this area generally.
7 Well, there hasn't been a question yet, right?

8 MR. THOMPSON: Not a completed question, your
9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: Well, since I don't know exactly what 11 it is, I guess we'll have to just hear it separately first.
12 Can we do it up here or do we need to go back?

13 MR. THOMPSON: Whichever you prefer, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: We'll take a short break and do it back
15 in this room.

16 (Whereupon the following proceedings were held 17 outside the presence of the jury.)

18 THE COURT: Okay. What was the question going to 19 be so I could understand.

20 MR. THOMPSON: The question was going to be whether 21 or not Mr. Erstling saw a binder containing pictures of his 22 family in it during that meeting. And then the follow up
23 would be did that unnerve him.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And the objection is?

25 MS. ROGERS: So, the theory here is that someone

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

650

1 told them that someone told them that when litigation
2 counsel --

3 THE COURT: Someone told them that someone told
4 them.

5 MS. ROGERS: So, Mr. Erstling never testified to 6 this. Ms. Rowling testified that she heard from Mr.
7 Erstling that when he met with outside litigation to be
8 interviewed as a potential witness in litigation, he looked 9 at counsel's prep binder, which was work product, and he saw
10 a picture of himself and his family. They are trying to 11 elicit that content of outside counsel's work product in a
12 meeting that he glanced across and might have gotten a sense
13 of during a privileged meeting.

14 THE COURT: First of all, I don't think that a
15 picture of him and his family would be attorney work
16 product.

17 MS. ROGERS: Well, if it was contained in like a
18 witness bio memo, it would be.

19 THE COURT: I disagree. The -- So, he hasn't given 20 testimony about this before. You're just seeing whether 21 it's, in fact, whether it's his personal testimony as well
22 as what you have only by hearsay at the moment.

23 MR. THOMPSON: That's right, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Objection overruled.

25 (Whereupon the following proceedings were held in

LAS

1 open court.)

2 THE COURT: Okay. The objection is overruled. You
3 can ask your question.

4 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you, your Honor.

5 Q During that meeting with outside counsel in 2018, Mr.
6 Erstling --

7 THE COURT: I would ask you to ask it as an open
8 question.

9 MR. THOMPSON: Okay.

10 Q Did you see a binder containing photographs of your
11 family during that meeting?

12 A It was a binder with one photograph.

13 Q And did that unnerve you, Mr. Erstling, at the time?

14 A It wasn't pleasant.

15 Q Mr. Erstling, you were asked if you were a person of 16 integrity. Do you remember that?

17 A I do.

18 Q Do you consider Mr. Phillips to be a person of 19 integrity?

20 MR. WERBNER: I'm going to object. This is a fact
21 witness, not an opinion witness.

22 THE COURT: You established that they worked
23 together for a long period of time.

24 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: I think this is at most a lay opinion

LAS

Redirect-Erstling-Thompson

652

1 of what one person thinks of another. I'll permit it.

2 MR. WERBNER: If I may just add an additional
3 objection. It should be limited to time and not what he's 4 heard as hearsay during the course of the proceedings.

5 THE COURT: That's fair. I mean, all we're looking 6 for with this witness is his personal eyewitness based.

7 MR. THOMPSON: That's right. I could rephrase the
8 question.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10 Q So, you worked with Mr. Erstling for -- you worked with 11 Mr. Phillips for approximately 17 years, is that right?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And you had the opportunity to observe Mr. Phillips
14 during that time, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And as a result of your observations, did you come to 17 have any opinion about whether or not Mr. Phillips is a person
18 of integrity?

19 A During my working relationship with Mr. Phillips I
20 thought he was a person of integrity.

21 Q Did that opinion change at any point?

22 MR. WERBNER: I'm going to object if it goes into 23 hearsay based on subsequent e-mails. If I could take a
24 witness on voir dire.

25 THE COURT: Well, let's take it one step at a time,

LAS

Redirect-Erstling-Thompson

653

1 I guess. You know, we're not here to base anything on what
2 you've heard. These questions and answers should be about
3 your personal observations of things, right, Mr. Thompson.

4 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor. So, I can withdraw
5 the question. Let me try it one more time.

6 Q You testified earlier, Mr. Erstling, that Mr. Phillips
7 permitted vague invoicing at the NRA, right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And you testified earlier that Mr. Phillips also 10 allowed for amounts in excess of the budget to be spent, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And as a result of that management, did you --

13 MR. THOMPSON: I see shaking heads. I'll withdraw
14 that question.

15 THE COURT: Just ask fact questions.

16 MR. THOMPSON: Okay.

17 THE COURT: I think that's the safer way to go.

18 Q Mr. Erstling, all of the concerns that you and your 19 colleagues raised in the top concerns memo were real concerns,
20 correct?

21 A At the time we thought they were, yes.

22 Q And all of the things in the top concerns memo actually
23 occurred, right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And they occurred for, in several cases, many years,

LAS

Recross-Erstling-Werbner

654

1 right?

2 A That's correct.

3 MR. THOMPSON: No further questions.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Any further cross?

5 MR. WERBNER: I have a few questions.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Werbner.

7 MR. WERBNER: Thank you.

8 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. WERBNER:

10 Q Mr. Erstling, during the many years you worked with 11 Woody Phillips, during that period of time as you worked side by 12 side with him, you found him to be of integrity, correct?

13 A I did.

14 Q And ethical?

15 A Seemed to be, yes.

16 MR. WERBNER: I'll pass the witness.

17 THE COURT: Anything further?

18 (No response.)

19 THE COURT: All right, sir. Thank you very much.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: You're free to go. You're subject to 22 being recalled by the defense if they ask you to be a
23 witness. I can't completely let you go, but I could let you
24 go for now. Thank you.

25 (Witness excused.)

LAS

655

1 THE COURT: And plaintiffs, your next witness.

2 MR. THOMPSON: The next witness will be Rick
3 Tedrick, your Honor, through designation.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So, folks, this next witness is
5 suffering an illness so is not able to be here in person.
6 And when you have an unavailable witness, which is what we
7 have, the parties have put together excerpts from a
8 deposition that was done during the course of this case and 9 it was both transcribed and also audio recorded. So, they 10 have each submitted excerpts and in this first set of 11 excerpts, this is the plaintiffs submitted -- the plaintiffs 12 submitted excerpts. The defendants are allowed to what we 13 call cross designate. So things that are from the same
14 transcript to put, you know, things in context, you know,
15 other parts of the transcript that they think you should 16 hear if you're hearing the plaintiff's. It's possible that 17 the defendants could also introduce some other parts of the 18 testimony in their part of the case. They may or may not.
19 But for now it's really the plaintiff's excerpts and 20 defendants' cross designations to, you know, fill out the 21 record. So, we have, I think, two hours and change of 22 watching and listening to the deposition testimony. I think
23 you'll see the person's picture on the screen along with the 24 words while you hear it. So, just get ready. That's going
25 to be the remainder of our afternoon and probably a little

LAS

656

1 bit of tomorrow.

2 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, just for the Court's
3 convenience, we do have a binder with the exhibits if you
4 would like to follow along.

5 THE COURT: I'll be fine. Okay. So, with that we
6 will play the excerpts.

7 (Whereupon the excerpts of Mr. Tedrick's deposition
8 were played.)

9 THE COURT: Can we pause for a second. We've been 10 listening for quite a while. I'll let them take a break in 11 all of this. So let's take a short break and then we'll 12 come back and finish for the day.

13 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

14 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: Okay. I would just make a suggestion.
16 As I sit here looking through the Meadows transcript, to 17 think about other objections. I think you all should at 18 least think about trimming some of these. Playing long
19 audio transcripts is always difficult for people to focus
20 on. You can do what you want, because I've already reviewed
21 it for at least admissibility. But, you know, you just 22 might think about it, because if this one is going to last
23 two and a half hours, what I'm looking at for Meadows is 24 going to be most of a day. And you all just need to think
25 about, both sides, whether this is the way you want to spend

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

657

1 your time at trial. You know, again now that we're into the
2 substance, you know, at least think about the throat
3 clearing stuff at the beginning. I think, you know, it's 4 difficult to have the jury focus, but I'm not criticizing
5 the questions or what you're doing. I just would ask you to 6 think about whether it's really in the best interests of 7 your respective cases to have what could be half a day or 8 more of -- of video, which goes at the pace of a deposition,
9 as opposed to what would happen in court. That's just a
10 suggestion. I'm going to make my rulings based on, you
11 know, legal admissibility. I'm happy to have you rethink
12 and make judgment calls after you get my rulings as to 13 whether yes, you can show five or six hours of video, that 14 doesn't mean you have to. Okay. Thank you. Be back in a
15 couple of minutes.

16 (Whereupon a recess was taken.)

17 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

18 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

19 THE COURT: All right. Have a seat. Okay. Let's
20 continue with the playback.

21 (Whereupon the excerpts of Mr. Tedrick's deposition
22 were played.)

23 THE COURT: Counsel, we're going to break for the 24 day. Folks, we're going to reconvene tomorrow at 9:30.

25 Remember it's a half day tomorrow, just the morning. Same

1 THE COURT: Anything we need to cover before we get
2 the jury?

3 COURT OFFICER: We're not ready yet, Judge.

4 THE COURT: What's that?

5 COURT OFFICER: We're bringing the rest of the crew
6 up now, but we're not ready.

7 THE COURT: Well, I --

8 COURT OFFICER: Okay. I'm just saying, regarding
9 the jury.

10 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we have the corrected,
11 combined clip reports, which should be admitted, I
12 understand, as a Court exhibit, for Mr. Tedrick's deposition
13 that we've been listening to (indicating)?

14 THE COURT: Okay. Do you want to just --
15 What are you marking it as? Do you have a number?

16 MS. CONNELL: It would be Court Exhibit I, your
17 Honor, or we could make it a plaintiff's exhibit. But I
18 thought it was supposed to be marked as a Court exhibit.

19 THE COURT: All right, Court Exhibit I.

20 You want to show [sic] that to the court reporter
21 to mark it?

22 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

23 (Documents handed from Ms. Connell to the Court, 24 counsel and court reporter.)

25 MR. FARBER: Could we just clarify: There was a

2 as that or has that been changed?

3 MS. CONNELL: No. It's been corrected, as I
4 understand it.

5 THE COURT: Why don't you take a look at it and we 6 can mark it after?

7 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 (Pause.)

10 THE COURT: The jurors have a question about
11 something and they're writing me a note, so I'll -- when I
12 get it, I'll tell you what it says.

13 (Pause.)

14 THE COURT: Let's go on the record for something
15 else:

16 We haven't marked the other as Court Exhibit I yet,
17 so I'll mark this (indicating). I'll just read the note;
18 it's from one juror:

19 "I understand all four sets of lawyers deal with

21 [sic] with top executives. However, the NRA lawyer seems 22 like she is at times against her own company. Does this 23 make sense?

24 "Clarification of charges is [being] asked to make 25 clear by other members of the jury."

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

663

1 I think -- you know, I can certainly have each
2 party -- each defendant lawyer -- stand up and say who they 3 represent.

4 And I think -- as to the question about the
5 charges, I think the best thing for me to do is to say
6 that -- you know, in the instructions and in the verdict
7 form -- that it will become clearer, rather than taking the 8 time to, kind of, go through all that right now.

9 Is there any other clarification you'd like to 10 make?

11 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, one suggestion: In the 12 opening jury charges, we had suggested -- there's a criminal
13 Pattern Jury Instruction on multiple defendants and we 14 proposed a version of that, supplemented with some kind of 15 distinction between the corporation and its agents. If --
16 we'd be happy to revisit that if your Honor had issues with 17 it, but it might -- that's derived from a Pattern
18 Instruction and it might provide the clarification the jury
19 is seeking.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I don't recall it as I sit
21 here right now, but if you want to send that to me again so
22 I can take a look at it, that would be fine.

23 I mean, look, I can make it clear that each
24 defendant is -- has to be -- judged separately, for now,
25 just so that they understand that and that, you know, there

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

664

1 will be a charge making it clear what the charges are
2 against each.

3 But they know who the lawyers are; I think they're 4 just not entirely sure about how it all interrelates with 5 each other.

6 MR. FLEMING: Judge, I'm sorry; just one
7 clarification point: This is a note from one juror or is 8 she representing multiple jurors?

9 THE COURT: It's from one juror, at the top, and
10 when it's written in the first person, Juror No. 3.

11 But -- so I'll do the minimum, just to make that 12 point, that everybody has to be judged separately and that 13 we will try to -- we will make it clear as things go on who 14 represents who.

15 And if there's something that you can provide me
16 that might be helpful, which -- I can't remember, at this 17 point, now, why I -- I think I just decided to stay with the 18 standard form. We'll see how it goes.

19 All right, let's bring them in.

20 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, very quickly, before we 21 bring the jury in: With respect to Court Exhibit I, these
22 Tedrick excerpts --

23 THE COURT: It's not going to be Court Exhibit I
24 anymore, because this is going to be Court Exhibit I.

25 MS. ROGERS: And the deposition designations, is

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

665

1 there a way that we can inform the jury of the date of the
2 deposition? Because there will be items --

3 Like, for example, Mr. Tedrick was asked, "Do you
4 have any knowledge of the NRA having a compliance officer?"
5 on the date of the deposition, so the date is relevant.

6 THE COURT: Yeah, that's a fair point.

7 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we have no problem with 8 that. That is a fair point.

9 But we are going to be raising with your Honor, on 10 Tuesday morning, just some issues relating to the dates of 11 evidence as relevant and the statements about what's 12 happening in the NRA today, which is something -- post hoc
13 remedial measures -- we've raised a number of times. You
14 had wanted to make rulings as things became ripe for them;
15 we think things are becoming ripe.

16 And so we have no objection to putting the date on 17 the deposition or providing information like that, but we do
18 think this highlights an issue in the case.

19 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, just one quick thing on 20 the juror's question:

21 As I heard it, she used the term "entities" to 22 refer to all defendants? If you could just distinguish
23 between "individual" and "entity" in discussing it, I would 24 appreciate that.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. I think they understand the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

666

1 individuals, but okay.

2 MR. FARBER: And, Judge, if I could raise a couple
3 of points with respect to the note, please ...?

4 I did not read that to indicate any ambiguity as to 5 who counsel represented, so I don't see a need, and I think
6 it would be a little awkward, to have counsel, at this
7 point, introducing themselves.

8 THE COURT: Yeah. I think they understand who 9 represents who. They may not understand how it all
10 interrelates --

11 MR. FARBER: Yes.

12 And I --

13 THE COURT: -- or one person may not understand how 14 it all interrelates.

15 MR. FARBER: Well, yes.

16 And I agree with the Court's intention about 17 explaining the charges; you'll give a charge at the close of 18 the case. However, as the comment your Honor made
19 indicating the suggestion that this seemed to represent the 20 view of more than one jurors, it -- or may -- it suggested
21 to me that there's some discussion about the case that may 22 be going on, and I would ask that your Honor remind the 23 jurors that they should not be discussing anything about the 24 case at this point in time.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. I actually think they do

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

667

1 understand it. I think, one of them was raising the issue
2 to the court officer and the court officer correctly said,
3 "Write a note; do it that way."

4 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Let's bring them down.

6 (Pause.)

7 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

8 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

9 THE COURT: All right, have a seat.

10 Welcome back.

11 Just before we get started: I did receive the note
12 with a question, and there will be more instructions on this 13 as we go, but for now, I just want to make it clear that 14 there are four separate defendants; there's the company and 15 then the three individuals, and each lawyer represents one
16 of those entities. And at the end of the day -- there was a
17 little bit of this in the openings, but you'll see it more
18 clearly at the end -- the claims are very specific. So
19 Claim 1 is against Entity 1, or whatever it is. And so each 20 claim is going to tell you who the defendants are with 21 respect to each claim. And your verdict will be separate
22 for each defendant, so each defendant is entitled to a
23 separate assessment.

24 And so that the lawyers are representing the 25 parties that they -- I think -- I don't think there's any

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

668

1 confusion as to who represents who. But I think it will
2 become clearer as we go through and then, ultimately, when
3 we do the instructions at the end, you know, exactly what
4 you're being asked to decide. Okay? So -- but they each
5 represent their own client. And each of the entities, you
6 have to do your best to keep separate in your minds, and 7 ultimately, you're going to give a verdict separately for 8 each of them.

9 I'm not sure if that's a full explanation. In 10 part -- if you have continued -- if anyone has continued
11 questions, I'm happy to get more notes to zero in on 12 anything specific. I'm hopeful that as we proceed, it will
13 become clearer if it's not clear. Okay?

14 So let's move on.

15 So we're going to continue now with the readback
16 [sic] of testimony of Mr. Tedrick. There's, I understand,
17 about an hour left? Then we'll take a short break and then
18 have another break.

19 Okay? Everybody set?

20 COURT REPORTER: Judge, should we mark that as an
21 exhibit?

22 THE COURT: Yes; it's Court Exhibit I (handing).
23 (Exhibit so marked.)

24 THE COURT: Okay?

25 Okay, counsel, you can proceed with the playback.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

669

1 (Audio of Rick Tedrick further played in open
2 court.)

3 THE COURT: Counsel, one second.

4 (Audio stopped.)

5 THE COURT: I was also asked to tell the jury:

6 Can plaintiff's counsel, who's offering this
7 evidence, just state -- it will probably be on the exhibit,
8 but what was the date of the deposition?

9 MS. CONNELL: Certainly, your Honor.

10 I believe it was 4/28/22. So April 28th, 2022 is 11 the correct date of this deposition.

12 THE COURT: I was just asked to provide that 13 because there is some testimony asking, you know, about what 14 is the "current situation" as it's current as of that date.
15 Okay?

16 Okay.

17 (Said audio further played in open court.)

18 THE COURT: Okay. Is that the end of the playback?

19 MS. CONNELL: That is the end of the parties'
20 playback. Thank you, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right, folks, we'll take our 22 morning break and come back for our next witness.

23 Thank you.

24 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

25 (The jury left the courtroom.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

670

1 THE COURT: Okay, have a seat.

2 Through the magic of electronic communications, my
3 law clerk sent me the draft instruction that the defendants,
4 I guess, had included in the opening instructions and I've 5 looked at it and I think it could be helpful to add to what
6 I said. The only thing I'd modify is to reduce the number
7 of defendants from five to four. So it would be:

8 "There are four defendants before you and we are 9 thus conducting, effectively, four trials in one. It is 10 your obligation to evaluate the evidence as it applies or 11 fails to apply to each defendant separately. Each
12 instruction on the law must be considered by you. Each
13 instruction on the law must be considered by you as 14 referring to each defendant separately. You must return a 15 separate verdict concerning each cause of action against 16 each defendant and those verdicts need not be the same,
17 though they may be."

18 It's possible that that will help some of the 19 confusion. I view it as, at this point, pretty similar to 20 what I said, but to the extent that it's a little more
21 precise, I would propose to just read that to them.

22 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, may I ...?

23 To more squarely address what seems to be the 24 source of that juror's confusion, we were thinking of 25 proposing to supplement that Pattern Instruction with a

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

671

1 sentence lifted pretty closely from the not-for-profit
2 corporation statute, and that sentence would be: "The NRA
3 is a corporation managed by its board of directors."

4 THE COURT: Yeah, it's interesting that you make
5 that point, because I was going to say that that may be 6 really more an underlying question and it's one that I've
7 been mulling for the closing instructions, and I'm not ready
8 to give that to the jury at this point because I think it's 9 something that I want to talk to you about.

10 I think they may be raising the question as to what 11 conduct is attributable to the NRA legally, and based on the 12 NRA's opening statement, they may believe that the position
13 is that the conduct, for example, by the senior officers is,
14 as a legal matter, not attributable to the NRA and that,
15 really, it's only board-level-approved decisions that are 16 attributable to the NRA.

17 And I'm -- I -- I guess, I'll be looking for the 18 parties to ultimately provide some argument back and forth
19 on that, because I'm not sure that that's right: that as a
20 matter of law, if senior executives of a company do
21 something -- there's certainly many areas of the law where 22 the company is bound by what officers do.

23 Now, if you had a cause of action against 24 directors, in their own name, for a breach of fiduciary
25 duty, those individuals might have an argument that, "Well,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

672

1 you know, we didn't know about it," and then the argument
2 would be whether they properly exercised their oversight
3 authority and they should have known about it. But when you
4 bring it to the corporate level, I think it will be an
5 important instruction, at the end of the day, to the jurors.

6 But I think it would -- as I currently view it --
7 it would be too narrow to read them a sentence suggesting,
8 which I think the sentence you just suggested would suggest,
9 that it's really only the board that matters. And you may 10 persuade me of that ultimately, but I'm not there yet.

11 MS. ROGERS: Thank you, your Honor.

12 We do have -- I know there are copious written 13 submissions, and I don't know if your Honor is looking for 14 more -- and this issue is touched on in some of them --
15 annotations to the jury charge, whatever your Honor would 16 like, to boil down into a specific number of pages.

17 THE COURT: I think the best approach is: My law
18 clerk and I are digging through that now and I will feed
19 back to you where I am -- after sifting through it, where I
20 end up, and it may be a sort of an iterative process.

21 But it could be that that's the kernel of their
22 concern, because they may ultimately be grappling with --
23 well, just as an example of what we saw before, you know,
24 they have, and are hearing, evidence of things done by 25 lower-level employees who are not defendants and they may be

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

673

1 trying to figure out: "Well, what's the relevance of that?
2 If it doesn't go to the individual defendant, does it
3 somehow escape -- is it relevant to the NRA?"

4 So I think we're going to -- I think it will be an
5 important instruction, especially given how defenses is 6 [sic] -- I was going to say "evolving," but maybe it's 7 always been. But at least as I've heard it more clearly
8 stated this week, the question of what's attributable to the 9 NRA and what's not is, I think, an important question.

10 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, if I may, there's also 11 the reverse question of: What is attributable to the 12 individual defendants when the board takes action by vote
13 and if you have an individual defendant who does not vote?
14 And I would ask that you'd consider that issue.

15 THE COURT: Yeah. I think it can go in multiple
16 directions and I think, you know, giving the jury a clear
17 legal instruction as to responsibility -- legal 18 responsibility -- in various circumstances is certainly 19 something that should -- would be helpful.

20 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'm sorry; if I can just 21 be made -- heard -- briefly on this ...?

22 THE COURT: Sure.

23 MS. CONNELL: While we normally would agree with 24 and suggest that multiple-defendant instruction, I think,
25 given the nature of the juror's question, we just would like

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

674

1 to look at the transcript of the question and think about it
2 over the weekend and, if at all, we would offer something on 3 Tuesday morning.

4 The reason I bring this [sic] is: You are correct,
5 and you have your finger on it, that the defense of the NRA
6 has evolved; that the presentation has, very clearly, been a
7 very big change in direction to, "there are" -- you know, by 8 the NRA -- that "it's only actions of the board; they would 9 have to prove board liability."

10 And I think, in light of this confusion, clearly,
11 the jury is struggling with, "Well, can we attribute the 12 action of some of these defendants and some of these other
13 employees to the NRA?" I'm a little bit concerned about 14 whether that instruction would be a little confusing, and 15 we'd like to just take a closer look at it.

16 And I will tell you, in response to a letter, I
17 think, that was put in on January 4th or 5th by the NRA, as 18 to the corporation only being liable for the actions of its
19 whole board, we're going to put in a very brief letter
20 submission, probably tonight; two or three pages, at most.
21 We think the authority is squarely against this and we would 22 really be against any instruction that would muddy that 23 water for the jury.

24 THE COURT: And if you want to send a letter,
25 that's fine, but the ultimate end aim of that is the jury

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

675

1 instructions at the end.

2 MS. CONNELL: Absolutely, your Honor.

3 But at the same time, we have a number of weeks of 4 instruction -- of trial -- going on and if there's an issue
5 that we can flag and all be aware of so that we don't go too
6 far down the road the wrong way, we think, better early than 7 too late. So we'd like to bring that up.

8 And so for that reason, your Honor, just regarding 9 the issue presently before the Court, we would say, can we 10 just wait at least until Tuesday before giving that 11 instruction?

12 THE COURT: Look, I don't think it's urgent to give
13 this because I feel like I gave something similar to it
14 already.

15 You can take a look at it, and we'll make a copy of 16 Court Exhibit I so that you can each have the document
17 itself; I think I probably read it correctly.

18 But that's fine. So I'll just hold on this.

19 I think it's possible that they may have the more
20 substantive issue that Ms. Rogers flagged, given especially 21 the second comment in there about seeking clarification
22 about the charges. And I think it's -- in that way, it may 23 be kind of an insightful comment, because there are -- it
24 may seem to them that you two are ships passing in the 25 night. And at the end of the day, that sometimes happens at

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

676

1 trial; sometimes the instructions at the end are what they
2 have to follow.

3 So I'll look forward to reading your letter.

4 And, again, we're working on the instructions.

5 It is helpful to have heard the openings and to see
6 the case develop in terms of our work on the instructions.
7 Certainly, it would have been better if they would have come
8 together more quickly and more in a form that I could work
9 with more easily, but it's also very common that we're
10 working on jury instructions together throughout the trial,
11 and ultimately, that's the way this one is going. So we'll 12 try to get it done as soon as we can.

13 MS. CONNELL: I agree, your Honor.

14 I'm sorry; I know the break is kind of short, but 15 just to make it as productive as possible:

16 For housekeeping, we have distributed
17 electronically, as well as one or two hard copies of, the 18 corrected Clip Report (indicating), which would now be Court
19 Exhibit II, and we ask to submit that. I don't want it to 20 fall through the cracks.

21 THE COURT: Yeah, we can have it marked as Court
22 Exhibit II, and it's ...

23 Well, we are actually admitting this into evidence;
24 are we not?

25 MS. CONNELL: That's exactly right, your Honor.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

677

1 THE COURT: So, as I think about it, I'm not sure
2 why it's a court exhibit. It should be -- it's a
3 plaintiff's exhibit. You're submitting this testimony as 4 evidence, right?

5 MS. CONNELL: I'm fine with that.

6 And I thought it was a court exhibit because it
7 includes counter-designations, but a plaintiff's exhibit is 8 a hundred percent fine. I just want to make sure it makes 9 it onto the record.

10 THE COURT: The exhibits may say "Plaintiff's 11 Exhibit" or "Defendant's Exhibit." They're not -- they 12 don't belong to one side or the other; they're exhibits
13 admitted into evidence in the case.

14 So why don't we, instead of calling it "Court
15 Exhibit II," just find --

16 This is the first case I've had where there are no
17 JX exhibits, which are "joint exhibits," which is -- would 18 be -- more helpful to me, frankly, if we had those. So,
19 if -- but if you -- whatever you all -- you guys can talk
20 about it. If you want to call it "JX 1," so it's a joint -- 21 so it doesn't look like it's being offered by one side or 22 the other ... or if you want to call it "PX 1." Whatever
23 you want to call it is fine, but I think it should be a
24 trial exhibit, not a court exhibit.

25 MS. CONNELL: 100 percent, your Honor. We can

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

678

1 label it PX 5302 -- I'm sorry -- 5103.

2 THE COURT: How about --

3 Are you going to mark it or you want the court
4 reporter to do that?

5 MS. CONNELL: If we could have the court reporter
6 mark it, your Honor ... Or we could mark it.

7 THE COURT: I'm looking behind you and it looks
8 like somebody can do it relatively easily.

9 MS. CONNELL: Yes.

10 THE COURT: So why don't we work on marking that 11 and we'll formally introduce it in the jury's presence after 12 the break.

13 MR. FARBER: Judge, I have to --

14 MR. FLEMING: Before it's marked ...

15 MR. FARBER: Judge, I have an objection.

16 THE COURT: To what?

17 MR. FARBER: To this being introduced into evidence
18 as opposed to being marked as a court exhibit -- you can
19 call it whatever you want, court exhibit or trial exhibit.

20 What happened is, we played a deposition just as if 21 the witness testified at trial. I don't think it's proper
22 to have, as an exhibit that gets sent back to the jury --
23 this has listed, you know, who designated what and things
24 like that.

25 THE COURT: Well, it shouldn't say that.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

679

1 MR. FARBER: It does.

2 THE COURT: Well, it shouldn't say that.

3 Look, I need to look at this thing.

4 The reason why there has to be some transcript is 5 because it's not otherwise available on a court transcript,
6 because the court reporters don't type out what's going on.

7 So, if you want to change the form of that so that
8 it's just a listing of -- if you think that the --

9 I haven't seen what you're talking about, but I
10 assume it doesn't have the objections in the left-hand
11 corner.

12 MR. FARBER: Well, no, Judge. But it -- it has --
13 there are -- there is other stuff.

14 Judge, I -- I have no --

15 The idea of it being a court exhibit, it then 16 becomes the same as a transcript; if the jury should ask to 17 see a transcript of that portion, just as if they should ask
18 to see [sic] a transcript of any testimony that's given
19 live, it would be available to them, but it's not separately
20 introduced as an exhibit in evidence. I think, marking it
21 as a court exhibit then puts it in exactly the same place as 22 the transcript that the court reporter is preparing.

23 THE COURT: I think it's possible, though, you're
24 slightly overthinking this whole thing.

25 MS. CONNELL: I do too, your Honor.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

680

1 THE COURT: One way or the other, the words on the
2 page should be available for the jury if they want to see
3 it.

4 You all talk about it.

5 You know, I don't know what the notations in the 6 margin are; they just seem to say, "no overlap." And I
7 don't think they should get anything that they didn't see on 8 the screen, which would just be the words.

9 MS. CONNELL: No, your Honor, they wouldn't.

10 We provided a sample Clip Report yesterday; we got 11 some feedback; we've changed it. So what I would suggest:
12 If defendants would get us unified comments, we'll change
13 it; we'll submit it; we'll be done with it.

14 THE COURT: I don't care about anybody's
15 comments --

16 MS. CONNELL: Right.

17 THE COURT: -- because all I want are the words
18 that the jury saw, and nothing else; none of the marginal
19 stuff.

20 You know, the jury did see --

21 The duration, we can get rid of that column.

22 The ID, you can get rid of that column.

23 The designation, they did see the line. Those 24 numbers do appear on the screen; the line and page, so
25 that's okay because that's what they saw.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

681

1 So simplify this --

2 MS. CONNELL: Perfect.

3 THE COURT: -- and I'll be fine.

4 We can call it a court exhibit; we can call it a
5 different exhibit. I don't really care. I don't think it
6 matters.

7 MS. CONNELL: I don't think so either, your Honor.

8 And a final housekeeping note: We are taking your
9 advice and we're going to be cutting back deposition
10 designations for unavailable witnesses and witnesses who are 11 outside the subpoena power of the Court, and we're going to 12 be providing those to the defendants very, very quickly.

13 And we're sorry for this process. Hopefully, it
14 will be easier as we --

15 THE COURT: Look, one point I want to make:

16 My comments were not directed to one side or the 17 other, as both sides designated quite a lot. So whatever
18 you can shorten, obviously, that will, you know, help us get 19 through all of this. That's fine.

20 In terms of our work on it, I'm going to continue
21 working on what we have because I don't want to slow that 22 down and then you can, obviously, take stuff out on your own
23 if you want to; just make sure both sides know what you're 24 doing.

25 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 We'd ask that you continue to work on Ms. Meadows.
2 We're going to get back Spray. We'll have -- Craig Spray's
3 designations. We'll have those to the defendants later
4 today and ask for cutbacks on the counter-designations and
5 get those to you as soon as possible.

6 THE COURT: He's unavailable or outside the 7 subpoena range?

8 MS. CONNELL: Yes, he's outside our subpoena range
9 and he no longer works for the NRA. He is on the NRA's
10 witness list. I haven't had confirmation if he'll appear in 11 person. If he'll appear in person, we would prefer him in 12 person here.

13 MS. ROGERS: At this point, we would expect to call
14 him by designation.

15 THE COURT: By deposition, you mean?

16 MS. ROGERS: Yeah, by deposition.

17 MR. FLEMING: As would I, your Honor. He's on my 18 list as well.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 All right. Well, if you want to -- if you want to 21 have some sort of rest, why don't you go take your break and 22 then we'll go get the jury.

PROCEEDINGS

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

2 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

3 THE COURT: All right. Welcome back. Have a seat.
4 Plaintiff, are you prepared to call your next witness?

5 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor. The People call
6 Defendant Wilson Phillips.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Phillips, can you come
8 forward, please. Good morning, sir.

9 THE COURT CLERK: Raise your right hand.
10 W I L S O N P H I L L I P S, after having been duly sworn by 11 the court clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

12 THE COURT CLERK: State your name.

13 THE WITNESS: Wilson Phillips.

14 THE COURT CLERK: Spell your last name.

15 THE WITNESS: P-H-I-L-L-I-P-S.

16 THE COURT CLERK: Business address. If not, your 17 home address.

18 THE WITNESS: I'm retired. 4602 -- Just lost my 19 train of thought. 4602 Gilbert Avenue, Dallas, Texas. Do
20 you need a zip code? 75219.

21 THE COURT CLERK: Thank you. You may be seated.

22 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Okay. Counsel, you
23 may inquire.

24 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

1 BY MS. CONNELL:

2 Q Good morning, Mr. Phillips.

3 A Good morning, Ms. Connell.

4 Q How are you. Mr. Phillips -- I'm sorry. This seems
5 loud to me. Mr. Phillips, you were CFO and treasurer of the NRA
6 from 1993 until 2018, correct?

7 A Correct.

8 Q And during your time as CFO you reported to Wayne
9 LaPierre, right?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q And you were also appointed by the board to be 12 treasurer of the NRA, is that correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And as treasurer you reported to the board of the NRA,
15 is that right?

16 A That's right.

17 Q In 2018 you retired from the NRA, correct?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And Craig Spray was hired as your successor?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And your time at the NRA overlapped somewhat with 22 Mr. Spray, right?

23 A Several months.

24 Q Okay. He worked as the CFO initially?

25 A He did.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

685

1 Q And then after you left he became the treasurer, is
2 that right?

3 A I believe so.

4 Q Your last day of work at the NRA was December 31st,
5 2018, right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q Okay. And that was your last day because you actually
8 agreed to stay on a little longer at the request of the audit
9 committee and Mr. LaPierre, is that correct?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q Okay. And you did not leave the NRA because you were 12 fired, right?

13 A Right.

14 Q And you did not leave the NRA because you were facing
15 suspension, right?

16 A Right.

17 Q And you did not leave the NRA because you were facing
18 any disciplinary action, is that accurate?

19 A That's accurate.

20 Q Okay. You retired because you wanted to?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. In fact, the NRA gave you a post-employment
23 contract, right, Mr. Phillips?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, I'm going to show you a document

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

686

1 that has been marked tab 42. It's actually in the black binder
2 that's in front of you. I apologize for starting at the end.
3 This is PX 2493 for identification.

4 THE COURT: Is there any objection to this exhibit?

5 MR. FARBER: I don't know what it is at the moment.
6 Those tabs don't correspond to what we have.

7 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, we had this problem
8 yesterday. We were given a list of exhibits, and then our 9 tabs doesn't correspond, so it makes it really hard.

10 THE COURT: It's PX 2493.

11 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I could clarify. We did
12 provide that we were supplementing our exhibit list. It is 13 included in tab one. That was part of a larger file. We 14 thought it would be easier to break it out into tab 42.
15 It's Mr. Phillips' consulting agreement.

16 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I object to the 17 examination proceeding until we have the same as what Ms.
18 Connell has.

19 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, the parties discussed
20 witness binders and agreed identification of exhibits would 21 be sufficient. We did that.

22 THE COURT: We've been able to operate the way
23 we've been doing it. So let's just continue. Anyway, do
24 you all have it now? It's the independent consulting
25 agreement.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

687

1 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I've been handed another
2 exhibit binder. I'm going to check and see if that is the
3 case.

4 THE COURT: Okay. 42.

5 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

6 Q Mr. Phillips --

7 THE COURT: Hang on a second. I haven't given you
8 a ruling yet. Is there any objection to it?

9 MR. CORRELL: This one appears to be the same
10 order, so I'm satisfied.

11 MR. FARBER: No objection.

12 THE COURT: That's what I was waiting for. Without 13 objection, it's admitted.

14 MS. CONNELL: Thank you. Can we publish this 15 exhibit to the jury, please.

16 Q Mr. Phillips, this is your post-employment consulting
17 agreement with the NRA, correct?

18 A (Examining). Correct.

19 Q And if you turn to page 5 at the bottom of the 20 agreement -- excuse me -- page 5 of the agreement. Can you see 21 at the bottom there are two signatures?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Whose signatures are those?

24 A The first one is Pete Brownell and the second one is 25 mine.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

688

1 Q Who is Pete Brownell?

2 A He was president of the board of directors at the time.

3 Q And can you please turn to page 6.

4 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
5 request of counsel.)

6 Q There are more signatures on this page, correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And the signatures are Pete Brownell and yours as well?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And then there is another signature, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And whose that signature?

13 A Carolyn Meadows.

14 Q Who is Ms. Meadows?

15 A Ms. Meadows was the first vice president at the time, I
16 think.

17 Q So your signature and Mr. Brownell's are dated May 5th,
18 2018, correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And that's the date you executed this agreement, right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And so at the time you executed this agreement
23 Mr. Brownell was a board officer of the NRA?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And Ms. Meadows was a board officer of the NRA?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

689

1 A Correct.

2 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, can you please -- Actually, under
3 this contract you were to receive $30,000 a month after you
4 retired from the NRA, right?

5 A Right.

6 Q And for that you were also suppose to receive rental of 7 an office, correct?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q The NRA would pay for you to rent an office?

10 A Yes.

11 Q The NRA would pay an amount up to $3,500 a month for 12 you to rent an office, correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Okay. And so under this agreement you would receive
15 $360,000 a year in payment from the NRA, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Plus the office rental?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Plus expense reimbursements you may incur, right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q You heard Mr. Erstling's testimony, right?

22 A I did.

23 Q And you know that the NRA has a procurement policy,
24 correct?

25 A Correct.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

690

1 Q And that procurement policy has requirements for
2 contracts that would cost the NRA more than $100,000 in a given
3 year, correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And that included signature of a board officer -- of 6 two board officers, correct?

7 A Correct.

8 Q And completion of a business case analysis, correct?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And, Mr. Phillips, you're aware of the conflict of 11 interest policy that the board had?

12 A I am.

13 Q And you're aware that where there is a potential
14 conflict of interest or related-party transaction, it had to be 15 approved by the board in advance, correct?

16 A I believe so. I don't recall.

17 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, at the time that you were an NRA
18 -- the treasurer of the NRA, your compensation was set initially 19 by the officers compensation committee which made a
20 recommendation, correct?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And it would make a recommendation for the compensation
23 to be paid to you in the coming year, right?

24 A I'm sorry. Repeat that, please. The last part.

25 Q Sure. In September, in the September board meeting

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

691

1 each year the officers compensation committee would meet, right?

2 A That's right.

3 Q And they were suppose to make a recommendation as to 4 all the compensation you would receive from the NRA in the 5 coming year, right?

6 A When you say "all of the compensation", I don't recall
7 exactly how the --

8 Q Sure.

9 A -- the resolution for -- from the compensation
10 committee read but --

11 Q Their suppose to recommend your bonus, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And your salary?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And they are suppose to be aware of any other
16 compensation you were receiving, correct, from the NRA?

17 A I don't know. I don't know how that read.

18 Q Well, let's take a look at this agreement. Did you
19 present this agreement to the audit committee before you
20 executed it?

21 A I did not.

22 Q Okay. And did you present it to the officers
23 compensation committee before you signed it?

24 A I did not.

25 Q And did you make sure that the board approved it?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

692

1 A No. I wouldn't have been there when the board would
2 approve that because I was retiring.

3 Q This was executed in May of 2018, right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And you were, in May of 2018, the CFO and/or treasurer
6 of the NRA, right?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Okay. And, Mr. Phillips, under this contract there
9 were two types of services you were suppose to provide, is that
10 correct?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q If you can look at page 1 of the agreement, under one,
13 appointment of consulting -- a consultant, subdivision (b), do
14 you see that?

15 A (Examining). I do.

16 Q Okay. This agreement called for you to produce or 17 consult, excuse me, for you to use your expertise for the NRA
18 to consult with the CFO and treasurer of the organization,
19 right, after your retirement?

20 A (Examining). I'm trying to read to see if it's broader 21 than that.

22 Q I actually would like to focus on subdivision one right
23 now.

24 A Okay. It says "To provided advisory services to the 25 organization".

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

693

1 Q Right. After you retired from the NRA, did you provide
2 consultant services under subdivision one of this paragraph to
3 the NRA?

4 A Yes, I did.

5 Q Who did you provide those services to?

6 A To -- We were working on projects in the advancement
7 area, where I worked with Wayne Sheets and --

8 Q Mr. Phillips, you didn't speak to Wayne LaPierre after 9 you retired as part of your consulting services under this
10 agreement, right?

11 A I spoke to him sometime at some point when we heard
12 about the Attorney General's Office. I didn't talk to him after 13 that. I don't remember the date.

14 Q Mr. Phillips, is it your testimony that you spoke to 15 Wayne LaPierre and provided consulting services to him under 16 this agreement?

17 A No.

18 Q Okay. So you didn't talk to him to provide consulting
19 services under this agreement, is that correct?

20 A Not to Mr. LaPierre.

21 Q Okay. And you also did not speak to Mr. Spray to 22 provide consulting services under this agreement after you
23 retired, is that correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q Okay. Turning to subdivision two. You were also --

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

694

1 This agreement also contemplated that you would provide
2 consulting services with regard to major donor gifts or donor
3 cultivation, right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And, in fact, you never referred a major donor to the 6 NRA, correct, under this agreement?

7 A Under this agreement. I've worked with existing donors
8 under this agreement.

9 Q But you didn't point to a single new donor to the NRA
10 under this agreement, right?

11 A No.

12 Q And you didn't provide a single additional -- You
13 didn't -- Your work didn't result in a single additional donor
14 donating to the NRA, is that correct?

15 A I don't -- I don't believe that. I know what we had 16 started working on was a project to bring young wealthy men into 17 an organization, a suborganization that we call Young Guns.

18 Q Right. So you contemplated starting a new project
19 called Young Guns in Texas, right?

20 A I didn't -- I don't remember the in Texas part but yes.

21 Q It would -- You would refer potential donors to local 22 advancement of fundraising representatives in Texas, right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q Okay. But that never really got off the ground, right?

25 A I don't know, because I retired and they -- I had no

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

695

1 more communication at that point on these subjects. I still
2 worked with advancement offices though.

3 Q Mr. Phillips, I'm going to stop you for one second.

4 MS. CONNELL: Can the jury hear Mr. Phillips?

5 THE JUROR: Barely.

6 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I'll lean in here.

7 Q If you can move it closer to you, sir. Thank you.

8 Mr. Phillips, you did some work on Young Guns, right?

9 A That's right.

10 Q And you stopped it at some point because the NRA
11 stopped paying you in May 2019, right?

12 A That's right.

13 Q Okay. So, you -- At the time you stopped working on 14 it, you had only received -- you had only started discussions
15 with local advancement representatives, right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. And one of the local advancement representatives
18 you were talking to was Mr. Pond, correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q You had a few lunches with him?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q But you didn't identify specific prospective donors
23 that Mr. Pond was unaware of, right?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q Okay. And you didn't reach out to any prospective

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

696

1 donors identified by Mr. Pond or by you, right?

2 A Well, the program had not made any progress when NRA
3 stopped paying.

4 Q So, in the first five months that you were receiving
5 $30,000 a month from the NRA, plus payment for office space,
6 plus expenses, you didn't consult with Mr. LaPierre, Mr. Spray,
7 right?

8 A Correct.

9 Q And you didn't refer a single donor to the NRA,
10 correct?

11 A I don't know what came from our Young Guns work that we 12 did to begin with, but I'm unaware of any.

13 Q And you had a few lunches with Mr. Pond, but you didn't 14 move forward or reach out to any donors?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q Okay. So when the NRA cut off your contract, you had 17 been paid $150,000 as part of your $30,000 flat rate fee, right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And you had received $3,500 per month as part of your
20 rent, correct?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And expenses?

23 A Yes.

24 Q What's The Campfire Club?

25 A The Campfire Club is a New York club of gentlemen that

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

697

1 are shooters -- it's a shooting club. And I was a member of
2 that. It was a networking club for me.

3 Q And you had the NRA pay for the cost of that, of 4 joining the yearly cost of The Campfire Club for you under this
5 agreement, right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Why did the NRA stop paying you under this agreement?

8 A I don't know exactly.

9 Q Okay. Did you ever ask?

10 A No. I guessed.

11 Q I don't want you to guess, sir. You never called up
12 the NRA and say hey, I had this agreement. Why are you not 13 paying me?

14 A No.

15 Q Okay. Mr. LaPierre knew about this post-employment
16 consulting agreement, right?

17 A I believe so.

18 Q In fact, you believe so because Mr. LaPierre was in the 19 room when you executed this post-employment consulting
20 agreement, right?

21 A He was.

22 Q Okay. So there is a room with you and Mr. Brownell and 23 Ms. Meadows and Mr. LaPierre, right?

24 A That's right.

25 Q And, in fact, at the same time that you were executing

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

698

1 your post-employment agreement, you executed a post-employment
2 agreement for Mr. LaPierre, right?

3 A I'm very unclear on the timing of that. It was at a
4 board meeting, and we were standing up in front of the board.
5 The only part I remember was executing mine.

6 MS. CONNELL: Can we bring up --

7 Q Mr. Phillips, I would like to draw your attention to 8 tab 14.

9 MS. CONNELL: That's PX 3073.

10 THE COURT: That's in the white binder?

11 MS. CONNELL: In the white binder, your Honor.

12 Q So, Mr. Phillips, for your convenience the white binder
13 has the lower number. So, please bring up Exhibit 14.

14 A Is that tab 14?

15 Q Tab 14. I'm sorry. PX 3703.

16 THE COURT: Are you going to be moving this one
17 into evidence?

18 MS. CONNELL: Are there any objections? I heard
19 none.

20 MR. FARBER: May I have a moment to find the
21 document?

22 THE COURT: Sure.

23 MR. FARBER: No objection.

24 THE COURT: Anything else?

25 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

699

1 THE COURT: It's admitted.

2 MS. CONNELL: Thank you. May this be published,
3 please.

4 Q Mr. Phillips, I'm showing you what has been marked
5 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3073. Can you please look at page 2 of this
6 document?

7 A (Examining). I have it.

8 Q Is that your signature on this page?

9 A Yes, it is.

10 Q And what's the date of your signature?

11 A May 5th, 2018.

12 Q And who else signed this document?

13 A Wayne LaPierre, Pete Brownell, Carolyn Meadows.

14 Q And it was notarized, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Who is it notarized by?

17 A Lisa Supernaugh. I'll spell that for you.

18 Q Yes, please. I'm sure Lori would like that.

19 A S-U-P-E-R-N-A-U-G-H.

20 Q Who is Lisa Supernaugh?

21 A Lisa was my assistant.

22 Q How many years was she your assistant for?

23 A Many.

24 Q And Ms. Supernaugh would help you oversee your work at 25 the NRA, correct? She was your assistant?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

700

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, this agreement is a contract
3 extension for an employment agreement for Mr. LaPierre, correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And if you turn to page 1, it contemplated that he
6 would be paid $1.3 million for the year 2019, correct?

7 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, objection. The document
8 speaks for itself.

9 THE COURT: Overruled. I mean, that's true, but 10 you can -- I assume you're going to ask him to read more
11 than the words.

12 MS. CONNELL: I am, your Honor.

13 Q Do you see that, sir?

14 A I do.

15 Q It also called for higher payments for years 2020 to
16 2025, correct?

17 A Yes. On the next page.

18 Q Right. And if you look at the paragraph underneath
19 this it says that "During this five year period the NRA will 20 have use of your name and likeness as mutually agreed upon",
21 right?

22 A Correct.

23 Q Did you complete a business case analysis for this
24 contract extension?

25 A No.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

701

1 Q Did you have this contract extension approved by the
2 audit committee of the NRA?

3 A No.

4 Q Before you agreed to these amounts, did you do any 5 analysis of whether this -- this -- whether these payments were
6 based on something other than your assessment of Mr. LaPierre's
7 work?

8 A The assessment of a group of peoples.

9 Q I'm asking what you did, Mr. Phillips.

10 A I agreed with it.

11 Q Okay. But you didn't yourself do any assessment of 12 this amount? Who suggested 1.3 and 1.5 million?

13 A I don't know.

14 Q And if you turn to page 2, you see that there is an 15 additional period of time contemplated under the contract,
16 right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q So, it calls for Mr. LaPierre to be paid $1.5 million
19 between 2026 and 2028, right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And $1.3 million from 2029 to 2030, correct?

22 A Correct.

23 Q And that would be --

24 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I object. This document
25 is -- purports to be an extension of a prior contract that

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

702

1 has terms that form part of the alleged agreement. So I
2 would ask that the State be required to put the entire
3 document in if she's going to be questioning this witness
4 about the document.

5 THE COURT: You can bring that in on your
6 questioning. Go ahead.

7 Q And it called for Mr. LaPierre to be paid $1.3 million
8 between 2029 and 2030, right?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And, Mr. Phillips, you also didn't do any separate 11 assessment of the basis for paying Mr. LaPierre this amount in 12 those years, right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Okay. And to your knowledge was this contract ever
15 placed before the audit committee?

16 A I'm not aware that it was.

17 Q Okay. Do you know if this contract is still in effect?

18 A I don't know.

19 Q Okay. So, I would like to move on to a slightly
20 different topic.

21 MS. CONNELL: We can take this down. Thank you,
22 Mr. Stephenson.

23 A Can I change the binder?

24 Q You can change the binder.

25 A Which one do you want?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

703

1 Q Actually keep the white binder. Please turn to page 1
2 of tab one.

3 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I received an objection
4 to one page of Exhibit PX 343, which is tab one, but I'm 5 only seeking to admit pages 1 and 2.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So, you're going to change then
7 the exhibit?

8 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: So when you -- So you're going to --
10 It's just going to be the first two pages of Exhibit PX 343.

11 MS. CONNELL: That's exactly right.

12 THE COURT: Is there any objection to the exhibit
13 as amended?

14 MS. ROGERS: As amended, no objection.

15 THE COURT: Anyone else?

16 MR. FARBER: Can I have a moment just to look at 17 it, your Honor?

18 THE COURT: Sure.

19 MR. FARBER: (Examining).

20 A I'm ready.

21 Q Yes, sir. We're waiting.

22 MR. FARBER: Can I find out what the specific page
23 is that's being removed from the exhibit?

24 THE COURT: Everything other than the first two.

25 MR. FARBER: Pardon me?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

704

1 THE COURT: Everything other than the first two.

2 MR. FARBER: No objection.

3 THE COURT: All right. The first two pages are 4 admitted as PX 343 as modified.

5 Q Mr. Phillips, I'm directing your attention to page 1
6 and 2 of tab one. Do you see this document?

7 A (Examining).

8 Q Or these documents?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. What is page 1?

11 A Page 1 is -- is a bill under the contract, my contract
12 with the NRA for the -- it's July billing for 2019.

13 Q So, when you billed the NRA, you billed it under the 14 name of an LLC named WHiP, capital W, capital H, small I,
15 capital P, LLC correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q That's an entity owned by you?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And you would bill the NRA just showing a flat rate of
20 $30,000, right?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And then you would also bill the NRA $3,500 for your 23 office space, correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And you submitted an invoice like this to the NRA for

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

705

1 every month until May, through May, correct?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q And the NRA, the last one the NRA paid was May,
4 correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q Okay. Can we turn to page 2, please. What -- This
7 is -- this is an invoice reflecting your payment of rent,
8 correct?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And you paid rent to an entity known First Preston HT?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q What is First Preston HT?

13 A It's -- it's a, for my purposes, it was the landlord
14 for -- in a brand new building, an office building.

15 Q Okay. First Preston HT was your landlord, right?

16 A Was my what?

17 Q Your landlord for your office, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Do you know any of the owners of First Preston HT?

20 A I do.

21 Q Is Ms. Richards an owner of First Preston HT?

22 A She's one of the owners.

23 Q And who is Nancy Richards?

24 A She's a friend.

25 Q You had been friends with her for a long time, correct?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

706

1 A I have.

2 Q And you had been romantically involved with her for
3 some time, right?

4 A No. I had been for some time.

5 Q Right.

6 A But I have not been for a long time.

7 Q When did you stop being romantically involved with Ms.
8 Richards?

9 A I didn't put it on the calendar, but it was quite some 10 time ago. Ten years or more ago.

11 Q At the time you rented from First Preston HT your 12 testimony is that you were just friends with her?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Would you say close friends?

15 A Yeah. Still close friends.

16 Q Okay. So, just looking back at the first page of tab
17 one, Exhibit PX 343, the page 1. This invoice doesn't specify
18 any particular work you had done for the NRA, correct?

19 A That's correct. It was not required under the
20 contract.

21 Q And do you know, when you issued these invoices, how 22 the NRA knew what, if any, work you were doing under this
23 contract, right?

24 A Repeat that please.

25 Q When you issued these invoices like this invoice, you

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

707

1 didn't know how the NRA would know whether or if you were doing
2 any work under this post-employment contract, right?

3 A Well, people within the NRA that I may have worked with 4 would know, but NRA as an entity did not know. Its officers did
5 not know.

6 Q Mr. Phillips, do you recall being deposed in this
7 action?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And when you were deposed in this action, you took an 10 oath, correct?

11 A I did.

12 Q And you took an oath to tell the truth?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And you tried to tell the truth then, right?

15 A I did try.

16 Q And you were asked questions?

17 A I was.

18 Q By my colleague Mr. Wang, correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you answered those questions, right?

21 A Yes.

22 MS. CONNELL: Jessie, can we bring up Mr. Phillips'
23 testimony from 8/10.21, page 86, lines 23 to 87, line five.

24 Q So, Mr. Phillips at your deposition you were asked,
25 "How did the NRA know that you were doing any work under the

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

708

1 terms of this agreement", right? I read that accurately?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And your answer was, "I don't know", correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay.

6 MS. CONNELL: You can take that down. Thanks,
7 Jessie.

8 Q Mr. Phillips, when you worked -- The NRA's corporate
9 headquarters are in Fairfax, Virginia, correct?

10 A Correct.

11 Q While you were CFO and treasurer of the NRA, would you
12 agree that it was an important position in the NRA?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And you had oversight over financial matters involving 15 the whole NRA, right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Its a top officer position, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And so you lived -- Strike that. For a long time you
20 owned a home in Vienna, Virginia, correct?

21 A Correct.

22 Q And you lived there for a large portion of the time
23 that you worked at the NRA, right?

24 A No. There was a time early, after I joined the NRA,
25 where my ex-wife lived in that house, at that address.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

709

1 Q Okay. So but you lived in Vienna, Virginia for a long
2 time while you worked at the NRA?

3 A I did, right.

4 Q In 2015 you bought a property in Dallas, Texas, a home
5 in Dallas, Texas, right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And you also lived there while you worked at the NRA,
8 correct?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And you started living in Dallas in 2015, right, at 11 least part time?

12 A At least part time.

13 Q And for the last two to three years you were NRA's CFO
14 and treasurer, you spent about 60 percent of your time in 15 Dallas, correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q Okay. And you would commute back and forth to work
18 part of the time in Virginia at the headquarters, right?

19 A Correct.

20 Q Okay. And you sought reimbursement from the NRA for 21 your commuting costs, right?

22 A I wouldn't call those commuting costs, but for the cost
23 of the travel. We had looked at it and determined that the cost
24 was about the same, because I was spending so much time in 25 Dallas.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

710

1 MS. CONNELL: Move to strike, your Honor. It was a
2 yes or no answer. I asked if he sought reimbursement.

3 THE COURT: I'm not going to strike it.

4 MR. FARBER: Judge, also Ms. Connell cut off the 5 witness in the middle of an answer. I don't think it's
6 appropriate.

7 THE COURT: If the question is yes or no on cross
8 examination, although it's a little awkward sometimes,
9 largely I'll try to keep the answers to a yes or no.

10 THE WITNESS: I understand.

11 THE COURT: But I don't think any -- anything
12 inappropriate occurred there. Go ahead.

13 Q And the NRA paid for the costs of you to go back and 14 forth between Dallas and Virginia, correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And after you sold your home in Vienna, Virginia you
17 sometimes stayed at hotels while you were working as NRA's CFO
18 and treasurer, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you asked the NRA to pay for those costs, right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q You submitted those costs to the NRA for reimbursement,
23 right?

24 A Correct.

25 Q And the NRA paid those costs, right?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

711

1 A Yes.

2 Q You never submitted or identified those costs to the 3 officers compensation committee, did you?

4 A You need to describe again what kind of costs these
5 were.

6 Q Sure. The NRA paid for flights back and forth for you
7 for three years between Dallas and Virginia, correct?

8 A Correct.

9 Q And the NRA paid for costs for you to stay in hotels in 10 Virginia at times while you're working as NRA's CFO and
11 treasurer?

12 A That's right.

13 Q Who processed those reimbursement requests?

14 A Can you state that another way?

15 Q Sure. You submitted those requests for reimbursement
16 to Portia Padilla, right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And where in the NRA organize chart does Ms. Padilla
19 fit?

20 A In the accounting services area, accounts payable 21 department, I believe.

22 Q And that would be under your supervision, correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. Did you personally let the officers compensation
25 committee know that the NRA was paying for the costs of you to

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

712

1 fly back and forth between Dallas and Virginia?

2 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor. The question
3 assumes that the costs were compensation and that's a legal
4 issue.

5 THE COURT: Overruled.

6 Q You can answer, sir.

7 A I'm sorry. Please restate.

8 MS. CONNELL: Can you read that back, Lori. I'm
9 sorry.

10 THE COURT: Yes, please.

11 (Whereupon the above-requested testimony was read
12 back.)

13 A No.

14 Q Okay. And did you personally let the officers
15 compensation committee know that the NRA was paying for the cost
16 of your hotel stays in Virginia while you were working as NRA
17 CFO and treasurer?

18 MR. CORRELL: Objection. Same objection. It
19 assumes that the expense at issue is properly characterized 20 as compensation and that there was a requirement to submit
21 that to the compensation committee.

22 THE COURT: Overruled. It doesn't assume either of 23 those things.

24 Q You can answer that.

25 A I know. I'm confused. That -- that I would be staying

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

713

1 in hotels in Virginia when I -- when I -- in Virginia, correct?

2 Q Yes. Mr. Phillips, you had the NRA pay for your stays
3 in Virginia, right?

4 A I got it. Yes.

5 Q And did you tell the officers compensation committee
6 that the NRA was paying for your hotel stays in Virginia while
7 you were NRA's CFO and treasurer?

8 A No.

9 Q Okay. And, Mr. Phillips, did Mr. LaPierre know that 10 you were working part time from Dallas during the last years of 11 your services as NRA's CFO and treasurer?

12 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor.

13 Q To your knowledge.

14 THE COURT: It's overruled.

15 A Please restate that.

16 Q To your knowledge did Mr. LaPierre know that you were 17 working part time in Dallas during the last three years of your 18 service as CFO and treasurer?

19 A I don't know what he knew.

20 Q Okay. Did you ever tell him that you were living in 21 Dallas part time?

22 A I thought he knew I had bought a house there.

23 Q Okay. What is the basis for your thinking he knew?

24 A I can't tell. I don't have an answer to that.

25 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, you're familiar with a company

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

714

1 called HomeTelos, correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q That's H-O-M-E-T-E-L-O-S. HomeTelos is a software
4 development company, correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q HomeTelos was a vendor of the NRA from approximately
7 2014 to 2017, right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And HomeTelos is owned by an individual named Nancy
10 Richards, correct?

11 A Correct.

12 Q Ms. Richards is the person you identified who was your 13 landlord or had an ownership interest First Preston HT, right?

14 A Correct.

15 Q Ms. Richards is the one you identified as a close
16 friend, right?

17 A Right.

18 Q And, Mr. Phillips, I would like to show you a document
19 that's been marked PX 2570. It's tab nine in your white binder.
20 Can you please take a look at that.

21 A Is that going to come up on the screen too?

22 Q It will. It will.

23 A Can I wait?

24 THE COURT: See if there are any objections to it.

25 MR. FARBER: One moment, your Honor, please. No

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

715

1 objection.

2 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

3 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

4 THE COURT: It is admitted.

5 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

6 Q Mr. Phillips, you can see it on the screen now if that 7 makes it easier.

8 A It does.

9 Q You might want to keep that handy, because I may ask
10 you to page through it a little bit.

11 A Okay.

12 Q For now let's take a look at page 1. This is a
13 contract review sheet, right?

14 A (Examining). Yes.

15 Q And you prepared this contract review sheet, right?

16 A Most of that is my writing.

17 Q Right. And it's a contract review sheet for an 18 agreement between HomeTelos and the NRA, correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q And it called for HomeTelos to be paid $71,848 a month
21 for 14 months, right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q And this agreement was negotiated by you and Tony
24 Hayes, right?

25 A Correct.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

716

1 Q And the responsible officer approval for this contract
2 is you, right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q If you look down under the third line of signature
5 block, right, or the second line we'll start out with, there was 6 no signature from purchasing review, right?

7 A Correct.

8 Q And you signed both for financial and business review,
9 right?

10 A Correct.

11 Q And for the treasurer's office?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And the date of your signature is September 2nd, 2014,
14 right?

15 A That's right.

16 Q And if you turn to page 2, this is the business case
17 analysis sheet for this contract, right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And it called for a yearly dollar amount of $215,544 in 20 2014?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And $790,328 in 2015, correct?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And you and Mr. Hayes negotiated that amount?

25 A Actually Mr. Hayes and his department negotiated that

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

717

1 amount. I wasn't involved in that.

2 Q But on page 1 you said it was negotiated by you and Mr.
3 Hayes, right?

4 A Well, I was aware of the negotiation going on.

5 Q Okay. The analysis of this contract was prepared by 6 you, right?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q And moving on to page 12. If we can go to page 12 of 9 this document for just a second. That's your signature on this
10 contract, right?

11 A (Examining). Yes.

12 Q I'm sorry. Take a step back, Mr. Phillips. Following
13 the business case analysis is the NRA's contract with HomeTelos,
14 right? If you look at pages three --

15 A Hang on.

16 Q -- through 17, that's your contract, the NRA contract
17 with HomeTelos, right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q So, on page 12 you signed that contract on behalf of 20 the NRA, right?

21 A I see what you have. Yes.

22 Q Okay. So, HomeTelos ultimately was paid more than 23 $1.4 million for services performed for the NRA, correct?

24 A I believe so.

25 Q And at the time that you entered into this agreement on

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

718

1 behalf of the NRA with HomeTelos, you didn't disclose your
2 relationship with Ms. Richards to the audit committee, right?

3 A I don't think it was required but no.

4 Q Okay.

5 THE COURT: Counsel, is there -- is the first page
6 of the contract missing from this exhibit? It looks like
7 the first page of the contract is page 2.

8 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I believe this is how it
9 was presented to us, but I will correct it if I can confirm
10 that. Maybe we can -- Can we still publish it to the jury
11 and I'll confirm?

12 THE COURT: Yes. I'm anticipating a question when 13 somebody takes a look at it because it starts on page 2.

14 MS. CONNELL: If you look at the Bate stamp number.

15 THE COURT: It's all consecutive of what was in the 16 package but the contract itself.

17 MS. CONNELL: Right. We'll look into that.

18 THE COURT: Okay. I -- I just wanted to let you
19 know I'm reading along.

20 MS. CONNELL: Thank you. I have no doubt of your 21 close attention, your Honor.

22 Q Mr. Phillips, you said that you didn't think it was --
23 that you were required to disclose this to the audit committee,
24 is that right?

25 A That's correct.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

719

1 Q But ultimately -- Actually can we stop there for one
2 second. Who is Lisa Barrentine?

3 A She was the president of HomeTelos.

4 Q She was a partner of Ms. Richards, right?

5 A Not exactly, but for this purpose you can say partner.

6 Q You ultimately did disclose your contract to the audit
7 committee after it was over, right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Can you please turn to tab 13.

10 MS. CONNELL: This is PX 2673. I would ask if 11 there are any objections.

12 MR. FARBER: Could I have a moment to look at the 13 document, your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MR. FARBER: (Examining).

16 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

17 MR. FARBER: No objection.

18 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: It's admitted.

20 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

21 Q Mr. Phillips, the contract between NRA and HomeTelos
22 ended in 2017, correct?

23 A I don't -- I don't -- I don't recall when it ended.

24 Q Okay. So, one second. I'm sorry. I'm taking you back
25 to the contract so you can see it. If you look at tab nine,

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

720

1 Mr. Phillips. If you look at page 2 of tab nine, the business
2 case analysis sheet.

3 A (Examining).

4 Q At the top it says "Yearly dollar amount for 2014 and
5 2015", right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q But the HomeTelos arrangement with the NRA actually
8 continued to 2017, right?

9 A I -- I don't know. I really wasn't involved much with 10 this contract.

11 Q So at the time -- Let me ask you a question. If you
12 look at page 2 of 2013 it says this is your disclosure, right?

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Which exhibit are you in 14 now?

15 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

16 MR. FARBER: I believe we're talking about 2673 not 17 2013.

18 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry.

19 MS. ROGERS: To be clear, your Honor, so the 20 document isn't misstated, this is an e-mail to Mr. Phillips
21 from himself.

22 THE COURT: I'm not sure what document we're 23 talking about.

24 Q If you could look at tab 13.

25 MS. CONNELL: Counsel, PX 2673. I believe your

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

721

1 Honor has admitted this already, if I'm not mistaken.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 Q What is page 1 of this document, Mr. Phillips?

4 A That's the back of the first page?

5 Q Yes. The front page.

6 A Okay. It's an e-mail to me from me.

7 Q And what is it dated?

8 A It is dated 2018, September 6th.

9 Q So in September 2018 you sent an e-mail to yourself,
10 right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q Relating to the disclosure to HT Solutions, right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q And page 2 is a -- the disclosure, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And did you -- You wrote this disclosure, right?

17 A (Examining). I believe someone wrote it for me.

18 Q Who wrote it for you, Mr. Phillips?

19 A I don't know.

20 Q Is it possible that counsel wrote it for you?

21 MS. ROGERS: Objection.

22 THE COURT: You can ask it as a direct question.

23 Q Mr. Phillips, who -- if you didn't write it, who do
24 you -- Strike that.

25 MS. ROGERS: The witness testified he doesn't know.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

722

1 Q Mr. Phillips, this is your attempt to disclose your
2 relationship with Ms. Richards relating to the HomeTelos
3 contract, correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And what prompted you to make this disclosure?

6 A I think you've heard testimony earlier that the NRA was 7 trying to bring its compliance up to a level.

8 Q And so was it suggested that you should make a
9 disclosure regarding HomeTelos?

10 A I really don't remember where this came from.

11 Q As you sit here today you have no recollection of how
12 or why you made this disclosure regarding HomeTelos?

13 A I could guess why. I just don't recall the time.

14 Q I don't want you to guess.

15 A I know.

16 Q Do you know why as you sit here today you made a
17 disclosure regarding HomeTelos?

18 A No.

19 Q Okay. If you look at paragraph 5 -- I'm sorry. Strike
20 that. So, you don't know why you made the disclosure. Can you
21 tell me about how this wording of this disclosure came about?

22 A I don't know.

23 Q So, you didn't write this?

24 A I don't recall.

25 Q Is it -- Do you not recall if you wrote it or you

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

723

1 didn't write it?

2 A I don't recall.

3 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, do you know whether the contents
4 of this disclosure are accurate?

5 A (Examining). They appear to be.

6 Q Do you know whether this disclosure was submitted to 7 the audit committee?

8 A I don't know.

9 Q So, Mr. Phillips, you don't know if you wrote this, and 10 you don't know if it was submitted to the audit committee, is 11 that accurate?

12 A That's accurate.

13 Q Is it true to the best of your knowledge that HomeTelos
14 was paid approximately $1.3 million between September 2014 and 15 May 2017 as it says in paragraph 5?

16 A I have no reason to believe this is not a true
17 statement.

18 Q To your knowledge was any other business case analysis
19 prepared in relation to HomeTelos than the one we reviewed?

20 A No.

21 Q And to your knowledge was any other contract prepared
22 with regard to HomeTelos other than the one we've looked at?

23 A No.

24 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, Ms. Richards and Ms. Barrentine
25 didn't have an expertise in online training, right?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

724

1 A I don't -- I don't know all their qualifications. They
2 had become a big software company though.

3 Q Their specialty was in real estate, correct?

4 A Originally.

5 Q So, when you say the contract was -- the contract --
6 When it says here "The contractor was well qualified to perform
7 the required services", you don't particularly know whether 8 that's true, right?

9 A I do know more.

10 Q But you didn't prepare this?

11 A I did not.

12 Q And you don't know whether they were particularly 13 qualified to perform the services related to the NRA Outdoors
14 Outfitter Program, right?

15 A I do.

16 Q You did at the time that you entered into the 17 HomeTelos -- that they entered into the HomeTelos agreement,
18 right?

19 A Yes. Yes.

20 Q What other companies did you look at as part of that 21 agreement? Strike that. At the time that you entered into the 22 HomeTelos agreement on behalf of the NRA, had the NRA performed
23 an RFP for those services?

24 A I don't know how they got -- I don't know who 25 originated it. Within NRA it Tony Hayes and a former general

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

725

1 operations executive director at NRA who had the hunter services
2 under his command. They brought it to me. I did not seek this 3 out.

4 Q So, Mr. Phillips, you don't know, when you executed the 5 HomeTelos contract, whether the NRA had performed an RFP for 6 those services, right?

7 A I did not know.

8 Q Did you check to see if they had?

9 A I did not.

10 Q And you did not disclose your relationship with Ms.
11 Richards until after that contract term was over, is that
12 correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q And, in fact, isn't it true, Mr. Phillips, that during 15 the time of the HomeTelos contract, you purchased a home with 16 Ms. Richards, correct?

17 A No.

18 Q You did not purchase a home with Ms. Richards in 2015?

19 A No.

20 Q Did you ever purchase a home with Ms. Richards?

21 A No.

22 Q Mr. Phillips, can you please turn to, in the black
23 binder, to what is marked as tab 41. It is PX 732.

24 A Would that be on the screen?

25 Q Not yet.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

726

1 THE COURT: Tab 41.

2 THE WITNESS: Okay.

3 THE COURT: Any objection to this one?

4 MR. FARBER: At the moment I don't see the exhibit,
5 your Honor, nor do I think counsel for the others.

6 MR. CORRELL: I don't have it either.

7 THE COURT: It's not in your binder?

8 MR. FARBER: It's not on the list of exhibits that 9 was provided.

10 MS. ROGERS: I think it was disclosed late or last.

11 MS. CONNELL: We added some exhibits last night,
12 your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Last night?

14 MS. CONNELL: Yeah. They were exhibits that were 15 already on our exhibit list. They were added to the list
16 for Mr. Phillips as disclosed exhibits previously.

17 THE COURT: To facilitate this, it's a one page
18 document. Maybe -- What we're going to do is we're going to 19 put it on the screen. For now we're going to keep the jury
20 screen dark just until we figure this out. Or we're going
21 to try. Okay. You can put it on the screen.

22 MS. CONNELL: Apologize, your Honor, for the 23 difficulty.

24 THE COURT: It should be on your screen now.

25 Q Mr. Phillips, can you look at this document, please?

1 A (Examining). I see it.

2 THE COURT: Before we do it, now that they have it,
3 is there any objection to the questioning on this?

4 MR. FARBER: I -- I don't have objections to 5 questions, your Honor, but I do have an objection to it
6 being offered.

7 THE COURT: On what ground?

8 MR. FARBER: The ground that I don't have a record
9 of it being identified or provided to us.

10 THE COURT: Well, there is a Bates number in 11 discovery. So -- (pause).

12 MR. FARBER: Yeah. Looking at some e-mails I
13 believe it was provided to us at 10:00 a.m. this morning,
14 your Honor, which was during court.

15 MS. CONNELL: I believe we identified the Bates
16 number last night, your Honor. We provided an exhibit list
17 of documents we intended to use with this witness well in 18 advance.

19 THE COURT: Assuming I'm not going to exclude it
20 based on the exact timing of when you got an e-mail about 21 it, do you have a substantive objection to the exhibit?

22 MR. FARBER: Assuming they lay a foundation, no.

23 MS. ROGERS: NRA has none.

24 THE COURT: I'll admit it.

25 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

1 Q So, Mr. Phillips, in -- you currently live at a
2 property on Gilbert Avenue in Dallas, Texas, right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And 2015 you contemplated at least buying this property
5 with Ms. Richards, correct?

6 A I don't recall ever talking about buying it with her.

7 Q Is that Ms. Richards' signature on this document?

8 A (Examining). Yes, it is.

9 Q And did you ultimately purchase this house with Ms.
10 Richards?

11 A No.

12 Q But you contemplated it in 2015, correct?

13 A I don't recall that. I remember we saw the house when 14 we were together.

15 Q Do you doubt that this is your signature on this
16 document?

17 A No.

18 Q And so it is your signature on this document?

19 A It is.

20 Q You ultimately went through with this purchase,
21 correct?

22 A I went through the purchase, but not this purchase that 23 you're looking at. I bought it outright by myself.

24 Q By yourself without Ms. Richards?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

729

1 Q Mr. Phillips, you have gone on trips with Ms. Richards,
2 right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And in 20 --

5 MS. CONNELL: You can take this down. Thank you,
6 Jessie.

7 Q In 2018 you took a trip, a yacht trip with Ms.
8 Richards, right?

9 A Correct.

10 Q You won a charity auction, a yacht trip that you -- you
11 won a yacht trip as part of a charity auction, right?

12 A Not exactly.

13 Q At a charity event the person who bid on a yacht trip
14 didn't pay for it, so you paid the money and therefore won the 15 yacht trip, right?

16 A Yes. It was not at the event. It was later.

17 Q Right. So, you and Ms. Richards in 2018 took a yacht
18 trip to Rome, correct?

19 A Italy.

20 Q Rome, Italy or just Italy generally?

21 A Italy.

22 Q A sightseeing tour of Italy?

23 MR. FARBER: Can we ask Ms. Connell to not talk
24 over Mr. Phillips. It's hard for me to hear the answers.

25 THE COURT: I was curious whether it was going to

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

730

1 be Rome, Georgia.

2 MS. CONNELL: Hard to get to by yacht, but I'm not
3 a yacht expert.

4 THE COURT: You never know.

5 Q Mr. Phillips, you paid for that yacht trip, right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q How much did you pay?

8 A $25,000.

9 Q And what was the name of the yacht that you were on?

10 It was The Grand -- I'm sorry.

11 A I needed help. The Grand Illusion.

12 Q Right. And that was a yacht trip, the yacht owned by 13 the McKenzies, right?

14 A One. There is an Illusion and a Grand Illusion.

15 Q This is one of the yachts owned by the McKenzies?

16 MR. FARBER: Again, your Honor, Ms. Connell is 17 beginning her questions while Mr. Phillips is answering, and 18 it's difficult at least for me to hear and not fair to the
19 witness.

20 THE COURT: Let's try to do better to separate the 21 questions and the answers, okay.

22 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

23 Q Mr. Phillips, that's one of the yachts owned by the 24 McKenzies, correct?

25 A That's correct.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

731

1 Q And so you -- after that trip you disclosed it to the
2 audit committee, right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And you disclosed it to the audit committee because the
5 yacht was owned by an NRA vendor, right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q Okay.

8 THE COURT: We're about two minutes away from the 9 end of the morning.

10 MS. CONNELL: I was going to move on to a new 11 topic, your Honor. Maybe this is a good place to break.

12 THE COURT: Okay. It is a good time to break.
13 We're going to break for the day. We are -- The Court is 14 closed on Monday. So, I will see you all Tuesday at 9:30.
15 Okay. Have a good weekend. Remember the instructions. Not 16 to discuss the case either among yourselves or with anyone
17 else over the weekend. And have a good few days off.

18 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

19 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

20 THE COURT: Just, Mr. Phillips, just a reminder
21 that over the weekend, although it's odd, you are still 22 essentially on the stand, so it's as if we were continuing.
23 So during that period you should not discuss the substance
24 of your testimony with anyone and that includes your 25 counsel. Okay.

LAS

1 MR. FARBER: Judge, I object to that. As
2 Mr. Phillips is my client, he has a due process right to
3 consult with me about this case, and I don't think --

4 THE COURT: He can consult with you about the case
5 but not about his testimony.

6 MR. FARBER: Well, I think the two are intertwined,
7 your Honor.

8 THE COURT: That's not true.

9 MR. FARBER: Understood.

10 THE COURT: This is a common instruction. You
11 couldn't have a break and talk to him about his testimony
12 now. So the same goes for during a break. You could talk
13 about the case, but you can't discuss his testimony while 14 he's on the stand.

15 MR. FARBER: Substantive testimony.

16 THE COURT: Substantive. You can talk about 17 logistics and things like that.

18 All right. Tuesday, 9:30. I have a sneaky
19 suspicion I'll be hearing from you maybe in between, but I
20 hope you all have a pleasant weekend and we'll see you then.

21 MS. ROGERS: Thank you, your Honor.

22 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

23 (Witness excused.)

24 (Whereupon the trial was adjourned to January 16,
25 2024 at 9:30 a.m.)

PROCEEDINGS

1 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I understand that the
2 Court is actively working on the electronic display system
3 which we prepared before Mr. Phillips resumes taking the 4 stand. Can we just have a few minutes?

5 THE COURT: Yes. I wanted to chat briefly about
6 one of the letters over the weekend. So, I saw just briefly
7 the letter from Mr. Fleming about the Tedrick transcript.
8 You know, I did see occasionally in the rebuttal sections
9 and elsewhere there were some areas where questions were cut
10 off and it seemed a little incomplete, and where it was very
11 clear that the whole question was suppose to be included I
12 tried to put a note. And I did see some others where there
13 was an answer and then the shading was gone. So the People
14 were not going to include the rest of the testimony. My 15 view of it was, you know, I wasn't going to insert myself to 16 say well, you know, it might make sense to put the rest of 17 the testimony where the witness says just a flat no to 18 something and then there were some follow-up questions.

19 So, you know, I -- I take it from the back and 20 forth that there was no formal protocol about what to do
21 with the reply designations that the State had put in. I
22 will say that just the one that Mr. Fleming pointed out, it
23 does seem to me that if that was not intended to leave out
24 the rest of the testimony where he is just asked the part 25 that was included was do you believe the 2020 990 form was

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

736

1 accurate and the answer is no as of today no, I think that
2 was the end of the testimony. I did notice when I was
3 reading through it that there were some other questions
4 after that.

5 So, again my assumption when I was reading it all
6 is that everybody knew all of the designations. So, my 7 inclination is to supplement by playing those other few
8 questions just to round out what he meant by the no. Does 9 the State have an objection to that? Putting aside whether 10 it's anyones, you know, fault about how the designation
11 process was suppose to work.

12 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I -- I would just say in 13 regard to formal protocol, we did have a formal protocol. I
14 have to say the deposition designations have been pretty
15 torturous. We'll be getting Mr. Sprays' to you this 16 morning. We tried to cut it down and ended up with new 17 counter designations and going back and forth.

18 With regard to Mr. Tedrick, we did give them to all
19 parties to review.

20 THE COURT: The reply.

21 MS. CONNELL: Yes, with everything highlighted,
22 replies highlighted. That was all there. And I really
23 frankly I don't have any objection to the jury hearing a
24 full answer, full anything. But I do sort of object to just 25 that being highlighted now at this point because counsel

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

737

1 didn't review this earlier, especially when we're -- we
2 spent the entire weekend going back and forth on other
3 designations, other cuts. Again, as I said, additional 4 counter designations when we cut back on our designations.
5 I feel like the defendants will have a time in their case in 6 chief to play what they want and that should be the time.

7 THE COURT: Right. I was going to say that. One
8 way or the other it's going to come in, because I think we 9 recognize that with Tedrick and Meadows, since their
10 unavailability came up so late, the defendants will be free
11 to play whatever excerpts they want. So I guess it's a
12 question of whether -- inputting it in right now will be a
13 little jarring, and it may make sense to do it all as part
14 of whatever the defendants are doing with Mr. Tedrick.

15 Mr. Fleming since you were the one that brought 16 this up, I'm happy to have this ultimately be in front of 17 the jury, the other three questions and answers. It's going
18 to come a little bit out of left field if we just did it
19 right now. It may make more sense to be part of the defense
20 case. What do you think?

21 MR. FLEMING: I would disagree, your Honor. Couple
22 things just sort of, you know, factual background. The 23 parties went through designations and counter designations
24 pretty standard in my view. And then the part that 25 Ms. Connell is saying we had a chance to review was after it

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

738

1 was submitted to the Court. Maybe it's my error and you
2 know I'm not looking to blame anyone here. The fact is my
3 presumption, and I think all the defendants presumptions, is 4 that was a mere transmittal to your Honor of the work that
5 we had done.

6 THE COURT: The version that came to me that had
7 the red shaded areas which were the reply, you saw that only
8 when I saw that?

9 MR. FLEMING: I didn't even see it then, your 10 Honor. I heard it in court on Friday. And it struck me
11 that didn't make any sense.

12 THE COURT: Let me put it this way. You received
13 it.

14 MR. FLEMING: Yes. I had an opportunity to see it
15 on the fifth, only after it went to the Court. As I said, I
16 viewed that as a mere transmittal. Didn't feel the need to 17 check up on the Government's fidelity to what we talked
18 about. I'm also concerned, highly concerned that the jury
19 is now sitting with this misimpression for what could be 20 weeks before defendants are able to correct it. And I just 21 think that would be unfair.

22 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, may I just quickly make a
23 correction? Your Honor, we agreed on a protocol that 24 included reply designations. You're correct on putting your 25 finger on the fact that we weren't told, it wasn't even

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

739

1 substantiated that Mr. Tedrick and Ms. Meadows would be
2 unavailable until literally the first week, and we acted as
3 quickly as we could. Those reply designations were 4 literally you could see reply designation. They were
5 highlighted I think too.

6 THE COURT: They were sent to the defendants the 7 same time they were sent to the Court?

8 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor. Unfortunately as a
9 result of --

10 THE COURT: Again I recognize it was a quick
11 process. I'm -- I'm not throwing anybody under the bus in 12 terms of fault here. But I am going to -- between the two 13 witnesses today, what I would like to have you guys do is 14 tee up just the last question that went to Mr. Tedrick, I
15 think it was the very last one, and add to that the three 16 additional questions and answers from page 327, lines three 17 through nine. And I'll just give a very short statement to 18 them saying inadvertently a short section was -- was not 19 included, and so we're just going to play you the rest of 20 that testimony. I think Mr. Fleming's point is well taken,
21 that it probably is better to do it sooner rather than 22 later. It would have been better to do it the next day but 23 we're all working hard. So, at least now though going
24 forward everybody should know what the -- what the protocol
25 is. So, that's what I'll do. Can that be ready to go after

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

740

1 Mr. Phillips is done?

2 MS. CONNELL: We could check, your Honor. It
3 sounds like it's doable.

4 THE COURT: It sounds like it's doable, okay. Is
5 that sufficient? I don't want to interrupt Mr. Phillips'
6 flow.

7 MR. FLEMING: Completely sufficient, your Honor.
8 Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right. The jurors are now ready.
10 Are we still waiting for anything on the --

11 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we have one question.
12 The witness' binders, we're having trouble locating.

13 THE COURT: Were we downstairs?

14 MS. CONNELL: We were here and we believe they were 15 left here.

16 THE COURT: Maybe over here. I can give them mine.

17 THE COURT OFFICER: I got them.

18 THE COURT: They were locked away for safekeeping.

19 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, may we add two exhibits
20 real quickly?

21 THE COURT: You want those up at the witness?

22 MS. CONNELL: Yes.

23 THE COURT: The ones that the officer just gave you
24 should be up here?

25 MS. CONNELL: Yes. We're just going to add two

1 exhibits that we e-mailed to the defendants last night.

2 THE COURT: Got it. All right. So, why don't we
3 get the jurors ready then.

4 Mr. Phillips, do you want to come up and take your
5 spot up here. Good morning.

6 Counsel, do you want to add those to mine? I can
7 just follow along. I'm adaptable. Thank you. Are we ready
8 for the jury?

9 MS. CONNELL: We are, your Honor. Your Honor,
10 there is yet a third binder. We haven't used exhibits from
11 it.

12 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.
13 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

14 THE COURT: Okay. Have a seat. Welcome back
15 everyone. Very impressed that you all fought your way here
16 through the snow. Thank you for that.

17 Okay. Mr. Phillips, just a reminder that you are

1 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION

2 BY MS. CONNELL:

3 Q Mr. Phillips, you didn't discuss your testimony with 4 anyone over the weekend, right?

5 A I did not.

6 Q Perfect. Mr. Phillips, you've been here while we've 7 discussed the name of a company called Ackerman McQueen, right?

8 A Correct.

9 Q And you're familiar with Ackerman McQueen, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q While you were CFO and treasurer of the NRA, Ackerman
12 McQueen was one of the NRA's largest vendors, right?

13 A That's right.

14 Q Okay. It was a PR agency primarily, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Meaning public relations, correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And one of its founders was Angus McQueen, right?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q Okay. Did you meet with representatives of Ackerman
21 McQueen while you were with the NRA?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And did Mr. LaPierre?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Mr. LaPierre often met with Agnes McQueen to discuss

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

743

1 Ackerman's work for the NRA, correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And you sometimes took part in those meetings, right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Did you ever see Mr. McQueen yell at Mr. LaPierre?

6 A I don't believe so.

7 Q Okay. The meetings were usually held at Ackerman's
8 offices in Dallas or Oklahoma City, right?

9 A Right.

10 Q And the NRA had contracts with Ackerman McQueen called 11 services agreements, correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Mr. Phillips, I would like you to turn to tab 33. I
14 think it should be in one of the black binders.

15 A I have it.

16 Q Okay. Can you please take a look at that document,
17 sir?

18 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
19 request of counsel.)

20 Q Have you ever seen this -- oh, I'm sorry, Mr. Phillips.
21 Let me know when you have it.

22 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, this is tab 33, which is 23 PX 506 for identification.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Is there any objection to this 25 one?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

744

1 MR. FARBER: No, your Honor.

2 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

3 THE COURT: It's admitted.

4 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

5 Q Mr. Phillips, are you there at tab 33?

6 A Yes. Yes, I am.

7 Q Thank you. Have you seen this document before?

8 A I don't -- I don't recall. There was a serves
9 agreement.

10 Q Can you please turn to page 12 of the agreement.

11 THE COURT: Counsel, hang on one second. I think 12 the screens are not quite ready.

13 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

14 A I have it.

15 Q Okay. And is that Wayne LaPierre's signature?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And who else has signed this document?

18 A Bill Winkler, Mr. William Winkler.

19 Q Who was Mr. Winkler?

20 A Ackerman McQueen's chief financial officer.

21 Q And if you turn back to page 1, this is a services
22 agreement dated May 1st, 1999, correct?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And you received a copy of this agreement at that time,
25 right?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

745

1 A I would expect so.

2 Q Okay. Under this agreement Ackerman McQueen was
3 suppose to be paid by the NRA in two primary ways, is that
4 right?

5 A I'm sorry. Can you repeat that.

6 Q Sure. Under this agreement Ackerman McQueen was 7 suppose to be paid from the NRA in two primary ways, correct?

8 A I'd have to read this. I don't recall how -- how we 9 were suppose to pay them.

10 Q Mr. Phillips, I direct your attention to page 4 of the 11 agreement. Do you see the bottom of the page where it says
12 "compensation"?

13 A Yes.

14 Q So, this provides that one way Ackerman would be paid
15 was an $89,000 per month flat fee, correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And another way it was to be paid was on commissions
18 for advertising, sales and that type of things, correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q Please turn to page 6 and to (d) especially. Under 21 this agreement any special assignments not provided for in the 22 two types of payments we discussed must be approved in advance
23 and in writing by the executive vice president, correct, or his 24 designee?

25 A (Examining). That's what this provision says.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

746

1 Q And at the time of this agreement Wayne LaPierre was
2 the executive vice president, right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And Mr. LaPierre to your knowledge spoke to Ackerman
5 McQueen about special projects, right?

6 A Right.

7 Q And he negotiated the work that Ackerman was going to 8 do, right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And this agreement automatically renews, correct?

11 A Can you point me to the provision?

12 Q Sure. If I could direct your attention to page 10 at 13 the bottom of the page, sir.

14 A (Examining).

15 Q And to the second -- the -- the first -- I'm sorry.
16 The last full sentence that begins with "Without such written 17 notice".

18 A (Examining). Yes.

19 Q Mr. Phillips, this was the governing agreement between 20 Ackerman McQueen and the NRA until 2017, is that right?

21 A I don't recall when it changed.

22 Q Do you know of any other agreement between the time
23 this agreement was executed in 2017?

24 A I do not.

25 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, can you please turn to tab 34.

4 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

5 THE COURT: Are you offering it?

6 MS. CONNELL: Yes.

7 THE COURT: It's admitted.

8 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

9 Q Mr. Phillips, have you ever seen this document before?

10 A (Examining). I'm not familiar with it. I don't recall
11 seeing this.

12 Q Mr. Phillips, can you please take a look at page 11 of 13 this agreement.

14 A I have it.

15 Q Do you see that there are signatures there?

16 A I do.

17 Q Whose signatures are those?

18 A Allan Cors, who was president of the NRA at that time,
19 and Melanie Montgomery.

20 Q Who is Ms. Montgomery?

21 A She's, I don't know what position exactly, but Ackerman
22 McQueen, she was one of the people responsible for their
23 connection with NRA.

24 Q So, Ms. Montgomery worked for Ackerman McQueen while
25 you were CFO and treasurer, correct?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

748

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Is it fair to say that you would speak with Ms.
3 Montgomery on occasion?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And is it fair to say that you would discuss Ackerman
6 McQueen's business with the NRA with Ms. Montgomery?

7 A I would.

8 Q And you also would discuss Ackerman McQueen's business
9 with the NRA with Bill Winkler, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. Turning back to the first page of this 12 agreement, Mr. Phillips, do you see that it was dated the 30th
13 day of April, 2017?

14 A I do.

15 Q Mr. Phillips, do you -- do you believe that this is the 16 2017 services agreement between Ackerman McQueen and the NRA?

17 A I believe so.

18 Q Okay. Please turn to page 9 of this agreement. And I
19 would like to draw your attention to Roman numeral nine in 20 particular. Mr. Phillips, in terms of additional work or 21 directions given to Ackerman McQueen, this agreement is clear
22 that Ackerman McQueen is authorized to act only upon written 23 communications received from the NRA executive vice president or 24 his designee, correct?

25 A That's correct.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

749

1 Q And at that time that was Wayne LaPierre?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Were you his designee for communications with Ackerman
4 McQueen?

5 A I don't believe so.

6 Q Okay. To your knowledge was this agreement ever
7 subject to competitive bidding?

8 A I don't think so.

9 Q Okay. And there was no business case analysis
10 completed for this, correct?

11 A No.

12 Q I would direct your attention back to page 1 for a 13 second. This agreement also incorporates an agreement with an 14 entity known as Mercury Group, right?

15 A That's right.

16 Q What is Mercury Group?

17 A Mercury Group was a wholly owned subsidiary of Ackerman
18 McQueen that dealt with more issue based advertising and -- and 19 advice.

20 Q Was Mercury Group headed up by a different leadership
21 team than Ackerman McQueen?

22 A I don't know from their perspective, but from NRA's
23 perspective they were mostly the same people with -- with some 24 differences maybe.

25 Q Is one of those differences Tony Makris?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

750

1 A Yes.

2 Q And who is Tony Makris?

3 A Tony had some role with leadership more specific to 4 Mercury Group.

5 Q Mr. Makris was a friend of Mr. LaPierre's, correct?

6 A I believe so.

7 Q And they went -- they traveled together on occasion,
8 right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And had you ever heard Mr. Makris described as like a
11 brother to Mr. LaPierre?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And so the NRA paid Mercury Group, correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Do you know how much in 2017 the NRA was paying Mercury
16 Group?

17 A No.

18 Q The NRA also paid what was known as supplemental 19 invoices to Mr. Makris, right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q Do you know how much those supplemental invoices to Mr.
22 Makris were?

23 A I do not.

24 Q Do you know whether those supplemental invoices had the 25 approvals of board officers as required under the NRA's

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

751

1 procurement policy?

2 A I don't -- I don't know, but I'm not aware that they
3 did.

4 Q So as far as you know they didn't?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Mr. Phillips, can you please turn to tab 35. And this
7 is marked for identification as PX 3589.

8 MS. CONNELL: I don't believe I received an
9 objection to this, your Honor.

10 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

11 MS. CONNELL: Move.

12 MR. FARBER: No objection.

13 THE COURT: All right. Hearing no other, it's 14 admitted.

15 Q Mr. Phillips, can you look at the top of this document?

16 A Yes.

17 Q This is an amendment titled "Amendment Number One to 18 Services Agreement", right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And it is between the NRA and Ackerman McQueen, right?

21 A Correct.

22 Q And it is approximately a year after the prior 23 amendment, right?

24 A I'm sorry. Repeat that, please.

25 Q So we just looked at a services agreement dated

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

752

1 April 2017 between Ackerman and the NRA, right?

2 A Yes. You said the prior agreement?

3 Q Yes.

4 A Gotcha.

5 Q In May of 2018 the NRA's entering into this amendment

6 number one to the services agreement, correct?

7 A Correct.

8 Q Can you please turn to page 2 of this document?

9 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
10 request of counsel.)

11 Q Is that your signature there?

12 A Yes, it is.

13 Q And it was signed by Mr. Brownell, right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Who was the NRA president?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And by Carolyn Meadows who was also a board officer of 18 the NRA, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Under this amendment the NRA had to pay Ackerman
21 McQueen for quote talent and employees, correct?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q And it specifically identifies under paragraph 2,
24 payments for including but not limited to Dana Loesch. I never 25 pronounce her name correctly.

LAS

1 A Close enough.

2 Q Thank you. And there is a blank, right?

1 Q Do you know who else this agreement was intended to
2 cover?

3 A Well, my copy has "Oliver North" filled in.

4 Q You're looking at PX 3589, sir?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Oh.

7 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, it's different than the 8 exhibit that's in my binder.

9 MS. CONNELL: As is mine.

10 THE COURT: I think he's looking at the other page.

11 MS. CONNELL: Oh, thank you. Thank you, your 12 Honor. I'm sorry. I was focused on paragraph 2.

13 Q If we move down to paragraph 3, Mr. Phillips and,
14 actually, turn over to paragraph -- to page -- 2, "Oliver North"
15 is also identified there; correctly -- correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q So this agreement called for the NRA to pay Ackerman
18 McQueen for monies that Ackerman McQueen would pay to Oliver
19 North, right?

20 A That's right.

21 Q And you signed this agreement, right?

22 A I did.

23 Q And if the NRA failed to make payments on time, under 24 this agreement, it would have to take out a letter of credit to 25 ensure that monies would be paid to Ackerman McQueen; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

755

1 A Can you send me to the right paragraph here
2 (indicating)?

3 Q Sure.

4 If you look, for example, at paragraph 2, at the bottom
5 half --

6 A I see it.

7 Q -- the sentence beginning "Accordingly."

8 A Yeah. That's true.

9 Q So this para -- this amendment number 1 to the Services
10 Agreement was executed on May 6, 2018; correct?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And that was entered into at the NRA's annual meeting
13 in 2018, right?

14 A That's the -- that's the right date.

15 Q And Oliver North was elected president of the NRA at 16 that annual meeting; correct?

17 MS. ROGERS: Objection; misstates facts.

18 THE COURT: I --

19 Hang on a second.

20 Well, I don't know whether it misstates facts. I
21 have no basis to know, one way or the other. She's just 22 asking a fact question. So we have a fact witness here.

23 Q Mr. Phillips, do you know whether, at any time,
24 Mr. North -- Lieutenant Colonel North -- was elected president
25 of the NRA?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

756

1 A I -- I think so. I'm just -- I'm really trying to get
2 the sequence there, because at this meeting, there was a lot of
3 things going on that I was not involved in. But I --

4 Q Do you --

5 A -- I believe he got elected for a year.

6 Q Okay. And do you know whether Mr. North's election as
7 NRA president occurred at the annual meeting in 2018?

8 A That would have been the date.

9 Q Okay. During your time as CFO and treasurer, I think
10 we mentioned that Ackerman McQueen was one of the largest 11 vendors of the NRA; right?

12 A Right.

13 Q In fact, in 2016 alone, NRA paid Ackerman McQueen at 14 least $21 million; right?

15 A I don't -- I don't know.

16 Q Mr. Phillips, can you turn to tab 21, please?

17 A Same binder?

18 Q No. I think it's in a different binder. It's the 19 other (indicating) -- chunky, black binder.

20 A Okay.

21 THE COURT: 21 is probably the white binder.

22 MS. CONNELL: Excuse me?

23 THE COURT: Tab 21 is probably the white one.

24 MS. CONNELL: It's tab 21 and it's been marked for 25 identification as PX 2251. This is the NRA's 2016 990.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

757

1 -- CHAR500. Excuse me.

2 THE COURT: Right you are.

3 That's the new one I got this morning?

4 MS. CONNELL: Yes --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. CONNELL: -- if it wasn't delivered last week.

7 A I have it now, Ms. Connell.

8 Q Okay.

9 MS. CONNELL: I don't know if there are any
10 objections to this, your Honor.

11 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

12 MR. FARBER: No objection.

13 MS. CONNELL: I ask that it be admitted.

14 THE COURT: Hearing none, it's admitted, PX 2251.

15 Q Mr. Phillips, this is the NRA's CHAR500 for the year
16 2016; right?

17 A Yes. Yes.

18 Q And the CHAR500 is an annual regulatory filing that the 19 NRA makes with the Office of the Attorney General's Charities
20 Bureau, right?

21 A Correct.

22 Q And is that your signature on the front page?

23 A It's my signature, but I believe it's from the 24 signature machine.

25 Q When you say, "it's from the signature" -- you mean --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

758

1 "machine," you mean, it's an electronically applied signature;
2 right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q To electronically apply your signature, someone at the 5 NRA must have a special code to enter; correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q To whom did you give your code?

8 A Lisa Supernaugh.

9 Q And Lisa Supernaugh's your assistant at the NRA, right?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q You hired her, right?

12 A She eventually came to work -- she worked for me, but I
13 think she was hired in a different position earlier.

14 Q But had you hired her for that different position
15 earlier?

16 A Well, she was in my office; it's possible.

17 Q Okay. So Ms. Supernaugh worked for a number of years
18 as your assistant, right?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q Did you ever know her to falsely use your electronic 21 signature?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay. So that's your electronic signature on page 1;
24 correct?

25 A Yes, correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

759

1 Q And to your knowledge, that signature was not
2 unauthorized; right?

3 A That's right.

4 Q And, Mr. Phillips, the CHAR500 for a given year is
5 actually filed in November of the following year, right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q So the CHAR500 for 2016 would be filed in or about
8 November of 2017, right?

9 A Correct.

10 Q Okay. So, just for the purposes of these questions, I
11 would like to direct your attention to page 18 --

12 MS. CONNELL: One second.

13 Q Mr. Phillips, the CHAR500 attaches the NRA's IRS Form
14 990 as a required attachment; right?

15 A I believe so.

16 Q And it also attaches the financial statement audit for 17 that year, right?

18 A I believe so.

19 Q Okay. So now can you please turn to page 18 of this
20 document?

21 A We have it on the screen (indicating). Is that page
22 18?

23 Q That's right.

24 So, Mr. Phillips, does this refresh your recollection
25 as to whether, in 2016, the NRA paid Ackerman McQueen at least

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

760

1 $21 million?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. So, taking a step back --

4 MS. CONNELL: You can take that down. Thank you,
5 Jesse.

6 (Image removed.)

7 Q Taking a step back: Ackerman McQueen, like some
8 vendors, would bill the NRA for costs under its contract; right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And it would bill for some disbursements it -- for 11 costs Ackerman McQueen incurred in performing its duties under 12 the contract, right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q But then there was a separate reimbursement process for 15 something called "out-of-pocket expenses," right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And these were sometimes called "OOPs"; correct?

18 A I never did that. I don't know. I never heard that.

19 Q Okay. So we'll call them "out-of-pockets," okay?

20 A Correct.

21 Q And this was a different -- this was a different type
22 of reimbursement than the standard Ackerman reimbursement,
23 right?

24 A I'm not -- I'm not sure there's a difference.

25 Q Well, out-of-pocket expense reimbursements, as they

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

761

1 were billed by Ackerman to the NRA, were for expenses incurred
2 by NRA executives and employees, for which the NRA then paid
3 Ackerman; right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q You were aware that Ackerman billed the NRA with 6 invoices for what was called out-of-pocket expenses; right?

7 A That's right.

8 Q And you were familiar with these invoices, right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And so, the N -- the -- Ackerman would send an invoice
11 to the NRA that simply said "out-of-pocket expenses" and had a
12 figure, right?

13 A Right.

14 Q And the NRA would pay that amount.

15 A That's correct.

16 Q Okay.

17 You previously testified that many of the out-of-pocket
18 expenses were travel-related, right?

19 A That's right.

20 Q And just to be clear, crystal-clear, these were 21 expenses incurred by NRA employees.

22 A Yes.

23 Q And executives.

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

762

1 A But they -- they might also bill, through Ackerman
2 McQueen, travel on behalf of the NRA.

3 Q That might also be included in OOP expenses, right?

4 A I'm not sure how they keep their records on that.

5 Q Okay. You're not sure how they kept their records for 6 the out-of-pocket expenses.

7 A No, I'm -- I'm -- I'm not sure how they did, for their
8 staff, the work on behalf of NRA -- how they billed it out.

9 Q Are you sure of what the -- what Ackerman put in its 10 out-of-pocket expenses that it billed to the NRA?

11 A I'm not positive.

12 Q Okay. The NRA had its own travel and expense
13 reimbursement policy; correct?

14 A Correct.

15 Q And that policy, as we've talked about, required NRA
16 employees to fly coach without prior written permission; right?

17 A I don't recall.

18 Q Okay. Do you know whether that policy required that 19 employees receive approval for travel in the expense -- travel
20 and entertainment-related expenses?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. And do you know whether it required NRA
23 employees to travel economically?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Mr. Phillips --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

763

1 One second, Mr. Phillips. I'm sorry.

2 (Pause.)

3 MS. CONNELL: Actually, this is not a tab, but to 4 try and refresh Mr. Phillips' recollection, Jesse, can we
5 bring up PX 655?

6 THE COURT: Is that already in evidence?

7 MS. CONNELL: I do not believe that it is, your 8 Honor. It's not.

9 THE COURT: So --

10 MS. CONNELL: Can we just show it to --

11 THE COURT: Yeah. We have to, just for the moment,
12 turn off the jury monitors.

13 MS. CONNELL: This is the Employee Handbook from, I
14 believe, 2015. Mr. Phillips, while you were CFO and 15 treasurer of the NRA, the NRA had what was called an 16 Employee Handbook; right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And that Employee Handbook included information for 19 employees that they might need, right?

20 A That's right.

21 Q And it included some relevant policies of the NRA that 22 employees should be aware of, right?

23 A I think so.

24 Q Mr. Phillips, if you'd like, we can page through this 25 book so you can take a look, but does this appear to be the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

764

1 Employee Handbook that you're familiar with?

2 A Yes.

3 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I move for its admission.

4 THE COURT: Any objection?

5 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, we would only note that 6 we've seen a version of this in the record that is 7 incomplete and without being able to page through every
8 page, I don't know if this is that version. But we can 9 check when we're not in session, and subject to that caveat,
10 we have no objection.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 Well, it's admitted for now. If there's any issue
13 with the document, we can correct it, if need be.

14 MS. CONNELL: Absolutely, your Honor.

15 And I will say that there are various versions of 16 this book because it would be added to year after year. So
17 there may be more than one that ultimately is admitted.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 (Image displayed.)

20 BY MS. CONNELL:

21 Q Mr. Phillips, I'd like to direct your attention to page
22 183 of PX 655.

23 Do you see this, Mr. Phillips?

24 A I do.

25 Q This is the Travel Expense Reimbursement Policy for the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

765

1 NRA employees, right?

2 A I have it, yes.

3 Q And the purpose of this policy is to incur the lowest
4 practical and reasonable expenses for the NRA, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q That makes sense, right? The NRA wants to make sure
7 it's spending its money wisely, right?

8 A That is correct.

9 Q Okay. And the purpose is to avoid even the appearance
10 of impropriety in any travel expenses, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. And the handbook lays out procedures for travel
13 on page 186, right?

14 We can turn to that so you can see it, sir.

15 A Let's turn --

16 Q Yes, let's take a look.

17 So, at the top of the page, it says: "Procedures For 18 Travel Advances and Expense Reimbursement," right?

19 A That's right.

20 Q And if you look down, "Travelers" -- under subheading
21 4 -- "Travelers are required to use the transportation that gets 22 them to where they need to go in the most cost-effective method
23 to the NRA," right?

24 A That's right.

25 Q And if you look down to the next paragraph, regarding

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

766

1 "Commercial Airfare and Rail Transportation," only coach-class
2 tickets or their equivalent are generally reimbursable; right?

3 A Yes, that's what the policy says.

4 Q Okay. For Mr. -- Mr. Phillips, if we go further down
5 in regard to "Lodging" -- to the next page -- to "Lodging, Meals
6 and Entertainment Expense," NRA employees have to provide
7 receipts for all costs over $50; right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And those receipts have to show the date, place and 10 business reason for the expense if it's not obvious; correct?

11 A I'm still searching for it here (indicating).

12 Q It might be in the next paragraph.

13 A Oh, okay.

14 (Image modified.)

15 Q Oh, there we go (indicating).

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. And that makes sense because you don't want
18 employees just spending NRA money on personal business, right?

19 A That's right.

20 Q You want them to spend money to advance the mission of 21 the NRA; correct?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q And if we go --

24 The NRA rules also required that, for entertainment --
25 if we go further down -- the employee must describe the specific

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

767

1 business purpose, including the enter -- the persons or parties
2 entertained; right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q So, if an NRA executive is going to go out for an
5 expensive dinner and pay a lot of money for cigars or bottles of 6 wine, they have to support that expenditure by showing what they
7 were doing and who they were doing it with; right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Okay. So, before the NRA will pay monies for an 10 employee's travel, that employee would have to submit those 11 expenses to the NRA staff and they'd be reviewed for compliance
12 with this policy; right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q That's how it was supposed to work, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. So let's go back to the out-of-pocket invoices.
17 Any expenses that were billed by NRA employees through 18 the out-of-pocket expenses, for those expenses, the NRA didn't 19 get receipts and substantiation submitted to the Financial 20 Services Department; right?

21 A Right.

22 Q Okay. In fact, for the travel and expenses billed to 23 the NRA by Ackerman through the out-of-pocket expenses, those 24 were -- the out-of-pocket expense invoices -- were not
25 accompanied by proof of a business justification; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

768

1 A Right. They were available for audit.

2 Q But they --

3 MS. CONNELL: I move to strike, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

5 Q They were not given to the NRA with the out-of-pocket
6 expenses, right?

7 A That's right.

8 Q And they were not given to the NRA --

9 MS. CONNELL: Strike that.

10 Q They did not even --

11 The out-of-pocket expense invoices didn't even identify 12 what the purposes of those expenditures were, right?

13 A I believe so. I believe you're correct.

14 Q So, Mr. Phillips, I'd like to direct your attention to 15 tab 39 that's previously been identified as PX 5101.

16 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, pages 1, 7, 8, 39 and 40
17 of this document have already been admitted, and I'd like
18 to --

19 THE COURT: Well, hang on.

20 So what -- you're showing just those pages again or 21 you're showing the whole thing?

22 MS. CONNELL: First, I would like to show page 2 --
23 Well, strike that.

24 First, I'd like to show page 7, which has been
25 admitted.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

769

1 THE COURT: So, just so the jury and I can -- if
2 they want to look back at some point, do you know, by
3 chance, the exhibit number?

4 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

5 It's tab 39, PX 5 --

6 THE COURT: No.

7 MS. CONNELL: Sorry.

8 THE COURT: Which was the version that was
9 admitted?

10 MS. CONNELL: So it was admitted as PX 5101, but 11 only those pages.

12 THE COURT: Oh.

13 MS. CONNELL: The whole exhibit has not been
14 admitted yet.

15 THE COURT: I see. Okay.

16 MS. CONNELL: So, actually, your Honor, I had 17 wanted to start out with page 7, which has been admitted
18 into evidence.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So, at this point, we're still 20 dealing with the version of the exhibit that is just certain
21 pages.

22 MS. CONNELL: That's right, your Honor.

23 And I think it would be wiser if, once we get this,
24 we have the whole exhibit admitted or those portions that 25 have been admitted, we'll separate out.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

770

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MS. ROGERS: And, your Honor, our only objection is 3 that this is a compilation, it looks like, of distinct
4 documents and the witness is not on the cover e-mail. So we
5 would only ask that if new pages are admitted, that a
6 foundation be laid for them.

7 THE COURT: Okay. I'd just ask, were these 8 produced in discovery in this form? It looks like there are 9 consecutive Bates numbers.

10 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

11 MS. ROGERS: Yes, your Honor. This is an e-mail
12 from one person to another, attaching a compilation of 13 different invoices.

14 THE COURT: Right.

15 MS. ROGERS: And they were produced in discovery as 16 a document family. But the witness -- the witness
17 appears -- well, I won't -- I won't testify.

18 THE COURT: But this document, the AG didn't put 19 these together.

20 MS. ROGERS: The AG did not compile them. They 21 were compiled in a document family produced in that form.
22 Some of the documents may involve the witness and some may 23 not.

24 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, if you look at page 1 of 25 the document which has been admitted, it's a transmittal

771

1 e-mail within the NRA that says: "Please refer to the
2 attached file"; "Year 2018, [January to February]." It was
3 Ackerman McQueen invoices and ACH invoices, "ACH" meaning
4 wire-transfer banking records.

5 THE COURT: Right. So I think these are a
6 compilation of business records and I think you've explained
7 to the jury, this is a selection of them.

8 But I don't see an objection to -- you know, if the 9 other side had, sort of, formed them into a group, that 10 would be one thing. So I'll admit this.

11 MS. CONNELL: Can we admit the entire document,
12 5101, your Honor?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

15 BY MS. CONNELL:

16 Q Then, Mr. Phillips, I would like to draw your attention
17 to page 2, please.

18 (Image displayed.)

19 Q Mr. Phillips, this is an electronic transfer --
20 Electronic Funds Transfer Remittance Advice; right?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And that's, sort of, a fancy way of saying, this is a,
23 sort of, receipt or reflection that the NRA has paid these 24 electronic funds to Ackerman McQueen; correct?

25 A Yes, paid by wire.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

772

1 Q Right, paid by wire.

2 And so, the amount of this payment was $306,240.61;

3 right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And this is -- these are for -- excuse me.

6 This payment is for invoices dated January 5th, 2018;

7 right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q I would like to draw your attention to invoice number
10 154706 at the top and 154707 at the top. This document reflects
11 that those two invoices, among the others, have been paid by the 12 NRA; correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q Okay. Now please turn to page 7 of this document.

15 (Image scrolled.)

16 Q This is an out-of-pocket expense invoice from Ackerman
17 McQueen; correct?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And it has added onto it some stamps and notes showing
20 processing within the NRA; correct?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And it's directed to your attention.

23 A Yes.

24 Q And it's dated January 5th, 2018; right?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

773

1 Q And all it says, in terms of a description of what the
2 bill is for, is, "Out-of-pocket expenses"; right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And just above where it says, "Out-of-pocket expenses,"
5 it says, "NR-OOP"; right?

6 A That's right.

7 Q Okay. And you would agree with me, Mr. Phillips, that 8 this invoice provides no detail whatsoever of what the 9 $77,085.15 the NRA was paying for was for, right?

10 A That's right.

11 Q Please turn to page 8, Mr. -- oh, I'm sorry.

12 On this page, Mr. Phillips, does this indicate that 13 someone had signed for or approved payment of this invoice?

14 A Yes; it looks like two signatures.

15 Q And whose signatures are those?

16 A The first one is, "Rick Tedrick for" -- I can't tell 17 what that is.

18 Q Is it possible it says, "Wilson Phillips" or "Wilson H.
19 Phillips"?

20 A No. It's possible -- it's possible it says, "WHP," "H"
21 being my middle initial.

22 Q So that would indicate it was for you; correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Did Mr. Tedrick occasionally sign or approve invoices
25 for you?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

774

1 A Occasionally.

2 Q Okay. And who is the other name, below that?

3 A It's a familiar signature, but I don't know.

4 Q Do you believe that to be John Frazer, Mr. Phillips?

5 A Could be.

6 Q Okay. Do you know anyone else named -- with a similar
7 signature who would have signed this?

8 A Well, that was the one -- the other one I was thinking
9 of was John Sigler.

10 Q It could have been John Sigler, you think?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And who's Mr. Sigler within the NRA?

13 A He's a past president.

14 Q So do you -- you don't know whether that's John Sigler
15 or John Frazer?

16 A I think it's John Frazer.

17 Q You think it's John Frazer.

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay.

20 Please turn to page 8, Mr. Phillips.

21 (Image scrolled.)

22 Q This is another example of an out-of-pocket expense
23 invoice; correct?

24 A Correct.

25 Q And these invoices, like this one, contain no detail

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

775

1 other than the description "out-of-pocket expenses"; right?

2 A Right.

3 Q And this one is for a hundred thousand dollars, right?

4 A Correct.

5 Q And just to draw your attention up, this is invoice

6 number 14 -- 154707.

7 A Yes.

8 Q Do you see that?

9 A I do.

10 Q So, when we looked before at the remittance form, we 11 have proof that the NRA paid this; correct?

12 A Correct.

13 MS. CONNELL: And this one's -707, Jesse.

14 Thank you.

15 Q So the NRA paid an invoice that simply says,
16 "out-of-pocket expenses, a hundred thousand dollars"; right?

17 A Correct.

18 Q And so --

19 MS. CONNELL: You can take that down. Thank you,
20 Jesse.

21 (Image removed.)

22 Q Mr. Phillips, the out-of-pocket expense reimbursement
23 system allowed NRA employees to bill for travel and 24 entertainment expenses without submitting the substantiation
25 required by the NRA to the NRA; correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

776

1 A I'm sorry; repeat that.

2 Q Sure.

3 So, if an NRA executive, say, bills a hotel room and
4 dining costs or anything else to Ackerman McQueen, under this
5 arrangement, those expenses would be passed back to the NRA
6 simply as an out-of-pocket expense; right?

7 A That's right.

8 Q And that officer would have gotten reimbursed without 9 submitting to the NRA proof of the business purpose for those 10 expenditures, right?

11 A That's right.

12 Q And proof of compliance with the travel and 13 reimbursement policies of the NRA; correct?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q Others within the NRA were aware of this out-of-pocket
16 expense system; correct?

17 MR. CORRELL: Objection; calls for speculation,
18 your Honor.

19 Q To your knowledge.

20 THE COURT: Well, why don't you lay a foundation
21 for that.

22 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

23 Q Mr. Phillips, you approved payment of these 24 out-of-pocket expense invoices; correct?

25 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

777

1 Q And others within the NRA reviewed these out-of-pocket
2 expense invoices and also approved their payments, right?

3 A Repeat that, please?

4 Q Well, for example, if you look at page 8, we see
5 signatures from the Financial Services Division for approving
6 the payments; right?

7 A Yes. That's true.

8 Q And to your knowledge, were there -- who within the NRA
9 was aware of this arrangement by which the NRA would pay
10 Ackerman for out-of-pocket expense invoices?

11 A I'm trying not to speculate here. I would expect, some 12 of the people in the Financial Services Division.

13 Q Mr. Phillips, Tyler Schropp was aware of the 14 out-of-pocket expense invoice reimbursement; right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And he was and is the head of the NRA's Advancement
17 Division; right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And, Mr. Phillips, was Wayne LaPierre aware of this 20 out-of-pocket expense reimbursement system, to your knowledge?

21 MR. CORRELL: Objection; calls for speculation.

22 THE COURT: Lack of foundation? Is that your
23 point?

24 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Sustained.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

778

1 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, Rick -- I'm sorry.

2 Q Mr. Phillips, Rick Tedrick was the Managing Director of 3 Finance; right?

4 A That's right.

5 Q And he still is; correct? To the best of your
6 knowledge?

7 A It's been five years.

8 Q Okay.

9 A I know there have been changes there.

10 MS. CONNELL: Withdrawn.

11 Q He was aware and approved out-of-pocket expense
12 payments while you were CFO and treasurer at the NRA, right?

13 A That's right.

14 Q And Mike Erstling also was aware of -- to your 15 knowledge -- was aware of the out-of-pocket expense
16 reimbursements while you were at the NRA; correct?

17 A That's right.

18 Q And did you ever --

19 So you knew that Mr. LaPierre --

20 MS. CONNELL: Strike that.

21 Q You knew that Mr. LaPierre had a close relationship
22 with Ackerman McQueen, right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And you knew that he frequently discussed the business
25 relationship between Ackerman McQueen and the NRA with Angus

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 McQueen, for example; right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And to the best of your knowledge, was he aware that
4 there were things Ackerman McQueen paid for that were 5 reimbursements for NRA employees?

6 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor; foundation.

7 THE COURT: Are you asking -- there's a more
8 specific way to ask what the basis of his knowledge is.

780

1 Q Mr. Phillips, do you know whether Wayne LaPierre was
2 aware of this arrangement?

3 A I don't for certain.

4 Q Do you have any reason to believe that he was?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And what's the basis of that -- that reason?

7 A Well, there would have been transactions that he would
8 know was paid through Ackerman McQueen.

9 Q Can you describe those transactions?

10 A Typical travel, that sort of thing.

11 Q His own travel?

12 A His own travel.

13 Q That was billed through Ackerman McQueen?

14 A That's right.

15 Q And then billed to the NRA as an out-of-pocket invoice?

16 A That's right.

17 Q You never had a problem with the level of detail on the 18 out-of-pocket invoices, right?

19 A No.

20 Q Okay. And no one came to you with a problem about the 21 level of detail on the Ackerman out-of-pocket expense invoices,
22 right?

23 A Not that I recall.

24 Q Under the services agreement with Ackerman there could
25 be yearly audits of Ackerman's billing to the NRA, correct?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

781

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Including out-of-pocket expenses, right?

3 A Correct. That's right.

4 Q Did you perform yearly audits of Ackerman's
5 out-of-pocket expense invoices?

6 A I did on two occasions.

7 Q And those two occasions were in or about the year --
8 Well, what years did those two occasions?

9 A The first time was a long time ago. That's all I can
10 say. And then followed up a couple years later. I just wanted 11 to see what the process was.

12 Q And you didn't have -- Strike that. Mr. Phillips, to 13 do these audits you would have to go to Ackerman McQueen's
14 offices, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And you on occasion had Rick Tedrick go to Ackerman's
17 offices to look at Ackerman's records, right?

18 A That's right.

19 Q But isn't it true that you didn't have Rick Tedrick go
20 look at the out-of-pocket expenses after 2014?

21 A It's possible he didn't go after that. I thought he 22 was going annually.

23 Q But you didn't check to see if anyone was auditing the 24 out-of-pocket expense invoices?

25 A No.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

782

1 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, why were the records, if any,
2 relating to the out-of-pocket expense invoices maintained at the
3 Ackerman headquarters?

4 A For various reasons. I can give you a couple.

5 Q Well, what I'm mainly interested in, Mr. Phillips, is 6 why didn't the NRA simply ask Ackerman to give the NRA any 7 records they had that would substantiate the out-of-pocket
8 invoice expenses?

9 A Well, some of the things they did were sensitive and 10 like a lot of organizations their employees were within NRA that 11 just get curious and sneak through the files.

12 Q So you were concerned that NRA employees might get 13 curious and look through the files that would substantiate the 14 expenses of NRA employees and executives, right?

15 A These would be people that had no need to know and 16 should not know information like that.

17 Q So you had the proof or any substantiation of the tens
18 of thousands, actually hundreds of thousands of dollars of 19 expenses incurred as out-of-pocket expenses, you had that kept
20 by Ackerman McQueen at Ackerman McQueen's offices, correct?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And you didn't want it sent to or provided to the NRA
23 for the NRA's offices because you didn't want NRA employees to 24 see those records, right?

25 A Not all NRA employees.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

783

1 Q You didn't want -- You could have kept them securely at 2 the NRA headquarters, right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q Okay. But you didn't want them to see things that
5 might make headlines, isn't that right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q So you didn't trust NRA employees, but you trusted the 8 employees of a third party vendor, right?

9 A Well, this was a process that was in place when I was 10 hired and I agreed with it.

11 Q So who put that process in place?

12 A I don't recall.

13 Q But you maintained it in place, right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q In fact, Mr. Phillips, out-of-pocket invoices included
16 things like payment for a parking space for you in Dallas,
17 correct?

18 A I had a parking space when I went to their office in 19 Dallas. I don't think I had a permanent parking place.

20 Q You didn't have Ackerman McQueen pay for you to have a
21 parking space maintained in Dallas?

22 A No. I never asked for that. I don't -- I knew when I
23 went to their office I could get in.

24 Q You never asked for it. Do you know whether they 25 provided it, sir?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

784

1 A I had a chip on my car key ring that would allow me to
2 park in their garage.

3 Q And Ackerman out-of-pocket invoices included payments
4 for dinners at Landini's restaurant in Old Town Alexandria,
5 right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And Landini's is a very, very nice Italian restaurant?

8 A Very nice.

9 Q NRA employees billed tens of thousands of dollars for 10 dinners there, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And the NRA itself did not have records substantiating
13 the business purposes for those expenditures, right?

14 A Maybe not stating. Sometimes the relationships is 15 long-term, then it's obvious what the relationship is.

16 Q But the NRA, sir, did not have records substantiating
17 the business purposes of tens of thousands of dollars spent at a
18 fancy Italian restaurant near NRA headquarters, right?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q And there was a cigar bar associated with Landini's
21 restaurant, right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And the name of that cigar bar was?

24 A You have to help me there.

25 Q 113 Rex, does that sound familiar?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

785

1 A I've heard Rex. I never heard the 113.

2 Q 113 in Roman numerals, do you recall?

3 A No.

4 Q Well, the NRA spent tens of thousands of dollars at 5 this cigar bar, correct?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. So, Mr. Phillips, allowing NRA employees to 8 submit expenses through out-of-pocket invoices, would you agree
9 with me, violated the NRA's -- the NRA's travel and expense
10 reimbursement policy?

11 A I think it was achieved a different way by having the 12 audits.

13 Q But you didn't have any audits after 2014 as far as you
14 know, right?

15 A As far as I know.

16 Q Before that you know about two audits, correct?

17 A Well, I knew Rick Tedrick went other times. I went 18 twice.

19 Q But you weren't there when Mr. Tedrick was doing his 20 audits, right?

21 A No.

22 Q You don't know specifically what he looked at, right?

23 A No. He's a former auditor from a big firm.

24 Q You put a lot of faith in Mr. Tedrick, correct?

25 A That's correct.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

786

1 Q Did you have any reason to doubt Mr. Tedrick's
2 reliability?

3 A No.

4 Q Do you ever recall instances where Mr. Tedrick had to 5 be escorted out of the NRA headquarters?

6 A I heard this in his testimony and I don't -- I really
7 don't recall that happening, although some of the testimony
8 sounded familiar.

9 Q Do you recall any instances where it was, the NRA had 10 concerns that Mr. Tedrick had a drinking problem?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And so you knew that Mr. Tedrick potentially had a 13 drinking problem, right?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And how long did you know that for?

16 A A couple of years.

17 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, you know Lieutenant Colonel North,
18 right?

19 A I do.

20 Q And you've known him for years, right?

21 A I have.

22 Q And he was a board member of the NRA?

23 A Off and on, yes.

24 Q And to your knowledge Lieutenant Colonel North cared
25 about the NRA, right?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

787

1 A Yes.

2 Q And he cared about Wayne LaPierre, right?

3 A I think so.

4 Q Okay. And at some point in 2018 you became aware that 5 Lieutenant Colonel North and Ackerman McQueen were going to 6 enter into a contract between them, correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And that Ackerman would pay Lieutenant Colonel North,
9 right?

10 A I don't know how the contract worked. I don't recall
11 how it worked at least. I did see that. We looked at something
12 earlier today and I saw that there.

13 Q Well, isn't it true that you understood that Lieutenant
14 Colonel North and Ackerman McQueen would enter into a contract.
15 The NRA would pay Ackerman McQueen for monies Ackerman McQueen
16 paid Lieutenant Colonel North?

17 A I hate to make you repeat that again if you could.

18 Q Sure. Is it true you understood in 2018 that Ackerman
19 McQueen were going to enter into a contract whereby it would pay
20 Lieutenant Colonel North money, right?

21 A I saw that in the contract we looked at earlier. I was 22 not involved in their discussions with Mr. North.

23 Q What I'm asking about is if you were aware of an
24 arrangement by which Ackerman McQueen would pay Lieutenant
25 Colonel North, and the NRA would reimburse Ackerman McQueen for

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

788

1 those costs?

2 A I was aware when I saw it today.

3 Q Mr. Phillips, you were deposed in a lawsuit between the 4 NRA and Ackerman McQueen, right?

5 A I've been deposed in a lot. That one I don't remember,
6 but you can go ahead and maybe it will come back to me.

7 Q Do you remember sitting down for questions by -- asked
8 by counsel for Ackerman McQueen in August of 2021?

9 A I do.

10 Q Okay.

11 MS. CONNELL: Jessie, can you bring up that
12 Ackerman deposition at page 167.

13 Q I'm sorry, Mr. Phillips, for the delay.

14 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, objection. I don't think 15 it's appropriate to publish the entire deposition to the 16 jury. If there is an excerpt that he's going to be 17 questioned about, I think that's the proper way to proceed.

18 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I've just asked that 19 page 167 which has --

20 THE COURT: We can start with that. It's a prior 21 statement of a defendant.

22 MS. CONNELL: A party, right.

23 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, one other objection. Mr.
24 LaPierre was not a party to that litigation, and we have an
25 objection to using prior statements in other litigation

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

789

1 against Mr. LaPierre.

2 THE COURT: For now it's being used with
3 Mr. Phillips. So, overruled.

4 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips --

5 MS. CONNELL: I don't know why it's not coming up
6 on my screen, Jessie.

7 Q Mr. Phillips, in that deposition you were under oath,
8 correct?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And you swore to tell the truth?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And you did your best to tell the truth, right? And in 13 that deposition you were asked at some point in time in 2018, in 14 early 2018, did you become aware that Colonel North and Ackerman
15 McQueen were going to enter into a contract, right? Do you see
16 that question?

17 A What line?

18 Q Twenty-three.

19 A (Examining). Yes.

20 Q Okay. And you responded yes, correct?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And if we continue on, you were then asked, Isn't it
23 true that the intent was -- I'm sorry. "Isn't it true that the 24 intent was that Colonel North and Ackerman McQueen would enter
25 into a contract and then the NRA would pay Ackerman McQueen to

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

790

1 then turn around and compensate Colonel North under their
2 contract", right?

3 A That's the way I understood it.

4 Q And you weren't a party to that contract, but that's
5 what you understood, right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And you were aware --

8 MS. CONNELL: Thank you Jessie.

9 Q You were aware that Colonel North was going to be 10 entering into an employment contract with Ackerman McQueen,
11 right?

12 A I can't -- I can't. This is where the memory issue is 13 there. It's not there. I'm sorry.

14 MS. CONNELL: Jessie, can you bring up the same
15 deposition at page 182, 18.

16 Q Mr. Phillips, do you recall being asked whether you
17 recalled in or around May of 2018 being -- being aware that
18 Colonel North was going to be entering into an employment
19 agreement with Ackerman McQueen? Do you recall being asked
20 that?

21 A I do.

22 Q And you answered, "I knew they were discussing", right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Then you were asked, "You knew they were discussing 25 Colonel North being an employee of Ackerman McQueen, correct?"

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

791

1 And your answer was "Correct"?

2 A Correct.

3 Q Exactly. Thank you.

4 MS. CONNELL: You can take that down. Thank you,
5 Jessie.

6 Q And Melanie Montgomery of Ackerman McQueen gave you a
7 copy of the contract with Colonel North at that time, right?

8 A I really don't recall this.

9 Q Do you recall whether Ackerman McQueen had 10 representatives at the NRA's annual meeting in 2018?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And Melanie Montgomery was an employee of Ackerman
13 McQueen?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Do you recall her handing you an envelope with Colonel
16 North's contract in it?

17 A I do.

18 Q You took that back to the NRA headquarters, right?

19 A I did.

20 Q And you didn't look at the contract. You just looked 21 at it to make sure it was a contract, right?

22 A I don't even remember that part.

23 Q Okay. But you recall getting the contract?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And taking it?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

792

1 A I remember getting something in an envelope.

2 Q Not just something. You took a look at it to see what
3 was in the envelope, right?

4 A Probably.

5 Q Okay.

6 MS. CONNELL: Jessie, can we bring up that same
7 deposition at page 170, and specifically 14, 170, line 14.

8 Q Mr. Phillips, do you recall being asked whether you
9 recall reviewing Colonel North's -- "Do you recall reviewing a 10 draft of Colonel North's contract with Ackerman McQueen at any 11 point prior to its execution?" Do you see that?

12 A Yes.

13 Q You were asked that?

14 A Mm-hmm.

15 Q You answered, "I think the first copy I saw of it was 16 when it was executed. Melanie Montgomery gave me a copy, right?"

17 A Right.

18 Q Okay. If we go down further to page, I believe it's 19 page 71, line four.

20 MR. FARBER: Seventy-one or 171?

21 MS. CONNELL: Seventy-one, line four.

22 Q And you were asked, "Do you recall Ms. Montgomery
23 actually providing you a copy of the Colonel North and Ackerman
24 McQueen contract in May of 2018", right?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

1 Q And you said, "I recall her giving me an envelope. And
2 I looked at the first page of it, and it was the Oliver North's
3 contract", right?

4 A Right.

5 Q And at that time you stated that you believed that to 6 be true, right?

7 A That's right.

8 Q You have no reason to disbelieve it now?

9 A No.

10 Q Okay. And you took it back with you, this envelope,
11 with the contract back to NRA headquarters, right?

12 A I think so.

13 Q Okay. Do you know whether you provided it to anything
14 else at the NRA?

15 A No.

16 Q No, you didn't or no, you cannot recall?

17 A No, I cannot recall.

18 MS. CONNELL: Jessie, can we go down to page 172,
19 line one.

20 Q So, Mr. Phillips, do you recall being asked -- or I'm 21 sorry, we'll have to go up to the previous page. There we go.
22 Do you recall being asked what you did with that envelope and 23 that contract that you were provided by Ms. Montgomery? You
24 were asked that, right?

25 A That's right.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

1 Q And you answered, "I put it with my materials going
2 back to Virginia, but I've honestly tried to think about what I
3 did with it and I can't remember", right?

4 A That's right.

5 Q "Do you recall if you provided it to anyone else at the 6 NRA", right, you were asked?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And you answered, "I do not recall". I'm sorry. We 9 have to page up a little bit. I'm getting ahead of you.

10 A Right.

11 Q Right. And now if we go down to the next question and 12 answer. You were asked, "Do you recall at any point in time
13 from May 28th to the present whether anyone associated with the 14 NRA had asked you whether or not you had a copy of Colonel
15 North's contract with Ackerman McQueen", right?

16 A Right.

17 Q You said, "They have not"?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay.

20 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, Jessie.

21 Q So, you were aware in May of 2018 that Lieutenant
22 Colonel North was entering into a contract with NRA vendor
23 Ackerman McQueen, correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And Lieutenant Colonel North had just been elected

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

795

1 president of the NRA, right?

2 A I'm really cloudy on the timing and the sequence of
3 things.

4 Q Sure. So, at the annual meeting in 2018 Lieutenant
5 Colonel North became the NRA's president, right?

6 A I can't -- I can't say that. Probably, but I really --
7 the timing of those meetings.

8 Q Right.

9 A I was -- I was retiring and I just -- I just don't
10 recall.

11 Q Mr. Phillips, you retired as of December 31st, 2018,
12 right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. So in 2018 you were still CFO and treasurer for 15 some portion of it?

16 A Well, I think Craig Spray had come in by then.

17 Q In 2018 Craig Spray came in and took over CFO, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q But you retained the title of treasurer for some period
20 of time while he was there?

21 A Yes.

22 Q So both you and Mr. Spray overlapped within the NRA
23 during 2018, correct?

24 A Correct.

25 Q Okay. So in 2018 you were still a treasurer within the

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

796

1 NRA, correct?

2 A I was, correct.

3 Q And do you recall at some point Mr. -- Lieutenant
4 Colonel North was elected NRA president?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. And so in May 2018 you were aware that
7 Lieutenant Colonel North was entering into a contract with NRA
8 vendor Ackerman McQueen, right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And that the NRA would be paying Ackerman McQueen for 11 the costs of that contract, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. The position of president of the NRA is usually 14 a volunteer position, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q It's unpaid, correct?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And you didn't bring to the attention of the audit
19 committee that this contract was being entered into, correct?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And do you know who executed this agreement on behalf
22 of the NRA?

23 A I do not.

24 Q Okay. Did you prepare a business case review sheet for 25 the contract?

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

797

1 A No.

2 Q And did you ensure that the contract had been signed
3 off on by at least two board officers?

4 A No.

5 Q Lieutenant Colonel North was to be paid over a million
6 dollars a year under the contract, right? Correct?

7 A I don't -- I don't recall. I was really out of the 8 negotiations because I was on my way out.

9 Q Okay. But you knew about the contract, and you didn't
10 feel the need to inform the audit committee?

11 A It's true.

12 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, I almost called you Lieutenant
13 Colonel Phillips. Excuse me. I don't know if that's a
14 promotion. Mr. Phillips, going back to the out-of-pocket
15 expense reimbursement invoices for a moment. You spoke to 16 Melanie Montgomery and Bill Winkler about those invoices on 17 occasion, right?

18 A I believe so.

19 Q Do you recall an occasion where you asked that Tyler
20 Schropp be given an Ackerman credit card so his expenses could 21 go directly to Ackerman McQueen without being reviewed by the
22 NRA?

23 A I remember discussing his charges about that. I just 24 don't remember the details.

25 Q Do you remember asking that Ackerman McQueen or

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

798

1 agreeing that Ackerman McQueen should issue Tyler Schropp a
2 credit card?

3 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor. Compound.

4 Q Do you remember agreeing that Ackerman McQueen should
5 issue Tyler Schropp a credit card?

6 A The way I remember that is -- is that I thought he had
7 an Ackerman card anyway. We hired him from Ackerman and so
8 that's been my thinking. So, I have nothing to -- I have 9 nothing to say what you stated was not true. But my 10 understanding had always been different.

11 Q So the head of Advancement, Tyler Schropp was a former 12 Ackerman McQueen employee, correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q And the NRA hired him, correct?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And you thought that Tyler Schropp still had an 17 Ackerman McQueen credit card for which he would charge expenses
18 for the NRA?

19 A No. I just -- I really don't recall how that worked.
20 I thought we were continuing, he already had a process in place
21 for charging the NRA and that he would keep that.

22 Q So you thought there was already a process by which 23 Tyler Schropp could bill NRA expenses on his Ackerman credit
24 card and Ackerman would bill them through to the NRA?

25 A That's correct.

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

799

1 Q And that would be part of the out-of-pocket expenses?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q You don't recall a discussion with Melanie Montgomery
4 about getting Tyler Schropp a credit card when he was already a
5 NRA employee so he could use that for his expenses?

6 A I don't recall that part.

7 Q Do you recall having a conversation with Melanie
8 Montgomery, an Ackerman McQueen executive, about Tyler Schropp
9 using an Ackerman McQueen credit card to hide his own expenses
10 from NRA review?

11 A I wouldn't characterize it that way.

12 Q To -- Do you recall having a conversation with Melanie
13 Montgomery about getting Tyler Schropp an Ackerman McQueen
14 credit card so that his expenses would not be subject to review
15 by NRA employees?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And during that conversation did you also discuss with 18 Ms. Montgomery that that would be a good system by which Mr.
19 LaPierre's expenses would also be shielded from NRA review?

20 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor. Foundation.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 A I don't remember that conversation.

23 Q Did you ever discuss with Ms. Montgomery ways that
24 Ackerman McQueen could help hide some of -- Excuse me. Strike
25 that. Do you recall ever discussing with Ms. Montgomery ways

LAS

Direct-Phillips-Connell

800

1 that Ackerman McQueen could help pay for Mr. LaPierre's expenses
2 so that they would not be subject to review by NRA employees?

3 A I wouldn't characterize it that way.

4 Q Well, did you ever discuss with Melanie Montgomery ways
5 that Ackerman McQueen could assist in paying for Mr. LaPierre's
6 expenses so that they would not have to go through the financial 7 services division?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And when did that discussion happen?

10 A I don't know. It's been five years since I was there
11 and before that.

12 Q Do you recall having that discussion with Mr. Winkler
13 as well?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. And, in fact, Mr. Schropp was given an Ackerman
16 McQueen credit card, right?

17 A I would assume so.

18 Q In fact, some of Mr. LaPierre's private jet travel
19 expenses were billed through Ackerman McQueen, correct?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And did you discuss with Ackerman McQueen those private 22 jet expenses and whether they could be billed through Ackerman
23 McQueen?

24 A I don't recall that.

25 Q Well, there came a time when the 990, the IRS Form 990

LAS

801

1 questions changed, right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And there came a time when that form started to ask
4 does the organization have a policy on first class and charter
5 travel, right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And when that changed occurred, did you discuss with 8 Ackerman McQueen how to handle reporting Mr. LaPierre's private 9 jet travel?

10 A I remember a conversation with Melanie Montgomery and 11 Bill Winkler before the new 990 requirement came, I remember a 12 meeting where I told them that was coming. That there would be 13 disclosure of that on the 990.

14 Q Right. And you asked whether Ackerman McQueen could do
15 something so that NRA employees would not see monies being paid
16 on those expenses, right?

17 A I don't remember that, but it's possible.

18 Q Okay. And did they agree to help you?

19 A I don't recall.

19 DIRECT EXAMINATION CONTINUED

20 BY MS. CONNELL:

21 Q Mr. Phillips, I'd just like to talk to you for a second
22 about a couple policies of the NRA that we haven't covered.

23 The NRA has bylaws; am I correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q Can you please turn to tab 18 of your binder? It's one

1 of the thicker, black binders. It should be the -- perhaps --
2 the first tab.

3 (Pause.)

4 A I have it.

5 Q Do you recognize this document?

6 A Yes. It looks like the cover of the Bylaws that get 7 issued periodically.

8 MS. CONNELL: I don't believe I have objections to 9 their admission.

10 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

11 MR. FARBER: No objection.

12 THE COURT: Okay. They're admitted.

13 MS. CONNELL: And that's PX 2692, for everybody.

14 (Image displayed.)

15 Q Mr. Phillips, I'd like you to direct your attention to 16 page 11 of these Bylaws. And I apologize: The tech's being a
17 little buggy today; there may be some flashing.

18 The Bylaws set out the duties of officers of the NRA;
19 correct?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And that includes the duties of the treasurer, right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q So, if we direct our attention down to section E --

24 Well, if you look first at section 2 on page 16, you'll 25 see, it says, "Duties of Officers" in the middle of the page;

805

1 correct?

2 A Just a second.

3 (Pause.)

4 MR. FARBER: Are we on the page of the exhibit or
5 the Bylaws?

6 MS. CONNELL: We're using the exhibit -- the page
7 numbers on the bottom of the PX -- by the "PX" stamp. That 8 makes it easy and uniform to go through.

9 THE COURT: Oh.

10 Q It's a little blinky, but you should be able to see it.

11 A I'd rather stay with it here (indicating) than the fine
12 type on the Bylaws.

13 Q And you see that the Bylaws set out the duties of the 14 officers; correct?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And if you look further down on that same page, under 17 E --

18 MS. CONNELL: And again I apologize to the Court
19 and the jury for the blinking, but it's a tech problem --

20 THE COURT: I don't think it's blinking.

21 THE WITNESS: Not so much anymore.

22 MS. CONNELL: Oh, good. Perfect. Mine's just 23 going crazy.

24 Q Mr. Phillips, the treasurer has to operate in 25 accordance with the financial policies set forth by the board of

2 A Correct.

3 Q And the treasurer has charge of the NRA's books of 4 account and financial operations, right?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And that was true during your time as CFO and treasurer
7 of the NRA; correct?

8 A Yes.

9 MS. CONNELL: Okay. Thank you, Jesse.

10 (Image removed.)

11 Q The NRA had a Statement of Corporate Ethics while you
12 were treasurer and CFO; correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. And that Statement of Corporate Ethics required
15 employees and officers to report suspected violations of NRA
16 policies; correct?

17 A I don't recall. I won't deny it.

18 Q Okay. Let's try and speed things up, so we're going to 19 move past that.

20 Mr. Phillips, to your knowledge, the NRA, while you
21 were CFO and treasurer, did not have a written policy regarding 22 payment or reimbursement for first-class or private-charter

6 payment or reimbursement of first-class or private-charter
7 travel?

8 A That's true.

9 Q And while you were CFO and treasurer of the NRA, the 10 NRA did not have a policy regarding payment or reimbursement of 11 expenses relating to health or social club initiation fees;
12 correct?

13 A I -- I don't recall that.

14 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, you recall testifying in this

9 You were asked that, right?

10 A Right.

11 Q And your answer was: "Not to my knowledge." Right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And that was true when you gave it; correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Mr. Phillips, to your -- while you were CFO and 16 treasurer of the NRA, the NRA did not have a written policy
17 regarding payment or reimbursement of housing allowances; is
18 that correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q I'd like to move on to a different topic, Mr. Phillips:
21 You're familiar with an individual named David

23 A I am.

24 Q And his wife, Laura?

25 A Yes.

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Okay. Mr. McKenzie purchased this company from a man
10 named Brad O'Leary, right?

11 A Correct.

12 Q At the time, it had been called "PM Consulting"; right?

13 A That's right.

14 Q To your knowledge, did the NRA continue to pay money to 15 Mr. O'Leary even after he had sold PM Consulting to the 16 McKenzies?

17 A I believe so.

18 Q Okay. He con -- the NRA continued to pay Mr. O'Leary
19 $20,000 a month; correct?

20 A I don't recall the amount.

21 Q Okay. I'll get back to that in a second.

22 Mr. McKenzie, after he purchased PM Consulting, called

2 A That's correct.

3 Q Membership Marketing Partners?

4 A That's one.

5 Q And Allegiance? Creative ...?

6 A Yes. That's two.

7 Q And Concord Social; correct?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Okay. So the McKenzies controlled all three entities,
10 to your knowledge.

11 A Yes.

12 Q And while you were CFO and treasurer, all three
13 entities were rented space within the NRA headquarters --

14 A Yes.

15 Q -- correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Same offices? Same office?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Same employees.

20 A There may have been one or two exceptions, but mainly 21 the same employees.

22 Q Okay.

23 MS. CONNELL: Could we please --

2 THE WITNESS: Oh.

3 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry, your Honor. The choice

15 MS. ROGERS: No objection by the NRA.

16 THE COURT: Any objection?

17 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. PX 2093 is admitted.

19 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

20 Q Mr. Phillips, I first would like to direct your

3 Q Perfect. Thank you, sir.

4 A Okay.

5 Q Mr. Phillips, this is a December 1st, 2011, agreement

14 Q So you executed this agreement between the NRA and MMP.

15 A Yes.

16 Q And it was your -- your --

17 It was executed on December 16th, 2011; correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. This 2011 agreement with MMP stayed in place
20 until it was amended in 2015; correct?

21 A That -- I don't recall the timing of that.

22 Q Okay. Well, Mr. Phillips, let's take a look at --

4 correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q Okay. There were separate agreements for Allegiance
7 and Concord, right? This is just for MMP, right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Okay. So now, if you can please turn to page 3 of this

21 right?

22 A That's right.

23 Q And it was entered into, if you turn to the next page,
24 on January -- in -- on January 30th, 2017; right?

25 (Image modified.)

1 A January 30th, 2017?

2 Q Right.

3 A That's right.

4 Q So this Second Amendment was entered into while the
5 First Amendment contract was still in force, right?

6 (Pause.)

7 Q Maybe I can clarify that.

8 A Yeah. If you -- if you would, that would help. I
9 don't have a --

10 Q We just looked at the First Amendment to the MMP
11 contract, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And that was signed in April of 2015, right?

14 A Correct.

15 Q And it extended the term of the contract -- of the MMP
16 contract -- for five years, and with three-year renewal terms;
17 right?

18 A Um-hmm. Correct.

19 Q So, within that five-year period, the NRA signs another
20 amendment; right? This Second Amendment.

21 A I do see that.

22 Q And this again extends the MMP contract for an
23 additional five years, right?

24 A Yes, to 2021.

25 Q That's correct; commencing December 1st, 2021.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

816

1 A Yes.

2 Q So it would go through to 2026, right?

3 A Yes.

4 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor.

5 The document speaks for itself. She's reading it
6 incompletely. There's another clause that provides an out
7 in the event of notice to the other party.

8 THE COURT: I think the question was fine.

9 Overruled.

10 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

11 (Image removed.)

12 Q Mr. Phillips, we saw that the con -- the 2011 contract
13 provided for a management fee of $400,000 per month to be paid
14 to MMP; correct?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And, in fact, that management fee went up over the 17 years; correct?

18 A That's my understanding.

19 Q Okay. And, actually, I'd like you to take a look at 20 tab 29, sir, please, and I'd specific --

21 Oh, I'm --

22 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, this is tab 29. It's PX
23 1695. This is a packet of documents as they were produced 24 to us.

25 (Pause.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

817

1 THE COURT: Any objection?

2 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

3 MR. FARBER: No objection.

4 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

5 THE COURT: All right, it's admitted.

6 MS. CONNELL: Okay.

7 (Image displayed.)

8 BY MS. CONNELL:

9 Q Mr. Phillips, looking at PX 1695, I'd like to draw your 10 attention to page 4. This is a business -- this is a Contract
11 Review Sheet relating to the MMP contract; correct?

12 A I'm still trying to get to the page. Thank you.

13 Q Sure.

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. And this indicates that the contract was 16 negotiated by you, right?

17 A That's what it says.

18 Q Okay. And the date of the Contract Review Sheet is
19 12/12/11, right?

20 A That's right.

21 Q And below that are signatures; correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Ms. Rowling signed? On 1 --

24 A Yes.

25 Q On January 12th, 2012?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

818

1 A That's right.

2 Q And someone from Legal signed on January 12th, 2012;
3 right?

4 A That's right.

5 Q And Mr. LaPierre signed, but his signature is undated;
6 right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q But the MMP contract went into effect in December of
9 2011; correct?

10 A You have to help me out here again.

11 Q The MMP contract went into effect in December of 2011;
12 correct?

13 A That's the date on the contract signature, yeah.

14 Q Okay. On the -- on the MMP agreement.

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. So now I'd like to take a look --

17 If you turn to page 5, David Keene also signed this
18 contract; right?

19 A Take me there again. Where -- where am I looking for
20 it?

21 Q Sure. It's page 5 of PX 1695.

22 A I have that.

23 Q Okay. And this shows a signature by David Keene;
24 correct?

25 A Yes. It's very, very faint, but I -- I can tell

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

819

1 enough.

2 Q And it doesn't have a signature by another board
3 officer on that page, right?

4 A That's right.

5 Q But on the next page, it has a signature by Mr. Cors;
6 Allan Cors, right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Dated February 9th, 2012; right?

9 A It's either the 9th or the 7th.

10 Q That's true. It's -- it's a little hard to read.

11 A Yes.

12 Q So either February 9th or February 7th.

13 And the next page, at page 7, is the Business Case
14 Analysis Sheet; correct?

15 A That's correct.

16 (Image scrolled.)

17 Q And that was prepared by you, right?

18 A No. It might have been prepared through my office.

19 Q So where it says, "Analysis prepared by: Wilson
20 ... Phillips," that's inaccurate?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. So somebody else --

23 A Somebody within my office probably signed it or 24 prepared it.

25 Q Did you review this Business Case Analysis Sheet before

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

820

1 it was submitted for signatures?

2 A I -- I don't recall; it was a long time ago.

3 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, attached to the Business Case
4 Analysis Sheet is a contract; correct?

5 (Image scrolled.)

6 A Yes.

7 Q And directing your attention to page 15, this is an 8 unsigned version of the MMP contract; right?

9 (Image scrolled.)

10 A Yes.

11 Q And directing your attention now -- I'm sorry to make 12 you flip back and forth -- to page 10 of this agreement, at 13 paragraph 2-A --

14 (Image scrolled.)

15 A I have it.

16 Q -- that paragraph says that there is a ten percent
17 annual cap on the increase in management fees by MMP; right?

18 A You said, "an annual cap"; correct?

19 Q Yes.

20 A Yes.

21 Q And do you know whether that ten percent annual cap was 22 in the agreement signed with MMP?

23 A I do not know.

24 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, were you aware --

25 It's true that MMP increased their management fees by

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

821

1 more than ten percent annually; isn't that correct?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q Okay. Were you aware, during the term of the 2011
4 contract, that Mr. LaPierre was using Mr. McKenzie's yachts?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And were you aware that during the term of the 2011
7 contract, Mr. LaPierre was traveling with the McKenzies?

8 A I really -- I -- I -- I'm not sure I was aware of that.

9 Q Do you know --

10 Did you know that Mr. LaPierre and his wife went to 11 Europe with the McKenzies?

12 A No.

13 Q Do you know whether Mr. LaPierre and his wife went to 14 India with the McKenzies?

15 A No.

16 Q Do you know whether the McKenzies paid for the 17 LaPierres to travel?

18 A Well, I -- I -- I believe they -- they had, um -- you
19 know, they -- they traveled together some, but the times I'm -- 20 I'm aware of is -- is two times; it had -- where there was --
21 cultivating someone else to come work with the NRA; you know, a
22 celebrity.

23 Q So you were unaware of Mr. LaPierre and Mrs. LaPierre
24 taking vacations paid for by the McKenzies, if that occurred?

25 A That's -- that's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

822

1 Q Okay. Did Mr. LaPierre ever disclose that to you?

2 A No.

3 Q Do you know whether he disclosed that to the Audit
4 Committee at any time while you were CFO and treasurer?

5 A No, I don't know that.

6 Q Okay.

7 In fact, Mr. Phillips, by 2018, the management fee
8 charged by MMP had increased to $961,850 per month; right?

9 A I don't know the exact. I won't -- I won't deny that.

10 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, I would like to direct your 11 attention to tab 10.

12 (Image removed.)

13 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, this is PX 2641.

14 THE COURT: It's in the white binder?

15 MS. CONNELL: It's in the white binder, yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: She's just trying to keep us on our 17 toes, I think.

18 MS. CONNELL: I know. Get you a workout today.

19 (Pause.)

20 A Tab 10?

21 Q Yes, please.

22 A Okay, I'm there.

23 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, this is a number of 24 documents bundled together as they were produced to us. I'm 25 not sure if we have objections to them.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

2 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

3 MR. FARBER: No objection.

4 MR. FLEMING: None from me.

5 THE COURT: It's admitted.

6 (Image displayed.)

7 BY MS. CONNELL:

8 Q Mr. Phillips, I'd like to draw your attention to page 2
9 of tab 10, please. This is a letter addressed to you from 10 Richard Charnley; correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Dated August 14th, 2018?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q And Mr. Charnley indicates that he represents 15 Membership Marketing Partners; correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q And Mr. Charnley seems to be responding to two letters
18 that he received from the NRA, right? One letter dated August
19 7th and the other dated August 8th?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And on page 3, Mr. Charnley is writing to confirm that 22 the NRA is going to pay all currently open invoices and to ask
23 that if the NRA's disputing an invoice, it provide a basis for 24 the same; right?

25 (Image modified.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

824

1 A That's right.

2 Q Do you recall talking to Mr. Charnley at this time?

3 A No.

4 Q Do you recall reaching out to MMP about its invoices at 5 this time?

6 A No.

7 Q Can you please turn to page 4 of tab 10, which is PX
8 2641?

9 (Image displayed.)

10 A I have it.

11 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, this is a letter directed to 12 Gurney Sloan -- G-u-r-n-e-y, S-l-o-a-n -- of Membership
13 Marketing Partners; correct?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And it asks for Membership Marketing Partners to allow 16 an audit of its records; correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And specifically, it asks for documents substantiating
19 the MMP's performance or costs incurred, and management fee
20 increases; right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And the letter appears to be signed by you; correct?

23 A There's a -- yeah, it appears to be. The --

24 You're now on page 4 of 6?

25 Q I'm on page 4 of 6.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

825

1 A Yes.

2 Q That's correct, sir?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q Is that your signature?

5 A That's the -- that's my signature that's on the 6 facsimile.

7 Q I'm sorry? "... That's on ..."?

8 A It's a facsimile signature.

9 Q Right. So it's an electronic signature?

10 A An electronic signature.

11 Q Do you recall signing this document?

12 A I don't recall.

13 Q Do you believe that this document was signed on your 14 behalf, inappropriately?

15 A No.

16 Q Okay. So it may be that someone at the NRA signed it
17 electronically, appropriately.

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. Please take a look at page 5, the August 8th
20 letter. Right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q You see it, sir?

23 A I've got it.

24 (Image scrolled.)

25 Q Okay. In paragraph A, you indicate that the MMP

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 agreement specifies that the monthly payment -- the monthly
2 management fee -- payable by the NRA shall be $400,000; correct?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q Which fee shall increase -- shall under no
5 circumstances increase by more than ten percent annually, right?

6 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 Q Nevertheless, MMP has invoiced the NRA for management
2 fees in the amount of $961,850 per month since the start of
3 2018, right?

4 A Right.

5 Q And the NRA had been paying for those management
6 increases until this letter objection, right?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, did the NRA continue to pay the,
9 to your knowledge, the increase management fee for MMP after you
10 sent this letter?

11 A I -- I don't know. This was a timing when Craig Spray
12 had come in. So, I really don't have a basis to know.

13 Q So you stayed at the NRA until December 31st, 2018?

14 A Fall of 2018.

15 Q Okay. And you don't know whether the NRA continued to 16 pay the increase management fee?

17 A I do not know.

18 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, could you look at tab three in the 19 white notebook. You get to keep that notebook.

20 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I don't know if I have an 21 objection to this.

22 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

23 MR. FARBER: What's the exhibit number?

24 MS. CONNELL: It's exhibit number PX 748.

25 MR. FARBER: No objection.

828

1 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

2 THE COURT: It's admitted.

3 Q Mr. Phillips, this is an e-mail chain between you and 4 Mr. Tedrick, correct?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And Mr. Tedrick has raised in July 2015 a fee increase,
7 a large fee increase he indicates, right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And your response is that "Wayne has approved",
10 correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Mr. LaPierre didn't -- you didn't have any proof that 13 he approved it in writing, correct?

14 A No.

15 Q Mr. LaPierre would sometimes give you verbal approvals
16 for such increases, right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. You and Mr. LaPierre negotiated the MMP
19 agreements, right?

20 A Some of them.

21 Q Okay. And you were involved in those negotiations,
22 right?

23 A I was.

24 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, do you recall testifying in the 25 NRA's bankruptcy proceeding in 2021 at a deposition?

829

1 A I think -- I just don't remember. There were a lot of
2 depositions at the time. So, if you would just ask that I could
3 answer. I just don't know about the bankruptcy.

4 Q Why don't we put a pin in that and we'll get back to
5 that.

6 A Okay. That's great.

7 Q If you can open tab two, please, Mr. Phillips. That's 8 in the white notebook as well.

9 MS. ROGERS: No objection to this.

10 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

11 MR. FARBER: No objection.

12 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

13 THE COURT: It's admitted.

14 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

15 Q Mr. Phillips, the cover letter to this is an e-mail
16 dated June 14, 2019, correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And you had already left the NRA as of that time,
19 right?

20 A That's right.

21 Q But if you notice in the body of the e-mail it says,
22 Mr. Drexler, and let's stop for a second. Who is Murray
23 Drexler?

24 A He worked for Associated Television, and he was in a
25 financial role. I don't know if he was their financial officer

1 or not.

2 Q He also worked for MMP, right?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. And Mr. Drexler says, "Attached please find a
5 document that explains increases in our fees", correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And he says he believes it was sent to Woody or Legal,
8 right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q So now I'm going to ask you to turn to the attached
11 document.

12 A I have it.

13 Q Okay. If you can look at page 4, please.

14 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
15 request of counsel.)

16 Q And specifically the fourth bullet. Mr. Drexler
17 indicates that "All fee increases were negotiated with the 18 ownership of MMP entities and approved by the NRA's executive 19 vice president and treasurer." Do you see that?

20 A I see that.

21 Q And that statement is true, correct?

22 A Why -- I don't remember the approval by either the 23 executive vice president or the treasurer, but it's possible. I
24 agreed with some of the increases.

25 Q From 2011 until the time you left the NRA, MMP would

831

1 submit invoices to the NRA, correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And those invoices would be submitted to what, the 4 accounts payable department of the NRA?

5 A Eventually. I don't know where they were addressed to 6 start.

7 Q Okay. But eventually departments that you supervised
8 would process and pay those invoices, correct?

9 A That's right.

10 Q Okay. So while you were CFO and treasurer you paid
11 these invoices from MMP, correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And do you recall or do you take issue with the amounts
14 of invoicing put forward in this document? Let me strike that.
15 Do you recall reviewing this document when you were CFO and
16 treasurer?

17 A Which -- which document?

18 Q Tab two, the document beginning at page 2.

19 A (Examining). Yes. This is where it talks about the 20 growth and the new processes for online billing and so forth. I
21 agreed with it, the principles that it is laid out here.

22 Q Did you ever complete a new business case review sheet
23 for the MMP agreement?

24 A I did not.

25 Q And did you ever seek officer, board officer signoff

1 for increased payments to MMP?

2 A I don't recall that.

3 Q But you were friends with the owners of MMP, correct?

4 A We worked together for 20 years, but they were on the 5 West Coast. I was the East Coast. We were friendly.

6 Q Okay. And Mr. LaPierre was friends with the McKenzies,
7 right?

8 A Yes.

9 MS. CONNELL: Okay. You can take that down. Thank 10 you very much, Jessie.

11 Q Mr. Phillips, earlier we were talking about Tony 12 Makris. Do you recall that?

13 A I do.

14 Q And we talked about the NRA paying quote unquote
15 "supplemental" invoices for Tony Makris. Do you recall that?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And is it accurate that Mr. Makris was paid $600,000
18 per year under those supplemental invoices?

19 A Can you show me something?

20 Q One second.

21 MS. CONNELL: Can we please bring up PX 2650.
22 That's tab 11. That should be in the white binder. Don't 23 bring it up yet, Jessie. It's not admitted. Sorry.

24 Q Can you take a look at tab 11, sir. In particular I
25 would like to direct your attention to page 2 of tab 11.

1 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
2 request of counsel.)

3 Q You can keep looking all the way back to page 7 of tab
4 11. Okay. These are invoices from Tony Makris, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And they are directed to Lisa -- I'm sorry. Did the 7 NRA receive these invoices as part of its regular course of 8 business?

9 A I believe so.

10 MS. CONNELL: Is there any objection?

11 MR. FARBER: No objection.

12 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

13 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

14 THE COURT: PX 2150 is admitted.

15 Q So, Mr. Phillips, these are invoices from 2018 from 16 Tony Makris to the NRA, correct?

17 A That's correct. I'm going to get rid of the white
18 binder if you don't mind.

19 Q Sure. Sure. From 2017?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And onward from Tony Makris?

22 A Yes.

23 Q What is Under Wild Skies, that's Mr. Makris' company,
24 right?

25 A It's a company but it's also the name of a TV show

1 that's basically African hunting.

2 Q Okay. So Mr. Makris was billing the NRA, and you'll
3 see in the middle column it says, "Description, supplemental
4 invoice", correct?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And he was billing them $97,500 in each of these
7 months, right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And that amount is just below the $100,000 procurement
10 cutoff for the NRA, correct? For the NRA's procurement policy?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And Mr. Makris, who had agreed to pay these invoices,
13 these supplemental invoices by Mr. Makris?

14 A Ask the first part of that again. I'm sorry.

15 Q Sure. Who had authorized Mr. Makris to submit these 16 supplemental invoices to the NRA?

17 A Well, it would have been, I don't see anything signed
18 off here, either me or Wayne LaPierre.

19 Q Do you recall negotiating an agreement where 20 Mr. Makris, Mr. LaPierre's close friend, would be paid $97,500 a
21 month as a supplemental invoice?

22 A Sorry. You have to ask it one more time.

23 Q Sure. Do you recall negotiating an agreement where 24 Mr. Makris, Wayne LaPierre's close friend would be paid $97,500
25 a month as a supplemental invoice to the NRA?

1 A I don't recall negotiating an agreement. I remember
2 its existence.

3 Q Okay. Do you know whether Wayne LaPierre negotiated
4 that agreement?

5 A I don't.

6 Q Do you know who else besides yourself or Wayne LaPierre
7 could have negotiated that agreement?

8 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor. Question is 9 embedded with a fact that's not in evidence.

10 THE COURT: Sustained.

11 Q Would anyone else at the NRA have had the authority to 12 negotiate this agreement on behalf of the NRA besides you and
13 Mr. LaPierre?

14 A Possibly someone with membership, but most likely Mr.
15 LaPierre and me.

16 Q And no matter who negotiated, an agreement of this size
17 would have had to have been put in writing, right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q There would have had to have been a contract, right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And a business case analysis, right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q And two board officers would have had to sign off on 24 it, right?

25 A That's correct.

836

1 Q All the other requirements applicable to procurement of
2 a contract this size, right?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And did you ever see any of that for this agreement?

5 A I don't recall seeing it.

6 Q Okay. And yet the NRA paid these invoices, correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q For years, right?

9 A Years, meaning more than one year, possibly.

10 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, if you look at page 2 of this 11 exhibit, at the bottom where it says "officer", are those your 12 initials?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. You can put that down.

15 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, Jessie.

16 Q Mr. Phillips, during your time as NRA's CFO and
17 treasurer, you were aware of a portion of the NRA budget called 18 the EVP budget, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q That's the executive vice president budget?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And that was the budget that was overseen by Wayne
23 LaPierre, correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And you believe that Mr. LaPierre was aware of who was

1 being paid through the EVP budget, correct?

2 A We reviewed it once a year during budget time.

3 Q Okay. So you would see consulting or other agreements
4 for payments under the EVP budget, correct?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And you believe Mr. LaPierre was aware of those,
7 correct?

8 A Yes.

9 MR. CORRELL: Objection. Foundation, your Honor.
10 No basis for that belief.

11 THE COURT: Response.

12 MS. CONNELL: Mr. -- I think I can correct it.

13 Q Mr. Phillips, there were consulting contracts paid
14 under the EVP budget, correct?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And there were payments for severance agreements,
17 correct?

18 A I'm not aware of a specific one, but that's possible.

19 Q Well, let's take a look at one.

20 A Okay.

21 Q Okay. Who is Kyle Weaver?

22 A He's a former executive director of General Operations.

23 Q And Mr. Weaver was terminated by the NRA, correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And you don't know the reason for the termination,

1 right?

2 A I do not.

3 Q And Mr. Weaver was escorted out of the NRA headquarters
4 with security, right?

5 A I don't know that.

6 Q Okay. I would like to direct your attention to tab 31,
7 which is PX 595. One of the big black binders, yeah.

8 A Tab 35, right?

9 Q Thirty-one, please.

10 A Okay.

11 MS. CONNELL: I don't know if there are any 12 objections to this exhibit.

13 MR. FARBER: No objection.

14 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

15 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

16 THE COURT: It's admitted, PX 595.

17 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

18 Q This is an agreement regarding termination of 19 employment, release, confidentiality and nondisparagement
20 between the NRA and Kyle Weaver, correct?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And if you turn to page 7, you'll see that Mr. Weaver
23 signed this agreement, right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And if you turn to page 8, you signed this agreement,

1 right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And would you consider this a consulting agreement or a
4 severance agreement?

5 A Severance.

6 Q Okay. And under this agreement Mr. Weaver was to be
7 paid 1.83 million, right? I would direct your attention --

8 A Do you have a page number?

9 Q Sure. On page 1, under "Payments and consideration of 10 this agreement".

11 A (Examining). Yes.

12 Q Who negotiated this agreement on behalf of the NRA?

13 A One I'm pretty sure of is outside counsel Steve Hart.

14 MS. SACCO: Steve?

15 THE WITNESS: Hart, H-A-R-T.

16 Q Who approved of it on behalf of the NRA?

17 A I signed it. That and a witness and Mr. Weaver, the 18 only signature I see here.

19 Q Who decided to fire Mr. Weaver?

20 A I don't know for sure. I think it was Wayne LaPierre.

21 Q And who decided that Mr. Weaver should be paid
22 $1.83 million after he was fired?

23 A I don't remember. I think it was negotiation with 24 counsel for Weaver.

25 Q But you don't know who determined that, okay.

1 Mr. Phillips, during --

2 MS. CONNELL: You can take that down. Thank you,
3 Jessie.

4 Q Mr. Phillips, during your time as NRA's CFO and
5 treasurer -- Strike that. In regard to Mr. Weaver's termination
6 agreement, did you complete a business case analysis?

7 A No.

8 Q Did you get approval of two board officers?

9 A No.

10 Q Did you otherwise comply with the NRA's procurement
11 policy?

12 A It's not procurement. It's severance.

13 Q So, you didn't take any steps, like trying to get board
14 approval for payment of $1.83 million, right?

15 A No.

16 Q Okay. To your knowledge did Mr. Weaver ever consult
17 for the NRA after he was terminated?

18 A Not to my knowledge.

19 Q Okay. Do you know a man named Mr. Mercurio?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Who is Mr. Mercurio?

22 A For many years he was the head of our membership
23 division.

24 Q And what is Member Drive, Mr. Phillips?

25 A It was a -- it was a company that had amassed a very

841

1 large equivalent of a mailing list of 60 million names. It was
2 to procure or to get -- I'm thinking of the right way to say
3 this -- to basically for affinity programs. Affinity programs
4 are those like credit cards organizations have.

5 Q To get an NRA credit card, for example?

6 A Right. Anyway, that's what it was.

7 Q Did you ever have an ownership interest at Member
8 Drive?

9 A I did.

10 Q And did -- was that during the time that you were the 11 NRA's CFO and treasurer?

12 A Actually not ownership. I consulted with them.

13 Q Okay.

14 A But it was when it was -- it was during the time I was
15 treasurer.

16 Q You had employment or some consulting arrangement with 17 Member Drive under which you were paid, correct?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q While you were NRA's CFO and treasurer, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q While you were consulting for Member Drive Susan
22 LaPierre worked there, right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And Holly Mercurio worked there, correct?

25 A Yes.

842

1 Q Mr. -- Mr. Phillips, can you speak into the mike a
2 little bit more.

3 A I'm sorry.

4 Q I'm getting notice that it's hard to hear you. And 5 Holly Mercurio was the husband of Mr. Mer -- I mean the wife of 6 Mr. Mercurio who worked at the NRA, correct?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q And as an NRA officer, you signed an agreement to pay
9 Mr. Mercurio a flat rate of $10,000 per month totally separate
10 from whatever salary or bonus he received from the NRA, correct?

11 A I don't remember that. Say that again.

12 Q Sure. Do you remember ever paying or agreeing to pay
13 Mr. Mercurio or agreeing for the NRA to pay Mr. Mercurio $10,000
14 a month?

15 A No.

16 Q Mr. Phillips, could you turn to tab 43, which is PX
17 1804. It has a Post-it note in lieu of a tab.

18 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, this is part of a packet
19 of documents that were produced to us by the NRA.

20 A I have pages flying out here. I got it. Tab 43,
21 right?

22 Q Yes, please, sir.

23 A Sorry about that. Okay.

24 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, I would like to direct your 25 attention to page 7 of tab 43. Have you seen this document

1 before, sir?

2 A (Examining). Well, I see I signed it, but I'm not
3 familiar with it.

4 MR. FARBER: Could we get an exhibit number?

5 MS. CONNELL: It's exhibit number 1804.

6 MS. ROGERS: We object to this document on
7 completeness. It's appended to an internal memo knowing
8 that the document is incomplete and the employee is confused
9 by it.

10 MR. FARBER: Can we find out if this is one of the 11 exhibits that the AG's office identified for use late last
12 night.

13 MS. CONNELL: This is an exhibit that we identified
14 late last night, your Honor. This is a packet of documents
15 produced by the NRA, and it relates to the contracts with 16 Mr. Mercurio.

17 MR. FARBER: Could we see a copy of the exhibit,
18 because I don't have one.

19 MR. FLEMING: I don't either.

20 MS. CONNELL: They are in the plaintiff's exhibits
21 that were produced previously, your Honor, some time ago.

22 THE COURT: Is this the only copy of this that the 23 Attorney General has?

24 MS. CONNELL: As far as I know, your Honor, yes.

25 MR. FARBER: This is also your tab 32.

1 THE COURT: It looks to be.

2 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry, your Honor. We had
3 previously identified it as tab 32.

4 THE COURT: It's the same thing?

5 MS. CONNELL: Same thing. So the late night
6 production shouldn't be a problem here. If we can refer to 7 tab 32, PX 1804.

8 THE COURT: Again the question remains the same I
9 suppose. So, the only version of this contract you have is 10 this version that's in here?

11 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I believe that that's 12 true. What we could do is admit pages seven through 15 of 13 this and pending presenting it to Mr. Frazer as a complete
14 exhibit.

15 THE COURT: To Mr. Frazer?

16 MS. CONNELL: Mr. Frazer, yes.

17 THE COURT: I mean, as it is, it is, you know, this 18 on its face doesn't seem to have gone to Mr. Phillips. So,
19 it is maybe a bit confusing to question him about a partial 20 document that he's not --

21 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, my objection is lack of 22 foundation. There is no indication that he's seen this
23 document.

24 THE COURT: Well, I mean, she can ask if he's aware
25 of an agreement that's referenced here. But so you can go

1 that far. I'm a little uncomfortable about questioning him
2 about the substance of it based on what's in front of me.

3 MS. CONNELL: So, your Honor, I would ask that we
4 admit PX 1804, pages seven through 15 now, and plaintiff
5 reserves the right to seek admission of the entire document
6 through Mr. Frazer.

7 THE COURT: Well, it's the contract that's from 8 seven through 15. Are those all complete documents?

9 MS. CONNELL: Yes, as far as I know, your Honor,
10 this is what was produced to us.

11 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, I may have missed it.
12 What's the incomplete part? That's what I'm unsure of.

13 THE COURT: I am as well now.

14 MS. CONNELL: Me too.

15 MS. ROGERS: If you look at it -- Maybe it would be 16 better to briefly approach. I think the completeness
17 concern which exists in the original document family there,
18 a concern was express about completeness, does pertain to 19 the 2016 addendum, which is pages seven through 15.

20 THE COURT: Why don't we do this. Since we're 21 close to the end of the morning, why don't you sort of move
22 on past this and perhaps you can just discuss the document.
23 I mean, look, if this is the only version that they have,
24 it's a little difficult to prevent them from using it. But 25 that portion of it does seem to be a contract signed by the

1 witness. So I'm inclined to -- to let counsel question.
2 But why don't you skip over this just for the moment unless
3 this is really the last thing you have.

4 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry. I want to make sure I
5 understand. Page 7 says at the bottom of the agreement
6 "shall be signed", and then the next pages are the signature
7 pages.

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MS. CONNELL: I want to make sure I understand
10 where the incompleteness is.

1 THE COURT: Are you referring to an earlier page,
2 Ms. Rogers?

3 MS. ROGERS: Yeah, I'm referring to the page with 4 Bates label ending 5042. Is that in your Honor's version?

5 MS. CONNELL: So we --

6 THE COURT: Yeah, page 1 of the exhibit.

7 MS. ROGERS: Right.

8 So I'm referring -- I'm looking at the two -- at 9 the -- at the small, second to last, short, second-to-final 10 paragraph, and then the comments above that about the 11 incompleteness of the documents and the 2016 addendum.

12 MS. CONNELL: Well, your Honor, the incompleteness
13 is a discussion about this agreement, generally. It's not,
14 I don't believe, specifically referring to the contracts but 15 to the compliance with the NRA policy.

16 THE COURT: Yeah, there's -- the contract itself
17 doesn't seem to be missing any pages.

18 So, look, this is the version you have. I'm going
19 to, for now, admit pages 7 through 15 of this, which is what 20 has been produced to you and you can ask the witness about 21 it, since his name is on that. So I'll admit that part, and 22 as to whether the rest of it comes in, I'll reserve
23 judgment.

24 MS. CONNELL: And I think Ms. Rogers was referring 25 to an addendum that's referred to that, to my knowledge, we

1 do not have.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. CONNELL: So -- okay.

4 THE COURT: So, if you just stick to the contract
5 portion for now ...

6 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

7 (Image displayed.)

8 BY MS. CONNELL:

9 Q So, Mr. Phillips, page 7 of Exhibit 18 -- 1804 -- is a
10 Contract Extension Agreement, dated January 1st, 2018, between 11 the NRA and Mr. Marcario; correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And it extends a previous agreement; correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And it extends all terms of that previous agreement;
16 correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Now, if you turn to page 10, please --

19 (Image scrolled.)

20 Q -- this is a consulting agreement between the NRA and 21 Mr. Marcario, dated January 1st, 2016; right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And this agreement provides that Mr. Marcario will be 24 paid $10,000 per month, right?

25 And you can look at page 11, section 3.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

849

1 A Yes.

2 Q And during the time that this agreement was entered
3 into, Mr. Marcario was an NRA employee; correct?

4 A I don't know. I'm -- I'm totally confused by ...
5 trying to get a timeline on what I'm looking at here
6 (indicating).

7 Q So this agreement is January 1st, 2016; right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And it provides that he shall be paid a base -- shall 10 be paid $10,000 per month for services rendered under the 11 agreement; right?

12 A That's what it says, that's right.

13 Q And underneath that, it says he'll also be paid
14 expenses; right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And Mr. Marcario was paid under this agreement
17 thereafter; correct?

18 A It appears to have been that he was paid --

19 Q Right.

20 A -- because he went for the extension.

21 Q And Mr. Marcario was, at some point, an NRA employee;
22 correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And do you know whether, at any time during the time of 25 these payments, he was an NRA employee?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

850

1 A I do not.

2 Q Do you know whether he was an NRA employee when this
3 was negotiated?

4 A Do not.

5 Q Did you negotiate this agreement with Mr. Marcario?

6 A No.

7 Q Do you know who did?

8 A I don't.

9 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, did you bring this agreement to 10 the attention of the Audit Committee?

11 A No.

12 Q Did you have this agreement approved by two board
13 officers?

14 A No.

15 Q Did you complete a Business Case Analysis for this
16 agreement?

17 A I didn't.

18 Q You can put that aside, for now.

19 (Image removed.)

20 Q Mr. Phillips, who is Sandy Froman?

21 THE COURT: Just a heads-up, counsel: We have 22 about ten minutes or a little less than.

23 MS. CONNELL: I'll try and finish up.

24 THE COURT: You don't have to finish, but I'm just 25 letting you know we're going to take a break in ten minutes

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

851

1 or so.

2 A Sandy Froman?

3 Q Yes.

4 A She was a former president of the NRA and she was,
5 um ...

6 Q A board member, right?

7 A She was a board member for years, and then president
8 for the normal two-year term.

9 Q And the NRA paid Ms. Froman during the time that she's 10 been a board member; correct?

11 A As a board member, yes. After -- after she became --
12 after her term as president exhausted, we -- the NRA -- paid her 13 for some office support because she was -- she was a lawyer and 14 she was speaking all over for -- on behalf of the NRA.

15 Q So the NRA paid Ms. Froman for some office support as a
16 board member, right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And there was no specific process that was in place at 19 the time to supervise the NRA's relationship with Ms. Froman,
20 right?

21 A No.

22 Q So there was no one making sure that Ms. -- how many 23 speeches Ms. Froman was giving or that the NRA was getting its 24 value for its money paid, right?

25 A Well, not specifically, but, you know, it's a small

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

852

1 group of people that know what other -- each other are doing.

2 Q So who supervised the relationship with Ms. Froman?

3 A I think she -- she acted on her own.

4 Q Okay. And was there a specific process in place at the 5 NRA to supervise relationships like Froman's?

6 A There was no -- no specific one, as I recall.

7 Q And you approved payments to Ms. Froman; correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And did you bring those payments --
10 Those payments went on for many years. They went on 11 from 2013, right?

12 A Yes, they did.

13 Q At least; correct?

14 A Well, it went on -- it went on from when her term as 15 president ended until -- if you told me it was still happening
16 today, I couldn't deny that.

17 Q Okay. And you, of course, in 2013, went to the Audit
18 Committee to get that preapproved; right?

19 A No.

20 Q Did you go in 2014?

21 A No, not to the Audit Committee. It was on -- it was on 22 the list of -- to the Finance Committee to see where the 23 contracts were.

24 Q Sure. So the board knew about it, right?

25 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

853

1 Q As far as you knew.

2 A As far as I knew.

3 Q But no one vetted it through the Audit Committee.

4 A Well, sometimes they're the same people.

5 Q Sometimes they're the same people, but you don't know
6 whether the Audit Committee did the analysis necessary for a
7 related-party transaction; right?

8 A They did not take any action that I know of.

9 Q Okay. Until at least 2017, at the earliest; right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q The NRA paid Ms. Froman over $216,000 between 2013 and
12 2018, right?

13 Q Something like that.

14 A Something like that.

15 Q Right.

16 Who is Marion Hammer?

17 A Marion Hammer is another former board member that runs
18 a -- an organization in -- in Florida, for the Second Amendment.

19 Q I'm sorry. Ms. Froman's contracts, her consulting
20 agreement or how -- whatever that arrangement was, was paid out
21 of the EVP budget; right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q So, to your knowledge, would Mr. LaPierre have been 24 aware of these payments to Ms. Froman?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

854

1 Q Okay. And Ms. Hammer was a board member -- is a board
2 member -- right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q And she's a former president of the NRA; correct?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And for years, the NRA paid Ms. Hammer without a
7 written agreement; right?

8 A I -- I don't know if there was a written agreement for 9 her work through her company.

10 Q And Ms. Hammer was paid out of the EVP budget, right?

11 A That's right.

12 Q So, to your knowledge, Mr. LaPierre would be aware of 13 the amounts paid to Ms. Hammer; correct?

14 A I would think so.

15 Q And --

16 A At least, be aware that there were payments.

17 Q And for several years, there was no written agreement
18 with regard to payments to Ms. Hammer; right?

19 A I don't recall.

20 Q Do you recall testifying in your deposition in this
21 case that, for several years, there was no written agreement
22 with Ms. Hammer?

23 A You have the transcript; I would agree.

24 Q Sure.

25 A I don't -- I just don't remember it.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

855

1 MS. CONNELL: Jesse, can we bring up Mr. Phillips'
2 litigation transcript at pages 247/4 through 249/5?

3 (Image displayed.)

4 Q Ms. Hammer is a supporter of Mr. LaPierre, right?
5 Mr. Phillips?

6 A I think so.

7 Q Okay.

8 So, Mr. Phillips, you were asked if the NRA has paid
9 Ms. Hammer for consulting services for decades; correct?

10 And you answered: "Correct."

11 Right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And you were asked whether, for several years, there
14 was no written agreement in connection with those payments to 15 Ms. Hammer.

16 You see that, right?

17 A I see that.

18 Q And you answered: "I believe so." Right?

19 A Correct.

20 Q And you were asked:

21 "And the lack of a written agreement would be in 22 violation of the NRA's policy; correct?"

23 And your answer was: "It wouldn't follow the 24 letter of the policy."

25 Right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

856

1 A Correct.

2 Q And you were asked:

3 "Meaning it would be in violation of the policy;
4 correct?"

5 And then:

6 "Yeah, I'm just asking you, Mr. Phillips --

7 "Yeah.

8 "-- as you're sitting here today, you think the 9 contracts not being written would violate the NRA's policy."

10 And your answer was: "I didn't follow the policy."

11 Correct?

12 A Correct.

13 Q And, again, Ms. Hammer was paid out of the EVP budget.

14 A Correct.

15 Q Right?

16 A That's correct.

17 MS. CONNELL: Okay. I think that's good place to 18 break, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 We'll take our lunch break and reconvene at -- I
21 think, today I'm going to need to reconvene at 2:30, just 15
22 minutes later. Sorry.

23 See you all at 2:30.

24 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

25 (The jury left the courtroom.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

857

1 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, could I raise an issue
2 now or would you prefer it after lunch?

3 THE COURT: I have to run.

4 MR. FLEMING: Done.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 (The witness stepped down.)

7 (Luncheon recess.)

8 A f t e r n o o n S e s s i o n:

9 THE COURT: Have a seat.

10 I don't recommend going outside.

11 All right. Before we get the jury, Mr. Fleming,
12 you had something?

13 MR. FLEMING: Yes, your Honor.

14 We've all been working hard, and over the weekend,
15 we endeavored, based on the plaintiff's cutting of 16 Mr. Spray's deposition, to look through what they'd done,
17 indicate whether we'd accept it, and I went even further.

18 So, based on the changing circumstances of the 19 case, I actually offered to remove three 20 counter-designations that I had previously made that they 21 did not object to this next go-round. I added 11 lines of 22 additional counter-designations that I thought were 23 pertinent to, sort of, the case as it stands now.

24 And previously, in November, before I even knew 25 what the case, kind of, was going to -- what shape it was

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

858

1 going to take, I had not made specific objections but
2 insisted that the objections made at the time of the 3 deposition be, sort of, ruled on.

4 And I've removed that, in my notice to the 5 Government over the weekend, and indicated three specific
6 objections; and based on that, what I understand is, I
7 received a letter today, while we were in court -- haven't 8 read it fully, but my understanding is, they object to my 9 efforts.

10 So I just wanted to express that we're trying to, I
11 think, make this more efficient and more cogent, but I think
12 I'm getting opposition. I just wanted to flag it.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I am starting to look at,
14 I think, the materials that we got, I believe. Are your 15 objections incorporated in what we have or are they not?

16 MR. FLEMING: I don't know. I would have to --

17 (To counsel) I don't know what you forwarded to the 18 Court, based on what we did this weekend.

19 MR. THOMPSON: We'll double-check, your Honor, but 20 I believe that we did incorporate Mr. Fleming's objections 21 and just noted our objection to this late adding of the
22 objection.

23 THE COURT: That's the normal "objection"
24 objection.

25 (Laughter.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

859

1 THE COURT: And do you object to his objection
2 objection?

3 MR. FLEMING: I will not do that.

4 (Laughter.)

5 MS. CONNELL: We will reserve our right. I'll do
6 that.

7 THE COURT: I'll take a look at that.

8 It went a little faster once I understood the 9 principle now. A lot of the counter-designations are 10 ultimately fine except they need to go in the defendants'
11 case, because that's just the way it is.

12 All right, are we ready for the jury?

13 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

14 (Pause.)

15 THE COURT: Mr. Phillips, why don't you come
16 forward.

17 (The witness resumed the stand.)

18 (Pause.)

19 COURT OFFICER: Is the Court ready for the jury?

20 (The Court nodded.)

21 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

22 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

23 THE COURT: Welcome back.

24 Have a seat.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Connell, you may continue.

1 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

3 BY MS. CONNELL:

4 Q Mr. Phillips, earlier, I had asked you about whether
5 the NRA payments to Ms. Froman and Ms. Hammer came out of the 6 EVP budget; correct?

7 A Correct.

8 Q And you said that they had, right?

9 A I believe so.

10 Q And we discussed, very briefly, a man named Brad
11 O'Leary; right?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And he was the owner of PM Consulting, the precursor,
14 or prior company, to MMP; right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And the NRA agreed to pay Mr. O'Leary money after PM
17 Consulting closed its doors, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. Can we take a look at tab 8, please? That's PX
20 1657.

21 THE COURT: White binder.

22 A Tab 7?

23 Q Tab 8, please, Mr. Phillips. Thank you.

24 A I have it.

25 MS. CONNELL: Are there any objections to this

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1 exhibit?

2 MR. FARBER: No objection.

3 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

4 THE COURT: It's admitted.

5 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

6 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

7 (Image displayed.)

8 Q Mr. Phillips, I'm showing you a document that's been 9 marked PX 1657. Could you please take a look at page 2?

10 This is an agreement between the NRA and Brad O'Leary;
11 correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And the organization or corporation Mr. O'Leary formed
14 was known as "Grassroots Behavioral Systems," right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And directing your attention to page 6 -- I mean --
17 sorry -- page 7 of this document --

18 (Image scrolled.)

19 Q -- you signed this agreement; correct?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q In August of 2012?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And in August of 2012, MMP was already a going option;
24 right? I mean, a going concern. Correct?

25 A I don't remember the timing, but it probably happened

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

862

1 co -- coincidental, about the same time.

2 Q So, in 2011, you signed an agreement with MMP on behalf
3 of the NRA -- correct? -- that we looked at earlier.

4 A If that's the date -- I don't know the date, but I -- I
5 will agree with you.

6 Q Okay. Can I direct your attention to page 4 of this
7 document, please?

8 (Image scrolled.)

9 Q And specifically to paragraph 3, "Compensation."

10 (Image modified.)

11 Q Under this agreement, the NRA paid -- is paying -- 12 Grassroots $20,000 per month; correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. And turning your attention to page 5, for 15 "Term" --

16 (Image scrolled.)

17 Q -- this contract was supposed to go on for five years;
18 correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q And, in fact, the NRA paid Mr. O'Leary $20,000 per 21 month for five years; right?

22 A I believe so.

23 Q For a total of $1.2 million; correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q To your knowledge, was there a Business Case Analysis

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

863

1 or Signature Sheet done for this agreement?

2 A Not to my knowledge.

3 Q Okay. This contract does not comply with the NRA's
4 procurement policy for contracts above a hundred thousand
5 dollars, right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And this contract was paid under the EVP budget;
8 correct?

9 A I believe so.

10 Q And the main relationship between Mr. O'Leary and the 11 NRA was through Mr. LaPierre; correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Okay. You can set that aside now. Thank you.

14 (Image removed.)

15 Q Mr. Phillips, you know who Millie Hallow is; correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And she reported to Wayne LaPierre while you were NRA's
18 CFO and treasurer?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you're aware that concerns were raised in the early
21 2000s about Ms. Hallow's use of an NRA credit card, right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q And yet, after that, she was given a corporate American
24 Express Card -- right? -- from the NRA.

25 A Can you -- can you tell me a year? I wasn't aware of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

864

1 that.

2 Q Mr. Phillips, while you were NRA's CFO and treasurer,
3 the NRA had American Express accounts; correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And people within the NRA were issued cards under these 6 accounts, right?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q There was an account with Rick Tedrick's name?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And there was an account with your name; correct?

11 A That's -- that's right.

12 Q And there were sub -- there were cards issued under 13 each of those accounts, right?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q Mr. Phillips, if you could please look at what we've 16 marked as tab 44, it's PX 1494 ...

17 (Pause.)

18 Q It has a --

19 A It's the black binder (indicating)?

20 Q Yes. It's the last tab.

21 MS. CONNELL: This is a tab, counsel, added last
22 night.

23 A All right.

24 (Pause.)

25 A Okay. I have it.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

865

1 Q Okay. Thank you, sir.

2 Well, Mr. Phillips, the NRA regularly got statements
3 from the NRA [sic]; correct?

4 THE COURT: "Statements from ..."?

5 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry.

6 Q -- from the American -- from the American Express
7 Corporation.

8 A I'm sorry. Start -- start that again, please?

9 Q Sure.

10 The NRA regularly got statements from American Express;
11 correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And they would maintain those statements in the regular 14 course of its business; correct?

15 A Correct. Correct.

16 MS. CONNELL: I ask, your Honor, that this be moved
17 into admission.

18 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

19 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

20 MR. FARBER: No objection.

21 (Pause.)

22 MR. FLEMING: None. Sorry.

23 THE COURT: Waiting for the full echo. Thank you.

24 It's admitted.

25 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

2 BY MS. CONNELL:

3 Q Mr. Phillips, I'd like you to take a look at page 2 of 4 this document -- I'm sorry -- page 3 of this document.

5 A I have it.

6 Q Okay. This is an American Express statement directed
7 to Rick Tedrick, right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And this is an American Express statement, if you look
10 at the top, from 12/22/2017; right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And, if you turn to look at page 6 of this document, it
13 lists people who have cards under Mr. Tedrick's account; right?

14 (Image scrolled.)

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And that includes "Millie Hallow" -- right? -- if you
17 look near the bottom?

18 A Yes.

19 Q It also includes "Carolyn Meadows"?

20 A Yes.

21 Q "David Keene"?

22 (Pause.)

23 Q I can go in order, if we work our way down.

24 A That would help.

25 Q Third down is "Sandra Froman," right? She had a card?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 A That is correct.

2 Q And a few more below her is "John Sigler." He had a
3 card, right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And right below him, "David Keene" had a card.

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And Tyler Schropp had a card; correct?

8 A Where is that?

9 Q Right below Mr. Keene.

10 A Right. I got it.

11 Q And James Porter II had a card, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Mr. Porter is a former NRA president, right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And then a current NRA Board member, right?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And Pete Brownell had a card, right?

18 A That's right.

19 Q A board member?

20 A Board member.

21 Q And at some point, he was NRA president; right?

22 A Yes, as most of these (indicating).

23 Q Okay.

25

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

868

1 Q And then if we go down we see Ms. Hallow had a card?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And Ms. Meadows had a card, right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And Ms. Meadow is an NRA board member?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And former NRA president, right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q You can put that to the side. Thank you. Mr.
10 Phillips, before we took the break, I spoke to you about your 11 testimony or your deposition in the NRA bankruptcy. Do you
12 recall that?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q And you're aware that there is a time in 2021 when the 15 NRA declared bankruptcy, right?

16 A Correct.

17 Q Well, filed a bankruptcy proceeding?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And do you recall coming to give a deposition in that 20 proceeding?

21 A I do.

22 Q And in that deposition you were sworn in, right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q Asked to tell the truth? Sworn to tell the truth,
25 right?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And you were asked questions?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And you gave answers, right?

5 A I did.

6 Q And in response to many of the questions that you were 7 asked, you invoked your Fifth Amendment right to be free from 8 self incrimination, right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And, in fact, you invoked your Fifth Amendment right,
11 for example, when asked about whether Millie Hallow had a
12 corporate credit card, right?

13 A I suppose.

14 MS. CONNELL: Jessie, can we bring up the 15 bankruptcy deposition at page 35, lines ten to 14.

16 A I see.

17 Q So, you were asked about whether the NRA issued a
18 corporate credit card to Ms. Hollow, right?

19 A Correct.

20 Q You declined to answer based upon the privilege
21 provided to you by the Fifth Amendment of the United States
22 Constitution?

23 A That's right.

24 Q And you invoked your Fifth Amendment when asked whether 25 there was even an investigation of an appropriate credit card

1 usage, right?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And you invoked your Fifth Amendment right when asked
4 about who signed off or how it was determined who would sign off
5 on the NRA's 990s, right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q In fact, you invoked your Fifth Amendment right
8 hundreds of times, right?

9 A I suppose.

10 Q Okay. And --

11 A Many.

12 Q -- Mr. Phillips, you invoked your Fifth Amendment right
13 because you had a good faith belief by answering the questions I
14 asked you there, you might be subject to criminal liability,
15 right?

16 A No.

17 Q So you invoked your Fifth Amendment right for some 18 other reason than you had a good faith belief you would be 19 subject to criminal liability?

20 A Well, can I explain it in a different way?

21 Q No, sir. I'm just asking you if you believed you might 22 be subject to criminal liability.

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, are you familiar with a company
25 called 501C Solutions?

871

1 A Yes.

2 Q And that was an NRA vendor, right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And the NRA paid that company for years for services,
5 correct?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And that company is owned by the daughter-in-law of 8 Nancy Richards, right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Caroline Richards, correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And the NRA paid $5,000 a month to 501C Solutions,
13 right?

14 A I don't know that.

15 Q But the NRA paid 501C Solutions?

16 A 501C Solutions was not her company. It was Tom Drew's
17 company.

18 Q Did Ms. Richards work there, Caroline Richards?

19 A Yes. Her job was to greet people when they had events
20 and deal with tickets for the events.

21 Q Ms. Richards was also affiliated with Windsor & Park,
22 right?

23 A That's all the same.

24 Q So, 501C Solutions and Windsor & Park, it's your 25 testimony, are the same?

872

1 A No.

2 Q Windsor & Park was also a vendor of the NRA, correct?

3 A It was a vendor to 501(c)(3) -- 501C Solutions.

4 Q I'm sorry, Mr. Phillips, to cut you off.

5 A It's all right.

6 Q Isn't it true that the NRA paid Windsor & Park $6,000 a
7 month?

8 A I don't know.

9 Q It did pay money to Windsor & Park though, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And Caroline Richards was employed there, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And she's the daughter-in-law of Nancy Richards, your 14 close friend, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, while you were CFO and treasurer
17 of the NRA, you knew Mr. LaPierre flew by private or charter
18 jets, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q The NRA did not have a policy that was -- would require 21 Mr. LaPierre to travel solely by private or charter jet during 22 that time, right?

23 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor, to the extent
24 that it calls for a legal conclusion.

25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 A Was it overruled?

2 THE COURT: You can answer it, if you know.

3 Q It was overruled.

4 A Repeat the question, please.

5 Q Sure. While you were CFO and treasurer of the NRA, the 6 NRA did not have a policy that would require Mr. LaPierre to fly
7 by private or charter jet?

8 A Correct.

9 Q Okay. You're familiar with an individual named Gayle
10 Stanford, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And she is -- she was the travel consultant for Mr.
13 LaPierre, correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And she would sometimes do travel for a few other
16 people at the NRA?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Like Tyler Schropp?

19 A I don't know.

20 Q Okay. Millie Hallow?

21 A Again, I don't know.

22 Q But she wasn't the travel agent for all of the NRA,
23 right?

24 A No.

25 Q Meaning when most NRA employees wanted to make plans to

874

1 travel, they used a company, a different company?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q But Mr. LaPierre used Ms. Stanford. While you were CFO
4 there was never a competitive bidding for Ms. Stanford's
5 services, right?

6 A No.

7 Q Okay. She was actually already doing Mr. LaPierre's
8 travel when you became CFO, right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q Okay. You spoke to Ms. Stanford about issues relating 11 to her payments, right?

12 A I did.

13 Q Okay. And Ms. Stanford billed the NRA through two 14 different companies, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q One was II and IS, right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And one was known as GS2, right?

19 A Sounds right.

20 Q But they were both just Ms. Stanford's companies,
21 right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. Did you ever ask Ms. Stanford to bill for Mr.
24 LaPierre's travel services through two different companies?

25 A No.

875

1 Q But you're aware she did that?

2 A I am.

3 Q Did you know whether Mr. LaPierre asked her to do that?

4 A I do not.

5 Q Did you ever ask Mr. LaPierre whether he asked her to 6 do that?

7 A No.

8 Q Did you ask her why she billed that way?

9 A No. I assumed she was in some transition with the 10 company, her companies.

11 Q But she billed under these two companies for years,
12 right?

13 A I really don't recall. I didn't -- I didn't see these 14 bills all the time.

15 Q But you knew both companies were hers?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Ms. Stanford also billed the NRA and the NRA ILA
18 separately, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Now, the NRA ILA is a division within the NRA, correct?

21 A Yes. It has, under the bylaws, has some physical walls
22 built around it. So, it would indicate you need to bill
23 separately to them versus NRA.

24 Q Great. So, her billing would go both to the NRA and to 25 ILA, right?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And Ms. Stanford also billed for part of her services
3 through Ackerman McQueen, right?

4 A Can you say that another way, 'cause I'm not aware of
5 that.

6 Q Sure. Ms. Stanford billed $4,000 a month as a flat
7 rate through Ackerman McQueen's out-of-pocket expense system,
8 right?

9 A Okay. Correct.

10 Q Thank you. And Ms. Stanford billed the NRA and the NRA
11 ILA $15,000 a month for her services, right?

12 A Each?

13 Q No, together.

14 A Together. I don't know.

15 Q You agreed to her monthly fee amount, right?

16 A Possibly.

17 Q Okay.

18 A It's been a long time.

19 Q Well, you discussed Ms. Stanford's monthly billing rate
20 with her, right?

21 A I believe so. I just really don't recall.

22 Q Okay. And ultimately you signed and approved whatever
23 that monthly rate was that was paid, right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q You don't know that it wasn't $15,000 a month, right?

877

1 A That's correct.

2 Q It might have been? It could have been?

3 A Right.

4 Q And then she billed $4,000 a month to Ackerman, right?

5 A Right.

6 Q To be paid through the NRA through the out-of-pocket
7 expense system?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Ms. Stanford also booked a commission or billed a
10 commission for the flights and travel that she booked, right?

11 A I don't know.

12 Q Okay. Did Ms. Stanford raise the issue of the NRA
13 paying for her benefits with you?

14 A There was -- there was a period where we had one
15 discussion where it was -- she was like a full-time employee but 16 not getting employee benefits and I listened.

17 Q Is it after that conversation that you agreed for Ms.
18 Stanford to increase her monthly rate?

19 A I don't remember that. I remember that first
20 conversation.

21 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, you directed Ms. Stanford to bill
22 the NRA and the NRA ILA separately, right?

23 A I would have, yes.

24 Q Okay. And is it incorrect to say that you told her she 25 could add a ten percent commission to her bill?

1 A I don't recall that.

2 Q Did you ever review Ms. Stanford's invoices?

3 A I would occasionally. Lisa Supernaugh would show me
4 something, and I looked at some of those invoices. I wouldn't
5 say I reviewed them. Sorry about that.

6 Q No. I'm sorry I interrupted you, sir. Is your answer
7 complete?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. Who would regularly reviewed Ms. Stanford's
10 invoices?

11 A I think Lisa Supernaugh would be one and that's the 12 only one I can think of.

13 Q But there was no policy or procedure in place governing
14 who was to look at all of Ms. Stanford's invoices, right?

15 A I don't believe so.

16 Q Okay. And again Lisa Supernaugh was your assistant?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And there was no specific policy in place as to who Ms.
19 Supernaugh should take Ms. Stanford's invoices to for review,
20 right?

21 A I don't think so.

22 Q Okay. And you don't know if Gayle Stanford shopped
23 around to find the most economical means for travel for Mr.
24 LaPierre, right?

25 A I do not.

1 Q Okay. While you were CFO and treasurer of the NRA,
2 there was never a written contract for Ms. Stanford's services,
3 is that accurate?

4 A Not that I'm aware of.

5 Q Okay. So there was no business case analysis, right,
6 and there was no signoff by board officers, correct?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Okay. I would like to jump to another topic now,
9 trying to clean up here. Mr. Phillips, you're familiar with an
10 entity known as Wbb, correct? Wbb Investments, LLC?

11 A Yes.

12 Q You signed the operating agreement on behalf of the 13 NRA, correct? Strike that. That's confusing.

14 A I need context on that.

15 Q Mr. Phillips, would you please look at tab 17, PX 3138.

16 A Black or white?

17 Q It's the white binder, sir.

18 A Thanks. Tab 17?

19 Q Tab 17.

20 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
21 request of counsel.)

22 A I have it.

23 MS. CONNELL: I don't know if there is an objection
24 to this exhibit.

25 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

1 MR. FARBER: No objection.

2 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

3 MR. FLEMING: I have none either, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Then it's admitted.

5 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

6 Q Mr. Phillips --

7 THE COURT: It's PX 3138, right?

8 MS. CONNELL: That's exactly right, 3138.

9 Q Mr. Phillips, this is the operating agreement of Wbb
10 Investments, LLC, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And if you turn and take a look at page 33 of this 13 agreement, that's your signature, right?

14 A Is it way in the back?

15 Q Yes. It's the second to last page.

16 A Okay.

17 Q It's also on the screen in front of you.

18 A Thank you. Yes. That's my signature.

19 Q And you signed on behalf of the NRA?

20 A I did.

21 Q And there is a signature of someone else, right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Who is that?

24 A Bill Winkler.

25 Q And he signed on behalf of DJ Investments, LLC, right?

881

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Bill Winkler was an executive, he was actually the CFO
3 of Ackerman McQueen, right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q This is a 34 page agreement, right?

6 A It was a lot of pages. I need to look.

7 Q You do not need to look, sir. This is essentially an 8 agreement to form a company to purchase property in Dallas,
9 Texas, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And the property that was being looked at to purchase
12 was for Wayne and Susan LaPierre, correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q And please look at page 34. This is the very last page
15 in the binder. Actually it's up on the screen now if that makes 16 it easier. This indicates that The National Rifle Association
17 would have a 99 percent share in Wbb Investments, right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And would make a capital contribution of $6.5 million,
20 right?

21 A Correct.

22 Q And DJ Investments, LLC would have a one percent share,
23 right?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And it would have a capital contribution of $10?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. When I asked you about Wbb Investments at the
3 NRA's bankruptcy proceeding, you invoked your Fifth Amendment
4 right against self incrimination, right?

5 A I suppose. Yes.

6 Q Okay. To your knowledge did Wayne and Susan LaPierre
7 look at potential properties in Dallas, Texas to purchase -- for 8 purchase by Wbb Investments?

9 A I don't know to be purchased by Wb, B & B, but they
10 were looking at properties in the Dallas area.

11 Q And to your knowledge did they identify a potential
12 property they were interested in?

13 A I'm aware of one property.

14 Q And that was a home, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Near a golf course?

17 A I don't know.

18 Q Okay. There was no business case analysis ever
19 performed for the operating agreement of Wbb, right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And you never received signoff on either the president
22 or any of the vice presidents, right?

23 A One of the rules in the nonprofit area for real estate
24 is it takes a hundred percent of the board of directors to 25 purchase real estate. So, I knew this was never going to

1 happen.

2 Q So you thought this agreement would never happen?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And yet, Mr. Phillips, you wrote a check for $70,000 in 5 regard to this agreement, right?

6 A I didn't personally, but yes from NRA.

7 Q Sure.

8 A It was to hold -- to hold the house until something
9 else could occur.

10 Q Okay. Can we take a look at tab 15, please.

11 MS. CONNELL: I don't know if there are any
12 objections.

13 MS. ROGERS: The NRA didn't produce this. So,
14 subject to foundation, there is no objection.

15 MR. CORRELL: Same.

16 MR. FARBER: No objection.

17 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

18 THE COURT: Do you have a foundation for this one?

19 MS. CONNELL: I'll ask some questions, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 Q Mr. Phillips, do you see this invoice from Wbb
22 Investments, LLC?

23 A I do.

24 Q And it's directed to Wilson Phillips at The National 25 Rifle Association, right?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And did you receive this invoice while you were at the
3 NRA?

4 A I did.

5 Q And did you cut a check to pay this $70,000?

6 A Yes.

7 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I would ask this be
8 admitted, although I think page 2 of it we could exclude.

9 Actually if we could take it down for a second,
10 Jessie. I don't want page 2 shown yet.

11 Q Mr. Phillips, have you seen page 2 of this exhibit?

12 A I'm not sure where to find page 2.

13 THE COURT: In the back.

14 Q It's on the back of the invoice.

15 A Okay. I'm blank on the back. It's this one
16 (indicating)?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, we would object to the 19 admission of page 2. We think it was created for purposes
20 of litigation by Ackerman.

21 THE WITNESS: What do I do?

22 THE COURT: It gets into the middle of the question
23 to the witness.

24 MS. CONNELL: I'm interested in the answer.

25 THE COURT: Ask it again.

1 Q Mr. Phillips, have you ever seen page 2 of this
2 exhibit?

3 A I don't believe so.

4 Q Okay.

5 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we would ask that page 1
6 alone be admitted, and we would agree to remove page 2 from 7 this.

8 THE COURT: What about page 3?

9 MS. CONNELL: It seems to be a repeat of page 1.

10 THE COURT: All right. So with that it's admitted
11 solely with respect to page 1 of PX 3134.

12 Q Mr. Phillips, will you look at tab 16, please.

13 A I have it.

14 Q Have you ever seen this document before?

15 A (Examining). No.

16 Q Can you look at page 2.

17 A (Examining).

18 Q Do you see?

19 A I have that.

20 Q Right. Do you see your signature on that document?

21 A I do. This is a facsimile signature again but --
22 (pause).

23 Q So you're saying it's your electronic signature?

24 A My electronic signature.

25 Q Was this -- Do you have any reason to believe that your

1 electronic signature was put on this document without your
2 authorization?

3 A No.

4 Q So, this was, this signature was applied with your
5 authority?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And do you recognize what your signature is affixed to?

8 A It's an earnest money check for $70,000.

9 Q And who is that earnest money?

10 MS. CONNELL: Oh, your Honor, may I move for 11 admittance of this page of the document, and then I'll lay a
12 foundation for the next page.

13 MR. FARBER: Can we get an exhibit number, your
14 Honor?

15 THE COURT: PX 3137. Which is "this page" that 16 you're referring to?

17 MS. CONNELL: Page 2.

18 THE COURT: So, are you now breaking up the exhibit
19 into multiple pieces or what?

20 MS. CONNELL: I think I'm going to have to lay the 21 foundation separately for the two pieces. So, I would like
22 to ask him about this and then ask him about page 1 since --

23 THE COURT: Why don't you do all of the foundation
24 and then we can -- I would rather just not admit it
25 piecemeal.

1 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

2 Q So, Mr. Phillips, you said this was earnest money,
3 correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q In regard to the Wbb Investments transaction, right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And if you turn back to page 1, did you give that --
8 did you give the earnest money to Wbb Investments?

9 A Well, I had it sent to them.

10 Q And to your knowledge did Wbb -- Well, who is "them"?

11 A Wbb Investments.

12 Q And who at Wbb Investments did you send it to?

13 A Probably Bill Winkler.

14 Q Okay. And to your knowledge did Mr. Winkler deposit
15 the check?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. And does this document reflect the depositing of 18 the earnest money check?

19 THE COURT: Counsel, I think the way you're doing
20 this, both pages seem to have one page that's -- that seems 21 to be an NRA document. The other page would be something
22 that would be filled out by the recipient, is that right?

23 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

24 THE COURT: Both pages do. Even the second page.

25 So, I -- I don't know what the foundation is for the

888

1 authenticity of the document, if it was produced by a third
2 party. I don't know that it isn't. I don't have a
3 foundation right now for any of it.

4 MS. CONNELL: Right. The page 2 reflects a check
5 issued by the NRA, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: The top part of it does.

7 MS. CONNELL: The top part of it does. And the NRA
8 was the majority owner of Wbb Investments. That this was 9 produced from a third party doesn't change that we've 10 established the NRA was the 99 percent owner of Wbb
11 Investments.

12 THE COURT: That may all be true but the -- that 13 doesn't really satisfy the requirement to determine that 14 this is --

15 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we're going to have Mr.
16 Winkler as a witness in this case. So, why don't we put a
17 pin in this until we have a person who could testify. Thank
18 you.

19 THE COURT: Authenticity is the word that was 20 sliding by my brain. It took me a while to get to it.

21 Q So, Mr. Phillips, you did write or have the NRA write a
22 $70,000 check to Wbb Investments, correct?

23 A That's correct, and they returned it.

24 Q Right. And you were concerned about the balance of the 25 money that was owed to Wbb Investments, right?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And you corresponded with your successor Craig Spray
3 about it, right?

4 A I don't remember that.

5 Q Mr. Phillips, can you turn to tab 40. This will be PX
6 1514.

7 THE COURT: Black binder?

8 MS. CONNELL: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Counsel, as a head's up, this is
10 another one that has a bunch of cell phone numbers on it.

11 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor. We're going to 12 redact that once he authenticates it. We'll redact the 13 phone numbers.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MS. ROGERS: Subject to foundation, no objection.

16 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

17 A Okay. I have page 40. I mean, tab 40, is that right?

18 Q Excuse me. What?

19 THE COURT: Tab 40, yes, PX 1514.

20 MS. CONNELL: Yes. Thank you, your Honor.

21 A Yes.

22 Q Mr. Phillips, you know who Craig Spray is, correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And you have occasionally texted Mr. Spray, right?

25 A I have.

1 Q And you texted him while you both worked at the NRA, is
2 that correct?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And there is a number there displayed next to the
5 initials W.P. Don't read that number out loud. Is that a
6 number that belonged to you?

7 A (Examining). Yes.

8 Q And did you sometimes conduct NRA business by text?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And in this instance were you texting with Mr. Spray?

11 A Yes.

12 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I ask that with the 13 personal numbers redacted, this Exhibit 1514 be admitted.

14 MR. FARBER: No objection.

15 THE COURT: It's admitted.

16 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, you see the version
17 showed has the numbers redacted.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Q This is a text string about the purchase of the home in 20 Dallas, right?

21 A Can I read it for a second?

22 Q Sure. Please do.

23 A (Examining). Okay.

24 Q Mr. Phillips, Mr. Spray told you that Rick and Sonya
25 are freaking out, right?

891

1 A More or less.

2 Q Because they had Googled the address. It says and
3 found out the owner -- and found the owner with the last name
4 Winkler, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q This is in reference to the house that was being looked
7 at for Wayne and Susan LaPierre, right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And your response was, "Wait until they get the big 10 check request", right?

11 A I just saw that, yes.

12 Q What was the big check request? It was the remainder
13 of the 6.5 million, right?

14 A No. No. It was the $70,000. That's a big check.

15 Q That is a big check. And Mr. Spray said, "The deep 16 state is working overtime on this one", right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q What was?

19 MR. FLEMING: I'm sorry. Objection. I think it --
20 I think the columns go in the opposite direction
21 chronologically.

22 THE COURT: I was curious about that.

23 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry.

24 Q I'm sorry, Mr. Phillips. I'm reading it from the 25 bottom. I should be reading it from the top looking at the

1 times. So, my apologies. If we go back and start at the top,
2 Mr. Spray said, "I've asked Rick to call you as he needs a W-9
3 to process the payment", right?

4 A I'm lost.

5 Q At the very top of the Spray --

6 A Yes. I see it.

7 Q Okay. And he told you he's getting a lot of pushback
8 from the team, right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q That's regarding the check to Wbb Investments, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Regarding the purchase of the Dallas house, right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And Mr. Spray said, "The check is in Lisa's office",
15 right?

16 A (Examining).

17 THE COURT: It's highlighted on the screen, if you
18 would rather look at it that way underneath your book.

19 Q Yes. It is highlighted. It makes it much easier.

20 A (Examining). That's correct.

21 Q And when he says "Lisa", did you understand him to be
22 referring to Lisa Supernaugh?

23 A Yes.

24 Q She was going to overnight the check, right?

25 A Yes.

1 Q To Bill Winkler, right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. And when Mr. Spray said, "The deep state is 4 working overtime on this one", what did you understand him to
5 mean?

6 A I don't know.

7 Q You had no understanding of that?

8 A Well, in this context, I'm not even sure knowing him
9 what he defines deep state as.

10 Q And you responded, "Wait until they get the big check
11 request", right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q By that you were referring to the $70,000 check?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q That was already in Lisa's office, right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q So they would get a big check request after the check
18 had already been cut?

19 A I don't -- I'm looking at this. I have no idea of the 20 timeframe and sequence of this. I could see it here, but I just 21 don't recall.

22 Q Well, under the Wbb investment operating agreement the 23 NRA at some point would have to pay $6.5 million, right?

24 A If they proceeded with the purchase of the property.

25 Q Right.

1 A I knew we were never going to do that.

2 Q But you had already had the NRA cut a check for
3 $70,000, right?

4 A The 70,000 was to hold it until possibly we found a
5 different buyer for that house.

6 Q So, the NRA was already partial owner of that house at 7 that point, is that your testimony?

8 A No. No.

9 Q So, it was money to hold the house until the NRA found
10 another buyer for it?

11 A Like earnest money. We were parallel to all the other 12 discussions, we were trying to find a donor that could buy the 13 house or some other solution to the property. Earnest money was 14 to hold the property until we could figure that out.

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

895

1 Q You were trying to find an NRA donor to purchase the 2 house?

3 A Could be a friend.

4 Q And it turned out that Sonya and Rick were freaking out
5 because they saw the house was in the last name of Bill Winkler;
6 right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q -- was in the last name Winkler.

9 And by signing the operating agreement with WBB
10 Investments, you knew that you were violating NRA policies;
11 right?

12 A I wouldn't characterize it that way, but I -- I knew we 13 weren't going to have those materials needed to cut the check.

14 Q You knew, Mr. Phillips, that you were not acting in 15 accordance with NRA policies; right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Thank you.

18 Mr. Phillips, has the NRA --

19 The NRA's demanded that you pay money back to it,
20 right?

21 A What?

22 Q Has the NRA ever demanded that you pay money back to 23 it, since you retired?

24 A You need to tell me more.

25 Q Sure.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

896

1 Has the NRA made any request that you, Wilson Phillips,
2 repay money to the NRA, since you retired?

3 A I really -- I really don't recall what you're talking
4 about.

5 Q Right. So you are unaware of any request by the NRA
6 that you repay money to it.

7 A You need to tell me more.

8 Q Has the NRA ever contacted you, after you retired, and 9 asked you to pay money to it?

10 A I don't recall that happening.

11 Q Okay. And the NRA has never sued you; correct?

12 A I don't recall that, either, no.

13 Q Okay.

14 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, Mr. Phillips.

15 THE WITNESS: Okay.

16 MS. CONNELL: I'll pass the witness.

17 THE COURT: Why don't we --

18 Can we take a short break before you do your cross?

19 MS. ROGERS: Yes.

20 THE COURT: All right, we'll take a short break.

21 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

22 (The jury left the courtroom.)

23 (The witness stepped down.)

24 (Recess.)

25 THE COURT: Mr. Phillips, why don't you come back

1 up. Thanks.

2 (The witness resumed the stand.)

3 (Pause.)

4 COURT OFFICER: The Court's ready for the jury?

5 (The Court nodded.)

6 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

7 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

8 THE COURT: Okay. Have a seat, please.

9 Any cross-examination from the defense?

10 MS. ROGERS: Yes.

11 Let me just make sure my microphone is working.

12 Can everyone hear me?

13 JUROR NO. 3: Barely.

14 MS. ROGERS: Let's turn it up.

15 Can everyone hear me now? How this?

16 (Jurors nodded.)

17 MS. ROGERS: Okay.

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION

19 BY MS. ROGERS:

20 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Phillips.

21 A Good afternoon.

22 Q Just before we broke, the Government asked you if you
23 had paid back any money to the NRA. Do you recall that?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Did you receive any money from WBB Investments?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

898

1 A No.

2 Q Did you receive any money from Member Drive?

3 A Member Drive? Yes.

4 Q Yes. Was that NRA money?

5 A No.

6 Q Did you receive any money from Grassroots Behavioral
7 Services?

8 A No.

9 Q Did you receive any money from Ackerman McQueen?

10 A No.

11 Q Did Tony Makris provide you any money that came to him
12 under those supplemental invoices?

13 A No.

14 Q Did you receive any money from 501c Solutions?

15 A No.

16 Q Did you receive any money from Kyle Weaver?

17 A No.

18 Q You also testified, Friday, that you wore two hats
19 during your time at the NRA; CFO and treasurer, right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And as CFO, you reported to Wayne LaPierre, the CEO;
22 right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q But as treasurer, your reporting obligations ran
25 directly to the board; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

899

1 A That's right.

2 Q And in your capacity as treasurer, you delivered a
3 formal report to the board three times a year; right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And you also made reports to the Finance Committee of 6 the board, right?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q And, in fact, you delivered reports to the Finance
9 Committee about every month; right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And occasionally, you would also attend meetings of the 12 Audit Committee and report to that committee; right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q So, between full board meetings and Finance Committee
15 meetings and Audit Committee meetings and monthly reports
16 between meetings, would it be safe to say that during your time
17 as treasurer, you addressed the NRA Board hundreds of times?

18 A That's correct.

19 MS. CONNELL: Objection; leading, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Excuse me?

21 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry.

22 Objection; leading.

23 THE COURT: I was going to ask, are you taking the 24 position that this is an adverse witness?

25 MS. ROGERS: Well, the witness is being sued by the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

900

1 Government for alleged breaches of duty to my client and the
2 Government is asking that he be ordered by this jury that he
3 pay damages to my client. So if that's not an adverse
4 witness, I don't know what is.

5 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, may we approach?

6 THE COURT: Um ...

7 MS. CONNELL: It's fine.

8 THE COURT: Overruled.

9 BY MS. ROGERS:

10 Q All right. Mr. Phillips, in your capacity as 11 treasurer, you also communicated with the NRA's outside
12 auditors; right?

13 A Right.

14 Q Those were independent accountants, hired by the NRA to 15 make sure its financials were in order; is that fair?

16 A That's fair.

17 Q And before you came to work at the NRA, you were also a
18 Certified Public Accountant at a major audit firm; right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q PricewaterhouseCoopers, right?

21 A Well, it was "Pricewaterhouse" at the time.

22 Q Right.

23 And in the early years of your tenure at the NRA, the 24 NRA's outside auditor was Pricewaterhouse; right?

25 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

901

1 Q Now, that wasn't because of your prior relationship;
2 that was --

3 A No.

4 Q -- just a coincidence, right?

5 And in the later years, the NRA switched to an auditor
6 called "RSM"; is that right?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Would you agree with me that both Pricewaterhouse and 9 RSM are both reputable accounting firms?

10 A Yes.

11 Q You trusted them to get the NRA audits right, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And one reason you trusted Pricewaterhouse and RSM was 14 that you knew CPAs abide by a code of ethics, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q A CPA has to be honest and candid, right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Being candid means that if you see something that's 19 important or might be important, you disclose it; right?

20 A Yes.

21 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

22 This is speculative, about what CPA's did or didn't 23 do. This is part of the allegations of the case. We should 24 keep it specific to the --

25 MS. ROGERS: The witness was a CFO and a CPA, and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

902

1 he supervised CPAs.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 BY MS. ROGERS:

4 Q And, Mr. Phillips, would it be fair to say, in layman's
5 terms, that a duty of candor means, if you see something, you
6 say something?

7 A That's fair.

8 Q And the NRA was entitled to trust its CPAs to do that,
9 right?

10 A That's right.

11 Q All right. Let's talk about the Audit Committee --

12 Oh, one more thing: Mr. Phillips, did you retain your 13 CPA license during your time at the NRA?

14 A Did I obtain it or retain it?

15 Q Did you keep up your license?

16 A I kept it up for a period of time and then let it
17 lapse.

18 Q Okay. We talked about the Audit Committee a minute
19 ago. Charles Cotton was on the Audit Committee during your time
20 at the NRA, right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Herb Langford?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Curtis Jenkins?

25 A I don't remember Curtis Jenkins, but it's possible.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

903

1 Q All right. Well, let's talk about those committee
2 members you do remember from the times you addressed the Audit
3 Committee.

4 Would you agree with me, Mr. Phillips, that Charles
5 Cotton is a man of integrity?

6 A Yes.

7 Q What about Herb Langford?

8 MS. CONNELL: Objection.

9 THE COURT: Hang on.

10 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry, your Honor.

11 I said, "objection" to the characterization of 12 Mr. Cotton and whether he acted in conformity thereto.

13 THE COURT: That -- I don't think that was the
14 question.

15 Go ahead.

16 Q The question was: In your view, Mr. Phillips, was 17 Charles Cotton a man of integrity?

18 A Yes.

19 Q What about Herb Langford?

20 A Yes.

21 Q What about the other members of the Audit Committee
22 that you remember?

23 A Yes.

24 Q I'm going to ask the same question about the accounting
25 staff that you relied on when you made your reports to the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

904

1 board. Do you think Rick Tedrick is a man of integrity?

2 A Yes.

3 Q What about Sonya Rowling?

4 A Yes.

5 Q What about Mike Erstling?

6 A Yes.

7 Q If those people took the same oath you took today to 8 tell the truth, you would expect them to tell the truth; right?

9 A I would.

10 Q And you have the same view of Craig Spray.

11 A I don't know Craig that well.

12 Q In 2017, as you prepared to retire, you hired an 13 executive search firm to find your replacement; right?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And Craig was the candidate you selected, right?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q And an NRA vendor called McKenna and Associates helped 18 to recruit and hire Craig, too; right?

19 A I believe so.

20 Q Craig was a former naval officer; is that right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And he also had been the CFO of a major public company,
23 right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

905

1 A Two.

2 Q -- you thought Craig --

3 Sorry. Go ahead.

4 A Two, I believe.

5 Q Two.

6 A Um-hmm.

7 Q And you thought Craig would be a good CFO and treasurer
8 for the NRA, right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Because you thought he was honest?

11 A Sorry?

12 Q Because you thought he was honest, right?

13 A I missed that. I'm sorry.

14 Q Well, you thought Craig would be a good CFO, and you
15 thought he was honest; right?

16 A Honest, yes.

17 Q And you would expect him --

18 If he took the same oath you took today, to tell the 19 truth, you would expect Craig Spray to testify truthfully;
20 right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q So Craig didn't become treasurer right away, did he?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q He started as CFO in the spring of 2018, right?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

906

1 Q And would you agree it would be fair, Mr. Phillips,
2 that your plan was to mentor him and ease him in, in the CFO
3 role, so that he would be prepared to put on the treasurer hat,
4 too, when you retired that fall?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And one of the first things you did -- right? -- was,
7 you introduced Mr. Spray to the NRA's major vendors?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Including Ackerman McQueen, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Do you recall traveling to Ackerman's offices with 12 Craig Spray in June 2018?

13 A I don't remember the date exactly, but I do -- around
14 that time, I took him up to introduce him to --

15 Q And you introduced him to Bill Winkler, right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And Melanie Montgomery?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And Angus McQueen?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And Tony Makris?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And do you recall learning that within hours of that
24 meeting, Ackerman McQueen demanded that Craig Spray be fired?

25 A I heard that that was -- I didn't hear it directly, but

907

1 yes.

2 Q It would be fair to say that Mr. Spray, during that
3 meeting, asked some questions about what Ackerman was billing
4 for?

5 A It would be fair to say.

6 Q Did you think any of the questions he asked were in any
7 way inappropriate?

8 A No.

9 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor; hearsay.

10 Q But you --

11 THE COURT: Overruled.

12 Q But you heard that Ackerman demanded that Mr. Spray be 13 let go after he asked those questions, right?

14 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

15 Sorry.

16 THE COURT: That one --

17 MS. ROGERS: I'm going to ask how it impacted the 18 witness' thinking.

19 THE COURT: Well, I'll sustain the objection
20 because I think that's being offered for the truth of the 21 matter asserted and it wasn't -- he wasn't an eyewitness.

22 Q Well, I'll ask you this, Mr. Phillips: Did you fire
23 Craig Spray after that meeting?

24 A No.

25 Q Did you think he should be fired?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

908

1 A I didn't know the facts.

2 Q You didn't think him asking questions about Ackerman
3 McQueen was a fireable offense, right?

4 A Right.

5 Q All right. Did you ever hear Ackerman McQueen --
6 During your time at the NRA, did you ever hear Ackerman
7 McQueen referred to as the "Deep State"?

8 A No. I had another -- I had another person -- or not
9 person, but type of person -- that I considered the Deep State.

10 Q But did you ever hear anyone else call Ackerman the 11 "Deep State"?

12 A No.

13 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

14 (No audible ruling.)

15 Q All right. Let's look back at Plaintiff's Exhibit 506,
16 which is tab 33 in your binder.

17 (Image displayed.)

18 Q You testified earlier that this is a contract between 19 NRA and Ackerman McQueen.

20 Now, it's true, isn't it, Mr. Phillips, that under the 21 contract, Ackerman McQueen was not allowed to bill the NRA for 22 any old expense it wanted? Right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And let's look at section 3-A on page 6.

25 THE COURT: Sorry; what document are we on?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

909

1 MS. ROGERS: So it's section 3-A on the numbered
2 page 6, and my colleague is going to bring up this language
3 on the screen.

4 A 3-A. I have it.

5 Q Yeah.

6 (Image modified.)

7 Q And I'm going to direct your attention, Mr. Phillips,
8 to where it says that out-of-town travel expenses shall require
9 prior written approval in accordance with the written procedures
10 established by the executive vice president or his designee.

11 Do you see that?

12 A I see that.

13 Q So this contract required Ackerman to follow the NRA's
14 written travel expense policies, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And you're not aware of any written procedures
17 established under this contract that deviated from the NRA's
18 internal travel expense policies, right?

19 A I'm not aware.

20 Q But Ackerman didn't follow the NRA's internal travel
21 expense policies, right?

22 A I don't think so.

23 Q Ackerman violated this contract, in your view; right?

24 A This (indicating) is their -- I'm looking at their 25 contract -- right? -- terms. That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

910

1 Q Okay.

2 Now, you testified earlier that receipts and backup
3 proving what Ackerman was expensing were retained at Ackerman's
4 offices and were being sent along to the NRA with the invoices;
5 right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q But they were subject to audit, and I think you
8 testified that Rick Tedrick, each year, would visit Ackerman's
9 offices and audit those invoices; right?

10 A I thought he was going once a year, but it was less
11 time than that. And then I went twice.

12 Q Do you recall whether Mr. Tedrick made written reports
13 to you about what he was fining during throws visits?

14 A I think he did.

15 Q Do you recall whether Mr. Tedrick reported to you that 16 there was no business-purpose backup for any of Tony Makris's
17 expenses?

18 A I don't recall that.

19 Q Do you recall whether Mr. Tedrick reported to you that 20 Tony Makris appeared to be cutting and pasting receipts and 21 changing the dates?

22 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor; hearsay.

23 A No, I --

24 THE COURT: Hang on.

25 THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry. Sorry about that.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

911

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 Q All right. Now, it's true, Mr. Phillips, isn't it,
3 that after Craig Spray joined the NRA --

4 MS. ROGERS: Well, strike that.

5 Q Would you agree with me that after Craig Spray joined 6 as CFO in the spring, he began to promote more in-person
7 meetings and collaboration among the NRA accounting staff?

8 A Yes.

9 Q All right. And by the summer of 2018,
10 compliance-training seminars were being rolled out at the NRA;
11 right?

12 THE COURT: "Rolled out," did you say?

13 MS. ROGERS: Were being -- had begun. Had
14 commenced.

15 THE COURT: All right. The transcript was saying
16 "ruled out."

17 MS. ROGERS: Okay. Roll -- that's a big
18 difference, so I'll ask it freshly:

19 Q Mr. Phillips, do you recall that by the summer of 2018,
20 as you prepared to retire and Mr. Spray prepared to step into 21 your chair, that compliance-training seminars were happening at
22 the NRA?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q All right. And I'd like to put up one of those; that 25 is, PX 2567.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

912

1 THE COURT: Is this in evidence?

2 MS. ROGERS: It's one of plaintiff's exhibits and I
3 don't think it's been admitted yet, but we presume plaintiff
4 has no objection; and the NRA has no objection.

5 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, one second, please.

6 THE COURT: Sure.

7 MR. FLEMING: No objection from me.

8 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I don't believe there's a
9 foundation to put this in with this witness, and we would 10 object on that basis.

11 THE COURT: Well, the question is to the 12 admissibility of the document.

13 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Hang on.

15 Foundation is only relevant if you're looking for a
16 foundation as a basis for getting it into evidence. So
17 if -- the question is maybe a different question, whether 18 they can question him about it if he doesn't know anything
19 about it, but the document's either admissible or it isn't.

20 MS. CONNELL: It is admissible if the proper
21 foundation is laid, your Honor.

22 There are a number of -- we don't object that this
23 is a business record of the NRA, but we're not sure that 24 this witness can speak knowledgeably about it.

25 THE COURT: That's a different question.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

913

1 MS. CONNELL: Yes.

2 THE COURT: But you don't object to the document
3 being -- you agree that the document is admissible in 4 evidence in this case.

5 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: So it's admitted.

7 MS. CONNELL: Okay, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Now, whether you can object to 9 questions that they ask is up to you, but the foundation is 10 not relevant -- is not the issue anymore.

11 MS. CONNELL: Okay, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: What is the document?

13 BY MS. ROGERS:

14 Q Mr. Phillips, you testified a moment ago that you
15 remember compliance-training seminars happening at the NRA in 16 the summer, as you prepared to retire; right?

17 A Yes.

18 (Image displayed.)

19 Q Do you recognize this as a presentation from one of 20 those seminars?

21 A I don't, but it could be.

22 Q Okay. And I'll show you a couple of slides to see if 23 that refreshes your recollection.

24 MS. ROGERS: Let's show him one.

25 (Pause.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

914

1 (Images displayed.)

2 Q Do you recall compliance training, that summer, on 3 transactions implicating covered persons that might raise the 4 appearance of a conflict of interest?

5 A I didn't attend one of these, but this looks familiar.
6 I flipped through. It's kind of the graphics that look familiar
7 to me.

8 Q I understand.

9 And this was summer of 2018, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And then, in July 2018, a couple of months before he 12 was scheduled to step into your role as treasurer, Craig Spray
13 had a massive heart attack; right?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q Did you have discussions about staying on longer as 16 treasurer so that Craig could recover?

17 A I had one discussion about staying on longer, but it
18 was -- it was not related to Craig's healing.

19 Q Now, during the same period, on July 30th, 2018,
20 several whistleblowers in your department came forward to the 21 Audit Committee with some process concerns about vendor
22 expenses; right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And do you recall attending that Audit Committee
25 meeting?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

915

1 A Not for that part of it.

2 Q Would it be accurate to say, Mr. Phillips, that you
3 were at the meeting but you stepped out of the room when the 4 whistleblowers gave their presentation?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And shortly after that meeting, isn't it true that
7 letters went out under your signature to vendors, including
8 Ackerman and MMP, demanding documentation for their expenses?

9 A I saw some of those.

10 Q And you testified, Friday, that the reason you made
11 your HT Solutions disclosure in 2018 was that the NRA was 12 correcting things? I think that's what you said.

13 Can you tell the jury a little bit --

14 MS. CONNELL: Objection to the characterization of 15 the evidence.

16 (No audible ruling.)

17 MS. ROGERS: Sorry. I don't mean to interrupt the
18 witness.

19 Q But please answer.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 A I'm sorry; you gotta repeat the question.

22 Q Sure.

23 Well, I was trying to recall your testimony because it
24 was a little unclear in my realtime transcript. Ms. Connell
25 asked you, Friday, why you made that HT Solutions disclosure in

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

916

1 2018.

2 A Right.

3 Q Can you tell the jury why?

4 A Yes.

5 We were -- we were in the process of taking a fresh
6 look at a lot of things and just out of an abundance of caution,
7 or compliance, I made that discussion -- or made that
8 disclosure -- even though I didn't think it was necessary.

9 Q All right. Mr. Phillips, in your role as treasurer,
10 when you interfaced with the auditors every year, you would sign 11 a representation letter to them; right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And you represented, year to year, to the auditors that 14 you were not aware of any fraud or allegations of fraud at the 15 NRA; right?

16 A That's right.

17 Q And you represented that related-party transactions
18 were being properly disclosed, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you represented that you were one of the people
21 responsible for the NRA's internal controls, right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And you represented that, as far as you were aware,
24 there were no deficiencies in the internal controls; right?

25 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

917

1 Q And in sum and substance, you made the same
2 representations to the board that you were making to the
3 auditors; right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Just as you were entitled to rely on Pricewaterhouse
6 and RSM to be candid, would you agree with me, Mr. Phillips,
7 that the board had a right to rely on you to be candid in your
8 reports?

9 THE COURT: Hang on.

10 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Grounds?

12 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, that's asking him to --
13 to, basically, opine on a -- an ultimate issue in this case, 14 something that's for the jury, and usurp the role of the 15 jury.

16 THE COURT: Sustained.

17 MS. ROGERS: I'm going to try to ask this a
18 slightly different way:

19 Q Mr. Phillips, did you think that you had a duty to be 20 candid with the board?

21 A Yes.

22 Q All right. Mr. Phillips, Ms. Connell asked you about
23 testimony you gave at the bankruptcy proceeding, in a deposition
24 where you answered questions from the Government (indicating)
25 and you also answered questions from the NRA; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

918

1 A Yes.

2 Q And Ms. Connell recalled that you took the Fifth
3 Amendment in response to some of those items, right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And those included questions about your fiduciary duty
6 to the NRA, right?

7 A I don't recall all the questions; there were a lot of
8 questions.

9 Q Do you recall that you took the Fifth Amendment in 10 response to questions about Ackerman McQueen?

11 A Again, a lot of questions, a lot of different
12 depositions; I don't remember which were which.

13 Q Well, you did testify a minute ago that one reason you
14 invoked your Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination
15 was that you thought there was a chance of criminal liability;
16 right?

17 A Those were your words.

18 Q Well, they were Ms. Connell's words, but I'm asking you
19 now in my words.

20 A I'm sorry.

21 Q You invoked your Fifth Amendment right because you
22 thought that a truthful answer to those questions raised a risk
23 of criminal liability, right?

24 A Well, we had been hearing about the attorney general of 25 New York coming after the NRA; we didn't know what that meant,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

919

1 and my advice from counsel was to take advantage of my Fifth
2 Amendment right.

3 Q And I want to be clear, Mr. Phillips, that I'm not
4 asking you to divulge the advice from your lawyer, but I do want
5 to know: Would you agree with me, sir, that if there was a
6 crime here, it was a crime against the NRA?

7 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 MS. ROGERS: I have nothing further.

10 CROSS-EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. CORRELL:

12 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Phillips.

13 A Good afternoon.

14 Q How are you?

15 A I'm good, thanks.

16 Q Good. I just have a couple of questions.

17 First, on Friday you testified, I believe, that 18 Mr. LaPierre was in the room when you signed your consulting
19 agreement?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Where was that room?

22 A It was the -- the -- where the board met, and I can't 23 remember what -- what hotel or where it was.

24 Q Can you remember what town it was in; what city?

25 A I really don't. If --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

920

1 Q Do you remember how many of the 76 directors were in
2 the room?

3 A Most of them.

4 Q And was the room loud?

5 A No.

6 Q Was the board in session?

7 A No.

8 Q Were people milling about?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And can you tell the jury exactly where Mr. LaPierre
11 was standing at the time you signed your agreement?

12 A I can't.

13 Q Was he standing anywhere near you?

14 A I don't know that for sure.

15 Q Did you show him --

16 A We were -- we were -- I sat next to him in -- in the 17 board meeting, but we were -- it was a break; we were standing
18 up and, kind of, huddled and he could have been on the other
19 side of the room (indicating).

20 Q Okay. And did you show him the agreement before you
21 signed it?

22 A No.

23 Q Did you show him the agreement after you signed it?

24 A I don't recall that, but it's possible not.

25 Q Okay. Did Mr. LaPierre --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

921

1 Let's switch subjects: The $70,000 check. Did
2 Mr. LaPierre direct you to send that check?

3 A No.

4 Q Did he know about that check?

5 A I doubt it.

6 Q You had no conversation with him about the check before
7 it went out?

8 A No. It -- this was -- I -- I was talking to the --
9 Melanie Montgomery and Angus McQueen.

10 Q And the fact is, he was on the road at the time;
11 correct? Can you recall that?

12 A I don't -- I don't recall, but I don't deny that. He
13 was always on the road.

14 Q When you say, "He was always on the road," how much
15 time --

16 A Traveling.

17 Q -- how much time did he typically spend on the road?

18 A A lot. I remember, one year we counted back and it was 19 46 nights, giving a speech or being somewhere out of town.

20 Q All right.

21 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, Mr. Phillips.

22 THE WITNESS: Um-hmm.

23 THE COURT: Okay. We're changing up the order.

24 MR. FLEMING: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Moving from cleanup to third.

2 MR. FLEMING: Yes. Yes, moving up in the order.

4 CROSS-EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. FLEMING:

6 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Phillips.

7 A Good afternoon.

8 Q How are you?

9 A I'm all right, thank you.

10 Q Do you recall testifying about Ackerman McQueen?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Now, Ackerman McQueen was a relationship that started
13 in 1999; is that right?

14 A I would have thought earlier, but I -- I don't have the 15 information in front of me.

16 Q At least 1999?

17 A At least 1999.

18 Q Okay. And was it one of the NRA's largest 19 relationships?

20 A Yes.

21 Q A valuable relationship?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And so, it was in existence at least 16 years of the 24 time Mr. Frazer began at the NRA; is that right?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 MS. CONNELL: Objection to leading, your Honor.

2 The defendants have a joint defense here.

3 MR. FARBER: Objection, your Honor.

4 Can we approach, please? I think counsel's

5 comments are inappropriate before the jury.

6 THE COURT: Yeah, I --

7 Do you claim adversity, or is there any real need

8 to do it this way?

9 MR. FLEMING: Well, your Honor, I'm really just 10 trying to cut through it all. I think there probably is 11 some adversity, but not necessarily specifically between 12 Mr. Frazer and Mr. Phillips. But certainly, in the -- in 13 the -- on the defense side, it's not --

14 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.

924

1 Q Now, Mr. Phillips, you previously testified about
2 sending out an audit letter in 2018 to Ackerman McQueen, do you
3 recall that testimony?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Can you describe what you did?

6 A Well there was -- there were letters asking for 7 information. Pretty much all I remember.

8 Q Sent to Ackerman?

9 A To Ackerman McQueen, yes.

10 Q And do you recall how Ackerman McQueen reacted to that
11 letter?

12 A I don't.

13 Q Do you recall that they were upset and maybe pushed
14 back on your -- on the NRA's requests?

15 A I believe -- I believe so. I read something that was a
16 pushback.

17 Q And ultimately is it not true -- Tell me what happened
18 to the Ackerman McQueen NRA relationship ultimately?

19 A Well, I don't know firsthand.

20 Q Do you have any understanding of what happened?

21 A I think it disintegrated.

22 Q And terminated, ended?

23 A Ended.

24 Q And this is, even though as you referred to it, you
25 called Mr. LaPierre and Mr. Makris brothers on questioning from

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

925

1 Ms. Connell, right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And that occurred after 2015 when Mr. Frazer started,
4 is that right?

5 A That's right.

6 Q Now, if you could cull up tab 35.

7 THE COURT: Tab 35.

8 THE WITNESS: Is it white?

9 THE COURT: No. The black binder.

10 MR. FLEMING: This is in evidence.

11 THE COURT: PX 3589.

12 Q Mr. Phillips, do you recall being asked questions about 13 this document today?

14 A I do.

15 Q And if I could direct your attention to the paragraph
16 numbered two, the second line where it says, "All service fee
17 billing under this services agreement for talent and employees
18 who work through AMC". Do you see that?

19 A No. About how far down in the paragraph is it?

20 Q It's actually the fourth line or the second line of the 21 body paragraph.

22 THE COURT: Which?

23 A I'm lost.

24 Q Withdraw the question. Let me instead direct your 25 attention to paragraph number three.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

926

1 A Okay.

2 Q Do you see in the body of paragraph 3 where it refers
3 to the words "third parties"?

4 A (Examining). Yes.

5 Q Okay. And in the last line on that page it refers to 6 "AMC, third party NRA contracts", do you see that?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And if we could flip to the next page it lists -- Well,
9 do you see Oliver North's name there?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Is he described as a third party contract?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And this agreement, what's the date of this agreement?

14 A May 6th, 2018.

15 Q And were you aware that Mr. Lieutenant Colonel North
16 entered into a contract with AMC in May of 2018?

17 A I don't recall that.

18 Q Do you recall any efforts by Mr. Frazer to hunt down
19 that contract?

20 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor. Leading.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 A I don't.

23 MR. FLEMING: Now, could we cull up PX 655.

24 Q Before you do that, Mr. Phillips, as treasurer what is 25 your role with respect to the NRA's Form 990?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

927

1 A Well, I had staff that worked for me that prepared it
2 and reviewed it and then we would have it for signature in
3 November every year and file it.

4 Q Did you sign it usually?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Every year?

7 A I don't think so.

8 Q Most years?

9 A Most years.

10 Q Okay.

11 MR. FLEMING: Ali, can you cull up 2008 NRA 990 not 12 for the jury yet.

13 THE COURT: You have to do something with the 14 screens. They want to show a document to the witness but 15 not the jury.

16 MR. FLEMING: This is at JFX 29 for identification.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 THE WITNESS: What kind of binder is that in?

19 THE COURT: It's not going to be in the binder. It
20 will be on the screen.

21 MR. FLEMING: Can we scroll down to the beginning
22 of the 990.

23 Q So, Mr. Phillips, do you see what's in front of you?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And what is it?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

928

1 A (Examining). It's the 2008 Form 990.

2 Q Okay. And do you recall this document?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Is this a document you signed?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Is this a document that is produced in the ordinary
7 course of the business of The National Rifle Association?

8 A Yes.

9 MR. FLEMING: I would move its admission.

10 MS. CONNELL: No objection, your Honor.

11 MR. FARBER: No objection.

12 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

13 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

14 MR. FLEMING: You can show the jury.

15 THE COURT: It's admitted.

16 MR. FLEMING: If we go to Schedule J, please.

17 Q Mr. Phillips, are you familiar with Schedule J of a
18 Form 990?

19 A Not -- not in detail. You can refresh my memory by 20 looking at it. I've seen a lot of them.

21 Q Okay. Take your time. Look at it.

22 A Okay.

23 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
24 request of counsel.)

25 A Okay.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

929

1 Q And do you recall -- Well, can you describe what a
2 Schedule J displays or reveals?

3 A I would say it had to do with compensation as a side
4 item, it is compensation, but it covers things like how is 5 compensation set and what elements of compensation there are.

6 Q Okay. And do you recall testifying earlier under 7 examination from Ms. Connell that in or around 2008 additional 8 disclosures were going to be required on the Form 990?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q Do you recall the 2008 was the first of those years?

11 A I do now, because I've seen it here but yes.

12 Q Okay. Now if I could direct your attention to the 13 question 1(a), in particular the line, first class or charter
14 travel.

15 A Yes.

16 Q What did the NRA say with respect to that box?

17 A Well, they checked the box, which means that they
18 provided that benefit to certain employees.

19 Q Okay. And can you tell us what the NRA check with 20 respect to question 1(b)?

21 A That the organization follow a written policy regarding 22 first class or charter travel.

23 Q Okay. Now, what if anything did you do to reach the 24 conclusion that the NRA followed a written policy?

25 A I don't recall.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

930

1 Q Did someone else do this for you?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Whom was that?

4 A There are two people. One was Emily Cummins, who was 5 the main preparer of this, and I think this is a year where an
6 RSM tax partner, nonprofit tax partner Jim Sweeney participated
7 also.

8 Q Okay. Now do you recall being asked questions today by 9 Ms. Connell about the NRA's travel policy --

10 A Yes.

11 Q -- for employees?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. And do you recall being asked questions about 14 the desires to keep it low cost and that makes sense and 15 questions of that nature?

16 A Yes.

17 Q All right. Now, do you recall the travel policy,
18 expressing that it sets forth business travel and entertainment
19 expenses normally encountered in business situations, but that 20 it cannot address every conceivable situation? Do you recall
21 that?

22 A No. I don't recall it, but it's what I would think it
23 said.

24 Q And in that circumstance, where you have a situation
25 that is not typical, do you recall that the policy, at least the

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

931

1 NRA expressed that you should use and exercise sound business
2 judgment and common sense when deciding travel questions?

3 A Yes.

4 Q All right. And your testimony is that Ms. Cummins and
5 Mr. Sweeney determined that that was a written policy covering
6 first class or charter travel, is that right?

7 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor. It's leading
8 and speculating on what two people not here are thinking.

9 MR. FLEMING: It's concluding what his testimony
10 just was.

11 THE COURT: Not quite. I mean, I think you took it
12 another step and so sustained. It was a leading question.

13 Q Did you -- What was your opinion of Ms. Cummins'
14 abilities?

15 A Very high. She was detailed oriented. She loved this 16 990, which most accountants would rather not see in every year,
17 but she liked it.

18 Q She was a tax accountant, wasn't she?

19 A Yes.

20 Q As opposed to a financial statement accountant?

21 A Yes.

22 Q She had worked at Ernst & Young, is that right?

23 A I don't recall that.

24 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor. I'm sorry.

25 THE COURT: It's been asked and answered. Go

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

932

1 ahead.

2 Q What was your opinion of Mr. Sweeney?

3 A He was the best there was in the business.

4 Q And is that just you talking or are you referring to 5 his reputation, you know, more wide than just you?

6 A Right.

7 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Overruled.

9 A Yeah. He was -- For one thing RSM at the time was 10 predominant, because it was based in Washington, D.C., did most 11 large nonprofit audits and tax in the world. He was the head of 12 their tax practice.

13 Q Okay. Thank you. So, Mr. Phillips, with respect to 14 Schedule J for subsequent years, 2009, 2010, '11, '12, '13, '14, 15 do you recall ever changing the Schedule J representation that 16 the NRA followed a written policy with respect to charter or 17 first class travel?

18 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

19 A I don't recall --

20 THE COURT: Hang on.

21 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

22 THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer.

23 A I don't recall ever changing that.

24 Q And the NRA, am I correct, disclosed by checking the 25 box that it engaged in charter travel for the years that it

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

933

1 engaged in travel charter, is that right?

2 A Yes.

3 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Sustained on the leading still. But 5 it's not a high crime misdemeanor, but try to adjust it if 6 you can.

7 Q Now, do you recall being asked questions about the 8 NRA's procurement policy today?

9 A I think it came up. I don't remember specifics though.

10 Q Okay. Does the NRA's procurement policy pertain to 11 invoices that the NRA receives?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Are you sure about that?

14 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 A Ask the question again.

17 Q Does the NRA's procurement policy, which relates to 18 procurement, does it not, services and contracts, things of that 19 nature, is that right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q Does the procurement policy and its requirements
22 pertain to NRA invoices that it receives?

23 A Well, eventually you get an invoice.

24 Q Right. But there are two separate things, is that
25 right?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

934

1 A Yes, they are two separate things.

2 Q Okay. And do you need officer signoff and all those
3 other requirements that you need for a contract say of over
4 $100,000 to pay an invoice?

5 A There is a distinction to meet.

6 Q Okay. Have you ever approved invoices for services
7 that you did not contract for?

8 A Yes.

9 Q So, can you tell us what the process is for that
10 approval as you do it?

11 A Well, let's take one of the large items of procurement.
12 NRA sends out magazines to 5 million people every month and buys
13 paper by the trainload. And there is a procurement policy there 14 to go through, check out what the market rates are for paper and 15 then execute.

16 Q Well, when you get an invoice about a contract that you
17 don't know about, do you do any due diligence?

18 A Ask the person who is responsible for the contract if 19 you don't know what it's about.

20 Q Okay. Do you confirm that they have received the 21 services that they contracted for?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And do you confirm that the payment is the correct
24 payment?

25 A Someone does that.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

935

1 Q Okay. But do you ever do that?

2 A I might or if it was something I'm familiar with.

3 Q When you're satisfied with those answers, will you
4 approve an invoice at that point?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Even though you don't know about the contract itself,
7 right?

8 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

9 A It's possible.

10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

12 THE COURT: You can answer.

13 THE WITNESS: Okay.

14 A It's possible if I know the parties and know what the 15 topic is and I pretty much know who had done diligent work.

16 Q Now, do you recall being asked questions about Mr.
17 Mercurio?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay.

20 MR. FLEMING: Sorry, your Honor. I just need to 21 find the document.

22 Q It would be exhibit -- tab 32, which is PX 1804.

23 A I have it.

24 MR. FLEMING: Hold on. I think page 7 through 15
25 was admitted.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

936

1 THE COURT: Which tab is this?

2 MR. FLEMING: Thirty-two, I believe.

3 MS. ROGERS: This is a document which only a
4 portion was admitted, right?

5 THE COURT: Just the contract part, pages seven to 6 15. That's the part you're going to go to, Mr. Fleming.

7 MR. FLEMING: I'm a little unclear. Is the first
8 e-mail in or no?

9 MS. CONNELL: No, just pages seven through 15.

10 MR. FLEMING: I'll withdraw those questions then.
11 I was under a misimpression.

12 Q Now --

13 A Are we leaving that page?

14 Q We're going to leave that page. My apologies. Do you
15 recall being asked questions about Sandy Froman?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Who is Sandy Froman?

18 A Sandy is a former president of the NRA. She's -- I
19 think she had some roles with the NRA Foundation also.

20 Q You were asked questions today about her having a, you
21 know, sort of a payment relationship with the NRA since 2013?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. Now, you were also asked whether you took that
24 transaction to the audit committee for pre approval. Do you
25 remember the question?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

937

1 A Yes.

2 Q Are you familiar with The New York Not-For-Profit
3 Revitalization Act?

4 A No.

5 Q Okay. Do you recall Mr. Frazer in January of 2016
6 getting the board to adopt a new conflict of interest and 7 related-party transaction policy?

8 A I do recall that.

9 Q Do you recall the audit committee being authorized,
10 duly authorized to examine and evaluate related-party
11 transactions?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And that was in January of 2016, that's your
14 recollection?

15 A It's about the right timeframe.

16 Q Okay. And --

17 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor, to the 18 leading.

19 THE COURT: Maybe a second late but going
20 forward --

21 MS. CONNELL: I apologize.

22 THE COURT: -- yes.

23 Q Now you were also asked that or you were asked question
24 about that Ms. Froman's relationship was not taken to the audit
25 committee until 2017. Do you recall the question?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Fleming

938

1 A No. Repeat that.

2 Q Repeat the question?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Do you recall being asked by Ms. Connell today about
5 whether the -- Ms. Froman's relationship was not taken to the 6 audit committee until 2017?

7 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor. That's not --
8 I don't believe that was the question.

9 THE COURT: Again, the record will reflect what it
10 is. I don't know off the top of my head. I'll let counsel
11 ask if he recalls it that way. You can answer.

12 THE WITNESS: Okay.

13 A Yes.

14 Q Do you have any understanding about whether that 15 transaction was taken to the audit committee earlier than that?

16 A To the audit committee, I don't know for sure, but I
17 don't expect, unless there was a cross member of the audit
18 committee that was also on the finance committee, that it would 19 have been reported to them.

20 MR. FLEMING: I have nothing further. Thank you
21 very much.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. FARBER: Excuse me, your Honor. This appears
24 to have come apart.

25 THE COURT: The court officers are eyeing you very

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

939

1 nervously. It's state equipment.

2 MR. FARBER: May I proceed, your Honor?

3 THE COURT: Yes, please.

4 CROSS EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. FARBER:

6 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Phillips.

7 A Good afternoon.

8 Q Can you hear me?

9 MR. FARBER: Is this microphone working, your
10 Honor?

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 Q So, Mr. Phillips, you were asked some questions on 13 examination by Ms. Connell and then by Ms. Rogers, who stepped 14 out a moment ago, about you asserting your Fifth Amendment
15 privilege in the bankruptcy, in a deposition in connection with 16 a bankruptcy proceeding. Do you recall those questions?

17 A I do.

18 Q You gave a deposition in this case, didn't you,
19 Mr. Phillips?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. For how many days?

22 A At least two days. I think there may have been a time
23 I was called back too.

24 Q And during that deposition you were asked questions by 25 Mr. Wang, Ms. Connell's colleague?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

940

1 A Yes.

2 Q And by lawyers for the other parties in this case, do
3 you recall that?

4 A I recall that.

5 Q Okay. And you were asked about the same matters that 6 were -- you were questioned about over the past couple of days
7 in this case, correct?

8 A Yes.

9 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

10 A Correct.

11 THE COURT: On leading?

12 MS. CONNELL: On leading, your Honor, and on 13 characterizing it as being the same issues.

14 THE COURT: I'll sustain on the leading. If you
15 can open it up a little bit.

16 MR. FARBER: Okay.

17 Q Mr. Phillips, do you recall the subject matters you
18 were asked about during that deposition?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. What did they relate to?

21 A The business of the NRA. I'm not -- (pause).

22 Q The questions that you were asked, how did they compare
23 to the issues in this case?

24 A Oh, I think that was a different -- it was a
25 bankruptcy.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

941

1 Q I'm talking now, Mr. Phillips, about the questions that
2 you were asked in your deposition in connection with this
3 litigation.

4 A Same.

5 Q When you say "same", what do you mean by "same"?

6 A They were about the same questions that I got earlier.

7 Q Earlier in this trial?

8 A In this trial, yes.

9 Q And did you assert your Fifth Amendment privilege in 10 response to those questions?

11 A No.

12 Q Okay. And, Mr. Phillips, were you a party to the 13 bankruptcy case?

14 A No.

15 Q And I believe that during her questioning Ms. Connell
16 asked you about whether you thought you might be subject to 17 criminal liability. Do you recall that testimony?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. Did you believe you had done anything wrong?

20 A No.

21 Q Okay. Now, when Ms. Rogers was asking you questions a
22 few minutes ago, she mentioned the fact that you had been a CPA
23 for a major public accounting firm.

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. What is a CPA? First of all, what do those

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

942

1 initials stand for?

2 A It's certified public accounting.

3 Q And what is a certified public accountant?

4 A Well, they have different roles, but basically it's
5 a -- it's like a recognition of someone whose had an accounting
6 degree from college and then had experience before. I think
7 it's still a four day test. And it covers basic accounting and 8 disclosure rules as well as other aspects of -- of business
9 accounting.

10 Q And did you take that test at some point, Mr. Phillips?

11 A Yes. I took it the year I graduated from college.

12 Q Okay. What college was that?

13 A Wake Forest.

14 Q And did you major in something at Wake Forest?

15 A Majored in accounting.

16 Q And you took that exam. Did you pass that exam?

17 A Finally, yes.

18 Q And Ms. Rogers also asked you about others at the NRA,
19 other employees at the NRA who were certified public
20 accountants. Do you recall that testimony?

21 A I do.

22 Q Okay. And I believe she mentioned a few individuals.
23 Mr. Tedrick?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Was he a certified public accountant?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

943

1 A Yes.

2 Q And Ms. Rowling, was she a certified public accountant?

3 A I believe so.

4 Q And Mr. Erstling, was he a certified public accountant?

5 A Yes.

6 Q When you were hired by the NRA, I believe you testified
7 earlier that was in approximately 1993, is that correct?

8 A I think it was 1992, but it could be 1993.

9 Q My recollection is probably wrong. In the early 90's
10 when you were hired --

11 A Yes.

12 Q -- what was the size of roughly the financial services
13 division when you were hired?

14 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

15 A Outside the scope.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 A Maybe 20 to 30 people.

18 Q And did it change over time when you were --

19 A Well, it grew over time to I don't know what it is 20 today but probably between 40 and 60 when you count everybody.

21 Q And when you say probably 40 or 60 when you count
22 everybody, at what point in time? Was that at the point in time
23 when you retired?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And do you recall how many CPAs the NRA had when you

LAS

1 were hired?

2 A Zero.

3 Q So you were the first?

4 A I was the first.

5 Q Okay. Who hired Mr. Tedrick?

6 A I did.

7 Q Who hired Ms. Rowling?

8 A I think Mr. Tedrick did the initial search and I hired,
9 along with him, hired Ms. Rowling.

10 Q What about Mr. Erstling?

11 A Same.

12 Q So, Mr. Phillips, I want to talk to you for a few
13 minutes about the post-employment consulting agreement that you
14 were questioned about.

15 MR. FARBER: Can we get Plaintiff's Exhibit 2493 in 16 evidence, which is up on the screen.

17 Q Mr. Phillips, this is a consulting agreement. This is 18 your consulting agreement, correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 MR. FARBER: And could we go to the last page of 21 this, please. Excuse me. The next to last page at the 22 bottom.

23 (Continue on the next page.)

24

945

1 Q So, you see, there's a signature line at the bottom
2 there, Mr. Phillips?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Who signs that on behalf of the National Rifle
5 Association?

6 A Pete Brownell.

7 Q And who was Pete Brownell at the time?

8 A He was the president.

9 Q Okay. And as president, was he also a member of the 10 board of directors of the NRA?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And did you sign this agreement, Mr. Phillips?

13 A I ...

14 No. Well, maybe on the next page, but right here
15 (indicating), this is my printed signature.

16 (Image scrolled.)

17 A Yeah, I did sign it (indicating).

18 Q And on whose behalf did you sign this agreement?

19 A My own.

20 Q Were you acting on behalf of the NRA in connection with 21 this agreement?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay.

24 MR. FARBER: And could we just scroll down a little 25 further in this agreement?

2 Q And there's another signature there. Who's signature
3 is that?

4 A Carolyn Meadows'.

5 Q And what was Ms. Meadows' role at the NRA at the time,
6 if you recall?

7 A I believe she was first vice president at the time.

8 Q Was she also, in that capacity, a member of the board
9 of directors of the NRA?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And I believe you were asked some questions about
12 whether you, personally, presented this agreement to the NRA's
13 Audit Committee. Do you recall those questions?

14 A I do.

15 Q Okay. And you were asked whether you made sure that 16 the board of directors of the NRA approved this agreement. Do
17 you recall that?

18 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

20 A I don't recall the question at the time.

21 Q The question was: You were asked some questions about
22 whether this agreement was -- excuse me -- whether you made sure
23 that the board of directors of the NRA approved this agreement.
24 Do you recall those questions?

25 A I do.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

947

1 Q Okay. Was it your role, as the person entering into
2 this agreement with the NRA, to present that to the board of
3 directors?

4 A No.

5 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Overruled.

7 Q And were you represented by an attorney in connection
8 with this agreement?

9 A I was.

10 Q Okay. And who was that attorney?

11 A His last name is -- is Dycio. It's Mark Dycio. It's,
12 like, D-y-c-i-o.

13 Q And was the NRA represented by an attorney?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Was it the same person?

16 A Steve Hart.

17 Q And so, who did Mr. Hart represent in connection with 18 that?

19 A NRA.

20 MR. FARBER: Can we scroll up to the first
21 clause -- the first page -- please?

22 Excuse me. The second page. I'm sorry.

2 MR. FARBER: Stop.

3 BY MR. FARBER:

4 Q So, under "B," where it says, "Consulting services to 5 be provided" and that -- it says: "Consultant agrees to perform
6 the following services throughout the term of this agreement on 7 an ongoing basis."

8 MR. FARBER: Could we scroll up, please?

10 MR. FARBER: I'm sorry; down, so we could see more

16 MR. FARBER: Small one and small two.

18 MR. FARBER: Thanks.

20 Q And following that, it says: "Consultant shall provide 21 advisory services and the benefit of its expertise in all
22 appropriate areas including but not limited to areas related to

949

1 You were asked some questions, Mr. Phillips, about --
2 by Ms. Connell (indicating) -- about services that you provided
3 pursuant to this agreement. Do you recall those questions?

4 A I do.

5 Q Okay. Were you ever asked by NRA personnel to do
6 anything under this agreement that you refused to do?

7 A No.

8 Q And were you available to perform the services that are 9 outlined here (indicating) during the period of time that this 10 consulting agreement was in effect?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Were you asked, during the period of time of this 13 consulting agreement, to meet with counsel for the NRA?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. And that was the lawyers from the Brewer
16 (indicating) firm; is that correct?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q Okay. Did you meet with them, as requested?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Did they ask you questions?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Did you answer all their questions?

23 A I did.

24 Q Okay.

25 And do you recall, Mr. Phillips, yesterday [sic], being

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

950

1 asked some questions about whether, at some point, you bought a
2 home in Dallas? You recall that?

3 A I do.

4 Q Okay. And you were asked questions about the costs for 5 your travel from Dallas to Virginia and back. Do you recall
6 those questions?

7 A I do.

8 Q Okay. And you were asked whether or not the NRA paid
9 for those travel costs. Do you recall that, Mr. Phillips?

10 A I do.

11 Q And you testified, when Ms. Connell was examining you,
12 that -- that -- you said, "We looked at it." Do you recall
13 that?

14 A Yes.

15 Q What did you mean by that?

16 A Well, I knew -- I knew that I had work in Dallas and I
17 had work in Virginia and that they were about equal in terms of 18 time spent on the work there, and I was just trying to estimate,
19 was it fair to -- I was going to be traveling to one place or 20 the next, however we set it up.

21 Q Okay. And so, when you said there's "work in Dallas,"
22 you were asked some questions earlier today about your meetings
23 with Ackerman McQueen. Do you recall that?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. And did Ackerman McQueen have an office in

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. Did you go to Ackerman McQueen meetings on 4 behalf of NRA in Dallas?

5 A I don't -- I don't recall the timing of when I was an
6 employee and when I was not, for that, but I'm pretty sure I had
7 some meetings with Ackerman McQueen in Dallas; at their office
8 there.

9 Q Okay. Did they also have an office in Oklahoma?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And did you go there, as well?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. And can you describe any of the other business
14 that you --

15 Do you recall any other specific business you did for 16 the NRA in Dallas?

17 A Well, there were several things that were, kind of,
18 looking toward the future and one was a distance learning. It's 19 basically since COVID, and everybody knows what it is, but at 20 the time, we were working on a -- a -- a distance-learning type
21 of activity for people that were related to the gun industry.
22 That was -- that was one thing.

23 The -- there -- there were -- in Dallas, there were 24 lots of people that were -- that worked for -- worked for our 25 foundation or knew people that we might want to call to bring in

1 to work with us, and the NRA has a -- has a person --
2 Advancement has a person on-site in Dallas, but I worked with 3 him sometime to go out and help cultivate some of these other
4 relationships.

5 Q Mr. Phillips --

6 THE COURT: Counsel, just a heads-up: We're a
7 couple of minutes away from the time to break, so when --

8 MR. FARBER: This would be a convenient time, if 9 you'd like.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 So we'll break for the day. We're going to 12 reconvene at 9:30 tomorrow. See you all bright and early.

13 And the typical instructions: Don't talk about the 14 case. Don't research the case.

15 And I will see you then.

16 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

17 (The jury left the courtroom.)

18 THE COURT: All right, see you all tomorrow.

19 (To witness) Same instructions.

20 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor?

21 MR. FARBER: Just, have you decided what message --
22 what reply -- to give to the juror?

23 I'm sorry. Have you decided what reply to give to 24 the juror? Because I worry that this is obviously something
25 on her mind.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

953

1 THE COURT: Yeah.

2 Look, what we've told her is, "Keep us informed"
3 and then, if anything happens, we'll -- you know -- we'll
4 deal with it then.

5 My view is is that if she needs to go, she needs to 6 go, and she'll -- I don't -- my -- my lean is is that we
7 just keep going forward rather than halting the whole trial
8 to wait for her to come back, since we won't know. So I
9 don't anticipate demanding that she stay here if the worst
10 happens with the family member.

11 So, if anybody has any different views on that,
12 I'll certainly listen.

13 MR. FARBER: No, I have no different view, your 14 Honor. I was just inquiring as to what she was told.

15 THE COURT: That would be my plan, is that if she 16 gets a call requiring her, in my judgment, to be with 17 family, then that's why we have alternates.

18 MR. FARBER: Thank you, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Anybody have a different view?

20 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I am not speaking to 21 that. I have one other issue I wanted to raise with you.

22 THE COURT: Okay, so that's the plan.

23 What's next?

24 MS. CONNELL: I just wanted to let the Court know:
25 One of our designated witnesses for this week is Christopher

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 Cox, the former head of the NRA's ILA. He is only available
2 on the 18th and the 19th, and so we may ask to take him out
3 of order, interrupt. He cannot come in the following week.

4 So we're going to try and play it by ear and plan,
5 but I wanted to let the parties and the Court know that.
6 I'm sorry for any inconvenience.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 Well, my practice, and I think most, is, especially 9 for nonparties, we can make accommodations. So we'll --

10 You know, it's your -- it's still part of your 11 case, so you can decide if you want to put a witness that 12 you're talking to on hold. I would strongly prefer, though,
13 it be after a witness is done rather than stopping in the 14 middle of, say, cross-examination.

15 MS. CONNELL: I agree, your Honor.

16 I just want to make sure he's able to be fully 17 questioned before he leaves. So ...

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right, see you tomorrow.

19 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 (To witness) Same instructions about not discussing
23 your testimony.

24 (Whereupon, the matter was adjourned to Wednesday,
25 January 17, 2024 at 9:30 a.m.)

1 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, everyone.

2 The jury's ready.

3 I'll ask for a time check as the week goes on, just 4 to see where we are.

5 Just an observation that we seem to be not getting
6 through as many witnesses as planned, so just sort of bear
7 that in mind as you're -- as you're moving along. There's 8 still five weeks or so to get everything done, but never too
9 early to focus on your time budgeting.

10 All right. I think we're all set -- are we? -- to 11 get going?

12 (Counsel nodded.)

13 THE COURT: All right, let's get the jury.

14 MR. FARBER: Your Honor, do you want Mr. Phillips
15 on the witness stand now (indicating)?

16 THE COURT: Yes, please.

17 Beat me to it.

18 W I L S O N P H I L L I P S, a defendant herein, called as 19 a witness by the plaintiff, having been previously duly
20 sworn/affirmed, resumed the witness stand.

21 (Pause.)

22 COURT OFFICER: Court ready to receive the jury?

23 (The Court nodded.)

24 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

1 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Have a seat.

2 Welcome back.

3 Everybody all set?

4 Okay. Mr. Farber, you may continue.

5 MR. FARBER: Thank you, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Do you have your mic on? There you go.

7 MR. FARBER: I do. Is it working?

8 JUROR NO. 3: Not too well.

9 MR. FARBER: How's this?

10 THE COURT: No. It doesn't seem to be on.

11 MR. FARBER: Hmm ...

12 (Pause.)

13 MR. FARBER: Is this any better? Well ...

14 THE COURT: Is there an on-off switch on that 15 thing?

16 (Court officers assisted Mr. Farber.)

17 MR. FARBER: How's that, your Honor?

18 THE COURT: Better, in that it's now on.

19 (Laughter.)

20 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Thanks, officers.

22 MR. FARBER: May I proceed?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 CROSS-EXAMINATION CONTINUED

25 BY MR. FARBER:

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

959

1 Q Good morning, Mr. Phillips.

2 A Good morning.

3 Q Yesterday, and I guess it was on Friday, you were asked
4 some questions by Ms. Connell about the span of your career at 5 the NRA and I think you testified that you were hired -- you
6 began work -- in approximately the early '90s; is that correct?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Okay. Were you a member of the NRA at that time?

9 A Not when I was hired.

10 Q Did you become one afterwards?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Are you one today?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. Did you know -- did you know Mr. LaPierre at the 15 time that you were hired or before you were hired?

16 A No.

17 Q Now, when you testified when Ms. Connell asked you
18 questions at the start of your examination, she asked you
19 whether you were CFO and treasurer of the NRA from 1993 until 20 2018, and you said that was correct. You recall that testimony?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Were you on leave at all during that period of time?

23 A No.

24 Q Did you have any medical leaves?

25 A I had an injury on a bicycle. I wouldn't call it

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

960

1 "leave," but I was out for the better part of a month.

2 Q What happened?

3 A I was going fast, downhill; hit a pothole; front --
4 front wheel got stuck there and just flipped me over
5 (simulating).

6 Q And what injuries did you suffer as a result of that?

7 A I have a plate in my head here (indicating) and broke
8 both these bones (indicating) -- compound fracture -- and just 9 scrapes and cuts everywhere else.

10 Q And you said you were out for a period of time. Do you
11 recall approximately how long it was?

12 A Well, I was in the hospital, I think, for about ten
13 days; and after that, just recuperating, so maybe another week.

14 Q And approximately when was that accident?

15 A About ten years ago.

16 Q And after you went back to work, did you notice any 17 after-effects from the injury?

18 A I didn't, but I had friends and co-workers that said
19 they thought I was having trouble sequencing things. I wasn't 20 sure what that meant, but putting things in order.

21 Q Okay. And when Ms. Connell was asking you questions
22 the other day about your contract with Ms. -- excuse me -- about
23 the NRA's contract with Oliver North, in response to one
24 question you said something about, "That's the memory issue
25 there." Do you recall that testimony?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

961

1 A I do.

2 Q What were you referring to?

3 A Well, I have -- just -- just recently -- have noticed
4 it's -- I think -- I've been doing some tests at the hospital,
5 but it's memory recall and sometimes that manifests itself as --
6 you know, everybody has had it -- where you walk into a room and 7 can't remember why you were there and that sort of thing, but
8 it's more exaggerated, more frequent.

9 Q And are you being treated by a doctor at the moment?

10 A I'm in a -- a program with Baylor University Hospital
11 and University of Texas Southwestern, in their memory centers.

12 Q Now, Mr. Phillips, when Ms. Connell asked you about 13 your retirement in 2018, she asked you whether you were 14 terminated. Do you recall that?

15 A I do.

16 Q Okay. And what was your response?

17 A I was not; I retired.

18 Q Okay. Why did you retire at that time?

19 A I had set 70 years old as a good time to retire, and 20 that's right around the time of my 70th birthday.

21 Q How old are you now?

22 A Seventy-five.

23 Q And, Mr. Phillips, we talked a little yesterday about 24 the changes in the NRA over time. Can you describe for the jury
25 how, over the course of your years -- 25-or-so years -- as

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

962

1 treasurer and CFO, the NRA grew?

2 A Yes.

3 I was -- I was hired during Wayne LaPierre's first --
4 first year as chief executive officer and so the -- there was 5 the organizational things going in terms of growth in
6 membership, and all of that, that were -- were happening and I
7 was part of that. We also had very few qualified accountants in 8 the accounting area, so we had to get people hired and build a
9 program there to -- to recognize the larger organization.

10 Q And what was the difference in membership,
11 approximately, from when you started at the NRA to when you
12 left?

13 A Yeah. I don't remember the initial, but it's 14 somewhere, a million to a million and a half when I started and 15 five million when I retired.

16 Q And what about revenue at the NRA; how did that change
17 over time?

18 A Well, it -- it grew tremendously. I just can't -- 19 can't tell you the numbers, but they were a significant amount
20 of -- of revenue.

21 MR. FARBER: Can we get pulled up on the screen --
22 I'd like to have an exhibit, just for
23 identification only at the moment, WPX 27?

24 THE COURT: You just need to coordinate with 25 turning the screens off.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

963

1 (Pause.)

2 THE COURT: Okay. What's the exhibit number?

3 MR. FARBER: WPX 27.

4 THE COURT: "WPX"?

5 MR. FARBER: Yes.

6 THE COURT: -"27"?

7 THE WITNESS: Do I have that?

8 THE COURT: No.

9 MR. FARBER: Not yet.

10 BY MR. FARBER:

11 Q Okay, Mr. Phillips --

12 MR. FARBER: And can we just scroll down to the 13 bottom of the page, so Mr. Phillips can view this?

14 Q Mr. Phillips, do you recognize this exhibit?

15 A I do.

16 Q What is it?

17 A It was a document that I prepared. My retirement was 18 coming up soon and I wanted to do a presentation to the board --
19 to the NRA Board -- about the changes during the period from 20 when I was hired till the current time, five years ago.

21 MR. FARBER: And can we scroll back up to the top,
22 please?

23 Q And, Mr. Phillips, how did you go about preparing this
24 document?

25 A The source was the audited annual report from 1991 and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

964

1 then the 2018 financial statements.

2 MR. FARBER: Your Honor, I offer WPX 27.

3 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I don't know that we've 4 ever seen this.

5 (To counsel) Does this have a Bates number and was
6 it produced in discovery?

7 MR. FARBER: It was -- it was provided as one of 8 our exhibits a long time ago --

9 MS. CONNELL: Your --

10 MR. FARBER: -- when the exhibits were exchanged.

11 MS. COUTU: It was also produced in discovery.

12 THE COURT: It was produced in discovery?

13 MS. COUTU: Yes. Yes.

14 MS. CONNELL: I don't see a Bates number on it.

15 MR. FARBER: Judge, there's no requirement that we 16 put Bates numbers on exhibits. That's not a basis for an
17 objection.

18 THE COURT: No. The question is whether it was 19 produced during the discovery process, and typically, when 20 it's produced in the discovery process, there are numbers on 21 the bottom; right?

22 MR. FARBER: Yes, that's correct.

23 This version -- I don't know if this version has 24 numbers on them, but we're representing to you that it was.

25 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'll take that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

965

1 representation. That's fine.

2 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted.

3 MR. FARBER: Can we scroll back up to the top,
4 please?

5 Thank you.

6 (Image displayed.)

7 BY MR. FARBER:

8 Q So, Mr. Phillips, now referring to what's now in 9 evidence as WPX 100, what was the -- looking at the first 10 line -- what was the NRA's cash and cash equivalents in 1991 as 11 compared to 2018?

12 A Well, it was -- it was a growth of -- from $194,000 to
13 $39 million.

14 Q And what was the change in investments?

15 A It went from 80 -- 80 million -- in 1991 to 133 million
16 in 2018.

17 Q And what was the change in total assets?

18 A Total assets increased by $202 million.

19 Q And if you go down to the bottom of the "Assets"
20 column ...?

21 (Image scrolled.)

22 MR. FARBER: Scroll back up, please?

23 (Image scrolled.)

24 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

25 Q -- you see, there's a line that says "Net Assets."

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

966

1 What does "Net Assets" mean?

2 A Oh, I see it. It's -- it's basically assets less the
3 liabilities associated.

4 Q So what were the NRA's net assets in 1991, before you
5 started?

6 A 2,769,000.

7 Q And what were they in 2018?

8 A 144,733,000.

9 MR. FARBER: And could we just scroll down, so we 10 have the "Statement of Revenue and Expenses"?

11 (Image scrolled.)

12 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

13 Q And what was the change in member dues from 1991 to 14 2018?

15 A It went from 52,000 -- I mean $52 million -- a year to 16 $170 million a year.

17 Q And how much did total revenues increase over that
18 period of time?

19 A $325 million.

20 Q And then, under "Expenses," there are a number of 21 categories. "Legislative Programs, Public Affairs,
22 Publications; Safety, Education and Training; Grant Programs;
23 Shows and Exhibits" are some of them. What are those expenses?

24 A Those are the program areas, mostly, of -- of -- of 25 what NRA did. For example, "Public Affairs" would have been

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

967

1 public outreach; "Publications" were the magazines that went to
2 five million members every -- every month.

3 Q And are those in furtherance of the NRA's mission?

4 A Yes.

5 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

6 We've gone far outside the scope, and we've been
7 leading for some time.

8 THE COURT: I agree in --

9 I think the scope, I'm okay with; but try to change
10 the nature of the questions, if you can.

11 MR. FARBER: Certainly, your Honor.

12 Q There's a line that says, "Grant Programs." What are 13 grant programs?

14 A The -- the -- the NRA, as well as the NRA Foundation, 15 both, would make -- make grants for -- for various types of 16 things to -- to -- mostly, to cover local programs of shooting,
17 safety, all of those things.

18 Q And what does "Safety, Education and Training" refer
19 to?

20 A Kind of what it says. It's -- there's -- NRA's roots
21 were based in education about shooting, safety, hunting and all
22 those skills.

23 MR. FARBER: Could we scroll down to "Assets Not in 24 Financials," please?

25 (Image scrolled.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

968

1 MR. FARBER: Thank you.

2 Q Under "Assets Not in Financials," there's a heading,
3 Document Planned Gifts. What are planned -- excuse me --
4 "Documented Planned Gifts." What are planned gifts?

5 A Well, planned gifts are where people will leave a
6 contribution to the NRA in their will; and "documented" means
7 they've documented that to the NRA, so that there's a record in 8 place for that.

9 Q And what were the documented planned gifts at the NRA
10 when you started working there?

11 A Zero.

12 Q And in 2018 ...?

13 A $308 million.

14 Q There's a -- the next line there is "Building Value."
15 Where was the NRA's headquarters when you started working there?

16 A It was in Midtown in Washington, D.C.

17 Q Okay. And where was it when you left?

18 A It was in Fairfax, Virginia.

19 Q Approximately when did the NRA move there?

20 A It was one of the -- one of the first jobs that I was 21 handed when I was hired was to have to -- we had to deal with 22 the American Disabilities Act [sic] and the building downtown in 23 D.C. had lots of problems and we were going to have to get out
24 to make the changes. But it was everything from size of 25 elevators to a lot of core-type services. So we decided to

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

969

1 consolidate the various locations we were in one big building
2 somewhere in the D.C. area, and so I kind of led a search to
3 find that and we -- we bought the building that they're
4 currently in today.

5 Q And what was the change in membership in the NRA from
6 '91 to 2018?

7 A Oh, there we go (indicating).

8 Two and a half million members to 5.2 million members.

9 Q Okay.

10 MR. FARBER: Thank you. We can take that exhibit
11 down.

12 (Image removed.)

13 Q Mr. Phillips, yesterday, you were asked some questions
14 about an entity called WBB Investments? Do you recall that?

15 A I do.

16 Q And asked questions about the potential purchase of a
17 house in Dallas. Do you recall that?

18 A I do.

19 Q Okay. Why was the NRA looking into buying a house in 20 Dallas?

21 A Well, there had been a number of threats on Wayne
22 LaPierre's life. He traveled a lot, but he needed a place to 23 have a -- have a safe place that -- if he needed to go there.

24 Q And there was some testimony yesterday about a $70,000
25 check. Why did you have the NRA write a $70,000 check?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

970

1 A Well, at the time, we wanted to -- we hadn't worked out
2 exactly how the house, or a place, would be either bought or
3 found a place to use it and this was one possibility. In my
4 mind, if we could find a donor or someone that may purchase it
5 and make it available, we wanted to keep that option open. So
6 the $70,000 was the equivalent of earnest money, to keep the 7 purchase in -- potentially -- in place.

8 Q And when you say, "this was one possibility," what were 9 you referring to by "this"?

10 A That particular house.

11 Q And you said, "We hadn't worked out the details."
12 Who's the "we" that you're referring to?

13 A Well, it was -- I think, Angus McQueen was -- was 14 involved; I had become aware of it, and I can't remember who 15 else was there.

16 Q What was Mr. McQueen's role?

17 A He -- he led the PR firm.

18 Q What was his role in this project --

19 A In this --

20 Q Please let me finish, so we don't talk over each other,
21 Mr. Phillips.

22 A I'm sorry.

23 Q What was Mr. McQueen's role in this project to search
24 for a potential house for Mr. LaPierre?

25 A I -- I think he led -- led it. At least, he was

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

971

1 significant in trying to resolve this -- the problem with
2 where -- of Mr. LaPierre's safety.

3 Q And you used the phrase "earnest money." What is
4 earnest money?

5 A Earnest money's like a deposit, and it's called that in
6 real estate. It just basically says you're prepared to go
7 through with the deal. Otherwise, you may lose your deposit.

8 Q Did that transaction for that house ever get done?

9 A No.

10 Q And what happened to the $70,000?

11 A Came back to the NRA.

12 MR. FARBER: Can we pull up PX 2570, which is in 13 evidence, please?

14 (Image displayed.)

15 Q So, Mr. Phillips, this is --

16 MR. FARBER: Could we go back to the screen before,
17 please, with the full page?

18 (Image scrolled, then modified.)

19 Q So, Mr. Phillips, what is this first page on 2570?

20 A It's the Contract Review Signature Sheet for 21 purchase -- I mean -- for contract with a company called
22 HomeTelos.

23 Q And it says, under "Negotiated by, T. Hayes and W.
24 Phillips." Do you see that, Mr. Phillips?

25 A I do.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

972

1 Q And who is T. Hayes?

2 A That's Tony Hayes, who was the head of IT for NRA.

3 Q So, when you say he was the head of IT for the NRA,
4 what were his responsibilities?

5 A He was a division director for anything that had to do
6 with systems and computer operations.

7 Q And there are some other signatures on this page.
8 Under "Legal Review," do you know what name is there?

9 A I'm sorry; repeat that?

10 Q So there are some other signatures --

11 A Yeah.

12 Q -- on this Contract Review Signature Sheet,
13 Mr. Phillips. Do you see that?

14 A I do.

15 MR. FARBER: And maybe, if we could just blow up
16 the bottom half of this -- this document -- please ...?

17 (Image modified.)

18 Q So the first one, next to "Legal Review," there's a 19 name. Do you know who that is?

20 A Yes. He's one of NRA's internal attorneys.

21 Q And who is -- what's the name?

22 A "Michael Blaz."

23 MR. FARBER: And then, if we could scroll down a
24 little, please ...?

25 (Image scrolled.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Cross/Farber

973

1 Q Then, under "Financial and Business Review," are those
2 your signatures?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. And then, next to "Executive Vice President,"
5 who's signature is there?

6 A I can't tell.

7 Q Okay. How about "President" and "Vice President"?

8 A Yeah. Allan Cors is First Vice President and the --
9 the President is Jim, or James, Porter.

10 Q And were they members of the board of directors of the
11 NRA?

12 A Yes; they were President and First Vice President.

13 MR. FARBER: So, can we scroll down to the next
14 page, please?

15 (Image scrolled.)

16 MR. FARBER: If you can stop there ...?

17 (Image fixed.)

18 Q Okay. This is the Business Case Analysis Sheet.

19 MR. FARBER: And if we could scroll down a little 20 bit, please, under --

21 (Image scrolled.)

22 MR. FARBER: Stop.

23 (Image fixed.)

24 Q Under "Analysis," who prepared this analysis,
25 Mr. Phillips?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 A I was -- I was part of it and Tony Hayes, I'm pretty
2 sure, but within his department, I don't know.

3 Q So Ms. Connell asked you some questions about whether
4 HomeTelos had any expertise in the information technology area.
5 Do you recall that?

6 A I do.

7 Q Okay. Can you read to the jury what it says under item
8 2, please?

9 A It says: "HomeTelos has been successful in providing
10 'management' and other hunter-support services to state wildlife
11 agencies. They also have extensive experience in consolidating
12 realtime basis data, such as regulations, key dates, etcetera,
13 already available in various sites on the Web, to enable a
14 one-stop view of pertinent information. They will also 15 integrate some other elements, such as GPS mapping tools, into 16 the tools available to our hunters."

17 Q Okay. And why did the NRA need these services at this
18 time?

19 A NRA had a -- had a program to try to match people who 20 wanted a particular kind of hunt with the outfitter and -- and 21 then track it through and have feedback at the end of the hunt
22 that would be available for -- for people. This is similar to 23 a -- something for the wildlife agencies that they had worked 24 on.

25 (Continued on next page.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cross-Phillips-Farber

975

1 Q And can you read the third item under analysis?

2 A "When it was decided to bring the outfitters program
3 inhouse, we considered developing the support system inhouse or 4 having Ackerman McQueen incorporate the development into the" --
5 into the "IS with the new membership system for the next
6 15 months and Ackerman McQueen with web consolidation well into 7 2015. Incorporating the third party" to -- "into development of 8 a major system will house two beneficial attributes. One, it
9 will" keep -- "help compress the timeline for completion and it
10 will prove we can work with outside developers without losing
11 the common image in our web presence."

12 Q Thank you, Mr. Phillips. Now, you were asked some 13 questions about whether you disclosed the HomeTelos transaction
14 to the audit committee of the NRA board of directors before you
15 entered into it. Do you recall those questions?

16 A I recall the question.

17 Q Did you?

18 A Before I entered it?

19 Q Yes.

20 A I don't think so.

21 Q Okay. Why not?

22 A Just the timing and availability.

23 Q Did you believe you were required to?

24 A Oh, no, I didn't think it was a related party that we 25 were contracting with.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

976

1 Q And when you say you didn't think it was a related
2 party, what do you mean by related party --

3 A Well --

4 Q Let me finish my question please, Mr. Phillips.

5 A Sorry.

6 Q What do you mean by related party?

7 A Well, we had -- a related party would be someone close
8 where it would affect your -- your judgment in -- or affect your 9 performance in carrying out a contract. Generally that means a 10 family member or some other definitions that I can't recall at 11 the moment.

12 Q Was there a definition that you were referring to?

13 A I was -- I was -- I was referring to -- I asked some 14 people inhouse, some of our inhouse attorneys what qualifies.
15 And I heard family member.

16 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor, on hearsay.
17 To the extent the question and the answer are producing 18 hearsay, especially regarding privileged matters, if we're 19 going to open privilege.

20 MR. FARBER: It's his state of mind, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Well, first of all, the objection
22 should come from the other side.

23 MS. ROGERS: Well --

24 THE COURT: This --

25 MS. ROGERS: -- the NRA does object to questions

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

977

1 that would call for the content of legal advice rendered by
2 NRA attorneys to NRA executives in their official capacity.

3 THE COURT: Sustained.

4 MR. FARBER: I'll move on. We can take this
5 exhibit down.

6 Q You recall you were asked some questions by Ms. Connell
7 about the house that you currently live in. Do you recall that?

8 A I do.

9 Q Okay.

10 MR. FARBER: Can we get up Plaintiff's Exhibit 732,
11 please.

12 THE COURT: Is that in evidence?

13 MR. FARBER: Yes.

14 Q And this is 4602 Gilbert Avenue in Dallas, Texas?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. That's your -- Is that your current home?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. Who owns that home?

19 A I do.

20 Q With anybody else?

21 A No.

22 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

23 MR. FARBER: Your Honor, I would like to pull up
24 for identification only a document that I've marked as WPX
25 100.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

978

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. FARBER: Would your Honor like a copy?

3 THE COURT: Sure.

4 Q So, Mr. Phillips, could you --

5 MR. FARBER: Maybe we could blow this up a little 6 bit.

7 Q I'm going to ask you, Mr. Phillips, to take a look at 8 this document, and let us know when you've looked at the first
9 page.

10 MR. FARBER: Go up to the top, please. And then 11 scroll down.

12 A (Examining).

13 Q Have you read the first page, Mr. Phillips?

14 A I read enough.

15 MR. FARBER: The second page, please.

16 Q Have you had a chance to review it, Mr. Phillips?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Do you know what the document that I've marked for 19 identification as WPX 100 is?

20 A Can you go back up. I think it's a deed. It's the 21 name I recognize as the previous owner. Yeah. It's a deed for 22 my current house.

23 MR. FARBER: Your Honor, I offer WPX 100.

24 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

25 MS. CONNELL: No objection, your Honor.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

979

1 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

2 THE COURT: It's admitted. You can turn the
3 screens back on. Thanks.

4 Q And if you look at the top paragraph, Mr. Phillips,
5 beginning with "That the undersigned Kimberly A. Comer, herein
6 referred to as grantor", do you see that paragraph?

7 A (Examiner). Yes.

8 Q Who is Ms. Comer?

9 A She's the previous owner of my property.

10 Q Okay. And it says, "These presence does hereby grant, 11 sell, convey onto", what's the name after that, Mr. Phillips?

12 A Wilson Phillips.

13 Q Okay. And the property that's referenced there, what 14 property is that?

15 A That's my current house.

16 Q The same one that we looked at in the other exhibit?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Thank you.

19 MR. FARBER: We can take that down.

20 Q And Ms. Connell also asked you about a yacht trip that 21 you took on a yacht that was owned by Mr. McKenzie. Do you
22 recall that?

23 A I do.

24 Q Okay. And who paid for that trip?

25 A I did.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

980

1 Q Okay.

2 MR. FARBER: Can we get pulled up WPX 16 for
3 identification, please. I've prepared a redacted version of 4 this.

5 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

6 MS. ROGERS: Thank you.

7 MR. CORRELL: Thank you.

8 MR. FLEMING: Thank you.

9 MR. FARBER: Your Honor, I have one for the Court
10 if you would like.

11 Q Mr. Phillips, do you see what's been marked for 12 identification as WPX 16?

13 A (Examining). I do.

14 Q Do you recognize it?

15 A I do.

16 Q What is it?

17 A It's a check from me to The Race to Erase MS.

18 Q What was that? Why did you write that check to The 19 Race to Erase MS?

20 A The Race to Erase MS organization had -- had a -- like
21 I forgot the word.

22 Q Charity auction?

23 A Yes. Thank you. Apologize. They had a charity
24 auction. And the original purchaser at the auction fell
25 through. And I became aware of this through Ms. McKenzie and

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

981

1 took -- took that problem off of MS, Race to Erase MS hands.

2 Q Is this a check that you wrote to pay for the yacht
3 trip?

4 A That's correct.

5 MR. FARBER: I'm not sure if this is already in 6 evidence in another form. I would offer this, Exhibit 16.

7 THE COURT: Hearing no objection.

8 MS. CONNELL: No objection, your Honor.

9 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

10 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

11 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

12 THE COURT: It's admitted.

13 MR. FARBER: Can we have it published to the jury.

14 (Whereupon the exhibit was published to the jury 15 panel.)

16 Q And, Mr. Phillips, on whose account is this check
17 drawn?

18 A It's from my personal account.

19 MR. FARBER: Thank you. We can take that exhibit
20 down.

21 Q Mr. Phillips, I would like to talk for a few minutes
22 about Ackerman McQueen. And you recall Ms. Connell asked you
23 whether they were primarily the PR agency for the NRA. Do you
24 recall that?

25 A I do.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

982

1 Q Okay.

2 MR. FARBER: Could we get Plaintiff's Exhibit 506
3 pulled up, please.

4 THE COURT: Is that in evidence?

5 MR. FARBER: Yes, it is, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 Q And, Mr. Phillips, this is the services agreement with 8 Ackerman McQueen that you were asked some questions about by --
9 by Ms. Connell, isn't that right?

10 A That's right.

11 Q Okay. So -- And I would like to direct your attention
12 down to item one on this contract. It says "services". Do you
13 see that?

14 A (Examining). I do.

15 MR. FARBER: Okay. If we could stop there, please.

16 Q So under (a), can you read for the jury what it says,
17 please at the top. Just the heading.

18 A Just the heading. "Public Relations/Political 19 Strategy/Strategic Marketing Services".

20 Q And read the next paragraph that follows, please.

21 A "Services which include a combination of generating 22 earned media, responsive public relations, political
23 consultation and strategic thinking to promote a positive image
24 of the NRA as described below."

25 Q And there are a number of bullets that follow that?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

983

1 A Yes.

2 MR. FARBER: Can we go to the next page, please.

3 Q And then there is a topic. Can you read topic B also 4 under services?

5 A Yes. Title is "Advertising/Creative Services".

6 Q And please read that -- that paragraph to the jury.

7 A "The services described below (with the exception of
8 media planning and placement, which is addressed separately as a
9 subcategory of this section) will be provided to NRA on a
10 project, job basis on the fair market value of the work as 11 determined by Ackerman McQueen and take into consideration among 12 other things the hourly rates of the personnel assigned to the 13 job and the time required to complete the job."

14 Q You can stop there, Mr. Phillips. Then there is some 15 bullets under, that is that correct?

16 MR. FARBER: You can scroll down and stop right
17 there.

18 A Yes.

19 Q So what's the first one? We won't go through all of 20 them.

21 A Speech writing services.

22 Q And the second?

23 A "Conceive, copyright and design produce and produce
24 local regional and national print and broadcast advertising" --

25 Q I'm sorry, Mr. Phillips.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

984

1 A That's all right. Do you want me to finish?

2 Q Please.

3 A -- "and other appropriate forms of communication to 4 present NRA's message."

5 MR. FARBER: Can we scroll down to the next heading
6 there.

7 Q What does that say?

8 A "Media Planning and Placement Services."

9 MR. FARBER: Scroll down further. Stop.

10 Q The next heading?

11 A "New Media Internet Services".

12 MR. FARBER: Keep going, please. Okay. We can
13 stop there. Thank you.

14 Q You've testified some about Angus McQueen, do you
15 recall?

16 A I do.

17 Q And what was Angus McQueen's role at Ackerman McQueen?

18 A He was the CEO, president, owner.

19 Q And can you describe his relationship with Mr.
20 LaPierre?

21 A They worked together a lot on all those topics that we 22 just read through.

23 Q Did you work with him as well?

24 A Yes. Some meetings.

25 Q And you also testified about Bill Winkler. Who was

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

985

1 Mr. Winkler?

2 A He was their CFO, Ackerman McQueen's CFO.

3 Q What was your view of him as a CFO?

4 A He was good. He's strong.

5 Q What about his organization, did you have a view of
6 that?

7 A I worked with a few of the people in his organization
8 that were extremely competent.

9 Q Were any of them CPA's?

10 A I don't know.

11 Q And you were also asked some questions by Ms. Connell
12 about why backup records were maintained, backup records for 13 expenses that were billed to the NRA were maintained at Ackerman
14 McQueen's facility instead of the NRA. Do you recall those 15 questions?

16 A I do.

17 Q Okay. And in one of your answers you said there were 18 some things that were sensitive. Do you recall that testimony?

19 A I do.

20 Q What did you mean by that?

21 A May have been some of the travel, recurring travel
22 destinations for Mr. LaPierre. It would be that. They were 23 sensitive that we wanted to keep them close.

24 Q And why would travel destinations of Mr. LaPierre
25 something that the NRA wanted to keep close?

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

986

1 A Well, his -- his security was really important to us
2 and we -- we wanted to keep -- anything we could do to make it
3 more secure, we would try to do.

4 Q And you also mentioned, when Ms. Connell was asking why
5 you did not feel comfortable or as comfortable having those
6 records at the NRA, that there were, I think the phrase you
7 used, were people that snooped through files. What were you
8 referring to by that?

9 A Well, it's a political organization, and we just have 10 to keep information on a need to know basis.

11 Q And when you say "it's a political organization", what
12 do you mean?

13 A NRA is -- it's -- it's -- part of its business is in 14 politics. So the nature of the people want to know as much as 15 they can.

16 Q Had there been any instances where there were leaks of 17 information?

18 A I -- I heard of some.

19 Q Is that a concern?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Was any of the information that was kept at Ackerman
22 McQueen kept there to keep it from the board of directors of the 23 NRA?

24 A No.

25 Q I think you also testified in response to some

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

987

1 questions either yesterday or on Friday that no one ever came to
2 you about a problem with the level of detail in the Ackerman
3 McQueen out-of-pocket invoices. Do you recall that testimony?

4 A No. Can you repeat that?

5 Q I believe you were asked whether anyone came to you and 6 expressed a concern about the level of detail or the lack of 7 detail in the Ackerman McQueen out-of-pocket invoices. Do you
8 recall that?

9 A I do.

10 Q Okay. And you testified that you do not recall that 11 happening?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Did Sonya Rowling ever come to you with such a concern?

14 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor. We're leading
15 again.

16 THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer.

17 A I can't recall a time.

18 Q I'm sorry. I didn't hear you.

19 A I can't recall a time that she did.

20 Q How about Mr. Erstling, did he?

21 A The same.

22 Q And what about Mr. Tedrick, did he?

23 A No.

24 Q I would like to go back to the topic of Under Wild
25 Skies.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

988

1 MR. FARBER: Can we pull up Plaintiff's
2 Exhibit 2650, which is in evidence. If we could scroll down
3 the page, please. Just go to the top of this page, please.
4 To the top, please. Thank you.

5 Q So, Mr. Phillips, this is one of the Under Wild Skies
6 invoices that you testified about the other day, correct?

7 A (Examining). Correct.

8 Q And you testified I believe that Under Wild Skies was a
9 TV show about African hunting, do you recall that testimony?

10 A I do.

11 Q When you say it was a TV show about African hunting,
12 can you describe in more detail what the show was about?

13 A It was hunting in Africa.

14 Q Okay. Can you describe what these hunts were?

15 A Yeah. The -- Maybe a good way to describe this is that 16 in filming this show, they would go for a couple of months to 17 various hunting preserves in Africa and film for different kinds
18 of hunts and kind of rotate some people through with Tony Makris
19 being kind of the constant. He was the MC. They would hunt.
20 They -- they talk about their hunts at the end of the day. It
21 was actually a well produced hunting show on television.

22 Q And what are the costs of hunt roughly?

23 A Yeah. If I were to go --

24 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor. This calls
25 for him to speculate on the costs of numerous hunts over

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

989

1 years, and he doesn't have a basis for it. No foundation
2 for the scope.

3 THE COURT: Overruled. If you know, you can
4 answer.

5 A It depends on what you're hunting.

6 Q What were some of the things that were the subject of 7 the hunts on the Under Wild Skies?

8 A Cape Buffalo is one. It's a very dangerous animal. I
9 can't tell you what they cost. It's an expensive hunt.
10 Thousands of dollars in trophy fee. But --

11 Q What's a trophy fee?

12 A Trophy fee is what you pay -- pay the country or the 13 preserve where the -- where the hunt is done. And if you are 14 successful in shooting the animal there, you pay the fee.

15 MR. FARBER: So, can we just scroll down to the --
16 Thank you.

17 Q So, under description here it says "supplemental 18 invoice". Do you see that, Mr. Phillips?

19 A (Examining). That's correct.

20 Q And the NRA had a contract with Under Wild Skies to pay
21 for the production of these shows, is that correct?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q Okay. What was the purpose of the supplemental 24 invoices? What were those payments for?

25 A The way I related to supplemental was from time to time

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

990

1 they would take others on the hunt when filming was going on and
2 let them participate. These would be large donors. Could be
3 people cultivating to bring into the organization. Kind of 4 that's the way -- that was my interaction with the 5 supplementals.

6 Q What was the benefit to the NRA of having these others
7 large donors as you've described them on -- on these hunts?

8 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor. Lack of 9 foundation. This is again beyond the scope. We don't know
10 what donors. There is no foundation for this. This is 11 Mr. Phillips justifying.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 A Well, a big one, I'll admit this is a large
14 relationship, but one ended with a man named Robert Peterson
15 who --

16 MS. ROGERS: Object to the extent that the witness
17 is identifying names of NRA donors.

18 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Okay.

19 MR. FARBER: I think what he's about to identify is 20 public.

21 MS. ROGERS: The NRA doesn't object to details of 22 hunts or testimony about the level of donations that were 23 cultivated, but we owe our donors confidentiality.

24 THE COURT: I'm not aware of that being an
25 evidentiary privilege in a court proceeding.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

991

1 MS. ROGERS: It's -- it's been treated as one at 2 various stages of this and other NRA litigation because of 3 the NAACP Alabama issue.

4 THE COURT: That's when the government is trying to 5 get access to membership lists. I mean, I'm fine if it's 6 not really necessary to -- for the juries understanding to 7 know the names of the individuals if we don't have to get 8 into them. But I'm not aware of an evidentiary basis to 9 exclude it. So if you -- if there is no need to get into 10 it, that's fine, but the objection is overruled.

11 Q You can continue, Mr. Phillips.

12 A I don't need to give a name. But the person I have in 13 mind, a magazine publisher. He's deceased. But in his estate
14 he left the NRA a gun collection probably worth $50 million and 15 his estate built out the museum that houses that today.

16 Q Where is that museum?

17 A If Fairfax, Virginia, NRA headquarters.

18 Q What is that museum?

19 A Called The National Firearms Museum, I believe.

20 Q How did the NRA get that donor?

21 A Mainly through Tony Makris' cultivation of the donor
22 and his wife and their attorney.

23 MR. FARBER: Thank you. We can take down this 24 exhibit. Can we put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1657, which is 25 in evidence, please. We can stop there.

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

992

1 Q So, Mr. Phillips, you recall being asked some questions
2 about this agreement between Grassroots Behavioral Systems,
3 Bradley O'Leary and/or Brad O'Leary and the NRA?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. What value did Mr. O'Leary provide to the NRA?

6 A Well, Mr. O'Leary was -- when I was hired had just
7 taken over the membership, marketing activities as an outside
8 consultant. And he really was in my opinion a marketing genius.
9 He added value in taking what had, when I was hired, had been a
10 once a year membership drive into what was an ongoing 12 months
11 a year membership and contribution drive. And that's about it.

12 Q And why -- Did you execute this agreement on behalf of
13 the NRA?

14 A Can you take me to the bottom?

15 MR. FARBER: If you can go to the bottom.

16 A I did.

17 Q So, from your perspective why was it in the NRA's
18 interest to enter into this agreement for Mr. O'Leary after he 19 was no longer the owner of his company?

20 A Well, he had the ability to add value. I know people
21 myself, and Wayne LaPierre talked to him after he had sold his 22 company to David McKenzie.

23 MR. FARBER: You can take that exhibit down. Can
24 we put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 360, which is in evidence,
25 please. Thank you.

1 Q So, Mr. Phillips, do you recall being asked some
2 questions about MMP in the past, yesterday and when you
3 testified for the first time, do you recall that?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. How did the services that MMP provided to the 6 NRA change over the period of time that you were there?

7 A Yeah. Yes. It was dramatic change with the advent of 8 more online activity.

9 Q Can you explain what that means when you say as a
10 result of more online activity?

11 A Okay. Well, at the beginning the fundraising and 12 membership sales were pretty much send a piece of mail or call
13 them on the telephone, ask them to join or ask them to give.
14 And then hope they send in the money. As things developed and 15 technology developed everything got very fluid. The phone still 16 worked. Some people responsive to that. Some people were 17 responsive to direct mail. But it also opened up the ability to 18 do all kinds of online marketing. And it was changing
19 constantly. Probably still is today.

20 Q Okay. And this memo that's entitled MMP Group
21 Services, NRA increased its services in billing, have you
22 reviewed it?

23 A I remember it.

24 Q And under the section -- I'm not going to go through 25 all of it -- but under growth of responsibilities in key areas,

LAS

Cross-Phillips-Farber

994

1 can you just read the first sentence of the first bullet?

2 A Okay. "MMP entities now manage all digital marketing
3 for NRA membership."

4 Q And the same for the second bullet.

5 A "All promotions now include mailings, multiple e-mail
6 followups, web pages, SEO", which I can't at the moment think of 7 what that means, "SEO for web pages, AB testing for web pages,
8 advance user interface design, digital advertising support for 9 some packages and more involved tracking and analytics."

10 Q And the next bullet, the first sentence?

11 A "We", meaning MMP "have significantly expanded our 12 membership and acquisition efforts. Our mail volume has grown
13 to an estimated 33 million pieces in 2018 from approximately 22
14 million pieces in 2011."

15 MR. FARBER: Can we scroll down slowly. Keep 16 going. Keep going. Thank you.

17 Q So there are a number of other bullets, Mr. Phillips.
18 Is what's written there accurate from your perspective?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And the next heading?

21 A "Hiring and Real Estate".

22 Q And if you could read the first bullet under there,
23 please.

24 A "Since 2011 we have hired three writers, two user
25 interface designers, to two designers and seven digital team

LAS

1 members."

2 Q And then the first sentence of the next bullet.

3 A "Due to the increase in demands NRA has placed on MMP
4 and subsequent staff growth, we rented additional space on the 5 fifth floor of the NRA building. We subsequently moved the 6 digital team to office space in Old Town Alexandria so we could 7 tape the younger digital talent pool in D.C. and be closer to 8 the Google and Facebook communities on Capitol Hill."

9 Q Thank you. I'm not going to go through the rest of 10 this.

11 MR. FARBER: We can take that exhibit down. Thank
12 you.

13 Q So, Mr. Phillips, you were also asked some questions
14 about Gayle Stanford. Do you recall those questions?

15 A I do.

16 Q And I believe you testified that you did not, in 17 response to a question I believe from Ms. Connell, that you did
18 not see her bills all the time. Do you recall that testimony?

19 A I do.

1 Q Okay. Was it your job, personally, to review all of
2 the NRA's bills?

3 A No.

4 Q Okay. Approximately how many different invoices would
5 the NRA receive in a month?

6 A I -- I could not tell -- it's a whole lot.

7 Q When you say, "a whole lot," could you give the jury a
8 sense of the order of magnitude? Are we talking hundreds,
9 thousands, tens of thousands?

10 A I'd say, thousands; in the low thousands.

11 Q Okay. And how did the Financial Services Division
12 handle review of those invoices during your period of time
13 leading it? Who did it?

14 A I'm sorry?

15 Q Who did it?

16 A There were staff -- staff that did that. Depending on 17 what the nature of the -- the item was, it would be different
18 staff. One was Portia Padilla.

19 Q Mr. Phillips, Ms. Rogers asked you a series of 20 questions about what she referred to as "representation letters"
21 that you provided to the NRA's outside auditors on an annual 22 basis. Do you recall those questions?

23 A I do.

24 Q And what is a representation letter to an auditor?

25 A It's a -- to an auditor, it's kind of a recognition

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

4 Q Okay.

5 MR. FARBER: Could we get pulled up, for

8 THE COURT: Hang on a second. We're going to turn
9 the screens off.

10 (Pause.)

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 Q Mr. Phillips, could you take a look at what's on your 13 screen and has been premarked as WPX 21? And we'll go through 14 it so you can review it, and after you've done that, let me know
15 if you recognize it.

16 THE COURT: Is there any objection to this?

17 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

18 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

19 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor, there's an objection
20 to this. It's outside the scope. I don't know that this is 21 a business record of the NRA. It's hearsay, I think.

22 MS. ROGERS: The NRA produced this document during 23 discovery.

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. And what is it?

12 A It's the NRA's representation letter to -- to the 13 auditors, I think, for 2017 --

14 MS. CONNELL: We'll withdraw the objection, your 15 Honor. I thought it was the Aronson letter.

16 We'll withdraw our objection.

8 A Sonya Rowling.

9 Q And what's the title that she lists?

10 A She lists "Director of Financial Reporting and 12 Q Was that her role at the time?

13 A It was her role at the time.

10 MR. FARBER: No further questions, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

1 Q Mr. Phillips, we meet again.

2 A Good morning.

3 Q Just a few brief questions, sir.

4 MS. CONNELL: Actually, can we please bring back up
5 that last exhibit? I think it was marked as WPX 21 and 6 admitted into evidence.

7 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

8 THE COURT: Can you put that one back up? Thanks.

9 (Image displayed.)

10 Q Mr. Phillips, this is the retention letter that the NRA
11 provided to RSM in 2017, right?

12 A Representation letter.

13 Q Representation letter. I'm sorry:

14 A Correct.

15 Q And would you agree with me that a financial statement
16 audit often involves an interaction between the entity, like the 17 NRA, and the auditor? Right?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And would you agree with me that the accuracy of the 20 financial statement audit depends somewhat on the information
21 provided by the organization to the auditor? Right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q So, if the leadership of the organization withholds
24 important information from the auditor, that could affect the 25 outcome of the audit; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1004

1 A Depending on materiality, yes.

2 Q Sure.

3 And if the leadership wanted to mislead the auditor --
4 I'm not saying that occurred here, but if they did -- that could
5 affect the outcome of the audit, right?

6 A Again depending on materiality.

7 Q Okay.

8 At the time you were NRA's CFO and treasurer, did you
9 know that Ms. Hallow had misused NRA credit cards?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And did you know that Ms. Hallow had used NRA funds to 12 pay for her son's wedding?

13 A I did not know that.

14 Q Okay. Did you, at some point, come to learn that?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And the NRA learned that, right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Was that information shared with RSM?

19 A I don't know. At the time I learned, I was retired.

20 Q Okay. Could you please take a look at paragraph 2 at 21 the top of page 1?

22 (Image scrolled.)

23 Q In paragraph 2, the NRA is acknowledging the 24 responsibility for designing, implementing and maintaining
25 internal controls; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1005

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Internal controls are things like the NRA's procurement
3 policy, right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And that procurement policy essentially says, as we've
6 discussed, that before the NRA lets more than a hundred thousand
7 dollars a year go out the door to a particular vendor, certain
8 requirements must be met; right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q There should be a written contract, right?

11 A Correct.

12 Q And approval by board officers, right?

13 A Correct.

14 Q And other requirements; correct?

15 A Correct.

16 MS. CONNELL: You can take that down, please.

17 (Image removed.)

18 Q And there were many instances that we discussed where 19 that wasn't followed; correct?

20 A Correct.

21 Q A few minutes ago, we discussed -- I think your counsel
22 discussed with you -- payments to Mr. O'Leary, right?

23 A Yes.

24 MS. CONNELL: Can we bring up PX 1657, please? I
25 think that's the settlement agreement with Mr. O'Leary.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1006

1 (Image displayed.)

2 THE COURT: Is that already in evidence?

3 MS. CONNELL: It is in evidence, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 Q Mr. Phillips, I'm showing you the Settlement
6 Agreement -- what's termed by the NRA and Mr. O'Leary as a
7 settlement agreement -- between Mr. O'Leary and his organization
8 Grassroots and the NRA. Why was it termed a settlement
9 agreement?

10 A I don't know.

11 Q And this agreement, as we discussed, did not get the 12 type of board approval and review approval called for by the 13 NRA's internal controls; right?

14 A Again, I -- I don't remember.

15 Q Okay. So, under this agreement, $1.2 million was paid
16 to someone who's friendly with Mr. LaPierre; correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. And was there any reason that --

19 MS. CONNELL: Strike that.

20 Let's move on.

21 You can take that down. Thank you, Jesse.

22 (Image removed.)

23 Q Your counsel asked you about WBB Investments, right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q That's purchasing a house for Wayne and Susan LaPierre

1 to use for safety, right? Is that correct?

2 A Start over, please. I'm sorry. I lost the thought.

3 Q Sure. You were talking about WBB Investments, right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And that was an organization founded between the NRA,

6 with a 99 percent interest --

7 Right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q -- and DJ Investments, with a one percent interest;
10 right?

11 A That's right.

12 Q And DJ Investments seemed to be some sort of affiliate
13 of Ackerman; is that accurate?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And that was to purchase a property in Dallas,
16 allegedly, for the safety of Wayne and Susan LaPierre; right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Mr. Phillips, we saw evidence that you cut a check, or 19 there was a check cut, for $70,000; correct?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And that you had indicated to Mr. Spray, "Wait till 22 they see the check -- the big check"; right?

23 A Correct.

24 Q And yet you testified, "I knew this was never going to 25 happen"; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1008

1 A Correct.

2 Q So it -- it -- the -- if there was a safety concern
3 with regard to Susan and Wayne LaPierre in twenty -- at the time
4 that that all occurred; I believe it was 2018 -- you didn't go
5 to the board and say, "We need a resolution to purchase real
6 estate for Wayne and Susan"; right?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q And you didn't ask the board to pass a resolution to do
9 that, right?

10 A That's correct, but I -- I --

11 Q You didn't --

12 A -- I repeatedly said, "This cannot happen without full 13 board approval."

14 Q And yet, you didn't take any steps to get full board
15 approval; right?

16 A This was all in the context of one or two days.

17 Q You didn't --

18 A No.

19 Q -- take any steps to get full board approval, right?

20 A No.

21 Q And yet, you know Mr. and Mrs. LaPierre went and looked 22 at properties; right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And you formed a corporation with Mr. Winkler, right?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1009

1 Q And, Mr. Phillips, in fact --

2 MS. CONNELL: Well, strike that.

3 Let's move on.

4 Q You talked about HomeTelos with your counsel, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And you said, I believe, that you didn't -- part of the 7 reason you didn't go to the Audit Committee was availability;
8 you didn't have the time. Right?

9 A I don't recall that.

10 Q Okay. Well, that contract went on from 2014 to 2017;
11 right?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And you could have found the time in a three-year
14 period, right?

15 A Right.

16 Q And, you said, you didn't think that you had to was 17 another reason that you didn't go forward; right?

18 A Right.

19 Q Okay.

20 A I didn't think she qualified as a related party.

2 Q I'm sorry. I know the binders are unwieldy.

3 THE COURT: Sorry. This is tab 24?

4 MS. CONNELL: Yes, but it's PX 2485.

5 THE COURT: Okay. I'm maybe missing a page in my
6 binder, but that's okay.

7 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry, your Honor. Do you want
8 me to hand you the paper document?

9 THE COURT: No. I can follow.

10 MS. CONNELL: Okay.

11 BY MS. CONNELL:

12 Q This is the Statement of Corporate Ethics that --
13 During most of your time as NRA's CFO and treasurer,
14 there was a Statement of Corporate Ethics; right?

15 A I believe so.

16 Q Okay. And you understood that this statement was 17 binding upon you, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And at the very beginning, this statement states that 20 "it's the policy of the NRA to conduct the Association's 21 business in an honest and forthright manner"; right?

22 A Correct.

23 Q And in the second paragraph, it says that "all
24 employees must comply with the applicable bylaws and policies,
25 as well as all relevant laws and regulations, in conducting the

1 Association's business"; correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And: "No violation of the spirit or intent of these 4 bylaws, policies, laws and regulations will be tolerated."
5 Right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And under heading 1, if we go further down --
8 (Image scrolled.)

9 Q -- "Association employees shall not become involved in 10 any activity which might influence, be reasonably expected to 11 influence, or give the appearance of influencing their objective
12 business judgment ..." Right?

13 A Correct.

14 Q And further down, at paragraph 4 --
15 (Image modified.)

16 Q -- "Employees who are officers, directors, division
17 directors or activity supervisors" --
18 That includes you, right?

19 A Correct.

20 Q -- among other things, have to, under subdivision D,
21 report all known or suspected violations of said policies to the 22 EVP of the Association, the treasurer of the Association, or 23 other persons they designate as appropriate; right?

24 A Correct.

25 Q And finally, in the next paragraph down, if a question

1013

1 arises about a particular course of conduct, it's supposed to be
2 brought to the Office of General Counsel; right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And failure of these policies [sic] could lead to 5 discipline, right?

6 A That's right.

7 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, Ms. Richards was viewed by many --
8 to your knowledge, was Ms. Richards viewed by many within the 9 NRA as your partner or significant other?

10 A I -- I can't -- I can't say, many people within the
11 NRA.

12 Q Some people within the NRA.

13 MR. FARBER: Objection.

14 Could we get a time frame, your Honor?

15 Q At any time that you were working within the NRA.

16 A Go back and ask the question again, please.

17 Q Do you know of any instances where some employees of 18 the NRA thought Ms. Richards was your partner or significant 19 other?

20 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, objection; calls for 21 speculation as to a vast group of unidentified people.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 A The first time I heard that used was when I -- I read
24 it in the list of complaints from the whistleblowers.

25 Q So the "whistleblowers," you're talking about other --

1 you're talking about Financial Services employees who came
2 forward and complained about special treatment for
3 Ms. Richards -- that was given to Ms. Richards; right?

4 A No. They said I had a contract with a related party
5 and called her a "related party" or "significant other."

6 Q That's right. And they perceived Ms. Richards as your 7 significant other; correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And she would sometimes get a spouse pass for NRA
10 events, right?

11 A I can't think of one time for that.

12 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, you're still very close with the 13 Richards family; right?

14 A I am.

15 Q You go to family events?

16 A Yes.

17 Q You support family causes, like college causes and 18 things like that; right?

19 A I have.

20 Q And when we talked about that disclosure that you made
21 in 2018, I think -- am I correct in understanding, that wasn't
22 drafted by you; that was drafted by legal counsel? Right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q Okay. You talked a moment ago about --

3 Q You talked a moment ago about the yacht trip that we
4 had covered originally, right?

5 A Correct.

6 Q That you won, or that you bid on, in a charity auction;
7 right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q That yacht trip was taken in July of 2019, right?

10 A Correct.

11 Q And the check that you showed us was after that;
12 correct? Was dated -- was paid after that.

13 MS. CONNELL: Can we bring up the check? I believe
14 it is -- oh, I'm sorry.

15 Q The yacht was in 2018. Sorry.

16 MS. CONNELL: Can we bring up WPX --

17 MR. FARBER: Objection, your Honor.

18 MS. CONNELL: -- 16?

19 MR. FARBER: Objection, your Honor.

20 Counsel should actually be asking questions, not
21 testifying.

22 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry. I can correct that, your 23 Honor. That's a fair -- fair complaint.

24 Can we please bring up PX 3298? I don't have a tab
25 number for your Honor. That's for impeachment.

1 THE COURT: Is that in evidence?

2 MS. CONNELL: It is not in evidence.

3 Can we bring it up on -- just to show the witness,
4 the Court and the parties?

5 Thank you, Jesse.

6 (Pause.)

7 BY MS. CONNELL:

8 Q Mr. Phillips, I'm showing you an e-mail right now. Do
9 you recognize the e-mail address at the top as an e-mail address
10 you have used?

11 A It's mine.

12 Q Okay. And do you recognize the person it's directed 13 to: "rkercennek@" --

14 A Yes.

15 Q And is this an e-mail you sent?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And does this -- is this e-mail from July 2018?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And, Mr. Phillips, this is an e-mail that you forwarded
20 to "rkercennek," an e-mail that you had received from Beverly
21 Ware below; correct?

22 A That's correct.

23 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I --

24 Q Is this a true and accurate copy of an e-mail you
25 received and forwarded?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Phillips - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1017

1 A It appears to be.

2 Q Okay.

3 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I ask that it be admitted
4 into evidence.

5 MR. FARBER: No objection.

6 THE COURT: It's admitted.

7 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

8 (Image displayed.)

9 Q Mr. Phillips, does this e-mail refresh your 10 recollection as to when the yacht trip with Ms. Richards
11 occurred?

12 A Yeah. I see "July 12th" and "13th" and I'm trying to 13 find the year. Can you help me out?

14 Q Yes. I'm sorry.

15 A I'm jumping all around. I see the date but I don't see
16 the year.

17 Q So it's sent July 5th, 2018 and it talks about a
18 itinerary in July.

19 A Okay.

20 Q Does that refresh your recollection?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Did it occur in July 2018?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. Thank you.

25 Mr. Phillips, you took this yacht trip with

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1018

1 Ms. Richards; correct?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q And, actually, while we're talking about Ms. Richards,
4 I just want to ask you about HomeTelos for a second.

5 You just testified that Ms. Richards' company was --
6 had adequate experience to perform that contract; right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And yet, the NRA hadn't put the contract out for 9 competitive bidding, as far as you know; right?

10 A As far as I know.

11 Q Right.

12 So a contract that was for -- I think it was -- it was
13 over a million; I think it was 1.3 million -- was given to a
14 company that was run by your close friend, right?

15 A Correct.

16 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips, do you remember whether you paid
17 for this yacht trip before or after you took it?

18 A It was about the time of the -- of the trip; it could
19 have been just as we got back.

1 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Counsel, we're at the time for a
3 typical morning break. If you're one or two questions from 4 being done.

5 MS. CONNELL: One or two minutes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

8 Q Mr. Phillips, you mentioned that it was for security
9 purposes that Ackerman McQueen maintain records relating to NRA
10 executive expenses at their headquarters, right?

11 A Correct.

12 Q And yet yesterday you testified that the intention was 13 to avoid people within the NRA seeing documents that quote
14 "might make headlines", right?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And so, Mr. Phillips, the concern was leaks that could 17 be embarrassing to NRA executives, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. We talked -- you talked a few minutes ago about 20 supplement about invoices from Under Wild Skies, right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Under Wild Skies did produce a television show that had 23 to do with safaris and things like that, right?

24 A Correct.

25 Q Susan and Wayne LaPierre usually went on these safaris,

LAS

Redirect-Phillips-Connell

1020

1 right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And the safaris themselves would be very, very
4 expensive if you were to pay for them as a consumer, right?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q But the supplemental payments that were in the same
7 amount every month to Tony Makris didn't have to do with the 8 production of Under Wild Skies, isn't that true?

9 A That's true.

10 Q Mr. Phillips, you were asked about Gayle Stanford a few
11 minutes ago, right?

12 A I've been asked about Gayle Stanford. I don't 13 remember.

14 Q A lot of times?

15 A Yes.

16 Q You knew she was splitting her bills between two 17 companies, right?

18 A I did.

19 Q You knew she was billing the NRA through NRA and NRA
20 ILA and Ackerman, right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And if you had wanted to set up a more secure system,
23 you were someone within the NRA who could have tried to under-
24 take an official security protocol for billing private jets,
25 right?

LAS

Redirect-Phillips-Connell

1021

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And finally, Mr. Phillips, we looked at PX 360.

3 MS. CONNELL: If we could bring this up. This is 4 in evidence, your Honor. This is my final couple of 5 questions. I'm sorry, Judge.

6 Q Mr. Phillips, you spoke really briefly about an injury
7 you suffered, correct, from a bike accident?

8 A Yes.

9 Q That was over ten years ago?

10 A About ten years ago.

11 Q And when I questioned you about this at an earlier
12 deposition, you said you returned to your work after that bike
13 accident as the NRA's CFO, right?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And treasurer?

16 A And treasurer.

17 Q And you continued in that position for years, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And you were able to complete your duties in that role?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Thank you. And, Mr. Phillips, this document --

22 MS. CONNELL: If we can page down, please.

23 Q -- this document was prepared by MMP to justify its fee
24 increases, correct?

25 A I believe so.

LAS

Redirect-Phillips-Connell

1022

1 Q And those fee increases --

2 MS. CONNELL: If you go down a little bit further
3 please, just to take a look at the fee increases. Can we
4 page down even to page 4, I think. Yes, Jessie. I'm sorry.
5 A little bit further.

6 Q So, the fee increases were quite significant, right?
7 Membership Marketing Partners management fee, that's the base
8 fee paid went from 400,000 a month to 961, right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And the other MMP entities also increased, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q There was no reason that a new contract reflecting this 13 increase in management fees couldn't have been drafted and 14 appropriately approved within the NRA, right?

15 A Could have been done.

16 Q Thank you very much, sir.

17 THE COURT: All right. You have more questions?

18 MS. ROGERS: I have a bit more. I can do it after 19 the break.

20 THE COURT: Why don't we take our morning break and 21 we'll see you shortly.

22 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

23 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

24 (Whereupon a recess was taken.)

25 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

1 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

2 THE COURT: Okay. Everybody have a seat, please.

3 Okay. Any further questioning from the defendants?

4 MS. ROGERS: Very briefly by the NRA.

5 RECROSS EXAMINATION

6 BY MS. ROGERS:

7 Q I have a couple of questions relating to the board.

8 MS. ROGERS: And without taking too much time, I do
9 want to introduce today a board representative, Charlie
10 Beers is with us in the audience. He's the director of the 11 NRA. He drove here I think through three hours of snow from 12 Glenville, New York, where he is the fire chief. So we 13 welcome Mr. Beers.

14 Q Mr. Phillips, you testified earlier that the purpose of 15 keeping the details underlying the Ackerman expenses at Ackerman
16 was not to conceal those expenses from the board, right?

17 A Correct.

18 Q But you would agree with me until the 2018 audit the 19 board never would have seen those expenses, right?

20 A If they had asked.

21 Q But they didn't?

22 A They didn't ask.

23 Q No one told them to ask, right?

24 A Right.

25 Q No one alerted them that those expenses might contain

LAS

Recross-Phillips-Rogers

1024

1 improper out-of-pocket items, right?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And not only would the board not have seen those
4 expenses or known that there were red flags with those expenses,
5 you would agree with me, sir, that Sonya Rowling wouldn't have 6 seen them, right?

7 A Ask that again. I'm sorry.

8 Q You would agree with me until 2018 Sonya Rowling would 9 never have laid eyes on the Ackerman OOP expenses, right?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q To be clear, I know the abbreviation OOP was not 12 understood by everyone. When I say OOP, I mean out-of-pocket, 13 you understand that?

14 A I do.

15 Q Like that invoice we saw offered for $306,000 said
16 out-of-pocket. You understand that's what I'm referring to?

17 A I do.

18 Q Now Angela St. Onge wouldn't have seen those either,
19 right?

20 A Right.

21 Q Portia Padilla wouldn't have seen them?

22 A That's right.

23 Q And those out-of-pocket expenses included the meals at 24 the restaurant called Landini's that Ms. Connell asked you
25 about, right?

LAS

Recross-Phillips-Rogers

1025

1 A That's correct.

2 Q That's the place where the tabs could run tens of 3 thousands of dollars, right?

4 A I'm not aware of the amounts.

5 Q Were you aware of whether Josh Powell was a frequent
6 user of the tab at Landini's?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Tony Makris?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Chris Cox?

11 A I don't know.

12 Q Not Sonya Rowling, right?

13 A Not Sonya Rowling.

14 Q Not Portia Padilla?

15 A No.

16 Q Angela St. Onge was not spending tens of thousands of 17 dollars on cigars and liquor at Landini's, right?

18 A Right.

19 Q Earlier you were asked about one of the statements in 20 the management representation letter, and your answer was 21 something like not to what I consider a material extent. Do you
22 recall that answer? I'll be a little more specifically. I
23 think your lawyer asked you about a place in the rep letter to 24 RSM where you were asked if there were fraud or internal control
25 lapses. And in your answer you referenced a concept called

LAS

Recross-Phillips-Rogers

1026

1 materiality. Do you remember that?

2 A That's right.

3 Q Could you explain to the jury what you meant by that?

4 MS. CONNELL: Objection your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Overruled.

6 A Materiality would be a standard of that. It's true,
7 but it's not big enough to really make any difference. If it
8 was material, it would -- it would make a different.

9 Q That's a concept in accounting, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Did you, as a former accountant in your capacity as a
12 financial executive at the NRA, have in mind a dollar threshold
13 for which you considered material?

14 A It would depend on the type of transaction.

15 Q Ballpark? Depending on the type of transaction. You
16 were asked earlier about the Wbb Investments transaction which 17 never went through, right?

18 A That's right.

19 Q And I think you testified for your lawyer that Angus
20 McQueen was involved in those discussions, but you couldn't
21 remember who else was there, right?

22 A That's right.

23 Q Bill Winkler was pretty involved in that, right?

24 A I think so. I just can't -- Well, definitely was. I
25 can't remember him being in the room or rather we talked on the

LAS

Recross-Phillips-Correll

1027

1 phone.

2 Q But he's the person that formed the LLC, right?

3 A That's right.

4 Q Bill Winkler was also involved in those discussions you
5 had about using Tyler Schropp's credit card to pass through 6 expenses in a manner that would reduce scrutiny of those
7 expenses, right?

8 A Correct.

9 MS. ROGERS: Nothing further.

10 MR. CORRELL: If I may, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Sure.

12 RE CROSS EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. CORRELL:

14 Q Mr. Phillips, Wayne LaPierre had nothing to do with the 15 HomeTelos contract, correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q You never talked to him about that contract, correct?

18 A I don't think so.

19 Q How long have you known Mr. LaPierre?

20 A Since 1992 or 1993.

21 Q And you were asked some questions about Landini's
22 previously. Do you recall that?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And there were some discussion of cigars?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Recross-Phillips-Farber

1028

1 Q Have you ever seen Mr. LaPierre smoke a cigar?

2 A I've never seen him want to be in a room with cigars.

3 Q Have you ever seen him take a drink of alcohol?

4 A No.

5 Q Thank you.

6 MR. CORRELL: No further questions.

7 MR. FARBER: Briefly, your Honor.

8 RECROSS EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. FARBER:

10 Q Good morning again, Mr. Phillips.

11 A Good morning.

12 THE COURT: It's a lot of books for briefly.

13 MR. FARBER: I'm disorganized. I apologize.

14 Q You were asked some questions by Ms. Phillips, excuse
15 me, Ms. Phillips, by Ms. Connell about what's in evidence as
16 Plaintiff's Exhibit 2485.

17 MR. FARBER: Could we get that pulled up, please.

18 Q The statement of corporate ethics. Do you recall that
19 Mr. Phillips?

20 A I do.

21 Q And I believe --

22 MR. FARBER: If we could turn to the second page.
23 The heading "Ethical Business Relationships".

24 Q She asked you some questions about that section. Do
25 you recall that, Mr. Phillips?

LAS

Recross-Phillips-Farber

1029

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. In the context of the HomeTelos transaction and
3 Nancy Richards, do you recall that?

4 A I do.

5 Q Okay. Does the NRA have a policy manual, Mr. Phillips?

6 A It does.

7 MR. FARBER: Could we get pulled up just for
8 identification for the moment PX 561.

9 THE COURT: Is this not in evidence yet?

10 MR. FARBER: I don't believe it's in evidence.

11 THE COURT: There was one version of it I thought
12 that was but maybe.

13 MS. ROGERS: I think the employee handbook is in
14 evidence.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, I think this was admitted
17 under a different witness.

18 MS. CONNELL: I think a different version was, but 19 I have no objection to this being admitted.

20 Q Let me ask one question. Do you recognize PX 561, Mr.
21 Phillips?

22 A I recognize what it says it is.

23 THE COURT: He's looking at the cover page right
24 now. I don't have it.

25 MR. FARBER: I see.

LAS

Recross-Phillips-Farber

1030

1 A Yes.

2 MR. FARBER: Can we go to the -- display 561, the
3 cover page for the jury, please.

4 THE COURT: So, there is no objection to admitting
5 this. Do you want to admit it into evidence?

6 MR. FARBER: I'm sorry, your Honor. I should have
7 offered it. I offer 561.

8 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted.

9 Q And, Mr. Phillips, is this a copy of the policy manual?

10 A Yes.

11 MR. FARBER: Could we go to page 92 of the 12 document, which is page -- excuse me -- page 91 of the 13 document, which is page 85. It's 91 of 281, would be page
14 85 in the document.

15 Q So this is a section of the policy manual that's marked
16 "Standards of Conduct and Ethical Guidance". Do you see that,
17 Mr. Phillips?

18 A I do.

19 Q Could you go down to the next page, please. Stop right
20 there, please. And under this it says "related-party
21 transactions". Do you see that Mr. Phillips?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. And could you read -- Could you tell the members
24 of the jury, please, what it says under "related-party
25 transactions"?

LAS

Recross-Phillips-Farber

1031

1 A Yes. From the beginning?

2 Q Yes, please.

3 A "Related-party transactions are transactions conducted
4 with an individual or vendor that is related to an employee,
5 officer or director of the association. A related party is 6 defined as any person bearing a relation to the employee,
7 officer or director of the association, including any members of 8 the employees immediate family, including but not limited to 9 spouse, parents, children, siblings, mothers and fathers-in-law,
10 sons and daughters-in-laws, brothers and sisters-in-laws and 11 nonemployee members of the household."

12 Q Thank you, Mr. Phillips. Was -- Did Ms. Richards fit
13 any of those categories?

14 A No.

15 MR. FARBER: Nothing further, your Honor.

16 MS. CONNELL: I'm not going to say it, your Honor,
17 probably too long, but just a short question or two.

18 THE COURT: But you did say it.

19 MS. CONNELL: I couldn't help it. Can we bring up
20 561, please. Can we go to the section on page 91, right
21 before that labeled conflicts of interest.

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY MS. CONNELL:

24 Q Mr. Phillips, you understand that a related-party
25 transaction is a subset of a type of transaction called conflict

LAS

Redirect-Phillips-Connell

1032

1 of interest transactions, right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. And the NRA has a policy against conflicts of 4 interest, correct?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And if you look at the paragraph that begins
7 "employees, officers and directors", do you see that?

8 A Yes.

9 Q As NRA's CFO and president -- CFO and treasurer, not
10 president, excuse me, you were prohibited from acting in a
11 manner that may create a conflict or appearance of a conflict
12 between your personal interest and those of the association,
13 right?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q Thank you, sir.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you, sir.
17 You're free to go back out there.

18 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 (Witness excused.)

21 THE COURT: So, before we go to the next witness,
22 there was one cleanup item that we're going to take care of.
23 Earlier in the trial last week you heard an audio transcript
24 of Mr. Tedrick. And inadvertently there was a question at 25 the end of it, and there were a couple of other questions

LAS

1 after that that should have been included in the -- in the
2 playback and wasn't. So, it's really just I think three or
3 four questions. So we're going to play it back for you, if 4 it's available hopefully, the question that you heard and
5 then the I think it's three follow-up questions just to 6 round out the questioning. So, if we can run that for the 7 jury, that would be very helpful.

8 (Whereupon the video was played.)

9 THE COURT: Okay. Those last few questions were 10 the ones that weren't included before. All right. Is the 11 State prepared to call its next witness?

12 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor. The State calls
13 Sonya Rowling.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning.

15 THE COURT CLERK: Raise your right hand.

16 S O N Y A R O W L I N G, after having been duly sworn by the 19 THE WITNESS: Sonya Rowling.

20 THE COURT CLERK: Can you spell your last name.

21 THE WITNESS: R-O-W-L-I-N-G.

22 THE COURT CLERK: Business address.

23 THE WITNESS: 11250 Waples Mill Road, Fairfax,

2 of those binders or are they both for the witness?

3 MR. THOMPSON: One is for the Court. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Do we need to install any supports
5 under the floor here? Okay. Thank you.

6 MR. THOMPSON: Testing. Is that working? All
7 right.

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. THOMPSON:

10 Q Good morning, Ms. Rowling.

11 A Good morning.

12 Q Ms. Rowling, you joined the NRA in 1999, is that
13 correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And you became the NRA's director of accounting
16 operations and financial reporting in 2006, is that correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q So just to situate the jury. Accounting operations was 19 one half of financial services division, is that correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q With the other half being the budgeting half that was 22 lead by Mr. Erstling?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And in your role in accounting operations you reported
25 to Mr. Tedrick, is that correct?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1035

1 A Yes. That's correct.

2 Q And as the director of accounting operations you were
3 responsible for supervising accounts payable, is that correct?

4 A Yes. That's correct.

5 Q And is it fair to say that generally speaking accounts
6 payable was responsible for monitoring all of the money going
7 into and out of the NRA?

8 A They -- I don't know if monitoring is the correct term
9 there, but they were responsible for cutting checks.

10 Q Okay.

11 A Not going, coming into. Definitely not.

12 Q And Mr. Phillips was the treasurer of the NRA for most 13 of your time at -- in accounting operations, is that correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And then in 2018 the NRA conducted an executive search
16 for Mr. Phillips' replacement, is that correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And that resulted in Mr. Spray coming in as first CFO
19 and then later the treasurer of the NRA, is that correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q To the best of your knowledge, Ms. Rowling, were you
22 considered as a potential candidate in 2018 for the role of CFO
23 or treasurer?

24 A I don't know.

25 Q Okay. And then you held your role as director of

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1036

1 accounting operations until early 2021, is that correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And at that point you were approached by Mr. LaPierre
4 to become and asked to be the interim CFO for the NRA, is that
5 correct?

6 A Yes, it is.

7 Q That was after Mr. Spray left the NRA in late January,
8 early February, is that correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And that was shortly after the NRA filed for 11 bankruptcy, is that correct?

12 A Yes. That was the timing.

13 Q And to the best of your knowledge, Ms. Rowling, no
14 executive search was conducted prior to you becoming the interim
15 CFO of the NRA, is that correct?

16 A Not to my knowledge.

17 Q And to the best of your knowledge there was no
18 executive search conducted prior to you becoming -- being 19 elected to the treasurer position, is that correct?

20 A Not to my knowledge.

21 Q Okay. And you are still today the NRA's CFO and 22 treasurer, is that correct?

23 A That is correct.

24 Q In your current role as treasurer you are responsible 25 for making sure that the NRA operates in accordance with the

LAS

1 NRA's financial policies, is that correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And is it fair to say that your role as treasurer -- in 4 your role as treasurer today you have significantly greater
5 responsibility than you did in your role in accounting
6 operations?

7 A Yes.

8 Q So, for example, currently today you're responsible for 9 managing the NRA's investment strategy, is that correct?

10 A Investment strategy?

11 Q Yes.

12 A Yes.

13 Q You also are responsible for requests for proposals, is
14 that right?

15 A I'm -- I'm -- If there were -- I'm not following your 16 question actually. I'm sorry.

17 Q Sure. So, in your role in accounting operations did
18 you ever conduct any requests for proposals?

19 A Yes.

20 Q In -- in -- With respect to what vendors?

21 A Me, personally?

22 Q Yes.

23 A Auditing, processing credit cards. I believe those 24 were the two I was involved with.

25 Q And in your current role as treasurer, do you supervise

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1038

1 the request for proposals for other vendors?

2 A The vendors under my direct supervision, yes.

3 Q Okay. And in your role as treasurer, you report
4 directly to the NRA's board of directors, is that correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q In your role as CFO you report to Mr. LaPierre
7 currently, is that correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q So, before Mr. Spray joined the NRA in early 2018, the 10 approval procedure for contracts worth in excess of $100,000 per 11 year was not followed, correct?

12 A It wasn't consistently followed.

13 Q So let's walk through a few contracts. This is tab 23
14 of your binder, Ms. Rowling, Plaintiff's Exhibit 2093, which is 15 already in evidence. And if I could take you please, so we're 16 using the page numbers that are at the very bottom center of the 17 page, Ms. Rowling. Once you have it, if you could please go to
18 page 3.

19 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
20 request of counsel.)

21 Q And the question, Ms. Rowling, is do you recognize this 22 to be the first amendment to the contract between the NRA and
23 Membership Marketing Partners?

24 A It seems to be, yes.

25 Q And to the best of your knowledge, Ms. Rowling, was

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1039

1 there a business case analysis prepared for the first amendment?

2 A For the first amendment, not that I'm aware of.

3 Q Was there a signature review sheet for this first
4 amendment to the Marketing Partners contract?

5 A I don't recall seeing it.

6 Q Okay. And then if you could please -- if you could
7 please go to tab 24 of your binder.

8 MR. THOMPSON: And so this is Plaintiff's
9 Exhibit 3131, which I will move to admit.

10 THE COURT: Hang on a second. Am I correct that 11 this is just a signature page?

12 MR. THOMPSON: It is, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: It's page 8 of 9. Is it connected to 14 some document that's already in evidence?

15 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor. We need to 16 establish that, if there is an objection, which I'm not sure
17 there is one.

18 MR. FLEMING: There is an objection.

19 MR. CORRELL: It's not a complete document. He 20 needs to lay a foundation.

21 MR. THOMPSON: It was produced to us in that 22 fashion.

23 THE COURT: It was produced page 8 of 9 with 24 nothing else around it?

25 MR. THOMPSON: Correct.

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1040

1 THE COURT: Good luck with your questions.

2 Q Ms. Rowling, if you could go back to tab 23, please, to
3 start. And if you could please go to page 8, I believe.

4 MR. THOMPSON: If you could go down one more
5 please, Jessie. Keep going please. Get to the signature
6 page.

7 Q All right. Ms. Rowling, this is the signature page for 8 the original Membership Marketing Partners contract, correct?

9 A Hold on.

10 Q I'm sorry. It is page 14 of 15.

11 A Right. But I have to look at the pages before to 12 confirm.

13 Q No. I understand.

14 A Thank you. (Examining). It is a signature page. I
15 know that there are times when we have two. So, it is 16 definitely a signature page.

17 Q Okay. And so this is Exhibit 2093, and it's page 14,
18 but this is the signature page for the first Membership
19 Marketing Partners contract, is that correct?

20 A Again, it is a signature page. I can't determine if 21 it's a complete document, because at times when you have two 22 people signing a document, you'll get a second page.

23 Q Okay.

24 A So it is a signature page from that document.

25 Q Great. And then so you'll see is that Mr. Phillips'

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1041

1 signature in the first authorized signatory line?

2 A Yes.

3 Q It's dated December 16, 2011?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. Now if you could please look at page -- tab 24.

6 THE COURT: I think this one we're not putting on 7 the screen yet.

8 MR. THOMPSON: Correct. Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 Q And do you agree with me, Ms. Rowling, that this -- it
11 says page 8 of 9 at the bottom of this document?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And you'll see that it is signed by -- Is that 14 Mr. Phillips signature there in the authorized signatory?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Also dated December 16, 2011?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And then below that whose signature is that?

19 A (Examining). Mr. LaPierre's signature.

20 MR. THOMPSON: Move to admit, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: As what exactly?

22 MR. THOMPSON: Move to admit as the complete
23 signature page to the original Membership Marketing Partners
24 contract.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. I guess the jury will be able to

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1042

1 compare the two when you lay them side by side, right.

2 MR. THOMPSON: Take it down. Okay.

3 THE COURT: Is there any objection to this? I now
4 understand what's going on here.

5 MS. EISENBERG: No, your Honor.

6 MR. CORRELL: No, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: You can admit it and the jury can make
8 their own mind up.

9 MR. THOMPSON: Okay.

10 THE COURT: Or I should say you could ask the 11 witness if you want.

12 Q And so, Ms. Rowling, just so the jury can take a look 13 here. We've got on the left-hand side of the screen, that is 14 the signature page that was in Exhibit 2093 for the Membership
15 Marketing Partners contract. And on the right-hand side is the 16 Exhibit 3131, is that right?

17 A (Examining). It is.

18 Q Okay. And so on the right-hand side of the screen we 19 have Mr. Phillips' signature at the top followed by Mr.
20 LaPierre's signature, is that correct?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. And then if you could please go to tab 25 of
23 your binder, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2139.

24 MR. THOMPSON: Which I will move into evidence.

25 THE COURT: Any objection to this one?

LAS

1043

1 MS. EISENBERG: No objection, your Honor.

2 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted.

4 Q And if you could please first go to page 4, Ms.
5 Rowling. Do you recognize this to be the original agreement
6 between the NRA and Concord Social and Public Relations?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. And if you could please then go back to page 2.
9 And do you recognize that to be the first amendment to the 10 Concord Social and Public Relations contract?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And to the best of your knowledge, Ms. Rowling, there
13 was no business case analysis prepared for this first amendment,
14 is that correct?

15 A On the first amendment, I don't know.

16 Q Okay.

17 A I don't see one.

1 Q So, stepping back, Ms. Rowling: One of --

2 MR. THOMPSON: Withdrawn.

3 Q The Financial Services Division was supposed to 4 maintain copies of contracts that were used to pay invoices; is
5 that correct?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. So was Financial Services Division also supposed
8 to maintain any business case analysis that was prepared for a
9 contract?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And so, to the best of your knowledge, the Financial 12 Services Division did not have any business case analysis for 13 this First Amendment to the Concord Social and Public Relations
14 contract; is that correct?

15 A I don't recall, off the top of my head, if we had one
16 or not.

17 Q And if you could please go to the next page -- this is 18 page 3 of Exhibit 2139 -- that's Mr. Phillips's signature there, 19 at the top; is that correct?

20 (Image scrolled.)

21 A Yes.

22 Q Followed by Mr. LaPierre's signature?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. And to the best of your knowledge, Ms. Rowling,
25 did this First Amendment to the Concord contract change the

1 payment terms of the original Concord agreement?

2 A Payment terms? Do you mean -- specify. Dollar
3 amounts?

4 Q So the management fee that was called for, did it
5 change the amounts of the management fee from the original
6 Concord contract?

7 A No, it did not.

8 Q Okay. And then, if you could please go to page 12 of 9 this exhibit, 2139, do you recognize that to be the Second
10 Amendment to the Concord Social and Public Relations contract?

11 (Image scrolled.)

12 A Yes.

13 Q And again to the best of your knowledge, no business
14 case analysis for this contract; right?

15 A Not that I'm aware.

16 Q And no Signature Review Sheet; is that right?

17 A I'm sorry; what was that?

18 Q No Signature Review Sheet?

19 A Not that I'm aware.

20 Q And then, on the next page, so page 13, that's 21 Mr. LaPierre's signature at the top there; is that right?

22 (Image scrolled.)

23 A Yes.

24 Q Followed by Mr. Phillips'?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1046

1 Q Okay. And between the date of this contract in January

4 A I'm sorry; to what date, exactly?

5 Q Until 2022.

6 A Yes. I mean, to -- to Concord?

7 Q Yes.

8 A I don't believe so.

9 Q Okay. And then, if you can please turn to tab 26 of
10 your binder, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 1725 --

11 (Image scrolled.)

12 Q And do you recognize this to be the first amendment
13 between Allegiance Creative Group and the NRA?

1 that, but ...

2 Q Okay. And then, on the signature page, the next page,
3 page 4 --

5 Q -- that's Mr. Phillips' signature at the top?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Followed by Mr. LaPierre?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And again, Ms. Rowling, to the best of your knowledge,
10 no business case analysis for this amendment; is that correct?

11 A I don't recall.

12 Q And no Signature Review Sheet, to the best of your
13 knowledge?

14 A No.

15 Q Okay. All right.

16 And then, just very briefly, if you can turn all the 17 way back to tab 48 of your binder ...

18 MR. THOMPSON: And this is Exhibit 2260, which I
19 will offer into evidence.

20 (Image removed.)

21 (Pause.)

22 THE COURT: Is there any objection to this one?

2 THE COURT: Good.

3 It's admitted.

4 Q And so, starting, Ms. Rowling, on page 7, please ...?

5 (Image displayed.)

6 Q And my question is: Do you recognize this to be the 7 NRA's contract with Associated Television International?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And then, if you can go back; so, starting on page 2 --
10 and please feel free to review it, Ms. Rowling, but just 11 flipping through from page 2 to page 6, do you recognize these 12 to be the Contract Review Signature Sheet and Business Case
13 Analysis for the Associated Television International contract?

14 (Image scrolled.)

15 A Yes.

16 Q And so, on page 2, where it reads, "Negotiated by,"
17 that says that this contract was negotiated by Mr. LaPierre and 18 Mr. Phillips; is that correct?

19 A That's what it says, yes.

20 Q Okay. Great.

21 Ms. Rowling, are you aware of any disclosures that 22 Mr. LaPierre made during the bankruptcy from 2021 about any 23 conflicts of interest that he may have?

24 A Yes.

25 Q What is your understanding of his disclosure?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1050

1 A He disclosed a relationship with the owner of
2 Associated Television.

3 Q And is that also the owner of Membership Marketing
4 Partners?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And that's a man by the name of David McKenzie; is that
7 right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. So that was in early 2021 when he made that 10 disclosure; is that right?

11 A The time frame sounds correct.

12 Q Okay. If you can please go to tab 36 of your binder,
13 which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2425 ...?

14 (Image removed.)

15 MR. THOMPSON: Which I will offer into evidence.

16 (Pause.)

17 THE COURT: Any objection?

18 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

19 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

20 MS. COUTU: No objection.

21 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted; PX 2425.

22 Q So just a few background questions, Ms. Rowling:

23 In 2022, the NRA renegotiated its relationship with 24 Membership Marketing Partners, Allegiance and Concord; is that
25 right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1051

1 A That's correct.

2 Q And it consolidated all of the services into a single
3 contract with one of those three entities; is that right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. And if you could please go to page 2 --

6 Oh, I -- well ...

7 So, first of all, this is -- Exhibit 2425 is -- a
8 memorandum of understanding between the NRA and MMP that was put 9 together as part of the -- that -- renegotiation; is that
10 correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. And ultimately, the NRA entered into a contract
13 with Allegiance; is that correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. So, if you could please go to page 2 of this
16 exhibit, 2425 --

17 (Image scrolled.)

18 Q -- under "Compensation," the NRA agreed to pay a
19 monthly fee of $775,000 to MMP; is that correct?

20 A To Allegiance.

21 Q To Allegiance ultimately; is that right?

22 A Yes, that's correct.

23 Q Okay. That was about a 40 percent reduction in the 24 monthly fees that the NRA was paying to MMP, Allegiance and 25 Concord collectively; is that correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1052

1 A That's -- yes.

2 Q Okay. It was between 1.4 and 1.5 million a month; is
3 that right?

4 A Prior to this?

5 Q Yes.

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. And then, if you can go to page 4, please, of
8 Exhibit 2425 --

9 (Image scrolled.)

10 Q -- in the "It is so agreed," there is a signature on 11 behalf of MMP. Is that Murray Drechsler's signature?

12 A I believe it is.

13 Q And Murray Drechsler is the CFO of the MMP entities; is
14 that right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And then, is that your signature; like, an electronic 17 signature for you?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And then, under that is a signature from 20 Mr. LaPierre; is that right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And this is dated -- or his signature is dated -- July
23 29, 2022?

24 A Yes.

25 Q So this is about a year after Mr. LaPierre disclosed

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1053

1 his conflict of interest with the owner of Membership Marketing
2 Partners; is that right?

3 A I'm not sure when Mr. LaPierre disclosed. We -- we --
4 his conflict. We talked earlier about Mr. Phillips and what he 5 disclosed; his conflict.

6 Q So just to clarify: I believe you testified earlier
7 that Mr. LaPierre disclosed a conflict with David McKenzie over
8 the course of the bankruptcy in 2021; is that correct?

9 A I -- I apologize. I thought you had said "Phillips."
10 Maybe I was wrong, but, um ...

11 Q Okay. So are you aware of any disclosures that 12 Mr. LaPierre made with respect to conflicts of interest during 13 the bankruptcy in 2021?

14 A That time frame sounds appropriate.

15 Q Okay. And what are the conflicts that Mr. LaPierre
16 disclosed, to the best of your understanding?

17 A A relationship -- a personal relationship -- with the 18 owners of -- with the owner of MMP and ATI.

19 Q And then, if you could please go to tab 38 of your
20 binder, Ms. Rowling, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2426 ...

21 MR. THOMPSON: Which I will offer into evidence.

22 THE COURT: Any objection on this exhibit?

23 MS. EISENBERG: No objection, your Honor.

24 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

25 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1054

1 MS. COUTU: No objection.

2 THE COURT: It's admitted.

3 (Image displayed.)

4 BY MR. THOMPSON:

5 Q So, Ms. Rowling, this Exhibit, 2426, this is the 6 Contract Review Signature Sheet that was prepared for the new
7 Allegiance contract in 2022; is that correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. And if you can just go down to the middle of 10 this first page, under "Legal Review," is that Mr. Frazer's
11 signature?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. And then that's your signature in the first
14 line, for the "Financial & Business Review"; is that right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And then Mr. Erstling under that?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And then, "VS for Wayne LaPierre," is that Vanessa
19 Shahidi for Wayne LaPierre?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And Vanessa Shahidi is the Chief of Staff of the NRA;
22 is that correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And she reports directly to Mr. LaPierre?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1055

1 Q Now, going back up to the top of the page, under
2 "Responsible Officer Approval," that says Mr. LaPierre; right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q So Mr. LaPierre, in August of 2022, is listed as the 5 responsible officer approving the membership -- I'm sorry -- the 6 new Allegiance contract; is that correct?

7 A He's listed there as the responsible officer because
8 Membership reports directly to him. So he would be listed as 9 the responsible officer over where that division resides.

10 Q Doesn't everyone report to Mr. LaPierre?

11 A Yes, but if there is a -- there are specific officers
12 who would have other divisions under them. Myself, I have 13 Information Services; that would fall under me and my name would 14 be listed there (indicating).

15 Q But Mr. Grable, at the time, was the head of 16 Membership; wasn't he?

17 A And not an officer, so he reported directly to Wayne.

18 Q And so, the approving officer for this contract was 19 somebody who had disclosed a conflict of interest with the 20 contract; is that correct?

21 A It's -- it's not. He's acknowledging that he's aware
22 of this contract that falls under his purview.

23 Q And he is the responsible officer approving it; right,
24 Ms. Rowling?

25 A Overall, I -- he probably is approving it in that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1056

1 sense.

2 Q Okay. And so, Ms. Rowling, starting at page 4 of this
3 exhibit, 2426 --

4 (Image scrolled.)

5 Q -- is this the final contract that was entered into
6 between the NRA and Allegiance?

7 A It -- it appears to be, yes.

8 Q Okay. And was this contract --

9 If you can go all the way back to the signature pages
10 that start on the -- page 11 --

11 (Image scrolled.)

12 Q -- was this signed on August 18, 2022?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. And if you can flip back to the first page --

15 (Image scrolled.)

16 Q -- there are signatures from Mr. Cotton, Mr. Lee, and 17 Mr. Coy, for the President, First Vice President, and Second
18 Vice President, respectively; is that right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And those are also dated August 18, 2022; is that
21 right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Was this provided to -- was this contract provided to 24 Mr. Cotton, Mr. Lee, and Mr. Coy before the contract was signed?

25 A Yes. It's my understanding, it was.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1057

1 Q And so they received it and then signed it on the same
2 day that the contract was signed; is that correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay.

5 MR. THOMPSON: If we could --

6 Q So this is not in your binder but it has been admitted
7 into evidence, Ms. Rowling; Plaintiff's Exhibit 360.

8 MR. THOMPSON: And if you can go to the second
9 page, please, Jesse ...

10 (Image displayed.)

11 Q Ms. Rowling, do you recognize this document?

12 A Yes.

13 Q This is a document that was prepared by MMP and 14 provided to the NRA; is that correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And in it, MMP provides justifications for increases in 17 the management fee paid to the three MMP entities over the 18 years; is that correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q You never asked Mr. LaPierre whether any of the 21 statements in this Exhibit 360 were accurate, did you?

22 A Mr. LaPierre?

23 Q Yes.

24 A No.

25 Q Did you ever ask Mr. Phillips?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1058

1 A No.

2 Q To the best of your knowledge, did anyone at the NRA
3 ask Mr. LaPierre whether any of the statements in Exhibit 360
4 were accurate?

5 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor; calls for
6 speculation.

7 MR. THOMPSON: I'm just asking, to her knowledge,
8 your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Yes. If it was in front of you, yes.

10 A I'm not aware. No one's mentioned that to me.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 Q And to the best of your knowledge, Ms. Rowling, has 13 anyone at the NRA asked Mr. Phillips whether or not the 14 statements in Exhibit 360 are accurate?

15 MS. COUTU: Objection, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Same -- overruled.

17 I mean, he's asking for your personal knowledge.

18 THE WITNESS: I have no personal knowledge.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 Q And for many years, the NRA was, in fact, paying the 21 three MMP entities amounts above what were called for in the 22 original contracts; is that correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And, in fact, to take MMP as an example, the original
25 contract called for monthly payments of about $400,000; is that

1059

1 correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And by the time the contract was renegotiated in 2022,
4 the NRA was paying nine hundred and sixty-one thousand dollars,
5 eight hundred -- $961,850 to MMP; is that correct?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. And that was all done pursuant to verbal
8 approvals by either Mr. LaPierre or Mr. Phillips; is that
9 correct?

10 A I -- I have no personal knowledge of -- of that.

11 Q Okay. And so, when an invoice comes in to Financial 12 Services, where that invoice is tied to a contract, Financial 13 Services is supposed to determine that the invoice matches the 14 amount called for in the contract, where possible; is that
15 correct?

16 A If possible.

17 Q And so, for the period of time when the NRA was paying
18 Membership Marketing Partners, Concord and Allegiance amounts
19 above what was called for in the contract, an invoice would come
20 in and Financial Services had no way to determine whether or not 21 that was the correct amount to pay; is that correct?

22 A Not -- no, it's not correct.

23 Q What is incorrect about my question?

24 A Financial Services isn't making a determination on 25 whether services existed with a con -- with a -- with an

1 invoice. They are a processor of information. So, when a
2 invoice comes down, it has approvals. They rely on the 3 approvals and that those people approving the invoice are 4 certifying in their approval that services were performed.

5 Q Right. So the contract copies that Financial Services
6 had for Membership Marketing Partners, for example, called for 7 monthly payments of $400,000; right?

8 A Correct.

9 Q And then an invoice would come in for $961,000 --
10 $961,850 -- for that contract; right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And so, Financial Services would look at the contract
13 and look at the invoice and say, "These don't match"; right?

14 A They -- they could do that, yes.

15 Q Okay. And then they would just have to rely on 16 whoever's approval to pay the invoice, even though there was no
17 matching amount in the contract; right?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And who was approving the invoices between 2018 and 20 2022?

21 A I'd have to see who -- who was -- I'd have to see an 22 invoice with a -- with a name on it.

23 Q Okay. You agree with me, Ms. Rowling, that verbal
24 contracts are a violation of the NRA's policies; right?

25 A I don't know that our contract policy specifically

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1061

1 states that, but it's not ideal.

2 Q It's not a best practice, right?

3 A It isn't, no.

4 (Image removed.)

5 Q Before Mr. Spray joined the NRA, there were instances
6 where NRA vendors were paid without an existing contract; right?

7 A I would have to have a specific, but I believe that was 8 the case.

9 Q So, for example, the NRA was paying Sandra Froman --
10 right? -- for a period of years?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Did Ms. Froman have a contract with the NRA, to the 13 best of your knowledge?

14 A I don't recall, off the top of my head.

15 Q And Ms. Froman is a current board member; is that
16 right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And a former president of the NRA?

19 A Yes.

20 Q What about Dave Butz? The NRA was paying Mr. Butz for 21 a period of time; correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Was there a contract for Mr. Butz?

24 A Again, I -- I don't recall, off the top of my head.

25 Q Okay. What about David Keene? The NRA was paying

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1062

1 David Keene for a period of time; correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Was there a contract for Mr. Keene, to the best of your
4 knowledge?

5 A Again I don't recall.

6 Q Mr. Butz was a former board member of the NRA; is that
7 correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And Mr. Keene -- is he a current board member?

10 A He is.

11 Q And is he a former president?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. For a period of time, Mr. Phillips'
14 administrative assistant was Lisa Supernaugh; is that correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And Mr. -- I'm sorry. Ms. Supernaugh still works at 17 the NRA; is that correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And while Mr. Phillips was treasurer,
20 Ms. Supernaugh would tell Accounts Payable to process expense
21 reimbursements for Joshua Powell that did not have the 22 appropriate backup; is that correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And for years, several NRA senior executives were 25 passing expenses to the NRA through Ackerman McQueen as an

1063

1 intermediary; correct?

2 A I'm aware -- I'm aware that there were some, yes.

3 Q And that would happen through Ackerman's out-of-pocket
4 expense invoices; is that correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. And the executives who were doing that included
7 Mr. LaPierre, right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And Tyler Schropp?

10 A Yes.

11 MR. THOMPSON: And that's S-c-h-r-o-p-p, for our 12 reporter.

13 Q And Mr. Schropp is the current Executive Director of 14 Advancement; is that correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Advancement is the -- one of the -- fund-raising arms
17 of the NRA; is that correct?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q Okay.

20 And as we mentioned, Ms. Rowling, these invoices that
21 would come in to the NRA from Ackerman, they would just say
22 "out-of-pocket expenses," with no additional detail; correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And Financial Services would process and pay those
25 invoices; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1064

1 A Yes.

2 Q In your opinion, Ms. Rowling, do invoices with that
3 lack -- level of lack -- of detail violate any NRA policies?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Did they at the time?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And Financial Services would still pay them, right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Why would Financial Services pay the invoices even 10 though they violated NRA policy?

11 A There was an understanding that audits were taking 12 place of the out-of-pocket expenses relating to Ackerman
13 McQueen.

14 Q And those were audits being conducted by Mr. Tedrick?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Did you ever, personally, speak with Mr. Tedrick about 17 the audits that he was conducting?

18 A No.

19 Q And so, where did your understanding that these audits
20 were occurring come from?

21 A I didn't speak in detail about what his audits
22 entailed; we were told audits were taking place.

23 Q Told by whom?

24 A I believe I heard it through a colleague.

25 Q Do you recall which colleague?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1065

1 A I don't.

2 Q Okay. Ms. Rowling, you do not believe that
3 Mr. Phillips was fulfilling his duties as treasurer when he was
4 failing to enforce the NRA's hundred-thousand-dollar contract
5 policy; correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And you thought that Mr. Phillips was not fulfilling
8 his duties when he failed to require appropriate business
9 purpose justification for vendors; right?

10 A I'm -- I'm sorry; can you repeat that?

11 Q Sure.

12 MR. THOMPSON: Let me withdraw and ask again.

13 Q So you believe that Mr. Phillips was not fulfilling his 14 duties as treasurer when he failed to require appropriate
15 business purpose justification for expense reimbursements;
16 correct?

17 A Correct, yes.

18 Q And you thought that he was failing in his duties by 19 allowing NRA employees to have Ackerman credit cards, right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And while Mr. Phillips was the treasurer of the NRA,
22 there were certain vendors that you considered to be
23 untouchable; right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And those were vendors that you couldn't question,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1066

1 right?

2 A Well, we couldn't -- I guess I don't -- what do you
3 mean, "couldn't question"?

4 I mean, did we have a direct relationship to talk to 5 them? No, we did not. We did not question them directly.

6 Q So an invoice would come in from --

7 Well, let me step back: Ackerman McQueen was one
8 vendor that you considered untouchable; is that correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And so, an Ackerman McQueen invoice would come in and 11 you and your colleagues did not feel you could question the 12 amount in the invoice; right?

13 A Correct.

1 Q And you came to understand over your time at the NRA
2 that those invoices were always approved, correct?

3 A I -- I don't know. We got approved invoices in the 4 financial services division. I can't say if there were others
5 that came in that were not approved.

6 Q So, the NRA has a budget for its vendors, is that
7 correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And Ackerman -- The Ackerman spending would frequently
10 exceed what was budgeted for, is that correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q No matter how much it exceeded the budget, the amounts
13 were always approved to be paid to Ackerman, is that correct?

14 A Again, I can't say if something was always approved.

15 Q Do you recall being deposed in connection with your 16 litigation in this matter, Ms. Rowling?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And you gave truthful testimony at that litigation?

19 A Yes.

20 Q That deposition. I'm sorry. Do you recall testifying
21 that "We were always informed this", meaning Ackerman was 22 approved, "this is going forward even if it wasn't in the 23 budget"?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. And that was accurate?

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1068

1 A Yes, but you were asking me if all invoices were always
2 approved. I can't say that they were. If we didn't see it, we
3 didn't know if something got rejected or not.

4 Q But can you remember a single instance where an
5 Ackerman invoice was not approved?

6 A I wouldn't know.

7 Q All right.

8 THE COURT: I'm going to ask the IT people to 9 increase the volume on the witness' mike.

10 THE WITNESS: I don't think it was on.

11 THE COURT: That might be part of the problem.

12 Thank you.

13 Q If you could please turn to tab three of your binder,
14 Ms. Rowling.

15 THE COURT: Counsel, just a head's up we have about 16 seven minutes before our break.

17 MR. THOMPSON: Okay. Thank you, your Honor. This 18 is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2179, which I will offer into 19 evidence subject to redaction of the phone numbers in this
20 exhibit.

21 THE COURT: Are you moving this in?

22 MR. THOMPSON: I'm sorry. I'm moving it into
23 evidence, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Is there any objection from defendants?

25 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1069

1 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

2 MS. COUTU: No objection.

3 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

4 THE COURT: It's admitted subject to redacting.

5 Q So, Ms. Rowling, without reading the number out loud,
6 is that your phone number next to your name at the top of
7 exhibit 2179?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And in this text message you're communicating with 10 Emily Cummins, is that correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Emily Cummins was a former colleague of yours?

13 A Yes.

14 Q What was Ms. Cummins' title, if you recall?

15 A Managing director of compliance and something, I'm not 16 exactly sure.

17 Q Okay. And then if you could turn to page 3 of this 18 exchange, about half way down there is a text message from 19 Ms. Cummins to you, "That's ironic about trying to control how 20 they view their accounting. The problems with (c)(4) excessive
21 spending aren't in the ILA." Do you see that?

22 A (Examining). Yes.

23 Q If you could turn to the last page, I'm sorry not the 24 last page, page 4. You respond to Ms. Cummins and "Yes, 25 everyone knows where the spending problem is, but that is

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1070

1 untouchable and the real reason behind the need for control."

2 Do you see that?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And who were you or what were you referring to in this
5 text message as being untouchable?

6 A Ackerman McQueen.

7 Q Okay. In 2018, while you were in the director of 8 accounting operations, you had a direct report named Portia
9 Padilla, is that correct?

10 A Yes.

11 MR. THOMPSON: P-A-D-I-L-L-A for our reporter.

12 Q Ms. Padilla was in accounts payable, is that correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And she's still at the NRA, is that right?

15 A Yes, she is.

16 Q Okay. Ms. Padilla came to you on several occasions to 17 report pressure she received from Ms. Supernaugh to pay things
18 that Ms. Supernaugh reported to have been approved by 19 Mr. Phillips, is that correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Or to have been approved by Mr. LaPierre?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Or by Mr. Powell?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay.

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1071

1 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, I'm about to start a new
2 exhibit.

3 THE COURT: Why don't we take our lunch break now,
4 and we'll reconvene at 2:15.

5 During the break you're essentially still on the 6 stand, so you shouldn't discuss the substance of your
7 testimony with anyone while we're away.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

11 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: See everybody at 2:15.

19 MR. THOMPSON: The parties have just stipulated to 20 a few of the 990s being put into evidence. And we would 21 like to put them on the record, if we may.

22 THE COURT: The jury should be aware of what I'm
23 admitting, so I would rather do it when they are here.

24 MR. THOMPSON: Sure. Of course.

25 THE COURT: Is that just to speed up things on the

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1 witness testimony?

2 MR. THOMPSON: That's right, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: We'll have the witness on and then you
4 can do whatever you're going to do to admit things in
5 advance.

6 MR. THOMPSON: Okay. Thank you, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I would also note that I'm uploading, I
8 did so order the stipulation of settlement. I put a note in 9 there specifically saying, you can read it, but in substance
10 it says that it's premised in part on the representation
11 that was made about paragraph 10 applying only to the claims
12 against Mr. Phillips, and that it does not apply to or 13 restrain in any way truthful testimony about claims against 14 any of the other parties.

15 MS. STERN: Your Honor, I think you meant
16 Mr. Powell.

17 THE COURT: Everything I said, if I said another
18 name, it was Mr. Powell. Anyway, I'm fairly confident I
19 used the right word in the written order that is being
20 uploaded as we speak. All right. Let's get the jury.

21 THE COURT OFFICER: Is the Court ready for the
22 witness?

23 THE COURT: Yes. Let's have the witness come up
24 too. Thanks.

25 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1073

1 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

2 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome back everybody. Have a
3 seat. Okay. Mr. Thompson, you may continue. I understand
4 you may have some stipulation that will speed things along
5 in terms of introduction of exhibits. By the way, I did ask
6 them to boost the volume on the witness' mike. We'll see
7 what happens.

8 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor. Am I coming
9 through all right? Okay. We would like to move several of 10 the Form 990s for the NRA into evidence. So, the 2014 990,
11 which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 3563. The 2015 990, which is 12 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3564. The 2016 990, which is 13 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3565. The 2017 990, which is 14 Plaintiff's Exhibit 161. I believe the 2019 is already in 15 evidence. And then I'm actually -- I don't have the exhibit
16 number for the 2020 at the moment, but the 2021 990 is 17 Plaintiff's Exhibit 225. And the 2022 990 is Plaintiff's
18 Exhibit 226.

19 THE COURT: And I take it that it's been stipulated
20 these are all admissible?

21 MS. EISENBERG: Yes, your Honor.

22 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So that will speed things along
24 when these come in. They are all admitted. So you can 25 treat them as such when they come up in the testimony.

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1074

1 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you, your Honor. Plaintiff's
2 Exhibit No. 2374 is the 2020 990.

3 THE COURT: That's admitted.

4 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Rowling. So before we broke for 5 lunch we were discussing some concerns that Ms. Padilla had 6 raised to you about Ms. Supernaugh telling Ms. Padilla to 7 approve things on Mr. Phillips' behalf, right?

8 A Not approve, no.

9 Q To process things on Mr. Phillips' behalf, right?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q Okay. If you could please turn to tab 22 of your 12 binder, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2053, which I will move to 13 admit.

14 THE COURT: Any objections to this document?

15 MS. EISENBERG: No, your Honor.

16 MR. CORRELL: No, your Honor.

17 MS. COUTU: No, your Honor.

18 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

19 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted.

20 Q So, Ms. Rowling, this is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2053,
21 which is an e-mail that Ms. Padilla sent you in April of 2018,
22 is that correct?

23 A (Examining). Yes.

24 Q And you actually asked Ms. Padilla to put this e-mail
25 together to send to you, is that correct?

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1075

1 A Yes.

2 Q And in this e-mail Ms. Padilla is describing instances
3 where Lisa Supernaugh has instructed Ms. Padilla to process
4 things because Mr. LaPierre or, I'm sorry, because Mr. Phillips
5 told her to, correct?

6 A I believe it states that she had a perceived threat
7 from Mr. Phillips. Like Ms. Supernaugh wasn't necessarily 8 saying Mr. Phillips said to approve this. It was a, this needs
9 to be approved.

10 Q Okay. And if you can look at the last paragraph on the 11 first page that carries over to the second page. Ms. Padilla
12 writes, "It seems that when I raise inconvenient or 13 controversial questions, I'm likely to hear answers like 'Woody
14 said to pay this as submitted' or 'Josh will throw a fit' or 'We 15 don't want this to reach Wayne' or 'Jerry said to pay this'. Do 16 you see that?

17 A Yes.

18 Q That's referring to Woody Phillips, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Joshua Powell?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Wayne LaPierre?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And then Joe DeBergalis, right?

25 A Yes.

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1076

1 Q And Mr. DeBergalis is the former head of General
2 Operations, is that correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. And you actually sent Ms. Padilla's e-mail along
5 to Human Resources, is that correct?

6 A Yes, I did.

7 Q Did you provide it to the head of Human Resources,
8 Linda Crouch?

9 A Yes.

10 Q You never heard anything back from Ms. Crouch about the 11 e-mail, correct?

12 A I approached Ms. Crouch about the e-mail.

13 Q What did Ms. Crouch say about the e-mail?

14 A She informed me that she had a discussion with Ms.
15 Supernaugh.

16 Q With Ms. Supernaugh?

17 A Mm-hmm.

18 Q Do you know what the sum or substance of that 19 conversation was?

20 A No.

21 Q Okay. You were one of the authors of the top concerns
22 memo that was presented to the audit committee in the summer of
23 2018, correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q The concerns that you and your colleagues raised in the

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1077

1 top concerns memorandum, did you, prior to providing that
2 memorandum to the audit committee, did you discuss any of those
3 concerns with Mr. Phillips?

4 A Not directly.

5 Q Did you ever discuss them with Mr. LaPierre?

6 A Not directly.

7 Q With Mr. Frazer?

8 A No, not directly.

9 Q You did discuss them with Mr. Tedrick, correct?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And then Mr. Tedrick would tell you that he was going
12 to talk to Woody about it for example?

13 A Yes. And if I can clarify. We didn't necessarily 14 bring those specific concerns up to other people. They were 15 general types of concerns.

16 Q General types of concerns, like invoices not having 17 sufficient detail, right?

18 A Correct.

19 Q General concerns like management subordinating its 20 interests to vendors, right?

21 A No. That was not something I ever brought up.

22 Q When you brought your concerns regarding, for example,
23 vague invoicing to Mr. Tedrick, he, to the best of your 24 knowledge, didn't do anything about it, right?

25 A No. My understanding was that he had gone or knew that

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1078

1 Woody had either approved it himself or had said that these are
2 fine. We know about them. We know the support. So that's what
3 he relayed to me. I had no reason not to believe him.

4 Q Right. You had no reason not to believe him, is that
5 correct?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And the actual detailing in the invoices didn't change,
8 correct?

9 A No.

10 Q So the invoices continued to be unacceptably vague,
11 right?

12 A They continued to be vague.

13 Q And the vagueness was a violation of NRA policy, right?

14 A Well, I don't know that vagueness is necessarily a word
15 in the NRA policy. The NRA policy required a description on an 16 invoice or a business purpose associated.

17 Q A business purpose that these invoices lacked, right?

18 A I'm sorry. Could you repeat that?

19 Q A business purpose that these invoices lacked, right?

20 A I mean, it would depend. I mean, an invoice, if it's 21 associated with a contract, would necessarily have a contract
22 behind it. So, there could be a -- a description on the invoice
23 that wasn't necessarily clear of what the business purpose was.
24 It could say, you know, payment number two from this contract.
25 So, an invoice might not have a business purpose on it.

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1079

1 Q Right. So an invoice that says out-of-pocket expenses
2 and requires payment of a few hundred thousand dollars is
3 unacceptably vague, right?

4 A It's definitely vague.

5 Q Okay. And is a violation of NRA policy that requires a
6 business purpose before paying an invoice, right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q So, it wasn't until Mr. Spray joined the NRA in 2018
9 that you brought your concerns to anyone in senior management,
10 is that correct?

11 A Mr. Spray provided us, provided me and my colleagues a
12 platform to do so. We held meetings. We held weekly meetings
13 for him to learn and understand the organization. So there was 14 a clear difference there in -- in my role and how I reported.

15 Q Right. So the question is, it wasn't until Mr. Spray
16 joined the NRA in 2018 that you brought any of your concerns to 17 senior management, right?

18 A Directly, correct.

19 Q Okay. Mr. Tedrick was not a part of the process in 20 compiling the top concerns, correct?

21 A His role was basically I e-mailed the list to him. So
22 he was involved in that respect. I know he was asked to provide 23 input by Mr. Spray.

24 Q But you were worried about Mr. Tedrick altering the top
25 concerns memo, weren't you?

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1080

1 A Yes. We wanted to make sure that everything that was
2 on there got -- got submitted.

3 Q So, you did not want Mr. Tedrick altering the 4 memorandum, correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q And you were worried about him doing so, right?

7 A I wasn't sure. So, I wanted to make sure that it
8 wasn't altered. It was important that it wasn't altered.

9 Q And then you prepared -- I'm sorry -- you prepared a
10 personal statement for the audit committee meeting in July of
11 2018, correct?

12 A Prior to the audit committee meeting I prepared a
13 statement.

14 Q Yes. And ultimately you did not give that statement at 15 the audit committee meeting, is that correct?

16 A That is correct.

17 MR. THOMPSON: Can we please --

18 Q If you could please turn to tab five of your binder.

19 MR. THOMPSON: This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 3009,
20 which I will move to admit.

21 THE COURT: Any objection?

22 MS. EISENBERG: No objection, your Honor.

23 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

24 MS. COUTU: No objection.

25 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1081

1 THE COURT: It's admitted, Plaintiff's
2 Exhibit 3009.

3 Q So, if I could take you down to the third paragraph.
4 Well first, Ms. Rowling, this is the personal statement that you
5 prepared, correct?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And if I could take you down to the third paragraph.
8 You write, "I fully believe this meeting is being manipulated in 9 a way as to try to explain away our issues or try to claim the 10 items on the list are fixed before we could present to them as 11 whistle blowing." This accurately reflects how you were feeling
12 at the time you wrote this, correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q And you actually believed there was a mistake that you
15 did not present this to the audit committee, correct?

16 A No. I believe I had said that it was a mistake that I
17 did not announce myself at that committee meeting as a
18 whistleblower specifically.

19 Q Do you recall -- So, we spoke earlier. You recall
20 testifying at your deposition in this action?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And you gave truthful testimony?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay.

25 MR. THOMPSON: Can we please play the clip from

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1082

1 page 176, line nine through 177, line four.

2 (Whereupon the video is being played.)

3 MR. THOMPSON: You can stop it there, Jessie.

4 Q That testimony was accurate at the time you gave it,
5 right, Ms. Rowling?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. And then the audit committee ultimately released
8 a report in September of 2018, is that correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And when you got that report, it made you feel sick,
11 correct?

12 A That was, yes, that was a statement in a text.

13 Q If you could please look at tab six of your binder,
14 which I will move to admit subject to redacting the personal
15 information.

16 THE COURT: Any objection?

17 MS. EISENBERG: No objection, your Honor.

18 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted.

20 MR. THOMPSON: Just for the record, this is
21 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3085.

22 Q Ms. Rowling, this is a text exchange between you and 23 Ms. Cummins, correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q From September of 2018, is that right?

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1083

1 A Yes.

2 Q And you asked Ms. Cummins if she had seen the audit
3 committee meetings, do you see that?

4 A Correct.

5 Q There you were referring to the audit committee minutes
6 that were released in September of 2018?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And Ms. Cummins responds "No". And you reply, "I have 9 them. When I get in, I will come by. They make me sick." Is 10 that right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Does that accurately reflect how you felt at the time?

13 A At the time.

14 Q And over the summer of 2018 you and your colleagues
15 each individually met with external counsel for the NRA to 16 discuss your concerns, is that correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And one of your colleagues, Ms. Cummins, reported to 19 you that her meetings with counsel did not go well, is that
20 correct?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And Ms. Cummins ultimately left the NRA in the fall of
23 2018, is that correct?

24 A Yes. I think that time sounds right.

25 Q Okay. Now at the time that the audit committee

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1084

1 released its report in September of 2018, you felt like the
2 audit committee was fixing isolated instances or incidences
3 instead of fixing the root cause of the problems that you and
4 your colleagues had identified, is that correct?

5 A At that time.

6 Q Ms. Rowling, you were considering leaving the NRA
7 between 2018 and the beginning of 2021, is that correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And you and your colleagues would discuss whether or 10 not you could find employment outside of the NRA, correct?

11 A Yes. It's a natural discussion.

12 Q And that's because you know the NRA being a political 13 lightning rod, it might be difficult to find other employment, is
14 that correct?

15 A There was always that concern.

16 Q But then you stopped considering leaving the NRA after 17 you became the acting CFO in February of 2021, is that correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q At its highest your salary as director of accounting
20 operations was about 180,000, is that correct?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And then when you became acting CFO in February of 23 2021, your salary increased to 400,000, is that correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Is that your current salary, 400,000?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. To the best of your knowledge, Ms. Rowling,
3 between 2018 and 2022 who was responsible for the NRA's
4 compliance?

5 A 2018 to '22? I mean, compliance is the responsibility
6 of everyone in the organization. There are different roles
7 depending on -- the treasurer's role has some specific
8 compliance requirements in certain policies we have. And I know
9 the secretary and general counsel's office has specific 10 compliance requirements associated in that role as well.

1086

1 Q Are you aware of anyone at the NRA who has gone back
2 through expense reimbursements that were paid to NRA board
3 members while Mr. Phillips was treasurer to determine whether or 4 not board members received excess benefits?

5 A There would really be no reason to do that; not expense
6 reports. Expense reports always went through the normal
7 accounts payable process, which would have identified any 8 issues. I mean, Ms. Padilla was always very open about any 9 issues she would find. As well, the secretary's office issues
10 statements whenever board members travel through -- through --
11 for meetings, that there's a per diem rate and the secretary's 12 office, in their review of those expense reports, would -- would 13 have marked down anything that should -- was above and beyond
14 what was supposed to happen.

15 Q But, as we discussed -- I'm sorry.

16 Were you finished, Ms. Rowling?

17 A Yes.

18 Q But, as we discussed earlier, occasionally, while 19 Mr. Phillips was the treasurer, Accounts Payable would be 20 directed to pay something even though it didn't have appropriate
21 expense backup; right?

22 A He would on occasion, but I don't recall ever there
23 being an issue pointed out to me by Ms. Padilla about board
24 members.

25 Q But you don't know, right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1087

1 A She would have pointed those out to me.

2 Q But she didn't?

3 A No.

4 Q Okay. And you don't, personally, know whether or not
5 anyone has reviewed board member expenses paid while 6 Mr. Phillips was the treasurer to see whether or not they had 7 the appropriate expense backup; right?

8 A I didn't feel it was necessary.

9 Q But you didn't, right?

10 A No, I did not.

11 Q Okay.

12 If you can please turn to -- or, actually, we'll pull
13 this one up on the screen. So this is already admitted into 14 evidence, the 2019 990, Plaintiff's Exhibit 159.

15 MR. THOMPSON: And if we can please go to page 99
16 of the exhibit ...?

17 (Image displayed.)

18 MR. THOMPSON: And if we can blow up the last box,
19 the one that says, "board member travel" ...?

20 (Image modified.)

21 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you.

22 Q So, Ms. Rowling, in the 2019 990, the NRA reported that 23 it was undertaking a review of whether or not certain board
24 members received business or first-class travel without prior 25 authorization; is that correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1088

1 A Yes.

2 Q And you were one of the people responsible for that
3 review; is that correct?

4 A Not responsible for the review. I was gathering
5 information associated with that review.

6 Q Right. So you were tasked with giving -- gathering the 7 data that would be used for the review; is that fair to say?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. And that review occurred shortly before the 10 NRA's 2020 990 was filed in 2021; is that correct?

11 A The original review started, actually, before the 12 filing of this '19 990 and then there was an added request of 13 looking for years further back, right before this filing of this 14 990.

15 Q And so, that latter process, the one going further back
16 to look at board member travel, that occurred shortly before the 17 2020 990 was filed in 2021; correct?

18 A Yes.

19 (Image removed.)

20 Q Okay. And so, tab 7 of your binder contains the cover
21 e-mail for a spreadsheet, and I can -- we can -- show you the 22 spreadsheet separately.

23 MR. THOMPSON: But to begin with, I would like to 24 move into evidence Plaintiff's Exhibit 1914, if there's no
25 objection.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1089

1 THE COURT: Is the exhibit just the cover e-mail or
2 does it also include the attachment?

3 MR. THOMPSON: It will also include the attachment.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Do the defendants object?

5 MS. EISENBERG: No objection, your Honor.

6 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

7 MS. COUTU: No objection.

8 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

9 THE COURT: Okay. PX 1914 with attachment is
10 admitted.

11 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you.

12 (Image displayed.)

13 BY MR. THOMPSON:

14 Q So, looking at the cover e-mail first, Ms. Rowling, do
15 you recognize this to be the 2017 data that you provided to 16 Mr. Frazer as part of this review of board member travel?

17 A Well, this -- this e-mail is about an e-mail I sent to 18 Rick, but -- Mr. Tedrick -- but that -- it looks like that would 19 have been the -- the Excel surrounding the 2017 data.

20 Q Sure.

21 MR. THOMPSON: And can we pull up the Excel,
22 please?

23 (Image displayed.)

24 Q So, Ms. Rowling, we can, you know, scroll over or down
25 as you would like, but does this appear to be the collection of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1090

1 data from the NRA's travel vendor that was used to determine
2 whether or not board members flew with appropriate authorization
3 in 2017?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay.

6 And then --

7 MR. THOMPSON: We can take that down, Jesse.

8 (Image removed.)

9 Q And I would also like to show you Plaintiff's Exhibit
10 628, which is not in evidence -- and we'll need to turn off the 11 screens -- for identification.

12 628.

13 THE TECHNICIAN: That was 628.

14 MR. THOMPSON: That was 1914, I think, that we just 15 did.

16 Oh, sorry.

17 (Image displayed.)

18 THE COURT: So not --

19 MR. THOMPSON: Sorry.

20 Can you take this (indicating) down for a second?

21 (Image removed.)

22 MR. THOMPSON: Can we turn off the TV [sic], so we 23 can have Ms. Rowling look at it? Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Hang on one second.

25 (Pause.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1091

1 BY MR. THOMPSON:

2 Q So, Ms. Rowling, on the screen is an Excel that we've
3 marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 628. Does this appear to be the
4 spreadsheet that was provided by the NRA's travel vendor,
5 showing the flight data for 2018?

6 A For 2018? Yes.

7 Q Okay.

8 MR. THOMPSON: And I would move to admit this into
9 evidence, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Any objection?

11 MS. EISENBERG: The NRA has no objection, your
12 Honor.

13 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

14 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

15 MS. COUTU: No objection.

16 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted.

17 (Image displayed.)

18 Q So, Ms. Rowling, in connection with that review of 19 board member travel that was reported in the 2019 990, your role 20 in the process was to collect this data, like the data in 21 Exhibit 628, and provide it to Mr. Frazer; is that correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And then Mr. Frazer, to the best of your understanding,
24 was the one who made a determination as to whether or not board
25 member travel that was first or business class was authorized;

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1092

1 is that correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q You had no role in that substantive determination about
4 whether or not it was authorized; correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q Okay.

7 MR. THOMPSON: And you can take that down. Thank 8 you, Jesse.

9 (Image removed.)

10 Q And if you'd look at tab 21 of your binder,
11 Ms. Rowling, this is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2347, which is the --

12 MR. THOMPSON: Well, which I would move into
13 evidence.

14 THE COURT: Any objection?

15 Isn't this one you already moved in?

16 MR. THOMPSON: This is an amended one, your Honor,
17 not the original.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 Is there an objection to that one?

20 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

21 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

22 MS. COUTU: No objection.

23 THE COURT: So this was outside the stipulation as 24 to the other ones?

25 (Laughter.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1093

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'll go out on a limb
2 and admit it.

3 (Image displayed.)

4 BY MR. THOMPSON:

5 Q Ms. Rowling, this is the NRA's 2020 990 -- the amended
6 version -- correct?

7 A It's a little hard for me to tell, but I might have to 8 take your word for it.

9 Q If we look over -- towards the top, there's a little
10 "b, check if applicable," on the left-hand side and do you see, 11 there's a little mark, an amended return (indicating)?

12 A Yes, I see that.

13 Q Okay. And then you electronically signed this 990; is
14 that correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. And then, if we can please go to page 88, using 17 the bottommost page numbers and the last box on that page ...

18 (Image scrolled.)

19 Q Let me know when you're there.

20 This reflects the NRA's report of the conclusion of its 21 review of the review of board travel; correct?

22 A Of ... of first-class and business-class flights, yes.

23 Q Okay. And the NRA reported that it believes such 24 travel was for a legitimate business purpose; correct?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1094

1 Q Okay. And, again, you did not have any role in making
2 that determination as to whether or not it was for a legitimate
3 business purpose; correct?

4 A No, I did not.

5 Q Okay. To the best of your knowledge, Ms. Rowling, did
6 Mr. Frazer make that determination?

7 A That's my understanding, yes.

8 Q Do you have any understanding of anyone else who was 9 involved in the process?

10 A I -- I don't know.

11 Q All right.

12 MR. THOMPSON: If we could please bring up
13 Plaintiff's Exhibit 2512, which is already in evidence, the 14 2018 990 ...

15 (Image displayed.)

16 Q And if we could go to page 16, please ...

17 (Image scrolled.)

18 Q And we're looking at section B, question 12.

19 (Image modified.)

20 Q So, Ms. Rowling, looking at question 12c of the NRA's
21 2018 990, the NRA reported that it consistently monitored and 22 enforced compliance with a conflict-of-interest policy; correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q The NRA was paying the MMP entities in 2018; correct?

25 A Correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1095

1 Q The NRA was also paying an entity called McKenna and
2 Associates in 2018; correct?

3 A Correct.

4 Q And that was one of the entities that you and your 5 colleagues raised a concern about in the Top Concerns memo; is
6 that correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Specifically, because Joshua Powell, his --

9 MR. THOMPSON: I'm sorry. Did I just turn off?

10 Oh, there we go.

11 Q -- because Mr. Powell's wife worked for McKenna and 12 Associates; is that correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q And as far as you know, that was an undisclosed
15 conflict of interest; is that right?

16 A As far as I knew.

17 Q All right. And there were several other conflicts of 18 interest that you and your colleagues raised concerns --

19 MR. THOMPSON: Testing ...

20 Let me withdraw and try again.

21 Q There were also several other conflicts of interest
22 that you and your colleagues raised concerns about in the Top
23 Concerns memorandum; is that correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And that was in 2018; correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1096

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And then, if we can please go to page 53 of
3 Exhibit 2512 ...

4 So this is Schedule J.

5 MR. THOMPSON: And if we could please look at 6 questions 1a through 2, just blow that up ...

7 (Image scrolled, then modified.)

8 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you.

9 Q So, in Schedule J, this is where the NRA reports
10 whether it provided certain benefits to certain executives; is
11 that correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And it also reports whether or not that was done
14 pursuant to a written policy; correct?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And it also requires the organization to say whether or 17 not it required substantiation prior to reimbursing for any of 18 those benefits; correct?

19 A "Prior"? I'm sorry; can you repeat that?

20 Q Sure.

21 MR. THOMPSON: Let me withdraw and try again.

22 A Sorry.

23 Q Question 2 of Schedule J here (indicating), Part I,
24 asks: "Did the organization require substantiation prior to 25 reimbursing or allowing expenses incurred by all directors,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1097

1 trustees and officers?" Right?

2 A Correct.

3 Q Okay. So the NRA reported, for 2018, that it did
4 provide first-class or charter travel; correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And travel for companions?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And housing allowances?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And health or social club dues.

11 A Yes.

12 Q And then the NRA reported that it followed a written
13 policy with respect to each of those items; correct?

14 A This -- this box is a little -- was a little confusing
15 in that I believe our paid preparer of this form at the time
16 took this to say, "Do some of -- do any of these have a policy?"
17 and the answer was "Yes." But if you were to go to where it
18 says, "If 'no,' please complete Part III," the explanation was 19 actually there, anyways, even if -- even though we didn't mark
20 the box itself "no."

21 So I -- I believe the paid preparer, at that point, had 22 a different view on how to check that box.

23 MR. THOMPSON: Move to strike as nonresponsive,
24 your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Overruled.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1098

1 Q Ms. Rowling, yes or no: The NRA reported, in 2018,
2 that the organization followed a written policy regarding the
3 payment or reimbursement or provision of all of the expenses
4 described in Part I, question 1a; correct?

5 A That box was marked "yes" --

6 Q Okay.

7 A -- to that question.

8 Q All right. And then, if we can, please -- if you can
9 look at tab 18 of your binder, this is another amended 990.

10 MR. THOMPSON: Which I will move into evidence;
11 Plaintiff's Exhibit 2346.

12 (Image removed.)

13 THE COURT: Any objection?

14 MS. EISENBERG: None, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: It's admitted.

16 (Image displayed.)

17 Q So, Ms. Rowling, this is the NRA's amended 2018 990;
18 correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Which you signed in November of 2021; correct?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. And if you can please go to page 6 --

23 (Image scrolled.)

24 Q -- we're looking at section B, question 11a and -b.

25 (Image modified.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1099

1 Q "Has the organization provided a complete copy of this
2 Form 990 to all members of its governing body before filing the
3 form?" And the NRA checked "yes"; correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And you did not provide a copy of the amended return to 6 the full board before it was filed, did you?

7 A No.

8 Q Okay. And then please go to page 96 of Exhibit 2346.

9 (Image scrolled.)

10 Q So, Ms. Rowling, this is Schedule J of the amended
11 2018 990, and the NRA reported that it provided first-class
12 travel, travel for companions, housing allowances, and health
13 and social club dues in 2018; correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And then the NRA again checked that it followed a
16 written policy regarding payment or reimbursement or provision
17 of all of the expenses described in Part I, question 1a;
18 correct?

19 A That box is checked "yes."

20 Q You didn't do anything to ensure the accuracy of this
21 statement when you filed the amended 2018 990, did you?

22 A I relied on the process of -- that we have in place in 23 order to compile the information for this 990 and the fact that
24 it was done by a paid preparer.

25 Q Yeah. And so, the paid preparer recommended that you

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1100

1 check "no" to a box that says "reimbursement or provision of all
2 of the expenses described above"?

3 THE COURT: I think you may have --

4 MR. THOMPSON: Cut out there?

5 THE COURT: You may not have used the word that you
6 were intending to use.

7 MR. THOMPSON: Oh, okay.

8 Let me withdraw and try again.

9 Q So, did you rely on your paid preparer when answering
10 "yes" to a question asking whether or not the NRA followed a 11 written policy regarding reimbursement or provision of all of 12 the expenses described in Part I, question 1a, of the 990?

13 A I was not involved in the original process, so I wasn't 14 going to question that original process. I was not involved in 15 the preparation of the original 2018 990.

16 Q The NRA did not, in fact, follow a written policy
17 regarding travel -- charter travel -- in 2018; correct?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q The NRA did not follow a written policy regarding 20 travel for companions in 2018; correct?

21 A Let me restate that: We didn't have a written policy
22 regarding those things.

23 Q Right. So the NRA didn't follow a written policy
24 regarding any of these things -- right? -- except for 25 first-class travel.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1101

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Okay. So the NRA's paid preparer, to the best of your
3 understanding, recommended that because you have -- because the 4 NRA, at the time, had -- a policy governing first-class travel,
5 that it was okay to check "yes" to question 1b of Schedule J;
6 correct?

7 A And then provide explanation on Part III.

8 Q The ... Let me go to the Part III explanation.

9 MR. THOMPSON: I think it's one or two pages down,
10 Jesse.

11 (Image scrolled.)

12 MR. THOMPSON: There we go. Great.

13 Q So the --

14 MR. THOMPSON: I'm sorry.

15 (Image modified.)

16 MR. THOMPSON: There we go.

17 Q So this is page 98 of Exhibit 2346.

18 Are you referring to the explanation that begins, "Part
19 I, line 1a," at the top here (indicating), Ms. Rowling?

20 A Yes.

21 Q So that says: "Charter travel was used on occasions
22 when travel logistics or security" --

23 THE COURT: Read a little more slowly.

24 MR. THOMPSON: I'm sorry.

25 Q -- "Charter travel was used on occasions when travel

1102

1 logistics or security concerns precluded other available
2 options"; correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q It doesn't say that there was no policy for charter
5 travel; correct?

6 A No, but the -- the requirement is to say what it was
7 used for, not that there was no policy. It said, "Please
8 explain."

9 (Pause.)

10 Q Ms. Rowling, a paid preparer did not sign the amended
11 2018 990; correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Did an external consultant review the amended 2018 990?

14 A I don't recall.

15 Q The NRA had an external consultant for reviewing 990s
16 at the time; correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q That was Aronson -- is that right? -- at the time?

19 A Aronson would review their -- the -- the 990s that were 20 done with -- when they were our auditors, but we also had a tax
21 attorney reviewing 990s.

22 Q Okay.

23 MR. THOMPSON: So can we go back up, please, to 24 page 96, Jesse, of Exhibit 2346?

25 (Image scrolled.)

1 Q So question 1b, Ms. Rowling, asks: "If any of the
2 boxes on line 1a are checked, did the organization follow a
3 written policy regarding payment," etcetera, "of all of the 4 expenses described above? If 'no,' complete Part III to 5 explain." Correct?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And so, you're interpreting that to mean, you don't
8 have to explain whether or not you have a policy in Part III?

9 A I -- no, I don't. It doesn't say that. It says,
10 "explain."

11 Q Right. You're only supposed to explain if you check
12 "no"; correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q And so, the NRA was checking "yes" and then not saying
15 whether or not it had a policy in its Part III explanation;
16 correct?

17 A The -- the NRA, at that time, was -- was -- was 18 basically saying -- let me -- let me back up.

19 Q It was a yes-or-no question, Ms. Rowling.

20 THE COURT: She can answer.

21 MR. THOMPSON: Okay.

22 A We've changed the way we've answered that question
23 going forward. In hindsight, it probably should have been 24 marked "no." But there was no intent to try to provide, or not 25 provide, information, because the information was actually

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1104

1 provided.

2 Q Except you didn't provide the information that there
3 was no policy for charter travel; correct?

4 A Well, we didn't specifically state that, but we filled
5 out as if it was -- the question asks, "If there's no policy,
6 please explain." So the assumption there is, you explain when
7 there is no policy.

8 Q Is that the assumption you expect for somebody who sees 9 the mark [sic] checked "yes," that all of the above -- all of 10 the above reimbursements are provided pursuant to a written
11 policy?

12 A No. Like I said, we have -- since this return has been 13 filed, we filed other ones with a different answer.

14 Q You don't always rely on your tax consultant when
15 answering questions in the 990, do you, Ms. Rowling?

16 A We rely on multiple sources.

17 Q For example, you have in the past determined not to ask
18 your external tax consultant about information that should be 19 disclosed on Schedule J because you were concerned she would 20 tell you to provide too much information; right?

21 A The -- the e-mail that you are referring to, if you
22 would like to submit that, did not disclose a verbal
23 conversation that was had between myself and someone else on
24 that --

25 Q Sure.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Direct/Thompson

1105

1 A -- on this e-mail. I mean ...

2 Q Let's take a look at it; tab 20, please, of your
3 binder, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 56.

4 MR. THOMPSON: Which I will move to admit.

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MS. EISENBERG: None, your Honor.

7 MR. CORRELL: No, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: It's admitted.

9 (Image displayed.)

10 Q All right. So, at the top, Ms. Rowling, this starts
11 with an e-mail exchange between you, Mr. Tedrick, and Arif
12 Rahman; correct?

13 A Yes.

14 MR. THOMPSON: And that's R-a-h-m-a-n.

15 Q Who is Mr. Rahman?

16 A He was an employee that worked on the 990s.

17 Q Okay. And so, this is an e-mail exchange that concerns
18 disclosure of social club dues on Schedule J of the 990;
19 correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And if you could please turn to page 2, looking at your 22 e-mail at the top of the page --

23 (Image scrolled.)

24 Q -- you write: "I don't think we have to name names or 25 dollar amounts when checking the box 'yes,'" the "box" being

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1106

1 question 1a, asking if social club dues were paid for on the
2 990; correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And then Mr. Tedrick, at the top of that page, carrying 5 over from the previous page, asks: "Can we ask Kathy for some 6 good language for here"; right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And "Kathy" there is Kathy Cuddapah; is that correct?

9 A Yes.

10 MR. THOMPSON: And let me find how to spell
11 Ms. Cuddapah's name for our reporter.

12 That's C-u-d-d-a-p-a-h.

13 Q Ms. Cuddapah was the lead tax partner at Aronson in
14 2020; correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And then, in response to Mr. Tedrick's e-mail about
17 whether you should ask your Aronson tax partner for the language
18 on Schedule J, you write: "The issue with asking Kathy is,
19 she's going to say we need to state names and amounts, too, but 20 the actual instructions do not say we need to say that. This 21 was also confirmed by the legal team Craig is working with.
22 Arif can go ahead and ask but I expect she will say that."

23 Right?

24 A Yes.

25 (Continued on next page.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1107

1 Q And Mr. Tedrick responds, "Agreed. Don't ask", right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. And then you did not, in fact, ask your Aronson
4 tax partner, the person you paid to consult with on preparing 5 schedule -- well the entire 990, about what information should
6 be disclosed in Schedule J, correct?

7 A Arif spoke with her. However, the instructions don't
8 require it and tax attorneys said it was not required. There
9 was really no reason to continue asking. When you have 10 difference of opinions you -- when the actual 990 instructions
11 do not require it, there was no reason to add it.

12 MS. ROGERS: The NRA is going to instruct Ms.
13 Rowling not to testify about the content of legal advice
14 from tax attorneys or any other NRA lawyers.

15 MR. THOMPSON: I think we've opened the door, your
16 Honor.

17 THE COURT: It's actually in the e-mail. But I
18 think you've gone as far as you need to go. I don't think 19 there is any broader opening than that.

20 Q What legal team are you referring to in your e-mail,
21 Ms. Rowling?

22 A That was Don Land.

23 Q And did Mr. Land review the entirety of the 990?

24 A Yes, he did.

25 Q Did Mr. Land sign the 990?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1108

1 A No, he did not.

2 Q The NRA hired Aronson to be its tax consultant for the
3 990 in 2020, correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And you didn't think to ask your tax consultant for her
6 advice on the interpretation of the 990 instructions about
7 disclosures in Schedule J?

8 A As I said, Arif had a verbal conversation with Kathy on
9 that.

10 Q Did you personally witness that conversation?

11 A No, I did not.

12 Q Okay. So, prior to the bankruptcy in 2021 the NRA had 13 two separate credit card programs, correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q One was a Wells Fargo card that was used by most NRA
16 staff members for business expenses, is that correct?

17 A Certain NRA staff members.

18 Q Certain NRA staff members. And then separately there
19 was also an AmEx card program, correct?

20 A Correct.

21 Q And the way that worked is that Mr. Tedrick had a line
22 of cards and Mr. Phillips had a line of cards, correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And those cards were in their names individually. So,
25 for example, Mr. Tedrick's card was in his name, correct?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1109

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. It wasn't an NRA card, it was Tedrick's card
3 that was used for NRA business, correct?

4 A No. It was Tedrick's credit behind the card.

5 Q Right. And in the past Mr. Tedrick had unfettered
6 access to use the points that were generated on the AmEx card,
7 correct?

8 A I am not fully familiar with what they were used for.
9 I know what I've allowed under me.

10 Q And one thing that you allowed under you was for Mr.
11 Tedrick to use the points to purchase a Bahamas trip for himself
12 in December of 2021, correct?

13 A Actually that's a little confusing. The way -- And I
14 have -- Because Mr. Tedrick had his own personal card and then
15 cards underneath him, all the points rolled up into one line. I
16 had Mr. Tedrick separate out the points that he accumulated
17 versus the points that he accumulated personally on his personal
18 charges. Had nothing to do with business. Those were separate 19 from what charges were incurred by business.

20 So, the points, even though it looks like on the 21 statements that they were utilizing NRA points, they actually
22 weren't. They were utilizing his personal points.

23 Q Mr. Tedrick had a personal AmEx card and an NRA AmEx
24 card, correct?

25 A He did.

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1110

1 Q And --

2 A But the points rolled up into the top. Because they
3 were all under the same credit. I know this is not easy to 4 understand but -- (pause).

5 Q He generated points separately on his personal card
6 from his business card, correct?

7 A He did.

8 Q And then he used points generated by the NRA card to 9 pay for a Bahamas trip in 2021, correct?

10 A No. No. That's not how it came out. I know it --
11 It's a little bit tricky. All of his points, because it was all
12 under his -- under an umbrella of a credit rolled into the same
13 points basket. So, he tracked separately for me what would be 14 considered personal.

15 MR. THOMPSON: Can we bring up, please, Ms.
16 Rowling's deposition, page 291, 16, I think, to 19.

17 Q So, Ms. Rowling, at your deposition in 2022 you were 18 asked, "He", meaning Mr. Tedrick, "used points from his NRA AmEx
19 card to finance that trip, is that correct?" And you answered,
20 "Yes, used NRA points to pay for that", correct?

21 A Yes. That was my confusion at the time too and how 22 that rolled up.

23 Q Okay. But that is how you testified in 2022.

24 A Again, in trying to figure out all of this, I have 25 since received completely separate reporting on what was NRA

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1111

1 points and what was his.

2 Q Okay.

3 MR. THOMPSON: Move to strike as nonresponsive,
4 your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Overruled.

6 Q Several years ago Aronson recommended that the NRA
7 conduct an audit of its credit cards, is that correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And you conducted an audit of the Wells Fargo cards, is
10 that correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q To the best of your knowledge no such audit was 13 conducted of the AmEx cards, is that correct?

14 A Not -- not a full lot of it, no.

15 Q To the best of your knowledge no audit of the kind that 16 was recommended by Aronson was conducted of the AmEx cards, is
17 that correct?

18 A Not that I'm aware of.

19 Q Ms. Rowling, you have observed occasions where Mr.
20 Tedrick appeared to be intoxicated at work, is that correct?

21 A There was an appearance of that.

22 Q You did not know that the bankruptcy was being filed in 23 2021 prior to its being filed, is that correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q Okay. And after the bankruptcy ended, you conducted an

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1112

1 analysis of how much the NRA's bankruptcy in Texas cost the NRA,
2 is that correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q You determined that it cost the NRA between ten and
5 $12 million, is that correct?

6 A That's -- that sounds about right.

7 Q In the end the bankruptcy also had a number of 8 unintended consequences for the NRA, correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q For example, the NRA's FedEx account was suspended?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And the NRA lost its AmEx card?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And then the NRA also suffered reputational harm with a
15 number of its vendors, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q So, Ms. Rowling, the NRA suffered reputational harm
18 with a number of its vendors as a result of the bankruptcy, is
19 that correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q So, for example, the NRA had a relationship with a
22 number of its longer standing vendors, which included push out
23 payments on invoices to give you more breathing room, for 24 example, is that correct?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1113

1 Q And you lost the ability to do that with some of your
2 vendors, is that correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q If you could please look at tab 40.

5 MR. THOMPSON: We can pull this up on the screen
6 please, Jessie. This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 3002.

7 THE COURT: Is it in evidence?

8 MR. THOMPSON: It is not yet in evidence, your
9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. So you have to turn the 11 screen off momentarily.

12 Q So, Ms. Rowling, for Plaintiff's Exhibit 3002, do you
13 recognize this e-mail?

14 A (Examining). I mean, I see it, yes.

15 Q We can pull up the attachments. Do you recognize these 16 to be Excell's that you maintained in the course of the NRA
17 business?

18 A Yes.

19 MR. THOMPSON: Move to admit, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: I think she has to be able to see the 21 attachments to be able to confirm.

22 MR. THOMPSON: Sure. Can we please bring up the 23 first attachment, Jessie.

24 Q Do you recognize this to be an Excell that you
25 maintained, Ms. Rowling?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1114

1 A (Examining). Yes.

2 MR. THOMPSON: Can we pull up the second
3 attachment.

4 Q And this one as well, Ms. Rowling?

5 A (Examining). Yes.

6 THE COURT: Any objection?

7 MS. EISENBERG: None, your Honor.

8 MR. CORRELL: No, your Honor.

9 MS. COUTU: No, your Honor.

10 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

11 THE COURT: It's admitted.

12 Q Sticking with this Excell, Ms. Rowling, this is a -- 13 this is the budget for EVP consulting services between 2008 and
14 2018, is that correct?

15 A Let's -- let's be clear. What you're showing is not 16 the actual budget.

17 Q This is the amounts actually paid out of the budget, is
18 that correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q Okay. And so what this spreadsheet shows is the 21 amounts actually paid out of the EVP consulting budget between 22 2008 and 2018, correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And that's what the actual means? It's the actual 25 amount spent?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1115

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And then if you could please --

3 MR. THOMPSON: You can take that down, Jessie.

4 Q If you could please look at tab 49 of your binder.

5 It's the very last tab.

6 MR. THOMPSON: I'm not sure there is an objection
7 to this, so I will move to admit it as Plaintiff's
8 Exhibit 5104.

9 THE COURT: Any objection?

10 MS. EISENBERG: None, your Honor.

11 MR. CORRELL: None.

12 MS. COUTU: No, your Honor.

13 MR. FLEMING: No.

14 THE COURT: It's admitted.

15 Q Ms. Rowling, do you recognize this to be a printout
16 from the Institute For Legislative Actions general ledger?

17 A (Examining). I can't -- I didn't create this document.

18 I can't verify that that's the case or not.

19 Q Okay.

20 A And I've just seen it two days ago for the first time.

21 Q Okay. Are you familiar --

22 MR. THOMPSON: We can take that down, Jessie.

23 Q Are you familiar with the public relations budget?

24 A I know it exists.

25 Q Did you have any role in the public relations budget

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1116

1 while you were in accounting operations?

2 A No, I did not.

3 Q Do you have any familiarity with the vendors that were
4 included in the public relations budget?

5 A Some.

6 Q Was Ackerman included in the public relations budget to 7 the best of your knowledge?

8 A Yes.

9 Q What about Associated Television International?

10 A It sounds right.

11 Q Under Wild Skies?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Do you know if Ms. Hallow had a business expense -- a
14 business expense line item in the public relations budget?

15 A I can't. I can't speak to that today.

16 Q What about The Washington Times, do you know if that 17 was in the public relations budget?

18 A I don't recall.

19 Q Youth for Tomorrow?

20 A Don't recall where those were.

21 Q Okay. Ms. Rowling, you're familiar with the concept of 22 Wayne said approvals, right?

23 A With that concept, yes.

24 Q Wayne set approvals currently violate the NRA's
25 internal controls, right?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1117

1 A The Wayne set approvals aren't allowed at this point.

2 Q Right. And they haven't been allowed since Mr. Spray
3 joined the NRA, correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q Okay. You're familiar with Chris DeWitt?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And DeWitt is spelled D-E-W-I-T-T, capital W. Mr.
8 DeWitt was an employee in Advancement, is that correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And he reported to Mr. Schropp, is that right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And was Mr. DeWitt was fired in 2022?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Do you know why he was fired?

15 A It was a continual habitual issue with expense reports,
16 credit cards. Could be other things, but that was what I was 17 aware of.

18 Q Right. So, for years Mr. DeWitt repeatedly violated
19 the NRA's credit card and expense reimbursement policies, is 20 that fair to say?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. And you brought Mr. DeWitt's credit card and 23 expense reimbursement issues to Mr. Schropp's attention several 24 times, didn't you?

25 A Yes. It was brought to him several times.

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1118

1 Q That was over a several year period, is that correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q So if you can look at tab 13 of your binder, which is
4 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1476.

5 MR. THOMPSON: Which I will move to admit.

6 THE COURT: Any objection?

7 MS. EISENBERG: None, your Honor.

8 MR. CORRELL: No, your Honor.

9 MS. COUTU: No, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Hearing none, it's admitted.

11 Q So, Ms. Rowling, this is an e-mail from Ms. Padilla to 12 you and Mr. Tedrick in August of 2017, correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And in this e-mail is it fair to say that Ms. Padilla
15 is describing a number of Mr. DeWitt's improper expenses?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And those included spending more in June for rental
18 cars than Chris Cox, Wayne LaPierre and Tyler Schropp's monthly
19 vehicle leases combined, correct?

20 A That is what she says, but I'm not sure that that's 21 actually true but -- (pause).

22 Q And if you look at page 2 of this Exhibit 1476, this is 23 an invoice for a tuxedo rental, is that correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And Mr. DeWitt spent about $958 on a tuxedo rental?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1119

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And then if you can go to the next tab in your
3 binder, tab 14, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2050.

4 MR. THOMPSON: I will also offer this into
5 evidence.

6 THE COURT: Any objections?

7 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

8 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

9 MS. COUTU: No objection.

10 THE COURT: Hearing none, it's admitted.

11 Q So, Ms. Rowling, this -- so you are not on the top most 12 e-mail. You are on the e-mail that Ms. Padilla sent on 13 February 22nd, 2018 at 3:54 p.m., right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And this is another example of Mr. DeWitt's improper
16 expenses, correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q So, for example, if you go to the very -- page 5, the 19 last page, you can see about half way down the column Mr. DeWitt
20 had a number of Apple iTune expenses, right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And car washes, right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And then at the top it looks like there is a $779
25 charge to LinkedIn, right?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1120

1 A Yes.

2 Q Mr. Schropp would stop any efforts to discipline Mr.
3 DeWitt, right?

4 A I -- Yes. I mean, he would not necessarily discipline,
5 but well I guess maybe you could call it discipline.

6 Q And if you can take a look please at tab 16 of your
7 binder, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 1758.

8 MR. THOMPSON: Which I will offer into evidence
9 subject to redaction of the personal information.

10 THE COURT: Any objection?

11 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

12 MR. CORRELL: No.

13 THE COURT: It's admitted subject to the redaction.

14 Q So, Ms. Rowling, this is a text message from you to 15 Mr. Spray in October of 2018, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And you write, "Tyler Schropp had always been the one
18 to put a stop to any action against Chris in the past", correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And Chris there is Chris DeWitt?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. Mr. DeWitt's issues with expense reimbursements
23 continued until he was fired, is that correct?

24 A I know there were instances. I don't know if they --
25 how prevalent, but there were definite issues and continuing

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1121

1 issues with his expenses.

2 MR. THOMPSON: If we can please --

3 Q If you could please look at tab 17 of your binder,
4 which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2137.

5 MR. THOMPSON: Which I will offer into evidence.

6 THE COURT: Any objection to this one?

7 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

8 MS. EISENBERG: No objection.

9 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

10 THE COURT: It's admitted.

11 Q Ms. Rowling, starting on the second page, this is -- it
12 starts with an e-mail from Mr. Schropp asking for a raise for 13 Mr. DeWitt based on a Wayne said approval. Is that fair to say?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And this is in June of 2021, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q This is shortly after the bankruptcy ended?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And you respond, "Physically signed paperwork. Must be 20 submitted to HR in order for this process to happen. It cannot 21 be Wayne said", right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Then Ms. Crouch is the head of HR, is that correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Is she still the head of HR?

LAS

Direct-Rowling-Thompson

1122

1 A Yes.

2 Q And she writes to you separately that, "Mr. Grable
3 attempted something similar with respect to bonuses for some of 4 Mr. Grable's -- people in Mr. Grable's department, correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And Mr. Grable was the former head of Membership, is
7 that right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q When did Mr. Grable leave?

10 A I don't know the exact timeframe of his departure.

11 Q Was it last year or the year before, to the best of 12 your recollection?

13 A The years have all muddled together. I don't want to 14 try to guess at this point.

15 Q And Ms. Crouch writes, "I remain stunned that we have 16 to revisit this frequently." She then relays the issue with Mr.
17 Grable and writes, "People have learned nothing", right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And you respond, "I hear you. It's ridiculous", right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Wayne said approval being a violation of internal 22 controls was not new in June of 2021, correct?

23 A No.

24 MR. THOMPSON: No further questions, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Why don't we take our afternoon

11 CROSS-EXAMINATION

12 BY MS. EISENBERG:

13 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Rowling.

14 A Hi.

15 Q You testified earlier about speaking to the Audit
16 Committee in or around July of 2018. Do you remember telling us
17 about that?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Leading up to that meeting, what, if any, conversations
20 did you have with Craig Spray?

21 A Do you mean immediately leading up to that meeting? I
22 didn't have any. He was out on medical.

23 Q What about in general?

24 A In general, yes, of course.

25 Q Can you tell us about those conversations?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1125

1 A Sure. We would -- I would have meetings with
2 Mr. Spray; we were -- we would discuss any -- any sorts of -- of 3 things, including some of these issues.

4 Q And did he encourage you to convey these issues to 5 other individuals within the organization?

6 A Yes, he did.

7 Q To whom did he encourage you to convey them?

8 A The first was the Brewer firm, and then again to the 9 Audit Committee.

10 Q And did you convey them to the Brewer firm?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Did you convey them to the Audit Committee?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Charles Cotton was a member of the Audit Committee at 15 the time, right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Had you conveyed any of those concerns to him before
18 the meeting?

19 A Yes, I did.

20 Q You mentioned that Mr. Spray was on medical leave, I
21 believe?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Can you tell us a little bit about that, and the timing
24 of that relative to the meeting?

25 A It was about a week and a half to two weeks before the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1126

1 meeting; Mr. Spray suffered a massive heart attack and was not
2 available.

3 Q And how, if at all, did that affect your state of mind
4 going into that meeting, when you knew he wasn't necessarily
5 going to be there or at the NRA while he was recovering?

6 A There was a -- a lot of concern. He was the -- the 7 person who gave us that empowerment to -- to go to the 8 committee, so him not being there as, kind of, our -- our -- our 9 safety net was a little -- was scary.

10 Q And how, if at all, did that relate to the personal
11 statement that you prepared leading up to the meeting?

12 A Well, that -- that definitely had something to do with
13 it.

14 Q Please describe what happened at the meeting with the
15 Audit Committee.

16 A The Audit Committee had basically invited us to -- to 17 share what we -- what we had on that memo. Each individual
18 person who had something to -- to add or -- or talk about --
19 each piece -- spoke. The Audit Committee was extremely 20 receptive. At the end, they -- Mr. Coy specifically -- said:
21 "We hear you. It might seem like this is going to take a while 22 to address your concerns, but please know they will be
23 addressed, and they are going to be addressed."

24 Q We looked earlier at a text message you exchanged with 25 Emily Cummins in September of 2018 about the Audit Committee's

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1127

1 report. Do you remember --

2 A Yes.

3 Q -- looking at that text?

4 A I do.

5 Q And it's clear from the text message that you were
6 somewhat upset based on the report, and can you tell us how you
7 feel about that report now?

8 A Well, now I realize that the discussions we had at that 9 meeting were all in executive session; they could not have been
10 reported on that -- on that report. So, even though what -- 11 where we felt like we weren't heard, that was really more of 12 a -- a kind of a secretarial issue relating to minutes of a
13 meeting.

14 Q Understood.

15 And external counsel Steve Hart, is that someone you
16 knew while he was affiliated with the NRA?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Is he still affiliated with the NRA?

19 A No, he's not.

20 Q We talked a little bit -- or you and 21 Mr. Thompson talked -- about the issues that you raised with the 22 Audit Committee. Do you remember overrides of internal controls
23 being one of them?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Let's pick a date; let's say, August 1st, 2020. Would

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1128

1 you say -- or to what extent, if any, do you -- have you seen
2 external -- have you seen internal control overrides since
3 August 1st, 2020?

4 MR. THOMPSON: Objection on relevance and scope,
5 your Honor. Questioning was limited to 2022 and before.

6 THE COURT: I don't think I can slice it that 7 finely.

8 Overruled.

9 Go ahead.

10 Q Would you like the question repeated?

11 A Yes, please.

12 Q You told us about one of your concerns being override
13 of internal controls.

14 A Yeah.

15 Q To what extent, if any, have you seen internal controls
16 overridden at the NRA since August 1st, 2020?

17 A I have not seen any of those controls overridden.

18 Q You also told us that one of the concerns that you
19 conveyed to the Audit Committee was that expense reimbursements
20 were sometimes happening without appropriate backup. Remember
21 that testimony?

22 A Yes.

23 Q To what extent, if any, have you seen inappropriate
24 expen -- I'm sorry.

25 To what extent have you seen expense reimbursements

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1129

1 happen without appropriate backup since August 1st, 2020?

2 MR. THOMPSON: Same objection, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 A I have not been notified of any, and I would rely on my 5 staff to do so.

6 Q There was testimony earlier about certain expenses
7 being paid through Ackerman's OOP. Do you remember that
8 testimony?

9 A Yes.

10 Q To what extent, if any, have you seen executive
11 expenses being paid through Ackerman's OOP since August 1st, 12 2020?

13 A None.

14 Q What about through expense invoices from any other
15 vendor?

16 A I'm sorry; can you repeat that?

17 Q Have you seen --

18 To what extent, if any, have you seen NRA executive 19 expenses being reimbursed through out-of-pocket expenses of any
20 vendor of the NRA --

21 MR. THOMPSON: Same objection.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 Q -- since August 1st, 2020?

24 A None. There have been none.

25 Q Mr. Thompson played for us a recording from a

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1130

1 deposition that you gave in this case, and fair to say that you
2 became somewhat emotional when you were asked questions about
3 the meeting?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Can you tell us a little bit about what made you feel
6 that way at the time?

7 A We had -- I had heard through a colleague that Steve
8 Hart, who we referred to earlier, who was an outside advisor --
9 that there was a -- that he wanted to try to manipulate this --
10 our -- our list and our concerns to make it be the accountants'
11 fault.

12 MS. ROGERS: And I think this testimony is okay,
13 but I'm just going to caution the witness again not to 14 reveal the content of legal advice requested or received
15 from any NRA lawyer.

16 Q So I think the question that you were answering is:
17 Tell us a little bit about what made you so emotional during the 18 deposition.

19 A Yeah.

20 Well, that was -- that was the extent of it. I mean,
21 it was -- it was -- at the time, when -- when you're going
22 through something like bringing up whistleblowing issues,
23 you're -- you're stepping outside of -- almost kind of like on a
24 limb and you hope that people are there to protect you, and I
25 have found that I have been. But at the time, you just --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1131

1 there's concern. You're -- you're speaking out against
2 potential wrongdoing of your ultimate bosses; not -- it's not an
3 easy thing to do. And when you have advisors to those people
4 wanting to feel like they want to manipulate, you don't know if
5 they've talked to them or if they're just hearing this story
6 that they want to make it the accountants' fault.

7 And so, that's what made me very emotional about
8 talking about that.

9 Q Let's talk a little bit about Chris DeWitt. What has 10 been your experience with his expense reimbursement requests
11 while he was still at the NRA?

12 A Ms. Padilla would always flag them. She -- if there
13 were missing documents, missing items. When it was on a credit
14 card, she would actually -- until we received all of the backup
15 that was needed, she would put it into a receivable account,
16 meaning he was expected to pay it back until we had received the 17 proper documentation. If we did not receive proper
18 documentation, if it was determined to be personal, he would 19 actually have to reimburse that.

20 It changed a little with -- when there were actual 21 expense reports. Where he had already incurred the expense, if 22 something came through, it wouldn't even be paid; it would be
23 rejected up-front.

24 And at -- at another point, he was given a travel
25 advance and we wouldn't give a second one until the advance was

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1132

1 substantiated with legitimate business expenses.

2 So there was -- he seemed to be this habitual problem.
3 It was either late or it was -- especially with the credit
4 cards, just not -- no documentation until we could -- we'd have 5 to chase it down. It was time-consuming on the staff to try to 6 chase that down.

7 Q Did you have an understanding as to what Mr. Schropp's
8 view was of Mr. DeWitt as an Advancement employee?

9 A He was a very valued Advancement employee, with 10 relationships with donors that were deemed critical to the
11 organization.

12 Q And despite him being valued in that regard, did you,
13 personally, agree with the decision to discontinue his 14 employment at the NRA?

15 A I did.

16 MR. THOMPSON: Objection; leading, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 Q Let's talk a little bit about Ms. Padilla.
19 Mr. Thompson asked you if she still works here. Can you please
20 tell the members of the jury about her career at the NRA?

21 A Ms. Padilla has been with the NRA for almost 20 years,
22 if not 20 at this point; a very valued employee, very diligent
23 and knowledgeable in all things accounts payable.

24 Q And what role, if any, does she play at the NRA in 25 terms of enforcing its internal controls?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1133

1 A She is the -- you know, the "last line of defense," we
2 tend to call her. It -- it will not get past her if it's not
3 appropriate, going forward.

4 Q Let's talk a little bit about MMP and other companies
5 affiliated with David McKenzie.

6 In or around 2018 and 2019, did Mr. Spray, as far as 7 you know, conduct a review related to payments to those
8 companies?

9 MR. THOMPSON: Foundation and hearsay, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Maybe you can --

11 I don't want her to testify about what she heard
12 from others but what she's observed herself.

13 MS. EISENBERG: Certainly.

14 Q Did you have any personal firsthand observation of any 15 work that Mr. Spray did with regard to payments to those 16 companies?

17 A I don't -- I don't recall any firsthand knowledge of -- 18 of that.

19 Q Understood.

20 Switching topics: You have told Mr. Thompson and the 21 members of the jury (indicating) that you, I believe, had seen
22 Mr. Tedrick, you believe, impaired. Have you seen him in that 23 condition since you became the CFO and treasurer of the NRA?

24 A Well, I want to qualify that we are, a lot, remote; but 25 I have not noticed any of that, at all, with Mr. Tedrick.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Eisenberg

1134

1 Q And how do you assess his performance -- his work
2 performance -- at the NRA?

3 A He's -- it -- he's valuable. He's got a lot of 4 institutional knowledge, he's been there longer than I have, and 5 he's -- his work performance has been above par.

6 MS. EISENBERG: I have no further questions.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Mr. Correll?

9 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor. I have a few.

10 CROSS-EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. CORRELL:

12 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Rowling.

13 Mr. LaPierre recused himself from the contracting
14 process with the McKenzie companies; correct?

15 A That's correct.

16 MR. THOMPSON: Foundation, your Honor, and leading.

17 THE COURT: True as to both.

18 MR. CORRELL: I can rephrase, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 Q Did Mr. LaPierre take any action to dispel this notion
21 of -- that his relationship with Mr. McKenzie was in any way
22 influencing the NRA's decisions in its contracting with the 23 McKenzie companies?

24 MR. THOMPSON: Foundation and leading, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Well, to your personal knowledge, you

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1135

1 can answer.

2 A Yes. He actually made the -- the decision not to be
3 in -- specifically to not be involved in any contract
4 negotiations relating to the MMP entities.

5 Q Were you involved in any contract relations with the 6 MMP entities?

7 A I was.

8 Q And did you see Mr. LaPierre in the room?

9 A He was never involved.

10 Q Did you communicate with him about the negotiations?

11 A Not about the negotiations.

12 Q Okay. And who else was involved in those negotiations?

13 A Mr. Frazer and --

14 Q And Mr. Frazer is the general counsel of NRA; correct?

15 A Yes.

16 -- and other counsel.

17 Q Did MMP make any presentations to any committees or to 18 the board about what it was doing for the NRA?

19 A I don't recall ever being at a -- a meeting where they
20 did, but I can't say.

21 Q You testified -- you were asked earlier -- about this
22 notion of "Wayne said."

23 A Um-hmm.

24 Q Did Wayne ever ask you to do a transaction without 25 formal approval?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1136

1 A No, he did not.

2 Q And was it your understanding that when someone said
3 that Wayne had said something, that that always was necessarily
4 true?

5 A Not necessarily. I -- I think, a lot of people used it
6 just as a -- a threat, even if he hadn't had any knowledge
7 whatsoever.

8 Q Did you think that the NRA should have conducted an 9 executive search before hiring you to the position of CFO and
10 treasurer?

11 A Not necessarily.

12 Q Executive searches take time; correct?

13 MR. THOMPSON: Leading.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 Q Is there any -- are there any disadvantages to 16 conducting executive searches that you're aware of?

17 A Well, obviously, they're time-consuming; but bringing 18 someone in who knew absolutely nothing about the organization at 19 the time I was brought in would have probably been detrimental.

20 Q So, do you have any opinion as to whether the decision
21 not to hire an executive search firm under those circumstances
22 was a good business judgment or a bad business judgment?

23 A I would say, it was good business judgment.

24 MR. THOMPSON: Legal conclusion, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: It's already been answered and I didn't

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1137

1 hear an objection. Sorry.

2 MR. CORRELL: Was that overruled, your Honor?

3 THE COURT: It's asked and answered.

4 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

5 Q Do you have a sense of how much -- any sense of how 6 much -- money the MMP generated for the NRA over the time that 7 you've been associated with the NRA?

8 A Oh. You're -- you're talking in the range of 75 to 90
9 million a year.

10 Q And did the --

11 When COVID came, did you notice any difference in the 12 circumstances that MMP was facing in terms of what it was doing,
13 reaching out for membership and fund-raising?

14 A I'm not sure I understand exactly what you're asking.

15 Q Did you --

16 Did COVID have any impact on the work that MMP was 17 doing for the NRA, that you were aware of?

18 A I'm not -- I -- I don't recall anything specific about 19 COVID.

20 Q Did you inform Wayne LaPierre of the problems with 21 Mr. DeWitt's expense reports, at any point?

22 A I don't recall. I -- I was in a meeting with -- 23 with -- with Mr. Schropp and Mr. LaPierre in discussing his 24 potential and eventual pay increase. I just don't recall if 25 that was brought up. I voiced my -- that I didn't think it was

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1138

1 appropriate for him to get that pay increase, but I don't recall
2 exactly what was said.

3 Q How long after that was Mr. DeWitt terminated?

4 A Less than a year; maybe nine months, at the most.

5 Q And was that --

6 You testified that that was the result of further
7 misuse of expense or a credit card; is that correct?

8 A Not on a credit card.

9 MR. THOMPSON: Leading.

10 (No audible ruling.)

11 Q Oh, I'm sorry. That you -- you testified that that was 12 the result of his not following some procedure; is that correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Did Mr. LaPierre push back on that at all?

15 A Not at all.

16 Q In fact, he supported that; correct?

17 MR. THOMPSON: Leading.

18 THE COURT: Sustained.

19 Q Did you form any opinion of the outside auditors?

20 A Which outside auditors?

21 Q Well, we'll take the ones -- the ones that you had --
22 Let's start in 2015. Who was the outside auditor?

23 A In 2015?

24 Q Yes.

25 A RSM.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Rowling - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1139

1 Q And did you form any --

2 Did you have any opinion as to the outside auditors and
3 whether they were doing their jobs properly?

4 A I -- yeah. I thought they were doing their job.

5 Q And then, after that, who became auditors?

6 A Aronson.

7 Q And what did you think of them?

8 A That they were also -- are also -- excellent. They're 9 still our -- our auditors under a different name now, but yes.

10 Q And did you have any opinion as to the tax preparer
11 that was assisting on 990s during this period?

12 MR. THOMPSON: Foundation, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: He asked if she had an opinion.

14 Which -- but what period is "this period"?

15 Q Let's take the period 2015 to present.

16 A They -- the tax preparers -- have, you know --

17 Well, let me -- let me back up: The -- we had paid

18 preparers during a time period through -- up until -- 2018.

19 They're highly regarded in their field. Working with RSM, there 20 was -- I never had any doubt that they were excellent in their 21 jobs.

22 Q Did they -- did they interview you as part of the 23 audits?

24 A The tax people?

25 Q No. Now I'm talking about the outside auditors.

1140

1 A Yes, they did.

2 Q And did you answer their questions truthfully?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Did they ever ask you a question that you refused to
5 answer?

6 MR. THOMPSON: Hearsay, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: No.

8 Overruled.

9 A No, they did not.

10 Q Did they ever ask for information that you refused to 11 give them?

12 A No, they did not.

13 Q Did Mr. LaPierre have an Ackerman McQueen credit card?

14 A Not that I'm aware of.

15 Q You used the word "untouchable," I think, in a -- in an 16 e-mail. Was that your word or was that a word you heard from 17 someone else?

18 A I -- I don't -- I know I had heard it from others; from 19 someone else, as well.

20 Q So it wasn't one you came up with yourself.

21 A No.

23

24

25

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cross-Rowling-Correll

1141

1 Q Did you ever receive or did the NRA to your knowledge
2 ever receive an inquiry from the IRS about any 990 that was
3 filed on your watch?

4 A Yes.

5 Q When did that happen?

6 A About -- Just recently. A couple months ago maybe.
7 Right before the holidays.

8 Q But in all these years in which you were working with 9 the NRA in connection with the preparation of 990s, did the IRS
10 ever inquire --

11 A No.

12 Q -- as to your responses to any of these questions?

13 A No. They have not.

14 Q Did the Attorney General of the State of New York?

15 A No.

16 MR. THOMPSON: Objection, your Honor. Time period.
17 Relevance. Foundation.

18 MR. CORRELL: Time period of Ms. Rowling's
19 employment.

20 THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer. Did you
21 answer?

22 THE WITNESS: I thought I did.

23 A I've never seen any inquiry regarding -- (pause).

24 Q You were asked a question about the reputational harm,
25 as to whether there was any reputational harm caused to the NRA

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Correll

1142

1 by the NRA's decision to seek protection under the bankruptcy
2 code. Do you remember that question?

3 A Yes.

4 Q In your opinion did the NRA suffer any reputational
5 harm from statements that Letitia James has made about The 6 National Rifle Association in the press?

7 MR. THOMPSON: Objection. Leading. Relevance.
8 Scope, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 Q Are there any other events that have occurred during 11 your time at the NRA that have in your view impacted the 12 reputation of the NRA negatively?

13 MR. THOMPSON: Same objection, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 MR. CORRELL: No further questions. Thank you.

16 CROSS EXAMINATION

17 BY MS. COUTU:

18 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Rowling. My name is Lisa Coutu,
19 and I represent Mr. Wilson Phillips. I just have a few 20 questions. I'm going to try not to repeat any of the other
21 questions that have already been asked.

22 Now, Mr. Thompson asked you a couple of questions about
23 MMP. Do you recall those questions?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And specifically Mr. Thompson asked you some questions

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1143

1 regarding payments that exceeded the MMP contracts. Do you
2 recall that?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And after the July 30th, 2018 audit committee meeting
5 the NRA mailed letters to vendors?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And that included the NRA requesting documents from MMP
8 to show the reason for the escalation of payments, right?

9 MR. THOMPSON: Leading, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 A Yes.

12 Q And in response to that letter the NRA received
13 documents, correct?

14 A Yes, it did.

15 Q Okay. And those documents MMP ultimately provided
16 support for those increases, right?

17 A Yes, they did.

18 Q And I believe Mr. Thompson showed you what has been 19 admitted into evidence PX 360. Do you recall that?

20 MS. COUTU: Why don't we bring up the document.
21 Zach, please. Thank you.

22 Q Do you recall this being brought up with Mr. Thompson?

23 A (Examining). Yes.

24 Q Okay. And you said you reviewed this document?

25 A The attachment you mean?

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1144

1 Q Yes.

2 A Yes. I have reviewed that document.

3 MS. COUTU: Can we please scroll one page down.

4 Q And this is a document the NRA received from MMP
5 detailing the increases in services and increases in billing and 6 how those were coordinated, correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. And having reviewed this document, did you think
9 it was accurate?

10 MR. THOMPSON: Foundation, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: I mean, she's asking her. So it has to 12 be based on your personal knowledge.

13 A I have reviewed this document. I have no reason to 14 think it's not accurate, but I'm not a principal involved in the 15 day-to-day activities of what MMP does.

16 Q Understand. In April of 2021, when you were CFO, you
17 believed that the payments to MMP were appropriate, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And you were comfortable making those payments to MMP
20 in April 2021 because you thought the value that MMP brought in 21 in terms of revenue far exceeded the costs, right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And as you sit here today you're still comfortable
24 making payments to MMP, right?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1145

1 Q And that's because you thought that the services MMP
2 provided were invaluable to the NRA, right?

3 A Yes. I mean, their revenue that they bring in was well
4 above the expense.

5 Q So you believed the MMP relationship of the payments
6 were in the best interests of the NRA?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And you thought that that further interests, the goals
9 and the mission of the NRA, right?

10 MR. THOMPSON: Objection. Leading, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Overruled.

12 A Yes.

13 MS. COUTU: Sorry. I'm flipping to make this 14 faster for everyone.

15 THE COURT: That you should not apologize for.

16 Q And as the current CFO and treasurer of the NRA, you
17 would say that just because you sign a form 990 does not mean
18 that you are responsible for every detail that's inside that
19 990, correct?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q You rely on many individuals in putting together the 22 materials for that Form 990, right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And that includes other individuals within the NRA
25 itself, right?

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1146

1 A Yes.

2 Q That includes Rick Tedrick?

3 A Yes.

4 Q That includes John Frazer?

5 A Yes.

6 Q That includes other people within the accounting
7 department as well?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Who are CPAs, some of them?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q That also includes some outside experts such as Aronson
12 I heard you mention before, right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And I believe you just testified that before Aronson it
15 was RSM?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And you were asked some questions by Mr. Thompson
18 regarding the top concerns memo that you presented or was 19 presented to the audit committee in July of 2018, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And in that top concerns memo there were complaints of,
22 among other things, financial conflict of interest at the senior
23 management and board of directors level?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And also of senior management override of internal

LAS

1 controls?

2 A Yes.

3 Q In violating accounts payable procedures, IST
4 purchasing procedures, travel and expense reports, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Now earlier you had testified I believe with 7 Mr. Thompson that before being appointed as CFO you were the 8 director of accounting and of operations and financial 9 reporting, right?

10 A Yes.

11 Q As director you managed the entire accounting
12 department with all of the financial reporting, internal and 13 external, correct?

14 A I want to be clear. The audited financial statements
15 and the internal accounting, yes. There is financial 16 information and a lot of external reporting.

17 Q You managed the audits I think you were just saying?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And as the director you were one of the primary people
20 that the NRA, responsible for interfacing with the NRA's
21 auditors, whether it be Aaronson -- excuse me, at that time it
22 was RSM, right?

23 A Yes. I was one of the primary.

24 Q They would physically come to the NRA's offices, right,
25 to conduct their audits?

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1148

1 A Yes.

2 Q In the preliminary stage it would be for about a week?

3 A Yes. That's correct.

4 Q In the final stage they would be there for about six
5 weeks at the NRA, right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q The NRA's financial statements are audited annually,
8 right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And as part of that audit process, RSM asked you
11 whether you were aware of any fraud at the NRA, correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q That's part of what's called the manager -- management
14 representation letter?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. And in that letter which is done at the end of 17 the audit process, certain representations are made by 18 management, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q You were a signatory to that management representation
21 letter?

22 A Yes. At some point I was added. I don't recall the 23 exact day.

24 Q At this time I would like to pull up to the witness and 25 to counsel, 'cause I don't believe it's been admitted into

2 THE COURT: Okay. If we can just turn off the
3 monitors, please.

4 MS. COUTU: Unless there is no objection to this
5 being admitted.

6 MS. ROGERS: No objection by the NRA.

7 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

8 MR. THOMPSON: I'm waiting for the document to show
9 up, your Honor.

10 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

11 MS. COUTU: I think that's coming soon.

12 MR. THOMPSON: No objection, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. It's admitted. You can 14 turn it back on.

15 MS. COUTU: Do you mind making it bigger, Zach,
16 please.

17 Q Ms. Rowling, do you recognize this document?

18 A (Examining). Yes.

19 Q Is this the 2018 management representation letter to 20 RSM?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And directing your attention to -- Actually just very 23 quickly, while we're here, it's dated March 7th, 2018?

24 A Yes.

25 MS. COUTU: Okay. Now if we could go down to the

LAS

2 Q Is that your signature?

3 A (Examining). Yes.

4 MS. COUTU: Scroll back up if you could to the 5 first page. To item one. Excuse me. Yeah.

6 Q So, in this letter you acknowledged your responsibility
7 for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal 8 control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of 9 consolidated financial statements that are free from material
10 misstatement whether due to fraud or error, is that right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q You also acknowledged your responsibility for the 13 design, implementation and maintenance of internal control to 14 prevent and detect fraud?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And you represented that all transactions have been 17 recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the 18 consolidated financial statements, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you represented that you had no knowledge of 21 allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the entities
22 consolidated financial statements, right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And that included allegations of fraud or suspected
25 fraud related to management?

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1151

1 A Yes.

2 Q And it also included allegations of fraud related to
3 employees who have significant roles in internal controls as 4 well?

5 A Yes.

6 Q You also represented that you had no knowledge of 7 noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and 8 regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing
9 consolidated financial statements?

10 A Yes.

11 Q You also represented you had disclosed to RSM the 12 identity -- of the identities related parties and all the 13 related party relationships and transactions of which you were 14 aware?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And you -- Excuse me. You represented you were aware 17 of no significant deficiencies including material weaknesses in 18 the design, operation of internal controls that could adversely
19 affect the NRA's ability to record, process, summarize and 20 report financial data, right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And when you made all of these representations in March
23 of 2018, you believed them, right?

24 A I did.

25 Q And you did your due diligence before you made these

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1 representations, right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Ms. Rowling, you were also --

4 MS. COUTU: We can take this down. Thank you,
5 Zach.

6 Q -- you were also a signatory to the management
7 representation letter of 2017, right?

8 A Yes.

9 MS. COUTU: At this time I would like to pull up
10 what's been actually admitted into evidence WPX 21.

11 Q Ms. Rowling, do you recognize this document?

12 A (Examining). Yes.

13 Q Okay. And this is the management representation letter
14 from March 8th of 2017, correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And scrolling to the bottom again, page 4, please. And 17 is that your signature in the middle of the page?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And so did you make the same representations in 20 this March 2017 management representation letter as you had in 21 the March 2018 management representation letter?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And you believed those to be true when you made those 24 in March of 2017?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1153

1 Q You performed your due diligence before you made those
2 representations when you sign on to this March 2017
3 representation letter, right?

4 A Yes.

5 MS. COUTU: You can take this down. Thank you.

6 Q And you were also a signatory to the management
7 representation letter in 2016 as well, right?

8 A Yes.

9 MS. COUTU: At this time I would like to publish to 10 the jury WPX 20, unless there are any objections.

11 MR. THOMPSON: No objection.

12 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

13 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

14 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

15 THE COURT: What is the exhibit number?

16 MS. COUTU: WPX 20, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: It's admitted.

18 Q Ms. Rowling, do you recognize this document?

19 A (Examining). Yes.

20 Q And is this the March 2016 management representation
21 letter?

22 A Yes.

23 MS. COUTU: And again scrolling to the bottom
24 please. Slightly up. There you go.

25 Q Is that your signature?

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Coutu

1154

1 A (Examining). Yes.

2 Q Okay. And did you make the same representations in 3 this March 2016 management representation letter that you had in 4 2017 and in 2018?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. And again did you believe those representations
7 in March 2016 when you made them?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And you performed your due diligence before you made
10 those representations, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And you did the same thing in 2015, is that right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay.

15 MS. COUTU: No further questions at this time.

16 Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 CROSS EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. FLEMING:

20 Q Hi, Ms. Rowling. William Fleming. I represent
21 Mr. Frazer. I'll be brief. You've testified about this. Can 22 you just tell the jury, do you have a view on the importance of 23 compliance at the NRA?

24 A Yes. Compliance has really become a way of life at the 25 NRA. There are seminars, there are -- for all employees. And

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1155

1 Mr. Frazer is really a huge part of that process.

2 Q Well, you beat me to the punch. Have you had occasion
3 to work with Mr. Frazer on compliance issues?

4 A Yes. All the time.

5 Q Now, do you do any work to help identify related-party
6 transactions to pick one example?

7 A The accounting team does, yes.

8 Q What does the accounting team do in that respect?

9 A The accounting team looks for payments made to -- to 10 potential related party and keeps track and then provides that 11 list to the secretary's office to compare against the financial 12 disclosure questionnaires.

13 Q Is that an accounts payable function, to check
14 expenditures?

15 A It's done in the accounts payable area, but it's also 16 part of our 990 process. So, our 990 tax individual was working
17 with AP.

18 Q So, I'm just going to press you to be a little granular
19 and explain exactly how that works, if you know.

20 A Okay.

21 Q How the accounts payable is used to identify potential
22 related-party transactions.

23 A So, they -- they would run an accounts payable ledger.
24 So, every payment made to any board member potentially. They 25 would look to see if that payment was made for just an everyday

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1156

1 reimbursement expense versus something else.

2 Q And you would provide that information to Mr. Frazer?

3 A Yes.

4 Q So, I would like to show you a document for
5 identification.

6 MR. FLEMING: It's Plaintiff's Exhibit PX 1792.

7 THE COURT: So, you don't want -- Do you want to 8 admit that?

9 MR. FLEMING: I do want to admit it, but it's not 10 been admitted yet.

11 THE COURT: Before we go through the process of 12 turning the screens off, do you want to see if there is any 13 objections to it.

14 MR. FLEMING: Sure. This is not the exact
15 document, but it's a form of this document. It's in the 16 same family.

17 THE COURT: It's PX from the plaintiff's list?

18 MR. FLEMING: Yep.

19 THE COURT: Any defendants have any objections?

20 MS. ROGERS: I suspect not, but can we see the
21 document?

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. THOMPSON: No objection.

24 MS. ROGERS: (Examining). No objection.

25 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1157

1 THE COURT: Okay. It can be admitted and you can
2 publish it.

3 MR. FLEMING: Okay.

4 Q So, Ms. Rowling, can you take a look at Plaintiff's
5 Exhibit 1792 and tell me if you recognize it?

6 A You'll give me a minute to --

7 Q Sure. Take your time.

8 A -- read it. (Examining). Yes, I recognize this
9 document.

10 Q Okay. And at the bottom of the --

11 MR. FLEMING: If we can scroll down to, I guess, 12 the original e-mail from Mr. Frazer to Rick Tedrick on 13 July 28th.

14 Q There is a number of questions and answers in bold. Do
15 you know who provided the answers in bold?

16 A I don't really -- I can't really tell what's in bold.
17 I'm sorry. It's hard to tell on the screen what's in bold.

18 Q Let me direct your attention to the first page of the 19 document. Towards the bottom there is an e-mail from you to 20 Mr. Frazer saying, "See answers below".

21 A Okay.

22 Q Do you recall helping Mr. Frazer find the answers to 23 his questions?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. And is this an example of the type of thing you

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1158

1 just described, where the accounts payable function can help him
2 identify related-party transactions?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. And to your observation, has Mr. Frazer ever
5 neglected to follow up information you provide him in this 6 respect?

7 MR. THOMPSON: Leading, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: I don't think so. Overruled.

9 A No, he has never -- never failed to.

10 Q Now, do you know who Emily Cummins is?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Do you know who James Sweeney is?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And you've been at the NRA since 1999 you testified, is
15 that right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. Who is Mr. Sweeney?

18 A Mr. Sweeney was the tax preparer from RSM.

19 Q When was he -- Did he prepare the NRA's tax return?

20 A At some point he did. I wasn't involved directly in 21 that process.

22 Q Do you recall when he did it?

23 A Without looking at the 990s, he would have signed them
24 also.

25 Q And do you have any understanding of Mr. Sweeney's

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1159

1 background and reputation?

2 A Yes. My -- my understanding was he was an expert in 3 his field basically was what -- how I heard Ms. Cummins in 4 introducing him to the audit committee.

5 Q Okay. And Ms. Cummins was a colleague of yours?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q What was her function at the NRA?

8 A I said earlier I can't remember her exact title. She 9 was managing director of compliance and something. I don't
10 recall the rest of her title.

11 Q Did she perform any role with respect to the 990?

12 A Yes. She worked with an individual in the financial 13 services division to prepare the 990.

14 Q Was she what you might describe as the top person at 15 the NRA working on the 990?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. And what was your sense or are you able to 18 describe your feelings about her capability and competence?

19 A I thought she was very competent.

20 Q Now, I would like to show you, are you familiar with 21 the NRA's employee travel policy?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay.

24 MR. FLEMING: Can I cull up PX 655.

25 THE COURT: Just a heads up. We're about seven

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1160

1 minutes away.

2 MR. FLEMING: I'm squeezing to get it done.

3 THE COURT: I mean, you know, I don't think -- I
4 suspect there may be some other questions after you. Just 5 giving you a heads up.

6 MR. FLEMING: 655 is in evidence, yes. Can you
7 turn to page 183 of the exhibit.

8 Q So, Ms. Rowling, I have shown you -- I'm showing you
9 the first page of the NRA's travel policy. Do you recognize it?

10 A (Examining). Can I ask what version this is?

11 Q You can ask someone but not me. Well, let me just ask
12 you if you're familiar with certain language?

13 A Yes.

14 THE COURT: Is there a date on the front page?

15 THE WITNESS: There wasn't when I saw it pop up.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. FLEMING: If I could just highlight the third
18 to last paragraph, starting "The policy set forth below".

19 Q So, Ms. Rowling, I want you to look at this language
20 and tell me if you recognize it or are familiar with it?

21 A (Examining). Yes.

22 Q Now, is it your understanding that travel at the NRA
23 does not always conform to standard situations, is that fair?

24 MR. THOMPSON: Leading, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Sustained.

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1161

1 Q Okay. So it says, "A policy cannot address every
2 conceivable situation." Do you see that?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Now, you've given testimony today about charter travel
5 at the NRA. Do you recall the testimony?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Who is the person who travels -- who are the people
8 that travel by charter in your experience?

9 A Mr. LaPierre and then potentially others if they were 10 traveling with Mr. LaPierre.

11 Q And do you have any understanding of why Mr. LaPierre
12 travels by charter?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And what is that?

15 A He has had considerable threats against his person and 16 it was a security reason for his charter travel.

17 Q Okay. Now, is Mr. LaPierre's situation unique at the 18 NRA?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. And so he is not your typical employee travel,
21 is that fair?

22 MR. THOMPSON: Foundation. Leading, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Sustained.

24 Q Now, in the next sentence of this it says, "In 25 situations not covered by this policy, sound business judgment

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1162

1 and common sense should be used." Do you see that?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Do you view charter travel for Mr. LaPierre, given the 4 situation you just testified about, to be a proper exercise of 5 business judgment and common sense?

6 MR. THOMPSON: Leading. Legal conclusion, your
7 Honor.

8 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, the AG has asked a lot
9 about policies and whether people viewed policies being
10 followed. I think this is a fair question.

11 MR. THOMPSON: I think there is a difference
12 between that and -- I'm sorry.

13 THE COURT: I guess the witness is an accountant.
14 So we're here to hear her answers based on her personal
15 knowledge. And the way you asked it does use words that 16 might be interpreted differently by various different kinds
17 of people. So, I would be more comfortable if you would 18 address it to her personal knowledge and personal experience
19 and personal background.

20 Q Well, given that instruction, are you able to answer
21 the question?

22 MR. THOMPSON: Same objection, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 Q If you're able.

25 A Can you kind of repeat the -- I'm sorry.

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1163

1 Q Well --

2 THE COURT: I wager not.

3 MR. FLEMING: I'm sorry.

4 Q In your personal experience and in your personal
5 observations do you have a personal view as to whether Mr.
6 LaPierre traveling by charter airplane is an exercise of common
7 sense?

8 MR. THOMPSON: Foundation, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: You're asking her in her role as an
10 accountant for the company?

11 MR. FLEMING: I'm asking her really in her
12 experience as a human, really just at the organization whose 13 been there for -- since 1999.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 MR. FLEMING: Okay.

16 Q Let me move on. So you were asked questions today
17 about Schedule J of the Form 990. Do you recall that?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And in it you were asked about questions 1(a)
20 and 1(b). Do you remember what those were?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Those were the box checks?

23 A Box checks.

24 Q What do those box checks reflect?

25 A Activities that occurred during that year.

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1164

1 Q Okay. And then 1(b) would ask about whether the
2 organization followed a written policy with respect to those
3 activities, right?

4 A Correct.

5 Q Okay. In your -- To your understanding since 1999 or 6 since the beginning of schedule -- Withdrawn. Do you know when
7 Schedule J was first required?

8 A Somewhere around maybe 2009 or '10.

9 Q Okay. And in that time, ever since Schedule J has been 10 required, do you have any understanding of whether the NRA has 11 checked anything other than yes with respect to following a
12 written policy with respect to charter travel?

13 A I have not gone back to look other than the ones that 14 have been presented. So -- (pause).

15 Q Back in 2010 who was doing the NRA's 990?

16 A I -- I don't recall at that point.

17 Q Do you recall whether Emily Cummins was doing it back
18 then?

19 A I don't recall what timeframe she started. I'm going 20 to be honest.

21 Q All right.

22 THE COURT: I think we're going to wrap up for the 23 day.

24 MR. FLEMING: One more question.

25 THE COURT: Sure.

LAS

1165

1 Q Do you recall whether Mr. Sweeney was involved back
2 then?

3 A We -- we were still utilizing -- we were utilizing RSM
4 at the time. So, it's a good chance that he was -- he was there
5 at that time as well.

6 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, I still have about three
7 or four questions.

8 THE COURT: We'll pick it up. If I was going to 9 release the witness, I would feel differently, but I have a
10 feeling I assume there will be some redirect.

11 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: So let's pick it back up in the morning
13 at 9:30. See you all tomorrow. Same instructions about 14 please don't do any research. See you all tomorrow.

15 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

16 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

17 THE COURT: Just for the witness' benefit, during 18 the break, you're still effectively on the stand. So during 19 that time you shouldn't talk to anyone about your testimony,
20 including any of the lawyers or anyone else. Thank you.
21 See you all tomorrow.

22 (Whereupon the trial was adjourned to January 18,
23 2024 at 9:30 a.m.)

1 THE COURT: Have a seat. So, a couple of the
2 jurors are running late from commuting I think, as was I
3 actually, but I understand they are in the building, on
4 their way up. So it gives us a couple of minutes to talk
5 about the protocol for giving notice of witnesses and
6 documents.

7 I saw the letter from the -- I don't know if it was
8 from all the defendants, but these are informal protocols,
9 but they are important, especially when there is an
10 unrealistic number of marked exhibits. So, I -- I would --
11 You know again, there is no statutory mandate about 12 employing notice, but it does help move things along,
13 because then there is less objection, there is less delays
14 when exhibits are introduced and the like. So, I'll give 15 the Government a chance to let me know. My guess is it's 16 just a function of just a lot of things going on at once.

17 I certainly agree with the spirit of the request in 18 the defendants' letter that the parties give each other at 19 least 24 hours notice of who the witnesses are and if 20 possible the documents that are going to be used. So, any 21 reaction to the letter I received?

22 MR. THOMPSON: A few, your Honor. It's seven
23 documents that we're using with Mr. Cox today that we 24 informed the parties about last night. And the parties have 25 known that Mr. Cox was going to be on since Monday of this

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1169

1 week. I believe it was yesterday, although time has lost
2 meaning a little bit, that we said that Mr. Cox needs to go
3 today for his schedule purposes. And the NRA left out of 4 its letter that they already have the documents for the 5 witnesses going on Friday and that they know who the 6 witnesses are. And I'm not sure what they're referring to
7 with getting like -- we added three exhibits to Ms. Rowling
8 Monday evening, and then Ms. Rowling went on Wednesday. So,
9 I'm not -- We're not sure what the problem is.

10 THE COURT: The fact that it's seven documents
11 makes me feel better. Like I said, there is a certain 12 amount of flexibility that we all need given how hard
13 everybody is working. You know, I'll be able to tell just 14 by how the trial goes whether things are going off the rails
15 in terms of people not having any idea what's coming. So,
16 seven documents, I mean, in my career I've gotten those the 17 morning of and you live with it. It's not ideal, but that's 18 not a crushing amount, I don't think. But, I do think, you
19 know, trying to stick to at least a 24 hour notice of 20 witnesses and documents would be very, very helpful.

21 At this point the only enforcement I guess I would 22 say is that, you know, if I find that failure to do that is 23 leading to delays, that delay will count against the party
24 who is not cooperating in terms of how we sort of count up
25 what's going on here. I'm not of the mind right now, there

LAS

1170

1 was one of the requests I think I saw, to prevent you from
2 using exhibits today. Given the circumstances, I don't
3 think that would be a proportionate response.

4 So, I don't want to spend a lot of time on this. I
5 think you're going to want the same courtesy from the 6 defendants, which I'll expect them to provide. So, why
7 don't we, you know -- You probably have been using this any-
8 way. Why don't we use a 24 hour rule here. And if there
9 are extenuating circumstances, that's fine. But we can talk
10 about those. But I think that's a reasonable protocol to 11 have in place for all sides.

12 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Is the jury all here? Okay.
14 Just so I'm clear. Are we going to stop Ms. Rowling in 15 midstream to have Mr. Cox go? How is that going to work?

16 MR. THOMPSON: We expect very limited redirect. So 17 we can finish with Ms. Rowling and bring Mr. Cox in, your
18 Honor.

19 THE COURT: Who is questioning Ms. Rowling right
20 now?

21 MR. FLEMING: I am, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Let's bring the witness in.
23 Thanks.

24 MS. CONNELL: Mr. Cox I believe had been in the 25 jury line. I think he's now up here, where he should be,

LAS

1 but I'm waiting.

2 THE COURT: We don't need him quite yet. There is
3 still defense questioning.

4 MS. CONNELL: I said jury line.

5 THE COURT: He's getting to meet lots of fellow New
6 Yorkers. Good morning.

7 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

8 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

9 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

10 THE COURT: Good morning everyone. Have a seat,
11 please. It sounds like some of you had the same kind of 12 commute I had this morning with slow trains and lots of 13 people. I appreciate you getting here.

14 All right. We're going to continue with the 15 witness. Mr. Fleming, I think you were in the middle of 16 your examination.

17 MR. FLEMING: Yes.

18 S O N Y A R O W L I N G, after having been previously duly
19 sworn, was examined and testified further as follows:

20 CROSS EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. FLEMING:

22 Q Good morning, Ms. Rowling.

23 A Good morning.

24 Q So, I would like to start by going back to an exhibit
25 that I showed you yesterday just for a few additional questions.

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1172

1 MR. FLEMING: Can I cull up exhibit PX 1792.

2 Q Ms. Rowling, I asked you questions about this, and you
3 indicated or testified that this was an example of the cross-
4 checking method that the treasurer's office employs with the 5 secretary's office to identify related-party transactions. Do
6 you recall the testimony?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. So, if I could direct your attention to -- there
9 is a list on -- at the bottom of the e-mail that Mr. Frazer
10 asked Mr. Tedrick about a list of people. Do you see those?
11 Can you see those?

12 A (Examining).

13 MR. FLEMING: Scroll up a little bit higher to 14 the -- Right there.

15 Q So, you see that he's asking about Marion Hammer, do
16 you see that?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And Julie Golub?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And Chris Titus?

21 A Yes.

22 Q I want to ask you about Illing New. Who is Illing New?

23 A She's a board member.

24 Q Okay. And when you were provided the bolded response
25 that there are no payments to New in 2017 or 2018, what had you

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1173

1 done to determine that?

2 A Ran accounts payable ledger reports to see if there
3 were any payments directly to that name.

4 Q Okay.

5 MR. FLEMING: If we can scroll up to the e-mail
6 from Mr. Frazer to Ms. Rowling dated July 29th at 8:43 a.m.
7 on page 2 of 5. Right there.

8 Q Do you recall this e-mail where Mr. Frazer is asking
9 you questions about Ms. New?

10 A Yes.

11 Q What do you recall he was trying to do there?

12 A Reconcile what was on the financial disclosure
13 questionnaire to what our response was from accounts payable.

14 Q Well, in fact, isn't he saying that he's noticed that 15 Publications has been running articles that Ms. New had written?

16 MR. THOMPSON: Leading, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Let this one go.

18 Q What is Publications?

19 A Publications is a division that produces magazines for 20 the association.

21 MR. FLEMING: If we can scroll up.

22 Q People including Mr. Erstling sort of respond to Mr.
23 Frazer's question.

24 MR. FLEMING: It spans the bottom of page 1 of 5 to 25 the top of page 2 of 5. Is there a way to kind of -- Yep.

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1174

1 Well let's just stick with page 1, please.

2 Q Ms. Rowling, if you see at the middle of page 1,
3 July 29th at 9:30 a.m. you write this e-mail. Did you do
4 further investigation into Ms. New to respond to Mr. Frazer's
5 question?

6 A That would have been that same accounts payable report
7 that was run, that could say yes, we paid her directly in 2015.

8 Q Okay. So is it fair to say that even though the 9 treasurer's office and its staff and yourself possibly even had 10 determined that Ms. New had received no payments from the NRA,
11 Mr. Frazer was continuing to check out to see if there might be 12 something that might be a related-party transaction? Is that
13 fair?

14 MR. THOMPSON: Leading, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Sustained.

16 Q Did you understand Mr. Frazer to be following up,
17 notwithstanding receiving information that he had, that Ms. New 18 had received no payments?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. All right. So, Ms. Rowling, I would like to ask
21 you about, you were a whistleblower, correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q In July of 2018?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. Do you recall what role Mr. Frazer played in

LAS

Cross-Rowling-Fleming

1175

1 addressing yours and others whistleblower concerns?

2 A He was actively involved in that process. We met,
3 myself and some colleagues met with him immediately after to 4 discuss some of the various issues and how to get those 5 resolved.

6 Q Do you recall meeting with him before the July 30th
7 audit committee meeting about your whistleblower top concerns?

8 A I don't recall.

9 MR. FLEMING: Can I call up JFX 13, please.

10 THE COURT: Is that in evidence?

11 MR. FLEMING: It's in evidence. Sorry. Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 Q So, Ms. Rowling, take a look at this e-mail and see if 14 it refreshes your recollection about a meeting with Mr. Frazer
15 concerning the top concerns.

16 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
17 request of counsel.)

18 A Okay. Yes.

19 Q Do you recall this meeting?

20 A Not off the top of my head.

21 Q Do you recall any direction at all respecting
22 Grassroots Behavioral at or about the time of the audit
23 committee meeting on July 30?

24 A I -- I really don't. I don't. I'm sorry.

25 Q Okay. No problem. So last question for you. Based on

LAS

Redirect-Rowling-Thompson

1176

1 your observations and experiences with Mr. Frazer, did you ever
2 know a situation where he was not trying to do the right thing
3 for the NRA?

4 MR. THOMPSON: Objection. Leading, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Overruled.

6 A No. I do not.

7 MR. FLEMING: Thank you so much.

8 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Redirect.

10 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. THOMPSON:

12 Q Good morning, Ms. Rowling.

13 A Good morning.

14 Q Am I coming through? All right. Ms. Rowling, you
15 testified yesterday that the audit committee was receptive to 16 you and your colleagues concerns, do you recall that?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Who were the members of the audit committee at the time
19 of the July 2018 meeting?

20 A Charles Cotton, Dave Coy, Curtis Jenkins, Herb
21 Langford, Carolyn Meadows.

22 Q And Mr. Cotton and Ms. Meadows both left the meeting
23 prior to you and your colleagues presenting your concerns, is
24 that correct?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Redirect-Rowling-Thompson

1177

1 Q And you cannot recall after that July 2018 meeting the
2 next time that you spoke to a member of the audit committee
3 about the concerns that were raised in the top concerns memo, is
4 that correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Do you recall testifying yesterday that you have not
7 seen internal control override since August 1st of 2020?

8 A Yes.

9 Q The complaint in this action was filed in August of
10 2020, correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And the NRA filed for bankruptcy in January of 2021,
13 correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And then after the bankruptcy Mr. LaPierre attempted to 16 verbally approve a raise for Chris DeWitt, correct?

17 A No.

18 Q Mr. Schropp attempted to verbally approve a raise for 19 Chris DeWitt that he claims Mr. LaPierre had approved, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you testified that Mr. DeWitt was a very valued
22 advancement employee. Do you recall that?

23 MS. EISENBERG: Mischaracterizes his testimony.

24 THE COURT: Overruled.

25 A I testified that that that's what I was told, that he

LAS

Redirect-Rowling-Thompson

1178

1 was a very valuable employee.

2 Q So valued that it took six years of improper expenses
3 for him to be fired, right?

4 A He had improper expenses that were paid back. So,
5 nothing was ever -- the NRA was not out assets with respect to 6 Mr. DeWitt.

7 Q But it still took six years for him to be fired,
8 correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Six years of improper expenses on a credit card and 11 then expense reimbursement requests, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And you testified that you have not seen expense
14 reports without appropriate backups since August 1st of 2020,
15 right?

16 A I have not been notified of any.

17 Q But Mr. DeWitt was fired in the fall of 2022?

18 A Right, but again those were not processed. So, the 19 process works. They're not being processed. And that's what 20 the -- I assumed my testimony was stating.

21 Q Okay. But he attempted to process improper expense
22 reimbursement requests, right?

23 A Humans are fallible.

24 Q And that happened between August 1st of 2020 and the 25 present, right?

LAS

Redirect-Rowling-Thompson

1179

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And Millie Hallow was not fired until the fall
3 of 2022, right?

4 A Correct.

5 Q And you testified that Mr. LaPierre was not involved in 6 the contract negotiations with MMP that occurred in 2022, right?

7 A Correct.

8 Q You weren't directly involved in those negotiations
9 either, right?

10 A I was with the attorneys.

11 Q With the NRA's attorneys?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q You did not have any direct involvement in the 14 negotiations between the NRA and MMP, correct?

15 A I'm not -- I was in direct communication with the 16 attorneys as those -- those negotiations were taking place.

17 Q You never spoke to a representative of MMP in 18 connection with the negotiations, correct?

19 A I actually did.

20 Q When was that?

21 A I had a conversation with Mr. Knight regarding the 22 negotiations.

23 Q That was -- So the contract, the new contract was 24 entered into in August of 2022, correct?

25 A Yes.

LAS

1 Q You were deposed in July of 2022, correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And as of the time of your deposition in 2022 you had
4 had no direct involvement in the negotiations of the MMP
5 contract, right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q So you had no personal knowledge of whether or not Mr.
8 LaPierre was having any involvement directly in the negotiations
9 of the MMP contract, right?

10 A I don't suspect my lawyers are going to lie to me, but
11 I guess I don't have personal knowledge that he didn't have a
12 conversation.

4 And Ms. Rowling is instructed not to testify about
5 advice lawyers gave her.

6 THE COURT: I'm not sure that's a question about
7 advice. That's a fact question, right?

8 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

10 Q So, Ms. Rowling, your lawyers informed you that 11 Mr. LaPierre did not have any direct negotiations in the MMP
12 contract?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay.

15 You were asked whether, in your time at the NRA, the 16 Attorney General of the State of New York has ever inquired as 17 to the NRA's responses to the questions on the Form 990. Do you
18 recall that?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you're aware that the Attorney General of the State
21 of New York represents the plaintiff in this action?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And that this action involves inquiries into the NRA's
24 responses to the questions on the Form 990?

25 A Yes.

1182

1 Q And you're aware that the Attorney General's office
2 commenced an investigation into the NRA in 2019?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And that that investigation also related to the NRA's
5 responses to the Form 990s?

6 A I thought their -- the investigation was related to the 7 CHAR500, not the 990s specifically, but it could be my mistake.

8 Q The 990 is attached to the CHAR500; correct?

9 A Absolutely.

10 Q Okay. And the CHAR500: Just for the jury's sake, that 11 is the -- the form that is filed with the Attorney General's 12 office in New York every year; is that correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay.

15 You testified that Mr. Spray was the one who gave you
16 and your colleagues empowerment to go to the Audit Committee.
17 Do you recall that?

18 A Yes.

19 Q You didn't go to Mr. Frazer with your concerns before
20 going to Mr. Spray; correct?

21 A I'm trying ... This is -- the -- the assumption here
22 is that I had knowledge of every single item on this list of 23 concerns. I didn't. So, on the ones that I had some personal 24 knowledge of, I actually had discussed one of them with -- with 25 Mr. Frazer --

1 Q Okay.

2 A -- but -- but around the same time that it was -- I was
3 -- discussing them with Mr. -- Mr. Spray.

4 Q So, was it before or after you spoke with Mr. Spray
5 that you recall speaking with Mr. Frazer?

6 A It was six years ago; I don't know.

7 Q And so, with Mr. Fleming, just a moment ago, you could
8 not recall the conversation that you had with Mr. Frazer prior 9 to the July 2018 meeting that he was trying to refresh your 10 recollection about; right?

11 A That was -- the one I'm referring to is different from 12 that one, in particular.

13 Q Okay. And you cannot recall when that took place other
14 than that it was in 2018.

15 A The information I had heard was probably around the 16 April time frame that I relayed to Mr. Frazer.

17 Q And Mr. Spray joined in March of 2018?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q Okay. You did not bring any of the concerns that you
20 had to Mr. Phillips, directly; correct?

21 A Directly? No.

22 Q Or to Mr. LaPierre.

23 A Directly? No.

24 Q So, Mr. Spray was the one who gave you empowerment to 25 bring your concerns to the Audit Committee; correct?

1184

1 A Yes.

2 Q And Mr. Spray was the outsider who was hired through an

6 NRA?

7 MS. EISENBERG: Your Honor, outside the scope.

4 So, overruled.

5 A Would you mind repeating the question?

6 Q Absolutely.

7 A Thank you.

8 Q Since August 1st, 2020, to what extent, if any, have
9 you believed any vendor of the NRA to be "untouchable"?

10 A There are none.

11 Q You said, "There are none"?

12 A There are none.

13 Q We talked about Mr. DeWitt being let go. How many 14 employees does the NRA have, approximately?

15 A Currently? 350.

16 Q And was that about the number of employees the NRA had

18 A Yes.

19 Q We also talked about Millie Hallow being let go.
20 Remember testifying about that?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Did the NRA also have around the same number of 23 employees around that time?

24 A Yes.

25 Q You mentioned that Charles Cotton and Carolyn Meadows

4 A Not to my knowledge.

5 Q '15?

6 A Not to my knowledge.

7 Q '16?

8 A Not to my knowledge.

9 Q And did you consider communications --

10 MR. CORRELL: Well, I'll leave it at that.

11 Thank you very much.

12 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Anything further?

14 MS. COUTU: No further questions.

15 MR. FLEMING: Nothing from me. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Anything further?

17 MR. THOMPSON: No, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 Thank you very much. You're free to go.

20 (Witness excused.)

21 THE COURT: Okay. Is the State ready to call its 22 next witness?

23 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

24 Can you hear me, Alan?

25 (The reporter nodded.)

Proceedings

1 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor. The State calls
2 Christopher Cox.

3 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, a small housekeeping item
4 before Mr. Cox:

5 As an artifact of the disarray with the exhibits,
6 there were some that were designated at 8:00 p.m. last night
7 that we did not have a chance to hash out objections to, and 8 I don't know if it would be more efficient to do that with 9 the witness on the stand or not.

10 In sum and substance, there are confidential
11 arbitration materials and a confidential settlement
12 agreement that we produced in discovery, but we think the 13 relevance is so minimal that -- and the burden to keeping
14 those documents sealed, if they come into evidence, is so
15 high -- that we would object to their introduction, and we 16 don't see the relevance to any of the claims.

17 THE COURT: Well, if there's going to be an 18 extended -- I don't know how extensive the objection's going
19 to be, but it obviously will be without the jury present.
20 So, is it possible that those documents will not be 21 introduced until, say, around 11:00, when we have our break?

22 MS. CONNELL: I think we might get to some of them
23 before then, your Honor.

24 I would note, setting aside the characterizations,
25 that the issues of these documents have previously been

1 brought before your Honor on two occasions: one in an
2 attempt to seal, in which the Court ruled we had the right
3 to get these documents; and another, I believe, if I'm not
4 incorrect, in motions in limine with regard to whether we 5 could use them. And I think your holding was, "Let's see;
6 let's lay the foundation; let's see if they come in."

7 Your Honor, these documents have been the subject
8 of motion practice before your Honor, they're known to be 9 associated with this witness, and -- and I just --

10 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm just --

11 MS. CONNELL: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: -- solving for a logistical thing,
13 which is: If we're going to have an objection and it's 14 going to take some time for us to at least talk about it,
15 I'd rather do it with the jury not here and not wasting 16 anyone's time.

17 MS. CONNELL: How --

18 THE COURT: So I assume you'll have some portion of
19 time --

20 How about, when we get to those documents, we'll 21 take our break, even if it's a little bit earlier than 22 usual? I just want to make sure we're being efficient with 23 the jury's time.

24 MS. CONNELL: Absolutely, your Honor.

25 So I think we can get a pretty good way there, and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 I will try and stop before we get to any documents relating
2 to the arbitration.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 Let's get the witness, please.

5 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

6 MR. THOMPSON: Your Honor, would you like us to 7 take any of the binders off your hands (indicating)?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 Well, we can do that at a break. I'm feeling a
10 little closed in back here (indicating).

11 (Whereupon, the prospective witness entered the 12 courtroom and assumed the witness stand.)

13 C H R I S [T O P H E R] C O X, called as a witness by the 14 plaintiff, having been first duly sworn/affirmed, was examined

17 THE WITNESS: Chris Cox.

18 THE CLERK: Spell your last name.

19 THE WITNESS: C-o-x.

20 THE CLERK: And business address?

21 THE WITNESS: Business address is 300 South
22 Washington Street, in Alexandria, Virginia 22314.

23 THE CLERK: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Have a seat.

4 THE COURT: Sure.

5 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Have a seat.

7 (Witness seated.)

8 THE COURT: And if you can just try and be as close
9 to the mic as you can, please ...

10 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: It gets a little hard to hear
12 sometimes.

13 All right, you may continue --

14 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: -- or start.

16 MS. CONNELL: Start.

17 Thank you, your Honor.

18 Can the jurors hear me?

19 MULTIPLE JURORS: Yes.

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY MS. CONNELL:

22 Q Good morning, sir.

23 Can you please state your name, for the record?

24 A Chris Cox.

25 Q Mr. Cox, are you married?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1194

1 A I am.

2 Q Do you have children?

3 A I do; two.

4 Q And you are appearing here pursuant to a subpoena;
5 correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q Do you have any agreement with the State of New York,
8 whatsoever?

9 A No.

10 Q Okay.

11 Mr. Cox, are you familiar with the mission of the NRA?

12 A I am.

13 Q And do you believe in the mission of the NRA?

14 A I do, to my core.

15 Q Can you -- I'm sorry?

16 A To my core.

17 Q Can you briefly tell the jury about your educational 18 background?

19 A Yes.

20 I went to college preparatory school, in Chattanooga,
21 called the Baylor School, in Tennessee. After high school, I
22 went to Rhodes College, a small liberal arts school in Memphis.
23 I did some additional studies at the University of Innsbruck, in 24 Austria and, after graduating college, planned to go and get a
25 graduate degree but detoured and moved to Washington, D.C.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1195

1 Q Mr. Cox, I'm just going to say, we have the world's
2 best court reporters, but I suspect they're going to ask you to
3 slow down a little bit.

4 A Understood.

5 Q So I'm going to preempt that.

6 Can you also briefly tell the jury about your
7 employment background?

8 A Yes.

9 I moved to Washington, D.C., in 1992. I worked for 10 Congressman John Tanner, from the area of West Tennessee, where 11 I grew up; did legislative work for Congressman Tanner for about 12 three years.

13 Q Okay. At some point, did you come to be hired by the
14 NRA?

15 A I did.

16 Q Can you tell us how that came about?

17 A I had worked on judiciary issues, issues related to the 18 Second Amendment, for the congressman on Capitol Hill. I'd 19 gotten to know and work with representatives of the National 20 Rifle Association. I was offered a position, in February of 21 1995, to be a federal lobbyist -- a Federal Liaison was the 22 title, but federal lobbyist -- on Capitol Hill for the National 23 Rifle Association, and in February of 1995, was promoted within 24 that division, became Deputy Director of the Federal Affairs
25 Division, around 2001, I believe; and then was eventually

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1196

1 appointed and promoted to Executive Director of the Institute
2 for Legislative Action in April of 2002.

3 Q So, Mr. Cox, can you explain, briefly, what the 4 Institute for legislative action is within the NRA?

5 A So, anything that directly or indirectly impacts the 6 Second Amendment and the rights of gun owners in the United
7 States is covered by the Institute for Legislative Action. It
8 was set up to defend the Second Amendment, whether it's in the 9 legislative, political or legal arenas.

10 Q Does the Institute for Legislative Action -- is it,
11 like, a separate entity within the NRA?

12 A It is. It was -- the National Rifle Association was 13 formed, incorporated here in New York, in 1871. The Institute 14 for Legislative Action was formed in 1975 to focus on the 15 political, legislative and legal actions, based on the growing
16 threats to the Second Amendment. So it was set up, kind of, as 17 a wholly owned subsidiary of the National Rifle Association,
18 with its own fiscal officer and its own responsibilities.

19 Q When you say, it had its own fiscal officer and its own
20 responsibilities, does that mean that its finances were separate 21 from the NRA's, to any degree?

22 A The finances were separate from the NRA. The National 23 Rifle Association -- the dues from the members -- covered the 24 expenses of the Institute for Legislative Action's staff and 25 overhead. The additional resources that were needed to run ILA,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1197

1 I had to raise separately, and that was within the numerous
2 responsibilities that I had as Executive Director of ILA.

3 Q Can you tell us what your responsibilities as the 4 Executive Director of --

5 And when we say "ILA," that means the Institute for 6 Legislative Action. If I say "ILA," we'll understand what we're 7 talking about; correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay.

10 A So I had multiple responsibilities. I was -- I served
11 as the chief lobbyist, ultimately, for the National Rifle
12 Association, the primary point of contact with elected
13 officials, up to the President of the United States.

14 I served as the chairman of the political action
15 committee, called the NRA Political Victory Fund; I was 16 responsible for the election strategy and for raising and 17 deploying the resources to implement that election strategy.

18 I served as the president of the Freedom Action
19 Foundation, which was a -c(3) set up -- charity -- set up to 20 register gun owners across America.

21 And I also served as one of the two primary
22 spokespeople for the National Rifle Association, giving
23 speeches, doing interviews and those sorts of things.

24 And I ran a staff of, roughly, 80 people, including
25 full-time lobbyists for Capitol Hill, that covered all 50 state

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1198

1 legislatures and local governments, and also managed and oversaw
2 the outside lobbyist and consultants and others that were part
3 of the outside consulting group.

4 Q So, as the Executive Director of ILA --

5 Well, let me stop for a second: Is the Executive
6 Director of ILA the highest position within ILA?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And as Executive Director of ILA, did you report to
9 Mr. LaPierre?

10 A I did.

11 Q Okay. As Executive Director of ILA, did you oversee
12 the finances of ILA?

13 A I did.

14 Q And did you try to track spending within ILA?

15 A I did.

16 We had a budget that was submitted for board approval
17 every year; it was part of the NRA's overall budget, but, yes,
18 we -- we had a budget to live under. I was responsible for 19 raising the money, ultimately responsible for deploying those 20 resources, and it was something that -- that we took very 21 seriously.

22 We had a fiscal officer who had been there, predated
23 my -- my employment with the National Rifle Association; had 24 been there for years, very respected; ultimately resigned or 25 retired and was replaced with another fiscal officer that I

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1199

1 hired.

2 Q While you were heading up ILA, did you try and track,
3 in any way, sort of, the return on investment of monies spent by
4 ILA?

5 A Yes.

6 And ultimately, I was judged fairly, based on election
7 wins and losses and legislative wins and losses; and we had,
8 during my tenure of 18 and a half years, significant legislative 9 wins, election wins and legal victories, something I'm very 10 proud of.

11 Q Did you try, as Executive Director of ILA, to ensure 12 that ILA stayed within budget?

13 A We had to stay within budget, because we did not have a
14 line of credit; we did not have access to additional resources.
15 So we did not have the option of living outside of our budget.

16 Q In your observation in your time with the NRA, was that 17 true of the NRA?

18 A No.

19 Q Can you tell us what you observed of the NRA in terms
20 of management of its budget?

21 A Well, there was a constant need to raise additional 22 resources for the National Rifle Association because there was 23 not enough money coming in from member dues. So a lot of money
24 had to be raised.

25 I always believed that the National Rifle Association

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 never had a fund-raising problem, but I believed for a long
2 period of time that the National Rifle Association had a
3 spending problem; we spent more money than we had.

4 It became an issue year after year, where there was a
5 constant struggle to raise more money, to borrow more money, not
6 from an ILA standpoint but other parts of the building, and it
7 was a -- it was certainly something that I disagreed with.

1 Q And why did you disagree with that?

2 A Because our members sent in money, because they were
3 dedicated and passionate and believed that the money should be
4 spent on defense of the Second Amendment and the core mission of 5 The National Rifle Association. But ultimately you only have a
6 certain amount of resources you can spend, because the money is 7 not there. So, to constantly borrow, to constantly do those 8 things I was not comfortable with.

9 Q And were you ever aware of NRA expenses being passed
10 through or put into ILA?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Can you explain some of what you saw in that regard?

13 A It started back in 2002 when I was appointed to be 14 executive director of ILA. It was brought to my attention that 15 some of Wayne's expenses -- I don't know how Wayne did his 16 expenses. I don't know if he ran some through different parts
17 of the building, but I know that some of Wayne's expenses were 18 run through The Institute for Legislative Action.

19 Q And how did you find out that some of Mr. LaPierre's
20 expenses were run through The Institute for Legislative Action?

21 A I don't remember who told me or how I found out, but I
22 went and spoke to a lady who worked in the ILA fiscal department
23 and said, Does Wayne run his expenses through ILA. She said,
24 Yes. I said, Can I see them. Her response was, Nobody sees 25 those.

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1202

1 My deputy executive director and general counsel asked
2 a similar question not long afterwards said, We're kind of
3 responsible for ILA resources. Can you share what's going on 4 here. Can we see these. And again she repeated, Not a chance.

5 Q Did you ever get to see Wayne LaPierre's expenses that
6 were being run through ILA?

7 A I was there for 18 and a half years and I never saw
8 them.

9 Q Are you aware of any other instances of NRA expenses
10 being run through ILA?

11 A I found out later that Gayle Stanford, who was the 12 outside travel agent that at some point, some of Gayle's --
13 Apparently I did not know she was being paid a retainer --
14 apparently some of those expenses were indeed run through ILA.

15 Q You knew who Gayle Stanford was, right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And how did you know who Ms. Stanford was?

18 A When I was appointed executive director of ILA in April
19 of 2002, I was instructed by Wayne LaPierre to use Gayle
20 Stanford for travel. I didn't know Gayle. I knew she was a
21 travel agent. I found her to be a very effective travel agent.
22 So, if I had issues, my executive assistant would call Gayle.
23 Book tickets. Book hotel rooms. The only time I interacted
24 with Gayle was those times you're at an airport and your flight
25 gets canceled or your flight gets delayed and you need help and

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1203

1 you've got to call somebody, I would call Gayle and she was
2 always able to quickly address and solve the problem.

3 Q So, how did you find out that Ms. Stanford or part of 4 her retainer was being run through ILA?

5 A I'm not sure I knew it while I was there. I didn't see
6 Gayle's bills. Those went directly to the fiscal office or 7 maybe they came to my office and they were signed off on by 8 someone else. I think it was during the bankruptcy trial that 9 that was revealed to me.

10 Q Mr. Cox, was Ms. Stanford used by all of the staff by 11 ILA for travel?

12 A That's not my understanding. Wayne instructed me to 13 use Gayle 18 years before. I believe that Wayne testified that 14 he had -- he had given me other people within ILA and other
15 executives and other employees the direction to use -- to use
16 Gayle Stanford. But I don't believe it was applied across the 17 board. I think it was just to people that Wayne directly
18 approved.

19 Q And were you aware that she was billing on a retainer
20 basis?

21 A No.

22 Q Okay. In your experience was that an usual arrangement
23 with travel agents you've used?

24 A I'm not an expert in travel agents. I always assume 25 travel agents book tickets and charge a booking fee. I never

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1204

1 heard of a travel agent being charged a retainer. I don't know
2 if that's standard practice, but it's certainly not a practice
3 I'm familiar with.

4 Q Mr. Cox, are you familiar with an organization called
5 Youth for Tomorrow?

6 A I am.

7 Q What is that organization?

8 A Youth for Tomorrow is a Christian charity that was 9 started by a former Washington Redskin's coach named Joe Gibbs.
10 He's a current NASCAR team owner that's in the northern Virginia
11 area that serves, provides services for abused children.

12 Q Does Youth for Tomorrow have anything to do, to your 13 knowledge, with the Second Amendment?

14 A No.

15 Q Does it have anything to do with the mission of the NRA
16 or advancing the mission of the NRA?

17 A No.

18 Q Do you know whether NRA funds were ever directed for
19 Youth for Tomorrow?

20 A I believe the answer to that is yes.

21 Q And do you know why NRA funds were directed to Youth
22 for Tomorrow?

23 A I don't. I think that ultimately there is wonderful
24 charities all across the country that deserve to be supported.
25 I think Youth for Tomorrow is a wonderful charity. I think

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1205

1 there were more appropriate charities for the The National Rifle
2 Association to support, maybe Youth Shooting, maybe the U.S.
3 Olympic team. I thought there were better places to send NRA's
4 member money and donations then to unaffiliated, outside
5 charity.

6 Q Do you know whether Susan LaPierre was involved with
7 Youth for Tomorrow?

8 A Susan LaPierre was involved with Youth for Tomorrow,
9 and I believe she ultimately might have served as -- on the 10 board or as president of the board.

11 Q And did Mrs. LaPierre ever discuss with you the use of 12 NRA funds for Youth for Tomorrow events?

13 A Yes. Susan LaPierre asked me for help in raising money
14 for Youth for Tomorrow, which I always tried to assist with 15 Susan's request and directives.

16 Q So I think, Mr. Cox, you said as the head of the ILA
17 you reported to Wayne LaPierre, correct?

18 A Correct. Both in practice and also according to the 19 bylaws of The National Rifle Association.

20 Q What was the nature of your relationship with Mr.
21 LaPierre?

22 A Well, it was a long relationship. I've known Wayne
23 LaPierre for over 30 years now. When I was a young guy hired by 24 The National Rifle Association to lobby Capitol Hill at age 24,
25 it was different than the 49 year old who left 18 and a half

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1206

1 years later. Wayne and I had a -- it started off as a young guy
2 admiring and looking up to his boss. It became a partnership to
3 a large degree. We battled up. Went through a lot of battles
4 together. Didn't always agree, but always had the same end game
5 in mind with results with regards to winning elections and 6 winning legislative campaigns and issues.

7 Over time as I grew in the position of an officer, as I
8 started seeing more things, attending more board meetings --

9 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'm sorry. Should we 10 pause for a second for the sirens?

11 THE COURT: I thought you were going to ask me to 12 stop the sirens.

13 MS. CONNELL: If you had that power, I would.

14 THE COURT: I was thinking about it.

15 Q I'm sorry, Mr. Cox. I think we're safe now. I think
16 you were saying, Mr. Cox --

17 MS. CONNELL: Can we read back where Mr. Cox left
18 off?

19 (Whereupon the above-requested testimony was read
20 back.)

21 Q Okay. I'm sorry, Mr. Cox. If you could pick it up
22 from there.

23 A As I grew as an officer, in a position of an officer as 24 I attended more board meetings, I started to learn more about 25 not just ILA but overall mechanism of the The National Rifle

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1207

1 Association, the budget of the The National Rifle Association,
2 the expenditure of National Rifle Association, I didn't always
3 agree. Again that wasn't necessarily a bad thing. You know,
4 people can disagree, but I started to have questions and growing
5 concerns particularly over the final few years that ultimately
6 lead to my departure in 2019.

7 Q Can you talk about what some of those growing concerns
8 were?

9 A With regards to my departure? I'm sorry. With regard
10 to my departure or concerns about the organization?

11 Q Let's first talk about concerns of the organization
12 before your departure.

13 A Well I had battled internally with Ackerman McQueen,
14 the outside PR firm for a variety of different reasons. I had 15 serious concerns about, in my view, hiring and grossly
16 overpaying incompetent people. I had questions about other
17 strategies. The constant -- the constant need for money for 18 National Rifle Association. The borrowing of money, including 19 borrowing money at times from funds from The Institute for 20 Legislative Action. All of those things became more and more
21 concerning and became more and more of a problem.

22 Q So I --

23 A To the end -- to the end I still tried to help advance
24 the mission of The National Rifle Association. And there was a
25 time when I put the mission of National Rifle Association above

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1208

1 the interests of individuals and that ultimately ended up
2 becoming a problem.

3 Q So let's break that down a little bit. You had
4 concerns about Ackerman McQueen, an NRA vendor, right?

5 A I did.

6 Q What was the nature of those concerns?

7 A I thought Ackerman McQueen -- Ackerman McQueen had a
8 long relationship with The National Rifle Association long
9 before my service with NRA. I think Ackerman McQueen should be 10 credited with some fantastic advertising campaigns. Some of the 11 work they did was very successful.

12 My problem with Ackerman McQueen is the person
13 responsible for dealing with a different audience, the 14 legislative audience, the donor audience. I thought Ackerman
15 McQueen was not strategic in their messaging. I thought their 16 messaging was politically tone deaf. I thought they were 17 arrogant. I believe that they overcharged for the product that 18 they delivered. I thought their advertising, purchasing was 19 flawed. All things that I was not quiet about and that I was 20 quite outspoken about at the time. I don't think anyone battled 21 with that agency inside The National Rifle Association more than 22 I did.

23 Q Did you discuss any of these concerns with Wayne
24 LaPierre?

25 A I did.

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1209

1 Q And what response if anything -- if any did you
2 receive?

3 A I've only heard Wayne LaPierre use profanity twice in 4 the 30 plus years that I've known him. Both of those times were
5 when Ackerman McQueen was being questioned or pushed back
6 against. Wayne was the fiercest defender of Ackerman McQueen.
7 At times the only defender of Ackerman McQueen. But to go
8 against Ackerman McQueen it was very -- very well known to 9 go against Ackerman McQueen was to go against Wayne LaPierre.
10 He believed in them. He trusted them. He used them. And 11 ultimately that was his decision as executive vice president,
12 and I was not able to change his mind and eventually quit
13 trying.

14 Q Do you think it would be fair to say that Ackerman
15 McQueen's position as a vendor of the NRA was untouchable?

16 A I believe it was untouchable and unhealthy.

17 Q Who managed the NRA's relationship with Ackerman
18 McQueen from what you observed?

19 A Wayne LaPierre.

20 Q Okay. Did Mr. Phillips have any role in that 21 relationship from what you observed?

22 A As the treasurer and CFO and the person responsible for 23 ultimately making sure people were paid and the invoices got 24 paid, then yes, Woody would have been involved. I was never 25 involved nor party to any of the negotiations with Ackerman

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1210

1 McQueen.

2 Q Did you use Ackerman McQueen at ILA?

3 A I did not. Ackerman McQueen provided minimal
4 assistance for our efforts at the annual meeting, particularly
5 with me as it related to giving speeches at the annual meeting.
6 The speech assistance, the audiovisual equipment, those sorts of 7 things, because they were put in charge of basically running --
8 running all of that at the annual meeting.

9 Q Did you observe Ackerman McQueen to have any role in 10 shaping Mr. LaPierre's image, public image?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Can you describe that?

13 A Wayne would speak to Angus McQueen, when Angus was 14 still alive regularly. I think it was reported that he spoke 15 sometimes many times a day. I think that Angus McQueen and 16 Ackerman McQueen effectively changed Wayne's image, no question.

17 Q Okay. I think you said, Mr. Cox, that Mr. LaPierre
18 managed the NRA's relationship with Ackerman. Are you familiar
19 with another NRA vendor MMP?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Do you know whether Mr. LaPierre managed the NRA's
22 relationship with MMP?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. And did ILA use MMP's services?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1 Q Did you choose to use MMP for ILA?

2 A No. Wayne negotiated and signed MMP to do fundraising
3 solicitation by mail for The National Rifle Association, for The 4 Institute for Legislative Action that I ran and also for the NRA
5 Political Victory Fund that I ran. I never saw an MMP contract.
6 Never asked my opinion on an MMP contract. But so yes, we -- we 7 used them or ILA used them and my understanding is continuing to 8 use them.

9 Q Did you ever ask to see an MMP contract?

10 A I wanted to understand better the MMP contract. We 11 sent out a lot of mail. It was a lot of members money that was 12 spent on it. It was critically important, the fundraising
13 benefit was critically important to The National Rifle
14 Association. But like everything else, when you're responsible
15 for raising those dollars and spending those dollars, you want
16 to make sure they are used effectively. I did want to know what 17 that looked like. And my understanding was it changed over 18 time. But I was not able to negotiate on ILA's behalf for that 19 or for the political action committee.

20 Q Were you aware, while you were at ILA, of a 21 relationship, if any, between Mr. LaPierre and the owners of 22 MMP?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And what was your knowledge about that?

25 A My understanding, I didn't understand the -- who

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1212

1 actually owned, what personal people owned, but I understood
2 Brad O'Leary owned part of MMP was my impression. And I
3 understood that David McKenzie was the other primary owner. I
4 believe Gurney Sloane might have owned a piece. I don't know --
5 I don't know the ownership structure. Yes, I was aware that
6 there were individuals who owned the company and worked directly
7 with Wayne.

8 Q Were you aware of whether Mr. LaPierre had a friendly
9 relationship with Mr. McKenzie?

10 A I don't know the nature. I was never -- I think I
11 might have met David McKenzie one time with Wayne. He's a 12 distinct fellow, and so I would recognize him if he were in the 13 courtroom. I don't know him. I might have met him once or 14 twice. I do understand that Wayne had known the McKenzies, both 15 David and his wife, for a long period of time and had a personal
16 relationship.

17 Q Were you aware of whether Mr. LaPierre received any 18 gifts from Mr. or Mrs. McKenzie?

19 A Not until I left The National Rifle Association.

20 Q If you had known that they received gifts while you
21 were at The National Rifle Association, would that have caused 22 you to direct closer scrutiny to the MMP contract?

23 A Absolutely.

24 Q Why is that?

25 A Because it's inappropriate to accept things of value

LAS

1213

1 from vendors. There is a -- a policy against it.

2 Q Okay. Have you ever heard of an entity called
3 Associated Television International or ATI?

4 A I have heard of that, yes.

5 Q Do you understand that to be an entity controlled by 6 Mr. McKenzie?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Do you know whether it was a vendor of the NRA?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. Do you know what work it did for the NRA?

11 A My understand -- I do not. My understanding was that 12 they produced some television programing I believe called Crime
13 Strike, but I'm not -- I'm not familiar with Crime Strike or how 14 it worked or if it worked.

15 Q Have you ever seen an episode of Crime Strike?

16 A I have not.

17 Q Mr. Cox, you're not saying that no show called Crime
18 Strike was ever produced, right?

19 A I'm not.

20 Q Did you ever discuss Crime Strike with Mr. LaPierre?

21 A I did. I asked Wayne at a finance committee meeting
22 when I saw on a financial document ATI or Crime Strike or 23 whatever the line item was with money attributed to it, I asked
24 Wayne, I said, What is this. He said, We're wrapping that up.
25 That's the Crime Strike TV show that we're wrapping up. That

1214

1 was the only conversation I had with him about it.

2 Q Did you ever indicate to Mr. LaPierre that you thought
3 the NRA should reconsider its contracts with Ackerman and MMP?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Can you describe those conversations?

6 A I believed that Ackerman McQueen was -- was way too
7 expensive. That we only had a limited amount of money to spend.
8 And that those dollars could be spent more targeted and more
9 effectively, even -- even if it was through Ackerman McQueen.
10 The programing that they did, in my opinion, was at times
11 embarrassing and unprofessional and politically tone deaf. I
12 certainly think there were better ways to spend those resources.
13 I thought their advertising strategy, how they purchased ads was 14 completely juvenile and not professional and geared more towards 15 raising money and less towards trying to influence the general
16 public in support of the mission of The National Rifle
17 Association.

18 Q Okay. What about MMP, did you ever discuss those 19 contracts?

20 A Wayne and I might have had one or two discussions where
21 I asked what's the deal with MMP. They do ILA and PBS
22 fundraising. And he said, I've already handled that. That's 23 good. You don't need to worry about that.

24 Because of the significance that MMP played with The 25 National Rifle Association as far as the resources that were

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1215

1 raised through direct mail solicitations, which was an
2 overwhelming majority of the resources that came in to a large
3 degree, it was the lifeblood of the organization from a resource
4 standpoint. The members ultimately being the lifeblood. But 5 how those donations came in, that were primely through direct
6 mail solicitations.

7 Q So, you never considered stopping direct mail
8 solicitations, correct?

9 A Correct.

10 Q So, what kind of concerns did you raise with regard to
11 MMP?

12 A I just wanted to make sure that we were getting the 13 right return on our investment. It was a lot of money. We sent 14 out a lot of mail, hundreds of millions of pieces of mail most 15 likely a year. And it's a lot of money. I wanted to make sure
16 we were paying fair market rates. I wanted to make sure we were 17 maximizing our -- our return, but it was -- it was not -- I
18 don't know. I believe it was changed over time, but I was never 19 part of those negotiations.

20 Q I want to go back to Ackerman for one second. Have you
21 ever heard of a type of billing from Ackerman called 22 out-of-pocket expenses?

23 A Not until after I left The National Rifle Association.

24 Q Mr. Cox, do you believe that billing NRA travel and 25 entertainment expenses through a vendor was necessary for

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1216

1 security purposes?

2 A No.

3 Q Can you explain why you say that?

4 A As the second, arguably the second most high profile
5 person within the organization who dealt with security issues,
6 who dealt with high net worth individuals, who traveled
7 frequently, who interacted and gave a lot of public speeches and 8 did a lot of media, I believe if that had been an issue,
9 certainly they would have come and spoken to me about it. They 10 never did. I think this was something that was -- that was 11 not -- was not necessary for -- for the betterment of the NRA
12 members and the mission of the NRA members.

13 Q So, no one spoke to you about putting your travel and 14 entertainment expenses through Ackerman McQueen's out-of-pocket
15 expense system?

16 A No.

17 Q Okay. Mr. Cox, would you say you were successful as 18 the head of ILA?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And what makes you say that?

21 A The mission of ILA was to protect and defend the 22 Constitution as it relates to the Second Amendment for 23 individual gun owners in this country. I was judged, as I
24 mentioned earlier and I think fairly, based on the legislative 25 success and the election success and the team that I built over

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1217

1 a period of time. The successes that we had in passing good
2 legislation, defeating bad legislation, electing pro Second
3 Amendment candidates, defeating anti Second Amendment
4 candidates. The success we had in expansion of the Second
5 Amendment in the legal arena. All of those things pointed to 6 the success of ILA under my leadership with the support of NRA
7 members across this country. The short answer is yes, I believe
8 I was effective.

9 Q Did Mr. LaPierre give you positive feedback about your 10 performance as the head of ILA?

11 A Yes.

12 Q What kind of feedback did he give you?

13 A On a personal level it was, Thank God you're there.
14 I'm happy every day that you're there. You're doing a great
15 job. Which is always, hearing that from your boss, is always 16 reassuring. And I never, in the almost 25 years that I worked
17 for The National Rifle Association, I never asked for a raise.
18 I never asked for a bonus. But Wayne compensated me based on 19 his view of my effectiveness. And I was appreciative of that.

20 Q Actually, Mr. Cox, I'm sorry I skimmed over something
21 we were talking about earlier. I would like to go back. When 22 you were talking about some growing concerns that you had in the 23 NRA, I think you said that you were concerned with hiring and 24 overpaying incompetent people. Was that a concern that you had?

25 A Yes.

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1218

1 Q And can you describe the basis of that concern?

2 A I thought we were overpaying a number of different -- I
3 thought NRA was overpaying a number of different vendors, and I
4 had growing concerns about individual people like Josh Powell,
5 who I thought was neither qualified nor competent but grossly
6 overpaid.

7 Q Who hired Mr. Powell, if you know?

8 A Wayne LaPierre.

9 Q Did you have concerns about -- Well, why did you
10 believe Mr. Powell was not competent for his position?

11 A Josh, like many other officers that Wayne hired, came 12 from the board of directors. He had direct ties to Ackerman
13 McQueen, which obviously caused concerns for people who had 14 concerns about Ackerman McQueen. Josh I don't believe was a 15 college graduate but yet was put in charge to a large degree to 16 a three to $400 million a year organization supporting Wayne
17 directly. His background was, my understanding, littered with 18 failed businesses and bankruptcies and lawsuits. And I think a
19 board member said they wouldn't hire him to run a lemonade stand
20 let alone The National Rifle Association. And I shared that 21 view.

22 Q Was there any other hiring decisions made by Mr.
23 LaPierre that concerned you?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Can you describe the decisions that concerned you?

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1219

1 A I was concerned with the hiring of the Brewer firm for
2 a variety of different reasons.

3 Q Can you describe those concerns?

4 A Yes. The legal community within and around the Second
5 Amendment is not a huge group of people. There are very well
6 known names among Second Amendment supporters. Probably not
7 well known names amongst most people. A lot of them had done a
8 lot of work for The National Rifle Association over a long
9 period of time.

10 When Wayne hired the Brewer firm, he told me it was to 11 fight against New York and fight against the attacks coming from 12 New York. I never heard of Bill Brewer. Didn't have an opinion
13 on him one way or the other. It came to my attention pretty 14 quickly that Bill Brewer was married to Angus McQueen's
15 daughter, the head of Ackerman McQueen, which I found to be 16 somewhat odd. Also a simple Google search that someone gave me
17 showed that Bill Brewer had contributed consistently, including 18 while in 2018, when he was hired, to candidates for political 19 office who were actively against the Second Amendment. So, I
20 didn't believe he was part of the Second Amendment community. I
21 didn't believe he believed in the Second Amendment. I had 22 concerns that grew over time significantly about the amount of 23 money that was being spent with the Brewer firm, not because 24 lawyers don't deserve to make a lot of money if they are good.
25 I get that. Because the amount of money was crippling to The

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1220

1 National Rifle Association's budget.

2 Q Were there any other personnel hiring decisions made by
3 Mr. LaPierre that concerned you?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Can you tell us what those were?

6 A There were -- there were individuals, including
7 individuals who worked for The Institute for Legislative Action
8 that I lost confidence in. I didn't believe in their ability.
9 Ultimately told Wayne that I -- I know that you like these 10 people, but I'm not comfortable. I'm not confident that they 11 are able to do the job effectively the way I think it needs to 12 be done. He went on to hire them himself and promoted a number
13 of them to significant positions of power, including significant 14 salary and compensation.

15 Q Can you name any of those people if you're comfortable
16 doing so?

17 A Andrew Arulanandam is one of them who I believe is 18 still there and --

19 Q Anyone else?

20 A There are other people I was concerned. Tyler Schropp
21 I had concerns about the -- his background and qualifications to 22 be in charge of raising money for The National Rifle Association
23 and others.

24 Q Okay. Were you ever concerned about any determination
25 made by Mr. LaPierre to terminate an employee?

LAS

1 A Yes.

2 Q Can you describe that concern?

3 A Well, there were a number of people who I felt were 4 good, qualified, dedicated people who did a good job working on
5 behalf of the members of The National Rifle Association that 6 Wayne chose to get rid of, whether that was at the 7 recommendation of Ackerman McQueen or his own recommendation, I
8 don't know why. But yes, I had -- I had disagreements with some 9 of Wayne's hiring and termination decisions.

1 Q Are you familiar with an NRA employee named Kyle
2 Weaver?

3 A Former NRA employee Kyle Weaver, yes.

4 Q Former NRA employee.

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. Do you know --

7 Did you have any concerns regarding Mr. Weaver's
8 termination?

9 A I did.

10 Q Can you describe those?

11 A Kyle Weaver started at the National Rifle Association
12 back in 1995, right around the same time I did. We grew up, as 13 young guys, together. He did a fantastic job building up the 14 Friends of NRA program; did a fantastic job, in my opinion, as 15 Executive Director of General Operations. He served as an 16 officer. I think he was well-respected by his staff; I think he 17 was well-respected by the board.

18 It became clear that there was some sort of 19 disagreement with Ackerman McQueen and that there was a -- a
20 problem there. And I remember Kyle calling me and saying,
21 "They're trying to get me fired, they're trying to get me
22 fired." And I -- it was not believable to me, because Kyle was 23 well-respected and doing a great job, in my opinion, in most 24 people's opinion; and our -- he was physically not well over the 25 stress that he was going through.

1223

1 And I actually went and met with Wayne. We went and
2 had lunch off-site, the way we often did, and we had a
3 conversation about Kyle Weaver and the security of Kyle Weaver's
4 job.

5 Q So you spoke to Mr. LaPierre about Kyle Weaver's job.

6 A I did.

7 Q And what did he tell you?

8 A He said -- I said: "Kyle's worried you're going to 9 fire him. What's going on?"

10 I mean, obviously, I had a relationship with Kyle; we 11 worked closely together as the executive director of the two --
12 the two sides, the General Operations side and the -- the ILA
13 side, and I was concerned, both personally and professionally.

14 And Wayne assured me that Kyle was not going to get 15 fired. He told me, "Just tell Kyle to work with me." Those 16 were Wayne's words: "Just tell him to work with me." And I
17 said: "Wayne, just call him. I have no doubt in my mind that 18 Kyle will do as directed. Just pick up the phone and call him."

19 So I felt better, after that conversation, that -- that 20 Kyle was not going to be forced out of the organization,
21 because, again, I thought he was doing a great job for the
22 members.

23 Q Did you have an understanding about what Mr. LaPierre
24 meant when he said, "Tell Kyle to work with me?"

25 A No --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1224

1 Q Okay.

2 A -- because I believed Kyle worked with anybody, and I
3 think most people would have said that Kyle was a -- a great
4 collaborator and a great person to work with.

5 Q You mentioned before, Friends of the NRA Dinners. Can
6 you tell us the import, if any, of those dinners?

7 A Can you repeat the question?

8 Q Can you tell us what those are?

9 A So there are -- they're called Friends of NRA Dinners,
10 and they have them all across the country, where NRA members
11 gather to raise money from the local communities to support a
12 number of different great charity programs that are directly 13 related to the Second Amendment. Some of that money is held in 14 the local communities for -- to be spent in those areas; some of 15 the money comes back to the National Rifle Association and to 16 the Foundation to support the Foundation's efforts. But 17 there -- I spoke at a lot of them; I did not have to organize a
18 lot of them, but I believe we were putting on -- Kyle was 19 putting on -- over a thousand dinners a year, which was a lot
20 of -- a lot of, not only work, but a lot of money that was 21 coming into the National Rifle Association. And he really
22 helped grow that program and turned it into something
23 significant -- a significant asset for the -- for the members.

24 Q So, after you had that conversation about Mr. Weaver
25 with Mr. LaPierre, what happened next with regard to Mr. Weaver?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1225

1 A A short time later, I got a call from Mr. Weaver,
2 saying that he had been escorted out of the -- the headquarters
3 by armed security and had been terminated, and they took his
4 phone. I think he had called me, maybe from his wife's phone,
5 that they had taken his phone. I think they took his car keys.
6 He had a -- a officer-leased vehicle terminated, paid for by the
7 National Rifle Association.

8 Q Did you ever speak to Mr. LaPierre about why Mr. Weaver
9 was escorted out of the building with security?

10 A I was -- yes.

11 Q And what did Mr. LaPierre say, if anything?

12 A I expressed my extreme disappointment. I didn't think
13 that Kyle deserved, one, to be fired, let alone to be escorted 14 out of the -- the headquarters, in front of all the employees
15 and all of his co-workers, by armed security. I thought it was 16 a -- petty and cheap and really insensitive; at the -- at the 17 basic level, an insensitive, unprofessional, unnecessary thing
18 to do.

19 And I asked Wayne, at the time: "What -- well, what 20 are you going to do now? Who's going to replace him?" And he 21 assured me that he was going to hire an outside executive search
22 firm and find the best person in the country to -- to do that
23 job.

24 Q Is that what happened?

25 A No.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1226

1 Q What happened? Who, if anyone, replaced Mr. Weaver?

2 A Josh Powell replaced Mr. Weaver.

3 Q I'd like to go back to your work at NRA ILA now.

4 Oh, I'm sorry: One more concern that I think you
5 mentioned, Mr. Cox, was the NRA's, you said, constant need for 6 borrowing, I think. Can you describe what you meant by that?

7 A It was a challenge to raise money at the National Rifle
8 Association. Whether that was Wayne raising money for Mother
9 Ship NRA or me raising money for ILA or me raising money for 10 PVF, it was -- it was a lot of money that had to be raised and 11 it took a lot of effort. But at the end of the day, there's 12 only -- there's only so much money you can spend and it's what 13 you -- it's what you have.

14 NRA had a line of credit with an outside banking
15 institution. ILA's assets were tied to that line of credit.
16 ILA had no line of credit. ILA's assets actually allowed for 17 them to borrow money as needed, and that grew over time. There
18 was money that was borrowed against the headquarters building,
19 again, that was used -- when there were shortfalls in -- in 20 money, they would go and borrow money against the building.

21 I found that to be inappropriate and unnecessary. If 22 you -- if you're spending too much money, stop spending so much
23 money. That was the way I viewed it.

24 And they also borrowed money, at times, directly from 25 the Institute for Legislative Action --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1227

1 Q So --

2 A -- and I found that to be -- I found that to be
3 problematic, but ...

4 Q So the NRA borrowed money from the financial department
5 that you oversaw, the --

6 A Yes.

7 Q -- division within --

8 Excuse me.

9 -- from the division within the NRA that you oversaw;
10 correct?

11 A Yes, correct.

12 Q And while you oversaw ILA, ILA did not borrow money, as 13 far as you recall.

14 A Correct.

15 Q But the NRA borrowed money from you.

16 A Correct.

17 Q Okay.

18 I just want to explain one thing: When you say, a
19 "line of credit," can you explain to the jury what that means?

20 A A line of credit's not unlike what individuals do, if 21 they have a condo or a house, where you borrow money against the 22 value of your home; and NRA would borrow money against the value
23 of the building, but also the value of the assets. NRA did have 24 significant assets in -- in financial holdings, significant
25 assets in -- in ILA's money that was -- that was properly

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1228

1 managed and held. So there were -- there was borrowing
2 capacity, which was not inappropriate. I did not view having a
3 line of credit as inappropriate, but I viewed the use of that
4 line of credit often as inappropriate.

5 Q Mr. Cox, now let's go back to your work at ILA:

6 I think you said that you never asked for a raise or 7 bonus while you were at ILA; is that right?

8 A Correct.

9 Q Okay. But you did receive bonuses, at times; right?

10 A I did.

11 Q And raises at times, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q In fact, in 2017, Mr. LaPierre, in April, gave you a
14 hundred-thousand-dollar bonus; is that right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And why did you understand him to be giving you that 17 bonus?

18 A As a merit bonus for a job well done.

19 The 2016 election cycle was one of the most successful
20 for the National Rifle Association in decades, if not longer. I
21 was responsible for managing -- I was responsible for raising
22 the money and deploying the resources and the campaign strategy
23 behind those elections. And then, also, there were some 24 significant legislative wins. And I think Wayne valued my 25 service, valued my level of expertise, valued that I was really

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1229

1 good at my job and didn't want me to leave, and so, compensated
2 me based on what he decided.

3 Q While you worked at the I -- at ILA for many years, did
4 you have an employment contract for most of that time?

5 A I worked for the National Rifle Association for, I
6 believe, 20 years with no employment contract at all.

7 Q Did there come a time when you had an employment
8 contract?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And how did that come about?

11 A Wayne came to me and said, "I have a" -- Wayne saying
12 this himself; that: "I have an employment contract. You
13 deserve to have one, too, and I'm going to get one done for 14 you." And that was how the conversation started.

15 Which I was -- having worked there for 20 years with no
16 employment contract, I never asked for an employment contract,
17 but I viewed it as a good-faith effort to acknowledge a job well
18 done and my leadership and my effectiveness, and so, I was -- I
19 was appreciative of -- of the -- the overture.

20 Q When did those conversations about an employment
21 contract occur?

22 A Not long after the 2016 elections; I believe, at some 23 point around 2017. But that's been a while ago, so my dates
24 might be slightly off.

25 Q Did you ultimately sign an employment contract in or

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1230

1 around January 2019?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. And at that time, did you have concerns about
4 how the NRA was operating?

5 A I did; growing concerns.

6 Q And had you voiced them to Mr. LaPierre?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And yet, the conversations regarding the contract
9 continued; correct?

10 A Correct.

11 Q Why did you agree to sign an employment contract with
12 the NRA in January 2019?

13 A I'm sorry; can you repeat that?

14 Q Sure.

15 Why did you agree to sign an employment contract with
16 the NRA in January 2019?

17 A Because I loved the organization, I loved -- I built a
18 staff that I thought was world-class, certainly in -- in the 19 U.S. political landscape. I felt I was good at my job. I felt
20 that the members of the National Rifle Association deserved a
21 strong NRA. So I was -- I was torn. I had almost left a year
22 before. I was struggling on what I -- what the smart thing for 23 me to do was.

24 But Wayne encouraged me to stay; Ollie North, Richard 25 Childress, Carolyn Meadows, who were the three board officers at

1 the time; perhaps, when the first conversation started, Pete
2 Brownell, who is the current president. But everyone encouraged
3 me to stay, very openly spoke about me, quote-unquote, being the 4 future of the organization.

5 And so I decided to -- to continue to move forward.

6 Q Mr. Cox, I'd like you to look at tab 7 of your binder.

7 MS. CONNELL: And this has been previously
8 marked -- oh, no. I'm sorry. Not tab 7. I strike that.
9 Tab 2. Excuse me.

10 Your Honor, tab 2 is an excerpt of tab 1. It is 11 a -- it's a document pulled out. Tab 1 implicates the 12 concerns we had talked about; tab 2 is the employment
13 agreement. So I'm hoping to --

14 THE COURT: Is there an objection to the employment
15 agreement?

16 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

19 THE COURT: Is it separately in as PX 154?

20 MS. CONNELL: No, your Honor. It's -- we would 21 like to relabel it as PX 154-A.

22 THE COURT: Okay. PX 1- -- 154-A is admitted.

23 MS. CONNELL: And just to be clear, that would be 24 PX-154, pages 9 through 16 of PX 154.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 BY MS. CONNELL:

2 Q Mr. Cox, can you please take a look at tab 2 of your
3 binder, and specifically page 2?

4 (Image displayed.)

5 Q Do you see that?

6 A Yes.

7 Q It's also on the screen, but it's in your binder.

8 And can you turn and look at the last page of this,
9 which is page 16 of the document?

10 (Image scrolled.)

11 Q Do you recognize these signatures?

12 A I do.

13 Q And can you tell us whose signatures they are?

14 A The first signature is mine. The second signature is 15 that of Wayne LaPierre. The third signature is that of the 16 then-president of the NRA, Oliver North. Then it's Richard
17 Childress, who was the then-first vice president; and Carolyn
18 Meadows, who was the second vice president.

19 Q Is this the employment agreement you signed with the 20 NRA in January of 2019?

21 A Yes.

22 MS. CONNELL: Thank you. You can take that down.

23 Oh, I'm sorry. One second. If we could take a
24 look -- I'm sorry, Jesse. If we could pull up page 2 again
25 and look at the top ...

2 BY MS. CONNELL:

3 Q Did you have an understanding as to why this -- you
4 signed -- the NRA wanted to enter into this agreement with you?

5 A It was explained to me that I was a critical piece of 6 the NRA team, that my efforts were acknowledged and appreciated,
7 that my involvement in the future of the organization was going
8 to be critical to the success of the organization, and they 9 wanted to capture that in -- in a -- in an employment contract.

10 Q And, in fact, the agreement reads that the NRA desires
11 to retain you as "a valued leader in carrying out the NRA
12 mission"; right?

13 A Correct.

14 Q Okay.

15 MS. CONNELL: Thanks, Jesse. You can take that 16 down now.

17 (Image removed.)

18 Q You did --

19 I think you said, one of your duties as Executive
20 Director of ILA was fund-raising; right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And would you consider yourself successful at 23 fund-raising?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And can you describe why you consider yourself

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1234

1 successful at fund-raising?

2 A I think, by definition, the -- successful fund-raising
3 is people who raise a significant amount of -- of money, and so,
4 yes, I -- I believe that -- that I -- I succeeded in -- in the
5 efforts in and around fund-raising.

6 Q And what do you attribute your success in fund-raising
7 to?

8 A The millions of NRA members across this country who
9 believe passionately in the Second Amendment.

10 I was never under any -- you know, I thought that this
11 had to do with me -- I believed that I was good at my job; I
12 believed that I built credibility; I believed that I earned
13 trust. But it's the average NRA members across this country who 14 kick in five, ten, fifteen dollars at a time to support the 15 mission of the National Rifle Association that drives the 16 success of NRA's fund-raising.

17 Q And do you think it was --

18 Do you think that your brand or facial recognition
19 played an important role in that fund-raising?

20 A I believe that when you -- when you go on national TV
21 and NRA members see you out there fighting the good fight and 22 fighting on their behalf, or speaking at high-profile events
23 that they might be watching either on TV or online, there's a
24 sense of pride and there's a connection there. So I do believe
25 that that was a -- a part of it.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1235

1 But I never believed that -- I never believed that my
2 face or my name was responsible for the money. It was the 3 generosity of average people across this country who were
4 willing to send in a donation to support our work.

5 Q Do you believe there are certain things that led to 6 higher or increased donations?

7 A It was -- it was environmental, to be honest with you.

8 There were times when fund-raising was lower than we 9 hoped; there were times when fund-raising was better than 10 expected. A lot of those had to do with the attacks on the 11 Second Amendment. When NRA members view their rights being 12 under attack, whether that's in a legislative body, whether it's 13 in a courtroom or anywhere else, they -- they are more likely to 14 respond and support the efforts to push back.

15 Q So, would you say that consideration of issues facing
16 the NRA was a factor in fund-raising?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay.

19 Would you say that Wayne LaPierre was a successful
20 fund-raiser?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. And would you say that the factor that --

23 MS. CONNELL: Strike -- strike that.

24 Q Would you say that the same considerations that applied
25 to your success in fund-raising applied to his success in

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1236

1 fund-raising?

2 A I believe so, yes.

3 Q If you and Wayne LaPierre were to leave the NRA, do you
4 believe the NRA would be unable to raise funds?

5 A No.

6 Q And why not?

7 A NRA members, again, believe in the mission of the 8 National Rifle Association. As long as the National Rifle
9 Association stays true to that mission; as long as the National 10 Rifle Association is a trusted fiduciary and trusted person when 11 it comes to spending those resources; as long as the National 12 Rifle Association is out there fighting the good fight that NRA
13 members expect, then I think anyone who's credible -- if they 14 put someone up who wasn't credible or who was incompetent or a
15 crook, then, no, I don't think the NRA would have succeeded in 16 raising money. But I do believe --

17 And I -- I can say, if I can just --

18 Personally, I was worried about this when I took over
19 as a young, 24- -- or a young, 31-year-old guy at the Institute
20 for Legislative Action. My predecessor had gray hair; he had 21 been around; people knew him; people respected him. His name
22 was Jim Baker. He had been signing those fund-raising letters.
23 And I was worried at the time that: "I'm this new, young guy.
24 Nobody's going to know me. Nobody's going to support our 25 fund-raising efforts."

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1237

1 And I was pleasantly surprised that people welcomed --
2 NRA members and ILA donors welcomed -- a new face, a new voice,
3 a young guy who was out there, willing to mix it up and fight
4 the good fight. And they responded in kind; we did extremely 5 well in fund-raising, really, from the beginning to the end.

6 Q And do you believe that the NRA helped develop
7 successful --

8 MS. CONNELL: Strike that.

9 Q Do you believe that, over time, the NRA helped develop
10 you and Mr. LaPierre as the face of fund-raising?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. And that the NRA could develop others as the 13 face of fund-raising; correct?

14 A Correct.

15 Q Mr. Cox, the NRA has a board; correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And ultimately, the board runs the NRA; right?

18 A Ultimately, the board oversees the organization, yes.

19 Q Can you describe the board?

20 A The board is 76 board members from across the country.
21 They are voted on by the members of the -- the organization at a
22 certain level: a five-year -- a three-year or five-year level or 23 above. They're sent ballots in their NRA publications and they 24 vote according to who they -- who they think are in the best
25 position to represent them on the board of directors.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1238

1 Q In your experience, are all 76 board members equally
2 active within the NRA?

3 A No.

4 Q What have you observed?

5 A Well, not unlike the members of the National Rifle
6 Association, it's a very diverse board. You had celebrities to 7 farmers, doctors to lawyers, politicians to cops. So there was 8 a very diverse membership amongst the board of directors. Some 9 were industry leaders, "industry" being the Second
10 Amendment/firearms-type industry leaders that were certainly not 11 only competent but -- but brilliant in a lot of ways when it
12 came to marketing and other things. Some were very active.
13 Some rarely showed up.

14 So when you say "active," active participants on a --
15 from a board standpoint, showing up at board meetings, the 16 answer would be no, not -- not all of them were equal and not
17 all of them were active.

18 Q To your knowledge, to pass a board resolution, did the 19 vote have to be unanimous among all 76 members of the board?

20 A I don't -- I don't know the answer -- I don't remember
21 the answer to that. I don't believe that there had to be a
22 unanimous vote for board resolutions. I don't believe so, but I
23 could be -- I could be wrong.

24 Q In your experience, did Mr. LaPierre exert any control
25 over the board?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1239

1 A Yes.

2 Q Can you describe how he did that?

3 A Well, it shouldn't come as a real surprise that when
4 the board's responsible for hiring an EVP, that the EVP is going
5 to have an interest in the board. So that's kind of at the top
6 level. But at the -- at the bottom level, Wayne was active, not
7 only in recruiting board members, but working to make sure
8 that -- that his preferred -- his preferred board members were 9 re-elected and his preferred candidates were -- were put
10 forward.

11 Q What did he do to see that his preferred candidates
12 were elected?

13 A Well, the nominating committee Wayne worked closely
14 with would make the decision on which board members were 15 nominated as part of -- the "slate" is what it was referred 16 to -- the slate of preferred candidates.

17 And then there were also board members -- the 18 process -- the preferred process, by Wayne and his team, was to 19 have someone serve on a committee -- on a board committee but 20 not as a board member -- to get exposure and then build that 21 relationship and encourage them to run for the board of 22 directors, and they would -- they would actively work with them
23 to make sure that their campaigns were -- were running the right
24 way.

25 THE COURT: Counsel, we've been going for about an

1 hour and a half. Why don't we give -- have our morning
2 break --

3 MS. CONNELL: Great.

4 THE COURT: -- and we can have our discussion in
5 the meantime.

6 All right, we'll take a short break.

7 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

8 (The jury left the courtroom.)

9 (The witness stepped down.)

10 THE COURT: All right, let's talk about these 11 exhibits.

12 Actually, just give me one quick second. I'm just 13 going to check something. We'll take a one-minute break.

14 (Recess.)

15 THE COURT: Okay. So, what are the objections to 16 the exhibits?

17 MS. ROGERS: All right.

18 So Exhibit 1 is a confidential settlement agreement
19 that was entered into to dispose of a confidential
20 arbitration. Ms. Connell made the point earlier that in 21 discovery, plaintiff was able to get these documents, which 22 is certainly true, but the burden of her admitting them is 23 different. The discovery net is intentionally wide, the 24 admissibility net less so.

25 The settlement is not admissible, under Rule 4547

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1241

1 or Rule 408, to cast aspersions or suggest inferences about
2 the merits of the claims or what was valuable and what
3 wasn't. So for what purpose -- what is the -- what is the 4 probative value, then, of the settlement that we weigh 5 against the prejudicial effect and that we weigh against the 6 public policy generally disfavoring the disclosure of 7 confidential arbitration and settlement documents?

8 THE COURT: 4547 is about using a settlement to 9 assume false --

10 Whatever the dispute was between those two parties,
11 that's not the dispute that's here; right?

12 MS. ROGERS: That's correct.

13 And so, given that the settlement is clearly not 14 admissible for that purpose, to show who was right and who 15 was wrong in the arbitration, then what is the purported
16 probative value of the settlement? Because given the --

17 THE COURT: All right, this isn't working. Why
18 don't you try it with the regular microphone.

19 MS. ROGERS: Okay.

20 (Ms. Rogers complied.)

21 MS. ROGERS: Given the presumption in favor of 22 public access, you know, to the evidentiary record of this
23 proceeding and the countervailing public policy that does 24 disfavor dumping arbitration and settlement documents, which 25 are created and entered into under presumptions of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 confidentiality, into the public domain, you know, we would
2 expect to see -- we would hope to see -- some significant
3 probative value of this document before we put it in the 4 record, and we just don't.

5 THE COURT: All right. So why don't we hear from 6 the State as to what this is being used for.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

PROCEEDINGS

1243

1 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor. Mr. Cox, as
2 we've been hearing, was a loyal and well rewarded member of
3 the NRA. When he was perceived as disloyal, which the
4 evidence is going to show happened shortly after the 2019
5 contract was entered into, he was made an example of. The 6 arbitration settlement and the arbitration counterclaims,
7 which are another document attached herein, show that Mr.
8 Cox was subject to differential treatment to others within 9 the NRA who were not perceived as disloyal. It shows that 10 the punishment of those perceived as disloyal. And 11 ultimately it will show waste of NRA funds as part of that 12 punishment. It is not about whether the NRA or Mr. Cox was 13 right or wrong in their particular claims. It is about the 14 NRA's conduct in stifling dissent even among officers and 15 board members and making examples of those instances.

16 We're not dumping the arbitration record. Some of 17 the arbitration documents were admitted at the bankruptcy.
18 But these are probative and important documents in this case
19 to show what happens when Mr. LaPierre and his board members
20 who support him perceive someone as disloyal. And by the 21 way --

22 THE COURT: Were some of these exhibits also 23 exhibits in the bankruptcy case?

24 MS. ROGERS: Not the ones we're objecting to here.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1244

1 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor. I think the final
2 one, Exhibit 7, which was an expert report used in the 3 arbitration, was an exhibit in the bankruptcy case. I think
4 it was kept sealed there, but I'm not sure. It was entered
5 into evidence, and I believe there is testimony on that.
6 Your Honor, what we're talking about here is --

7 THE COURT: Look, I get --

8 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, may I be heard?

9 THE COURT: Hang on a second. I get the point
10 about trying to show the process. At least your argument is 11 going to be intended to be some sort of retaliation. I
12 don't see how that opens the door to, you know, putting in 13 front of the jury an expert report, which, you know,
14 obviously is generally hearsay. I mean, I guess I'm having 15 trouble with the scope of what it is you're trying to 16 introduce here.

17 So, can you help me understand why you need more
18 than just the fact that there was a claim and, you know, why
19 there is all the detail required to, because I am concerned
20 that there is -- that there could be an imbalance. In other
21 words, the purpose for it is to show hey, he was attacked.
22 See, these claims. Why then do you need things like expert
23 reports and other things?

24 MS. CONNELL: So, your Honor, I would, for example,
25 direct your attention to tab four of the binder, which for

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1245

1 the defendants is PX 155. In the arbitration the NRA
2 asserted counterclaims against Mr. Cox and amended those
3 counterclaims. The positions that the NRA takes in these 4 counterclaims are in direct conflict, we would suggest, with 5 how it has treated others within the NRA and are party
6 admissions that can be --

7 THE COURT: Right. But it's one document at a
8 time, right?

9 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

10 THE COURT: In other words, I mean you directed my 11 attention to the expert report. That seems like an odd 12 thing to put in front of this jury, 'cause it's going to --
13 you know, it is a -- you know, I want this jury to base
14 their decision on what's introduced as evidence in this case
15 and not sort of bring in another proceeding, except to the 16 extent that it has independent evidentiary significance.

17 So, I understand that the process of going into 18 bankruptcy is part of your claim. I get that. You can 19 prove that with what, you know -- with the basic fundamental 20 points about it. I don't think it opens the door more
21 broadly except on individual cases. In other words, if 22 somebody testifies in the bankruptcy proceeding and that is 23 admissible here because it's a defendant and it's relevant
24 to the issues here, that's fine. But it's -- it's going to 25 be a tree by tree, document by document decision, right.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1246

1 So let's start with the settlement agreement
2 itself. What's -- what are you using that for?

3 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we're going to use this
4 to show that the arbitration ended. It ended favorably to 5 Mr. Cox. It's evidence that in fact not -- not for right or 6 wrong, but that this arbitration ultimately paid him more
7 than what he was entitled to under his severance agreement
8 and cost the NRA a lot of money that didn't need to be spent
9 if they had not made an example of him. It's waste to make 10 an example of.

11 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, if I may be heard. This 12 is a very serious due process issue here. Mr. LaPierre was 13 not a party to this arbitration. To throw in an arbitration
14 record where a finding of an arbitrator where he's never 15 been given the opportunity to be heard in a case like this 16 with individual defendants is just -- I've never heard of 17 such a thing.

18 THE COURT: Was there a finding by the arbitrator.

19 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, there was no finding by 20 the arbitrator. If you listen to Ms. Connell, she wants to 21 argue that the settlement amount shows that the arbitration
22 was wasteful. This feels exactly like the kind of argument
23 who was right, who was wrong, which claims were meritorious.
24 What can we infer about merits from the settlement terms
25 that 4547 is designed to prohibit.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1247

1 I also would like to make a point. This whole
2 argument that there is probative value here because the
3 arbitration was intended to make an example of Mr. Cox,
4 collapses in the face of the arbitration confidentiality the
5 Attorney General is trying to puncture. This was a
6 confidential arbitration that the NRA still needs to keep
7 confidential. So, it could not have been undertaken for the 8 purpose of holding Mr. Cox up as an example to encourage the 9 others to be loyal.

10 THE COURT: I think that's -- that's too broad in 11 the other direction. I -- I -- I --

12 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, if I may just quickly be 13 heard.

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MS. CONNELL: I know we have a short break. But 16 the CPLR 4547 allows for the admission of things like
17 settlement agreements exactly for the purposes of the type
18 of evidence we're trying to show. The fact is that this 19 arbitration agreement was, and you'll hear evidence, the 20 actions and -- that the NRA took against Mr. Cox were well
21 known. He and his staff were made examples of. He was 22 dragged out. He was subject to this prolonged proceeding
23 for nothing. That's really the end result. And the fact
24 that the NRA doesn't want to get into the arbitration
25 agreement I think -- I understand why they don't want to,

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1248

1 but it is relevant and probative here as to (a) how he was
2 treated differentially from --

3 THE COURT: Are you using the fact that there was a
4 payment basically to -- to -- so that the jury should infer
5 therefore they would have lost.

6 MS. CONNELL: I'm using the fact that there was a
7 payment to show that they used this example -- they used
8 this arbitration proceeding to make an example out of him
9 and spent tens of millions of NRA dollars on this pointless
10 exercise. Mr. Cox was entitled to something like, I don't
11 know, I don't have the figure in front of me, $2 million
12 under his employment agreement. They could have paid that 13 instead of that they spent in excess of $10 million on this
14 boondoggle of a proceeding.

15 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, may I respond? So, just 16 first of all, the fact that the NRA engaged in arbitration
17 with Mr. Cox, that can be established without introducing
18 the settlement agreement. If staff were allegedly paraded
19 out of the building, that could be established without using 20 the settlement agreement. This is also an arbitration, so
21 the record is clear, that Mr. Cox commenced and the NRA
22 defended and counterclaimed in. So, to the extent that the 23 probative value here stems from the allegation that the NRA
24 embarked on a scorched litigation in retaliation, that 25 doesn't make sense. Mr. Cox is not alleged to be a

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1249

1 whistleblower. So, any retaliation against him is not
2 probative under the 715(b) claim. This could only be
3 improper administration.

4 And as we discussed on the motions in limine, when 5 parties are faulted for suing or sued for suing, if the 6 Attorney General is contending that asserting these
7 counterclaims in an arbitration someone else started
8 constituted improper administration, they should have to 9 show pursuant to the Noerr-Pennington principle that the 10 claims were meritless in some sense. They have to show that 11 coupled with the argument the Attorney General intends to 12 make that this was wasteful or the NRA was wrong is really
13 going to drag us into effectively a mini trial on the merits
14 of this arbitration, which seems like an unwarranted
15 diversion. If the process is what they are trying to show,
16 if what they are trying to show is the NRA counterclaimed
17 against this severance claimant and didn't against some 18 other, I guess, they can show that without putting the 19 settlement agreement in the record.

20 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, this is not a mini trial
21 about whether -- there is no mini trial necessary as to 22 whether the arbitration, what would have happened in the 23 arbitration. What could have happened in the arbitration.
24 This is the facts of what happens to those within the NRA
25 who for years tried to call out and talk about and raise

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1250

1 concerns. As soon as they raised concerns, what happens.
2 How did this organization have this level of problems for
3 this many years. This is how, your Honor. This is how.
4 When someone is perceived as disloyal to the NRA leadership,
5 they are subject to treatment. The arbitration --

6 THE COURT: We're missing each other a little in 7 that conceptually I think that's right. The question is how 8 big of an aperture is that to let documents in about the 9 details of the fight. And I'm a little concerned that it's 10 a bit too wide.

11 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I think I can allay one 12 of your concerns, because introducing the expert report was 13 something I didn't really even know I would have time to 14 today. We know time is a concern in the trial and we're 15 trying to make determinations of what's important and what's 16 the highest priority. So --

17 THE COURT: That one you have a low likelihood on.

18 MS. CONNELL: -- that one I can set aside. That's 19 right. That one, if that's the biggest concern
20 especially --

21 THE COURT: I wouldn't say it's the biggest. It's 22 the most obvious as I flipped through this for the first
23 time as we were talking.

24 MS. CONNELL: Right. Your Honor, in regard to the 25 other documents, they truly establish again the differential

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1251

1 treatment. What's stunning is, for example, you'll hear Mr.
2 Cox talk about that he was asked to justify every meal that
3 he ate charged to the NRA while he was an employee, when he
4 was perceived as disloyal. And to establish that we can
5 have his own word to the jury, but to have a party admission
6 in terms of their counterclaims in front of the jury, that
7 that's the standard they are applying to one person but not
8 to other people, is important.

9 THE COURT: I think the claims asserted by both 10 sides seem to me to be more on the probative more than the 11 prejudicial. The expert report not, at least I don't really 12 understand it, why it would be yet. I'm now focused on the 13 settlement agreement and release.

14 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor --

15 THE COURT: I --

16 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, if I may. You're going
17 to hear Mr. Cox testify. I'm sorry. I know time is short.
18 You're going to hear Mr. Cox testify that he was subject to 19 a long time preparing for this. A tremendous amount of 20 time, effort and stress and harassment in regard to 21 preparing for this arbitration. And that two days before
22 the arbitration began, the NRA told him we're not going
23 forward. That's it. We're done. Give us the wiring
24 information. We're going to wire your account. We're done.
25 Settlement agreement. And he believes, and I think the jury

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1252

1 is entitled to draw an inference, that this was an example,
2 in making an example out of him.

3 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, if I may be heard
4 briefly. The decision of whether to defend litigation or 5 pursue litigation is a classic business judgment that
6 corporations make all the time. And to suggest that this 7 arbitration or litigation can be dumped into this case and 8 can be a mini case within a case is troubling, particularly 9 when they are trying to do the same thing with the 10 bankruptcy proceeding. There are many other litigations
11 that are satellite litigations here. If they get to dump
12 that in, then others may come in too.

13 THE COURT: I share that concern in the sense that 14 although it's possible, if you're going to really get the 15 jury to try to get an understanding of the merits of the 16 case and whether it was frivolous or whether it was 17 retaliatory, whatever, you would almost need a lot more than 18 this to be able to have, the parties have a real ability to 19 argue to the jury as to the underlying merits of -- of the 20 arbitration. I don't think you can sort of pick and choose
21 a couple of things, because if I were to allow that, I think
22 I would have to allow the other side to bring in other
23 things from the arbitration to show, you know, the merit.
24 And that's exactly the kind of sideshow I don't want to 25 start.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1253

1 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I -- I don't think we
2 have to do a sideshow of the merits.

3 THE COURT: If you put in the settlement agreement
4 and say well, look, the inference you should draw is they
5 paid X. Therefore, this whole thing was a sham. I
6 absolutely think if the other side asked me to, and they
7 wanted to start having a mini trial about what the basis was 8 for all their claims, I would have to let them do it, right.

9 MS. CONNELL: Well, your Honor, they can certainly
10 ask Mr. Cox about the allegations against --

11 THE COURT: Not just asking him about the 12 allegations. I mean, I don't know what they would do. But 13 as a matter of principle, if you're putting at issue the 14 underlying merits of the arbitration, as opposed to just the 15 fact that it was brought and look at all of this, then if
16 I'm going to let the door swing open in one direction, I
17 have to let it swing open in the other direction. And the 18 point is not so much that I don't want to waste a lot of 19 time, although that is a point, because I think this is a
20 satellite part of a satellite issue, I think that it would 21 be confusing.

22 So, my inclination frankly is to give you some 23 latitude to explain that an action was brought by Cox. That
24 counterclaims were also brought. And, you know, if he wants
25 to talk about how much it cost him to, you know, defend it

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1254

1 or whatever. But I -- I don't see getting into the -- I see
2 getting into the underlying merits, which is effectively
3 what this would be doing is -- is a bad path.

4 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, can we elicit testimony
5 that Mr. Cox was ultimately paid under his contract, and in
6 fact did not pay anything under the counterclaims asserted
7 against him by the NRA?

8 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, that's just a capsule
9 summary of the terms of the settlement agreement that they
10 want to put in. I mean, they could elicit who the contract
11 named listed in the fact that there was a settlement.

12 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I want to just point out
13 here that the NRA notified Mr. Cox that he was suspended by 14 attaching a copy of its complaint against Lieutenant Colonel
15 Oliver North that it filed in New York to an e-mail saying
16 read this and you'll understand why you're being suspended.
17 He's referred in one place in that complaint, in one
18 paragraph, I believe, as an errant fiduciary. And that was 19 the basis. That's what he was suppose to take away why he 20 was being suspended. Attached to that complaint are text
21 messages which allegedly form the basis for his alleged 22 disloyalty.

23 THE COURT: Well, Exhibit 3 I think is a little
24 different, because on its face there is an e-mail from Mr.
25 LaPierre or it's a message from Mr. LaPierre sent in an

LAS

1255

1 e-mail from Mr. Frazer saying, "For reasons made clear in
2 this pleading, I am immediately suspending your service".
3 That seems to me to be factually relevant as part, you know,
4 of the stated rationale for his termination. So I think
5 that's not bringing in the merits of a satellite dispute.
6 That is just part of the factual story of his termination.

7 MS. CONNELL: Thank you very much for the ruling.
8 But also the fact though that Mr. Cox was being investigated
9 for conduct that others within the NRA essentially have 10 admitted to or engaged in and only he was pursued by the NRA
11 is an important point that the jury should hear. So, if we 12 keep out the settlement agreement, that's fine. But I would 13 argue that tab four, which is their counterclaims, should 14 come in.

15 THE COURT: Well, I thought I had said that.

16 MS. CONNELL: I wasn't clear on that.

17 THE COURT: The claims made by him and by -- you
18 know -- I think the factual story you're going to tell
19 presumably as we're heading into this, this is how he ended
20 up being terminated or resigning or whatever. You can tell
21 that factual story. The next part of that story, which I
22 think is just factual, well then I sued them and they sued
23 me and then it was resolved. And the only question we're 24 talking about now is how much of the guts of it do we have
25 to get into or is it permissible to get into. And I -- I

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1256

1 think my view at this point is very little. That -- that
2 the allegation -- If the point of all of this is to show
3 that an employment action was taken. And if you want to 4 characterize it as aggressive litigation, allegations made
5 against him and the other direction too, you can handle that
6 with the claims made. You know, that is a fact. You don't 7 have to litigate the merits of the claims and just say look,
8 you know. So it seems to me that's the right balance is 9 that you can get in that there was this nasty fight after --
10 afterward. And then, you know, the settlement and I think
11 now getting to what that is, the fact that the settlement
12 resulted in a payment to him as opposed to the other way
13 around without getting into the details I think is also
14 appropriate.

15 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor. Can he say
16 what he knows about the cost of the overall proceeding?

17 THE COURT: His own costs?

18 MS. CONNELL: Not to him. The costs --

19 THE COURT: His knowledge about what the NRA's
20 costs are not his personal knowledge.

21 MS. CONNELL: He has some personal knowledge, your
22 Honor.

23 THE COURT: How so?

24 MS. CONNELL: Just from under the agreement what 25 the NRA had to pay in terms of his fees, the arbitrator

LAS

1257

1 fees.

2 THE COURT: He read things that they wrote about
3 what their fees are?

4 MS. CONNELL: Well, things that were due under the 5 agreement and things that were submitted in the arbitration,
6 I believe.

7 THE COURT: Right. So hearsay from -- at least
8 from my perspective. He's not testifying as to his personal
9 knowledge. You know, whether you can in questioning an NRA
10 witness who was involved in that, bring in the costs of it
11 is a different question.

12 MS. CONNELL: Okay, your Honor. He can testify to 13 his personal knowledge about what they were obligated to pay
14 under his employment agreement, correct?

15 THE COURT: I'm not sure I understand.

16 MS. CONNELL: The employment agreement embodied
17 that they had to pay attorneys' fees and costs for this.
18 I'm not going to get into the amount.

19 THE COURT: No. That means you're going to make 20 the argument that they were the prevailing party and they
21 had to pay under the agreement which, you know, was there a
22 finding that they were -- that he was the prevailing party.

23 MS. ROGERS: No.

24 MS. CONNELL: No, your Honor. It was just the 25 agreement under the employment agreement.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1258

1 THE COURT: I get this is not a perfect result
2 because, you know, you could argue that we should just let
3 all the merits be hashed out here. I'm just not going to 4 allow that. I don't think it makes sense here. So, I'm 5 going to stick with where I was.

6 You know, the exhibit about communications to him
7 in connection with his suspension, including what was sent
8 to him as part of that I think is, you know, fine. That's 9 really not collateral. And the allegations made and the 10 fact that there was an arbitration and whatever his expenses
11 were, I suppose if he has personal knowledge of that.
12 That's probably the more relevant in terms of, you know --
13 (pause). But the underlying merits of the arbitration, I
14 just think it's a dangerous path. To put it in more formal 15 terms the -- the probative value of it in this sort of 16 retaliation theory is outweighed by the potential
17 prejudicial impact of the jury trying to sort of figure out
18 a play within a play about who was right and who was wrong
19 about all of these things. So, I think it's a discretionary 20 call, and I think it will not only confuse this case and 21 potentially lengthen it at the expense of evidence that's 22 actually about the dispute here, but I think it will also 23 confuse the jury.

24 So, the settlement agreement, no, based on at least 25 what I heard so far. If the doors are open later, I'll see

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1259

1 about it. So, Exhibit 3 I will admit. Exhibit 4, which is
2 the counterclaim, I guess --

3 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

4 MS. ROGERS: Yes.

5 THE COURT: -- that I will admit. And exhibit --

6 MS. ROGERS: We didn't object to five. Our
7 objections were to one, which was the settlement agreement
8 and the counterclaims that we talked about and then the 9 expert report.

10 THE COURT: The expert report.

11 MR. FARBER: Judge, I think you're referring to 12 tabs not exhibit numbers so the record is clear.

13 THE COURT: Tab seven. I haven't really heard
14 anything that convinces me to just let the jury see the 15 expert witness disclosure. Is that in the bankruptcy case
16 or in the arbitration?

17 MS. ROGERS: It was in the arbitration.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. So that's out. You all have the 19 corresponding -- PX 154, the settlement agreement, the 20 entirety of it at least at this point I'm not admitting.
21 Two, the subportion of it that was his employment agreement
22 I already admitted. Three, which is PX 5071, that's the 23 correspondence about his suspension, I will admit that. PX
24 155, which are the counterclaims, I will admit that. The 25 others are not objected to other than seven which -- other

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1260

1 than PX 2899, which is at tab seven. I'm wrong about that
2 as well. Wait a minute. I'm not sure what the exhibit
3 number is on tab seven.

4 MS. CONNELL: It's DX 1-0063.

5 THE COURT: So, this was a defendants' exhibit?

6 MS. CONNELL: It's a defendants' exhibit, your
7 Honor.

8 MS. ROGERS: That was on the defendants' exhibit
9 list, but I think for practical purposes it's a whole expert
10 report. So, we didn't favor admitting it.

11 MS. CONNELL: Again, your Honor, it went in in the 12 bankruptcy case. It was on their exhibit list. It was 13 introduced and admitted at the bankruptcy case.

14 THE COURT: Yeah. Look, I think this is just a
15 road to getting into the merits of the underlying 16 arbitration. I'm not entirely sure why the defendants
17 proposed it and now don't want it in. Either way at this 18 point I'll take it as an objection.

19 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, Mr. LaPierre didn't 20 propose it, and I respectfully object and take exception to 21 the rulings. I don't think any of this should be admitted
22 against Mr. LaPierre.

23 THE COURT: So one defendant or one or more
24 defendants proposed it but not all agreed. All right.

25 MR. CORRELL: I think that's right.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1261

1 THE COURT: My view is that it's not admissible.

2 MS. CONNELL: May we just instruct Mr. Cox? I
3 don't want him --

4 THE COURT: I was going to say you can just let him
5 know what -- that he should listen to the questions
6 carefully and that, you know, not go beyond them. And I
7 think it's fair to tell him that the settlement agreement
8 will not be coming in, so he should not be talking about the 9 terms of the settlement agreement. Do the defendants
10 disagree with that?

11 MS. ROGERS: We agree with that.

12 MR. CORRELL: Agreed.

13 MS. ROGERS: See we're all on the same page what I
14 think the instruction to Mr. Cox will be is he can say that 15 there were claims brought. Those will come in. And there
16 was a settlement with a payment made to him, but nothing
17 more about the terms of the settlement.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. You can say it's confidential,
19 you know, that's fine.

20 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I just want to make sure 21 that this is a goose and gander ruling. To the extent we 22 can't get into what was asserted against him, defendants
23 can't ask about that as well or they open the door.

24 THE COURT: No. I mean, what was -- You mean
25 probing as to whether yes, this is in fact something you did

LAS

1 and getting into the merits of the arbitration. Well, let
 2 me ask. Are the defendants -- Do the defendants think that
 3 if the evidence comes in the way at least I'm intending,
 4 that they will in fact cross examine him on the merits of 5 the arbitration?

6 MS. ROGERS: So, we didn't intend to examine on the 7 on the merits of the arbitration per se. But if they intend
 8 to read them on the stand in the counterclaim, and there is 9 an exception to the counterclaim and they accused you of,
 10 you know, causing ILA to pay your personal credit card bill,
 11 they accused you of that, I do wonder, it seems like fair
 12 cross to say well, did you do that. Is that true.
 13 Irrespective of whether that was established in the 14 arbitration, you're on the stand now. Did you cause ILA to 15 pay your personal AmEx.

Proceedings

1263

1 MS. ROGERS: And given that the witness has
2 testified to criticisms he had of expense policies by other
3 executives, I think those topics would be within scope, even
4 if there was no arbitration.

5 THE COURT: Well, look, the fact that the 6 counterclaims are -- the document is coming in, I did not 7 envision testimony getting into the details of that, from 8 either side. I mean, if we're going to go down that path,
9 that's the problem I have with this. So I don't anticipate
10 there being testimony and if there is, it would be objected
11 to and my lean would be to sustain it. To start getting 12 past just admitting this as, you know, these are claims that 13 were -- that were asserted ...

14 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, if they are not eliciting
15 testimony on the substance of the claims, then we don't 16 anticipate eliciting testimony on the same.

17 There are some topics, relating to Mr. Cox's work
18 at the NRA, relating to what was elicited even just before
19 the break, that I think coincidentally happened to be in the 20 arbitration; like, Mr. Cox said on the stand that it's wrong
21 to accept benefits from a vendor. So, even if these 22 documents never came in, I would be entitled to ask him,
23 "Did you accept benefits from a vendor?"

24 THE COURT: I agree.

25 MS. ROGERS: But so long as there's nothing

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1264

1 elicited -- so long as we don't elicit detailed testimony on
2 the individual assertions in the counterclaim, I wouldn't
3 have to cross on those.

4 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'm just trying to make
5 sure we're being fair across the board. If we're not going
6 to go into the allegations asserted in detail in the 7 arbitration, then neither should they. Certainly, what he's 8 testified to, they can cross-examine on.

9 THE COURT: Yeah, look, we'll have to see how this
10 goes, to some extent.

11 The point is, the process of the arbitration and
12 the litigation back and forth about it, I'm trying to keep a 13 pretty tight limit on that. And so, you know, the fact that 14 they asserted counterclaims and were --

15 Does it say in the counterclaims what they're 16 seeking in terms of dollars?

17 MS. ROGERS: I think it says, "Amount to be 18 established." I'll double-check.

19 (Pause.)

20 MS. CONNELL: Yeah, your Honor. I think it says,
21 to make the NRA whole and that kind of -- that kind of 22 language, if you look at pages 14 and 15.

23 MS. ROGERS: But I don't see a dollar amount.

24 THE COURT: Well, it asks to disgorge his salary,
25 benefits and other compensation.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1265

1 (Pause.)

2 THE COURT: Well, look, as I understand it, the
3 limited purpose of this is to -- for the plaintiff's case,
4 anyway -- is to show the time sequence of things that
5 happened that led to his separation from the organization
6 and then what happened after, which was claims by one side
7 seeking X, claims by the other side seeking Y. And as I
8 said, you know, he can ...

9 MS. CONNELL: I think we can thread that needle,
10 your Honor. It's a story we're telling about how he came to 11 leave the NRA.

12 THE COURT: Yeah.

13 What I'm trying to anticipate is a question that 14 says, "Well, did you consider this retaliation for what you 15 had done?" Right? Then the -- what is the 16 cross-examination to that, if it's not to the merits?

17 I'm just trying to see if this is going to unravel
18 my carefully laid plans to not have this dominate.

19 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we could not ask that 20 question. The jury can see that this is a man who, in 21 January, was given an employment contract; in June, was 22 told, "Here is your suitcase; get out." They can see those 23 facts.

24 THE COURT: Well, the simplest approach is just to 25 tell the chronological story --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1266

1 MS. CONNELL: Um-hmm.

2 THE COURT: -- you know, and what I'm going to be
3 alert for is things that are trying to get into the details;
4 and if I have to, at an appropriate time, I'm going to say:
5 "Look, this trial here is not to get to the merits of this
6 arbitration. That's not what you're going to be asked to 7 find."

8 And is it correct that he's not --

9 In your whistleblower claim, is there a specific 10 assertion that this is whistleblower retaliation under the 11 statute?

12 MS. CONNELL: No, your Honor. This is -- he's not 13 alleged to be a whistleblower. I don't think he was 14 identified by us as a whistleblower.

15 MS. ROGERS: He was not.

16 MS. CONNELL: And so, it's really about the idea of 17 suppression and what happens -- and how this kind of 18 corruption and override and violation of internal controls
19 continued, and what happened when someone was perceived not 20 as disloyal to the NRA but as disloyal to NRA leadership,
21 and the entrenchment of that leadership. And Mr. Cox is a
22 very important example of that, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: So that, I think, furthers the idea
24 that a light touch here is probably appropriate in that you
25 can have the chronological description of what happened but

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1267

1 getting into the specifics of it, or asking him, does he
2 believe it's, you know, retaliation is really, I think, out
3 of scope, as opposed to you can make the argument to the
4 jury that, you know, "You heard his complaints that he made
5 and how public he was and this is what followed." And I
6 don't -- I think that's the right balance here.

7 And so I would -- I think it would make sense to 8 tell him that there's going to be relatively limited amounts
9 that are going to be permitted to get into about the 10 arbitration, other than just the fact that it happened and 11 who claimed what against who. But -- and the settlement is 12 going to be -- you know, the terms of the settlement are not
13 going to be permitted, and just so that there's no blurring
14 problem that I have to then correct.

15 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, before, you said he could 16 say it was settled and that he was paid the money that he 17 sought. Can he say that?

18 THE COURT: I just said, he received -- he received
19 a confidential amount in settlement.

20 MS. CONNELL: Okay. How should we do this? Should 21 we call Mr. Cox down and I can instruct -- I'm just trying 22 to think of the mechanics of this.

23 THE COURT: Well, I suppose, maybe the most upright
24 thing for me is for me to explain it to him on the stand,
25 before the jury comes back, so there's no issue of side

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1268

1 conversations.

2 MS. CONNELL: I think that makes the most sense,
3 your Honor.

4 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, isn't a fairer result to 5 say, a settlement was reached, without disclosing who the 6 recipient was? Because you're asking -- they're going to 7 ask the jury to draw an inference from that and that's not a
8 fair inference, particularly from Mr. LaPierre's point of 9 view.

10 THE COURT: I think it's not uncommon, in cases in 11 which settlements are discussed, to just to have a
12 directional. So I think that's an appropriate balance,
13 because I think, otherwise, there's a potentially misleading
14 inference. So just saying it was an undisclosed payment,
15 you know, for a confidential amount.

16 So I understand the point, but that's the -- that's 17 the ruling.

18 All right, let's bring the witness in first.

19 MR. FARBER: Your Honor, could we take a short
20 break before we do that?

21 THE COURT: Well, why don't we bring the witness in 22 while it's fresh in my mind and we'll take a short break
23 before we bring the jury in.

24 I recognize, I haven't given you all a break. But 25 it's going to have to be quick, because the jury has been

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 out for a while.

2 (Pause.)

3 THE COURT: I will say, counsel, if you are okay
4 just leaving your colleagues here and you want to take a
5 quick run, you won't miss anything you haven't heard.

6 MR. FARBER: Okay, thank you.

7 THE COURT: I won't take it -- I won't take offense
8 to your taking a restroom break while we do this. But I
9 would leave at least one of your colleagues here.

10 MR. FARBER: They're in good hands.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 (Whereupon, Ms. Coutu and Mr. Farber left the 13 courtroom, after which the witness re-entered the courtroom
14 and resumed the stand.)

15 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir.

16 Welcome back, Mr. Cox.

17 I just wanted to chat with you, real briefly.

18 Sorry for the delay. You know, when you let 19 lawyers talk for a while, they tend to go on, and judges are 20 just former lawyers, so ...

21 We have discussed a few things about the 22 arbitration and its admissibility in this case, and so, to 23 avoid you being surprised by it or, you know, potentially 24 going beyond the scope of questions and getting into 25 territory that I've concluded is not admissible, I wanted to

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1270

1 give you the general rules of the road:

2 Because of evidentiary rules, the admissibility of
3 the details of the arbitration is limited; and what I'm
4 going to permit is the fact that there was an arbitration,
5 the general nature of the claims by both sides, without
6 getting into the merits of them in terms of what happened
7 during the arbitration; and the settlement, solely to the 8 extent of saying it was a confidential settlement with a
9 payment made from -- to you, but not the amount.

10 And so, the idea here is that this case should not 11 turn into a satellite litigation about the case that you had 12 with the NRA. And so I would ask that you be cautious and 13 listen carefully to the questions from whoever is asking
14 them and limit your answers. I'll trust that they're going 15 to ask their questions in a way that are consistent with my 16 rulings. But, since I know, especially on direct, witnesses
17 have somewhat more leeway to just go on and talk about
18 things, I thought it would be helpful for me to let you know
19 that we are not going to get into the details of what
20 happened in the arbitration other than, as I said, just a 21 general description of the claims on both sides and that
22 they were settled in a confidential settlement with a
23 payment.

24 Understand?

25 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Did I cover --

2 Anything? Did I leave anything out?

3 (No audible response.)

4 THE COURT: All right, let's get the jury.

5 (Whereupon, Ms. Coutu and Mr. Farber re-entered the 6 courtroom.)

7 (Pause.)

8 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

9 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

10 THE COURT: All right, welcome back. Have a seat.
11 Counsel, you may continue.

12 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

14 BY MS. CONNELL:

15 Q Mr. Cox, before we broke, I think we were talking about 16 the NRA Board, so I would like to ask you more about the
17 nominating committee.

18 The board had a nominating committee; correct?

19 A Correct.

20 Q And did Mr. LaPierre have any influence that you
21 observed over that nominating committee?

22 A Wayne was regularly involved with the -- in meeting
23 with the nominating committee, going to those meetings, having 24 those discussions on a regular basis.

25 Q Did you see --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1272

1 Did you ever observe Mr. LaPierre to have any control
2 over who the nominating committee put forward as a board
3 nominee?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And can you describe what you saw?

6 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, objection; time frame.
7 We're talking about 30 years or 20 years.

8 THE COURT: Well, the question is broad.

9 But you can --

10 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, if we can ask him -- and 11 I think we can start to narrow it, but I think what he saw 12 regarding exertion of control of the nominating committee is 13 important at any time. But I can start broadening --
14 narrowing it down a little bit.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 Overruled.

17 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

18 A I observed Wayne being hands-on in the nominating 19 process, working with the nominating committee, recruiting board
20 members, supporting board members, over a period of time.

21 Q And when you observed Mr. LaPierre recruiting and 22 nominating board members, did you see him looking for a
23 particular trait or characteristic in those board members?

24 A No --

25 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor; calls for

1 speculation.

2 THE COURT: Sus --

3 MR. CORRELL: I'll withdraw the objection, since he 4 went ahead and answered it.

5 THE COURT: Did he?

6 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question?

7 THE COURT: Yeah, he did answer. There's ...
8 Well, do you recall answering?

9 THE WITNESS: I answered "No" with regards to my 10 understanding of the question being that it -- were there
11 specific things?

12 The overall thing was who would be supportive of 13 Wayne and Wayne's --

14 MR. CORRELL: Objection; move to strike as
15 nonresponsive.

16 THE COURT: Yeah, the -- as I've told a lot of --

17 What we are looking for is personal observations,
18 as opposed to -- so, things that you saw and heard, you can
19 tell the jury about. Inferences you are making is not a
20 fact -- the role of a fact witness.

21 THE WITNESS: Okay.

22 THE COURT: So you can talk about specific things
23 that you saw and heard.

24 A Wayne supported a variety of different types of board
25 members, the one consistent theme being they were supportive of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1274

1 Wayne.

2 Q And did you --

3 How did you observe him to do that, to seek out board
4 members who were supportive of Mr. LaPierre?

5 A A lot of it happened -- Millie Hallow served as 6 Wayne's, kind of, in-between for board members, both probably 7 personally and professionally, with requests and whatnot.
8 Millie was often tasked with outreach to individuals to consider 9 running for the board, outreach on Wayne's behalf. She 10 discussed that with me and others on numerous occasions.

11 Q What kind of --

12 Can you give us an example of the kinds of discussions
13 you'd have with Ms. Hallow?

14 A "We need to find the right types of board members. We 15 need to find people to run for the board. Do you have any ideas
16 on who should run for the board?" Those sorts of questions.

17 Q And when she said, "find the right types of board
18 members," did you ever ask what she meant by that?

19 A No, because there was never a question that Millie
20 Hallow was interested in doing whatever was in Wayne's interest.

21 Q Did you ever see Mr. LaPierre reject a potential
22 nominee because he believed -- because that nominee didn't
23 appear to be loyal to Mr. LaPierre?

24 A No.

25 Q Did you ever see Mr. LaPierre ask or seek to have board

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1275

1 members who had demonstrated loyalty nominated to the board
2 of -- the board of trustees -- I mean -- excuse me -- the board
3 of directors?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Can you give us some examples?

6 A Wayne was -- my observation was that Wayne was involved
7 on -- with the nominating committee, the committee members;
8 certainly, the president, vice president and second vice
9 president, referred to as the "board chairs," and who was going
10 to be selected, who was going to be a team player and who 11 wasn't.

12 Q And did you discuss that with Mr. LaPierre?

13 A I -- I was not involved in the nominating committee
14 discussions, so, no.

15 Q Did you discuss --

16 A I discussed -- I -- sorry.

17 Q Sorry.

18 A I apologize.

19 I did discuss, at various times throughout; certainly,
20 the 18 years that I served as an officer, board members -- board
21 members who were being helpful, board members who were being 22 unhelpful, from a -- concerns that I might have, but not -- not 23 on a regular basis with regards to the nominating committee.

24 Q In regards to Mr. LaPierre's efforts to put forward
25 board members -- board nominees -- who would support him, did

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1276

1 you see that occur in the last five years that you worked at the
2 NRA?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And can you describe what you saw during that time
5 period?

6 A Well, the board members who were supportive of Wayne
7 LaPierre were a group; they were represented, usually, by the --
8 the leadership of the board: the president, first vice president
9 and second vice president. When Ollie North started asking
10 questions and asserting his fiduciary duty, I saw the opposite 11 of it, of -- what happens when a board member goes against the 12 interests of Wayne and his team. And the flip side is, I saw
13 the board members who were removed from committee assignments,
14 board members who were not renominated, for asking the wrong
15 questions, apparently.

16 Q When you say, "asking the wrong questions," what do you
17 mean?

18 A The same concerns that we talked about earlier: the --
19 the spending; certainly, the revelations that came out shortly
20 before the 2019 -- the revelations about the $250,000 of money
21 being spent on suits at a boutique in Beverly Hills billed back
22 to the members of the National Rifle Association; the amount of 23 money that was going, in member support and member dues, out the 24 door for the legal bills; that Ollie North was not alone; that 25 there were a number of other board members and a number

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1277

1 of -- a large number -- of individuals, myself included, that
2 had a great concern about it.

3 Q Okay. I think you said you saw it happen to people who
4 took the opposite view on some issues. What about people who
5 supported Mr. LaPierre; did you see how they were treated?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And can you describe that?

8 A Well, the -- the people who were not part of the "team"
9 were not given the good assignments; they were removed from 10 committee assignments and they ultimately, in many cases,
11 weren't renominated. Those who were on the team received a
12 number of different benefits.

13 Now, there were benefits associated with the president,
14 first vice president, second vice president, understandably, as 15 the -- the board officers, but there were others that would be 16 invited to events, provided with car services and -- and 17 first-class tickets and all those sorts of things.

18 Q I think -- did Mr. LaPierre --

19 Did you ever observe him to have any role in assigning
20 board members to particular committees?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Can you describe what you observed in that regard?

23 A Every year, there was a meeting outside of Wayne's
24 office on the 6th floor of NRA's headquarters. It was a fairly
25 large executive conference room. There were a number -- all the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1278

1 board -- the board officers were usually in attendance; the
2 president, first vice president, second vice president.

3 Sometimes there were other staff people there. Sometimes I
4 would come in and share thoughts on the Legislative Affairs
5 Committee and the work that they were doing.

6 But the purpose of that was to go through individuals
7 and decide whether or not they were going to be on a committee
8 or not recommended. Ultimately, it was the president of the 9 organization's decision; but the president was in the room with 10 Wayne, having these conversations about who would be on and who 11 would be off.

12 Q Did you ever see loyalty to Mr. LaPierre be a driving
13 concern in regard to committee assignments?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And can you describe what you observed in that regard?

16 A What I've described thus far, which is those -- those 17 board members who were -- who were not pushing back against -- 18 whether it was Ackerman McQueen expenditures, whether it was 19 Josh Powell, whether it was Bill Brewer, those were -- those 20 were the -- the people on the good -- on the good side,
21 quote-unquote; and those who were asking questions were -- I
22 think, publicly have acknowledged that they were -- either not 23 renominated, kicked off committees or both.

24 Q Okay. Mr. Cox, are you familiar with an entity known,
25 or entities known, as the "California Members Councils," or the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1279

1 "Members Councils of California"?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And can you tell the jury what they are?

4 A My understanding is, the member councils were set up to 5 run the grass-roots membership and activation of NRA members
6 across the State of California.

7 That work fell underneath the job of the Institute for
8 Legislative Action that I ran. One of the nine divisions that I
9 ran at ILA was the Grassroots Division that was responsible for 10 activating members for legislative purposes, election purposes.
11 So 49 states were treated differently; they were run and managed
12 by the Institute for Legislative Action. One state, California, 13 was managed directly by Wayne and his team, separate from the 14 Institute for Legislative Action.

15 Q To your knowledge, did the members councils from 16 California play any role in NRA Board elections?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Can you describe what role they played?

19 A NRA board members are elected, traditionally, to 20 three-year terms. They're -- of the 76, 75 are elected to 21 three-year terms. It's staggered to where they're not all up
22 for re-election the same year; it staggers over time, so 25, 25,
23 25. Every year, there's a 76th board member that's elected from 24 the convention floor; basically, from the people who attend the 25 convention; they're allowed to vote at the convention for that

1280

1 76th spot. That's a one-year term. It's a shorter term than --
2 than the normal three-year term. And every year, Paul Payne,
3 who at one point was an ILA staffer who then became a Wayne
4 LaPierre staffer, but at those board meetings -- or at those
5 annual meetings -- Paul Payne, along with others from the --
6 from the NRA staff, were there with the explicit purpose of 7 working -- working the floor, handing out buttons, telling
8 people to vote for the preferred candidate of Wayne.

9 Q So who -- do you know who paid for the Members Council
10 of California and Mr. Payne to come to the annual meetings?

11 A My understanding is, Wayne LaPierre did.

12 Q And --

13 A Or the NRA did, under Wayne LaPierre's direction.

14 Q And to your knowledge, did Ms. Hallow help arrange
15 this?

16 A Yes. My understanding was that Ms. Hallow would
17 organize time for the California activists to meet with Wayne --
18 I don't know if it was a meal or just a meeting -- for Wayne to 19 thank them for the great work that they're doing and to get out
20 and be involved in that 76th board member.

21 (Continued on next page.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Direct-Cox-Connell

1281

1 Q If the NRA board is so large there is 76 members, why
2 would this one 76th member be important?

3 A Every board member is important if there is concerns
4 about support or the flip side, asking the wrong questions.

5 Q And when you say that the -- the members' counsels
6 would get out there and the NRA staff would get out there to try
7 to support the preferred candidate, you mean the election year
8 for the preferred candidate, is that right?

9 A Correct.

10 Q They would try to get members on the floor to vote for 11 that candidate, is that right?

12 A Correct.

13 Q And is it -- Am I correct in understanding, Mr. Cox,
14 that that -- that election of the 76th member was sort of a wild
15 card? They didn't have to go through the normal process of 16 being nominated or being written in by petition to become a
17 board member, correct?

18 A Correct. It was limited to the NRA board members that 19 were there at any given convention that moved annually to a
20 different location.

21 Q Did you ever hear Mr. LaPierre while you were at the 22 NRA talk about getting together a certain number of board votes
23 on things, board members to vote on things?

24 A Can you ask that again?

25 Q Sure. Did you ever hear Mr. LaPierre discuss needing a

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1282

1 certain number of votes or having to keep a certain number of
2 votes in his corner?

3 A I don't -- I don't recall, because the board pretty
4 much rubber stamped what Wayne wanted to do. There were times
5 certainly in disagreements and discussions, but I don't remember
6 close or contentious votes, even though there might have been 7 some.

8 Q Okay. You mentioned before $250,000 suits. Can you
9 talk about what you were referring to? I think you said
10 $250,000 in suits.

11 A Shortly before --

12 THE COURT: Concerning your personal knowledge.

13 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

14 A Shortly before the annual meeting in 2019 in 15 Indianapolis it became public, it was publically disclosed that 16 allegations and documents had leaked that suggested that Wayne
17 had used an Ackerman McQueen credit card or somehow billed the 18 NRA back for $250,000 of suits from a luxury boutique in Beverly 19 Hills. It was one of the final straws for me. I was floored.
20 I was disgusted. I was extremely disappointed to learn that 21 that indeed had happened.

22 Q Did you speak to Mr. LaPierre about that allegation?

23 A I did.

24 Q And what did he tell you?

25 A He told me that -- I asked him point blank, Did you

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1283

1 charge these suits and bill it back to NRA? Did you have an
2 Ackerman McQueen credit card? And he said, All of that has been
3 cleaned up. All of that has been fixed.

4 Q Okay. I would like to just go back to the board for a
5 second. You were talking about, when we were talking about the 6 board, in your experience does the board usually vote by voice
7 vote?

8 A No. My experience, every board meeting that I
9 attended, 50 some odd board meetings, they were in person.
10 Committee votes were beforehand. The full board would meet
11 after the days of committee votes.

12 Q But what I mean by that is did you ever observe the 13 board for something to be put up for a board vote, and a board
14 to vote by verbal acclimation, meaning they voted yay or nay?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. Meaning they didn't put like pieces of papers in 17 a box?

18 A Correct. I apologize.

19 Q Okay. Mr. Cox, do you know a woman named Marion 20 Hammer?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Who is she?

23 A Mary Hammer is a board member, I believe still a board
24 member of The National Rifle Association, also a paid
25 consultant.

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1284

1 Q Do you know whether the NRA ILA pays money to
2 Ms. Hammer?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And was that your decision for the NRA ILA to pay money
5 to Ms. Hammer?

6 A Marion Hammer was paid by my predecessor, continued to 7 be paid during my tenure at ILA, and I assume continues to be
8 paid to this day.

9 Q Did you -- Well, strike that. Did Ms. Hammer have an 10 organization that she headed up?

11 A Yes.

12 Q What was the name of that organization?

13 A Unified Sportsmen of Florida.

14 Q Did ILA fund or give money to the Unified Sportsmen of 15 Florida?

16 A We gave grants to -- to that entity as well as other
17 entities across the country.

18 Q To your knowledge did Unified Sportsmen of Florida have 19 employees?

20 A There might have been an employee on and off, but I
21 don't recall there ever being a consistent full-time employee.
22 But I don't -- I don't know. I never saw the office.

23 Q Besides Ms. Hammer?

24 A Correct, besides Ms. Hammer.

25 Q Did ILA also give money directly to Ms. Hammer?

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1285

1 A Correct.

2 Q That was a decision you made?

3 A That was a decision that was made prior to me. I had 4 concerns with it, particularly as time went on, but it was very
5 clear that Wayne was an ally of Ms. Hammer, and Ms. Hammer was a
6 staunch defender of Wayne LaPierre.

7 Q What makes you say that?

8 A Her actions in defense of Wayne LaPierre, whenever 9 Wayne might be challenged on something is what lead me to that 10 decision -- that belief.

11 Q And when you say "her actions", can you give us an 12 example of what you're talking about?

13 A Well, the last one that I witnessed was prior to the 14 April 2019 convention in Indianapolis, that Mary Hammer called 15 my predecessor in the job, Jim Baker, and said, I want you to 16 come to the annual meeting. I'm going to do everything I can to 17 get Chris Cox fired, and I want you to replace him.

18 Q Did you speak to Ms. Hammer about that afterwards?

19 A No. I saw Ms. Hammer at that convention, smiled, asked
20 how she was doing and went about doing my job.

21 Q Mr. Cox, do you believe -- Strike that. Did Ms. Hammer
22 ever ask you to increase ILA's payments to her or to the Unified
23 Sportsmen of Florida?

24 A Ms. Hammer would regularly ask for increased financial 25 support to support her efforts in and around Florida. And some

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1286

1 of those efforts were valid. Some of those efforts I disagreed
2 with and -- and did not agree to.

3 Q Do you have a belief as to the amount of money NRA ILA
4 pays to Ms. Hammer? I'm sorry. Do you have a concern about the 5 amount of money NRA ILA pays to Ms. Hammer?

6 A Yes. I expressed that concern to Wayne.

7 Q Can you explain the nature of that concern?

8 A Marion is a legendary figure within the Second
9 Amendment in Florida. She was the first female president of The 10 National Rifle Association, which was historic at the time for 11 an old organization. She was involved in a lot of legislative 12 battles over a long period of time in Florida. So there was a
13 time, like everybody else has their time, when it's time to move
14 on, that you're no longer as effective as you used to be, that 15 it's time to move on. I believed I later found out that Marion
16 was not even registered to lobby in Florida, which is what she 17 was suppose to be doing on behalf of NRA and ILA. She was not 18 registered to lobby. Ultimately like I was judged on 19 legislative election success and defeats, that was the same
20 application that I applied to outside consultants and outside
21 lobbyists and then th internal team of lobbyists that I was 22 responsible for managing. And Marion had a lot of successes and 23 taken on a high profile also. I thought it was time to start
24 rebuild NRA's effectiveness in Florida in hiring and bringing in 25 new people to run the business in Florida for our membership.

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1287

1 Q Do you believe that Ms. Hammer was overcompensated?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Were you -- What, if anything, were you able to do in
4 regard to compensation paid to Marion Hammer?

5 A I asked Wayne, when I found out, I did not know that
6 Wayne was paying Marion on top of what ILA was paying Marion, on 7 top of what ILA was doing through state assistance grants for 8 her state organization, I asked him and he acted like he didn't 9 know. Apparently -- I told him somebody has got to stop paying 10 her. Either you should stop paying her or I should stop paying 11 her. He said, I know. I know. I'll look into it. What I was 12 told later is he instructed the fiscal officer, at the time
13 Craig Spray, to continue to pay Marion.

14 Q Did you ever ask Mr. Spray whether the NRA continued to 15 pay Marion Hammer?

16 A I don't remember. I don't remember ever asking
17 Mr. Spray. I might have, but I don't remember. I didn't have 18 that many conversations with Craig.

19 Q Do you know whether he ever told you that the NRA
20 continued to pay Ms. Hammer?

21 A Someone did. I don't know if it was Craig or someone
22 else, but someone certainly did.

23 Q Mr. Cox, do you know Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And how do you know him?

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1288

1 A I met Colonel North before I started working for The
2 National Rifle Association. I believe in and around 1994 I met
3 Colonel North for the first time when he was -- I believe that
4 was the year he ran for the United States Senate.

5 Q And at some point Colonel North was on the board of the 6 NRA, correct?

7 A Correct.

8 Q Do you recall a time when Colonel North became NRA
9 president?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Do you know when that was?

12 A I believe it was at the board meeting in and around --
13 the middle of 2018, I believe. I might be wrong on that. I
14 believe in the middle of 2018 it was announced and perhaps he 15 stepped in officially. There were some things, a process that 16 needed to happen with him and his former employer to make that 17 transition. Maybe late 2018, if my memory serves me correctly.

18 Q Well, do you know how Lieutenant Colonel North came to 19 run for NRA president?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And can you explain -- can you explain what you know
22 about that?

23 A Wayne LaPierre asked him to run. Pete Brownell, who 24 was serving as president at the time, had made the decision to 25 step down for a variety of different reasons was my

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1289

1 understanding. It was somewhat unheard of for a president to
2 step down one year into a two year term. It was important that
3 the NRA replace Pete Brownell with someone of stature, of 4 standing. Someone who was trustworthy. The members would rally
5 around. Someone who the donors would be comfortable with. I
6 didn't know at the time, I asked Wayne who was going to replace
7 Pete, and he said, I've got Ollie North to do it. I was quite 8 frankly thrilled, thrilled to hear that news.

9 Q I want to take a break there for one second. You used
10 a term before, board chairs, correct?

11 A I'm sorry.

12 Q You used terminology before, board chairs, is that
13 right?

14 A I apologize. That's what we referred to as the 15 president, first vice president and second vice president. So,
16 the board leadership we referred to as the chairs or the board
17 chairs. I apologize.

18 Q And am I correct in understanding that in general the 19 president and vice president and second president -- and second 20 vice president tend to stay on for two one year terms each,
21 correct?

22 A That's correct. Traditionally someone would run for 23 the second vice president, serve for two years. Move up to the 24 first vice president. Serve for two years. Move up to 25 president. And serve for two years. On occasion Charlton

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1290

1 Heston, for example, served longer. Didn't go through the
2 traditional process. Served for longer. I understand that
3 happened again more recently. That was traditionally what
4 happened.

5 Q So, when you learned that Lieutenant Colonel North was 6 going to be put forward as president of the NRA, you learned
7 that from Wayne LaPierre?

8 A I did.

9 Q And did Lieutenant Colonel North subsequently become
10 president of the NRA?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Did you ever observe Lieutenant Colonel North to have 13 to campaign for that or campaign for that position?

14 A No. Colonel North, I believe, was the highest 15 recipient of NRA member votes of every board member that ran.
16 He wasn't the highest. He was top two or three. He was beloved
17 by the board membership, certainly beloved by staff. He didn't 18 have to run much of a -- much, if any, of a campaign.

19 Q Just to be clear. At the time that he became president
20 his predecessor was Pete Brownell?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And Mr. Brownell didn't stand up for a second one year
23 term as president?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. At the time that Lieutenant Colonel North was

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1291

1 made NRA president or became NRA president, do you know what he
2 had been doing up until that point?

3 A Yes. Colonel North was the host of a program on Fox
4 News, I believe, called War Stories with Oliver North, where he
5 traveled the world and filmed stories about military and things
6 that were near and dear to him.

7 Q Do you know whether Lieutenant Colonel North ever
8 became employed by Ackerman McQueen?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And can you tell us what you know about that?

11 A What I knew was that Colonel North had and still has 12 apparently a very ill wife who was suffering from advanced
13 stages of Alzheimer's or dementia. I'm not exactly sure what
14 the medical diagnosis was. He had really good health insurance
15 when he was with Fox News, not surprisingly. When Wayne
16 negotiated Ollie North's transition from Fox News to NRA TV, it
17 was very important to Ollie North, which was not a surprise at 18 his age, with a sick wife, that he would want to make sure that 19 his healthcare was covered. So that was my understanding, is 20 the reason that he became an employee designated was because he 21 was not allowed to be an employee of The National Rifle
22 Association, because board members couldn't receive compensation
23 that way. So, Wayne structured for it to be run through
24 Ackerman McQueen.

25 Q Mr. Cox, I want to take a step back to make sure we're

LAS

1 clear. So at the time Lieutenant Colonel North was approached
2 to be president of the NRA, he was working for Fox News, right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q And I think you said that Mr. LaPierre negotiated his
5 transition to NRA TV, correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q Do you know how or why that came about?

8 A Ollie North was making a significant amount of money
9 working for Fox News. I don't think anyone was under the 10 impression that Colonel North was going to leave a high paying 11 job with no replacement for his income and no replacement for 12 his healthcare, particularly for his wife. I think it became 13 clear to Wayne, based on his words, that we're going to make 14 Ollie whole. He's going to do a TV program for NRA News, which 15 was an Ackerman McQueen run program, that was similar to the 16 storytelling that he was doing on Fox News, but to do it through 17 an Ackerman McQueen/NRA TV platform.

18 Q Based on your knowledge, did Mr. LaPierre have a role
19 in negotiating Colonel North's employment with Ackerman McQueen?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And can you describe your knowledge in that regard?

22 A Wayne told me that and Ollie North both told me that.

23 Q Okay. Did there come a time -- Strike that. Can you
24 describe what you observed of Colonel North's approach to being 25 NRA president?

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1293

1 A Colonel North was -- was a dedicated supporter of the
2 Second Amendment. He was a proud member of The National Rifle
3 Association. A proud board member. And certainly a proud
4 president of The National Rifle Association. It had largely
5 been a ceremonial position to a large degree. The past
6 presidents for the most part had lived in other parts of the 7 country. There was an office of the president in NRA
8 headquarters, which was rarely used in the past. But I observed
9 Colonel North dedicated, wanting to make a difference. He had 10 some aggressive goals around growing membership of the 11 organization, raising money for the organization. He had the 12 energy of a young guy, despite his age, and he was very excited
13 to get to work.

14 Q Did you observe Colonel North to come to the NRA
15 headquarters?

16 A He did. That was the first in the 30 some odd years
17 that I had been there or close to 30, 25 years. I had never 18 seen a president spend that much time at headquarters. If they 19 had, I had never seen it.

20 Q Okay. Did there come a time when you observed
21 Lieutenant Colonel North start raising concerns about governance
22 within the NRA?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Can you describe what you observed?

25 A Shortly after he started coming to the office, talking

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1294

1 to staff, he would walk the floors with his dog and go visit
2 with people and ask people how they were doing. He started to 3 hear concerns and learn of concerns, learn of concerns of the 4 Josh Powells, the growing concerns in and around the Brewer
5 firm, around the billings and the amount of money, not
6 necessarily billings, but the amount of money that was being 7 spent. And he started to exert his fiduciary responsibility and 8 ask the questions with regards to what are we doing here. Like
9 do we have the money. Can we afford this. How is this costing 10 so much. And asking -- asking questions that a fiduciary should 11 ask.

12 Q Did you ever hear or did Lieutenant Colonel North ever
13 raise these concerns directly with you?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Did he raise them with other board members?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Did you ever observe him to raise them with Mr.
18 LaPierre?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Did you ever observe him to raise them with other
21 members of NRA leadership?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Did you ever observe him to raise them with Mr. Frazer?

24 A I don't recall being in a room where that ever
25 happened. It could have happened, but I was not aware of that.

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1295

1 Q Did others join Mr. Colonel North, excuse me, in his
2 concerns?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Can you name others who joined him in his concerns?

5 A Well, he lead the concern as president of The National
6 Rifle Association. Richard Childress, who at the time, he since 7 left the board, at the time he was the number two. He was
8 second vice president. He shared those concerns. There was a
9 time when the entire board leadership, including Carolyn
10 Meadows, shared that concern. There was concern from -- from 11 me. There was concerns from other board officers or other board
12 members, other staff. I was certainly not alone and Ollie North
13 was not alone in these concerns. It was becoming more and more
14 talked about among staff and among board members.

15 Q We're talking about concerns generally. But did you
16 hear or know Lieutenant Colonel North to complain about concerns
17 regarding legal spending?

18 MR. CORRELL: Objection. Compound, your Honor.
19 Hear or know.

20 THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer.

21 A Can you ask the question again, please?

22 THE COURT: While you're at it --

23 MS. CONNELL: I'll make it not compound. How about
24 that.

25 Q Mr. Cox --

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1296

1 THE COURT: Sustained then.

2 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

3 Q Mr. Cox, did you ever hear Lieutenant Colonel North to 4 complain about the amount of legal expenditures within the NRA?

5 A Yes.

6 Q What was the nature of his concerns?

7 A That -- Twofold. One, that the amount of money was 8 staggering. And two, not gone through proper board approval and 9 channels.

10 Q Did you ever hear Lieutenant Colonel North to ask for 11 an audit?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And do you know whether any other NRA officers or 14 leaders joined him in that request?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Did you join him in that request?

17 A I supported the efforts of Colonel North and others to 18 have an independent review of NRA's spending, particularly in 19 and around the legal expenses, yes.

20 Q Did you ever see any -- any of these concerns put into 21 writing by Lieutenant Colonel North?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And to your knowledge were any of these writings
24 delivered to NRA leadership?

25 A When you say "NRA leadership", can you clarify which

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1297

1 part of NRA leadership?

2 Q Sure. Do you know any of these writings to have been
3 delivered to Mr. LaPierre?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Do you know whether any were delivered to Mr. Cotton?

6 A I believe, yes.

7 Q Do you know whether any were delivered to Mr. Frazer?

8 A I didn't see a lot of the back and forth. I was 9 truthfully trying to block a lot of it out. It was a very busy
10 time for me professionally, with my work commitments in and 11 around that annual meeting. It got to a point where there were 12 a lot of letters being fired back and forth. It became more and 13 more ugly and personal, and so I was focused on doing my job.

14 THE COURT: Counsel, we're going to take our break.

15 MS. CONNELL: Okay.

16 THE COURT: Is this an okay time?

17 MS. CONNELL: Sure. It is. Thank you, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Folks, we're going to take our lunch
19 break. We'll reconvene at 2:15. Same instructions. Don't 20 talk about the case. Don't talk about it amongst 21 yourselves. See you soon.

22 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

23 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

24 THE COURT: And, Mr. Cox, this is an instruction I
25 give to all witnesses. During the break you're essentially

LAS

1 still on the stand. So, you shouldn't discuss your
2 testimony with anyone, including any counsel or anyone else.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. See you at 2:15.

Proceedings

1299

1 A f t e r n o o n S e s s i o n:

2 THE COURT: Good afternoon, folks.

3 I have been going through the Spray deposition and
4 trial designations. I am finished with the deposition and I
5 think they're being e-mailed to you now.

6 I have a couple of things:

7 On the bankruptcy trial transcript, there's 8 basically one section that's the most substantive and 9 there's a single running objection, for a couple of pages,
10 based on hearsay; and I'm going to need you to break that 11 down more on a question-by-question basis, because just as 12 an example, it begins -- there's this long section as to 13 which there's an objection. The first question is just him
14 reading from a statement in the 990, which is an admitted
15 exhibit, so the hearsay objection to that doesn't really 16 work. But then there are some questions after it, some of 17 which, at least arguably, may be based on things that 18 someone else told him, although it's not entirely clear.
19 But then there is a bunch of questions as to which I think
20 the hearsay objection may be different.

21 So I need a little more granularity as to what the 22 arguments are on both sides.

23 I think, for that portion of the transcript, I
24 don't think I can just work with the stick-figure word
25 "hearsay" and know exactly what both sides' positions are.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1300

1 There's a little bit of a complication there, because he's
2 asked a series of questions about what he found out.

3 Now, if it was happening live, you could have an
4 interaction saying, "Well, does this mean somebody told you
5 that or does it mean that you looked at records and, if so,
6 which records?"

7 So I did think about that.

8 And then, later on, for example, they reference --
9 he references -- certain travel-agent records. I don't 10 know, as I sit here, and it's not referenced in the 11 transcript, what they are. Is that an NRA business record?
12 Is that a travel agency record? I don't know what it is.

13 So I'm trying to, you know, as realistically as 14 possible, imagine this testimony happening in front of me
15 and how I would deal with it.

16 So it's not as easy as some of the other ones.

17 At least, that part of it, there were some 18 questions where, maybe with a question or two to the 19 witness, you could clarify whether he's testifying based on 20 his personal knowledge or based on what someone on his 21 staff, who he refers to generally, told him. And even if it
22 was somebody on his staff, it seems, in part, that it may 23 have been based on reviewing records that I don't have and 24 that the jury won't have. So how does that affect the 25 admissibility of his trial testimony? Which,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1301

1 parenthetically, was not objected to at trial, although not
2 all the defendants were parties to that proceeding, so they
3 didn't have the ability to object.

4 So I'm a little troubled by it, as to what to do
5 with it, and so I need a little more help on what the 6 substantive arguments are. So it may just be a letter from 7 each side saying -- because I think, with that one, it's 8 really one block of testimony that has the main hearsay
9 objection and I'm going to need a little more granularity
10 out of you on that.

11 On the exhibits to the deposition, which I had this
12 forlorn hope that I wouldn't have to dig into before, I do
13 have a question: It looks like, from the plaintiff's
14 response, that some of the objections may have been met, or 15 neutralized, and I just want to make sure I understand.

16 So PX 2515, which is a transcript within the 17 transcript, I guess -- it's an excerpt from the 18 investigative exam -- there was an objection based on 19 hearsay and there was another objection based on the 20 wholesale admission of the transcript and the response was,
21 "No, we're just seeking to admit," essentially, "two or 22 three pages of it," which seemed to meet and eliminate the 23 objection. You can let me know if I'm wrong about that.

24 And then I think I'm not going to sustain the 25 objection to PX 2679, which was a relevance objection.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1302

1 Then there's a series of objections by Mr. Phillips
2 to which the answer from the Government is, "Well, these are
3 all after he was gone, so it shouldn't matter to him,
4 anyway," or something maybe more eloquently put. So I --
5 again, I'm not really sure I have a good understanding of 6 what this back-and-forth is or whether the Government saying
7 that is -- are they saying this is essentially not
8 admissible, not relevant to Mr. Phillips; therefore, his 9 objection, which is the only one that I have, really doesn't
10 matter?

11 Is Mr. Phillips --

12 What's your -- counsel's -- take on that?

13 MR. FARBER: Well, I took that response to mean,
14 basically, we shouldn't care because it's for a time period
15 after Mr. Phillips.

16 So I think my thought on that is: This
17 transcript's inadmissible against Mr. Phillips. It's a
18 transcript from a bankruptcy trial. He was not a party
19 there. It's hearsay. It may be admissible against the NRA
20 because Mr. Spray was their officer at the time and 21 therefore, you know, it can be considered a party admission,
22 but none of that's true as to Mr. Phillips, who had retired,
23 you know, four or five -- at that time -- four-some-odd
24 years earlier.

25 So, if it's going to come into evidence and their

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1303

1 answer is, "Well, it's from a -- it concerns events that
2 don't relate to Mr. Phillips," I think there ought to be an
3 instruction given to the jury that can be to the effect of,
4 "This testimony is not admitted against Mr. Phillips and 5 doesn't relate to him."

6 THE COURT: All right. I hadn't fully appreciated,
7 then, that that little, one letter "H" in the margin was 8 intended, in part, to be an objection across the board by 9 Mr. Phillips, at least, to the entirety of the testimony
10 from the bankruptcy on the ground --

11 Regardless of what the questions are, you're saying
12 it's inadmissible.

13 MR. FARBER: As to Mr. Phillips, yes.

14 And -- and -- I mean, the AG's office put this 15 together. I've made it clear that that was the grounds of 16 our objection from the start.

17 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to --

18 Again, as I said, for the bankruptcy one, I need
19 more than I have; a little bit more text in explaining 20 exactly how I should deal with it, because with the 21 deposition transcripts, with that particular issue, it's not
22 relevant because you're all parties at that point.

23 So let's put a pin in the bankruptcy transcript and 24 just have some -- a submission by each side explaining to me
25 what, exactly, the basis is for the objection and I'll

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1304

1 try -- I'll try to resolve it as soon as I can.

2 And as to the documents, that's a different
3 question, because that was -- it doesn't matter whether
4 you're a party or not. You were asserting regular hearsay
5 objections to the documents -- right? -- or regular
6 objections to the documents. I think. Right?

7 Those are deposition exhibits.

8 MR. FARBER: I -- I -- were you addressing that to 9 me, your Honor?

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 MR. FARBER: Frankly, I don't recall whether I had 12 separate objections to the documents.

13 THE COURT: All right. Well, I don't want to 14 waste -- let's move on.

15 His stuff is not coming in this week, anyway, so we 16 have a couple of days. I just -- I thought I would cut
17 through it quickly over the lunch break and I didn't quite 18 get there, so ...

19 All right, let's get the jury.

20 (The witness entered the courtroom and resumed the 21 witness stand.)

22 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

18 BY MS. CONNELL:

19 Q Mr. Cox, when we broke, I think we were talking about 20 the annual meeting in 2019. Do you recall issues with regard to 21 the concerns raised by Colonel North coming to a head at about
22 that time?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And can you describe what was going on at about that
25 time?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1306

1 A It was clear that Colonel North was in serious
2 disagreement with Bill Brewer in the billing issue; it was clear
3 that Wayne LaPierre was in strong disagreement with Colonel
4 North; it was clear that Wayne and -- and the Brewer team were 5 clearly at odds with Ackerman McQueen; and I, truthfully, was 6 trying to avoid the chaos and focus on the job that I had, which 7 was not only the busiest week for everybody of the year, but
8 about to be the busiest day of the year for me.

9 Q So I want to take a break here and ask: As Executive
10 Director of ILA, what would you do at the annual meetings,
11 typically?

12 A So, at the annual meetings, there were -- during the 13 week, before the weekend, there were board committee meetings.
14 I had responsibilities at a number of different committees, so I
15 would give presentations, answer questions, do the traditional 16 board type of work.

17 Then, on Friday, the convention itself, where tens of 18 thousands of NRA members from all over the country would come
19 and join and celebrate all the great things that were -- that 20 were happening in and around the Second Amendment, I had a -- an 21 event on Friday that I both started and grew and was responsible 22 for not only being the MC, but recruiting the speakers and 23 recruiting the entertainment. That year, it was particularly 24 both stressful and exciting because we had not only governors
25 and senators, but both the President of the United States and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1307

1 the Vice President of the United States.

2 After that event, I had a large auction -- dinner and
3 auction -- that was a critically important event for the 4 Institute for Legislative Action from a fund-raising standpoint
5 that, obviously, I was involved in.

6 Saturday, we had the members' meeting, which I had
7 to -- to give another speech, on top of the ones I gave
8 throughout the week and on Friday.

9 So it was a -- it was always a busy time, but that one
10 was particularly busy, with the attendees at the -- the 11 leadership forum and then with all of the -- the chaos
12 surrounding the event itself.

13 Q Would you say that was, maybe, one of your busiest
14 weeks of the year?

15 A Not "maybe"; it was -- it was absolutely the busiest --
16 busiest week of the year in my professional career.

17 Q And here I'd like to step out for a second: Mr. Cox, 18 did you travel a lot, as Executive Director of the ILA -- of 19 ILA?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And why would you travel so much?

22 A I was a "road warrior," as I described it, to a large
23 degree. There were a lot of work commitments. There were a lot
24 of political events that I attended on behalf of the NRA. There
25 were a lot of speeches that I attended. There were a lot of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1308

1 state associations where I would go and keynote the speech; I
2 was invited to give a keynote at the Republican National
3 Committee, one year -- for the convention, rather. And so, I
4 was constantly being asked to come and speak at events.

5 And then, layered into the speeches and the public
6 types of events, I was also responsible, as the chief lobbyist
7 for the organization, to interact with members, to attend events
8 that were in the benefit of the organization. And I did that,
9 oftentimes, more often than I would like, but I viewed it as 10 part of the job and I embraced the -- the travel, even if it was 11 difficult.

12 Q Can I ask whether you had a policy or procedure you
13 would follow with regard to payment of expenses that came up
14 while you traveled?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Can you describe that?

17 A It -- it changed over time.

18 When I was hired, in 1995, as a federal lobbyist --
19 Federal Liaison -- I was instructed by the Director of Federal 20 Affairs, "You can have an NRA credit card, you can get an 21 American Express and seek reimbursement, or you can do both;
22 it's kind of up to you."

23 So, for the 24 and a half years that I was there, I had 24 an American Express. My traditional practice was to just 25 highlight the things that were work-related, come up with

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1309

1 expense reports, submit those; my staff worked on those, and
2 those would be submitted and I would -- I would seek re --
3 reimbursement.

4 Q Did the NRA ever pay for your American Express -- any
5 charge on your American Express Card, to your knowledge, that 6 was a personal expense?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And what would --

9 Do you have any procedure you'd follow if that
10 occurred?

11 A It happened -- I don't remember the year; I think it
12 was probably 2016 -- that between my work travel, between my -- 13 I had a son who was battling cancer and going through intensive 14 chemotherapy treatments for three and a half years, so it was a
15 very stressful time with all of my work responsibilities, it was 16 a stressful time in my personal life, and I was on the road a
17 lot.

18 And so, the traditional practice would be, as I said, I
19 would go through and mark these things; NRA would reimburse me
20 for my -- for my personal -- or my professional -- expenses and 21 I would pay the -- the personal.

22 When I was on the road, I got a call from my executive
23 assistant, who said, "Your Amex bill" -- it was my American 24 Express bill because it was used almost entirely for work, but 25 my Amex bill was sent directly to my assistant at our

1 headquarters. She got the bill, said: "Hey, I know you're on
2 the road; I know you don't have time to deal with this. Why
3 don't I just have the whole bill paid and then, when you get
4 back, you can reimburse -- basically do the opposite -- you can
5 reimburse NRA for the personal charges. And I said, "I'm not 6 comfortable with that unless you clear it with our fiscal 7 division," which she did; Mary Rose Adkins. She didn't see an 8 issue with that.

9 It didn't come up and wasn't an issue until long after 10 I left --

11 MS. ROGERS: Object to hearsay.

12 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, the head of their fiscal 13 division would be an NRA officer or NRA employee.

14 THE COURT: Well, I --

15 You just testified that she cleared it, but 16 that's -- that's something that you heard, yourself?

17 THE WITNESS: It was in writing.

18 THE COURT: So it was the fact that -- it was the 19 fact of clearance. There's no -- we're not getting to the 20 truth of the -- of the matter.

21 So, overruled.

22 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

23 A I'm sorry; can you ask ...

24 Q I think we interrupted you in answering. But, sir, did
25 you --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1311

1 Why don't we start clear: In 2016, to the extent the
2 NRA paid any of your personal charges, how did you address that?

3 A They were always reimbursed fully and promptly when I
4 returned from travel and was at our headquarters long enough to 5 sit down and go through expenses.

6 Q Okay. Thank you, sir.

7 I'd like to take you back now to the annual meeting in 8 2018. Do you remember where that occurred?

9 A In 2018 or 2019?

10 Q 2019. Excuse me.

11 A 2019 --

12 Q Do you remember where that -- where that occurred?

13 A Yes. It was in Indianapolis, Indiana.

14 Q Okay. Did you, at any point, become aware of things
15 between Lieutenant Colonel North and Wayne LaPierre getting 16 worse or coming to a head?

17 A It was clearly my observation that the disagreements
18 between Ollie North and Bill Brewer, and Ollie North's desire to 19 have an independent auditor look at the bills that were being 20 submitted, became a growing point of contention and ultimately,
21 for all intents and purposes, blew up at that meeting.

22 Q And was it only Colonel North raising these concerns at 23 that point, at the meeting?

24 A No.

25 Q Who else did you observe raising these concerns?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1312

1 A Richard Childress and other -- and other board members
2 and other staff members were aware of it, as well.

3 Q Were you involved in -- or: Were you involved in any
4 discussions of these concerns at the annual meeting in 2019?

5 A I had discussions with Wayne LaPierre at the annual
6 meeting about those. I had discussions with Colonel North at 7 that annual meeting, or those meetings, in Indianapolis. I
8 don't remember if there was a larger, group discussion.

9 There had been ongoing group discussions in the months
10 leading up to that annual meeting, in meetings including Wayne
11 LaPierre and other board members and the -- all the board
12 officers, myself included; the outside counsel, Steve Hart; and 13 others. So it was not -- it was not new at the annual meeting;
14 it had been going on for months but just was particularly 15 chaotic in and around that meeting, and ultimately led to 16 Colonel North's departure as president of the organization.

17 Q Were you --

18 Mr. Cox, I'd just ask: If you can pull that microphone
19 a little closer to you, that would be great. Thank you.

20 (The witness did so.)

21 Q Thank you.

22 Can you scribble the conversation you had with Wayne
23 LaPierre at the annual meeting regarding the concerns that were 24 being raised?

25 A Wayne and I had -- had multiple conversations at the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 annual meeting. I had not seen Wayne or met with Wayne since
2 the allegations became public of the Ackerman McQueen credit
3 card, the quarter of a million dollars in suits. We had not had
4 an opportunity to sit down and have that discussion, both from a
5 boss-employee standpoint or as guys who had worked together for 6 a really long period of time and had what I still felt like was 7 a -- a good core relationship.

8 And so, there was a conversation that we had; I believe
9 it was on Thursday, and then we met again in Wayne's room on 10 Sunday night, before the full board meeting, which was on 11 Monday.

1 Q And what was the nature of the conversation that
2 occurred on Sunday night before the full board meeting on
3 Monday?

4 A I heard rumors floating. Actually I heard direct 5 allegations that I was trying to take out Wayne. That I was
6 going to run against Wayne. That I was trying to kick out
7 Wayne. And it was -- I was so pissed off to be perfectly honest
8 with you. I was so tired of the nonsense. That's what it was.
9 It was nonsense. I told everyone who suggested that, that if
10 anyone puts my name up to be nominated to run against Wayne
11 LaPierre, I was going to immediately withdraw my name.

12 I never had any intention of running against Wayne
13 LaPierre. It was absurd. And I talked to Wayne about that. I
14 also talked to Wayne about the fact that his team, the Josh
15 Powells of the world and my belief Bill Brewer, because I was 16 supportive of Ollie in his desire to have an independent audit,
17 that they were coming after me. After all I had been through 18 for the organization for 25 years, after all my family had been 19 through, both personally and professionally, including a lot of 20 things that my wife got targeted with, it was totally over the 21 top and unnecessary, that I didn't deserve it. And that I would 22 rather just resign. I offered -- I had written a letter of 23 resignation multiple times. I offered to resign in Wayne's
24 presence to him the night before. And when I told him that 25 these guys are coming after me, he said, I swear to God, I will

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1315

1 never let that happen. I swear to God. Actually only time I
2 heard him swear to God. He said it twice.

3 So I had clearly an uncomfortable feeling about
4 powerful people retaliating against me. But Wayne encouraged me
5 to stay. Encouraged me not to resign. That he was going to
6 wrap up all of the things that were going on in New York in a
7 matter of months. He was done. He didn't want to continue.

8 So the next day -- Actually, so that's the answer.

9 Q So those discussions culminated on Sunday night, the 10 night before the annual meeting on Monday?

11 A Correct.

12 Q Mr. Cox, during the course of the annual meeting in 13 Indianapolis, were you part of any coup attempt?

14 A No.

15 Q Did you hear that term used during the annual meeting?

16 A I heard the term used after -- after my departure, but 17 I heard -- I most likely heard some reference. I don't know if 18 it was the word coup or extortion or some other phrase. Yes, I
19 was familiar with the allegation during that meeting.

20 Q Were there conversations going on at the annual meeting
21 with regard to Wayne LaPierre and his relationship with Ackerman
22 to your knowledge?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Strike that. Let me ask that more specifically. Were 25 you aware of any conversations between Ms. Hallow and Colonel

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1316

1 North regarding Ackerman McQueen at the annual meeting?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And what was the nature of those conversations?

4 A I received a text from a board member, former
5 congressman of Oklahoma, Dan Boren on Wednesday during a
6 legislative affairs committee meeting. He asked if I could call
7 him. Said he needed to speak. I assume he wanted me to tell me
8 he couldn't make it to the meeting because he wasn't there. So,
9 I finished my committee responsibilities, went to my room. I
10 called Congressman Boren back. And he relayed on a message to 11 me of concern with regards to the allegations against Wayne.
12 The -- Specifically the recent allegations that had come out
13 with regards to the $250,000 of suits, the Ackerman credit card,
14 the billing, all of those sorts of things. He relayed on to me
15 because he did work for Ackerman McQueen for his other
16 professional life, representing one of the Indian tribes. So,
17 he knew the Ackerman McQueen people outside of NRA. And he 18 said, Look, you know, this is a mess. I view -- I view Dan as 19 just passing along, trying to be a good guy and help. He shared
20 with me that Ackerman McQueen intended to come after Wayne.
21 That there was more. That they were ready to file a lawsuit.
22 That this was going to be bad. And as long as these guys have 23 worked together, can't they -- can't they figure this out.

24 And I asked Dan Boren to do two things. I said
25 Wayne -- I said Dan, you're a board member. You need to call

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1317

1 Ollie North. He's the president of the board. You need to call
2 Wayne LaPierre, because you've mentioned his name. I gave him
3 Ollie North's cell phone number. I had a practice of not
4 sharing Wayne's cell phone number out of privacy. So, I gave 5 him Millie Hallow's number and told him to call Wayne and to 6 call Ollie North. And I was -- My concern was this was two days
7 before the biggest day of my year, the biggest day of the NRA's
8 year. A day when tens of thousands of NRA members were going to 9 gather and celebrate an event that I organized and hosted and 10 put on. And I was worried that all of this stuff had come out
11 just days before, and if another round of this type of 12 information dropped, that we risk losing having the president of 13 the United States and vice president of the United States come
14 to our event. I thought they would cancel. And I was, I think 15 it was safe to describe, frantic not to -- not to let that 16 happen.

17 Q Okay. You mentioned Millie Hallow just now, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Do you have -- Do you consider Ms. Hallow reliable?

20 A Ms. Hallow is -- was always -- I don't know what her
21 status is now. Ms. Hallow was always reliably loyal to Wayne
22 LaPierre.

23 Q Do you consider Ms. Hallow trustworthy?

24 A I do not.

25 Q Why not?

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1318

1 A After I left, I found out that Ms. Hallow had been in
2 her previous employment convicted of embezzling. Found out that
3 Ms. Hallow had taken money from The National Rifle Association
4 apparently to pay for her son's wedding. Everybody liked
5 Millie. But you can like somebody and also not trust them. So,
6 I liked Millie. I thought she was a fun, funny person, in fact,
7 lady. I thought she was a good balance for Wayne at times
8 because she was outgoing when he was not. But I liked her but 9 did not trust her. That's not -- I know that's different, but 10 that's the way I felt about it.

11 Q Before you left and learned that information, did you
12 have any reason to not trust Ms. Hallow?

13 A I believe that Ms. Hallow shared information with Wayne
14 and information with others with the goal of 100 percent and 15 always protecting Wayne. That was almost her reason of 16 existence was to be there to protect Wayne and to handle Wayne
17 and to look out for Wayne both personally and professionally.

18 Q Mr. Cox, as the executive director of ILA, are you
19 elected, in 2019, would you be elected or appointed to that 20 position?

21 A I was -- I was reappointed to that position on the 22 Monday of the full board meeting.

23 Q And who made the decision to reappoint you?

24 A Wayne LaPierre.

25 Q So as of Monday, that Monday of the meeting in 2019 you

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1319

1 were reappointed to your position, correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q Okay. You no longer work for the NRA, correct?

4 A Correct.

5 Q How did that come about?

6 A It was a combination of things. I'd almost resigned a
7 year before. I actually incorporated my new business in 2018.
8 Didn't depart until 2019. I was -- I was tired. I was tired of 9 the chaos. As I mentioned before, I was tired of incompetent
10 people being paid too much money. I was tired of the in 11 fighting. I was tired of just the overall chaos. I was tired
12 of what my family had been going through. And I made the 13 decision and talked to Wayne about stepping down. Maybe helping 14 him from the outside, but no longer being executive director of 15 ILA. That was in 2018. Obviously Wayne convinced me to stay.
16 Ollie North and others encouraged me to stay, so I did.

17 In 2019, a few days before the annual meeting in 18 Indianapolis, when the reports came out of Wayne's spending on 19 suits and the rest of it, I was floored. I was beyond
20 disappointed. I was disgusted. I sat up and wrote a letter of 21 resignation that morning before I even went to Indianapolis.
22 Gave it to Ollie North. He said, I'm not doing anything with 23 this. Like calm down. Please don't do this.

24 Eventually, shortly after the annual meeting, when it
25 was clear that the people on Wayne's team who viewed me as an

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1320

1 ally of Ollie North and even worst to view me as a potential
2 replacement for Wayne LaPierre, should he decide to step down
3 voluntarily or otherwise, and they viewed me as a threat because 4 they were smart enough to know that had I taken over that 5 organization, the days of overpaying incompetent people were 6 going to end. The days of milking the organization with 7 exorbitant contracts with PR firms and law firms would end. And
8 so I viewed myself as a marked man, but I never imagined that I
9 would be put through what I was put through just a short number
10 of months later.

11 Q So, let's talk about what you were put through. Did
12 there come a time that you learned that you would be suspended?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And can you tell the jury how you learned about this.

15 A I was on a work trip in California. I received a call
16 at about 5 o'clock in the morning California time, because of 17 the time difference between California and Washington, D.C., 18 from the director of NRA ILA's public affairs division who
19 handled the incoming media. There was an incoming call from a
20 New York Times reporter who wanted a comment from me about being 21 named as an errant fiduciary in a lawsuit that had nothing to do
22 with me, that had to do with Ollie North's reimbursement for 23 legal expenses or something with regards to Ollie North. And I
24 had no -- I was like, What are you talking about. I had no I'd 25 where this was coming from. I figured out pretty quickly where

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1321

1 it was coming from.

2 So, I tried to call Wayne. He never called me back.
3 Still to this day has not called me back. Tried to call Susan
4 LaPierre. She didn't call me back. Tried to call his house.
5 He wouldn't answer. Called Millie Hallow. Said she didn't know
6 anything about it and cried. Whether that was crocodile tears
7 or not, I have no idea. But I was desperate to talk to my boss
8 to find out what was going on. And before that happened -- So,
9 that's what was going on. So, I found out about --

10 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, sorry to interrupt the 11 witness, but this is a very long narrative response. If we 12 could have the direct a little more tailored so we could 13 object. A lot of hearsay is coming in, and I'm not having 14 the opportunity to object.

15 THE COURT: Well --

16 MR. CORRELL: The references to people telling him
17 things, we don't know who the people are. We don't know 18 what his personal knowledge is.

19 THE COURT: Well, that's a fair point. There has 20 been some of that going on. So, maybe we can take it in 21 pieces.

22 MS. CONNELL: Sure.

23 THE COURT: And we can deal with it as it comes up.

24 MS. CONNELL: Absolutely, your Honor. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Again just for the witness' benefit,

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1322

1 we're focused mainly on things you saw, you heard and you
2 did, you observed.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

4 Q So, Mr. Cox, once you received that call from the
5 reporter and you tried to reach out to the NRA, to the people
6 you just identified and were unsuccessful, what happened next?

7 A I received a call.

8 Q Actually that's a broad question. Let me tailor that.
9 Did you hear officially from the NRA about any suspension?

10 A The first thing I heard was from my chief of staff, the 11 ILA chief of staff, long term, multi decade employee, Scott
12 Christman, who served as chief of staff for ILA. He called and 13 said he had just been escorted out of the building by armed
14 security. So I was -- I was floored. I told him how sorry I
15 was that that happened. How humiliating I'm sure that was for 16 somebody who didn't deserve to be escorted out of a building by 17 armed security. Certainly no threat to anyone.

18 So, I was not surprised when I got a call just a few
19 hours later from John Frazer along with Linda Crouch, who at the 20 time was head of human resources, I don't know if she's still 21 head of human resources, notifying me I was being put on paid
22 administrative leave.

23 Q So, how long was your conversation with Mr. Frazer and 24 Ms. Crouch?

25 A Not long. Two or three minutes as I recall.

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1323

1 Q And to go back to Mr. Christman. Do you know of any --
2 at that time did you know of any wrongdoing by Mr. Christman
3 that would justify him being walked out?

4 A No.

5 Q Mr. Cox, I would like to direct your attention to tab
6 three of your binder.

7 MS. CONNELL: Counsel, this is PX 5071. I believe
8 your Honor already determined that this would be admissible.

9 THE COURT: I did.

10 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

11 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

12 THE COURT: PX 5071 is admitted.

13 Q Mr. Cox, did -- do you recognize this document?

14 A (Examining). I do.

15 Q And what is it?

16 A It's an e-mail to my personal e-mail account because my 17 business e-mail account had been shut off.

18 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry, your Honor. We'll redact
19 that. I didn't realize that. We'll have it redacted in the 20 admitted version.

21 A Thank you. It's an e-mail from me to John Frazer with 22 Linda Crouch c.c.'d, I guess, putting in writing what they had 23 explained to me by phone.

24 Q Okay. And this message or this e-mail includes a
25 message from Mr. LaPierre, correct?

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1324

1 A Correct.

2 Q Mr. LaPierre didn't send you a separate e-mail, right?

3 A I'm sorry?

4 Q Mr. LaPierre didn't send you a separate e-mail, right?

5 A If he did, it went to my work e-mail that had been shut
6 off. I never received an e-mail from Wayne that I recall.

7 Q While you worked at the NRA did Mr. LaPierre have a
8 habit of sending his own e-mails?

9 A No.

10 Q Okay. And to your knowledge was he a big user of 11 e-mails or text messages?

12 A No.

13 Q Okay. So, Mr. LaPierre informs you that the NRA had 14 filed the attached action in New York State Court, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And that he was making a determination to immediately
17 suspend your services, right?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And attached to this is the complaint from the New York
20 State lawsuit he references, correct?

21 A I believe that's correct. Yes. Yes.

22 Q And did you review this complaint when you received it?

23 A I might have skimmed it. I was not in the state of 24 mind to understand why this was happening to me. What was going
25 on. And particularly in a case against Ollie North that had

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1325

1 nothing whatsoever to do with me.

2 Q I would like to draw your attention to paragraph 48 of
3 this complaint. It's -- it's at, if you use the PX numbers, I
4 believe it's page 15. Do you see this paragraph, sir?

5 A (Examining). I do.

6 Q The last sentence of this paragraph refers to you as an
7 errant NRA fiduciary, correct?

8 A Correct. That's what the New York Times reporter
9 called and asked me to comment on.

10 Q And it's -- it says that you participated in an 11 Ackerman, North, Boren conspiracy, right?

12 A That's what it says.

13 Q Did you ever participate in any conspiracy with Colonel
14 North, Mr. Boren or Ackerman McQueen?

15 A No. And it's an absurd suggestion.

16 Q Why is it absurd?

17 A Because no one fought with Ackerman McQueen more than I
18 did over a long period of time. I never had a discussion with 19 Ackerman McQueen, never would have had a discussion with 20 Ackerman McQueen about some attempt to -- for criminal
21 conspiracy or whatever the -- the terms that were used. I knew
22 that Ollie North was fighting with Bill Brewer. I knew that 23 Wayne was fighting with Ollie North. I knew that was becoming 24 more and more tense and more and more of a problem. Dan Boren I
25 viewed was passing along information, and I was just the

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1326

1 unfortunate person that got stuck with telling him to pass that
2 information along to Wayne LaPierre and Ollie North.

3 Q This paragraph, this sentence, this highlights refers
4 to some text messages. Do you see that?

5 A (Examining). Yes.

6 Q Can you please turn in this same document to page -- it
7 would be page 23 using the PX numbers at the bottom. You can
8 also look on the screen.

9 MS. CONNELL: I apologize, your Honor. The text
10 messages are somewhat hard to read. This is the copy we 11 got. I don't have a cleaner copy. So we'll have to muddle
12 through.

13 Q Mr. Cox, do you recognize this document?

14 A (Examining). I do.

15 Q What is it?

16 A It's a text exchange between Congressman Dan Boren and 17 myself.

18 Q And are the bubbles on the right that are darker, am I
19 correct in understanding those are from Congressman Boren?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And the ones on the left, a little lighter are from
22 you?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q This text exchange occurred on Wednesday, April 24th?

25 A During the legislative affairs committee meeting in

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1327

1 Indianapolis, correct.

2 Q Okay. And does this -- So am I correct in
3 understanding that Congressman Borne was saying he needs to 4 speak to you, correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q And you subsequently spoke to Congressman Borne?

7 A Correct.

8 Q And was the conversation that you had with him along
9 the lines of what you already testified to?

10 A Yes. It was a nonconfrontational, very -- Dan Boren is 11 a nice guy. He's not a confrontational guy. I felt like he was 12 trying to pass on information that he was concerned about and 13 thought needed to be addressed. So, I did what I thought was 14 the right thing for me to do, which was I told him, As a board
15 member you needed to call Ollie North. He's president of the 16 board. Since Wayne's name has been mentioned, you need to call
17 Wayne.

18 Q Okay. If you can turn to the next page, to page 24.
19 Is this the continuation or a part of the same text string to 20 your knowledge?

21 A (Examining). Yes. It appears to be the same -- the 22 same day.

23 Q Okay. Again, were you able to have lengthy
24 conversations with Congressman Boren?

25 A I had a couple of lengthy conversations. One lengthy

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1328

1 conversation, one short conversation with Congressman Borne.

2 Q Did you at any point discuss trying to extort Wayne
3 LaPierre during those conversations?

4 A Never. No.

5 Q Okay. If you look further down on this text stream, it
6 seems to say Ollie calling you.

7 A Yes.

8 Q Then it references Millie. I assume that's Millie
9 Hallow?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. Can you explain why you typed, "Millie didn't 12 give any details. Just the ultimatum. Not trustworthy"?

13 A Yes. I reached out to Ollie to let him know he was 14 going to be getting a call from Dan Boren. Obviously I was 15 extremely troubled and concerned by the conversation. What Dan
16 Boren had told me was can't this like be resolved. Can't 17 they -- You know, they worked together forever. If they did 18 something wrong, shouldn't these guys figure it out. That was 19 not my role. I was not involved in any of the litigation
20 aspects with Ackerman McQueen. My understanding of that 21 litigation was it was a request for documents. I saw no
22 problems with requesting documents if they were suppose to be
23 handed over. But none of that, what Ollie -- I told, given 24 Ollie a heads up. Apparently when I said just the ultimatum was 25 that they are going to drop a lawsuit hammering Wayne. That's

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1329

1 what, basically what Dan Boren had told me. That's what I was
2 concerned about. I didn't know what, if anything, Ackerman
3 McQueen had. I never had a discussion with Ackerman McQueen.
4 Still have not had a discussion with Ackerman McQueen about any
5 of this. I didn't know, but it was enough to concern me to the 6 point where yes, I wanted to talk to Wayne about it, Ollie about
7 it. I wanted to make sure that this did not cause a major
8 problem for the members of the organization two days before the 9 biggest event, where the members get together to celebrate.

10 Q When you say "ultimatum", just to be clear, what 11 ultimatum are you talking about?

12 A That Ackerman McQueen was ready to provide or was ready
13 to drop a lawsuit or somehow slander Wayne if they didn't start
14 having conversations and start -- basically work this out is 15 what -- is how Dan described it.

16 Q At the time all of this was occurring Oliver North was 17 an employee of Ackerman McQueen, right?

18 A I don't know the exact time that Ollie -- Oliver North
19 became an employee of Ackerman McQueen. Quite possibly. I
20 never saw the details of that engagement or the timeline, the 21 dates, the date of him officially starting to work or not 22 starting to work.

23 Q Did you have any concerns that Lieutenant Colonel North
24 might be conflicted in any issues he was raising to Wayne
25 LaPierre?

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1330

1 A I believe that Ollie North was doing his fiduciary duty
2 to try to get an independent audit. I encouraged Wayne to do
3 the same thing. Just have an independent auditor. You're
4 getting accused of all of this stuff. You're getting hammered
5 over it. Just have somebody else come in from the outside and 6 take a look at these bills and make sure they are all legit. If 7 they are legit, great. Move on.

8 I didn't want it to all blow up at the annual meeting.
9 I was just trying to protect and focus on my job, which was to 10 -- to run a very significant piece of that -- that members
11 meeting.

12 Q You -- I want to move on. You note here "not 13 trustworthy". What are you talking about, if you recall?

14 A As I -- as I testified earlier, Millie Hallow is very 15 likeable, very loyal to Wayne, at least she was at the time, but 16 not trustworthy with regards to having this conversation. I had 17 hoped that Wayne would call Dan Boren. I hoped that Ollie and 18 Wayne both would call Dan Boren. I didn't want to be in the 19 middle of their fight. It was not my fight. My fight was to 20 try to do my job and protect the organization and make sure the 21 members of the organization and the donors to the organization
22 were not adversely impacted by another round of horrible stories
23 coming out about Wayne LaPierre.

24 Q Okay. So, Mr. Cox, you received this notice of 25 suspension on June 20th, 2019, right? If we can turn back to

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1331

1 page 1, you can see that.

2 A (Examining). That's correct.

3 Q Were any other members of your team within ILA subject
4 to any type of suspension or disciplinary action?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Can you describe that?

7 A I mentioned Scott Christman, the chief of staff for ILA
8 being escorted out of the building by security, the head of 9 ILA's public affairs division that handled the media
10 interactions and the media calls. Her name was Jennifer Baker.
11 Jennifer was a pro, really good at her job. Had a lot of 12 background, a lot of experience working in politics, campaigns.
13 Did a great job. She was in Tennessee dealing with a sick
14 mother and was asked to fly back to Fairfax for a meeting. When 15 she flew back for the meeting, she was escorted out of the 16 building by security.

17 Q Do you have an understanding as to why this was done?

18 A I have no idea other than pure vindictive retaliation
19 against people who were associated with me, because I had been
20 labeled a disloyal person for supporting Ollie North's efforts
21 to do his fiduciary duty and to put the goals and objectives of 22 The National Rifle Association members over the goals and 23 objectives of Wayne LaPierre.

24 Q When you learned you had been suspended, what did you
25 do?

LAS

Direct-Cox-Connell

1332

1 A I was -- I was devastated. Called my wife. I called
2 my mother and father because I knew that it would be -- it was
3 already out. They had leaked it to The New York Times. I knew
4 it would get picked up in the media. I had no opportunity to 5 talk to my staff. They cut off my e-mail access. They cut my 6 access to my calendar. So I was -- I was -- I was not
7 surprised, because I had gotten a call from Scott Christman
8 saying he had been escorted out with armed security. I was 9 angry and heartbroken at the same time.

10 Q Did you resign?

11 A Shortly after I resigned, yes.

12 Q Why did you resign?

13 A It became clear to me that this was a fraud. That 14 there was no -- there was no effort to have a conversation with 15 me. There was no effort to ask me any questions. There was no
16 effort to go through any of this in a meaningful way. It came 17 to my attention that they were already interviewing some -- that 18 board members had been inquiring about replacing me and taking 19 that -- that job. That other staff members were already being 20 talked to about replacing me. And so rather than sit around and 21 wait, I made the decision to just be done with it and resign.

22 Q Actually, Mr. Cox, I would like to take a step back.
23 Mr. Frazer is the one that sent you the e-mail with the formal
24 notice of your suspension, correct?

25 A Yes.

LAS

1 Q You had known John Frazer for some years?

2 A Yes. Probably at least actually 25 years since I
3 started at The National Rifle Association. Thirty years now,
4 but 25 years at the time.

1 Q Mr. Frazer worked a number of years for ILA; is that
2 correct?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And can you describe his work history with ILA?

5 A My understanding -- when I started as a Federal Liaison
6 on Capitol Hill for the National Rifle Association in 1995, I
7 believed John was working for the previous -- one of the 8 previous -- executive directors, named Tanya Metaxa, as some 9 sort of aide or assistant. At some point he served, for a brief
10 amount of time, as a federal lobbyist in the Federal Affairs
11 Division and then, ultimately, he went to -- he went to Fairfax
12 as a -- in the -- I believe -- in the Research and Information
13 Division.

14 When I took over, I promoted John to Director of 15 Research and Information. I -- he had said that he wanted to go
16 to law school. We had a policy in place at the NRA for 17 continuing education where a certain amount of your 18 post-graduate schooling could be reimbursed by the NRA. He said
19 that's what he wanted to do, I encouraged him to do it, and he 20 went on to get a law degree, left shortly thereafter and 21 practiced law on the outside, I understand, for a short amount
22 of time.

23 Q While he was with ILA, did Mr. Frazer serve in any 24 capacity as, like, a general counsel within ILA?

25 A No.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1335

1 Q Okay. Do you have an opinion as to Mr. Frazer's
2 qualifications to be hired as general counsel for the NRA?

3 A I know that John went to law school. I know that John
4 practiced law on the outside, I assume, handling Second
5 Amendment cases, for a couple of years. Do I think that John
6 had any knowledge or expertise in New York not-for-profit laws,
7 any sort of regulatory issues? No. I like John, didn't think
8 he was a bad guy, but, no, I didn't think John was qualified
9 to -- to run the legal operations for a large organization like
10 NRA.

11 Q Mr. Cox, you commenced an arbitration proceeding
12 against the NRA; is that accurate?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q And why did you commence that arbitration proceeding?

15 A I had a post-employment severance agreement with the 16 National Rifle Association. When I left in -- I think my 17 effective date was in July, the first payment, I believe, was 18 either in August or September. It was a severance to be paid
19 out monthly, over a 24-month period. They paid me the first 20 month they owed me and then cut off my payments after one
21 payment of 24, said that it was pending an ongoing investigation
22 into -- I don't know what, because they never asked me any of 23 these questions and -- or -- ongoing investigation into the 24 supposed coup narrative.

25 So I sued in arbitration for -- for payments of the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1336

1 contractual obligation they had for my severance.

2 Q And the NRA asserted counterclaims against you;
3 correct?

4 A Correct.

5 Q Mr. Cox, can you please take a look at tab 4, which is
6 PX 155?

7 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I think you already ruled
8 on the admissibility of this document.

9 THE COURT: I did. It's admitted.

10 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

11 Q And, Mr. Cox, it's being brought up on the screen.

12 (Image displayed.)

13 Q Are these the amended counterclaims that the NRA
14 brought against you in that arbitration proceeding?

15 A There were two counterclaims that were made. The first
16 counterclaim -- and I -- I'm assuming that's what this 17 (indicating) one was -- was the coup allegation.

18 Q Well, Mr. Cox, I'm going to interrupt you for a second.
19 I'm sorry to interrupt you. I'm just looking to see whether 20 these (indicating) are the amended counterclaims --

21 A Oh, I apologize.

22 Q -- if that looks familiar to you.

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. And these were part of the arbitration
25 proceeding with the NRA; correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Direct/Connell

1337

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Okay. Ultimately, this arbitration was settled; is
3 that right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And that settlement resulted in the NRA paying you some 6 money; correct?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Mr. Cox --

9 MS. CONNELL: Could I just have one moment, your 10 Honor -- I'd like to wrap it up -- and see if I'm missing
11 anything?

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 (Pause.)

14 Q Mr. Cox, do you -- even though you were let go by the 15 NRA, as I asked you, do you still support the NRA's mission?

16 A Yes.

17 MS. CONNELL: Thank you very much, sir.

18 THE COURT: Cross-examination?

19 We would normally take a break in about a half --
20 15 or 20 minutes. Do you want to go 15 or 20 minutes and 21 then take a break?

22 MS. ROGERS: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MS. ROGERS: Can everyone hear me?

25 (Multiple jurors nodded.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1338

1 MS. ROGERS: Okay.

2 CROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MS. ROGERS:

4 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Cox. I'm Sarah Rogers. I'm one of 5 the lawyers for the NRA. I think we've met a couple of times.

6 You testified that the tension between Colonel North,
7 on the one hand, and Wayne LaPierre, on the other, came to a
8 head at the 2019 Indianapolis annual meeting; right?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And during that annual meeting, you addressed the full
11 board in an executive session; right?

12 A Can you repeat the question?

13 Q You addressed the full board of directors in an 14 executive session, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And when you addressed the board, you said that you
17 supported Ollie and you supported Wayne; right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q You didn't raise concerns about Wayne hiring, promoting 20 and paying incompetent people; right?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q You didn't raise concerns about legal spends, right?

23 A Not at that meeting, no.

24 Q And, in fact, as the NRA's head lobbyist, as Executive 25 Director of ILA, you had addressed the full board dozens or

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1339

1 hundreds of times; right?

2 A Correct.

3 Q During any of those meetings, did you ever raise any of
4 the concerns about NRA finances or governance that you testified
5 to with the attorney general a moment ago?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Describe those instances.

8 A At -- at the meeting that you mentioned, the 9 behind-closed-doors meeting, the full board meeting on Monday,
10 after Wayne reappointed me and I gave my speech, I spoke in 11 great detail about Ollie North having -- having been a
12 principled man and a good man, and that this idea that Ollie
13 North is trying to cause a problem -- that no one has done more
14 to support Wayne in his -- in his career than I had and that 15 I -- that I cared about both of 'em. So, yes, I -- I did
16 express concerns about how --

17 And what I said, Ms. Rogers, was that our members
18 deserved better, that we needed to get our act together, and 19 that this was the type of thing that would tear organizations
20 apart. That's what I said in that -- in that closed-door
21 meeting to the full board of directors, and I got a standing
22 ovation after I said it.

23 Q And you also expressed support for Wayne LaPierre,
24 right?

25 A I don't remember -- I remember praising Wayne and I

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1340

1 remember praising Ollie. I don't remember the exact words I
2 used to -- to praise Wayne other than this was -- enough was 3 enough; we needed to stop this infighting and get back to the
4 work of the members of the National Rifle Association's mission,
5 because that's what they deserved.

6 Q And after that, Mr. LaPierre reappointed you; right?

7 A Wayne usually appointed me -- I don't know if Wayne
8 appointed me before or after.

9 Q At the same board meeting.

10 A At the same -- yes, the same -- the same day, the same
11 meeting.

12 Q Right. So, even --

13 And those tensions started coming to a head in the days
14 preceding that big board meeting, right?

15 A Oh. Well, it blew up. Ollie North was out as 16 president of the organization; so, at that board meeting where I
17 addressed that board, Ollie North was not there. It -- the 18 presidency was unfilled and he was -- he was out; he had not 19 been renominated.

20 So, yes, this was -- he was not in attendance when I
21 praised him, but I meant what I said.

22 Q Right.

23 Now, apart from praising Colonel North at that board
24 meeting, you did not raise concerns about the NRA purportedly
25 borrowing money from ILA when you addressed the board; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1341

1 A No. That was all covered in the Finance Committee.

2 Q Right. And you did not raise concerns that you thought
3 you were a marked man?

4 A I raised those concerns directly with Wayne LaPierre
5 and with other -- and with other board members.

6 Q Which board members?

7 A Richard Childress, who was second vice president -- or
8 first vice president -- and Ollie North.

9 Q What about in any of the prior instances where you
10 addressed the board as Executive Director of ILA; did you raise
11 any of those concerns?

12 A No.

13 Q Let's talk about the composition of the board:
14 Anyone can run for the board, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q You can run by petition, right?

17 A You can.

18 Q And the nominating committee, which selects directors
19 for a suggested slate, is not appointed by Wayne LaPierre;
20 right?

21 A Not officially, no.

22 Q The nominating committee is elected, by secret ballot,
23 by all 76 board members; right?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And the bylaws of the NRA actually contain mechanisms

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1342

1 to prevent the nominating committee from consisting only of
2 insiders, right?

3 A I'm not aware of a policy that would prevent the board
4 from having a nominating committee that only consisted of -- I
5 guess, it depends on what --

6 What's your definition of "insider"; Wayne's people?

7 Q Sure.

8 So how many members of the nominating committee are
9 there?

10 A I don't know.

11 Q Nine, right?

12 A I -- I accept that it's nine.

13 Q If I were to represent to you that the NRA bylaws
14 provide for a nominating committee of nine members elected by 15 secret ballots and that only six of those members are allowed to 16 be directors or executive council members, would that sound 17 right to you?

18 A I would not be surprised if that's what it said.
19 Whether or not that's what was -- the reality is a different --
20 is a different question.

21 Q Now, I've heard you draw a distinction, a few times,
22 between Wayne having official power and between what the bylaws
23 say and what actually goes on at the NRA. Is it fair to say,
24 that's what you're driving at; that there's a distinction there?

25 A No.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1343

1 Q Okay. So, when you say that Wayne didn't officially
2 control the nominating committee, do you think he unofficially
3 controlled it?

4 A Yes.

5 Q How?

6 A Wayne and his allies on the board, with the help of 7 Millie Hallow and others, were very active in who they told
8 other board members to support or not support.

9 Q But you never saw Mr. LaPierre attend a meeting of the 10 nominating committee, right?

11 A I did not. I did not go to nominating committee
12 meetings. I don't believe I ever attended a nominating
13 committee meeting.

14 Q And Mr. LaPierre was never on the nominating committee,
15 right?

16 A I don't believe, as EVP, Wayne would be allowed to 17 serve on --

18 Q Right.

19 A -- officially -- on the nominating committee.

20 Q And he had no power under the bylaws to appoint the 21 nominating committee, right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q Would it be fair to say that Mr. LaPierre had no
24 official mechanism to control any of this but that board members
25 cared about his opinion because they respected his stature in

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1344

1 this movement?

2 A That's one way to say it, yes.

3 Q And you respected his stature in this movement, too;
4 right?

5 A I -- can you repeat the question?

6 Q You respected Mr. LaPierre's stature in the gun-rights
7 movement, right?

8 A I respected Wayne's stature in the gun-rights movement
9 to an extent, yes.

10 Q Right. And you cared what he thought about things like
11 who -- like -- about issues such as who should be on the board,
12 right?

13 A No.

14 Q Do you think other board members cared what he thought?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Do you think that Mr. LaPierre --

17 MS. ROGERS: Well, strike that.

18 Q You testified that you never saw Mr. LaPierre oppose a 19 candidate for the board on the ground that that person was 20 disloyal, right?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q But you did see him support candidates for the board
23 who you might think of as dissidents, right?

24 A I didn't go to a nominating committee meeting; I wasn't
25 in the meetings where Wayne and his team sat down and discussed

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1345

1 who their preferred candidates were. I focused on doing my job,
2 doing my job effectively, so I had no idea if Wayne picked the 3 winners and losers directly working with board members, or not.
4 So I was not in the room when they had their conversations about
5 the nominating committee. Others were but I was not.

6 Q Did you ever have an understanding as to whether
7 Mr. LaPierre supported the candidacy of Bob Brown?

8 A I don't know if Colonel Brown was nominated by the 9 nominating committee, or not. I -- honestly, I just don't -- I
10 don't remember.

11 MS. ROGERS: Let's put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 723.

12 THE COURT: Is that in evidence already?

13 MS. ROGERS: It is -- I'm not sure it's in 14 evidence, but it is in Mr. Cox's binder behind tab 5.

15 THE COURT: Any objection from the State, since
16 it's ...

17 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry; which tab was it?

18 MS. ROGERS: I thought it was 5, but these things
19 get shuffled around. It's PX 723.

20 MS. CONNELL: No objection.

21 THE COURT: It's admitted.

22 (Image displayed.)

23 Q Mr. Cox, does this refresh your recollection as to 24 whether you or -- it looks like -- Jim Baker were surprised to 25 see Bob Brown on the nominating committee slate?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1346

1 A I do recognize this e-mail.

2 Q It's fair to say that Bob Brown is a vigorous critic of 3 some of the NRA leadership, right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q What about Phil Journey? Were you made aware of 6 whether Mr. LaPierre supported the candidacy of Phil Journey?

7 A I remember Phil Journey being on the board back before
8 I was a board officer. I don't remember the years that he
9 served. When he served more recently, those -- those were not 10 when I was employed by the National Rifle Association.

11 Q Now, you haven't been employed by the National Rifle
12 Association since the summer of 2019; right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q So you have no current personal knowledge about whether 15 or how much the NRA pays Marion Hammer, right?

16 A I do not.

17 Q You have no current personal knowledge about the NRA's
18 legal spending, right?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q You have no personal knowledge as to whether -- what
21 percentage of -- the NRA's legal spending, which you criticized,
22 has in fact been reimbursed by insurers; right?

23 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor, based on 24 previous motions filed before this Court regarding the 25 currency of information provided by the NRA to the plaintiff

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1347

1 in discovery.

2 MS. ROGERS: Well, I'll rephrase that question.

3 Q You have no knowledge -- not just sitting here today,
4 but you have no personal knowledge since 2019 -- of the extent
5 to which those legal fees were reimbursed; right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And you have no personal knowledge, since 2019, of the 8 NRA's investigation into, or firing of, Josh Powell; right?

9 A Only what I've read in -- in reports.

10 Q But not personal knowledge.

11 A No.

12 Q And you have no personal knowledge, since 2019, of the 13 NRA's relationship with Ackerman after the NRA stopped paying 14 Ackerman McQueen and sued Ackerman McQueen in 2019; right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And you have no personal knowledge of any changes that 17 have been made in ILA, including its finances, since you left;
18 right?

19 A No personal knowledge, no.

20 Q You testified that Mr. LaPierre's expenses were run
21 through ILA and that concerned you, right?

22 A That's what I testified to; that it --

23 Q Right.

24 A -- that was the pol -- the procedure was that Wayne
25 submitted some -- I'm not sure how much but some -- of his

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1348

1 expenses through ILA. That's correct.

2 Q And I think you testified that you didn't understand
3 why his expenses would be processed through ILA; is that fair?

4 A That's fair.

5 Q Were you --

6 But you understood, though, that Mr. LaPierre worked in 7 ILA for many years before he moved to the sixth floor; right?

8 A Wayne was Executive Director of ILA prior to his
9 service as EVP, so, yes, I was well aware of Wayne's background.

10 Q And did you have an understanding of whether 11 Mr. LaPierre's expenses, in fact, continued to be processed in 12 the same way, by the same people, after he switched offices?

13 A I have no idea why Wayne's expenses were sent through a
14 different division.

15 Q You testified --

16 MS. CONNELL: Strike that.

17 Q Would it be fair to summarize your testimony on Marion
18 Hammer as, Ms. Hammer is a legendary figure in gun rights but 19 she was paid far too much for too long?

20 A That's a partial -- a partial recap of way -- the way
21 -- I explained Marion Hammer, in my opinion.

22 Q Okay. And I think you testified that at some point you
23 said to Wayne, "Either I've got to stop paying Marion or you've 24 got to stop paying Marion"; right?

25 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1349

1 Q You never stopped paying Marion, right?

2 A ILA did not stop paying Marion.

3 Q And you were Executive Director of ILA?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And you could choose who ILA would pay?

6 A Absolutely not; not when it came to Marion Hammer.

7 Marion Hammer was Wayne's -- it was directed that
8 Marion Hammer was going to be involved. I did not have --
9 realistically, like, according to the bylaws, could I have fired
10 her? Yes. Would -- would that have been accepted by Wayne or 11 others? Absolutely not.

12 So, in theory, in writing, I had that authority. In 13 reality, Marion was a board member, was Wayne's -- was Wayne's
14 ally and the idea that I was going to fire Wayne's ally, who was 15 a board member, was neither practical nor realistic.

16 Q Did you ever tell Mr. LaPierre that the NRA should fire
17 Marion?

18 A I told Wayne LaPierre that we -- that I wanted to move
19 in a different direction, from a lobbying standpoint, in 20 Florida, yes.

21 Q And --

22 A You can't fire somebody from the board. Obviously,
23 that's up to the members, as it should be, to vote for -- for 24 their representation on the board of directors. But, yes, I
25 expressed concern with Marion's professional performance and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1350

1 overall approach and attitude with Wayne on multiple occasions.

2 Q What did you think would happen to you if ILA stopped
3 paying Marion Hammer?

4 A What would happen to me?

5 Q Right.

6 I mean, because you admit that under the bylaws, you're
7 the head of ILA, you're in charge of its finances, you choose
8 whom the NRA's lobbying division pays.

9 So you admit that, formally, you could have stopped
10 paying Marion Hammer whenever you wanted but you implied to the 11 jury that, informally, you couldn't. So I'm asking, what do you
12 think would happen if you, as the NRA's top lobbyist, made a
13 decision that this lobbyist was no longer worth the amount of 14 money your division was paying?

15 A Sure.

16 I think one of two things would happen. According to 17 the bylaws, the Executive Director of ILA ran ILA under the 18 direction of the executive vice president, so Wayne would have 19 the authority and would have done one of two things: He would 20 have said, "Hire her back; you're not firing her" or he would 21 have paid for her himself. I have no doubt that those would 22 have been the two options that he would have chosen. And he may 23 very well have said, "You're not firing her; I'm directing you
24 to keep her." That's what my assumption would have been.

25 Q Now, according to the bylaws, you were supposed to run

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1351

1 ILA in accordance with the policies established by the board of
2 directors; right?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q Did you do that?

5 A Yes, to the best of my ability.

6 Q Did you ever raise a concern with the Audit Committee
7 that the NRA was paying Marion Hammer more than you thought she 8 was worth?

9 A I did not.

10 Q Did you ever raise that concern in any of the hundreds
11 of times you addressed the board at board meetings?

12 A She was a board member. It wouldn't have been very 13 well-received to get up and criticize a board member in front of 14 other board members that -- when you had concerns. I did what I
15 thought was the right approach, which was, I -- I raised those 16 concerns with my boss, with the head of the National Rifle
17 Association, the executive vice president, Wayne LaPierre.

18 Q Isn't it true that board members criticized each other
19 with some frequency?

20 A Yes.

21 Q So it wouldn't have been out of place to criticize one
22 of them, right?

23 A Yes, it would have been out of place.

24 Q But that happened often, right?

25 A It would -- it did not happen often, from a staff

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1352

1 person standing up at a board meeting and criticizing a board
2 member. I'm not sure that that ever happened in my 25 years at 3 the National Rifle Association.

4 Q Did you ever go to the officers --

5 MS. ROGERS: Strike that.

6 Q Josh Powell was an officer of the NRA, right?

7 A For a time.

8 Q There is a committee of the board that sets officer
9 compensation, right?

10 A Correct.

11 Q Did you ever go to any committee of the board and share
12 your view that Josh Powell was overpaid?

13 A I went to Wayne LaPierre and shared my view that Josh
14 Powell was overpaid, among other -- among other -- a long litany
15 of concerns I had about Josh Powell.

16 Q You testified earlier that it would be wrong to accept
17 something of value from a vendor, right?

18 A By and large, yes.

19 Q Did you accept anything of value from any vendors
20 during your time as head of ILA?

21 A I did my best to not accept things of value from 22 vendor -- from vendors, and when -- on the rare occasion when 23 that might happen, I donated money to ILA to cover anything that 24 might be perceived as -- as something of value. But I did -- to 25 the best of my ability, I did not accept things of value from

1 vendors.

2 Q What was Landini's?

3 A Landini Brothers is a restaurant in Alexandria,
4 Virginia.

5 Q Tony Makris had a tab there, right?

6 A Tony Makris was a frequent visitor there; Wayne was a
7 frequent visitor; I was a frequent visitor, at times. But, yes,
8 it's a restaurant in Alexandria, Virginia.

9 And my understanding was that there was a --

10 THE COURT: There is no other question pending.

11 THE WITNESS: Sorry.

12 Q Yeah, sorry.

13 You had a Landini's membership on Ackerman McQueen's
14 tab, right?

15 A Ackerman McQueen set up a number of different
16 memberships, including one in my name, that at some point I
17 switched out of Ackerman McQueen's name into ILA's name and had 18 the billing sent directly to ILA.

19 Q So, eventually, your tab at Landini's was not paid by 20 Ackerman; it was paid by ILA? That's your testimony?

21 A Correct.

22 Q Did you disclose that to the Audit Committee?

23 A No.

24 Q Under your leadership, did ILA give contracts to any of 25 your family members?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1354

1 A Did ILA give contracts --

2 Q Contracts to any of your family members.

3 A No.

4 Q What about Nick Reynolds?

5 A Nick Reynolds is my father-in-law and never did any
6 work for the National Rifle Association.

7 Q To your knowledge, ILA did not make any payments to 8 your father-in-law.

9 A No.

10 Q You testified that Wayne LaPierre had a role
11 negotiating Oliver North's employment with Ackerman McQueen?
12 That's your understanding?

13 A Correct.

14 Q To your understanding, did Charles Cotton have any role
15 in that?

16 A I don't know what the role of Charles Cotton was.

17 Q To your understanding, do you know of any role that 18 Herb Langford had negotiating that arrangement?

19 A I do not.

20 Q Do you know of any role that Curtis Jenkins had 21 negotiating that arrangement?

22 A I do not.

23 Q Do you know of any role that David Coy had negotiating
24 that arrangement?

25 A I do not.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1355

1 Q Do you know of any role that Bob Barr had negotiating
2 that arrangement?

3 A As I said, I was not involved in any of the 4 negotiations in and around Colonel North's contract with 5 Ackerman McQueen, any of the conversations that he had with 6 Wayne with regards to what his responsibilities would be.

7 Q But you testified, you have some personal knowledge,
8 some understanding, that Wayne was involved; right?

9 A I have direct knowledge that Wayne was involved,
10 directly from Wayne LaPierre, who told me he was doing it.

11 Q So you heard him say it.

12 A Repeatedly --

13 Q Right.

14 A -- more than one time.

15 Q But you have no knowledge, direct or hearsay, that any 16 member of the Audit Committee was involved in negotiating that;
17 right?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q And no knowledge of any kind that Sonya Rowling was 20 involved in negotiating that, right?

21 A None whatsoever.

22 Q And Craig Spray: You have no knowledge that would
23 suggest he was involved in, or knew anything about, a
24 million-dollar contract between President Oliver North and the 25 advertising agency Ackerman McQueen; right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Rogers

1356

1 A I assume so and I hope so. But it was not my role, as
2 Executive Director of ILA, to negotiate anything with Ackerman
3 McQueen, because I didn't work with Ackerman McQueen. But I
4 assumed that things were going through the proper channels and
5 it was going to be done the correct way.

6 Q Now, you testified that as the Indianapolis 2019 board
7 meeting approached and there was tension between Colonel North
8 and Wayne over legal fees, that you formed the view that Colonel
9 North was executing his fiduciary duty; right?

10 A Oh, I didn't form it then; I formed it long before
11 then.

12 Q But you testified also, a minute ago, that you didn't
13 know, at the time, that Colonel North was employed by Ackerman
14 McQueen?

15 A It didn't know what the status of Colonel North's --
16 that was -- that was part of what was floating around. That's 17 what was going on.

18 My understanding is that he was an employee of Ackerman
19 McQueen due to the need for healthcare benefits for his sick
20 wife. That was the depth of my understanding of his employment
21 status with Ackerman.

22 Q So you understood that he was receiving health benefits
23 through that contract, right?

24 A That was my understanding.

25 Q Did you have an understanding as to whether, in

1357

1 addition to health benefits, Colonel North was receiving seven
2 figures in cash per year from Ackerman McQueen?

3 A Yes.

4 THE COURT: Counsel, can we -- I --
5 We need to take a break.

6 MS. ROGERS: Yes, that's fine.

7 THE COURT: It's been a little more than an hour.

8 MS. ROGERS: This is a good spot.

9 THE COURT: Okay. We'll take a short break;
10 reconvene in, hopefully, five or ten minutes.

11 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

2 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

3 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

4 THE COURT: All right. Have a seat, please.

5 Ms. Rogers, you may continued.

6 Q Welcome back, Mr. Cox. Before you left I was asking
7 you about your view that Colonel North was, I think in your 8 words, performing his fiduciary duty by demanding scrutiny of 9 the legal fees incurred going after Ackerman McQueen, right?

10 A No.

11 MS. CONNELL: Objection.

12 Q What did I just say that was inaccurate?

13 A The concern that Colonel North relayed to others
14 including me was the expenditure of legal fees in general, not 15 just related to the Ackerman McQueen. It was how much money was 16 going out the door. The rumor was that it was $97,000 a day,
17 and how is that going to be sustainable. Again, I think the 18 fair point that Colonel North was trying to make and one that I
19 made to Wayne LaPierre was have an outside group come in. If 20 everything is fine, everything is fine. Clearly that did not 21 happen and that caused a major problem.

22 Q You said "clearly that did not happen". What do you
23 mean?

24 A Ollie North formed a special committee to look into the 25 billing practices after he was forced out as president. That

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1359

1 committee was shut down. Then my understanding is that based on
2 all the reports that I read and all the filings that I've said,
3 that the Brewer firm continues to represent The National Rifle
4 Association and the fees associated with that. It's not my
5 opinion whether or not they are valid, but are a lot of money
6 that I think Colonel North was trying, others, not just Colonel 7 North, was trying to see are we paying too much. I think it was 8 a fair question.

9 Q Do you have any understanding as to whether an 10 independent review of that outside counsel engagement was 11 performed?

12 A No.

13 Q Do you have any understanding as to whether two 14 independent reviews of that outside counsel engagement were 15 performed?

16 A No.

17 Q Do you have any understanding as to whether as part of 18 the NRA's insurance reimbursement process, a third-party law
19 firm deemed the fees reasonable and recommended they be paid?

20 A No.

21 Q You testified that you formed the view that Colonel
22 North was acting properly as a fiduciary. But did you know or 23 did you not know at the time that in addition to receiving 24 healthcare from Ackerman, he was receiving a million dollars in 25 cash give or take?

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1360

1 A I knew that Wayne had negotiated a -- a deal with Ollie
2 for him to step away from a high paying job at Fox News to
3 accept a lower paying job, but it's still a high paying job with 4 Ackerman McQueen. I didn't know what the exact amounts were.
5 It was my understanding that Colonel North reduced the amount
6 that was -- that the contract had been signed for. But I
7 don't -- Again, I never saw, you're correct, I never saw the 8 contract. Never negotiated the contract. My understanding was 9 Wayne was the one who -- who worked on that.

10 MR. ROGERS: Let's put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 476.

11 THE COURT: Is that already in evidence?

12 MS. ROGERS: I don't believe so.

13 THE COURT: So do you want to put it up?

14 MS. ROGERS: I would like to publish it to the 15 witness for now.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 A (Examining).

18 Q Mr. Cox, do you recognize this as an e-mail exchange
19 that you participated in?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Mary Corrigan and Scott Christman are both individuals
22 with whom you worked at the NRA, right?

23 A Mary Corrigan was Wayne LaPierre's chief of staff, and 24 Scott Christman worked with me, that's correct.

25 Q Did you agree with the assessment in this e-mail chain

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1361

1 that Ackerman --

2 THE COURT: Are you moving it into evidence?

3 MS. ROGERS: In that case I move to admit the 4 document in evidence.

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MS. CONNELL: No objection, your Honor.

7 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

8 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

9 THE COURT: It's admitted.

10 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, this is an e-mail from,
11 it looks like, 12 years ago maybe. If I can just take a
12 minute and read it.

13 Q Of course. It's short. You can read it.

14 THE COURT: Do you have a hard copy anyone?

15 MS. ROGERS: I believe so. A copy for the Judge
16 and a copy for the witness.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 A (Examining). Thank you.

19 Q Thank you, Mr. Cox. Did you share the assessment in 20 this e-mail chain with Ackerman McQueen were ass clowns who 21 wanted to control everything the NRA did?

22 A That was Scott Christman's words not mine.

23 Q Did you share that view?

24 A Did I share that view?

25 Q Yeah.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1362

1 A I had disagreements with Ackerman McQueen as I noted
2 earlier. I think Ackerman McQueen at times were very effective
3 in their messaging. And at times I wouldn't use the word ass
4 clown, but at times I thought they were politically tone deaf.
5 I thought they were out of touch and certainly not -- there is a
6 difference between pushing the envelope and being stupid. At 7 times I thought they were stupid. But that's not a word that I
8 would -- I would have used.

9 Q Did you agree with the assessment that Ackerman McQueen
10 wanted more control over the NRA than an advertising agency
11 should have?

12 A I believe Ackerman McQueen had, even back in 2012, when 13 this e-mail exchange was sent and continued until 2018, whenever 14 it was the relationship ended, that they had an unhealthy amount 15 of control over Wayne. Unhealthy amount of control over the
16 NRA.

17 MR. ROGERS: All right. Let's put up Plaintiff's
18 Exhibit 1011. And I don't believe this is in evidence yet.
19 I would like to show it to the witness. I only want to show
20 the witness pages 3 and 4, because there is a cover e-mail
21 that doesn't involve him but three and four do.

22 MS. CONNELL: What number was that?

23 MS. ROGERS: 1011.

24 MS. CONNELL: Can we have a moment to pull it up,
25 your Honor. We weren't given these in advance obviously.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1363

1 THE COURT: They are putting it up on their screen.

2 Q Mr. Cox, do you recognize this as a memorandum that you
3 received in 2019?

4 A (Examining). Yes.

5 MS. ROGERS: I move to admit this into evidence.

6 THE COURT: Just give folks a chance to --

7 MS. CONNELL: No objection, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: No objection from the State.

9 Q Mr. Cox --

10 THE COURT: Hang on a second.

11 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

12 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

13 THE COURT: It's admitted.

14 MS. CONNELL: Hold on, your Honor. Are we putting 15 the whole thing in?

16 MS. ROGERS: So, pages 3 and 4 are the memorandum
17 just of the witness. Pages one and two are a cover e-mail
18 transmitting among other parties. So, my thought was to put 19 the memorandum in through Mr. Cox, since he recognizes it.
20 I have no objection to the cover e-mail, but I don't know
21 that he has anything to say about it.

22 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry to delay the Court. Can we 23 just have kind of a look to see whether it would be better
24 to put it all in once. I think it probably would.

25 MS. ROGERS: I have no objection to putting the

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1364

1 whole thing in.

2 THE COURT: Do you have the rest of it?

3 MS. CONNELL: One second.

4 MS. ROGERS: I have the rest of it. So, I have
5 paper copies of the rest of it if the Court would like one.

6 MS. CONNELL: Thank you very much.

7 THE COURT: You might want to just scroll up to the 8 first two pages so the other lawyers can see it.

9 MS. ROGERS: I can hand them out to the other
10 lawyers too.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MS. CONNELL: No objection, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Any objection to putting the whole
14 thing in?

15 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

16 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Let's -- Just the whole exhibit
18 is admitted, but I take it you're just going to question
19 this witness on the part that he's familiar with.

20 MS. ROGERS: Correct, your Honor.

21 Q Mr. Cox, do you remember receiving this memorandum in 22 2019?

23 A (Examining). I do.

24 Q You testified earlier that you hired a fiscal officer
25 to oversee ILA's finances, right?

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1365

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Is Bob Owens the fiscal officer you hired?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q Did you ask him to prepare this memorandum?

5 A No.

6 Q But Mr. Owens prepared this memorandum and addressed it
7 to you pointing out deficiencies in accounting knowledge among
8 the ILA staff, right?

9 A Mr. Owens, who I hired after Mary Rose, who was there
10 predating me, he served as CFO for the republic national 11 committee. I had the utmost confidence in his ability as an 12 accountant. What this is is a request to hire additional staff.
13 The body of this e-mail pointing out concerns that he had was 14 the justification for hiring additional staff, to make sure that 15 this was taken care of. And the fact that my name, my signature
16 is next to it is that I approved of the additional staff to make 17 sure that all these concerns were addressed.

18 Q What if any -- Besides approving of Mr. Owens' staffing
19 request, what if anything did you do in response to the 20 information from your fiscal officer that there were errors and 21 irregularities in ILA's books?

22 A I was pushed out of the organization less than a month
23 later. I can't speak to things that happened in the following
24 months.

25 Q Before hiring Bob Owens, had you received any notice

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1366

1 that there were material errors or irregularities in the books?

2 A No.

3 Q You testified that in 2016 there was an instance where
4 ILA paid your personal American Express bill, right?

5 A Correct.

6 Q But that practice continued after 2016, right?

7 A It did.

8 Q In fact, that became as a matter of course your 9 practice. ILA would pay your American Express bill, and 10 sometime later you would reimburse ILA for the personal portions
11 of that bill, right?

12 A Promptly, and every time I reimbursed ILA for any 13 personal charges that were on the credit card.

14 Q At the time you left the NRA there was an outstanding
15 balance of about $30,000 that you owed ILA, right?

16 A That I don't recall owing money, but I do recall
17 writing a check to ILA for 30 some odd thousand to cover -- to 18 cover an expense not related -- not related to -- to anything
19 American Express related that I'm aware of. Again I had no
20 conversation with staff. I had no ability to look at my 21 calendar. I had no ability to do my expenses for the final
22 three weeks that I was there, because I literally had no access
23 to my office. No access to my records. So if there was -- if 24 there were charges that were there in June, when I was suspended
25 that I wasn't able to -- to submit, it's because I had no

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1367

1 ability to submit anything. I had been shut out of the
2 building. My office had been -- the locks had been changed. My
3 e-mail had been shut off and I had no ability to do that.

4 All they had to do was call. If you had an issue and
5 said there are some outstanding expenses, you could have just
6 called and I would have sat down and said let's go through them.

7 THE COURT: During cross examination they are 8 allowed to ask close ended yes or no questions. While it is 9 sometimes awkward, if you can answer it narrowly, you can
10 have a chance to explain more when you're asked questions
11 later. But it will move along a little more swiftly if you
12 can. If you can't answer it yes or no, then you don't have 13 to. But generally speaking cross examination is the time
14 for shorter answers, narrower questions, if you can.

15 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

16 Q The NRA's outside auditor RSM did raise an issue with 17 that credit card receivable a couple of months before you were 18 suspended, right?

19 A I'm not aware of that.

20 Q Were you ever made aware of an inquiry by an RSM
21 auditor named Rob Kadane about ILA's negative accounts payable
22 balance to a vendor named Chris Cox?

23 A I don't recall ever hearing about any concern about my 24 expenses until after I left the organization and we were in a --
25 we were in an arbitration.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1368

1 MS. ROGERS: So, I have a document that I would
2 like to show the witness. He's not on it, but I believe he
3 might have seen it before. It was produced in this
4 litigation. I have a paper copy. And we can put up a copy.

5 THE COURT: Has it been marked as an exhibit?

6 MS. ROGERS: It's not marked as an exhibit.

7 THE COURT: Do you want to mark it for
8 identification?

9 MS. ROGERS: So, let's mark it for identification
10 as -- I mean, I can give it a defendants' exhibit number.
11 It can be Defendants' Exhibit 1082.

12 THE COURT: You can hand it to the court reporter.

13 MS. ROGERS: If the Court would like one for the 14 Court. Counsel. Counsel.

15 (Whereupon the e-mail chain was marked for 16 identification as Defendants' Exhibit No. 1082 as of this 17 date.)

18 THE COURT: Do you have a question for the witness
19 as he's looking at this?

20 MS. ROGERS: Sure. My question to the witness is 21 whether reviewing this e-mail chain, particularly the one
22 that starts on the bottom of the first page and continues on 23 to the top of the second, refreshes his recollection about 24 inquiries from auditors in 2019.

25 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, may I ask if this was

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1369

1 produced in this case.

2 MS. ROGERS: It was. It was printed with the wrong
3 Bates scheme. It's a separate Bates number for this case,
4 which is --

5 MS. CONNELL: That's fine. I'll take your word for
6 it.

7 MS. ROGERS: Yeah. My question for the witness is 8 going to be whether this refreshes his recollection. Since
9 it is a business record, I would also move to admit it.

10 THE COURT: Any objection to admitting the e-mail
11 exchange?

12 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

13 MS. CONNELL: No objection, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. We can admit it. I'm not 15 sure. There is nothing to publish. You do have it on?

16 (Whereupon Defendants' Exhibit No. 1082 was deemed 17 marked received in evidence as of this date.)

18 MS. CONNELL: What's the number again?

19 MS. ROGERS: So the exhibit number is going to be 20 DX 1082. And I'm asking the witness about the e-mail that 21 begins at the bottom of the first page from Rob Kadane and 22 extends on to the top of the second, right above where it
23 says 562, I'm sorry, $585,000 on the second page.

24 Q Does this refresh your recollection as to whether you
25 received questions in early 2019 from the auditors about that

LAS

1370

1 vendor balance to you?

2 A I was never questioned. I was never asked. I was
3 never asked to change anything. If I had been, I would be. I'm 4 not -- My e-mail is not anywhere on this. I was not aware that
5 there was any sort of issue. Had I been made aware, I certainly 6 would have followed the recommendation of the fiscal officer and 7 the outside audit.

8 MS. ROGERS: I want to put up one more document,
9 and this is going to be Plaintiff's Exhibit 477. It is not 10 in evidence yet. It is an e-mail from Mr. Cox's personal 11 e-mail to his work e-mail. I'm going to ask that his 12 personal e-mail be redacted when it appears on screen.

13 THE COURT: What was the exhibit again?

14 MS. ROGERS: PX 477.

15 MS. CONNELL: Do you have a paper copy, Ms. Rogers?

16 MS. ROGERS: I do. Somewhere.

17 THE COURT: If we turn -- Well, you're going to 18 check quickly if you have an objection.

19 MS. CONNELL: Yeah.

20 MS. ROGERS: It's their exhibit.

21 THE COURT: In the meantime you can turn the 22 screens off and you can publish it so that the other counsel
23 can see it.

24 MS. ROGERS: Here we go.

25 THE COURT: Give the court officer a copy for the

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1371

1 witness.

2 Q Mr. Cox, you testified that when things came to a head
3 in April of 2019 you had a conversation with Wayne about
4 resigning, right?

5 A Correct.

6 Q But that wasn't the first time you had offered or
7 threatened to resign, right?

8 A I never threatened anyone on anything. Considered
9 resigning on my own in 2018. I considered resigning in 2019
10 before the board meeting. In a speech that you referenced I
11 wrote as a resignation speech, which I thought would be a
12 thoughtful, driven leadership speech trying to put things
13 together. I changed the end to say I'm not leaving, that I'm 14 staying. So yet I never threatened anyone to resign, but I
15 almost resigned or changed my -- changed my position on more
16 than one occasion.

17 Q Do you recognize this e-mail that you sent to yourself?

18 A (Examining). I recognize the e-mail that I sent to 19 myself, yes.

20 MS. ROGERS: I move to admit the e-mail into
21 evidence.

22 THE COURT: Any objection?

23 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

24 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

25 MS. CONNELL: No objection, your Honor.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1372

1 THE COURT: Did you say no objection?

2 MS. CONNELL: I said no objection.

3 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted. PX 477.

4 Q Mr. Cox, would it be fair to say in 2018 you wrote a
5 list of conditions under which you were willing to stay at the 6 NRA and conditions under which you were willing to leave?

7 A No.

8 Q So, under where it says "stay or go" -- Actually let's
9 start at the top of the e-mail. When you say expenses moving
10 forward including Shikar, what are you referring to?

11 A These are notes to myself in preparation for a
12 conversation I was going to have with Wayne LaPierre about me
13 leaving and transitioning into a different role. This was notes
14 to myself, things to discuss with Wayne. There were no
15 conditions. There were no terms. These are just things that I
16 wanted to talk to Wayne about and get his thoughts and get his 17 opinion on.

18 Q So, there is a section of this e-mail that says "stay
19 or go", right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And then under "stay" you put, "When is the transition?
22 What will it look like?" Do you see that?

23 A Yes.

24 Q That would be your transition to Wayne's job, right?

25 A That's correct.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1373

1 Q "Who will be protected by contracts", meaning who could
2 you fire, right?

3 A Absolutely. Yes.

4 Q You say "Staying and doing the job just like you will
5 produce the exact same life as you. You don't want that for my
6 family and I don't think you want that for anyone else's
7 family." Do you see that?

8 A Yes.

9 Q What did you mean by that?

10 A What I meant was the concerns with regards to 11 harassment and the rest of it, that I was not going to go out
12 and just constantly throw red meat underserved to the American
13 people in hopes of raising money for NRA members. That I
14 thought I could do it better. I thought I could do it
15 differently. I thought I could do it in a way that wasn't so 16 controversial and didn't cause so many security issues or 17 concerns. Again these were -- these were my notes to myself to 18 bring up and things that I had been thinking about, and I wanted
19 Wayne's opinion. He and I had ongoing conversations about, I'm 20 -- I'm -- I'm tired. I'm tired of doing this. I'm tired of the 21 drama. I can still continue to serve on the outside. He kept 22 saying, You're the future of the organization. You're going to 23 take over. Let me get through a few more months or whatever.

24 So, I wanted to ask him, like if you're going to leave,
25 because he convinced me that he was, what would that look like.

LAS

1 I was concerned, and it was one of the many concerns I had about
2 Wayne towards the end, that I told him, I said, Wayne, if you
3 sign Ackerman McQueen to a ten year contract or Marion Hammer to 4 a ten year contract that he did, then how am I suppose to come
5 in as the new guy and effectively run the organization other
6 than with no ability to change anything. So, yes, I was
7 concerned about long-term contracts. It's one of the things
8 that I mentioned in my earlier testimony. And this was an 9 example of me wanting to talk about that with Wayne. But they
10 weren't conditions. They weren't requirements. This was not a 11 legal document. It was not a contract. There were notes to 12 myself that I sent from my personal e-mail to remind me because 13 I was going to be meeting with Wayne.

14 Q You also wanted to talk to Wayne about your healthcare,
15 right?

16 A I did.

17 Q And you wanted to talk to him about expenses moving
18 forward, right?

19 A I did.

20 Q Those are expenses the NRA would pay for you, right?

21 A No, not necessarily. They were -- Depends on what my 22 -- what my relationship was going to be. If he wanted me to 23 help him with legislative issues and to go and continue to 24 attend political events, then I was not going to go and do that 25 on behalf of The National Rifle Association and pay for it

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1375

1 myself. That was going to be something that I was going to ask
2 for. But again this was -- this was my own personal thoughts.

3 Obviously I didn't move forward in 2018, because when
4 we discussed all these things, Wayne told me, I will work
5 through this with you. Just don't do it at the September board
6 meeting. Whatever you want, don't do it at the September board
7 meeting. Then we'll get through this. It will all be fine.
8 That didn't happen for various reasons. So, none of this became 9 relevant.

10 Q So, the Shikar that you referenced here, that is a high
11 end safari club, right?

12 A I'm a member of Shikar and continue to be a member of 13 Shikar today.

14 Q And would it be safe to say that you're referring to 15 some kind of travel expenses involving Don, Jr. and Eric Trump?

16 A No.

17 Q Who are Don and Eric?

18 A They're the president of the United States sons, who 19 are hunters, who attend these sorts of meetings. And I was 20 probably referencing the benefit to those sorts of engagements
21 of their attendance. I'm a member of Shikar to this day.

22 Q Wheels Up, you reference Wheels Up about half way down
23 the page. That is a private jet charter vendor run by a friend
24 of yours, right?

25 A No.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1376

1 Q Well, what is Wheels Up then?

2 A Wheels Up is a private aviation service that focus just
3 primarily on prop planes rather than the large jets that others
4 prefer to use. It was not run by a friend of mine. A friend of 5 mine knew the guy who ran it. As the security concerns became 6 more and more real, I continued to fly overwhelmingly almost 7 always commercial. I flew commercial 95 percent plus of the 8 time, probably 99 percent of the time over the course of my 9 career at The National Rifle Association. But as the need and 10 as those issues became more and more apparent, I talked to Wayne
11 and asked for his advice, and he gave me, I think he testified
12 to this in their bankruptcy or failed bankruptcy case, that he
13 gave -- he gave me approval to fly private aviation. I didn't
14 want to go through Gayle Stanford, because unlike Wayne, I
15 didn't need to fly on a big jet. If I needed to go somewhere
16 and it was a security concern, I thought a prop plane might be 17 perfectly acceptable and probably more in line with the need and 18 the requirement.

19 So, I researched options. I went and talked to Wayne.
20 And he said -- he gave me verbal approval. Encouraged me to fly
21 private if I felt the need. And so yes, that was a conversation
22 about Wheels Up. But, no, Wheels Up is not simply a jet service
23 run by a friend. Those are both inaccurate statements.

24 Q It was a humble grassroots form of private aviation,
25 right?

LAS

Cross-Cox-Rogers

1377

1 A There is no such thing as humble grassroots definition
2 of travel, even though I know travel definitions have changed
3 quite a bit.

4 Q I agree. All right. So in this discussion with Wayne
5 about your healthcare and your expenses, you were also 6 discussing with him using the services of Wheels Up or your
7 preferred aviation source, right?

8 A At the time of my departure I was dealing with -- with 9 security concerns. Again I continued to fly commercial.

10 MS. ROGERS: Move to strike. Nonresponsive.

11 THE COURT: It's a narrow question.

12 Q I have a narrow question. In the discussion with Mr.
13 LaPierre about your future employment, stay or go, in 14 conjunction with discussing your healthcare and expenses you
15 discussed with him your desire to have use of Wheels Up, your 16 preferred private aviation serves, right?

17 A No. These were notes to myself. I did not present
18 this to Wayne. I did not go and list these as the conditions of 19 my future engagement with Wayne or with the organization. These 20 were notes to myself and things that I wanted to talk to him and 21 get his opinion on. There is a big difference between demanding
22 anything, which I didn't demand anything, and asking Wayne
23 LaPierre for his opinion and thoughts on what he wanted me to 24 do.

25 Q I want to look now at the section of your e-mail

LAS

1378

1 underneath where it says "stay or go". We talked about the
2 section that says "stay", and there is a section that says "go".
3 Under the section where it says "go", it says, "Consulting
4 advice, fundraising advice, et cetera from the outside. So I
5 can try to figure out how to make a living when it winds down."
6 Do you see that?

7 A Yes.

8 Q So, would it be fair to say that you, in your note to
9 yourself, were thinking of discussing with Wayne the idea of a
10 consulting contract for you after your departure?

11 A Correct.

1 Q And if that didn't happen -- in the last line of this
2 e-mail -- you were going to leave on bad terms, right?

3 A I don't remember the date of my first employment
4 contract but I believe, by 2018, I was already under -- you can
5 correct me if I'm wrong -- I already had an employment contract,
6 and so, if I left, there was -- NRA was obligated to a
7 contractual severance regardless of how I left.

8 What I was trying to do was have a conversation about
9 replacing a severance with actually working to -- to earn -- 10 earn the money versus a -- a severance that gets paid out at the 11 end of your employment.

12 Clearly, what I was saying was, I wanted to continue to 13 help the organization, because I cared about the organization.
14 I still care about the organization; I care about the members; I
15 care about the mission. That's as strong today it was the day
16 that I started. I had a serious problem, as you can imagine,
17 with other things that were going on with the organization.

18 But this was never -- these were notes to myself. This 19 was never a demand, and --

20 But, yes, I offered, in 2018, to transition out of the 21 Executive Director of ILA position into a consulting role,
22 helping the organization from the outside.

23 Q During 2018 or 2019, did you ever approach Wayne
24 LaPierre and ask him to fire you to trigger your severance?

25 A No.

1 Wayne --

2 THE COURT: It just was a yes-or-no question.

3 THE WITNESS: No.

4 MS. ROGERS: It was a yes-or-no question.

5 And I have no further questions, at this time.

6 Thank you.

7 THE COURT: All right, we have --

8 MR. CORRELL: Can I start, your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yeah, give it a start.

10 CROSS-EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. CORRELL:

12 Q Good afternoon. I'm Kent Correll. I represent Wayne
13 LaPierre.

14 When you said, "... or I leave on bad terms," were you
15 thinking of threatening the NRA with some sort of disclosure
16 that might be embarrassing to the NRA?

17 A Can you tell me which document --

18 Are you referring to the same document that NRA counsel
19 just pulled up?

20 Q Yes, I am.

21 A Okay.

22 Q I'm referring to the document that's right in front of 23 you, sir; PX 477.

24 A I've never threatened Wayne LaPierre in my life; and,
25 no, I was not threatening Wayne. Wayne could have just said --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1381

1 if I threatened Wayne, Wayne could have just fired me. At any
2 point. I worked in an at-will state for an organization in --
3 that was very clear who -- who could hire and fire the Executive
4 Director of ILA.

5 And so I never threatened, ever. The suggestion's
6 absurd.

7 Q Sir --

8 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, move to strike as
9 nonresponsive.

10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 Q My question wasn't whether you threatened Wayne. My 12 question was whether you were thinking about threatening to 13 leave on bad terms.

14 A No.

15 Q Thank you.

16 Isn't it true that the year before, you had tried to 17 persuade Wayne LaPierre to retire?

18 A No.

19 Q You've never had a conversation with Mr. Wayne --

20 A Oh, I've --

21 Q -- Mr. LaPierre?

22 A I've had multiple conversations with Wayne LaPierre
23 about his eventual transition out of the EVP role.

24 It was Wayne LaPierre who told me, repeatedly, and 25 started to tell others outside of just me, including other board

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 members, that I was his guy, that I was the one that he wanted
2 to see take over when he left. But Wayne would tell me that he
3 was -- he wanted to -- he told me he wanted to resign or retire
4 years before, on multiple occasions.

5 So, no, I never suggested Wayne retire, never 6 threatened Wayne to get him to retire. Absolutely, that's not
7 true.

8 Q Sir, you wanted to be the executive vice president of
9 the NRA; correct?

10 A That's not correct. That's presumptuous on multiple 11 levels -- sorry.

12 No, that's -- that -- yes and no. It's hard to answer.

13 There were -- there were times when I wanted to be and 14 there was a time, clearly, when I was looking to leave the 15 organization and ready to resign from the organization but I
16 didn't. My wife certainly didn't want me to be. There was a
17 lot of pressure there not to do it. But I was conflicted. I --
18 I loved the organization; I loved the members. To be honest, I
19 felt I could do a better job, at the time, than the way it was 20 being run. And so, yes, there was a part of me that wanted to 21 do it and then there was a part of me that, when I got home, I
22 was going to be in a lot of trouble if I had that conversation.
23 So I was conflicted.

24 Q Mr. Cox, what do you do now for a living?

25 A I have -- I have two businesses. I'm the president of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1383

1 a consulting communications and lobbying firm called Capitol 6
2 Advisors and I'm the founder and president of a campaign firm
3 called Caliber Contact.

4 Q How many clients do you have in the -- for the first
5 firm?

6 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

7 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, there was testimony about 8 his broad expertise and his wanting to figure out what he
9 could do for a living if he left. I think this is well
10 within the scope of his direct.

11 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, discussing his clients
12 and his current business, this is beyond the scope. It's 13 irrelevant.

14 THE COURT: He left four years ago; so, sustained.

15 Q You testified earlier that you attended Rhodes College;
16 true?

17 A I did.

18 Q Where is Rhodes College?

19 A It's in Memphis, Tennessee.

20 Q Did you go all four years?

21 A I did.

22 Q Did you graduate?

23 A I did.

24 Q What did you study?

25 A I studied -- I had a major in -- a bachelor of arts --

1384

1 in history and a minor in business administration.

2 Q Did you study political science?

3 A I did not.

4 Q Did you study for a master's degree?

5 A No.

6 My plan was, after working in Washington, D.C. for a
7 year, I was going to go back to Vanderbilt and get a master's 8 degree in business. I had no inclination to be involved in 9 politics at all. That was a -- that was a later affliction for 10 me.

11 Q But you testified that you are [sic] the chief
12 political strategist for the NRA; correct?

13 A By definition and role of the job, I was the chief
14 political strategist of the NRA, yes.

15 Q But did you have any training in politics before you
16 took that job?

17 A Yes.

18 Q What was the training?

19 A Worked for the National Rifle Association, was involved
20 in campaigns and elections for seven years; and Wayne trusted my 21 judgment enough in politics and elections that he, himself,
22 appointed me as -- or nominated me to be -- the executive
23 director and chief political strategist of the National Rifle
24 Association. And, if you look at my track record, I think
25 you'll see that I was a very effective one.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 Q So just like John Frazer, right?

2 You worked for the NRA; correct?

3 A I -- I did work for the NRA.

4 Q Wayne knew you through your work at the NRA; correct?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q Wayne LaPierre thought that you might make a -- might
7 be able to do a good job in the position that you were hired
8 for?

9 A Correct.

10 Q But you didn't have any background in political 11 science.

12 A I had years of on-the-ground training working for the 13 National Rifle Association. That was my background.

14 Q No formal education in political science; correct?

15 A I did not have a degree in political science, no.

16 Q Okay. And you'd never studied government.

17 A Not in a classroom.

18 Q So he took a chance on you.

19 A Sure, yes.

20 Q And you feel you grew into the job; is that fair to 21 say?

22 A I felt like the bet that he made paid off handsomely
23 for him and the organization, yes.

24 Q So you learned on the job some of the skills that you
25 later brought to bear for the NRA; correct?

1 A The idea that one person runs the National Rifle
2 Association or the idea that one person runs the Institute for
3 Legislation -- Legislative Action is -- is silly. I had a staff
4 of over 80. I had competent people; I hired competent people.
5 The deputy I hired had been a chief of staff for multiple
6 members on Capitol Hill; he was a lawyer. We had great
7 lobbyists. I assembled a great team over time and we became

9 effective, lobbying operations in -- in Washington, D.C., or if
10 not in American politics.

11 Q You're not a lawyer, are you?

12 A I'm not.

13 Q Did you study any law at all?

14 A I did not.

15 Q You are not an accountant, are you?

16 A I am not.

17 Q Did you study any accounting at all?

18 A I did not.

19 Q Have you ever engaged with any outside auditors?

20 A I have not.

21 Q Let's talk about security for a moment:

22 Have you ever had security at your home?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Could you please tell the jury about that?

25 A NRA provided security, I believe, in 2013.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1387

1 I had turned down security at my home for an extended
2 period of time and the determination was made by the NRA that
3 they wanted me to have security at my house. I had daily threat
4 assessments that were provided.

5 But, yes, I had -- I had NRA-authorized and not
6 ILA-paid-for, NRA-paid-for, security at my residence.

7 Q Do you remember who authorized or who directed you to 8 get that security?

9 A Wayne LaPierre.

10 I -- I never -- I never reached out to NRA about
11 providing security. I didn't want it, but it was told by me --

12 THE COURT: He just asked who authorized it.

13 THE WITNESS: Wayne LaPierre.

14 Q Did the NRA have a security department?

15 A There was security staff, yes; I'm not sure it was --

16 Q Who was the top security staff?

17 A The top security person was a -- a gentleman named
18 Gordon Russell, who was a former Secret Service agent, a
19 wonderful human being and a serious professional security
20 expert. He passed away; I'm not sure of the year that Gordon
21 passed away. His -- his number two, his deputy that was also 22 former Secret Service, Linwood -- I forget Linwood's last
23 name -- he was a professional security agent. But I don't -- I
24 don't remember the -- the time. If you want to remind me,
25 perhaps it will jog my memory, but it was a long time ago when

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 that started.

2 Q No, that's the right time frame.

3 And you understood, at the time, that the 4 responsibility -- responsibility for security -- rested in the 5 hands of those two people that you admired; correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q All right. And one of them had the title of "Head of 8 Security"?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And that was the guy who went by the name of "Russ."
11 People called him "Russ." Russell Gordon.

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Or Gordon Russell.

14 A Russell Gordon.

15 Q How many times have you been in the Oval Office?

16 A More than six or seven, less than 20. Maybe -- close
17 to -- probably close to ten to a dozen times.

18 Q How much time did you spend with Monica Connell
19 rehearsing your testimony for today?

20 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor, to the term
21 "rehearsing."

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 Q Did you rehearse your testimony today with 24 Ms. McConnell -- Ms. Connell?

25 A I didn't rehearse -- I didn't rehearse anything. I had

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1389

1 two -- two meetings over the past few months. I've met with my
2 counsel, Thomas Buchanan. Once I was subpoenaed, I had one Zoom
3 call with Ms. McConnell [sic], maybe a month or so ago, and had 4 one conversation last night, or one meeting last night.

5 Q How long did the Zoom call last with Ms. Connell?

6 A Maybe an hour or so.

7 Q Did she tell you the questions that she was going to 8 ask you at trial?

9 A She did not.

10 Q Did she suggest any subject areas that she might 11 inquire into?

12 A She did not.

13 Q What did you say to her during that call?

14 A She asked me to explain a little bit about my 15 background at the National Rifle Association: what I did, what 16 my responsibilities were, how it ran, those sorts of things.

17 Q And what did you say to her?

18 A I answered her questions.

19 Q Was anyone else present on that call?

20 A Tom Buchanan, my attorney.

21 Q And who else?

22 A There was someone else from Ms. McConnell's [sic]
23 operation; I don't remember who it was.

24 Q And how much time did you spend speaking with --

25 I'm not going to ask you the substance of what you said

3 A We had a handful of conversations. We had, I think,
4 two meetings to sit down and -- and discuss it.

5 Q And was it just the two of you?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And how long were those meetings; each meeting?

8 A Maybe an hour or two.

9 Q And that's all the time that you've spent preparing for 10 your testimony today?

11 A Correct.

12 Q Did you read any documents to prepare for this?

13 A I read the -- the arbitration -- some of the 14 arbitration documents to prepare myself for -- just to remind

1 THE COURT: -- in the meantime.

2 All right, have a good night. Thank you.

3 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

4 (The jury left the courtroom.)

5 THE COURT: See you all tomorrow.

6 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, can we have an estimate
7 of time we have for tomorrow from defense counsel? I know
8 it's hard to predict these things, but we have Judge Phillip
9 Journey who also has to testify tomorrow. He is a judge
10 with a calendar; he cannot go over to Monday. So it would
11 be helpful -- I know you would identify with that -- it
12 would be helpful to have some sense of time here.

13 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I can't estimate at this 14 point. I'm going to have to review my notes and the 15 transcript. I'll try to keep it short.

16 THE COURT: Well, let me ask you to work backwards,
17 then: How long do you anticipates needing for -- at least
18 for -- the direct of the judge?

19 MS. CONNELL: Forty-five minutes.

20 THE COURT: Well, I mean, if he starts the first 21 thing in the afternoon, that might not be enough time to 22 finish all the cross and the redirect, all -- so you would 23 have to start -- I don't know how you can be sure when he's 24 going to start.

25 Do any of the other defendants have a feel for how

2 MR. WERBNER: For this (indicating) witness?

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 MR. WERBNER: It will be just a few minutes.

5 MR. FLEMING: Not much time for me.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So it's mostly, then --

7 If that's helpful.

8 So it would be Mr. Correll and any redirect.

9 Well, maybe --

10 MS. CONNELL: No, I'm just saying -- just a few
11 minutes is what I'm saying now, not knowing what Mr. Correll 12 has.

13 THE COURT: Anything further from the --

14 Well, look, I mean, I guess we can do the best we 15 can.

16 And I take it, Mr. Cox's schedule is also not wide
17 open, either.

18 MS. CONNELL: That's correct, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: So ...

20 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'd just ask that we use,
21 like -- that we use time wisely, as wisely as possible,
22 which I know you are always aiming for. And I should have 23 said something before, when we were -- I was hopeful we 24 might end it today, but that didn't look likely.

25 THE COURT: No. Look, we may well be done,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1393

1 hopefully, with Mr. Cox in an hour and change and then you
2 can start right in on Judge Journey. I -- I just -- I can't
3 control exactly what you all do. I'd like to try to be as 4 accommodating to nonparty witnesses as we can.

5 So let's try to move it along.

6 And I would, as always, encourage the witness to 7 answer "yes" or "no" answers if they can -- if you can.
8 That's one way for things to move more quickly.

9 All right.

10 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'm so sorry; one other
11 point:

12 We were told this afternoon that Mr. Cotton is not
13 available tomorrow but, I think, next week. So I think 14 we're covered through tomorrow, but if not, we may have to 15 shuffle things around. We have the Carolyn Meadows video, I
16 think, to play. But I don't want -- you know, I just wanted
17 to alert the Court to that.

18 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

19 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

20 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, just quickly:

21 Sorry, but I just wanted to alert the Court to the 22 fact that Mr. LaPierre has a health issue that may affect 23 his ability to appear and we just may need -- I'm going to 24 request a reasonable accommodation for him. It may be --

25 THE COURT: To appear when?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1394

1 MR. CORRELL: Well, to appear when scheduled.

2 I'd like to -- I have information from doctors that
3 indicate that it would be better for him to testify in the 4 morning, because of fatigue from his symptoms that tend to 5 get worse in the afternoon; and so, I would just ask that in
6 scheduling witnesses, we schedule him for the morning.

7 THE COURT: I mean, we can certainly give that a
8 shot. It's just that the testimony is likely to last longer
9 than one morning.

10 MR. CORRELL: I understand, and I'm happy to submit 11 the letters in camera for your review if you'd like to --

12 THE COURT: Are you suggesting that the way we do
13 it is, he would testify for multiple mornings?

14 MR. CORRELL: What I'm suggesting is, the nature of 15 this disease, in the form it's manifested in Mr. LaPierre,
16 is such that the symptoms are unpredictable; they can either
17 be severe or mild, depending on the day, and it's absolutely
18 unpredictable, as documented by two doctors. And so, if we 19 happen to hit a day where it's a bad day, then I would 20 suggest -- or I would request -- an accomodation from the 21 Court.

22 We would hope to start and go straight through, but 23 if he begins to show signs of fatigue, then I would ask the 24 Court to -- the Government -- to have another witness ready
25 to substitute in until he's able to continue.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1395

1 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we ask for some
2 documentation or discovery with regard to this. You know,
3 this is the third NRA witness that we're hearing this about.

4 MS. ROGERS: He's not an NRA witness, your Honor.

5 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry.

6 He's a current NRA EVP, your Honor, and I would ask
7 for some documentation on this.

8 The idea of trying to get Mr. LaPierre's testimony
9 in in the morning or in spotty patches is very serious to 10 the State's case; it prejudices the State's case, and we 11 would want some discovery and substantiation of that.

12 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor --

13 THE COURT: Mr. Correll --

14 MR. CORRELL: -- I'm happy to submit that to you 15 and you can give us your guidance as to how you think we 16 should proceed.

17 THE COURT: Well, do you have any issue with not 18 only giving --

19 Anything you give to me is a public record; so, if 20 you want to share it in the first instance with, you know,
21 counsel and then see what, if anything, needs to come to me,
22 that might be a somewhat more discreet way to do it.

23 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, we're asking the --

24 The State is asking for an accomodation for their 25 witnesses. This is a witness with a serious health issue.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1396

1 I would think that they would reciprocate in terms of our
2 flexibility.

3 THE COURT: Well, that may be. Right now, we're 4 just talking about evidence of the --

5 MR. CORRELL: Happy to give you the letter.

6 THE COURT: I'm just telling you, what you give me
7 is presumptively public.

8 MR. CORRELL: Well, we would request that they be 9 filed under seal, then, to protect sensitive medical
10 information.

11 MS. CONNELL: But, your Honor, even then, we would 12 get them; we would want to see them.

13 MR. CORRELL: Of course. Of course.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 Well, you can file them under seal. And,
16 obviously, things like health information is often
17 something -- is one of the rare exceptions to permit
18 sealing, but I can't guarantee how I'm going to rule on
19 that.

20 MR. CORRELL: I understand, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

22 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

23 (Whereupon, the matter was adjourned to Friday,
24 January 19, 2024 at 9:30 a.m.)

Proceedings

1399

1 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone.

2 Just a couple of things:

3 One, just a reminder to be careful with the lapel
4 mics. If they're on and the stream is still on, it's not
5 going out to the public -- I don't know where it's going,
6 frankly. I don't know whether there's an overflow room, you
7 each have your own rooms. It's just, my law clerk mentioned
8 that during one break, it seemed like you shut it off but 9 the mics, if they're live, they're still going out. So just 10 be careful to turn them off.

11 Second, Juror No. 2 phoned in -- I didn't speak to 12 him, but with some unspecified family issue -- is not coming
13 today. There was no back-and-forth about it, so I don't
14 really know what's, exactly, going on. I'm certainly not 15 inclined to postpone the proceedings for that. We can --
16 you know, with consent, we can do all sorts of things, I
17 suppose. As to whether, if -- if that juror is able to come
18 back either later today or -- it sounded like not today but 19 next week -- whether to permit that or just to excuse the 20 juror is something I'll let you all think about.

21 But I mean, the bottom line is, the juror's not 22 going to be here today.

23 Any particular -- anybody have a different view as 24 to whether we should go forward today?

25 I see much shaking of heads.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1400

1 MR. CORRELL: No, your Honor.

2 MS. ROGERS: We can proceed today.

3 MS. CONNELL: Plaintiff believes we should proceed,
4 your Honor.

5 MR. FARBER: We agree.

6 MR. FLEMING: I agree too.

7 THE COURT: And we'll just reconsider what to do if 8 the juror is able to come back and it's just one day that 9 they missed, whether there is some way to catch them up or 10 whether we just excuse the juror. I haven't really looked 11 at the law on that, since I found out about it about 25
12 seconds ago. Okay.

13 I received a letter from Mr. Correll and I'll wait
14 and see what the AG wants to do. I mean, my inclination is 15 to be as flexible as we can and, you know -- but what I'm 16 not hearing is that he shouldn't be a witness at all. It's 17 just that we're going to have to be, potentially, flexible
18 around how long and when.

19 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor. I hope that's the 20 scenario. It's an unpredictable condition, but I think so.
21 So far, so good.

22 THE COURT: Do we have a schedule, at the moment,
23 as to when Mr. LaPierre would be a witness? I know we're a
24 little behind.

25 MS. CONNELL: A little bit behind, your Honor.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1401

1 We had hoped to start Mr. LaPierre even this
2 afternoon, but that's -- no, no. That was pushed back by
3 how slow things have gone so far. So we're hoping to begin
4 him next week.

5 I will just ask that -- in general, accommodating a
6 witness who's suffering from some sort of acute medical 7 issue in the moment is, obviously, something courts are 8 prepared to do, but if it's a bigger accommodation, like 9 testifying in spurts, testifying stretched out over many 10 days; if it's something like that, that's more serious; that 11 impacts plaintiff's case; and I think that should be 12 supported by more than just an unsigned doctor's note and an
13 unsigned -- I don't think they were signed -- physician's
14 assistant letter. Usually, you have an affidavit,
15 specifying more -- more discretely, what the abilities are 16 and are not.

17 And so, if this becomes an issue where we're not
18 allowed to have a fair -- not permitted -- to have a fair
19 opportunity to question Mr. LaPierre in a meaningful and 20 clear way, we would ask for a clearer record.

21 THE COURT: Just so I understand --

22 I don't want to spend too much time on this now,
23 since it's not right in front of us, but if -- if -- the 24 result was that the testimony was not in one eight-hour
25 block but in -- you know -- broken up into smaller blocks,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1402

1 how does that get in the way of your case?

2 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we're trying to put on a
3 coherent, cogent case, and so, having the head of the NRA --
4 the current and long-term head of the NRA -- testify -- and
5 a key, apex witness -- testify in -- in one block or in --
6 you know, may have to be divided over two days, that's okay;
7 the jury can follow that; we can get a fair chance to
8 question him and set it out before the jury. If it's broken
9 up unpredictably and then we're peppering in other witnesses
10 and during that time Mr. LaPierre has the opportunity to,
11 perhaps, think, rehearse -- I'm not -- the word "rehearse"
12 was used yesterday, so I'm going to use it in that same
13 sense -- to -- to prepare his testimony and it's broken up
14 before the jury, I think that could unfairly prejudice the 15 plaintiff.

16 I'll note that those unsigned letters that were 17 filed last night were dated January 3rd; so, to be getting 18 them last night is a little unfair to us. We could have,
19 perhaps, played it a little differently. Mr. LaPierre's
20 been in court every day. Had we known that this was so
21 acute or that there was this necessity -- I think, one of 22 the letters noted that his last visit that that doctor had 23 seen him was December 11th.

24 Again, waiting two -- you know -- two weeks into 25 trial to give us these letters, we just don't think this is

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1403

1 a record for more than minimal accommodations.

2 And we were trying to be reasonable, your Honor. I
3 just don't want to end up with an unworkable situation where 4 his testimony is stretched out over multiple days and we
5 have no ability to predict when he'll be on and off the 6 stand. That's just not fair to plaintiff, based on this
7 record.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 Well, I'm going to hope that we can work out an
10 accomodation that works for everyone, because I also -- I
11 don't think it's helpful to have a witness who's not going
12 to be able to be responsive to questions, either.

13 So let's see what we can come up with.

14 I think there's a difference between it being
15 broken up over two days, for example, and it being broken up
16 over eight days. I mean, that gets to the point where 17 it's -- it does get in the way. But it sounded to me like
18 -- I don't know how long the testimony will be, but if it
19 can be, you know, not broken up into so many pieces that it
20 becomes incoherent but reasonable accommodations can be made
21 so as not to require, you know, six or seven hours in a row,
22 I think that is a reasonable compromise.

23 So, anyway, let's get the witness here and get the 24 witness -- get the jury -- going.

25 (Pause.)

1404

1 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, while we're waiting, I
2 think this (indicating) was the witness' binder. Can we put
3 that up there (indicating)?

4 THE COURT: Sure.

5 (Said binder placed on witness stand.)

6 (The witness entered the courtroom and resumed the
7 witness stand.)

8 C H R I S [T O P H E R] C O X, called as a witness by the
9 plaintiff, having been previously duly sworn/affirmed, was
10 examined and testified further as follows:

11 THE COURT: Good morning.

12 THE WITNESS: Good morning, your Honor.

13 COURT OFFICER: Is the Court ready to receive the 14 jury, your Honor?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

17 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

18 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning. Have a seat,
19 please.

20 Okay. We're ready to continue?

21 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, could I ask a question?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 THE WITNESS: So, I was thinking, I'd like to 25 correct something that I said yesterday during the exchange

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1405

1 with Mr. LaPierre's lawyer; that --

2 THE COURT: Well, hang on a second.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 THE COURT: The typical way to --

5 Well, I'll ask Mr. Correll how he'd like to 6 proceed.

7 I'll let the witness, at some point, do it; but if

8 you --

9 MR. CORRELL: I have no objection, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.

12 Wayne's lawyer asked me about if I had ever asked
13 Wayne to fire me. I hadn't thought about that. I went back
14 to the room last night -- it's been six or seven years --
15 and I remembered that during the negotiation over my 16 renegotiation of a contract, when papers were being passed
17 around, there was indeed a conversation with regards to 18 trying to get this thing back on track. It was chaotic. It
19 was a mess. So I apologize. I did -- I did answer the 20 question "No," and the answer should have been "Yes."

21 I'm happy to provide, during the questioning,
22 more -- more context to what was going on at the time.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. CORRELL: Thank you for your truthfulness.

25 THE COURT: Is your mic on?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1406

1 MR. CORRELL: No, it's not, actually.

2 (Pause.)

3 MR. CORRELL: I don't see a light on, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Maybe somebody left it on all night.

5 (A court officer assisted Mr. Correll.)

6 THE COURT: It looks like the light's on now.

7 MR. CORRELL: Can you hear me now?

8 THE WITNESS: I can.

10 BY MR. CORRELL:

11 Q So why don't we start there, Mr. Cox. Can you provide 12 the context for that conversation that you remembered overnight?

13 A Yes.

14 As I testified about the contract negotiations for me
15 to secure a contract that Wayne directed to get done, there came 16 a time when there was a conversation about renegotiating that 17 contract. Wayne called me and, of course, like everything --
18 like many other things -- that were going on, it was chaotic,
19 somewhat contentious. Wayne called me, said that he had a
20 contract for me, that he thought it was great, that he thought
21 that I was going to be excited, and to come up to his office and 22 have a conversation about it.

23 So I went up to Wayne's office on the sixth floor. It
24 was one floor above mine --

25 I'll try to slow down here.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1407

1 -- and he presented me with a contract, said it was
2 great, thought I should sign it. I quickly glanced at it. It
3 didn't take much time for me to realize that this might be a
4 problem. I told him, I wanted to show it to my lawyer who was
5 working with me on the contract negotiations, which I did.

6 My lawyer said: "This is the worst thing I've seen.
7 There has -- there's no protections for you. This is a major
8 step in the -- in the wrong direction. You have more
9 protections under your current contract. You should not sign
10 this. What do you want to do?" And I said: "I want to 11 negotiate in good faith and get this resolved. I want to get 12 back to doing my work. This is a distraction." He said:
13 "Okay. Well, if you want to have a -- a good-faith negotiation, 14 given the absurdity of this contract, you should go back and 15 just say, 'Given that I have more protections being fired under 16 my current contract, why don't you just fire me?'"

17 It was never taken seriously by me; it was never taken
18 seriously by Wayne. This has not come up once, either at the 19 time or since then.

20 And luckily, the conversations did get more serious
21 around my contract. Other people were brought in, it was 22 negotiated in good faith, and it became a -- a nonissue, because 23 a contract was negotiated, which we all signed, including Wayne.

24 Q Thank you.

25 Let's change to another subject:

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1408

1 Yesterday, you testified -- you were asked the
2 following question:

3 "Does the Institute for Legislative Action -- is 4 it, like, a separate entity within the NRA?"

5 Do you remember that question?

6 A I do.

7 Q And do you remember your answer to that question?

8 A I believe I do.

9 Q And what was your answer?

10 A That, in some ways, it is set up as a -- originally, it
11 was set up, in 1975, with more separation. It was changed
12 shortly after I took over, but it was still a -- to a large
13 degree -- a wholly owned subsidiary, yet a separate fiscal 14 division and separate responsibilities and separate
15 responsibilities given directly to the executive director.

16 Q So let me refresh your recollection. Did you give this 17 answer: "It is."?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And then, did you go on to say:

20 "It was. The National Rifle Association was 21 formed, incorporated here in New York, in 1871. The 22 Institute for Legislative Action was formed in 1975 to focus
23 on the political, legislative and legal actions based on the 24 growing threats to the Second Amendment. So it was set up,
25 kind of, as a wholly owned subsidiary of the National Rifle

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1409

1 Association, with its own fiscal officer and its own
2 responsibilities."

3 Did I read that correctly?

4 A Yes. That was my understanding.

5 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor, just to 6 reading back the testimony. The witness should be shown the 7 testimony. It shouldn't be a memory test and a repeat of 8 his prior testimony.

9 THE COURT: You can continue.

10 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

11 Q The fact is that the Institute for Legislative Action
12 was not a separate corporation; correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q It did not have a separate certificate of 15 incorporation; correct?

16 A That's not what I testified to.

17 Q It did not have a separate set of bylaws; correct?

18 A That's correct. There is one set of bylaws.

19 Q It did not have a separate board of directors; correct?

20 A The Political Action Committee had a separate set of 21 directors, but not the Institute for Legislative Action.

22 Q But the board of directors of the National Rifle
23 Association was the governing body for the entire association,
24 and that included the Institute for Legislative Action; correct?

25 A That's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1410

1 Q The fact is that you referred to it as the "mother
2 ship"; correct?

3 A I referred to the National Rifle Association as the 4 mother ship, correct.

5 Q Correct.

6 And the fact is that funds, typically, flowed from the 7 treasury of the mother ship to the pod, if you take the ILA as 8 the pod; correct?

9 A As I testified yesterday, the mother ship covered
10 certain expenses of the Institute for Legislative Action. I
11 don't know if that still is the case; I haven't been there for 12 five years. But during the time I was there and the years and 13 decades that precede me, the mother ship, quote-unquote -- I
14 apologize if that's somehow not an appropriate reference -- the 15 mother ship covered the salaries and the overhead costs with 16 regards to office space and those sorts of things. The rest of 17 the money that was -- that was raised by ILA and deployed by ILA
18 was raised by ILA and deployed by ILA.

19 Q Are you testifying that no other money came from the 20 mother ship to ILA?

21 A No.

22 Q Okay. What other money came from the mother ship to
23 ILA?

24 A I'm not familiar with other resources coming in. I
25 raised a lot of money, not only for ILA but for the mother ship

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1411

1 and for other parts of the NRA. There were other people within
2 the Office of Advancement who, at times, raised money, whether
3 it was for the Political Action Committee, the Freedom Action
4 Foundation or ILA. So I'm not suggesting that I raised all of 5 it. There were other people who were helpful, but by and large,
6 that was my responsibility.

7 Q So this was really just a matter of allocation within
8 the same corporate entity; correct?

9 A Can you clarify your question?

10 Q Your testimony regarding the flow of funds was really 11 just a matter of allocating funds within the same corporate
12 entity; correct?

13 A Again, I'm -- I'm not sure I understand the question.
14 I apologize. Can you --

15 Q I'll try again.

16 A -- help me out?

17 Q It was one corporation; correct?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And ILA was viewed as a division of that corporation;
20 correct?

21 A Yes, but very different from the other divisions of the 22 National Rifle Association.

23 There were multiple divisions of the National Rifle
24 Association. ILA was the only one that was set up with its own
25 fiscal officer, and certainly, different by any basic reading of

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1412

1 the bylaws of the organization and how ILA was founded. It was
2 very different than other divisions of the organization.

3 Q But, contrary to what you testified yesterday, it was
4 not a wholly owned subsidiary of the National Rifle Association;
5 is that correct?

6 A It's not contrary -- it's not contrary to what I
7 testified yesterday.

8 It was a unique structure within the NRA; it was 9 different from other divisions, but certainly, according to the 10 bylaws, as I -- as I laid out and explained yesterday, it was 11 clearly under the direction of the executive vice president.
12 So, if it's under the direction of the executive vice president,
13 then the EVP is the boss; Wayne was the boss. And so, there was 14 not complete separation by any stretch, which is why I referred 15 to it as a "wholly owned subsidiary" of the organization.

16 Q The simple fact is, it was a single corporation; true?

17 A True.

18 Q The simple fact is, it was not a wholly owned
19 subsidiary of the National Rifle Association; true?

20 A I don't be -- I don't view it that way.

21 Q Isn't it true that the --

22 Well, yesterday, you talked about the corporation
23 borrowing money from the ILA. Do you remember talking about
24 that?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1413

1 Q Okay. Can a corporation borrow from itself?

2 A I don't know what the definitions are with regards to
3 borrowing within. I know that NRA borrowed money from the NRA
4 Foundation. All I know is that Wayne LaPierre called me and 5 said, "I need to borrow some money from ILA." ILA's money was 6 separate. We had our own fiscal officer. We had our own
7 political action committee that, legally, had to be set up
8 separately from the organization.

9 So there was clear separation when you're dealing with 10 a political action committee and FEC laws that do not allow for 11 the commingling of funds; you can't take campaign funds and 12 spend them on corporate operations. But that's a -- a legal --
13 a legal area that you might know more about than I do.

14 Q Sir, you referred to the "Foundation" in your answer;
15 correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And the Foundation is a separate corporation; correct?

18 A I believe the Foundation is a separate entity from -- 19 is a -(c)(3) separate from -- the -(c)(4) that the National
20 Rifle Association -- or -(c)(6), however NRA's set up.

21 Q Correct. And so, the ILA is not a separate -(c)(3)
22 corporation; correct?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q Okay.

25 MR. CORRELL: I have no further questions.

1 Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 Share the microphone.

4 (Pause.)

5 THE COURT: It seemed like it was going in and out
6 a bit, so let's see how we do.

7 CROSS-EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. WERBNER:

9 Q Good morning, Mr. Cox.

10 A Good morning.

11 THE COURT: Well, it's not going in and out; it's 12 just out.

13 MR. WERBNER: Is it --

14 THE COURT: No.

15 I wonder if maybe it was on all night and the 16 batteries are kaput? Can we ...

17 (Pause.)

18 MR. WERBNER: Is this working? Is this working
19 now?

20 MULTIPLE JURORS: Yes.

21 MR. WERBNER: I asked so few questions, I'm still a
22 novice with this (indicating).

23 Q Mr. Cox, I represent Woody Phillips. I'm Mark Werbner.
24 I just have a very few questions.

25 From your testimony with Ms. Connell, you said there

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Werbner

1415

1 were many instances when you had disagreements with
2 Mr. LaPierre; correct?

3 A Correct.

4 Q And in all those instances, were you able to have your
5 position overcome his?

6 A No.

7 Q But you made efforts to do that.

8 A Yes.

9 Q And why were you unable --

10 You seem like you have a strong personality. Why were 11 you unable to stand up to Mr. LaPierre?

12 A I don't believe I was unwilling to stand up to 13 Mr. LaPierre. There were times we agreed; there were times that 14 we disagreed. I don't think that that's necessarily unhealthy
15 or -- or problematic. I think it actually is healthy. But at 16 the end of the day, Wayne was my boss. At the end of the day, I
17 was under the direction, according to the bylaws of the National 18 Rifle Association, of the executive vice president. So it was 19 very clear, in that building and to everyone else, that Wayne
20 LaPierre was the boss, not Chris Cox.

21 Q Let me change the subject a minute:

22 You mentioned Ms. Meadows and Mr. Brownell. Do you
23 remember, in your testimony, mentioning them?

24 A I do.

25 Q And were one or both of them signers to your agreement?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Cross/Werbner

1416

1 A Yes.

2 Q Which ones?

3 A I believe, both. Certainly, they would have to be 4 signers of -- both of them.

5 Q And Mr. Brownell and Ms. Carolyn Meadows, they were 6 very senior people at the NRA; weren't they?

7 A Mr. Brownell was the president of the National Rifle
8 Association, as we discussed yesterday, for a one-year period.
9 Before that one year, he had been first vice president and 10 second vice president. So I believe, if my memory serves me
11 right, that he was a board officer for a period of five years.
12 So, yes, he was -- he was well-known and involved.

13 Q With Mr. Brownell and Ms. Meadows signing your 14 agreements, did the NRA pay under your agreement [sic]?

15 A Well, there was a --
16 I'm -- I'm sorry. Can you --

17 Q Yeah.

18 A I had multiple agreements. Can you give me a time -- a
19 timeline? Because they were irrelevant while I was an employee.
20 It wasn't until after I was forced out that they -- that they --
21 that became an issue. So, if you could --

22 Q Yeah.

23 A -- help me understand --

24 Q Yes, sir.

25 My only point is that documents that you signed with

1417

1 the NRA that were signed by Mr. Brownell and Ms. Meadows, those
2 were -- those were allowed by the NRA; correct?

3 A They were approved by the board officers, signed by the 4 board officers, signed by Wayne and, to my understanding, never
5 questioned and were allowed to go into effect.

6 Q Because Brownell and Meadows were what you call the 7 "top board leaders"?

8 A Well, there were three -- yes. Yes. The three board
9 officers of the organization are: the president, first vice
10 president, and second vice president. At the time that Pete
11 Brownell was president, Richard Childress was first vice 12 president, I believe, and Carolyn Meadows was second vice 13 president.

14 When Pete Brownell stepped away, Ollie North became 15 president -- Carolyn Meadows, for a short amount of time --
16 Ollie North became president. Then Carolyn Meadows and then --
17 I don't remember right now, off the top of my head, who -- it
18 changed a lot at the time.

19 Q But when you had written agreements with the NRA, you
20 were comfortable relying on the signatures of Meadows and 21 Brownell?

22 A Yes.

23 MR. WERBNER: I'll pass the witness.

24 Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Fleming.

2 CROSS EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. FLEMING:

4 Q Good morning, Mr. Cox. How are you?

5 A I'm well. Good morning.

6 Q So, you testified yesterday that you've known John
7 Frazer for 30 years, right?

8 A I believe that that's accurate. Yes. Roughly.

9 Q And just to recap. You guys started at ILA roughly
10 around the same time?

11 A I believe Mr. Frazer started before me, but I don't
12 know the exact -- the exact timing of John's hiring at NRA.

13 Q Okay. At the time as you testified he worked side by 14 side with Tanya Metaxa, right?

15 A John was -- I don't know what his title was. He was an 16 assistant to the executive director.

17 Q Right. You beat me to the punch. Tanya Metaxa was the 18 executive director of ILA?

19 A Correct.

20 Q That was your job eventually?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q Now, after working with Ms. Metaxa, Mr. Frazer moved on 23 to different areas, correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q All right. And then ultimately in 2002 a very young

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1419

1 man, congratulations, you became executive director, correct?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q Okay. And you promoted Mr. Frazer, right?

4 A I do remember promoting Mr. Frazer. I don't remember
5 to tell you the truth exactly when that was. If you could
6 remind me, I can certainly try to jog my memory. But at some 7 point yes, I did, promote John Frazer.

8 Q And you testified yesterday that you promoted him to a
9 director position, right?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q All right. And at the time you promoted him, he was 12 just about to enter law school, correct?

13 A I believe the timing of that is accurate, yes.

14 Q Would it surprise you that another executive director
15 of ILA, Mr. Baker, is the one who recommended that John go to 16 law school? Would that surprise you?

17 A I -- First I've every heard that. Maybe surprise, not 18 surprise. I don't really have an opinion. But I encouraged
19 John to go to the law school. I thought it was a great idea.

20 Q Well, not just what he wanted to do, but Mr. Baker
21 recommended that John go to law school based on his abilities.
22 Did you know that?

23 A I don't recall that.

24 Q Okay. And he was another executive director. That's 25 the second executive director, second predecessor, correct?

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1420

1 A Correct. There were musical chairs to a certain
2 degree. I think the average tenure before I assumed the role of
3 executive director was less than three years. I served in it
4 for 18 and a half. Yes, there were some changes. Multiple
5 times Jim Baker served as a executive director twice.

6 MR. PETERS: Move to strike this as nonresponsive
7 after the first word.

8 MR. FLEMING: That's fine.

9 THE COURT: Yeah.

10 Q I congratulate you on your longevity quite frankly.

11 A Thank you.

12 Q All right. So, were you aware that Mr. Frazer was 13 handling your promotion during the day while he went to law
14 school at night? You knew that, right?

15 A Can you explain what you mean by handling my promotion?

16 Q You promoted him to director, correct?

17 A Oh, I apologize. Yes, I'm aware that John that I
18 promoted John to Director of the Research and Information
19 Division, and I'm aware that in and around that time was when 20 John began his law -- his law school pursuit, yes.

21 Q So you felt comfortable enough with his abilities to 22 promote him to this position knowing that he would have 23 basically a second job at nighttime, correct?

24 A Yes. But the division was not John Frazer alone.
25 There were other employees that were competent. There were

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1421

1 other employees. I believe he had a deputy, but there was --
2 Research and information division that John was director of was
3 a small but not a solo operation. So, I was confident that the 4 job that needed to be done on behalf of the members and the job
5 that needed to be done supporting ILA and the research and 6 information process or needs could be covered while John was 7 going I believe at night to law school.

8 Q There is always a but, isn't there?

9 A No. It's just not always as easy as yes and no, sir.

10 Q Well, you're more gifted talking than I am. So I'm 11 going to try to be slower and break it down. My question is,
12 you promoted John to director, correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q Okay. And at the time you knew he was going to law
15 school at night, correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q Okay. And you felt comfortable enough to promote him
18 to that position knowing that, isn't that right?

19 A Correct.

20 Q Thank you. Now, you testified that Mr. Frazer got out
21 of law school and left ILA, right? Do you recall that?

22 A Correct.

23 Q Would it surprise you to know that he stayed at ILA for 24 five more years after graduating from law school?

25 A I knew that at some point John Frazer left and went and

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1422

1 practiced law. I don't remember saying at what point, because I
2 don't remember exactly when John was promoted. I don't exactly
3 remember when John graduated from law school. I don't honestly
4 remember when John left and came back exactly.

5 Q Well, he graduated from law school in 2008 and worked
6 in your organization until 2013, do you recall that? Does that 7 refresh your memory?

8 A That refreshes my memory. I know that John was there
9 for an extended period of time.

10 Q Excellent. But if you just answer my questions, it
11 would go a lot faster and smoother as well.

12 A Sure.

13 Q Now, during the time, after law school, for the five
14 years that he's at ILA working for you, you know, do you not,
15 that he's drafting legislation, analyzing laws for you? Do you
16 know that?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. Now you also know that he, during this time of 19 five years, is a regular at NRA board meetings, right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you knew that he was a regular at committee
22 meetings, correct?

23 A Correct.

24 Q Okay. And you also knew that he was making
25 presentations to committees and the board about things he was

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1423

1 working on for you?

2 A I don't recall John presenting to the full board as an
3 employee of The Institute for Legislative Action. But could he 4 have made a presentation at a committee meeting, sure.

5 Q Presentations plural.

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay.

8 A Possible.

9 Q Now, at the time in 2013 did there come a time when he
10 informed you, you, that he was leaving ILA?

11 A If 2013 -- At some point he informed me of his desire
12 to leave ILA, yes.

13 Q Okay. And at the time he told you this, you asked him
14 to stay, isn't that right?

15 A I don't remember asking John to stay, but I liked John.
16 I thought John did a great job as Director of Research and 17 Information. And it wasn't an easy job to replace. So, I would 18 not be surprised if I told John that I wanted him to stay, but I
19 don't remember having the conversation.

20 Q Not only did you ask him to stay, but you called him
21 into your office and sat him across the desk with your assistant
22 and you and you offered to promote him to a created position.
23 You don't recall that?

24 A I recall wanting John to stay. As I said I was -- I
25 promoted John. I thought John did a good job. I like John.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1424

1 So, I'm not surprised at all that out of the 80 some odd people
2 who worked for ILA that John was a director and that I wanted
3 him to stay in that -- in that research and information space.

4 Q You told him, did you not, not only stay, I'll give you
5 more money and you'll be the Director of Legal Affairs, which is 6 a position that had not been created before, is that not true?

7 A I don't recall having a conversation with John about a
8 new position. I was not able to give raises without written
9 authorization from Wayne. So, that would have been a
10 conversation that I had to have with Wayne in order to get that 11 signed off on.

12 Q So you deny it?

13 A I don't recall. As I said, I didn't deny it. I don't
14 recall having that conversation.

15 Q Now, he decided to decline your kind offer and went 16 into private practice, right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. And while he was in private practice, you
19 referred him work, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. And you referred him clients, correct?

22 A I believe that's correct. Yes.

23 Q So, you referred people who you knew needed legal help
24 to a person that you yesterday said was not qualified to be the 25 general counsel of The National Rifle Association, correct?

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1425

1 A Those are two completely different things.

2 Q Maybe they are.

3 A It's incorrect.

4 Q I'm asking you a question. Is that correct?

5 A What I testified to --

6 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, if I can --

7 MR. FLEMING: No. I asked a question, your Honor.

8 A Can you repeat the question?

9 Q Yes. I'm saying you referred clients who you knew
10 needed legal help to a person who yesterday you said was not
11 qualified to be general counsel of The National Rifle
12 Association, is that correct?

13 A I did refer John Frazer legal clients, correct.

14 Q Yeah. Now, in late 2014 you became aware that the 15 president of The National Rifle Association, Jim Porter, reached
16 out to Mr. Frazer to ask him to stand for election as secretary
17 of the organization, is that correct?

18 A Can you repeat the time? 2014, ten years ago. You
19 might need to refresh my memory if you will.

20 Q I will refresh your memory. Late 2014 did you become 21 aware that Jim Porter had asked John Frazer to stand for 22 election as secretary of the NRA?

23 A Counsel, I do not remember the date of Jim Porter. I
24 remember Jim Porter being involved. I remember Wayne LaPierre
25 being involved. But I don't remember the specific date,

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1426

1 approximately ten years ago.

2 Q Putting the date aside, do you recall it happening?

3 A I recall Jim Porter being involved in some capacity.

4 Again, this was not within ILA's purview or responsibility. It
5 was a board Wayne decision, not an ILA Chris decision.

6 Q And you became aware, did you not, at or about the same
7 time, that John was offered the general counsel position of the
8 NRA?

9 A Again, I was aware that the former secretary of The 10 National Rifle Association, Edward Land was retiring. And that 11 position was open. And that Jim Porter, Wayne LaPierre and 12 others were interested in talking to John about that position.
13 I don't know if John was hired first as secretary or first as 14 general counsel or vice versa. I don't recall. But I know that 15 he held both of those roles at some point.

16 Q Your words lost me again. Too many of them. The 17 question is really simple. Did you become aware at or about 18 that same time that Mr. Frazer had been offered the position of 19 general counsel of the NRA?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. Now, at that time did you express to anyone that 22 you thought that he was not qualified for that position?

23 A No.

24 Q Anyone?

25 A Can I answer?

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1427

1 Q Yes.

2 A No.

3 Q In fact, you encouraged him to take the job, isn't that
4 right?

5 A I don't recall encouraging John to take the job. I
6 remember thinking it would be a good job for John. And I recall
7 vaguely having a conversation with John about the subject.

8 Q Well, beyond vaguely, you met with him, didn't you?

9 A I don't recall meeting with John Frazer.

10 Q You wrote to him about it?

11 A If you would like to show me -- I don't recall writing
12 to John. If you would like to show me the e-mails or letters,
13 I'm happy to take a look at them.

14 Q Now you had an obligation and duty to the NRA, didn't 15 you, in your position?

16 A I did.

17 Q Okay. And you had to act in the best interests of the 18 NRA, is that right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. So if you thought that John was not qualified,
21 you shouldn't be recommending him for the job, isn't that right?

22 A I thought John was qualified to be secretary of the 23 association. That's different from general counsel.

24 Q Not my question. Not my question. My question is, you
25 had a duty, and if you thought he wasn't qualified, you

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1428

1 shouldn't be recommending someone for a position you think they
2 are not qualified for?

3 A I don't recall recommending to The National Rifle
4 Association, to Wayne, to Jim Porter or anyone else making that
5 decision that they should hire John Frazer. I recall vaguely
6 having a conversation with John Frazer about his interest in the 7 job.

8 Q And you recommended to him that he take it, isn't that
9 right?

10 A I don't recall recommending to John to take that job,
11 but I very well may have.

12 Q If you did, did you violate your duty to the NRA?

13 A I did not.

14 Q And you don't usually recommend people who are 15 unqualified to take positions that they are not qualified for,
16 do you?

17 A That's correct. I don't usually recommend that people
18 hire people who aren't qualified either.

19 Q Let me ask you a question that I think you can agree
20 with me on, you tell me if you can. If the NRA decided to hire
21 your 11-year-old son as general counsel of the NRA, okay, that 22 would not be a basis for your 11-year-old son to be personally
23 liable, correct?

24 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

25 A My son is 14. If you could ask the question with the

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1429

1 right age, that would be great.

2 Q Fourteen.

3 THE COURT: Sustained.

4 Q You would agree with me that being unqualified is
5 not -- Withdrawn. You would agree with me, would you not, that 6 a person's qualifications are not the issue. It's the 7 performance of their work, correct?

8 A I'm not sure I understand the question.

9 Q Well, being unqualified, whatever that means, is not a
10 basis to bring someone to court, correct? It's how they perform
11 their job, isn't that right? Wouldn't you agree with that?

12 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Sustained.

14 MR. FLEMING: Now I would like to introduce
15 Plaintiff's Exhibit 172, please for identification.
16 Although since it's a Plaintiff's Exhibit maybe they will
17 stipulate to its admission.

18 THE COURT: Give them a moment to find it.

19 MR. FLEMING: Can we turn to page 31 of whatever
20 the range is at the bottom. Thirty-one of --

21 Q Mr. Cox, do you see this e-mail? Can you tell me if 22 you recognize it?

23 A (Examining). I do.

24 Q Okay.

25 A It appears to be a response to --

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1430

1 MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry. Your Honor, one second.
2 I'm trying to pull up the exhibit. That's not what I have
3 as Plaintiff's Exhibit 172.

4 MR. FLEMING: That's page 31 of the exhibit.

5 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, if we can have a moment
6 to look at it. The cross exhibits we were not given notice
7 of.

8 THE COURT: You're seeking to admit the entirety of 9 this exhibit or just this part?

10 MR. FLEMING: It's their exhibit, and this is an 11 e-mail within the exhibit. If you like me to carve it out,
12 I can do it.

13 THE COURT: I'm asking ultimately if you intend to 14 talk about the exhibit more broadly or just this part.

15 MR. FLEMING: No. Just this e-mail.

16 A Can you tell me where it would be in the exhibit book.

17 Q It's not in the exhibit book.

18 A Is it something I could look at in its entirety rather 19 than piecemeal to pull things out?

20 THE COURT: Do you have a hard copy anyone?

21 MR. FLEMING: It's an amalgamation of the documents
22 that the plaintiffs put together.

23 MS. CONNELL: We did not put this together. There
24 is a lot of representations being made here that are not
25 true. It's a long document.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1431

1 THE COURT: It was produced to you in this form.

2 MS. CONNELL: It was produced this way. When we
3 produced these documents as an exhibit, it's because they
4 were produced that way to us.

5 THE COURT: I also don't know what the whole thing
6 looks like, because I don't have it in front of me. So --

7 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, we made --

8 MS. CONNELL: It seems to be produced by 9 Mr. Frazer, your Honor, if I'm looking at the Bate stamp
10 correctly. Yeah.

11 MR. FLEMING: It's a production. It's not an 12 exhibit of ours. It's your exhibit.

13 MS. CONNELL: Right. It's an exhibit of a document
14 you produced. I don't think this is appropriate in front of 15 the jury.

16 THE COURT: What is this? Is this a series of 17 e-mails? It looked like there was a handwritten thing at 18 the beginning.

19 MR. FLEMING: There is a bunch of documents we 20 produced when requested, and they put them together in one
21 exhibit.

22 THE COURT: So since you produced it, were they 23 kept in the ordinary course as one clump of things or are 24 they all separate things that happened to be produced at the 25 same time?

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1432

1 MR. FLEMING: All separate things.

2 THE COURT: They are not one?

3 MR. FLEMING: No.

4 THE COURT: So, I think it would make more sense
5 to, if this is really unrelated to the other documents in 6 this, what's called an exhibit, and it's really a separate
7 and distinct e-mail conversation, then I would think you
8 should --

9 MR. FLEMING: Okay.

10 THE COURT: -- introduce it as a separate exhibit.

11 MR. FLEMING: One second.

12 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'll note too as we're
13 pulling this up, I'm told there are personal e-mail
14 addresses and phone numbers in this that would need to be 15 redacted.

16 MR. FLEMING: You can pull down that exhibit.
17 We're going to carve it out. It will take a second.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And if you would make a separate
19 exhibit out of it, the whole e-mail exchange that it's part
20 of it would be part of the exhibits. In other words, it
21 shouldn't necessarily be part of unrelated e-mail exchanges
22 but, you know, don't chop it up.

23 MR. FLEMING: Yep.

24 MS. CONNELL: Which pages are you seeking?

25 MR. FLEMING: Hold on one second.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1433

1 MS. STERN: Which page are you on?

2 MS. CONNELL: On the exhibit you're seeking to 3 introduce, can you tell me which pages you're seeking to 4 introduce, please?

5 THE COURT: Thirty-one I think he said.

6 MR. FLEMING: Thirty-one in PX 172. But we're
7 carving it out right now.

8 THE COURT: I think she wanted to know which pages
9 were being carved into a new exhibit.

10 MR. FLEMING: Okay. For identification can you
11 pull it up, not for the jury. Okay.

12 THE COURT: What would be the exhibit number that 13 we're identifying this as?

14 MR. FLEMING: JFX 117.

15 THE COURT: JFX 117 for identification. Got it.

16 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, plaintiff would object to 17 hearsay, as to this is hearsay. It's not a party admission 18 as to Mr. Frazer. It's a statement of a party opponent and 19 there is a lack of foundation, which we've discussed.

20 THE COURT: I'm going to overrule that. This is 21 part of an exhibit that's on your list. And so you can --
22 you can use this.

23 MR. FLEMING: Thank you. Can you slowly, for Mr.
24 Cox's benefit, scroll through the whole document so he can 25 see it.

1 Q Mr. Cox, just direct them as you would like.

2 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor is the whole document --

3 THE WITNESS: If you could print it out, that would 4 be great.

5 MR. FLEMING: I can't print it out.

6 THE COURT: Is it a total of two pages.

7 MR. FLEMING: It's four pages, I believe.

8 A If I could start at the beginning --

9 Q Sure.

10 A -- that would be helpful. Is it appropriate for me
11 to --

12 Q Ask whatever you want.

13 A Whatever the next page is, that would be great.

14 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I'm confused. The first
15 e-mail from me is in response to something John Frazer
16 wrote, but there is no reference to what John Frazer wrote
17 to me. There is no reference to anything earlier in that 18 exchange. So, it's kind of picking an e-mail that I sent 19 ten years ago out of the context of a longer exchange that 20 was clearly happening. And I'm trying to understand how I'm 21 suppose to answer something about one response in a clearly
22 chain of e-mails that I'm not familiar with from ten years
23 ago.

24 MR. PETERS: Move to strike. There wasn't a
25 question pending.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1435

1 THE COURT: Yeah. Overruled. That's the question
2 I had earlier. Is there -- is this part of an e-mail
3 exchange or is this the entirety of it?

4 MR. FLEMING: The entirety of it.

5 THE WITNESS: It's not, your Honor. If you see
6 that 3:24 John Frazer wrote me something, and at 3:29 I
7 responded. What I would like to do is find out what John
8 Frazer asked me. If there was any earlier e-mail exchange.

9 THE COURT: Look, we're just dealing about whatever
10 the records were in people's files.

11 MR. FLEMING: Right.

12 THE COURT: This is the entirety of what's in these 13 files. Look, if there are things you can't answer in 14 specific, then you can say that. If you recall that there
15 was a prior e-mail, you can testify to that. This is --

16 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: -- what we're dealing with. This came 18 from somebody's files in this way. I'm taking that as a
19 representation that this is in Mr. Frazer's files.

20 MR. FLEMING: That's right.

21 THE COURT: Okay. It's introduced. So you can put 22 it up on the screen.

23 MR. FLEMING: Okay.

24 Q So, Mr. Cox, I've shown you and the jury now sees an 25 e-mail exchange in or about late October 2014 between you and

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1436

1 Mr. Frazer. Do you see that?

2 A (Examining). Yes.

3 Q Okay. Do you recall in or around that time discussing
4 with Mr. Frazer tips or at least a tip on how to staff his 5 Office of General Counsel at the NRA should he accept the 6 position?

7 A I do not. And according to this e-mail exchange it
8 appears to be that Mr. Frazer was applying for an assistant GC
9 job. I don't know if that's right. That's what's referenced in 10 the e-mail.

11 Q Well, actually the e-mail is talking about a resume of 12 someone who is applying.

13 A Okay. I understand. I apologize.

14 Q Okay. And in it you say, "You should hold onto the 15 resume. I", meaning you, "would mention in your conversation to 16 Hart" -- that's Steve Hart, isn't it?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. And he was the lawyer outside lawyer for the
19 NRA?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q So, "I would mention in your conversation to Hart that 22 you want to be involved in any staff changes that might happen
23 in the near future should you accept." Do you recall writing
24 that first of all?

25 A It looks -- It's an e-mail. Yes, I do recall this

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1437

1 exchange. I don't recall exactly what was said. I do note that
2 it was sent from my personal account. And as I recall, this was
3 someone helping someone that had worked together for close to 4 20 -- 25 years and giving him advice not from my professional
5 account but from my personal account. Otherwise I would have
6 sent him an e-mail from my NRA account.

7 MR. FLEMING: Okay. We can take that down.

8 Q So, Mr. Cox, yesterday I believe you testified, and 9 correct me if I'm wrong, that you viewed the Ackerman McQueen
10 relationship as unhealthy?

11 A Correct.

12 Q Okay. And I think you said Ackerman McQueen has an 13 unhealthy control over Wayne LaPierre and the NRA. Right?

14 A I believe that to be the case, yes.

15 Q And I think you also said that Ackerman McQueen was 16 again unhealthy and untouchable. Do you remember that?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. Now, you also described, did you not, your 19 perception that the Brewer firm -- which was representing the 20 NRA, correct?

21 A Correct.

22 Q All right -- - that they were -- the Brewer firm had 23 been engaged, had they not, by Mr. LaPierre and Mr. Frazer,
24 correct?

25 A I don't know what John Frazer's involvement was, but

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1438

1 Wayne LaPierre told me he had hired the Brewer firm. So, I knew
2 that Wayne was involved.

3 Q But you perceived that the Brewer firm was quote
4 "clearly at odds with Ackerman". Do you remember that?

5 A Yes.

6 Q All right. And you sensed a tension, correct?

7 A Absolutely. Yes.

8 Q So, is it fair to say that the untouchable was finally 9 being touched, was it not?

10 A No. That's completely out of context the way I
11 described it.

12 Q Forget context. I'm asking you a question. Is it fair
13 to say that the untouchable Ackerman McQueen was finally being 14 touched?

15 A Yes.

16 Q It was finally the beginning hopefully of the end of 17 that unhealthy relationship, right?

18 A I believed at the time that there was an unhealthy
19 relationship with Ackerman McQueen. I believe at the time that 20 that was not -- I didn't use them from an ILA standpoint. I had 21 opinions, but yes I understand your point and I think the answer
22 would be yes.

23 Q And this is a happy day, right, for you?

24 A No. There was nothing happy about this time.

25 Q What would be unhappy about getting rid of an unhealthy

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1439

1 relationship?

2 A As I testified to earlier, this was a stressful time
3 for a lot of people within the organization, me included,
4 particularly in and around that annual meeting in Indianapolis.
5 This was stressful because of the revelations of Wayne
6 LaPierre's spending, because of other things that were leaking
7 out and the concern. So, I would certainly not say that this
8 was a time of great joy and entertainment.

9 But with regards to Ackerman McQueen, as I testified,
10 my understanding, I never read any complaints against Ackerman
11 McQueen. I never saw any of Ackerman McQueen's contracts. My 12 understanding was NRA was suing for document production, which I
13 found to be completely appropriate, not being a lawyer, but 14 assuming that if you're required to turn over documents, you
15 ought to turn over documents.

16 Q You bemoaned the chaos, right? You were trying to get 17 things done and it was chaotic and you didn't like that,
18 correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q Okay. But change is chaotic, is it not?

21 A It can be. It doesn't necessarily have to be but it
22 can be.

23 Q And change here was proving very chaotic because
24 Ackerman McQueen was not going quietly, correct?

25 A Correct.

LAS

Cross-Cox-Fleming

1440

1 Q They required to be sued, right?

2 A I don't know. I was not involved in any of the 3 litigation discusses in or around Ackerman McQueen or others.

4 Q They were leaking stuff into the press that was
5 damaging to the NRA?

6 A Again, I'm not aware of how those things came out. I
7 just remember seeing them and being extremely concerned about
8 it.

9 Q But you don't deny, do you, that this change was being
10 lead in part by John Frazer, correct?

11 A I was not aware of any role whatsoever that John Frazer
12 was playing in and around Ackerman McQueen. If he was, then he 13 was. But I was not aware of any role that John Frazer played.

14 Q You were friendly with Oliver North, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q You spoke to him a lot?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. And you knew from Oliver North that John Frazer
19 was pursuing Oliver North's contract, right?

20 A I remember at the time being focused almost entirely on 21 an event that -- that I was putting on, where I was responsible
22 for securing the president and vice president and other elected
23 professionals.

24 MR. PETERS: Move to strike as nonresponsive.

25 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, he should be able to

2 THE COURT: All right. We've gone through this a

4 question, you can give a specific answer.

5 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: I think we're working harder than we
7 need to is my point.

8 MR. FLEMING: Can you read back the question.

3 A I was not updated, involved whatsoever in Ackerman
4 McQueen. If it was sent around via e-mail, then I read it. But
5 I knew that there was a fight going on between Ackerman McQueen
6 and the organization.

7 Q You knew that Ackerman McQueen was not allowing John
8 (indicating) to see Oliver North's contract; yes or no.

9 A That's what I was told, yes.

10 Q Okay. And you were aware that the issue was whether 11 Oliver North had a conflict of interest; correct?

12 A That was my understanding of the concern, yes.

13 Q Okay. And if there was a conflict of interest, you
14 know that's a violation of New York not-for-profit law; correct?

15 A Correct.

16 Q So, pursuing this contract was necessary to comply with 17 the law; right?

18 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

19 A I don't know --

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 THE WITNESS: Sorry.

22 Q Mr. Cox, a couple of quick points and then I'll be out

1 A Yes.

2 Q You recall talking about how Mr. LaPierre controlled
3 the nominating committee?

4 A No. I remember saying, Wayne was very involved in the
5 nominating committee.

6 Q Well, I think you said "controlled," and then the 7 question was: "Officially controlled or unofficially
8 controlled?" and you said, "Unofficially."

9 A Correct.

10 Q Okay. Now, were you aware that Mr. LaPierre, in the 11 last eight years, has attended all of one nominating committee
12 meeting?

13 A I'm -- didn't keep up with Wayne's schedule, so I don't
14 know what he attended or didn't.

15 Q Okay. And were you aware that in 2017, Marion Hammer
16 ran for a seat on the nominating committee? Did you know that?

17 A I don't recall that.

18 Q And did -- so you don't recall that she lost?

19 A I do not. I don't -- I didn't keep up with the 20 nominating committee. That wasn't in the purview of the 21 Executive Director of ILA.

22 MR. FLEMING: I have nothing further.

23 Thank you.

10 Q Mr. Cox, good morning.

11 A Good morning.

12 Q Mr. Correll asked you about having a political science

14 A He did.

20 MR. CORRELL: I'm sorry. I withdraw that.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

23 Q Mr. Cox, do you recall yesterday being asked by 24 Mr. Correll about whether or not you have a political science
25 degree?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1445

1 A Yes.

2 Q And your answer was "No," right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q Mr. Cox, do you need to have a political science degree
5 to engage in lobbying or a political activity in regard to the 6 United States Government?

7 A No.

8 Q And when you started working for ILA, did you have
9 experience in that field?

10 A I had a decade of experience prior to being appointed
11 to the executive director position of ILA.

12 Q And you had experience, on point, overseeing the type
13 of activities that ILA performed; correct?

14 A I was intimately involved in legislative strategy,
15 lobbying, election campaigning, all of those things, prior to 16 assuming the executive director role.

17 Q Mr. Cox, yesterday, Ms. Rogers showed you an exhibit
18 that is marked PX 477.

19 MS. CONNELL: Could we have that brought up,
20 please?

21 It was admitted into evidence, your Honor.

22 (Image displayed.)

23 Q Do you recall this exhibit?

24 A I do.

25 Q Is it fair to say that this was a note to yourself

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 about thoughts you were having regarding your employment?

2 A Yes.

3 I clearly made note -- yes. Sorry. Yes.

4 MS. CONNELL: Can we look at page 2, please?

5 (Image scrolled.)

6 Q Mr. Cox, were these notes to yourself?

7 A Yes.

8 Q You're referring to --

9 You say: "We can't win with a CFO who lives in Texas."

10 Who were you referring to?

11 A Woody Phillips.

12 Q What was the problem with Mr. Phillips living in Texas
13 while CFO of the NRA?

14 A In my opinion, I believed that the chief financial 15 officer of an organization should work at the organization and 16 at headquarters.

17 Q And when you refer to the "ED of GO," who were you
18 referring to?

19 A The Executive Director of General Operations.

20 Q And at that time, was that Mr. Powell?

21 A That was Josh Powell.

22 Q And did you find him to be a problem within the NRA?

23 A I think I accurately described him as an 24 "unprofessional jerk."

25 MR. PETERS: I object to leading the witness.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1447

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 MS. CONNELL: Okay.

3 Q What other problems did you -- were you considering at 4 the time? And I'm sorry. If we turn to the first page of this,
5 this, this is dated 2018?

6 (Image scrolled.)

7 Q Do you see that?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. What other problems were you considering --

10 MS. CONNELL: If we could turn back to page 2 ...

11 Q -- at that time?

12 (Image scrolled.)

13 A As I testified yesterday, there were a number of things
14 that were bothering me, or were troubling me: the harassment I
15 was going through, both personally and professionally, from the 16 outside; the frustrations I had with, again, people who I
17 considered to be incompetent and grossly overpaid. There
18 were -- as I've laid out in this e-mail to myself, there were 19 some things that I was reminding me of. Clearly, I had concerns
20 about the GO, both his location and his demeanor; the Public --
21 Manager of Public Affairs, I had serious concerns about his 22 judgment.

23 Q Well --

24 A The "PR firm in Texas and Oklahoma" was clearly
25 Ackerman McQueen.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1448

1 So I had numerous concerns on my mind at the time.

2 Q Regarding Public Affairs, do you know who you were
3 referring to?

4 A Andrew Arulanandam.

5 Q And what were your concerns about him?

6 A I thought his political judgment was terrible, and that
7 was based on him working for ILA for an extended amount of time.

8 Q And you were noting concerns with Marion. Can you
9 explain what those were?

10 A As I testified yesterday, I mentioned in this
11 e-mail that we need a reset in Florida with Marion, and that's 12 what I believed that was needed: a reset in Florida.

13 Q Okay.

14 MS. CONNELL: You can take that down. Thank you.
15 (Image removed.)

16 Q Mr. Cox, you were friendly with Mr. Frazer; is that 17 accurate?

18 A Yes. I considered John to be a good guy; I liked him.

19 Q And you thought he did a good --

20 MS. CONNELL: Strike that.

21 Q Can you describe what you thought of his performance as 22 the Director of Research and Information within ILA?

23 A I thought John did a great job when he was employed by
24 ILA.

25 Q Can you describe what you thought of Mr. Frazer's work

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1449

1 in terms of legal work at ILA?

2 A Well, there was a general counsel of ILA; there was an
3 Office of Legislative Counsel for ILA, and John Frazer was not
4 part of either one of those divisions. John ran the Research
5 and Information Division and, as I've testified and as I believe
6 sitting here today, John did a good job. I liked him and 7 thought he did a good job as a researcher.

8 Q Why did you believe that John Frazer was not qualified
9 to be appointed GC of the NRA?

10 A I believed, based on my understanding -- or,
11 truthfully, lack of understanding -- of complicated New York
12 not-for-profit laws, that it probably made sense to hire
13 somebody with a background in understanding -- whether that's an 14 internal person or an external person -- who understood those 15 things.

16 A Around given John's lack of -- I did refer -- if I --
17 if I may:

18 I did refer John clients with regards to defense of 19 Second Amendment cases, as far as getting caught with a shotgun 20 traveling, or those sorts of things where it was a problem, but 21 not with -- not with big legal battles or challenges. They were 22 two different things. So I had -- I had concerns -- I just 23 wanted to make sure the job got done.

24 Q Do you recall Ms. Rogers asking you about 25 Mr. LaPierre's expenses being run through ILA?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Redirect/Connell

1450

1 A Yes.

2 Q Because Mr. LaPierre had -- is it --

3 Is it accurate that Mr. LaPierre worked at ILA before
4 he became EVP of the NRA?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Do you recall when Mr. LaPierre was made EVP of ILA?

7 A To my recollection, he served as Executive Director of 8 ILA from 1986 to 1991, and in 1991 he was appointed to the 9 position of executive vice president.

10 MS. CONNELL: One second, your Honor.

11 (Pause.)

12 MS. CONNELL: That's it.

13 Thank you very much.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 Anything further?

16 MS. ROGERS: Just briefly.

17 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MS. ROGERS:

19 Q Mr. Cox, you mentioned that you had differences with 20 Mr. Arulanandam as to political judgment. What do you mean?

21 A Andrew ran the -- the Public Affairs Division for the 22 Institute for Legislative Action when I was executive director.
23 I believed that Andrew's judgment was -- was poor as it related 24 to responding to issues that were critical and important to the 25 members, particularly as it relates to the Institute for

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Rogers

1451

1 Legislative Action. I found him to be lazy in some of the core
2 competencies that are needed to be an effective Public Affairs
3 person for Washington, D.C. and then Capitol Hill. And so, I
4 judged him as not being competent to do the job, which is why I
5 told Wayne that I no longer had faith in him and that if Wayne
6 wanted to hire him, he could, but I was not interested in having 7 him run Government -- or Public Affairs -- for ILA.

8 Q Do you know if the ILA fiscal officer ever found
9 material irregularities and errors in financial books that 10 Mr. Arulanandam maintained?

11 A No.

12 Q And do you know if Mr. Arulanandam ever caused ILA to 13 pay his personal credit card bill?

14 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 A No.

17 MS. ROGERS: Nothing further.

18 (Pause.)

19 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. CORRELL:

21 Q Mr. Cox --

22 A Yes?

23 MR. CORRELL: Upside down (indicating).

24 Is that better?

25 Q Mr. Cox?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Correll

1452

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. Was anyone competent at the NRA, other than you?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Who?

5 A It's a silly question. There were hundreds of 6 employees at the National Rifle Association; there were hundreds
7 of competent people. I think the fact that there were a handful
8 of incompetent people didn't change the fact that it was a great
9 organization, consisting of great members.

10 But it's a -- it's a silly question. If you want to 11 list out all 500, 600 employees that were there when I was at 12 the time, I'm happy to go through and give you my opinion on who 13 was competent or not.

14 THE COURT: I would be less happy about that.

15 (Laughter.)

16 Q Let me narrow it down for you:

17 Was there anyone competent above you (simulating)?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Who?

20 A I thought Kyle Weaver was a great executive director,
21 as I testified to.

22 I thought Josh Powell was a terrible executive
23 director, as I -- as I testified to.

24 I think, at times, Wayne did a great job. I think, at 25 times, Wayne did a terrible job.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Correll

1453

1 I think, at times, Woody did a great job. I think, at
2 times, Woody didn't do so good of a job.

3 So I didn't -- I never -- I never sold myself as,
4 somehow, I'm the best person in that organization, by any
5 stretch. Anybody who knows me would say the same.

6 Q Did you think you could do Wayne's job better than he 7 could?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And you were frustrated because, as you testified
10 before, most people spent only three years in your job and then 11 they would either move up or do something else; correct?

12 A No. They usually moved out.

13 Q Okay.

14 A There was only one that moved up.

15 Q Right. And that was Wayne LaPierre; correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 MR. CORRELL: I'll adjust this volume a little bit.

18 (Pause.)

19 MR. CORRELL: Not quite sure how I do that.

20 THE COURT: No, you -- it's okay now.

21 MR. CORRELL: Oh, okay.

22 Q So you testified that 2016, 2017 were the most
23 successful years, to date, at the NRA; correct?

24 A No.

25 Q When were they? When were those "success" years?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Correll

1454

1 A Oh. I think the formation was in 1975, when I was five
2 years old, so I don't -- can't speak to that. I think the
3 formation of the organization in 1871 was historic. I think the 4 formation of ILA in 1975 was historic. I think the Supreme
5 Court ruling in the Heller decision was historic; the McDonald
6 decision was historic; more recently, the Bruin decision was 7 historic.

8 What I said was, it was among the most successful
9 elections that NRA had been involved in, that I was responsible
10 for the strategy and raising and deploying the money.

11 Q You mentioned three Supreme Court cases: Heller,
12 McDonald, Bruin; correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q What was the seed of those cases? Where did that 15 argument start, the argument that ultimately prevailed in the 16 Supreme Court?

17 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

18 MR. CORRELL: He just mentioned three 19 accomplishments and he's taking credit for those 20 accomplishments.

21 MS. CONNELL: I -- objection, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I am -- regardless of what anyone said,
23 I don't see the relevance to this case; so, sustained.

24 MR. CORRELL: Let me see if I can approach it
25 another way.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Correll

1455

1 Q In 1982, Wayne LaPierre got the Senate committee to
2 conduct an investigation of the Second Amendment; correct?

3 A I was 12 years old. I had no idea of what Wayne did in 4 1982.

5 Q And the Senate committee conducted the investigation;
6 correct?

7 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 Q The Senate committee ultimately produced a report that 10 became the road map for the legal strategy in the courts that 11 you've testified earlier that you had responsibility over;
12 correct?

13 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 Q Did you ever look back to see what work -- what spade
16 work -- Wayne LaPierre had done on the First Amendment -- or the 17 Second Amendment -- issue when you took over as head of ILA?

18 A I considered myself at the time, and still consider
19 myself, fairly well-read on the history of the Second Amendment,
20 so I'm very well aware of some of the past efforts of legendary
21 figures within the NRA and outside of the NRA.

22 Q Did you read the report of the Senate committee?

23 MS. CONNELL: Objection, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Sustained.

25 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, he's just testified that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Correll

1456

1 he's well-read.

2 THE COURT: Him testifying does not make the topic
3 relevant to this lawsuit. It's not.

4 This case is not about the -- anything other than 5 what the allegations are about; not about success in the 6 job, generally.

7 MR. CORRELL: Respectfully disagree, your Honor.

8 The witness has testified about his competence, he
9 has accused many other people of being incompetent, and I
10 have a right to cross-examine him to determine whether he 11 (indicating) is competent.

12 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, if we're diving into 13 legal areas on the Second Amendment and things that 14 happened --

15 THE COURT: Yeah.

16 MS. CONNELL: -- that he admits he has no
17 foundation for, that occurred when he was five, a
18 document -- and this is way outside the scope, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Yeah.

20 No, I appreciate the comments. I'm not changing my 21 ruling.

22 MR. CORRELL: Understood.

23 BY MR. CORRELL:

24 Q Let's switch to another topic: Andrew Arulanandam.

25 You didn't like him; correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Correll

1457

1 A No. I liked Andrew personally. I didn't find him to
2 be professionally up for the job.

3 Q And he's now the -- he's in line to take over as
4 executive vice president on February 1; correct?

5 A I'm not aware of the NRA's plans moving forward.

6 Q And have you given up any aspiration you might have had
7 to take the office of executive vice president?

8 A I have zero desire to take the office of executive vice 9 president, and certainly not under the circumstances surrounding 10 the organization.

11 MR. CORRELL: Thank you.

12 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. WERBNER:

14 Q Both you and Mr. LaPierre knew that Woody Phillips was 15 residing in Texas; isn't that true?

16 A Correct.

17 Q Texas is a big place. Did you hide from -- did
18 Mr. Woody Phillips hide the fact that he was residing in Texas
19 from anyone, to your knowledge?

20 A I never had a conversation with Woody. He didn't
21 report to me; he reported to Wayne.

22 Q All right. But Wayne knew that he was residing in 23 Texas.

24 A That's my understanding, yes.

25 Q And he didn't hide that from you.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Werbner

1458

1 A I don't remember it ever being a conversation, but I
2 don't -- I don't remember that being hidden from me, but I don't
3 remember it being brought up with me, either.

4 Q Do you know where in Texas Woody was residing?

5 A I do not.

6 Q It's a big place; isn't it?

7 A I just said, "I do not."

8 Q I'll represent to you, it was in Dallas, Texas. Isn't
9 that where Ackerman McQueen had a major office?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q And do you have personal knowledge as to how often
12 Woody was going back and forth between Dallas, where Ackerman
13 was, and Virginia?

14 A I do not.

15 Q You mentioned, just a moment ago, that Woody did some 16 great things. I want to focus on that. What were the great
17 things that Woody Phillips did for the NRA?

18 A I thought Woody was well-liked within the staff. It
19 was important -- that was a --

20 An important quality, to me, in judging people, were 21 how they treated other people, how they treated staff who were 22 below them in the hierarchy but not below them in the world we 23 live in, and I thought Wayne was -- not "Wayne." Sorry. I
24 thought Woody was a -- was a nice guy. I thought he treated
25 staff well. I thought that --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cox - by Plaintiff - Recross/Werbner

1459

1 Q Any other ways that he did a great job?

2 A Yeah.

3 I think, when -- when Woody was responsible for 4 processing the financial changes, whether those were the hires,
5 whether those were signing off on bonuses that I would take to 6 Wayne to get signed off on, raises -- merit-based raises -- that
7 I would take to Wayne, Woody was always great about getting
8 those things done quickly and professionally.

9 So I think there were a number of things that -- that
10 Woody did well.

11 Q Any other things that he did well that you can think
12 of?

13 A I thought he did well at the board meetings in giving
14 board presentations to -- to the board of directors.

15 Q All right.

16 Thank you, sir.

17 THE COURT: Anything else?

18 MR. FLEMING: No further questions.

19 THE COURT: Anything from the State?

20 MS. CONNELL: No, your Honor. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 Thank you, sir. You're free to go.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.

24 (Witness excused.)

25 THE COURT: I think it probably makes sense to --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1460

1 You have your next witness available? We'll take
2 our short break and then we'll pick up with the next
3 witness?

4 MS. CONNELL: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. PETERS: Just to note something: We object
7 to --

8 THE COURT: Do you want to --

9 MS. ROGERS: While the jury's out on a short break,
10 there are some document issues it might be efficient to 11 raise before the next witness.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Let's let the jury go.

13 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

14 (The jury left the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: Okay. What can we -- how can I help
16 you?

17 MR. PETERS: Yes.

18 On tab 6 in their listed exhibits for Mr. Journey
19 is a 1997 report on "Monies Spent At Variance With Board 20 Policy to Top Vendors." This is a document that we had 21 moved in limine to exclude because of just how old it is.

22 I also note that this is not the complete document;
23 there's also a number of attachments to this document which 24 were intended to be viewed with the document. So it's not
25 complete.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1461

1 It's extremely old.

2 Judge Journey, in his questioning, didn't seem to 3 remember it in any particular depth.

4 There also isn't --

5 I don't think anybody, frankly, remembers this
6 document. Maybe Mr. Colman, when he comes and testifies
7 about it -- or when he comes -- might be able to testify
8 about it, because he's a co-author.

9 But we object to this. We don't think that stuff
10 from this far back is relevant.

11 The issues that the -- the issue that this is 12 describing, as far as a lack of written contract, is 13 actually different from the issues in this case. There were 14 written contracts with the vendors. There were issues with 15 the invoices, obviously, and a lack of transparency, but 16 there wasn't an issue with not having written contracts,
17 which is the focus of this memo.

18 And the budgeting process that this describes, with 19 the treasurer bringing a contract book to Finance Committee
20 meetings and the contract book not being complete, is just 21 totally not -- doesn't bear any resemblance to the process
22 that the NRA was doing during this period, in terms of 23 budgeting and board oversight.

24 So the document is old; nobody remembers it. It's 25 incomplete. It describes different -- very different --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1462

1 issues, and it's way outside the statute of limitations.

2 So we object.

3 But it also contains improper opinion testimony
4 about the way that the NRA was being run back then. We 5 haven't had discovery from the 1990s on these types of 6 documents.

7 And so, we object to this document and we want to 8 preview that for you right now.

9 THE COURT: Wasn't this already a motion in limine
10 that I denied?

11 MR. WANG: That's correct, your Honor.

12 MR. PETERS: It was denied without prejudice.

13 MR. WANG: Your Honor, may I be heard?

14 THE COURT: If you want to talk me out of my 15 decision, you can certainly give it a --

16 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I won't be arguing --

17 THE COURT: -- give it a strong swing.

18 Well, if there's anything that counsel raised now
19 that you think I should --

20 MR. WANG: Just a completeness issue, your Honor:

21 We have another PX number that is a complete
22 version of the document; it is 5018, and I have two hard
23 copies of it.

24 THE COURT: So what are you proposing; that you
25 want to change the exhibit?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1463

1 MR. WANG: I'll change the number from 3562 to
2 5018.

3 THE COURT: And that contains the referenced
4 attachments?

5 MR. WANG: It contains the attachments that
6 Mr. Peters was referring to.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 Well, I mean, that would -- that was going to be
9 one of my questions, was whether it was complete.

10 Look, I went through all this --

11 MS. COUTU: Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MS. COUTU: We have not spoken on this. This is as 14 to Mr. Phillips, specifically:

15 I know this was a motion that was raised by the NRA
16 previously in their motion in limine and you had reserved.
17 But when you talked about this at oral argument on December
18 17th, you were discussing how it would potentially relate to 19 the NRA, because the NRA is bringing up certain accusations,
20 or their position, which I understand, of the now-corrected
21 certain actions. Mr. Phillips is doing no such thing.
22 Mr. Phillips has not extended the scope. Mr. Phillips has 23 not brought in anything that relates to corrected actions,
24 and that was the basis that you said they might be relevant.

25 As to Mr. Phillips, there is minimal to no

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1464

1 relevance, and it's unduly prejudicial, because while we
2 haven't gone over and had the charges to the jury yet on 3 what the statute of limitations is, whether it's three or 4 six years, we know for a fact, it is not 28 years. And what
5 this (indicating) document is purporting to say is that 6 Mr. Phillips did things wrong back in 1996, well outside the 7 statute of limitations. And if this was a trial -- as your
8 Honor had pointed out, we are doing four separate trials
9 right now, for four separate defendants, and as to 10 Mr. Phillips, this wouldn't come in. This has no relevance
11 to the actions that are alleged as to Mr. Phillips and it's 12 burdening him and prejudicing him unduly, stating that he
13 now has to account for something from 1996, when this board
14 member who's going to come on and testify then didn't rejoin
15 the board until 2020. He has no personal knowledge as to 16 anything done for 20 years as to Mr. Phillips.

17 THE COURT: Well, counsel for the State, what is --
18 You know, again, the purpose behind this, as I
19 recall it from the in limine hearings, was, look, if the --
20 certainly, if -- at the NRA level, if they're going to bring
21 in the larger historical perspective to go forward in time
22 to say that "you should judge us based on the whole story,"
23 I was persuaded that if -- if references to good-faith --
24 and this is really on all the defendants' parts -- are, you
25 know, "Look, we did the best we could with what we had and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1465

1 some of the stuff we didn't know about, and some of the
2 stuff, once we knew about it, we quickly fixed it," I think
3 it is reasonable to round out the story. If there are 4 earlier events which, at least arguably, cut against the 5 argu -- the positions that one or more of the defendants are 6 taking, then it makes sense to round out the historical 7 story.

8 It is not -- and I will, you know, at the 9 appropriate time, make it clear, I suppose, that some of 10 this stuff is background. And, frankly, that's probably 11 true with some of the subsequent events, is -- is 12 background, because, you know, if there was a violation in 13 2016, a completed violation, the fact that something was 14 changed in 2020 doesn't make the 2016 violation go away.

15 But nevertheless, there's a broader story being
16 told here, and that's fine.

17 So, look, I don't think this is -- in terms of --
18 You're not using this to assert a claim against 19 Mr. Phillips or anyone else as to the events in this 20 setting; right?

21 MR. WANG: That's correct, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: So is the plan to walk this witness, at 23 least, through the details of each of these scenarios, or 24 what -- what -- because I do think that it could get to the 25 point where it does get confusing to the jury if it looks

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 like the State is making claims based on old events. It --
2 I -- I had understood, that was not your purpose and that's
3 not the way the testimony is going to be elicited.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

PROCEEDINGS

1467

1 MR. WANG: I think the way the testimony will be
2 elicited, your Honor, is Judge Journey was on the board at 3 the time of this finance committee report. There were 4 concerns raised in the '90s that this report speaks to.
5 Those concerns are very similar to the concerns that are
6 raised in this period of time. Judge Journey -- The witness
7 is a judge. He will testify to the fact that those concerns
8 were raised in the '90s, and those similar, very similar
9 concerns were raised in his current term on the board
10 between 2020 and 2023.

11 THE COURT: So, my -- my -- I guess my question is,
12 maybe put indelicately, I'm assuming this is sort of a light
13 touch --

14 MR. WANG: Correct, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: -- on the details of the report. This 16 is really setting the table saying look, we looked at some 17 similar kind of things a long time ago. We're not going to 18 wallow in the details of these things.

19 MR. WANG: Correct.

20 THE COURT: And I think, you know, to Ms. Coutu's
21 point, this is -- I will entertain objections if this starts
22 to veer into anything that sounds like the State is seeking 23 to hold Mr. Phillips or anyone liable for things that are in 24 this document. The point of these is to round out the 25 historical picture broadly. So, I would get more concerned

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1468

1 if I thought that you were going to start dredging up each
2 of these things as if they were live allegations.

3 MR. WANG: Completely understood, your Honor. We
4 hope this will be a quick witness.

5 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, may I be heard briefly?
6 The State loves to throw the word corruption around, and I
7 think that's where they are going with this. It's really
8 kind of a suggestion of habit or character or corruption.
9 My concern is that by going this far back they are really
10 throwing mud around on events that are marginal relevance
11 and potentially highly prejudicial. That's my concern.

12 THE COURT: Look, I just disagree. I think that 13 the nature of the defense more broadly is asking the jury,
14 and you've done it in your arguments, to take a holistic 15 approach to, you know, don't look at each individual alleged 16 transaction, you know, look at what these people have done
17 for the organization and take a broader view. And I think
18 that's fine. But once you go down that path, I -- I don't 19 think it's out of bounds for the jury to also hear that some 20 of these things are at least topic wise not all that new.

21 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I'm fine if it's going to 22 go both ways. If it's a two way street.

23 THE COURT: It always has. I've allowed in, over
24 vigorous objection, corrective measure, evidence that easily
25 could have been excluded on the same kind of idea that if

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1469

1 we're going to just focus on only things that are -- are
2 directly relevant to specific allegations, I was persuaded
3 by the defendants that letting the jury have a somewhat
4 broader view, including things that happened, some of the 5 events was reasonable subject to how the instructions are
6 going to tell them how to evaluate those things. And I
7 think, you know, I'll listen to suggestions, if anyone
8 thinks specific instructions are necessary. But I -- At the 9 end of the day it's going to be about them making decisions
10 on the claims. And the defendants are going to argue you
11 have to look at our performance as a whole and not as you've 12 said in the openings, you know, nobody is perfect. There
13 may be some violations here or there, but none of it should 14 rise to the level of a statutory violation in part because 15 you need to look at the person as a whole. Okay. So, we're 16 going to look at the people as a whole.

17 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

18 MS. COUTU: Very briefly if I may. Just two quick
19 points. You just said you were convinced by the defendants
20 about bringing in remedial actions after the fact. I just 21 want to emphasize Mr. Phillips is actually in both 22 directions. We did not want remedial efforts put in --

23 THE COURT: The time to have sort of asked for 24 severance and a separate trial was a long time ago. You
25 know, I am committed to having each defendant get a fair

LAS

1470

1 shake in this. But it doesn't mean excluding evidence
2 that's relevant because not every defendant is exactly
3 equally situated. We'll have to figure out ways in the 4 instructions to make it clearer. But, you know, I think --
5 I don't think that there is -- If there are any particular
6 areas where there is a prejudice to a particular defendant,
7 I will make note of it. And I will make note of it to the
8 jury if I think it makes sense. But, you know, here for a
9 very long time in my supervision of this case the defendants
10 were all kind of moving in one direction. And a lot of 11 decisions about trial management and everything else was 12 made with that in mind and I think correctly. Things have 13 changed somewhat. And, you know, and so I will adapt as 14 need be. But I'm comfortable with the prior rulings remain,
15 correct at least in my view.

16 So, if there is a need for any particular
17 instructions at the end about things, I mean, you know, 18 obviously you made a very -- did a good job of explaining 19 when Mr. Phillips was and wasn't there, which I think is the 20 main point. So, I don't think the jury is missing that.

21 MS. COUTU: Understood, your Honor. I wanted to 22 make it clean for the record, because it was defendants
23 plural.

24 One other thing I wanted to just raise is that I
25 hope your Honor hasn't already ruled as to the

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1471

1 admissibility. I think a foundation needs to be laid here.
2 I don't think it's a business record. It was not produced,
3 from what I understand, by the NRA. So I just think a
4 foundation and authenticity would have to be raised as well
5 with the witness.

6 THE COURT: Well, that I -- I did not rule on any 7 foundation issues.

8 MS. COUTU: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Is this witness able to lay a
10 foundation for this document?

11 MR. WANG: He was on the board. He received a copy
12 of this document while he served on the board in the '90s.
13 He recollects it. He remembers it. He could testify to it.

14 THE COURT: Didn't prepare it?

15 MR. WANG: He didn't prepare it. It's a business
16 record of the finance committee.

17 THE COURT: Is he on the finance committee?

18 MR. WANG: He wasn't on the finance committee. He 19 was on the board of directors. And the finance committee
20 report was presented to the entire board.

21 THE COURT: Is there any witness who is going to be
22 testifying --

23 MR. WANG: Mr. Coleman, who is the author of the 24 report, he is going to be coming at a later date. He will
25 also be able to lay a foundation, authenticate it as a

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1472

1 document that he drafted, authored, and he'll be able to
2 speak to that.

3 THE COURT: So, it would be offered subject to it
4 being established as a business record?

5 MR. WANG: We think we can --

6 THE COURT: Anyway, this was presented to the board
7 of directors of the entity.

8 MR. WANG: Correct.

9 THE COURT: That is sort of the ultimate business
10 record of a corporation it seems to me. You know, it
11 doesn't mean you have to believe it. But it's certainly not 12 something that is slapped together and is of -- So, I think
13 if he's able to testify that he recalls this being presented
14 at a board of directors meeting --

15 MR. WANG: Yes.

16 THE COURT: -- I think that's sufficiently in 17 context and these other -- the drafters are other members of 18 the board?

19 MR. WANG: Yes.

20 THE COURT: All right. I think that's a sufficient
21 foundation of -- of it not being some -- that this is a
22 business record of the entity, if he testifies to that.
23 But, you know, let's start with that. All right. Do you
24 all need a few minutes?

25 MR. FLEMING: Please.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1473

1 THE COURT: All right. Let's try to -- And just
2 another thing. My preference would be not to refer to any
3 honorific titles of any witness. You know, one judge at a
4 time.

5 MR. WANG: So you would like me to call him
6 Mr. Journey?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 MR. WANG: Can I bring out testimony that he is a
9 judge?

10 MR. CORRELL: Is it necessary?

11 MR. FLEMING: Is it necessary, your Honor?

12 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I object to that. He did
13 his deposition from the bench in his courtroom, and he was 14 quite insistent on presenting himself as a judge.

15 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, he's not doing his 16 testimony from his courtroom here. He does not have to be
17 called a judge. But defendants have time and time again
18 brought up the -- the experience, the background of their 19 board members. Judge Journey is a board member. We've had 20 many entrees of board members as court representatives or as 21 party representatives here saying they drove down from this
22 place. They are a fire chief, a wonderful person.

23 Witnesses are entitled to give a little snippet of their 24 background. It's not going to be more than that. I would 25 say the only other honorifics of witnesses upcoming, we have

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1474

1 two lieutenant colonels.

2 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, a judge is in a very
3 special position in the courtroom.

4 MS. CONNELL: No, we agree with that.

5 MS. COUTU: Very quickly as well. To the extent --

6 THE COURT: Look, I don't think I can prevent them
7 from asking what he does for a living, 'cause we've asked
8 virtually everybody else that. So, I'm not going to exclude 9 them from doing that.

10 MS. COUTU: Your Honor, I was actually going to 11 make a different point. As to Ms. Rowling, the other day
12 they played a video, impeachment evidence as to Ms. Rowling.
13 To the extent at any point they try to impeach Judge
14 Journey, we ask they not play the video that shows him at 15 the bench and they just show the transcript.

16 MS. CONNELL: We don't anticipate impeaching our 17 own witness but -- (pause).

18 MR. PETERS: We plan to use the written transcript,
19 which we have uploaded onto Trial Director. We're not going 20 to show this man behind a bench.

21 MR. WANG: Just to give you a little context, this 22 was a deposition taken by Zoom. Judge Journey didn't have 23 the audiovisual capabilities from where he was testifying
24 from to sit anywhere other than where he was, which was --

25 THE COURT: I'll make sure he sits over there.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1475

1 I'll see you in a few minutes.

2 (Whereupon a recess was taken.)

3 THE COURT: All right. Let's get the jury.

4 MS. CONNELL: The witness.

5 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

6 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

7 THE COURT: Thank you. Have a seat. Okay.

8 Counsel, is the State ready to call its next witness?

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. WANG:

7 Q Good morning.

8 A Good morning.

9 Q What is your name, sir?

10 A Phillip Journey.

11 Q Mr. Journey, what state do you reside in?

12 A Kansas.

13 Q And Mr. Journey, what's your current occupation?

14 A I'm a District Court Judge for the State of Kansas in 15 the 18th Judicial District For Division One.

16 Q If I could just ask you to speak closer to the 17 microphone.

18 A Yeah. Okay.

19 Q How long have you been a judge?

20 A I'm in my fourth term. I'm up this cycle in November.

21 Q Mr. Journey, have you engaged in any other public
22 serves in your career?

23 A I previously, before that term of office, a judgeship,
24 I served in the Kansas Senate for five years.

25 Q Mr. Journey, are you a member of the NRA?

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1477

1 A Yes.

2 Q When did you join the NRA?

3 A Oh, that's tough to remember. Probably '83 or '84.

4 Q Have you been involved in any NRA programs?

5 A Yes, I have.

6 Q What programs are those?

7 A I'm a certified handgun instructor. And I've been 8 involved politically before I was a judge with NRA as an 9 inflection volunteer coordinator. I was political activist of 10 the year in 1992.

11 Q Have you ever served on the NRA board?

12 A Yes. I served twice. My first term was from 1995 to 13 '98, and then my second term was from 2020 to April of last
14 year.

15 Q Have you ever served on any other nonprofit boards?

16 A Yes. Alliance Club, Kansas State Rifle Association, 17 things like that.

18 Q Mr. Journey, do you support the mission of the NRA?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Why are you here today?

21 A I'm here because you subpoenaed me.

22 Q And why did you decide to comply with that subpoena?

23 A Well, they usually have consequences as you know. But 24 no, I did want to be here. Thank you.

25 Q Do you recognize regularly attend NRA meetings?

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1478

1 A Yes. The annual meetings for members.

2 Q And did there come a time where you attended an annual
3 meeting in 2019?

4 A Yes. That was in Indianapolis.

5 Q What do you recall from that annual meeting?

6 A I remember one, I really liked the legal seminar that
7 they had. That we attended a political meeting on Friday, and 8 then everything started to melt down. I attended a members
9 meeting on Saturday, and it was apparent that it still
10 continued. And then subsequent to the meetings closing, I
11 attended the board of directors following that meeting.

12 Q When you say "melt down", what are you referring?

13 A The apparent confrontation or controversy between Mr.
14 Oliver North and Mr. LaPierre.

15 Q What was your reaction to the events of the 2019 annual
16 meeting?

17 A Well, the members meeting was particularly difficult.
18 It was the first time I had seen a motion to adjourn that 19 meeting fail in quite a while. Then it degraded into 20 essentially a shouting match with about 5,000 people in the 21 room. And Oliver North had already left the meeting. Had left
22 the facility in Indianapolis over the issues between him and 23 Wayne.

24 Q Did there come a time where you decided to run for the 25 board?

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1479

1 A It was readily apparent to me that NRA needed some
2 help, and I was more than willing to come back. I started
3 discussing the possibility with friends and acquaintances from 4 my first term on the board.

5 Q And did you in fact run for the board in 2020?

6 A Yes.

7 Q How did you get on the board?

8 A Well, the first time I ran was in 1994 I ran -- There
9 are two paths to be nominated to be on the ballot, by petition
10 of the members and by the nominating committee. The first time
11 I ran was in '94. I was nominated by 250 life members, voting
12 members of the association. The second time it was by the 13 nominating committee.

14 Q And 2020?

15 A No, that was in '95, when I started that first term.
16 And then in 2020 I was nominated by the nominating committee for 17 a three year term, which I won. And then this year I've been 18 nominated again by a petition of the membership with a little 19 over 700 life members signing it.

20 Q And in 2020 were you found to be qualified by the 21 nominating committee?

22 A Yes.

23 Q When did you -- How did you find out you had been 24 elected to the board?

25 A We received a letter from Mr. Frazer, the secretary of

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1480

1 the general counsel.

2 Q Do you recall approximately when that happened?

3 A In 2020 it was around April. The meeting was coming
4 right up. And it's scheduled, but then that one was canceled
5 because of COVID.

6 Q Mr. Journey, did you read the -- are you aware of the 7 complaint in this action?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Do you recall when in 2020 it was filed?

10 A Yes. It was immediately after it was filed by your 11 office.

12 Q And did you read that complaint?

13 A Yes.

14 Q What did you do after reading the complaints?

15 A I became a little upset. Actually about half way
16 through I threw up a little.

17 Q And why was -- why did you have such a strong reaction
18 to reading the complaint?

19 A You have to understand the context the history that I
20 have with the association. My first term I was aware there were 21 financial issues. And then I continued to follow the 22 association both in news and in conversations with people that 23 are still involved -- were still involved, whether it was 24 employees or others on the board. And then in 2019, at that 25 point I was aware of your boss's campaign and some of the

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1481

1 statements she made about that campaign. Knowing what I knew or
2 believed to be true from before, I knew they were in trouble.

3 Q Did the complaint raise any concerns for you about the
4 NRA?

5 A Absolutely. It connected so many dots for me that I
6 came to some difficult conclusions.

7 Q Did the complaint raise concerns for you about internal
8 controls of the NRA?

9 MR. PETERS: I'm going to object to the extent I
10 think it's fine for them to ask about his reaction to the 11 complaint, but about his evaluation of the complaint and its 12 merits I think we object to.

13 THE COURT: Well again, just for the jury, the 14 complaint is just allegations. This case is about the 15 evidence introduced here. But I think that the questioning
16 of a board member about their reaction and what they did
17 after seeing it is not asking you to accept the allegations
18 of the complaint but just evaluate board member reactions.
19 So, overruled.

20 Q Mr. Journey, you said the complaint helped you connect
21 a lot of dots?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Can you explain what you mean?

24 A Well, in the time since my first term on the board, we 25 attended most of the annual meetings except some that were like

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1482

1 really far away and we couldn't drive to. And then I would
2 attend the board members that followed those annual meetings
3 when time allowed. I interacted with officers, with members of 4 the board that I've known for now decades. Followed issues in
5 the news. Tried to be aware of actions, for example, candidate
6 endorsements and where they were endorsing and where they
7 weren't and things like that. Then when I read the complaint, I
8 became concerned about internal operations and the duties that 9 all the officers and directors have were actually probably being 10 less than followed.

11 Q After you read the complaint, did you attend any board
12 meetings?

13 A Yes. I attended the board meeting where I was sworn in 14 as a director in October of '20 in Tucson, Arizona.

15 Q Do you recall anything noteworthy happening at that
16 board meeting?

17 A At that board meeting the first order of business after 18 the annual meeting is to swear in all the elected directors.
19 Then the first thing that happens after that is they elect the 20 officers, such as the secretary, treasurer and executive vice
21 president.

22 Q And that October 2020 board meeting, was that your 23 first board meeting?

24 A The first one for that term, yes.

25 Q For that term. Turning your attention to the

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1483

1 January 7th, 2021 board meeting. Did you attend the
2 January 7th, 2021 board meeting?

3 A Yes.

4 Q What, if anything, do you recall about this meeting?

5 A We basically went through the normal routine that they
6 had established at that period of time, which was officers'
7 reports and things like that. And then they did two action
8 items of merit that were worth noting. One was the creation of 9 the special litigation committee. And then other one is Mr.
10 LaPierre's revised employment contract.

11 Q Let's take those one at a time. The first you
12 mentioned was the special litigation committee. What is that?

13 A It was a committee that was suggested by the officers,
14 presidents too who handle the day-to-day routine decisions that 15 clients need to make with attorneys. Because they had so many 16 different court cases out there floating around, it became 17 logistical problem to bring the legal affairs committee together
18 basically and get a quorum every day to start doing things. So,
19 they created a special litigation committee, which was made up
20 of the president and the two vice presidents.

21 Q And did you vote in favor of that?

22 A Yes, I did.

23 Q Why?

24 A I thought it made sense. I knew there are civil cases.
25 There are lots of decisions to be made. And most of them were

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1484

1 routine. And that -- that was probably a more efficient way to
2 handle those routine answers.

3 Q Did you find the special litigation committee performed
4 as you believed it was intended?

5 A No.

6 Q How did it perform?

7 A They never issued a report to the board of directors of 8 what they were doing or what their activities were. There were 9 no minutes the board director could review. It was just 10 basically trust us.

11 Q The second item that you mentioned was an employment
12 agreement. Actually I'll ask you to open your binder up to tab
13 one. This is PX 572.

14 A Yes, I'm there.

15 MR. WANG: Are there any objections to this
16 document?

17 MR. PETERS: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. This one is admitted, PX 572.

19 Q Does this document look familiar to you, Mr. Journey?

20 A (Examining). Yes, it does.

21 Q What is it?

22 A It was the employment agreement the board was asked to 23 ratify in that board meeting.

24 Q And did you have an opportunity to review this
25 contract?

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1485

1 A Limited.

2 Q How did you review it?

3 A We were not provided a copy. And essentially they had
4 two copies in the room for the 60 or so directors that were
5 there. And you had to sit at a little table and sign a log
6 sheet, and then you had an opportunity to read it. You know,
7 there is like 15 to 20 people behind you that all want to read
8 it too. So, we weren't given a copy. We weren't allowed to 9 retain a copy.

10 Q Excuse me.

11 MR. PETERS: I object to the lawyer talking over
12 the witness.

13 THE COURT: I don't -- Were you finished with your
14 answer?

15 THE WITNESS: I think we should make the court
16 reporter's job as easy as possible.

17 THE COURT: We're in complete agreement. We've 18 been talking about that quite a bit.

19 Q Was an electronic copy provided to you before the
20 meeting?

21 A No. No. No. It was very different the second term.

22 Q Did -- did you have a chance too review this contract?

23 A Cursory. Just barely.

24 Q Did you ask any questions?

25 A Yes. I -- I asked to see the previous one, because

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1486

1 they were saying from the podium that this was a much better
2 financial arrangement for the association, and I wanted to look
3 for the comparison.

4 Q And did they provide you with the previous employment
5 agreement?

6 A No. I guess they forgot it.

7 Q Who did you --

8 MR. PETERS: Move to strike as nonresponsive.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

10 Q Who did you ask?

11 A I asked Mr. Frazer.

12 Q And a copy of the previous employment agreement was not 13 provided to you?

14 A No.

15 Q Directing your attention to paragraph 2(a) of the 16 employment agreement.

17 A Yes.

18 Q There is a sentence here that reads, "Employee shall be 19 empowered to" -- It's on the third line.

20 A Yes.

21 Q "Employee shall be empowered to exercise corporate
22 authority in furtherance of the mission and interests of the NRA
23 including, without limitation, to reorganize or restructure the 24 affairs of the association for purposes of cost minimization,
25 regulatory compliance or otherwise." Do you recall reviewing

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1487

1 this portion of the employment agreement?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Did you think this portion of the employment agreement
4 provided Mr. LaPierre with the authority to put the NRA into
5 bankruptcy?

6 A No.

7 Q During this board meeting on January 7th, 2021, was the 8 word bankruptcy used by anyone at this meeting?

9 A No.

10 Q Were the words Chapter 11 used by anyone at this board
11 meeting?

12 A No.

13 Q Did you feel, when you left this board meeting, that 14 you had authorized Wayne LaPierre to put the NRA into
15 bankruptcy?

16 A Absolutely not.

17 Q When did you learn that the NRA filed for bankruptcy?

18 A My wife called me when I was driving home on the 19 15th --

20 Q And --

21 A -- of that month. Yeah. Sorry.

22 Q And how did you learn that the NRA had filed for
23 bankruptcy?

24 A I watched the 5 o'clock news she recorded for me.

25 Q Did you feel that you as a board director had

LAS

Direct-Journey-Wang

1488

1 authorized the NRA to enter into the bankruptcy?

2 A No. I was kind of beside myself at that point.

3 Q When you say "beside yourself", what do you mean?

4 A Upset. Distraught.

5 Q Did you feel misled about the bankruptcy?

6 A Absolutely.

7 Q Did you ever say that the bankruptcy is a symptom of 8 the disease?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Can you explain what you meant?

11 A That in my observations both as an individual and as a
12 member of the board, that from time to time concerns would be 13 raised regarding financial improprieties, controls, balance of 14 power, you know, separation of powers in the corporation, and 15 that was one symptom of the problems that have plagued the
16 organization.

17 Q After the NRA filed for bankruptcy, what actions, if,
18 any did you take?

19 MR. PETERS: I object to them leading the witness.
20 Maybe not for this question but in general.

21 THE WITNESS: Okay.

22 THE COURT: Then there is nothing to rule on.

23 A I did quite a bit. You know, it was funny the way that 24 things worked out in my life at that point in time. That 25 weekend I tried to find some information out that was very

1489

1 difficult. And the following Monday I had minor cancer surgery.
2 I had a carcinoma. And it turned out at the surgery it ended up
3 being a lot bigger than we thought it was going to be. So then
4 they had to do Mohs on my face. So, they had to lift the skin
5 off and shift it around and cover up the hole that they did.
6 And I looked like I had been hit in the head with a two by four.
7 As a judge, I'm doing, at that point I still am doing family
8 law. And so I knew I couldn't look like that and have a victim
9 of domestic violence in my courtroom, because they would 10 probably just meltdown right there. So, I got two weeks off to 11 heal. And in that two weeks I started contacting individuals,
12 like law school professor, a friend of mine that I had retired a
13 few months as the trustee for the bankruptcy court in the state
14 of Kansas, because bankruptcy law is like a creature onto 15 itself. I really don't get a lot of exposure in my practice of 16 25 years or --

17 Q Were you trying to learn about bankruptcy?

18 A Trying to learn about bankruptcy.

19 MR. PETERS: I object to the lawyer talking over
20 the witness.

21 A Yeah, I was trying to learn about bankruptcy.

22 Q And did you end up hiring bankruptcy counsel?

23 A Yes. I developed a plan, a strategy for the Court,
24 researched attorneys, raised the money and hired counsel. In 25 about two weeks after that we had our motion on file.

LAS

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1490

1 Q You referred to a "motion." What motion are you
2 referring to?

3 A We filed the motion to appoint an examiner in the
4 bankruptcy.

5 Q And what is an "examiner"?

6 A An examiner is kind of like an auditor. You know, they
7 go in, they look at the books, they interview people, they try
8 to figure out what's going on in the corporate operation, and 9 then make recommendations to the court regarding those --
10 regarding what they've observed.

11 Q Did you agree with the NRA's filing for bankruptcy?

12 A No.

13 Q Were you seeking, through this motion for an examiner,
14 a different end result than the NRA was seeking?

15 A Well, they wanted to file bankruptcy and, you know, I
16 just wanted to find out what was going on and whether it was 17 really valid.

18 Q I'm going to direct your attention to tab 2 of the 19 document, which is PX 2254.

20 A Thank you.

21 Yes, I have it.

22 Q Does this look familiar to you?

23 A Yes.

24 Q What is it?

25 A It's our motion to appoint the examiner in the

1 bankruptcy case.

2 MS. WANG: Any objection to this exhibit?

3 MS. COUTU: Yes, your Honor.

4 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor.

5 MR. PETERS: Yes.

6 This is a long -- this is a brief that his lawyer
7 prepared to be filed in the bankruptcy and it has no
8 independent factual allegations based on his own personal 9 knowledge. It's just his lawyer's arguments married to 10 citations to the complaint.

11 MR. WANG: This --

12 Your Honor, may I respond?

13 THE COURT: What's the evidentiary purpose of this?

14 MR. WANG: To show that Mr. Journey was raising
15 concerns. This is his act, of a whistleblower, calling for 16 an investigation into the affairs of the NRA. That is the 17 specific relief that he requests within the motion for 18 examiner and this is his -- this is his blowing the whistle.

19 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, if I may respond --

20 THE COURT: So this --

21 In other words, it's not for the truth of --

22 This isn't evidence of the underlying -- of 23 anything, but this is just to show what assertions were 24 made.

25 MR. WANG: He took an action. He raised concerns.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1492

1 He asked for someone to conduct a further investigation
2 through this document (indicating).

3 MS. ROGERS: Your Honor, if I may:

4 If the fact that is sought to be established is
5 that the witness filed a motion or made certain allegations,
6 that fact could be established without admitting the content
7 of a legal pleading. There's also a separate legal issue as
8 to whether commencing litigation or actually in litigation
9 adverse to the NRA constitutes an act of whistleblowing.

10 MS. COUTU: Your Honor, I think there are 11 additional issues that might be raised. Would it be 12 possible to do so at sidebar?

13 THE COURT: I'm going to -- I don't know what the 14 issues can be. This is a publicly filed document. This is 15 simply being admitted to show that it happened. I've told
16 this to the jury before.

17 I mean, allegations that people make, that's not 18 evidence, in and of itself. This is being offered just to 19 show witness -- the statements the witness was advancing.
20 So it's really just being offered for the fact that it was 21 filed, not for the -- not to prove to you that the 22 allegations in it are true. That, you will have to decide
23 based on what you hear in this courtroom.

24 So it's plainly admissible, in my opinion.

25 So it's admitted; PX 2254.

3 Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Journey?

4 A Yes.

5 Q What is it?

6 A That is the motion we filed for an examiner in the 7 bankruptcy filed by NRA in 2021.

8 Q And directing your attention to PX 2254, page 3 --

9 A Yes.

10 Q -- at the very top of the document, the very top of 11 this page --

12 A Yes.

13 Q -- where it -- it says here:

14 "Movant seeks the appointment of an examiner to 15 bring to light the veracity of the alleged fraud,
16 dishonesty, incompetence, and gross mismanagement that has 17 plagued the NRA's reputation, caused significant alienation
18 of the Association's members and supporters, and hampered
19 its ability to fulfill its core organizational purpose."

20 Was this the purpose of your filing of the motion for 21 examiner?

22 A Yes. I wanted some answers.

24 filed it?

25 A Yes.

1 Q And did you review everything in this document before

5 conclusion paragraph, number 39 --

6 (Image scrolled.)

7 A Yes.

8 Q -- were you seeking an examiner to conduct an
9 investigation?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And why were you seeking an investigation?

12 A Well, I mean, just as everyone said a few moments ago,
13 all I knew was what I read in the press, my personal 14 conversations with others, my research and what was alleged in 15 the attorney general's original complaint, and I would like to 16 know whether those things and those allegations were true or 17 not.

18 Q Do you know if an examination -- an investigation --
19 was eventually conducted from this?

20 A No. You won your motion to dismiss.

21 Q What was the end result of the bankruptcy?

22 A It was dismissed for being filed in bad faith by --

23 MR. CORRELL: Objection, your Honor.

24 The record of the court's action speaks for itself,
25 and it's a public document. If we're going to get into the

1 question of what the court ruled, I think we should do it
2 completely.

3 THE COURT: I think that's fair.

4 I think there's actually different terms of art
5 than -- than what was just stated, so why don't we -- so,
6 sustained.

7 A I believe the judge's actual words were, "not filed in 8 good faith," so --

9 MR. CORRELL: Move to strike.

10 MR. FLEMING: Can we move to strike the answer if 11 the objection was sustained?

12 THE COURT: Yeah.

13 Are you going to be introducing that at some point?

14 MR. WANG: Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 Well, why don't we just -- we'll strike it for now,
17 we'll table it, and we'll see what the record says.

24 Did you attend an NRA Board meeting regarding the
25 bankruptcy?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1496

1 A Yes.

2 Q When did that take place?

3 A In March of that year.

4 Q And did you attend that meeting in person?

5 A Yes.

6 Q What was the purpose of that board meeting?

7 A The purpose of that board meeting, as announced, was 8 essentially to review the bankruptcy and seek the board's
9 approval for its filing subsequent to it being filed.

10 Q Was a vote taken at this meeting?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And how did you vote?

13 A I felt I had to abstain because of the circumstances
14 with me filing the motion.

15 Q What took place at this board meeting other than the 16 vote to ratify the bankruptcy?

17 A The board went into executive session, and we were told
18 we were going to be given the strategy and the reasoning --

19 MR. PETERS: I object, to the extent that he's 20 describing things in executive session that are 21 attorney-client privilege that he's been instructed
22 repeatedly not to reveal.

23 THE COURT: Was this -- the advice -- being given
24 by counsel at the executive session?

25 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry?

1 THE COURT: Was -- were you -- are you --

2 To the extent that counsel was giving advice at the 3 executive session, that is a privilege that belongs to the
4 organization, so I would -- I think it's a legitimate
5 objection.

6 MR. WANG: I'm not asking Mr. Journey about any 7 comments made during executive session from an attorney.

8 THE WITNESS: Other than ...

9 MR. WANG: I'm not asking him about comments from 10 an attorney.

11 THE COURT: Well, attorney representing the entity.

12 MR. PETERS: Correct.

13 THE COURT: I mean, there are some attorneys who 14 are probably board members, including this one.

15 MR. WANG: Correct.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 So, other than advice being provided by counsel,
18 you can answer.

19 Q Were there any remarks during the executive session
20 directed at you, Mr. Journey?

21 A Yes.

22 Q What was the nature of those remarks?

23 A The NRA's attorneys stood up in front of the board,
24 pointed at me and said I was their greatest enemy.

25 Q Did you think they were providing you legal advice when

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1498

1 they said that?

2 A No.

3 Q Did you have an opportunity to speak at this board
4 meeting?

5 A I tried to exercise a point of personal privilege.

6 Q And what happened?

7 A After they impugned my character, said horrible things
8 about me, said I was a liar, said this, said that, we got out of 9 executive session and they were about to adjourn the meeting and
10 I got up and asked for a point of personal privilege because I
11 wanted to respond to those accusations on the record, and I
12 was -- eventually, as I tried to explain it -- first, I was 13 given an opportunity to explain. As I went through my reasoning
14 as to why I filed this motion, people started jumping up and 15 yelling at me and I was -- they were yelling, "Out of order" and 16 Mr. Willes Lee was on the podium at that time and he -- they all
17 shut me down. They didn't really want to know why.

18 Q I'm going to direct your attention to tab 3,
19 Mr. Journey, of your binder and a document that is PX 379.

20 A Yes, I'm familiar with it.

21 Q Does this document look familiar to you?

22 A Yes. It's a transcript of that meeting.

23 THE COURT: Is there any objection?

24 MR. WANG: Any ...

25 MR. PETERS: I'd just note that the parts of an

1 executive session are redacted and there are very clear
2 instructions for board members not to reveal what is said in
3 executive session.

4 But we don't have an objection to this exhibit.

5 THE COURT: Well, in this proceeding, the only
6 instructions about what he can and cannot reveal are the 7 limits of attorney-client privilege. Okay?

8 MR. PETERS: Understood.

9 (Image displayed.)

10 BY MR. WANG:

11 Q What is this document?

12 A It's a -- it is a transcript of the board of directors
13 meeting.

14 Q I'm going to direct your attention to page 19 of PX
15 379.

16 A Yes.

17 (Image scrolled.)

18 Q You said that you had asked for a point of personal 19 privilege?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Is this the portion of the transcript where you are 22 asking to speak?

23 A Yes.

25 Q And directing your attention to page 20 -- page 22 --

3 A Yes.

4 Q -- these are your words; correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And you say: "And, you know, -- and I hear Mr. Cotton
7 say it's all bogus, it's all a political smokescreen, and 8 there's nothing to it."

9 Did Mr. Cotton say that to you?

10 A He said that in the executive session.

11 Q And did you believe that to be true, Mr. Journey?

12 A Yes.

13 Q What Mr. Cotton said?

14 A Oh. No, I believe the statement I said was true.

15 Q What was the statement that you said?

16 A That Mr. Cotton, basically, foo-fooed it all off and 17 said, "There's nothing to see; move along, move along."

18 Q And at the bottom of this page, Mr. Lee calls you "out 19 of order." Do you see that?

20 A Yes, that's correct.

21 Q And did you finish what you were trying to say at this
22 board meeting?

23 A No.

24 Q Were you denied the opportunity to speak to the board?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 Q Did you feel the board was responsive to the concerns
2 you were raising in the motion for examiner?

3 A No.

4 MR. PETERS: Objection.

5 The motion for examiner was directed to the court,
6 not to the board. What was the board going to do?

7 THE COURT: I -- maybe you can clarify the question
8 a bit. I'm --

9 You were talking about the concerns themselves,
10 right?

11 Q Did you feel like you were raising concerns?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And did you feel the board was responsive to those
14 concerns?

15 A I was actually trying to respond to board members'
16 questions as to why I filed the motion, and I was not allowed to 17 re -- answer that question fully.

18 Q I'm going to direct your attention to tab 5, PX 2235.

19 (Image removed.)

20 A Yes. I have it.

21 MR. WANG: Any objection to this document?

22 THE COURT: Any objections?

24 MR. PETERS: No objection.

25 MR. FLEMING: No objection from me.

1 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: It's admitted.

3 (Image displayed.)

4 Q Mr. Journey, does PX 2235 look familiar to you?

5 A Yes.

6 Q What is it?

7 A It is an e-mail from Mr. Frazer, the secretary.

8 Q And was Mr. Frazer passing along another message?

9 A Yes; from the president, at the time, of the NRA,
10 Ms. Carolyn Meadows.

11 Q And did you review this message?

12 A I -- I was provided a copy of it after it was sent by 13 another board member.

14 Q What is your understanding of to -- the audience to 15 whom this message was sent?

16 A It was to the fellow -- my fellow board members.

17 Q Even though the e-mail at the center of the page says,
18 "from: John Frazer" "to: John Frazer"; correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q I'm going to direct your attention to the middle of the

22 (Image scrolled.)

23 A Yes.

24 Q -- starting with the sentence, "Beyond ...":

25 "Beyond other glaring errors and omissions, I am

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1503

1 saddened to say the legal filing contains many outright
2 untruths."

3 Did you receive this message from Ms. Meadows?

4 A I had to get it from a third party. I don't think I
5 was on the original copy list.

6 Q Did you agree with her statement?

7 A Of course not.

8 Q Did you think she was calling you a liar?

9 A Absolutely.

10 (Image removed.)

11 Q I'm going to shift a little to a different topic:

12 You testified that you previously served on the board
13 between 1995 and 1998; is that correct?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q Did you attend board meetings during your first term?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Can you describe any differences, if any differences
18 existed, between how the board ran in the 1990s versus how it
19 runs today?

20 A In the 1990s, it was customary for the staff to send 21 out a board packet to the board members about a month before the 22 meeting -- usually, it was about an inch to two inches thick; it
23 had reports from the officers; it had committee agendas -- so
24 we'd be ready to go to work when we got to the board and we knew 25 what was going on and what we might want to go look into or

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1504

1 follow up on from a previous meeting. And then, when we'd get
2 there, there would be a supplemental packet of things that had
3 occurred since the mailing, and then we would go to our
4 committee meetings.

5 Back then, there were two days of committee meetings,
6 which is about the same as today; but we had two days of board
7 meetings, where now they seldom have more than half a day.

8 And you don't get the packets until you get there, so
9 you don't have time to read it.

10 Q Could you --

11 A And then, when you get into the board meetings --

12 MR. PETERS: Objection to the lawyer talking over
13 the witness once again.

14 MR. WANG: I thought he was done.

15 A And then, when you'd get to the board meeting, there
16 would be another packet on the table as it started, so you'd be 17 trying to watch the meeting, read the packet at the same time.
18 It was not very workable.

19 Q Did you feel -- did you receive sufficient information
20 prior to board meetings in your more recent term of service?

21 A No.

22 Q We've heard the phrase "executive session." What is
23 executive session?

24 A Executive session was used in both terms of my service
25 on the board. Executive session is where confidential matters

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1505

1 are discussed by board members and it would be a violation of
2 protocol to discuss that, outside that executive session, with 3 anyone other than someone that was in it with you.

4 Q Was executive session used frequently in the '90s, when
5 you served on the board?

6 A No. It was usually just referred -- reserved -- for 7 bad-personnel matters.

8 Q And was executive session used more frequently --
9 How frequently was executive session used when you were 10 on the board more recently?

11 A I would say, in those board meetings, they were in 12 executive session about -- certainly, more than half the time
13 and routine things would be discussed in executive session.

14 Q From your time in the '90s, do you recall concerns
15 being raised by fellow board members Mr. Carone and Mr. Colman
16 about NRA management?

17 A Yes. I -- being from Kansas, I tend to step into the 18 tornadoes too often.

19 Q Do you recall receiving a report authored by Mr. Carone
20 and Mr. Colman?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Do you remember reading that report?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Was that report presented to the entire board?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1506

1 Q I'll ask you to turn to tab 6 of your binder.

2 MR. WANG: Tab 6 is PX 5018. This is the exhibit
3 that we previously discussed, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Right.

5 So the one in your binder doesn't have the 6 attachments, but the attachments are part of this --

7 MR. WANG: May I approach the witness?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 (Mr. Wang did so.)

10 Q This has the attachments (handing).

11 A Thank you.

12 Q You're welcome.

13 (Mr. Wang returned to the podium.)

14 Q Does this document look familiar to you, Mr. Journey?

15 A Very much so, yes.

16 Q Was this the report presented by the Finance Committee
17 to the NRA Board in -- in -- during your service in the '90s?

18 A Yes.

19 MR. WANG: I move for the document's admission.

20 MR. PETERS: We understand -- we object but we 21 understand that the Judge has ruled a little differently.

22 THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted; PX 5018.

23 (Image displayed.)

24 Q Mr. Journey, are you familiar with this report?

25 A Yes; I have reviewed it recently.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1507

1 Q To your knowledge, what prompted Mr. Colman and
2 Mr. Carone to prepare this report?

3 A They completed this report at the direction of the
4 board.

5 THE COURT: I'm just going to give a -- just a
6 quick instruction to the jury:

7 The matters discussed in this report are not part
8 of this lawsuit itself. This is well before the 9 allegations. This is part of the background, I guess I
10 would say. So just take it with that in mind. But none of 11 these are part of the claims in this case.

12 Q Mr. Journey, I'm going to direct your attention to the 13 bottom of PX 5018, page number 3.

14 (Image scrolled.)

15 Q The last sentence, starting with "While there ...," it
16 reads:

17 "While there are a few more that have the required
18 signatures and the financial service folks are coming up
19 with an exact count, the general trend is clear, the Board
20 mandated financial control requiring the prior approval of 21 the President and Vice President for any agreement,
22 including verbal, in excess of $100,000 was habitually
23 ignored by management. Please note that this only covers
24 the NRA proper. NRA/ILA has not been examined yet."

25 Was this an issue that was raised by Mr. Colman and

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1508

1 Mr. Carone in the 1990s, during your service on the board?

2 A Well, honestly, the issue was raised by several other
3 board members and this was done in response to those concerns,
4 and that was the conclusions they reached after their
5 investigation.

6 Q And were those conclusions shared with the entire board
7 at that time?

8 A Yes, they were. That was customary then.

9 Q Would you agree that this report raised a number of 10 concerns regarding Mr. LaPierre's failure to comply with NRA
11 policy?

12 A Yes.

13 Q To your knowledge, were these concerns ever brought to 14 the attention of Mr. LaPierre?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Were they ever brought to the attention of
17 Mr. Phillips?

18 A Yes. They were all in the meeting with us.

19 Q Was Marion Hammer on the board at that time?

20 A Yes. She was president at that time.

21 Q Was Allan Cors on the board at that time?

22 A Yes, he was.

23 Q Was Herb Langford?

24 A Yes, he was.

25 Q Was Jim Porter?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1509

1 A Yes, he was.

2 Q Based on your service on the board, how would you
3 describe the effectiveness of board oversight at the NRA?

4 A Well, it was better back then than it is now.

5 Q And how would you describe the state of governance at
6 the NRA?

7 A How do I describe what?

8 Q The state of governance.

9 A It was better back then than it is now, too.

10 Q And how would you describe financial controls at the
11 NRA?

12 A Now they're nonexistent.

13 Q Do you believe that the NRA operates with different
14 levels of access, where some have access and some do not?

15 A Yes.

16 Q What do you mean by that?

17 A I just -- it's -- it seems to be how information and 18 decisions are made -- information's disseminated and decisions
19 are made. In one of the depositions, I described it kind of 20 like the solar system: There were some board members that were 21 on Mercury and some on Mars and I was, like, out there in the 22 Oort cloud somewhere.

23 Q What would you like to see happen with the NRA,
24 Mr. Journey?

25 A I would like to have the ship righted. I would like to

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Direct/Wang

1510

1 have corporate governance reestablished, the financial controls,
2 proper fiduciary activity on the part of the officers and the
3 board. I would like to have the ship sailing in the right
4 direction.

5 MR. WANG: Nothing further, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 We have about 20 minutes before the break, so you
8 can get started.

9 MR. PETERS: Thank you.

10 Could we pull up PX 2224?

11 This is tab 1 of our binder.

12 THE COURT: Do you have a separate binder?

13 MR. PETERS: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Does the witness have it?

15 THE WITNESS: No.

17 Q Well, can you recall --

18 A -- I did receive a vote from the nominating committee

20 thinking at the time.

21 Q Okay. Why don't we go to PX 2224? Do you have it in

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. And moving -- We've talked about how you voted

7 protect the NRA from the efforts of the New York Attorney
8 General to bury the NRA --

9 MR. WANG: Same objection, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Hang on a second. Before you can sort
11 of read from it, we have to decide whether it's an 12 admissible exhibit or not.

13 MR. PETERS: I'm not going to move it into
14 evidence.

15 THE COURT: So is this to -- What are you using it
16 for? To refresh his recollection?

17 MR. PETERS: Refresh his recollection.

18 THE COURT: You have to ask him a question that he 19 doesn't remember the answer to and then you can try to 20 refresh it.

21 MR. PETERS: Okay.

22 THE COURT: So, you don't need to have this
23 document in front of you at this point. So why don't you
24 just ask the question.

25 MR. PETERS: Sorry.

LAS

1 Q The purpose of this initiative was in your words, "to
2 protect the NRA from the efforts of the New York Attorney
3 General"?

4 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor. Mr. Peters is
5 clearly reading from the document.

6 MR. PETERS: No. I'm reading from my own -- my own
7 statement. My own question.

8 THE COURT: So, let me just go back to what you're 9 asking him about.

10 MR. FLEMING: Surely the document can be the basis
11 for the question.

12 THE COURT: I who lost the thread a little bit
13 here. What was the original question?

14 Q The question is the purpose of your Restore the NRA
15 initiative was to protect the NRA from the efforts of the New 16 York Attorney General to bury the NRA, wasn't it?

17 A Well, that's one of the statements in there. There was 18 much more.

19 Q But you put that statement on your website, didn't you?

20 MR. WANG: We're objecting to this line of 21 questioning as being the line of questioning that you've 22 already ruled on.

23 THE COURT: Yeah. At this point it's in the 24 background. You know, we're not -- As I've said before,
25 this is -- this case is not about a war of words between the

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1520

1 Attorney General and the NRA. This is about the allegations
2 in the case. In some cases this background may be relevant.
3 In some cases it might not. I don't know what you're using
4 it for right now. The scope of this witness' testimony on 5 direct anyway had nothing to do with this, right?

6 MR. PETERS: I think I'm going to go to the motion
7 that he filed with the bankruptcy.

8 THE COURT: Since that was covered on direct, why
9 don't you do that.

10 MR. PETERS: Okay.

11 Q So, this -- With respect to your motion to appoint an 12 examiner in February -- February 2021, that motion was based on 13 the allegations in the NYG's complaint, wasn't it?

14 A In part. In part, yes.

15 Q So, did you cite any other testimony or your personal
16 knowledge or was it based on what was in the complaint?

17 A I believe that it went through more than simply 18 expressing concern about what was alleged in the complaint, if 19 that was the heart of it, because that was the most detailed
20 roadmap I had at that point.

21 Q Right. So but -- so do you have personal knowledge of 22 the veracity of the allegations in the NYG's complaint?

23 A No.

24 Q No.

25 A I did know -- I did know that they were based on sworn

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1521

1 testimony and documents produced as a result of the
2 investigation completed by the Attorney General's Office prior
3 to filing the complaint.

4 Q And how do you know that?

5 A Press reports.

6 Q Press reports, okay. So you know that by reading the 7 Attorney General's complaint and press reports that talked about
8 the Attorney General's complaint?

9 A Talked about the process getting there. For example,
10 when there was an inquiry by the Attorney General with Oliver
11 North and Mr. Brewer and counsel wanted to attend that, and the 12 Court denied that. They were denied that, I guess.

13 MR. PETERS: I move to strike. It was a yes or no
14 question.

15 Q Was there any other basis for your motion other than 16 the New York Attorney General's complaint and what you had read
17 about in the press?

18 A Yes.

19 Q What was that?

20 A My efforts to confirm those allegations in the 21 complaint. Conversations that I had with board members,
22 officers, employees of NRA, with others in the legal profession.
23 Quite a bit gave me concern as it developed.

24 Q Okay. And so moving to number four.

25 THE COURT: What number four?

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1522

1 MR. PETERS: Tab four. This is their exhibit.

2 Q So just to back up a little bit.

3 THE COURT: Is this tab four of the plaintiff's
4 binder?

5 MR. PETERS: Yes. Excuse me, your Honor.

6 Q Just to back up, did any other NRA members join your
7 motion to appoint an examiner?

8 A Former and current board members were co parties with 9 me.

10 Q Which ones?

11 A The ones that were listed.

12 Q Where are they listed?

13 A I believe they are in the Court file. It was myself,
14 Rocky Marshall, Esther Schneider, Buzz Merit and one more.

15 Q Okay.

16 A I'm trying to think of the name, 'cause I know he died.

17 Q So, moving to PX 224 -- 2254, page 2.

18 THE COURT: Which -- which tab?

19 MR. PETERS: I'm sorry. Go back to two now.

20 Q To your motion. Where are they identified?

21 THE COURT: So it's PX 2254. Do you want to put 22 that up?

23 A I believe they are identified on the entry of 24 appearance by counsel.

25 Q Why -- But not in this document?

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1523

1 A I don't know. I haven't read it in a while.

2 Q Okay. So if you go to page 2 of 16 it says --

3 A I know.

4 Q Please let me finish my question. It says "Phillip
5 Journey, movant", right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. And are there any other movants listed?

8 A Their experience --

9 Q It's a yes or no question.

10 A Their experiences are listed in the document.

11 Q But they didn't joint the motion?

12 A I was -- I was the managing party. I was the only one
13 in the group of directors that was allowed to watch the entire 14 bankruptcy trial because I was given that special setting by the 15 judge, because I was the movant I suppose.

16 Q Could other board members joined your pleading if they 17 had wanted to?

18 A With my permission, yes.

19 Q Okay. But you don't have any other board members
20 listed here as the movant, do you?

21 A This was early. They were in many other documents that 22 are contemporaneous to this one.

23 Q Understood. So do you understand that the NRA opposed
24 this motion?

25 A Yes, as did the Attorney General and Ackerman McQueen

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1524

1 and several other parties.

2 Q Okay. You had an understanding that the -- that the
3 NRA opposed this motion that you had filed in court, right?

4 A I'm sorry. What?

5 Q You understood that the NRA had opposed the motion that
6 you filed in court, right?

7 A Well, we never really got to my motion. That's my 8 understanding from their briefs, yes.

9 Q We'll get to that. So, if you go to tab 18 on your 10 cross binder.

11 A Mm-hmm. I got it.

12 Q If you see page -- the preliminary statement.

13 THE COURT: Hang on a second. Can we just -- Do
14 you want the jury to see any of this?

15 MR. PETERS: No.

16 THE COURT: This is just for questioning.

17 MR. PETERS: Do you have any objection?

18 MR. WANG: What's the number?

19 MR. PETERS: This is tab 18 here.

20 MS. CONNELL: We don't have your binder.

21 MR. PETERS: It's this document.

22 MR. WANG: (Examining).

23 MS. CONNELL: Are you offering it into evidence?

24 MR. PETERS: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Do you have an exhibit number that you

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1525

1 want to identify it by?

2 MS. CONNELL: I don't see an exhibit number on
3 here, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: DX?

5 MR. PETERS: 1083.

6 MS. ROGERS: 1083.

7 THE COURT: Why don't we do this. We're at 8 actually the time to break. We don't have time for the 9 questioning to start, counsel. Why don't we let the jury
10 go. I'll -- We'll rule on admissibility and we'll start
11 with your questioning after the break. We'll take our 12 break. We'll reconvene at 2:15.

13 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

14 (Whereupon the jury panel departed the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: All right. First of all, it would be 16 helpful to have all exhibits premarked so we can sort of 17 avoid the unnecessary delay of the logistics. And DX 1-1 or 18 whatever that was, is the one just to designate that it's 19 NRA's?

20 MS. EISENBERG: Correct.

21 THE COURT: So, it's Defendants 1 basically.

22 MS. EISENBERG: Correct.

23 THE COURT: Is that the way we've been numbering
24 all of them?

25 MS. EISENBERG: Yes, your Honor.

LAS

1526

1 THE COURT: I hadn't noticed that. So, is there
2 any objection to introducing the NRA's response to the 3 motion?

4 MS. CONNELL: I think probably not, your Honor. I
5 want to check out one thing. If I could just let them know.

6 THE COURT: I would think the same principle that 7 permitted the motion to come in, in that it's not for the 8 truth of the matter asserted, it's for the fact that it was 9 made, I would probably permit this as well. I'll let you
10 think about it.

11 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'm just trying to see if 12 it's a memo of law or a pleading and that's it. I probably 13 will agree.

14 THE COURT: All right. So let's reconvene at 2:15.

15 MS. CONNELL: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Judge, I'm sure you know this. While 17 you're off the stand, you're essentially on the stand. So
18 you shouldn't discuss your testimony with any of the counsel
19 or anyone else. Thank you.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1527

1 THE COURT: Good afternoon, folks. Look, I think
2 we're going to have to excuse that juror number two. I
3 mean, there is no making up for missing a day. I think our
4 choice, when somebody doesn't show up, is to either suspend
5 the entire day or excuse them. And so I'm going to 6 reinforce to the remaining folks how important it is for 7 folks to show up every day, absent something catastrophic
8 and also provide as much information as possible so we --
9 you know, if the person is out until 11 o'clock in the 10 morning, that may be a different decision for us than if 11 they are just gone without explaining what's happening. So,
12 I mean, I don't really know anything about what the 13 circumstances were. So, that's why we have extra jurors.
14 That's okay. We -- we are not in any danger, but I want to 15 just reinforce to the remaining jurors how important it is.

16 And so anyway, just on the document management
17 side. If -- I understand on cross sometimes the exhibits
18 aren't known in advance and, you know, ideally they can be 19 marked in advance and then introduced for identification
20 purposes with an exhibit number that's premarked. If that 21 hasn't happened and it can't be done real quickly, then we 22 have to just do it the old fashion way, of giving a hard
23 copy to the court reporter and asking the court reporter to 24 mark it. But we have to follow that protocol before showing
25 anything to the jury. And also it's important to just have

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1528

1 an identification number, because if they want to go back
2 and look at something from the transcript, and we all want
3 to do the same, it's important to know what document we're 4 talking about. All right. Anything else before I get the
5 jury?

6 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, no, but after this we
7 hope to play the video -- Yes, before the jury comes back
8 in. I apologize. After Mr. Journey is off the stand, we 9 want to go to the video of Ms. Meadows. I would ask if the 10 Court could give the very brief instruction, Ms. Meadows, 11 for medical reasons, was unavailable and is appearing by
12 deposition.

13 THE COURT: We'll see how much time we have.

14 MS. EISENBERG: Perhaps also the date of the 15 deposition.

16 THE COURT: I know you asked me that before. At 17 least the last time, the date is actually on the screen.
18 With Ms. Meadows it's three different days, I guess. But I
19 believe, and this was true with Mr. Tedrick as well, it was 20 right on the screen there, right?

21 MS. EISENBERG: Right.

22 MS. CONNELL: Yes.

23 THE COURT: I'm fine to make the point that it's on 24 the screen. I understand.

25 MS. EISENBERG: Thank you, your Honor. There were

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1529

1 also several exhibits that we objected to on hearsay
2 grounds, and the Government agrees not to offer them for
3 their truth. So, if you would be so kind as to give a
4 limiting instruction to the jurors that some of those are 5 coming in, they are coming in for the limited purpose of 6 showing that statements were made.

7 THE COURT: Are there particular -- Right before we
8 do that, we'll probably have a short break. I mean, if you
9 can give me a list of the exhibits that applies to.

10 MS. EISENBERG: Certainly, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Let's get the jury.

12 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

13 (Whereupon the jury panel entered the courtroom.)

14 THE COURT: Have a seat everyone. So, folks, as 15 you know, one of your colleagues is not here today. We did
16 get a call explaining that the juror wasn't going to be
17 here. We didn't get a lot of information. I have no reason
18 to -- to doubt the legitimacy of the absence. But I do want
19 to just re-emphasize how important it is to attend except 20 for all but the real serious reasons. Our choice when this 21 happens is either to suspend the entire tire day for 22 everyone (gesturing), and everyone I'm panning this large
23 room, or to excuse the juror because you can't miss 24 substantive testimony and come back and catch up. That's 25 just not realistic.

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1530

1 So, it is important that if something happens and
2 you can't make it on a day, when you communicate with the 3 staff to also include as much information as you're 4 comfortable giving, as much as you can really, including how
5 long you will be out. So, for example, if it's something
6 that comes up and you can't be here until 10:00 or something
7 for an hour or two, we might wait so as not to lose a juror.
8 If it's a full day or more than that, it's going to be more
9 difficult. But, you know, as you can imagine with the 10 amount of effort that's going on with this trial and all of 11 you are putting in, putting off an entire day would be an 12 inconvenience that's pretty significant. But look, this is 13 why we have alternates and why we chose more than six.

14 So, again I'm not imputing anyone's reasons for not 15 showing up. But it is extremely important that we have 16 everybody, absent really the direst of circumstances, given 17 how important it is and really how much resource has been 18 going into this.

19 So, anyway, I appreciate you all being here. I do
20 recognize that things come up, which is why we have
21 alternates. I just would again ask for as much information
22 as you can provide if that happens so that we can make a
23 reasoned decision as to how to proceed, okay.

24 All right. Counsel, you may continue.

25 MR. PETERS: Thank you. Good afternoon everyone.

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1531

1 Thank you, your Honor.

2 Q Thank you, Mr. Journey. I believe that when we had
3 broke for lunch we had been talking about moving a document into 4 evidence, which was the NRA's response to your motion in the 5 bankruptcy. I do want to make sure that the logistics of that 6 are taken care of and that that document is in fact moved into
7 evidence.

8 MR. WANG: Plaintiff has no objection subject to 9 the same limitations applied to PX 2254, which was the 10 motion.

11 THE COURT: What is the number?

12 MR. PETERS: DX 1083.

13 THE COURT: So is it DX 1-1083?

14 MR. PETERS: Yes. Defendants' 1083.

15 THE COURT: One dash?

16 MR. PETERS: No. What I have is DX-1083, unless 17 I'm wrong.

18 MS. ROGERS: There should be a one dash in front of
19 it.

20 MR. PETERS: Sorry. I was wrong and you were 21 right. It is DX one dash.

22 THE COURT: People tell me that all the time. I
23 don't usually believe them. In this case I think you may be
24 right.

25 MR. PETERS: Okay.

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1532

1 THE COURT: Occupational hazard. So, all right.
2 That's fine. Folks, what counsel means by the same
3 instruction is that these are being introduced to show you
4 that they were in fact submitted in court. These are 5 positions taken by various sides. It's not evidence of 6 either the -- what was stated in the motion or what's stated
7 in the response. But you saw one side and this is the other
8 side. So, with that Exhibit DX 1-108 --

9 MS. EISENBERG: Three.

10 THE COURT: -- three is admitted.

11 Q So, you were aware as of March 12th --

12 THE COURT: Do you want to put this on the screen?

13 MS. STERN: Excuse me. May I have a copy?

14 MR. PETERS: It is tab 18.

15 MS. STERN: We don't have it.

16 MR. WANG: Thank you.

17 Q Okay. So, as I was -- I'll ask it again. So as of 18 March 12th, 2021 you were aware that the NRA opposed your motion
19 for the examiner in the bankruptcy, isn't that right?

20 A It really wasn't a topic for us to address until after 21 the motion to dismiss was resolved. So, I really didn't pay
22 much attention to anything other than this motion to dismiss.

23 Q Okay. And so after that there was a meeting that was 24 held by the NRA -- Strike that. After that there was a meeting
25 that was held in March of 2021 of the NRA board of directors,

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1533

1 wasn't there?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And that meeting was held to vote on whether to ratify
4 the bankruptcy, isn't that right?

5 A That's what its purpose was, yeah.

6 Q Okay. And at that meeting -- So, at that meeting the 7 NRA's -- the decision to file for bankruptcy was approved by the 8 board of directors, wasn't it?

9 A It was approved after filing, yes.

10 Q Okay. So, in the vote for that was overwhelmingly in 11 favor, wasn't it?

12 A That seems to be how the board works these days.

13 Q Okay. In fact, you didn't even vote against the 14 motion, did you?

15 A No.

16 Q And why was that again?

17 A Because I chose to abstain.

18 Q Why did you choose to abstain again?

19 A Because I felt that was the right thing to do given the 20 adverse relationship we had in the courtroom.

21 Q Okay. So then -- Okay. So then going to PX 379,
22 that's tab three in plaintiff's binder, do you remember?

23 A What tab?

24 Q The small binder.

25 THE COURT: In the small binder.

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1534

1 THE WITNESS: Okay.

2 Q Do you remember being instructed by -- being instructed
3 at that meeting, "If you are adverse or potentially adverse to 4 the NRA and its legal positions, you must not participate in 5 this executive session and should leave the room now"? Do you
6 remember that?

7 A I thought that was arbitrary and capricious on the part
8 of the chair.

9 Q I didn't ask that. I asked, do you remember receiving 10 that instruction?

11 A Not exactly.

12 Q Okay. Do you have any reason to doubt that it was 13 given?

14 A No.

15 Q Okay. And did you leave the room?

16 A No.

17 Q Okay. So you stayed for executive session even though
18 you were adverse to the NRA and its legal positions, isn't that
19 right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. And then at that executive session the NRA's
22 bankruptcy lawyers addressed the board of directors as to the 23 bankruptcy, isn't that right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. And then after that you -- after the board had

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1535

1 gone out of executive session, you spoke to the board, isn't
2 that right?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. And as we see on page 19, you spoke for quite a
5 while to the board, didn't you?

6 A Well, I suppose that's a matter of opinion. It didn't
7 seem very long to me at the time.

8 Q Okay. And then you were ruled out of order, weren't
9 you, at some point?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. And was that because you were raising matters
12 that had been raised in executive session?

13 A Well, concerning my character was the major part of the 14 executive session you could say that.

15 Q Okay. But in executive session the board was given the 16 opportunity to ask the NRA's bankruptcy lawyers about the 17 progress of the bankruptcy and matters like that, isn't that
18 right?

19 A There was conversation and a question and answer
20 period.

21 Q Then at some point the NRA's bankruptcy lawyers left
22 the room, right, at the end of executive session, isn't that
23 right?

24 A I believe so.

25 Q And then you began to --

LAS

1536

1 A I really wasn't watching them at the time.

2 Q Okay. And then you started raising matters having to 3 do with the bankruptcy after the NRA's bankruptcy lawyers had 4 left, isn't that right?

5 A What I was attempted to do was respond to several board
6 members questions about why I filed the motion.

7 Q Okay. If we go --

8 A I was not given an opportunity --

9 MR. WANG: Object to counsel interrupting the
10 witness.

11 THE COURT: Hang on a second.

12 A I didn't get the opportunity in executive session to 13 answer the other board members questions.

14 Q And if we go down to page 22 of that exhibit it says
15 here, you said, "I just got this (gesturing) today, 5 million
16 pages of discovery from the bankruptcy case." Do you remember
17 saying that?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. So you were raising matters having to do with 20 the bankruptcy case, weren't you?

21 A If you call having 5 million pages of discovery that, I
22 suppose.

23 Q Okay. And then you were ruled out of order, weren't 24 you, because you were raising matters having to do with the 25 NRA's bankruptcy to which you were adverse to the NRA, right,

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1537

1 outside of the presence of the NRA's counsel, isn't that right?

2 A No. Willes Lee never explained the basis for the
3 finding that I was out of order. It appeared to me that he
4 wanted to silence me and did not want my fellow board members to 5 know why I filed the motion.

6 Q Were you friends with Sandra Froman?

7 A With what?

8 Q Sandra Froman. Sandy Froman.

9 A Sandy Froman, sure.

10 Q And, in fact, she was very supportive of you coming on 11 the NRA board of directors, right?

12 A It appears so from the e-mail. I know she was chair of 13 the nominating committee. I had never seen that e-mail before
14 either.

15 Q Okay. And you remember she knew you had been 16 associated with the dissident directors, isn't that right, back
17 in the 1990s?

18 A I don't know that I would call them dissidents, because 19 we were a majority until just before the vote.

20 Q That's not what I asked. So, she was aware of your
21 affiliation with Jeff Knox and all those different directors
22 from back in the 1990s, right?

23 A She was familiar with was my stand, meaning we need to 24 follow the board policy. And I believe that Mr. Knox and the 25 other candidate for vice president offered a better opportunity

LAS

Cross-Journey-Peters

1538

1 for that.

2 Q Understood. And so she supported, knowing that she was
3 head of the nominating committee, and she supported your service
4 on the board of directors, isn't that right?

5 A That's my understanding of what happened, but all I
6 know is hearsay on that topic. An e-mail.

7 Q Okay. So if you look at page 25 of this transcript of 8 this meeting, you see that Ms. Froman addressed the board of 9 directors after you had been ruled out of order, right? Do you
10 see that?

11 A (Examining). Yes.

12 Q Okay. And do you recall her saying that, "I respect
13 Phil Journey's right to address this board, but I would rather 14 if he wants to talk about these things, I think they need to be 15 done in executive session, because they do raise a lot of issues
16 that we did discuss in executive session"? Do you recall
17 Ms. Froman saying that?

18 A Yes.

19 Q So, you were ruled out of order because you were 20 raising things that were discussed in executive session in a
21 matter at which you were adverse to the NRA outside of the 22 presence of the NRA's bankruptcy lawyers, is that correct?

23 A That may be what you want me to say. Reality is in 24 executive session I was not allowed to speak. That they were 25 all screaming at me and yelling at me, and I'm sitting there in

LAS

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1 Q Mr. Journey, I asked for a yes-or-no question. Was 2 that -- you were ruled out of order because you were attempting
3 to raise matters that had been discussed --

4 A You'll have to ask Willes Lee why he ruled me out of 5 order. I don't read his mind.

6 Q All right. Turning to page PX 2281 -- that's tab 4 in 7 the skinny binder --

8 A Tab what? The big one?

9 Q Tab 4 in the little binder.

10 A The little binder. All right.

11 THE COURT: This one hasn't been moved yet, or has
12 it?

13 MR. WANG: No objection.

14 MS. CONNELL: It had not been admitted, but no
15 objection from the plaintiff, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Hang on a second, till you hear the 17 magic words.

18 Any objection?

19 I don't see any, so it's admitted.

20 Now you can put it up.

21 MR. PETERS: Okay.

22 (Image displayed.)

23 Q Now, Mr. -- if we could go to page 9, Mr. Journey, you
24 had testified before that your motion for the appointment of an 25 examiner was never ruled on by the bankruptcy court; isn't that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1541

1 right?

2 A It was moot once the case was dismissed.

3 Q Okay. But do you see, on page 9, that the court
4 discusses your motion?

5 (Pause.)

6 A It does say that the motion was originally set for 7 March 9th, because we were the first to file a motion in that
8 case. But that date was moved -- I'm sorry. We were the first
9 to file a motion in the bankruptcy case, but that date was moved
10 because the New York Attorney General's motion was dispositive
11 of the case, where mine was not.

12 Q Okay. And if we go to page 35 of that exhibit --
13 (Image scrolled.)

14 Q -- we see that the court is discussing whether to 15 appoint an examiner; don't -- at the top of page 35.

16 Do you see that?

17 A I'm looking.

18 Q And I can represent to you that the beginning of that 19 first sentence is: "On the other hand, if a trustee or an ...

20 A On page 35, where?

21 Q 35, very top: " ... or an examiner ..."?

22 THE COURT: That's at the bottom --

23 You were starting at the bottom of 34, I think.

24 MR. PETERS: That's correct.

25 A Oh. Where the Court says: "If a trustee or an

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1542

1 examiner with expanded powers were appointed, the Court believes
2 the members and other donors who provide financial support to
3 NRA may not continue to support the organization."

4 Q Right.

5 So, does that refresh your recollection as to whether 6 the bankruptcy court found that your motion was not, in fact, in 7 the best interests of the NRA?

8 A Like I said, he never ruled on the motion, so I don't 9 know how you could say he found anything. He mentioned it in 10 passing, in dicta.

11 Q Okay. But the court made a finding, though, that a 12 trustee or an examiner with expanded powers would not be in the 13 best interests of the NRA; isn't that right?

14 A No. You're misleading the Court on what his sentence
15 says. I just read it in.

16 Q Okay. What do you think it says?

17 A I think it says that, "On the other hand, if a trustee
18 or an examiner with expanded powers were appointed, the Court
19 believes the members and other donors who provide financial 20 support to the NRA may not continue to support the 21 organization."

22 Q Right. Okay.

23 So let's go to -- let's turn now to PX 2475,
24 Plaintiff's 2475.

25 MR. PETERS: And I'd like to move this into

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1543

1 evidence, if it hasn't been done already.

2 THE COURT: Where --

3 Is that in any of these (indicating) binders, or 4 no?

5 MR. PETERS: This is not in the binders. This
6 isn't even in my binder.

7 THE COURT: So let's, I guess, turn the monitors
8 off and ...

9 MR. PETERS: Okay. So this is a resolution
10 creating a Special Litigation Committee.

11 Is there any objection to moving this into
12 evidence?

13 MS. CONNELL: One second.

14 MR. PETERS: I'm sorry.

15 MS. CONNELL: Let me just look at it.

16 MR. WANG: No objection.

17 THE COURT: Hearing none on the other side, it's 18 admitted.

19 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

20 (Image displayed.)

21 BY MR. PETERS:

22 Q So, on this --

23 You had testified before, hadn't you, that the Special
24 Litigation Committee was created for the efficient management of 25 all the litigation involving the NRA? Isn't that right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1544

1 A That was Mr. Cotton's representation to the board, yes.

2 Q Okay. But do you understand that the Special
3 Litigation Committee also had a broader purpose than that?

4 A I can't speculate where you're going with that. I
5 don't know what you mean.

6 Q Okay. Well, wasn't one of the purposes of the Special
7 Litigation Committee to cover matters where there's an actual or 8 apparent conflict of interest?

9 A Point me to that. I'm --

10 Q So, if you look at the very last clause of the last 11 sentence (indicating) ...

12 (Pause.)

13 Q So it says --

14 A I see that.

15 Q Okay. So does that refresh your recollection as to 16 whether the Special Litigation Committee was created because 17 there were fears of an actual or apparent conflict of interest?

18 A That was not what I recall being the discussion --

19 Q Okay.

20 A -- or the purpose of it, but I see it in the document.

21 Q Okay. Did you, at any point --

22 So you weren't aware -- you weren't aware of this
23 additional basis for the Special Litigation Committee, were you?

24 A Aware of what?

25 Q This additional basis for the Special Litigation

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1545

1 Committee, which is to deal with actual or perceived conflicts
2 of interest; right?

3 A I -- I see it now --

4 Q Okay.

5 A -- but like I said, it wasn't part of the discussion on 6 the resolution.

7 Q Okay. And indeed, you had an actual or potential
8 conflict of interest, given your involvement with the bankruptcy
9 litigation; didn't you?

10 A I don't think so. I think I was trying to fulfill my 11 fiduciary duties.

12 MR. WANG: Objection.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 Q Okay. So, on your website, you --

15 So you've set up a website called "Restore the NRA";
16 isn't that right?

17 A I -- others set it up for me.

18 Q Okay. And on that website, you raised donations to 19 beat the attorney general and restore the NRA; isn't that right?

20 A That was the concern at the time, before the court
21 denied that remedy to the attorney general.

22 Q Okay. But the website's still up, right?

23 A Yeah.

24 Q Okay.

25 A Hasn't had any changes since the bankruptcy, although

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1546

1 we're getting ready to do quite a bit.

2 Q Okay. And you're still collecting donations from NRA
3 members and others on that website; aren't you?

4 A Haven't had a -- haven't had a significant donation in
5 two years.

6 Q Okay. But -- so the donations that you received were
7 actually directed to a 501(c)(3) that you borrowed from a friend
8 named Alan Gottlieb; isn't that right?

9 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor; assumes facts not 10 in evidence --

11 THE COURT: Hang on a second.

12 (Siren heard in courtroom.)

13 THE COURT: You can ask the question. You were
14 saying -- I didn't hear what the objection was because there
15 were a lot of noises going around.

16 MR. WANG: The objection is that it assumes facts
17 not in evidence and it's also outside the scope of the 18 direct examination.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

20 Q You can answer.

21 A I couldn't hear it with the siren.

22 Q But these donations are actually directed to a
23 501(c)(3) that you borrowed from a friend named Alan Gottlieb;
24 isn't that right?

25 A That's where we sent them at first, that's correct.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1547

1 And then we've already set up our own 501(c)(3) now.

2 Q Okay. And Mr. Gottlieb was convicted of felony tax
3 fraud; wasn't he?

4 A I have no idea.

5 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor.

6 (No audible ruling.)

7 A You'll have to testify on that yourself.

8 Q Well, did you investigate Mr. Gottlieb yourself before
9 directing NRA members to donate to his nonprofit?

10 A I've known Mr. Gottlieb as long as I've known
11 Mr. LaPierre, and he heads another organization that I
12 participated in to one degree or another.

13 Q Okay.

14 MR. WANG: Your Honor, I object to this line of 15 questioning and move for it to be stricken as irrelevant.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 Q Okay. And what's the other organization that you know
18 Mr. Gottlieb from?

19 A The Second Amendment Foundation, in Bellevue,
20 Washington.

21 Q Okay. And your fund-raising materials don't tell NRA
22 members that their money is going to an organization managed by 23 Mr. Gottlieb, do they?

24 A It says it's going to the 501(c)(3).

25 Q Okay. Did you look at the organization of the Center

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1548

1 for the Defense of Free Enterprise before directing donors to
2 donate to it?

3 A I'm sorry; say that again?

4 Q So the 501(c)(3) that you borrowed from Mr. Gottlieb
5 was called the Center for the Defense of Free Enterprise; isn't
6 that right?

7 A Yes. He actually managed it.

8 I didn't borrow his corporation. I just sent the 9 checks there and he paid them out as I asked, as long as they
10 were in accord --

11 Q Okay.

12 A -- with that entity's bylaws.

13 Q Okay. And you're aware that the board of directors of 14 the Center for the Defense of Free Enterprise consists of 15 Mr. Gottlieb, his wife and his son?

16 A Could be. I didn't look at the founding document of 17 the corporation.

18 Q Would that have bothered you if that was true?

19 A No. I've known his wife and kid for as long as I've 20 known him.

21 Q Okay. Are you aware that the Second Amendment
22 Foundation is being investigated for a related-party transaction
23 involving Mr. Gottlieb?

24 A I think --

25 MR. WANG: Objection.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1549

1 THE COURT: Yeah.

2 I think, now we're getting several steps past where 3 this is legitimate cross-examination of this witness on the 4 topics that are in front of us; so, sustained.

5 MR. PETERS: Okay. Understood.

6 Q Now, when you were -- when you were -- set up your 7 initiative to have -- to restore the NRA and protect it from the 8 attorney general, did you tell the members of the -- did you
9 tell the NRA members who were donating to that effort that you
10 were also speaking with the attorney general?

11 A Those did not happen contemporaneously.

12 Q Okay.

13 A There have been no donations for years.

14 Q Okay. If somebody were to donate now, would you tell
15 that person that you're actually speaking with the attorney
16 general --

17 A There's no joining; there's no application fee.
18 There's just a little GoFundMe page and if somebody wants to 19 send me $10, they can send $10 to help pay for lawyers like you.

20 Q Okay. So, if somebody donates to your website, which
21 is active now, to help protect the NRA from the attorney
22 general, do you think you would have any sort of obligation to 23 inform that person that, actually, you're speaking to the 24 attorney general and -- and -- on a regular basis?

25 A I think --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Peters

1550

1 MR. WANG: Objection.

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 A I honestly think you're misrepresenting the purpose of 5 the organization that I founded. The purpose of the 6 organization is not to funnel money through that or hurt NRA but 7 try to restore NRA, just as its title is, to proper corporate
8 governance.

9 Q Well, how did -- how do you expect the jury to trust
10 you when you haven't disclosed to donors that your money is 11 going to a 501(c)(3) that's run by Mr. Gottlieb?

12 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Sustained.

14 Q Okay. So, when you -- when you run for the board of --
15 you --

16 You would be up for the board of directors in May of 17 2024; isn't that right?

18 A The election is in about three weeks -- six weeks.

19 Q Okay. In that election, the members will decide
20 whether you're re-elected to the NRA Board of Directors; isn't
21 that right?

22 A Yes, along with about 40 other candidates.

23 Q Okay.

24 MR. PETERS: No further questions, your Honor.

2 BY MR. CORRELL:

3 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Journey.

4 A Hi.

5 Q Hi. My name is Kent Correll. I represent Wayne

6 LaPierre.

7 A That's how you talk to every judge, too, huh?

8 Q Pardon me?

9 A I said, "That's how you talk to every judge, too, huh?"

10 Q No, sir. It's how I talk to a witness.

11 A Okay.

12 Q Would you please direct your attention to tab 1 of your
13 witness binder?

14 THE COURT: Which one, Mr. Correll?

15 MR. CORRELL: Tab 1.

16 THE COURT: The thin one or the thick one?

17 MR. CORRELL: Oh. The thin one.

18 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

19 Yes.

20 Q Exhibit PX 572.

21 MR. WANG: Mr. Journey, can you speak closer to the 22 microphone, please?

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you. I'm sorry. The books are 24 in the way.

25 Q You testified earlier that you had an opportunity to

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1552

1 review this contract; correct?

2 A A cursory one, yes.

3 Q How long did you spend reviewing the contract?

4 A A couple minutes. That's all they gave me.

5 Q Did someone come and move you off the -- the table

6 that -- where you were sitting?

7 A They were standing behind me, wanting me to move. They

8 wanted to read it, too.

9 Q Did you go to law school?

10 A Yep, just like you.

11 Q Did you take a course in contracts?

12 A Yes.

13 Q How many contracts would you say you've looked at in 14 your lifetime, so far?

15 A Hard to estimate.

16 Q How many pages was the contract that you wanted to look

17 at?

18 A How many pages -- what? This contract?

19 Q How many pages is this contract?

20 A Three, I think? Four.

21 Q Six.

22 A Oh, they're front and back. Okay.

23 (Image displayed.)

24 Q Could you take a look at the first paragraph and read

25 the heading?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1553

1 A "The Association hereby employs the Employee and" --

2 Q No, just the heading, sir.

3 A Oh. The employment -- "This employment agreement ..."

4 Q Well, the heading is "Employment Agreement."

5 A Um-hmm.

6 Q And then, if you could go to paragraph 1 and read the 7 heading of that paragraph ...?

8 A "Employment."

9 Q Okay. And then the second paragraph ...?

10 A "Duties and Compensation."

11 Q And then, if you would please direct your attention to 12 the fifth paragraph?

13 (Image scrolled.)

14 A Is that in order or number of paragraphs?

15 Q It is on page 3.

16 A Okay.

17 Q It's paragraph 5. Just the heading, please.

18 A "Option to License Name and Likeness; Post-Employment
19 Services."

20 Q And then, lastly, would you take a look, please, at 21 paragraph 8(c) and just read the heading of 8(c)?

22 A 8(b)?

23 Q 8(c).

24 A C, as in cat?

25 Q Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1554

1 A "Entire Agreement."

2 Q When you reviewed the agreement, did you notice -- did
3 you read the headings, at least?

4 A Sure.

5 Q And did you go deeper than the headings?

6 A Tried to.

7 Q So you saw that in the first paragraph --

8 Would you just read that for the jury, if you don't
9 mind? Just the one sentence.

10 A Which one?

11 Q Paragraph 1. The heading is "Employment."

12 A At the front?

13 Q Yes, sir.

14 (Image modified.)

15 A "Employment. The Association hereby employs Employee,
16 and Employee hereby accepts employment with the Association,
17 upon the terms and conditions" herein set forth -- "hereinafter
18 set forth. Terms used herein that are also used in the Bylaws
19 of the Association shall have the same meaning ascribed to them
20 in the Bylaws of the Association."

21 Q Okay. And then --

22 Have you ever read an employment agreement before;
23 before this?

24 A Not too many. I mainly did criminal, as a lawyer and 25 as a judge.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

4 you -- that was read before, that begins with --

5 Well, please read the first two sentences, if you
6 would.

7 A On 2(b)?

8 Q Yes.

9 A "Employee shall be compensated by the Association for 10 all services to be" --

11 Q No, I'm sorry. I -- forgive me. 2(a), the first --

12 A Oh, 2(a).

13 Q 2(a), the first sentence.

14 A "Employee shall serve as the Executive Vice President
15 of the Association and shall direct all the affairs of the
16 Association in accordance with the programs and policies
17 established by the Board of Directors."

18 Q Do you recognize that language?

19 A Sounds like boilerplate to me.

20 Q Well, it's actually language that appear --

21 Well, are you familiar with the NRA Bylaws?

22 A Somewhat.

23 Q Would it refresh your recollection if I told you that 24 that is the language that's taken from the NRA Bylaws with 25 respect to the duties of the Executive Vice President?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1 A Wouldn't refresh my recollection, but that makes sense.

2 Q Okay.

3 MR. CORRELL: Could we bring up the Bylaws, please?

4 A Which version?

5 MR. CORRELL: Current version, please.

6 A Those weren't the ones that were in effect at the time
7 of the adoption of the contract. I would suggest we look at the 8 ones at the time of the adoption of the contract.

9 Q Sir, I'm conducting an examination --

10 A Yes, you are.

11 Q -- and the fact --

12 Do you have knowledge that the -- that language of the 13 Bylaws changed between the time you read this contract and now?

14 Are you representing to the jury that the language
15 changed?

16 A You know, you can misconstrue what I -- can misconstrue
17 what I say all you want, but the reality is that I think, if I'm 18 going to interpret this (indicating) contract based on the 19 Bylaws, then I need the set of Bylaws that were in effect at the

2 MR. CORRELL: I think it is.

3 THE COURT: I can't recall, actually.

4 MR. CORRELL: Let's bring it up, not on the screen;
5 Bylaws as of the date January 2021.

6 THE COURT: Hang on a second.

7 MR. CORRELL: I believe it is on the plaintiff's

9 Is that correct?

10 THE TECHNICIAN: This is defense -- this is John
11 Frazer's exhibit.

12 MR. CORRELL: So it's on John Frazer's exhibit

14 THE TECHNICIAN: It is.

15 THE COURT: The one that's on the screen is still

17 MS. ROGERS: I think they switched it to the 19 THE COURT: I didn't see the switch.

20 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I'd like to do it both 21 ways; I'd like to show the current and then the prior, if 22 that's all right with the witness.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. CORRELL: Yes, I'd like to have it marked as an

18 THE COURT: Did we have a number that you want to 14 heading?

15 A "The Executive Vice President" -- "The Executive Vice
16 President shall direct all the affairs of the Association in 17 accordance with the programs and policies established by the 18 Board of Directors."

19 Q Is that the same language --

20 A "Among his authorities, the" --

21 Q Excuse me, sir. Just the first sentence is fine.

22 A Okay.

23 Q Would you direct your attention back to the employment
24 agreement and to the language you read originally and tell me
25 whether that is, in substance, the same language?

1 A "In" --

2 Q -- in substance, the same language?

3 (Pause.)

4 Q Would you please read the language in section 2(a), the 5 first sentence of the employment agreement, sir, again --

6 A The first sentence --

7 Q -- so the jury can compare it to what's on the screen?

8 A The first sentence:

9 "Employee shall serve as Executive Vice President
10 of the Association and shall direct all the affairs of the
11 Association in accordance with the programs and policies
12 established by the Board of Directors."

13 Q Okay. Would you agree that that's essentially the same
14 language?

15 A There are -- there are some parallels, sure.

16 Q Would you point out the differences?

17 A They're parallel.

18 Q Okay, thank you.

19 Do you have a recollection of the language of the 20 Bylaws being any different back in -- well, during any time 21 during which you were serving on the board of directors of the
22 NRA?

23 Have you ever known this language to be different in
24 the Bylaws?

25 A I don't know what other versions have, off -- from

2 Q Would you please read the next sentence, starting with
3 "Among his authorities ..."?

4 MR. CORRELL: And, Ali, would you please bring that
5 up on the screen?

6 (Image displayed.)

7 A "Among his authorities, Employee shall be empowered to 8 exercise corporate authority in furtherance of the mission and 9 interests of the NRA, including, without limitation, to 10 reorganize or restructure the affairs of the Association for the 11 purpose of cost minimization, regulatory compliance or 12 otherwise."

13 Q Okay. And when you read this, did you see that 14 language?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. When you read this, did you see the language
17 that appeared below that, in paragraph 2(b)?

18 A "Employee shall be compensated by the Association for 19 all services to be rendered pursuant to this agreement as 20 follows:"

21 Q And read the first -- B(1), please?

22 A "The Association shall pay Employee a Base Salary at 23 the rate of $1,300,000 per year (the 'Base Salary')."

24 Q And did you see that when you reviewed this contract?

25 A Yes.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1563

1 Q Did you make any comment to anyone about that?

2 A Well, I remembered, when I was on the board the first
3 time, his salary was about 120,000. I think I said that to my 4 seat mate.

5 Q Did you vote against this agreement?

6 A No.

7 Q You voted for the agreement; correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q So did you --

10 Well, you must have viewed that figure as a reasonable
11 figure for compensation; correct?

12 A I was told that it was a significantly smaller figure
13 than the previous contract.

14 Q Who told you that?

15 A The chair. Mr. Cotton, I believe, was in the chair
16 [sic] at that time.

17 Q Could you direct your attention to page 4 of this 18 agreement, please?

19 (Image scrolled.)

20 MR. CORRELL: And, Ali, would you please highlight
21 paragraph 8(c)?

22 (Image modified.)

23 Q Could you please read the heading and --

24 A "Entire Agreement"?

25 Q Yes. And then the language that follows?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Journey - by Plaintiff - Cross/Correll

1 A "This agreement contains the entire understanding
2 between the parties hereto and supersedes any prior
3 understanding, memoranda, or other written or oral agreements
4 between" the respecting -- "between them respecting the within 5 subject matter. There are" --

6 Q "The within subject matter" was employment agreement;
7 correct? That was the subject of this --

8 A That is my understanding of what it refers to, the four 9 corners of the contract.

10 Q Right.

11 And that if you direct your attention to paragraph 5,
12 would you read the caption again of paragraph 5?

13 A "Option to License Name and Likeness; Post-Employment
14 Services."

15 Q So this contract covered the subject of employment and 16 also post-employment services; correct?

17 A It appears to.

18 Q So, under the Entire Agreement clause, this agreement 19 superseded all prior agreements relating to either of those 20 subjects; correct?

21 A That's my understanding.

22 Q And given that fact, did you still feel the need to 23 demand a copy of all prior agreements, knowing that they were 24 superseded?

25 A I still wanted to see what they were; yes.

1 Q Did you pursue that request with anyone?

2 A Yes; with Mr. Frazer.

3 Q And for how long did you pursue that?

4 A In the meeting.

5 Q And after that, did you ask anyone else?

6 A He said I had to go to Virginia to go look at it. He
7 didn't bring it to the meeting.

8 Q Isn't that a basic corporate policy, to require people
9 to come to headquarters to -- or corporate offices -- to review
10 documents?

11 A No.

12 Q And --

13 A What is -- what is standard corporate procedure is to 14 bring the books to the meeting so that any board member can 15 review those documents, such as board policies, during the
16 meeting.

17 Q And, sir, what's the basis of that statement, that it
18 is policy to do that? What's the basis of your statement?

19 A My experience on the board of directors the first term.
20 That's how we did it then, in '95 to '98.

21 Q And --

22 A It was Mr. Land's job to bring those basis documents,
23 and he brought those documents to the meetings; every board
24 meeting.

25 Q Did you understand that this contract, on its face,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 provided for an option for the NRA to use the name and likeness
2 of Wayne LaPierre after he left its employ?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Did you understand what was reflected in this agreement

5 A I think that it was probably more feasible at that time
6 than it is now but yes.

7 Q So there was a benefit to the corporation that you saw
8 at the time?

9 A Potential. Potential.

10 Q So, cutting to the chase, after reviewing the contract,
11 for however much time you had to review it with your legal 12 background, you made an assessment that this contract was in the 13 best interest of the corporation, correct?

14 A Yes. I believe so.

15 Q And that's why you voted to approve it, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And was it approved unanimously?

18 A No.

19 Q How many people voted against it?

20 A It said on -- I believe you must have had Mr. Frazer's
21 copy, because I recognize his handwriting on it. And it said
22 that Sandy Froman had abstain. The real topic of discussion was 23 which state's laws would apply in the contract. Whether it was 25 they needed to change it.

3 A I don't believe the supposition in your question is
4 accurate. I believe if I'm fulfilling my duty as a director,
5 that I'm not adverse to the association. Only the individual
6 defendants in this suit or in the bankruptcy.

7 Q Sir, would you read the next line. It says "No
8 response", correct?

9 A That's what it says.

10 Q So, you made no response to this statement, correct?

11 A I didn't need to, because on advice of counsel, I had a

12 A Okay. There we go.

13 Q Do you recall that Mr. LaPierre made a statement to the

18 MR. WANG: Objection, your Honor. This material

21 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I disagree. This is his

4 MR. WANG: Correct.

5 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, he's speaking to the 6 board about this very vote that is before the board that has
7 been the subject of examination for quite a while now. I
8 don't know how we can keep this from the jury.

9 THE COURT: Well, look, this is an exhibit that's 10 been introduced by the Attorney General. I think I can 11 explain this, if there is any confusion about it. So, I'll 12 overrule it.

5 record things that are in the exhibits. It may not be the
6 most efficient use of our time, but I don't see an objection
7 to it. Go ahead.

8 Q Please read the words that Mr. LaPierre spoke to you
9 and others on that day.

10 A "Thank you, Mr. President. I'll be really short,

6 MR. CORRELL: You can take it down.

11 order. I don't remember hearing one.

12 Q Is that your testimony, that you were not told why you
13 were ruled out of order?

18 A What page?

19 Q Page 23 of 32.

20 A Twenty-three, okay.

21 MR. CORRELL: Can we please highlight that

25 MR. CORRELL: Can you find that? There we go.

LAS

5 A Twenty-three. (Examining).

6 Q Line 12.

7 A Thank you.

8 Q Okay. Actually start with line 11. Would you please

10 A "Mr. Lee, line 11. Mr. Journey, line 12. Mr. Journey.
11 This is my point of personal privilege. Mr. Lee." You don't 12 have counsel in the room -- Oh, "We don't have counsel in the 13 room. You're out of order. "

14 Q Does that refresh your recollection as to whether you 15 were informed why, for the reason why you were ruled out of 16 order?

17 A It still doesn't make any sense to me today either.

18 Q Sir, are you a parliamentarian?

19 A I do have a copy of Roberts Rules of Order. I have --
20 I have been a parliamentarian at several meetings in the past.

21 Q A parliamentarian was present at this meeting, correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Did the parliamentarian intervene?

24 A No.

25 Q Do you believe the parliamentarian had something

LAS

3 A Considering that his employee probably wanted to make
4 officers happy. I don't sign his checks.

5 MR. CORRELL: No further questions. Thank you.

6 MR. WANG: Your Honor, just to clean up an exhibit
7 issue. JFX 96, we have no objection to that exhibit being
8 admitted for the October 2020 bylaws, but that document
9 itself contains all the bylaws from 1953. We only had no
10 objection to the bylaws from October 2020. I know because 11 of the microphone you had difficulty hearing that. So,
12 would you like me to repeat it?

13 THE COURT: I think what I got was that the exhibit
14 has multiple sets of bylaws in it.

15 MR. WANG: Yes. We were not aware that JFX 96 had 16 multiple decades worth of bylaws in it. We weren't -- So
17 we're --

18 THE COURT: Your objection, I assume, is the other
19 ones are not relevant?

20 MR. WANG: Correct.

21 MS. CONNELL: We just -- Excuse me, your Honor. We 22 just want the record to be clear. It appeared that only the 23 bylaws from 2020 were admitted. If the Court wants the 24 massive bylaws of 1953 to the present admitted, we don't
25 have an objection to that. But to be clear that's JFX --

LAS

Cross-Journey-Coutu

1576

1 THE COURT: I have no horses in that race. I don't
2 see a need to have an exhibit that's hundreds of pages long,
3 if all we're really getting at was to get the October 2020
4 version.

5 MR. CORRELL: This one is -- this one is easy, your
6 Honor. We would stipulate the exhibit will be limited to 7 that particular set of bylaws.

8 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor. We want the 9 record to be clear. We know later it can be confusing.

10 THE COURT: Yeah. You folks are the ones who have 11 to keep track of this. If the jury, for whatever reason, 12 decides during deliberations that they simply must see the 13 2020 bylaws, I'm going to be asking you to provide that. So 14 just remember that that exhibit is limited to that set of 15 bylaws.

16 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Coutu.

18 CROSS EXAMINATION

19 BY MS. COUTU:

20 Q Just a few questions. First off, good afternoon
21 Mr. Journey. My name is Lisa Coutu, and I represent Wilson
22 Phillips in this action. So, earlier with Mr. Wang you had 23 testified to -- that you served on the board of directors from 24 1995 to 1999, right?

25 A No. 1995 to '98.

LAS

Cross-Journey-Coutu

1577

1 Q '98, excuse me. And then you also were asked some 2 questions regarding the differences from when you were on the
3 board from 1995 to 1998 versus 2000 to 2002, is that correct?

4 A From -- No, from 2020 to 2023.

5 Q 2020 to 2022, thank you. And you talked about certain
6 differences where it was better in the 90s than it was in 2020
7 to 2022, do you remember that?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And you talked about some of those differences were 10 effectiveness of oversight?

11 A I think more about the mechanics of the board meeting
12 and the access to information while it was constrained from time
13 to time, it was more forthcoming in the '90s.

14 Q Okay. And in the '90s Mr. Phillips was the CFO and 15 treasurer, right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. And then you were re-elected in 2020?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And Mr. Craig Spray was the CFO and treasurer at that 20 time?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And Mr. Phillips retired in 2018, right?

23 A I don't know. I wasn't there then.

24 Q He was retired by the time you came back in 2020?

25 A He wasn't there in '19, that's for sure.

LAS

Cross-Journey-Coutu

1578

1 Q Okay. So from 1999 through 2019 you were not on the
2 NRA board of directors, right?

3 A From 20 -- I rolled off the board in 1998 after -- You
4 read the bylaws, the term is from members meeting to members
5 meeting. Three members meetings. So, it's not like three
6 years. This last term was like two years and four months
7 because of the way they moved the members meetings around with 8 COVID. But there are differences, yeah.

9 Q Okay. So my question, Mr. Journey, was you were not on 10 the NRA board of directors from the years 1999 through 2019,
11 correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Okay. And you were not on the audit committee for the 14 NRA from 1999 in 2020?

15 A No. I was never on the audit committee.

16 Q And then you were also not on the finance committee
17 from 1999 through 2019, correct?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q Okay. You were not an officer of the NRA from 1999
20 through 2019, correct?

21 A No, but I attended the meetings.

22 Q Okay. But you were not actually an officer when you
23 attended those meetings?

24 A No, just a member.

25 Q Okay. And you were not also on the staff of the NRA in

LAS

Cross-Journey-Coutu

1579

1 the finance department from 1999 through 2019, correct?

2 A No, I've never been on the finance staff.

3 Q Okay. Not the treasurer's office either?

4 A No. Never been an employee. Almost got a job once,
5 but that was a long time ago.

6 Q During those span of years you were not an officer, you
7 were not on the board of directors and you were not on those
8 committees, correct?

9 A That's obvious. Yes.

10 Q Okay. No further questions. Thank you.

11 MR. FLEMING: No questions, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Anything further, Mr. Wang?

13 MR. WANG: Brief redirect.

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 MR. WANG: May I proceed, your Honor?

16 THE COURT: Sure.

17 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. WANG:

19 Q Mr. Journey, counsel for the NRA, Mr. Peters, asked you
20 some questions about monies donated to help pay for the examiner

23 Q Did you ensure that the monies donated for the examiner
24 motion went to the actual costs of that motion?

25 A Yes.

LAS

5 your small, white binder.

6 A Yes.

7 Q Can you turn to page 37.

8 A Okay.

10 request of counsel.)

11 A Got it.

12 Q Right towards the bottom of the page there are some 13 bolded language. "It is therefore. It is therefore. It is 14 further ordered." Do you see that language?

15 A Yes.

16 Q The second bolded paragraph begins, "It is further 17 ordered that the examiner motion is denied as moot." Do you see 18 that language?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Is that your recollection of what the end result of 21 your examiner motion was?

22 A That's what I said earlier too.

1 Q And how did you come to that understanding?

2 A That was -- I relied on the representation of the 3 officer.

4 Q Which officer?

5 A I believe it was Mr. Cotton, who was in the chair at 6 that time.

7 Q And do you still believe today that it was in the NRA's
8 best interest?

9 A Yes.

10 Q You believe today that this employment agreement was in 11 the best interest of the NRA?

12 A That's why I voted for it.

13 Q I'll ask you to turn to tab three.

14 A Yes.

15 Q You were asked questions about Ms. Froman saying that 16 you had a right to speak. Do you recall that?

17 A Ms. Froman what?

18 Q Ms. Froman making a statement that she believed you had 19 a right to speak. Do you recall being asked that?

20 A Yes. Yes. Yes.

21 Q I'll ask you to turn to page 26.

22 A Thank you. Yes.

23 Q After Ms. -- after Ms. Froman spoke, right at the top
24 of line six, what did Mr. Lee do?

25 A Mr. Lee said, "Thank you, Ms. Froman. Thank you."

1 Q And did he ask for a closing prayer?

2 A Oh "And that Lieutenant Governor, could we please have
3 a closing" -- "could we please have a closing prayer."

4 Q Did Lieutenant Colonel Lee return the session, the 5 meeting to executive session so that you could finish your point
6 of privilege?

7 A No.

8 Q You were asked some questions about your motion for 9 examiner. Do you recall those questions?

10 A Yes.

11 Q At the time you filed the motion for examiner, how 12 many -- how many people were with your group for that motion?

13 A Let's see. Rocky, Buzz.

14 Q At the time of the motion.

15 A At the time of the motion. Oh, someone joined after
16 that.

17 Q Who joined after you filed the motion?

18 A Oh, I would have to guess on that one. I'm not really 19 sure where that falls in the timeline. I know I was trying to 20 recruit them.

21 Q Not when. Who.

22 A Who, okay. So the ones that joined the motion were 23 Rocky and Buzz and Esther and one that passed away. I think it
24 might have been --

25 Q Mr. Skeleton? Mr. Skeleton?

LAS

1 A Yes. Thank you. Yes. Bart.

2 Q Did those individuals join after you had initially
3 filed that motion?

4 A I believe that's so, because we had that motion on file
5 pretty quick.

6 Q One moment.

7 A Sure.

8 Q The employment agreement, which is tab one, PX 572, did
9 you believe that this employment agreement gave Mr. LaPierre the 10 authority to file for bankruptcy?

11 A No.

12 Q At the March 28th, 2021 meeting, the board had not yet
13 approved the bankruptcy, is that right?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q If you were aware that the employment agreement was 16 going to be used to give Mr. LaPierre the authority to 17 unilaterally place the NRA into Chapter 11, would you have 18 viewed it as in the best interest of the NRA?

19 A That's speculative. I -- I really don't know. Really 20 the problem was the process the board was not apprised of.
21 Treasurer wasn't apprised of. The general counsel wasn't
22 apprised of it. It was a hair brain scheme that didn't work out
23 real well.

24 MR. WANG: Nothing further, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Anything further?

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1585

1 MR. CORRELL: Just something short.

2 MR. PETERS: Mr. Peters for the NRA. We have
3 nothing further, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Correll.

5 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, I would like to have 6 marked for identification WLX, I think it was 222, which is
7 electronic, but I have a paper copy. It is a copy of a
8 transcript from -- of the status conference before the 9 Honorable Harlin DeWayne Hale of the United States
10 Bankruptcy Court Chief Judge. It's part of the record of 11 the case that's already in with its opinion. I would ask
12 the Court to take judicial notice of it.

13 THE COURT: Does it go to an issue that was raised
14 on --

15 MR. CORRELL: Yes, it does. Precisely to the 16 issue.

17 THE COURT: Does counsel have a copy of it?

18 MR. CORRELL: I think they are familiar with it.
19 It's been quoted many times in papers.

20 MR. PETERS: We don't have any objection to it.

21 THE COURT: You have to turn the mike on.

22 MR. PETERS: My apologies. We don't have any 23 objection to this being in evidence.

24 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we do have an objection.
25 This is -- this is a partial -- I assume counsel is going to

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1586

1 do a partial reading of the transcript in this case. A
2 decision has been admitted. It speaks for the judge's
3 decision. But having what parties said at a prior 4 proceeding I think is misleading. It's outside the scope,
5 and it's going very far afield of the bankruptcy, which then
6 we'll have to go far afield.

7 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, she's misrepresenting the 8 document. It's the judge speaking, not the parties. May I
9 approach?

10 THE COURT: Thank you. (Examining).

11 MS. CONNELL: Mr. Correll, did that have an exhibit
12 number?

13 MR. CORRELL: Yes. It's WLX 222.

14 THE COURT: So it's just this section that you want
15 to read?

16 MR. CORRELL: Yes, unless anyone wants the whole
17 document for context. This is the judge speaking to the 18 issue that was raised in his opinion, where counsel tried to 19 mischaracterize it as a bad faith finding.

20 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I don't think this was on 21 their exhibit list. It's not impeachment. I don't
22 understand.

23 THE COURT: I get it. I'll allow it.

24 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor. So I would 25 like to move it into evidence. Is it in?

LAS

PROCEEDINGS

1587

1 MS. CONNELL: The whole transcript is going to be
2 moved into evidence?

3 MR. CORRELL: I think for completeness.

4 THE COURT: I think in part -- Are you asking --
5 There was some testimony from the witness about this issue
6 of faith. And there has already been some back and forth on 7 it. Are you going to show it to him to refresh his 8 recollection about what the judge found?

9 MR. CORRELL: No. I would like to, because the AG
10 put in Judge Hale's opinion, this is clarifying his opinion
11 to dispel the notion that the phrase lack of good faith in a
12 bankruptcy context means bad faith.

13 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, the NRA put in Judge
14 Hale's decision. Judge Hale's decision speaks for itself
15 and says specifically about the lack of good faith talking
16 about the filing of the bankruptcy. That's it. So if we're 17 going to open that door, that door is pretty wide.

18 THE COURT: Look, I think in the end of the day
19 this is sort of an odd distinction to be fighting about.
20 And the witness, actually I think it got on the record, this 21 is about the difference between lack of good faith and bad
22 faith.

23 MR. CORRELL: Lack of good faith under the 24 bankruptcy code within the meaning of the bankruptcy code
25 and then lack of good faith under any statute or bad faith,

LAS

1588

1 which is a distinction.

2 THE COURT: Right. I don't think this is going to
3 lead to a long, drawn out affair. But if you want to put
4 something in, and I think the witness has already said it,
5 to make the point that in the wonderful and strange world of 6 bankruptcy, a finding of lack of good faith is not the same
7 thing as a finding of bad faith. Is that your point?

8 MR. CORRELL: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Which they have now heard from me.

10 MR. CORRELL: Well, your Honor, we can limit it to 11 line 16 through 21 if that would be more palatable.

Journey - by Plaintiff - Recross/Correll

1 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor --

2 THE COURT: Look, I -- it's, I think, of really
3 little relevance, but at this point, now, the jury has heard
4 a little bit about this, so I would --

5 I'll just tell you, the judge made a distinction
6 between, you know --

7 Can I have that?

8 MR. CORRELL: Sure (handing).

9 THE COURT: So what this is about, and I don't
10 think there's any need to have it be a question-and-answer
11 session: The judge says in the transcript, in part:

12 "The words 'bad faith' were used this morning in 13 our discussions. I am not certain, but I don't think that 14 term actually appears in the opinion. It certainly is not 15 the reason that the case was dismissed. This case was 16 dismissed for a lack of a bankruptcy purpose and lack of 17 good faith."

18 Right?

19 MR. CORRELL: Yes.

20 THE COURT: So --

21 MR. CORRELL: And there's, I think, one more
22 sentence that clarifies the --

23 THE COURT: And then he says he wants everyone to 24 know that "we spent a substantial amount of time on 25 distinguishing the reasons for dismissing the bankruptcy

1 case. The reasons for dismissal of this case were
2 painstakingly made."

3 So --

4 MR. CORRELL: That's it, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: -- to the extent it matters, in the 6 bankruptcy world, at least, there is a difference. A judge
7 can dismiss a bankruptcy, and this judge did, after a
8 finding that it was not -- the bankruptcy filing was not --
9 made in good faith. That is different than a finding that 10 it was made in bad faith.

11 I don't know that I can explain it any more than 12 just saying that that's what the bankruptcy rules are -- how 13 they are construed. Okay?

14 So I think the judge was making the point that "You
15 shouldn't use 'bad faith' to describe what I found; I found
16 a lack of good faith."

17 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

18 In the bankruptcy context.

19 THE COURT: In the bankruptcy context. In that 20 bankruptcy context.

21 So, with that --

22 MR. CORRELL: That's it, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: -- any further questions?

24 MS. COUTU: No, your Honor.

25 MR. WANG: Nothing further.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 Sir, you're free to go.

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 I'm going to give the jury a break now, while we
6 set up for the next witness.

7 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

8 (The jury left the courtroom.)

9 THE COURT: Just one logistical thing:

10 I got -- my law clerk sent me the e-mail about the 11 Meadows exhibits and the list of exhibits as to which I
12 should tell the jury that they are not being offered for the 13 truth; and that, as I'm reading this e-mail, is PX 2649,
14 which is an e-mail to Mr. Frazer. "It is not being offered
15 for the truth of its contents but for a nonhearsay purpose."
16 This is plaintiff's response to the objection.

17 PX 705, similarly, the article is not being offered
18 for the truth of its contents.

19 Same for PX 3231.

20 Same for PX 2263.

21 Same for PX 2988.

22 So I will -- what? -- before we start the playback,
23 just make that point? Is that the best time to do it?

24 MS. CONNELL: I think that makes the most sense,
25 rather than stopping the playback.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1592

1 Your Honor, can I just put one thing on the
2 record --

3 THE COURT: You can.

4 MS. CONNELL: -- my objection to the reading from 5 the bankruptcy transcript, that last reading, and the 6 instruction to the jury.

7 My concern is, what Judge Hale was saying -- why I
8 was objecting to that was that he didn't believe there was a
9 construct, in the bankruptcy rules for dismissal, of "bad
10 faith." Not that he'd made a finding that there was no bad
11 faith but the question for a motion to dismiss is whether a
12 bankruptcy is commenced in good faith.

13 THE COURT: No, I -- that was certainly what I was 14 intending to convey, is that the opinion couldn't be 15 construed as a finding of bad faith, because that's not what 16 the question was.

17 MS. CONNELL: Right.

18 I'm just --

19 THE COURT: I also didn't say, very carefully, that 20 he found that it wasn't in bad faith.

21 I mean, this whole, you know, riddle wrapped in an
22 enigma about the difference between those two things is not 23 something that this jury should spend a lot of time being 24 vexed about.

25 MS. CONNELL: I agree completely, your Honor.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1593

1 THE COURT: Which was my intention, to basically
2 say, "Don't worry about this wordplay between the two
3 things; it doesn't matter."

4 MS. CONNELL: I'm just concerned.

5 And the reason I'm noting my objection is -- I'm
6 not asking for anything curative to be done, but I am
7 concerned, once I look back at the transcript, that they
8 were left with the impression that the jury -- that the NRA
9 -- could have been fined -- could have been found to have 10 filed in bad faith. That wasn't something that was on the 11 menu. What it was is that they didn't file in good faith.
12 And I don't want them left with that impression.

13 The order is very clear. It was a finding of no --
14 not filed in good faith under the Bankruptcy Code. That's 15 why I was urging the Court to stick to that.

16 But that's fine. I just wanted my objection for
17 the record.

18 THE COURT: My view was, at that point, so much had 19 been said in front of the jury that they were going to be -- 20 there was the potential for them to be -- super-confused and 21 think that maybe there was something that they needed to 22 know about, and my goal was to say that -- that, frankly,
23 the use of "bad faith" is probably imprecise, but it's also 24 not something that is, sort of, an outrage. It's just kind
25 of a quirky thing in the Bankruptcy Code, and I think they

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1594

1 got it.

2 Look, if you look through the transcript and you
3 think that, somehow, I conveyed that bad faith was on the 4 menu, I'll -- I'll think about doing it. I -- I suspect
5 that it would be elevating the issue to an importance that
6 it doesn't really deserve, because I -- I don't really --
7 I've never understood why anyone thought this issue cut in 8 their favor or against them, in any way. It's just 9 complete -- you know, I think -- outside the bankruptcy
10 world, I don't think anybody really takes much thought about 11 what "lack of good faith" and "bad faith" mean.

12 Anyway, I'll stop because I don't want to get down
13 the road in bankruptcy law.

14 If you -- if anybody looks at the transcript and 15 thinks that I didn't -- that I created more problems than I
16 solved, then I'll try to address that.

17 MS. CONNELL: Thank you, your Honor.

18 MR. CORRELL: Thank you, your Honor.

19 MS. ROGERS: Thank you.

20 (Recess.)

21 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything we need to do
22 before we get the jury, or should we just get 'em back?

23 All right, let's get the jury.

24 MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we're just going to go
25 with the instruction and the video, right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 THE COURT: The instruction about the exhibits.

2 MS. CONNELL: Yeah, and that she -- her health
3 condition.

4 THE COURT: Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah.

5 (Pause.)

6 THE COURT: When I identify these exhibit numbers,
7 are those the exhibit numbers that are going to appear on 8 the screen? So, if I tell them -- if I cite "PX 70," is 9 that what's going to appear?

10 Okay.

11 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

12 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

13 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome back, folks. Have a
14 seat.

15 So, the --

16 MR. FARBER: Your Honor, to your question, I don't 17 believe, but maybe the State can correct me, that the 18 exhibit numbers in that e-mail are the ones that are 19 referenced in the deposition.

20 THE COURT: No, but I think they have it set up so 21 that it -- when they show it on the screen, it will have the 22 exhibit number on it.

23 Okay. What we're next going to do is, we have 24 another witness who, because of health reasons, is unable to 25 come to court, like with Mr. Tedrick. That's Ms. Meadows,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Proceedings

1596

1 who -- you may have heard her name before. So --

2 And I believe this is video, not just audio; right?

3 So it's going to be a video, but there will again
4 be the transcript running underneath it.

5 Again, it's under oath and you can take it as if it
6 is testimony live in court.

7 It will be one video but it's over three days, and 8 so, each of the dates is on the screen. So, again, as with 9 Mr. Tedrick, sometimes they'll say things in the present
10 tense, so it's -- you should just be aware of the date as of 11 which she's talking, to the extent that that's relevant.

12 And one other -- a couple of things:

13 There are a few documents that are going to come up
14 as exhibits where they're being offered for a limited
15 purpose, and we talked about this at one of the early days.
16 There is -- some documents are offered not for the truth of 17 the content but just the fact that they were said, for 18 various reasons.

19 And so, I'll just -- I'll state it on the record,
20 so if you ever are going back through it and you want to go
21 through it, here are the exhibits that you'll see and the 22 exhibit numbers will pop up on the screen.

23 One quirky thing is that they were probably marked
24 and have, maybe, a different exhibit number from the 25 deposition; but, to be helpful, the video will use the PX

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1597

1 numbers that we're using in court.

2 So the exhibits are: PX 2649, PX 705, PX 3231,
3 PX 2263, and PX 2988.

4 So, again, they are not -- these are not being
5 offered by the plaintiff for the truth of the contents but 6 either to show that somebody signed a letter or that -- or 7 something like that. That's in two of them. You know, to 8 show that the reader received something, that kind of thing.
9 You'll see it in context. But for those exhibits, it's --
10 they're just admitted for that purpose.

11 So, anyway, with that exciting introduction, roll
12 'em.

PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: Good morning everyone. A couple of jurors are running a few minutes late. So I have taken a look at the letters relating to the Spray prior testimony. And folks on the bankruptcy testimony, I do think the defendants have, individual defendants have a point that, you know, obviously a deposition testimony in this case where everybody is represented and has the opportunity to question is one thing. The bankruptcy, I think it's a trickier argument for the State as to why that would be admissible against the individual defendants.

I saw the authorities cited in the letter. I don't think 4517, CPLR 4517 does it, because it has to be a prior action involving the same parties, which the bankruptcy is not. The reference to the unofficial evidence guide about parties in privity seems to me doesn't really work because Mr. Spray wasn't in privity at the time of his testimony probably with anyone, but certainly not with the individuals. And you layer in at least the representation that the individual defendants' counsel weren't there. And layered on top of all of that is my assumption correct that Mr. Spray's deposition was after the bankruptcy?

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, he was deposed in the bankruptcy and then his deposition in this litigation was after that. The parties had all been provided with the transcript of his bankruptcy deposition.

LAS

1602

PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: Right. My recollection is, is when I was going through the deposition transcript in this case there were bits and pieces of the bankruptcy testimony that were brought up, and Mr. Spray was asked to say well, you know, is that true. So, at least somebody thought about the idea that it might make sense in the deposition in this case, if you're going to rely on the bankruptcy testimony to bring it into this case and have it be repeated at the deposition where people could ask him about that testimony. So, I think that going back to just introducing the bankruptcy testimony in mass or at least the portion that was proposed does present, I think, some problems under both the statutory bases at least what were cited to me and just basic fairness.

So, maybe the State can help me understand. You make some sort of privity like arguments that because Mr. LaPierre and Mr. Frazer are senior officers, somehow their interests were covered in the bankruptcy testimony. But I don't know that I fully follow that.

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, Mr. Spray was in negotiations at the time of the bankruptcy. He had been relieved as CFO. He technically was still treasurer, I believe, when he was deposed in the bankruptcy. If not, he was suspended. So, it's a little bit of a question mark for us as to whether he was actually still a party

1603

PROCEEDINGS

representative of the NRA, but he agreed to appear voluntarily on behalf of the NRA.

THE COURT: I could see him in privity with the NRA.

MS. CONNELL: Right.

THE COURT: And the NRA was also a party. So they had full ability to -- you know, to that extent, it's the same party that's involved here. But how would he be in privity with the parties against whom the evidence is offered if we, for present discussion purposes, assume that that party is Mr. LaPierre or Mr. Frazer?

MS. CONNELL: Well, your Honor, at the time of the bankruptcy Mr. LaPierre, Mr. Frazer were both officers of the NRA. They both appeared. Mr. Frazer and Mr. LaPierre appeared, I believe, as corporate represents of the NRA.

THE COURT: Is there some sort of a transitivity principle?

MS. CONNELL: That's where I'm headed, your Honor.

THE COURT: That's what I was looking for. In the legal argument I didn't see it. I don't know that either. I don't know entirely if that makes sense. I understand the point that it does seem a little odd for -- at some level the head of the company to be distancing himself from the company in Mr. LaPierre's case. But for evidentiary purposes they're different entities and, in fact, some of the interested, divergent in spots. But it really is, it's partly a technical question. Partly a feeling of fundamental fairness that everybody had the ability to bring Mr. Spray's testimony in to the deposition. That was the most obvious place to have it out in an open forum, where everybody would understand that in certain circumstances the testimony might be played at trial. And in that context I think it adds a little more of a burden to the State to explain to me why we should go back to a prior proceeding, which was about something else with different parties.

1604

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I would say from a fundamental fairness perspective, when we took these depositions, if you look at the transcripts as a whole, there was often a struggle for time to allowing questioning by all seven parties, excuse me not seven parties, by all of the parties in the action. So, we provided all of the deposition parties -- the deposition testimony previously taken to all of the parties. All of the parties were free to address any portions they felt were necessary. But to simply repeat exactly the bankruptcy deposition and the litigation deposition didn't seem like a prudent use of time. If there was something troubling to one of the defendants in the bankruptcy testimony, then they could raise it with Mr. Spray and question him on it. To me that seems to be --

1605

PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: That presupposes that they should have understood that the bankruptcy testimony would be admissible. So, unless they didn't bring it up. I mean, frankly if it were me, I probably would make the tactical choice not to get into harmful stuff that I would be bringing into this litigation if I was going to preserve the argument that I wasn't a party to the bankruptcy, I would probably leave well enough alone.

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, so far I think Mr. -- Mr. Frazer is pointed to, I believe, one item that he was concerned about. So, general objection to the bankruptcy testimony I think is overbroad. At times we're using the bankruptcy testimony I believe --

THE COURT: It's hearsay across the board to anybody unless you have an exception, right. In other words, the whole prior testimony starts out as inadmissible unless you can have some hearsay exception. So that -- that's really what we're talking about.

MS. CONNELL: Well, your Honor, it is admissible against the NRA if I understood you correctly.

THE COURT: Right, because there is a statute --

MS. CONNELL: Sure.

THE COURT: -- that makes it admissible because it's a prior sworn testimony in an action between the same parties.

LAS

1606

PROCEEDINGS

MS. CONNELL: Right. And I believe Mr. LaPierre has asserted that certain -- he can use certain portions of that testimony if he so desires without designating those portions. So, perhaps we can cure this with a curative instruction saying portions of his testimony played for the bankruptcy are admissible against the NRA only.

THE COURT: That is the -- where I was coming from is that it's, you know, it's always a little awkward to explain something like that to a jury that this is admissible only against the party that was there who could question. But I think that's the way this usually plays out. I mean, and like I said, I referenced this earlier, if there is some case law or something persuasive to explain why the senior officers of a party should be essentially considered the party for purposes of the hearsay analysis, I'd be interested in seeing it. I didn't see it in what was cited.

So for now my view is that the bankruptcy excerpts, which I think I was still waiting for more specificity as to what was alleged to be hearsay within hearsay, because the portion of the Spray bankruptcy transcript that is marked I think was, I now understood was marked globally for this broad concern, that really was specific to Mr. Frazer and Mr. LaPierre and Mr. Phillips. But there is also actual regular hearsay in it potentially too. I was -- I was --

1607

PROCEEDINGS

When I read it anyway, there were parts of it where I believe he says something like well, I found out later that this was still going on or something like that. And I think one might infer from what came later that it was perhaps based on his own review of records, although it could also be read as somebody telling him based on their review of records what they found. So, I was left a little unsure about that. And I thought I had asked for a more specific question-by-question objections. So, I'm still a little up in the air on that.

MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, may I be heard?

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. CORRELL: Just briefly. First of all, I wanted to correct a point of fact. I was counsel for Mr. LaPierre personally in the bankruptcy. I was not allowed in the room with him during his testimony. I was not allowed to object or to cross examine. The only objection I could make was personal privilege, spousal privilege or attorney/client. I was not allowed to address the Judge. It was a little bit like a star chamber proceeding as far as he was concerned.

Second of all, the Attorney General has taken the position that Mr. LaPierre is adverse to the NRA in that, according to the Attorney General, he has taken money from the NRA that he shouldn't have taken. So he's always, under their theory, always adverse. I would remind the Court that the AG took the position on a motion that for collateral estoppel that it was a different action, different parties, different issues, and the Judge ruled on that based on their arguments.

1608

PROCEEDINGS

Lastly, I think that I have a problem with a curative instruction. I would be curious to know how you think that would work, because I just can't imagine the jury trying to sort out in their own mind that testimony.

THE COURT: Well, look, like I said the other day to someone else, nobody sought separate trials here. And there may be some evidence that is unique to one party or another, and we'll just have to sort it out. I -- I don't know that what you're suggesting is, even though it would otherwise be fully admissible against the NRA, I should still not let it in at all.

MR. CORRELL: I'm struggling with that issue myself, your Honor. I know this. I know that curative instructions don't always work, and sometimes they actually emphasize the point that the Judge is trying to instruct on, and that is my concern.

THE COURT: Mr. Fleming.

MR. FLEMING: Judge, I just wanted to make two points. One is Ms. Connell talked about the struggles for time in this deposition. I just wanted to --

THE COURT: Are you arguing -- I'm coming at your

1609

PROCEEDINGS

way.

MR. FLEMING: I understand.

THE COURT: I'm happy to reconsider as always.

MR. FLEMING: I recognize. I was really speaking to Mr. Correll's point about the curative instruction.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. FLEMING: The point I wanted to make was the Attorney General had seven hours under the rules in this case to depose Mr. Spray.

THE COURT: Unless you asked for more which, you know, I probably would have allowed if somebody said look, there are six different parties. We need to have more time. Go ahead.

MR. FLEMING: They did not ask for that. They took their seven hours. The defendants late into the night struggled to cram in the 20, 25 minutes they could possibly grasp to cross examine.

The point I wanted to make was the Attorney General had the opportunity to raise the issues of importance to them in the deposition. And so, to permit a bankruptcy testimony in against the NRA, I do think there is inevitable, I don't want to say prejudice, but there is a danger of prejudice to the individual defendants notwithstanding any curative instruction. And given the circumstances that they had the opportunity to raise the important points they wanted to raise or to ask for more time, I think that bears on the analysis.

1610

THE COURT: Yeah. Look, I understand that point. I would -- I could say the same that -- that you all could have, if you wanted more time to ask questions, you could have certainly asked me for that as well. Look, I'll think about it. But it would be an awfully big curve ball to flow at the plaintiff to say well now, having -- nobody having sought severance, we're now going to hinder your case against one of the parties because of the potential carryover of some of the evidence against the others. It seems awfully late in the day to make that argument.

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, could I just address one thing?

MR. CORRELL: Your Honor --

MS. CONNELL: I'm sorry.

MR. CORRELL: Just to be clear, I'm not making that argument. I'm asking for some guidance perhaps on what the curative instruction might look like and whether there would be any balancing between probative and prejudicial on certain things that are particularly --

THE COURT: Well, they are only seeking to, my recollection is it's one passage of the deposition really -- of the bankruptcy testimony that's substantive, right? It's like a page and a half or two?

LAS

1611

PROCEEDINGS

MR. CORRELL: Yes.

MR. FLEMING: Four pages.

MR. CORRELL: I just don't want the nose, the camel's nose under the tent on that. Anyway, your Honor, I'm happy with your ruling.

THE COURT: What I would make the point to them if I go this way is look, the deposition testimony everybody was here for. You'll hear that. The bankruptcy testimony, only the NRA was a party to that proceeding. Only the NRA's counsel was permitted to question the witness. So, in fairness that testimony can only be used against the NRA and not against parties who were not separately represented as they are here.

MR. CORRELL: That would be acceptable to Mr. LaPierre.

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I want to correct one thing. While we certainly --

THE COURT: Just one?

MS. CONNELL: I understand. Well, I'll focus on one, your Honor. While we certainly allege that Mr. LaPierre has engaged in misconduct, diversion, loss, waste of assets of the NRA, I want to be clear that Mr. -- you'll hear Mr. LaPierre testify that he made the decision to put the NRA into bankruptcy. It was his choice. He was the EVP of the NRA at that time and remains the EVP at that time.

LAS

1612

PROCEEDINGS

The NRA has consistently throughout this litigation, until about two weeks ago, stood firmly behind him in lockstep acted together with him, you know, asserted joint objections. Your Honor, to say that they are suddenly adverse parties is a switch up from the position.

THE COURT: I understand that, you know, the defendants, the individual defendants are going to make some arguments like that and that there is adversity between them. That's one position. And I understand fully that the other side is that they were the decisionmakers for the entity, and therefore there is an argument in the other direction saying that they are altogether. And that their actions bind the NRA and the NRA's actions bind them. I'm not basing my ruling on a -- accepting that the notion that their adversity is sort of binding or a finding by me at this point. But it's -- in this situation, where the specific statute that permits the use of prior testimony talks about it being the same parties, I think it's different to say that they may be aligned in one case is different than saying that they were in privity with Mr. Spray, right. I mean, I think if it was an NRA witness, you know, it would be a closer question. I think by that time, at least the understanding I have, was that it's a little less clear whether Mr. Spray was still sort of part of the NRA and testifying in his capacity as CFO. Anyway,

1613

PROCEEDINGS

that's my current view on that. I don't know that we're getting to the Spray testimony today or tomorrow, right?

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we have the Spray testimony ready to go this afternoon in the event Mr. Cotton finishes. This morning is going to be the Meadows, the completion of the Meadows video, then it's going to be Mr. Cotton. If we can get through Mr. Cotton today, we can start with Mr. Spray, not the bankruptcy portion.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's do that. The most important thing is to get going.

MR. FARBER: One quick point on the question of remedy here, because your Honor has alluded a couple of times to the fact that no one ever asked for a severance. I don't think that's sort of the only alternative here. Under, you know, under the evidence guide under 406, you can exclude otherwise relevant evidence, which this plainly is as to the NRA, if introducing it is going to confuse the issues and potentially mislead the jury. Mr. Correll's point I think is that one thing that needs to be considered is whether giving an instruction like that is going to mislead the jury. And given the limited additional probative value of this evidence and the fact that they have the deposition from this case, it's appropriate to do that and whether one is outweighed by the other.

THE COURT: Well, I'll say a couple of things.

LAS

1614

PROCEEDINGS

First of all, the fact that you didn't ask for severance does not mean I'm ignoring your client's individual rights here. I still have it firmly in mind to make sure there is nothing unfair to the individuals. Just because they didn't seek severance, that doesn't mean I abdicate my vigilance for that. So, you know, no fears there.

And I do understand that I have at least the discretion in certain situations. I don't -- I think what I'm concerned about mostly with this testimony is making sure I understand whether it's itself another layer of hearsay that I can't get through. In other words, if he is just testifying about what somebody told him, that may be more problematic for me. As I read through it, I couldn't tell whether the substance of his testimony that was being offered was him basically repeating what somebody told him or in fact whether it was something that he had seen the actual data and was reporting on his review of business records. It's a little unclear to me from the questioning and answering what the basis was of his testimony. So, I still have a hearsay concern that I have to get alleviated before I let any of it in against anyone.

MR. FARBER: They haven't established foundation of that through the transcript. It's not like Mr. Spray is going to be here for follow-up questions.

THE COURT: I didn't read the other hundred pages of the transcript. And I did think that maybe somewhere in the four pages he does talk about records. I'm -- I'm going to give the AG a chance to explain to me why it's not just him telling us what Sonya Rowling told him or somebody else told him, but I don't want to do that right now, because I have 11 folks downstairs who are probably itching to get started. Can I ask how much is left on the Meadows?

LAS

1615

MS. CONNELL: Unfortunately, your Honor, it's quite a bit. We have been trying to cut these videos down drastically, and it's been an involved process. I think we are just over two hours.

THE COURT: Okay. You guys use your time however you see fit. Is there a -- What's the scorecard right now in terms of who has used how much time as between the plaintiff and defendant?

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, we were calculating that last night. If I could take a look and inform you at the next break. I want to be adequate.

THE COURT: Okay. I do want to encourage you, now that it's been two weeks, I want us to increase our efficiency in some of the mechanics. You know, we should be spending less time on introducing exhibits. We should have things premarked, if we can. I feel like we're -- we're -- we should be a more finally well oiled machine at this point. You know, people should think about, you know, there has been a lot of multiple rounds of recrosses and redirects, a lot of which struck me as being potentially a little duplicative. All I'll say is again, this is your show. All the time you use asking the third round of questions to a witness may come at the expense of your first round of questions of a witness you might really care more about. So just bear all of that in mind. Time marches on, right.

MS. EISENBERG: Your Honor, to answer your question by our calculations, the NYAG is slightly over 20 hours. The NRA is slightly over four. Mr. LaPierre is close to three. Mr. Phillips is two hours and 16 minutes. And Mr. Frazer is slightly over three hours.

THE COURT: All right. Well, I would hope we can end up with the same numbers. Again the defendants as a group that's roughly 12. So, it's 20 to 12 is where you say we are at this point?

MS. EISENBERG: That's right, your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. We'll see. I mean and are you counting the cross designation time as evenly split or what are you doing with that?

MS. EISENBERG: We did not, to the extent our counters were played under the rule of completeness, we did not debit it against us.

THE COURT: Well, I won't weigh into that part yet.

LAS

1617

PROCEEDINGS

It's probably not material anyway. Well let's -- We'll hear what you have to say about those numbers in a bit. Let's get the jury.

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor, I'll address it by letter to the Court, the counter designations are an issue for us. They are quite lengthy.

THE COURT: So working in time for a break, Meadows is probably going to be most of the morning, if not the whole morning.

MS. CONNELL: Your Honor --

THE COURT: And then Mr. Cotton is the next witness?

MS. CONNELL: Mr. Cotton is the next witness. And then, your Honor, tomorrow if needed we'll play some of Spray this afternoon, not the bankruptcy portion. Then tomorrow morning we'll go into Lieutenant Colonel North, who has to be completed tomorrow due to a family situation, which I can explain to the Court if you need me to.

THE COURT: If I don't need it to be explained, that's fine. We'll accommodate if we can.

I should note, by the way, there was a case between Lieutenant Colonel North and the NRA that was also in front of me about indemnification and the like. It's not a conflict to -- of any kind. I just thought I would mention it.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I thought it was worth doing

17 focus on for long periods of time, because there's no normal
18 breaks in the conversation; it's just one question after

11 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Cotton. My name is Steven 12 Shiffman. I'm an attorney general from the New York State
13 Attorney General's Office. How are you today, sir?

14 A Good afternoon, sir.

15 Q Mr. Cotton, you're a lawyer; correct?

16 A I am.

17 Q Okay. And you also have experience as an accountant,
18 right?

19 A Many decades ago, but yes, sir.

20 Q You're trained as a CPA?

21 A I was a CPA but I haven't -- haven't practiced in
22 years.

23 Q Okay. And you're also currently a member of the NRA's
24 board of directors; isn't that right?

25 A Yes, sir.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

2 since 2001; is --

3 A 2001, yes.

4 Q Okay. And you're currently president of the NRA;
5 correct?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. When were you elected president of the NRA?

8 A Let's see ... I was first vice president -- I guess it
9 was '21.

10 Q In 2021.

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Okay. And are you serving a third straight term as 13 president?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Okay. And did the NRA have a provision in its bylaws
16 that limited the number of consecutive terms that the president
17 could serve to two terms?

18 A Yes, sir. People tend to think that we have two-year
19 terms. We really don't. They're back-to-back one-year terms --

20 Q Um-hmm.

21 A -- and we're limited to -- it's kind of an awkward way
22 to word it, but we're limited to succeeding ourselves only once
23 unless you amend the bylaws.

24 Q Okay. And so, the bylaws were in fact amended so you
25 could serve a third term; that is right?

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Okay. And that was done early last year?

3 A It would have been done at our annual meeting last
4 year, yes, sir.

5 Q And you mentioned, before you were NRA president, you
6 were vice president; that's correct?

7 A Yes, sir; first vice president.

8 Q And before you became first vice president, did members
9 of the NRA's board recruit you for that position?

10 A Yes, sir. That was -- I had a number of people that --
11 that asked if I would consider that.

12 Q Okay. And was Sandy Froman one of those people?

13 A Yes. I talked to Sandy -- yes, I believe she did
14 encourage me to do it.

15 Q Okay. And was Wayne LaPierre one of the people who 16 encouraged you to run?

17 A I don't recall talking to Mr. LaPierre about an officer
18 position.

19 Q You don't recall him encouraging you to run for first
20 vice president?

21 A I was trying to remember back. He and I talked about
22 it. I can't say that he -- I don't recall now if he encouraged
23 me to do it or not, but I -- I did tell him that I was being 24 asked by some board members.

25 Q Okay. And you don't recall him saying that you'd be a

4 candidly, most people that were asking me to do it, that was the 5 main thing they wanted to point to. I was retired, I'm an 6 attorney, and that's -- that's really what they focused on.

7 Q Do you recall that you gave a deposition in this matter
8 in June of 2022?

9 A I remember I gave one; I couldn't confirm the date, no.

10 Q In approximately --

11 A Sure.

12 Q -- about a year and a half ago?

13 A Yes, sir.

17 BY MR. SHIFFMAN:

18 Q Mr. Cotton, this is tab 8 in your binder. Do you
19 recognize this document, sir?

20 A Well, I recognize the title page.

21 Q Okay.

22 A I'd have to read it to tell you what it --

23 Q I'm not going to ask you to read the whole thing now,
24 sir. I just want you to see if you recognize this as being --
25 the whole binder as being -- the whole packet as being the

1 policy manual from June 5th, 2019.

2 And the date's on the first page, sir.

3 A Okay. Based on the first page, yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. And can you please turn to page 278 of this
5 large exhibit?

6 (Image scrolled.)

7 Q It's also on this -- on the screen in front of you,
8 sir.

9 A Sorry. I can't begin to read it from here.

10 Q You can use either one. Feel free to use -- the screen
11 that's in front of you on the table should have it.

12 A I got it.

13 Q Okay. Do you recognize what begins on page 278 and 14 continues for about four pages, sir?

15 If you take a look at the top, it says: "Statement of 16 Corporate Ethics." Does that refresh your recollection that 17 this is a Statement of Corporate Ethics from the NRA?

18 A Yes, sir. That's what it says on the top.

19 I was going to read it if you're going to ask me
20 questions.

21 Q You can -- you take as much time as you need to look at
22 it, but I'll direct you to particular sections, so we can speed
23 it up. But I don't want to inhibit your review.

24 A Okay.

25 Q Sir, do you recognize this as the corporate ethics

1 policy of the NRA from January of 2015?

2 A Yes, sir. That's the date on the exhibit and that
3 appears to be our ethics policy.

4 Q Okay. Can you take a look at the second paragraph on 5 page 278, sir?

6 And there it requires that all employees comply with
7 applicable bylaws and policies of the NRA, as well as all
8 relevant laws and regulations; right?

9 A Yes, sir, that's correct.

10 Q And it also provides that no violations will be 11 tolerated; correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And it's not just the letter of the law and the letter
14 of the policies that are addressed, it's also the spirit and 15 intent of the bylaws; correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q Okay. And the statement of ethics, if you look at 18 paragraph number 1 under this, also addresses a number of 19 conflict-of-interest situations; isn't that right?

20 (Image modified.)

21 A I'm sorry. Let me -- let me read that. Are you
22 talking about Subpart 1 on the document or the first paragraph?

23 Q Yeah. It's the part that's highlighted on the screen,
24 but it's that paragraph number 1, as well.

25 (Pause.)

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1630

1 A Yes, sir, I see it.

2 Q Right. And that paragraph expressly prohibits
3 employees of the NRA from being involved in conflict-of-interest
4 situations; correct?

5 A Well, it describes certain things that you can't do,
6 and under our policy, that would -- that would create the 7 conflict of interest.

8 Q Right. And you see, the last line says: "Employees
9 shall not become involved in conflict of interest situations"?

10 A Yes, sir, but the rest of the paragraph has specific
11 things.

12 Q Right. I'm just asking you whether the -- it provides 13 that they shall not become involved in conflict-of-interest
14 situations.

15 A Okay.

16 THE COURT: All right, counsel, although you've 17 only just begun, we've, unfortunately, hit our lunch break,
18 so we're going to continue up -- I'm sorry -- at 2:15.

19 During the break, sir, you're still on the stand,
20 so you shouldn't discuss the substance of your testimony
21 with anyone, including counsel.

22 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Understand?

24 Thank you.

25 We'll see you all in an hour and a half.

2 (The jury left the courtroom.)

3 (The witness stepped down.)

4 THE COURT: All right, we'll see you all at 2:15.

5 MR. SHIFFMAN: Thank you, your Honor.

6 (Luncheon recess.)

7 A f t e r n o o n S e s s i o n :

8 THE COURT: Okay. Are we all set for the witness
9 and the jury? Okay.

10 MR. SHIFFMAN: I believe so.

11 THE COURT: Let's get the witness.

12 (Pause.)

13 THE COURT: Before we start:

14 I don't know what the breakdown is, but the total
15 number of hours that Ms. Eisenberg gave me is about right.
16 We've had, I think, eight trial days, counting half-days as 17 well, and I think my average is about four hours a day. We 18 have five-and-change actual hours during the day, 9:30 to 19 12:30, 2:30 to 4:30, and when you add in breaks and 20 everything else, four hours of actual on-your-feet time is 21 about what I've seen.

22 So that should give you all a pretty good way to
23 map out the number of days between now and February 15th,
24 when we're going to start with closing arguments no later
25 than the morning of.

1 So --

2 Yes, sir?

3 MR. BREWER: That's just, like, the average, your
4 Honor; about four hours.

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 All right.

7 (The witness resumed the stand.)

8 (Pause.)

9 COURT OFFICER: Ready to receive the jury, your
10 Honor?

11 (The Court nodded.)

12 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury entering.

13 (The jury entered the courtroom.)

14 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome back, and have a seat.

15 All right, counsel, you may continue.

16 MR. SHIFFMAN: Thank you, your Honor.

18 BY MR. SHIFFMAN:

19 Q Mr. Cotton, can you please turn back to tab 8, page 20 278? And we were looking at that first numbered paragraph on 21 the page.

22 A Page 278?

23 Q 278, yes, at tab 8.

24 (Pause.)

25 A Okay.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1633

1 Q Okay. Thank you, sir.

2 (Image displayed.)

3 Q Mr. Cotton, the conflict-of-interest situations that 4 the code of ethics addresses include any activities that might
5 influence someone's business judgment; correct?

6 A When you say, "any activities," that's a little broad.
7 But, yeah, there's a whole category of things that -- that are
8 prohibited and then there's, I would call, a catchall phrase,
9 that if something gives the appearance ...

10 Q Okay. If you look at the portion of the exhibit that's 11 on the screen in front of you, there it says: "Association
12 employees shall not become involved in any activity which might 13 influence, be reasonably expected to influence, or give the 14 appearance of influencing their objective business judgment in 15 dealing with others." Correct?

16 A I'm trying to find that in -- on page seventy -- 278
17 that you referred me to and I don't -- I don't see that.

18 Q Do you see the numbered paragraph there that has number
19 "1"?

20 A I see it on 2 -- on page 278.

21 Q I'm sorry, sir. It might be a little confusing for 22 you. There's two sets of numbers. We're using the numbers at 23 the very bottom of the page.

24 A Oh, okay.

25 Q I apologize.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1634

1 A Ah. No problem.

2 Q I think it's my fault, sir. Yeah.

3 A Okay. Yes, sir. Now I've got it.

4 Q Okay. And do you see that language (indicating) that I
5 just read in paragraph 1 -- number 1?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. And can you take a look at the very bottom of 8 that page, to the last paragraph there?

9 A The "failure to comply" language?

10 Q Yes. That -- that -- there the policy provides that 11 the failure to comply with the NRA's policies may result in 12 dismissal or -- from employment or other disciplinary action;
13 correct?

14 A That's what it says, yes, sir.

15 Q Okay. And that was the NRA's policy, right?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q Okay. Can we go to page 279?

18 MR. SHIFFMAN: Number 3, Jesse.

19 (Image scrolled.)

20 A Okay.

21 Q Okay. There it provides that the statement of ethics
22 expressly prohibits employees from accepting gifts worth more
23 than $250 -- right? -- from any supplier or potential supplier
24 to the NRA without advance approval; correct?

25 A Yes, sir. It goes on to say, "unless approved by the

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1635

1 executive director of that employee's division."

2 Q Right. And that approval has to be in advance;
3 correct?

4 A It should be, yes, sir.

5 Q And the policy provides for advance approval; doesn't
6 it?

7 A It does, but the policy also provides for -- I'll call
8 it retroactive approval under certain circumstances.

9 Q Okay. Can you show me where you're referring to, where 10 it says "retroactive approval" there?

11 A Oh, sir, I've read -- I've read so many documents
12 trying to get ready, I couldn't.

13 Q Well, you would agree with me, wouldn't you, sir, that 14 in paragraph 3 that we're looking at here, there's no mention of 15 "retroactive approval"? Right?

16 A In -- I'm sorry. In this paragraph, yes, sir.

17 Q Right.

18 And in fact, if you look at the part that's not 19 highlighted, it says, prior to accepting or receiving such 20 personal favor or gratuity, you must disclose it; right?

21 A Yes, sir. That's absolutely the way we want this:
22 up-front.

23 Q And that's the way you want a conflict-of-interest
24 policy to work. You want advance approval, not retroactive
25 approval; right, sir?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1636

1 A Yes, sir, that's what we want.

2 Q Okay, great.

3 And if you do get that advance approval, that
4 approval's supposed to be submitted in writing to the NRA's
5 Human Resources Department; correct?

6 A It's supposed to come to us -- I'm sorry. When I say
7 "us," I mean the Audit Committee. It's supposed to come to the 8 Audit Committee to make that decision.

9 Q Okay. But it's also supposed to be filed with the 10 Human Resources Division? Isn't that what the policy provides 11 there (indicating)?

12 A To be honest with you, I'm not sure what all divisions
13 that it goes to, because that's operational things. The -- the 14 board and the Audit Committee are -- are oversight, so I know
15 we're supposed to get it. I can't tell you where all it's 16 supposed to go internally, as well.

17 Q Okay, fair enough.

18 Mr. Cotton, you've served on the Audit Committee of the 19 board, as you were just referring to; right?

20 A I -- I --

21 Q Do you want -- maybe I was going a little fast.

22 You've served on the Audit Committee of the NRA's
23 board?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And that's an important committee within the NRA?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1637

1 A It is.

2 Q It reviews conflict-of-interest transactions, like you
3 were just referring to?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q Okay. And related-party transactions, as well?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. And whistleblower complaints?

8 A Yes. One of -- one of many that can handle
9 whistleblower complaints, yes, sir.

10 Q And what years have you served on the Audit Committee,
11 sir?

12 A I think I first went on in 2009. I'm pretty sure
13 that's right.

14 Q Okay. And have you served on it continuously since 15 2009?

16 A I've served on it continuously, if I'm correct, about 17 2009, and, yes, sir, that's -- there have been -- there have 18 been no time that I was off the committee.

19 Q Okay. And you've also served as chair of the Audit
20 Committee; haven't you?

21 A Yes, sir, I have.

22 Q Okay. And during what years have you served as Audit
23 Committee chair?

24 A I was afraid you were going to ask me that.

25 Q To the best of your recollection, sir.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1638

1 A I believe it's 2015.

2 Q Okay. And are you still on the Audit Committee?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. And there's a charter that sets forth the 5 responsibilities of the Audit Committee; isn't there?

6 A Yes, sir, there is.

7 Q Okay. I'd like to go to tab 26, which is PX 5073.

8 MR. SHIFFMAN: I don't believe there are any
9 objections to this.

10 A You say, "26"?

11 Q Yes, sir, tab 26.

12 THE COURT: Any objections to this exhibit?

13 MR. BREWER: No objection.

14 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

15 MR. SHIFFMAN: I move that the --

16 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

17 MR. FARBER: No objection.

18 MR. SHIFFMAN: I move that PX 5073 be admitted.

19 THE COURT: It's admitted.

20 (Image displayed.)

21 Q Mr. Cotton, do you recognize the e-mail that's on the 22 first page of this document?

23 A Yes, sir, I recognize it.

24 Q Okay. And that's an e-mail that was sent to you by
25 Mr. Frazer?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1639

1 A Yes -- well, the -- the bottom -- the bottom part of it
2 was an e-mail I had sent to Mr. Frazer. The top part is his
3 response to me.

4 Q Right.

5 You asked Mr. Frazer to send you a copy of the Audit
6 Committee charter and he sent it to you; correct?

7 A Yes, sir. I couldn't find mine and --

8 Q Right.

9 A -- it was easier for him to send it.

10 Q Understood.

11 And the document that's attached to the e-mail, the 12 next few pages in the exhibit, those are the -- that's the 13 document that is the Audit Committee charter; correct?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Okay. Can you please go to page 3 of that exhibit?

16 And again, we're using the numbers at the very bottom
17 that say -- have the exhibit number -- "PX 5073, page 3 of 4."

18 A Page 3 of 4. Yes, sir, I've got it.

19 Q And you see that the Audit Committee has responsibility
20 for oversight of the NRA's compliance with laws and regulations?

21 A I see that.

22 Q Okay. And it's -- another one of its responsibilities
23 is to ensure that the organization has internal controls in 24 place, right?

25 A Well, let's ...

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1640

1 Yes, sir.

2 Q Okay, thank you.

3 And the Audit Committee's also responsible for ensuring 4 that the NRA has programs and policies in place to prevent and
5 identify fraud; isn't that correct?

6 A I'm trying to see how, exactly, we worded it here
7 (indicating). Can you help me out here?

8 Q Well, sir, from your knowledge, doesn't the Audit
9 Committee have responsibility for ensuring that the NRA has 10 policies and programs in place to present -- prevent -- fraud?

11 A The best way I can answer that is to say that the --
12 the charter is -- is -- is very specific, because we're 13 volunteers. We don't have a staff or anything. None of us get 14 paid. We're not at headquarters. We make sure that the -- that 15 the policy -- I'm -- I'm sorry -- that the charter specifies
16 things like monitor and, you know, interview people and stuff
17 like that. I -- I'm a little concerned about -- when you say a 18 broad statement like "responsibility," like we're supposed to 19 step in and do it, because we can't do it. We have to rely on 20 others.

21 Q Well, you have responsibility, wouldn't you, for 22 overseeing the NRA's programs and policies with respect to --

23 A Overseeing, yes, sir. I can agree with that.

24 Q And if you take a look, sir, at the bottom of page 3,
25 the first bullet point in the last section there, you'd agree --

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1641

1 A Page 3? Yes, sir.

2 Q -- you'd agree that the Audit Committee is responsible
3 for reviewing the effectiveness of management's investigation on 4 fraudulent acts and accounting irregularities; correct?

5 A Are you talking about the first bullet point?

6 Q Yes, sir; the first bullet point, under "Compliance
7 With Laws and Regulations."

8 A It says: "Review the effectiveness of the system for 9 monitoring compliance with laws and regulations and the results
10 of management's investigation and follow-up ..."

11 That -- that's what -- I mean, that's what I was 12 talking about. We're supposed to review the work of others. We 13 don't do the investigation ourselves.

14 Q Right. I'm not suggesting that you do, sir. I was 15 just asking you whether you had responsibility for reviewing --

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q -- management systems in place. Right?

18 A Yes, sir. Yes. We're -- we're supposed to review
19 those results.

20 Q Okay, good. Thank you, sir.

21 And the Audit Committee is also responsible for 22 reviewing how management responds when it finds and conducts 23 those -- finds fraud -- and conducts those investigations;
24 correct?

25 A If they find fraud, yes, sir.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1642

1 Q Okay.

2 A But we're supposed to review the results. I'm -- I'm 3 sorry -- management's response to any results that they've got.
4 An example would be the management letter from the auditors.

5 Q And, sir, if you take a look at the same page, under
6 "Internal Controls," isn't it one of the Audit Committee's 7 responsibilities to ensure that management is setting the 8 appropriate tone by communicating the importance of internal
9 controls?

10 A Yes, sir, that's correct.

11 Q Okay, thank you.

12 And it's the Audit Committee, along with the Office of 13 General Counsel, that's tasked with overseeing the NRA's
14 whistleblower policy; correct?

15 A Well, certainly, the Audit Committee is a -- is a cog
16 in that system, but it depends on the type of whistleblower. It
17 could be an HR matter that goes to the head of HR or -- or 18 general counsel, as you mentioned; but we're certainly one of 19 them, yes, sir.

20 Q Okay. Thank you, sir.

21 And another responsibility of the Audit Committee is to 22 review potential conflict-of-interest and related-party
23 transactions, right?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q Can you turn back to page -- to tab -- 8, which is

5 MR. FLEMING: I'm sorry; what tab?

6 MR. SHIFFMAN: Tab 8. It's the exhibit we were

8 A Page "23" at the bottom.

9 Q Yes, sir.

10 A "17" at the top.

11 Q Yes --

12 A Okay.

13 Q -- or slightly above that.

14 So, Mr. Cotton, pages 23 to 27 of this exhibit contain
15 the NRA's conflict-of-interest and related-party-transaction
16 policy; correct?

17 A This -- this appears to be it, yes, sir.

18 Q Okay. And if you look on page 27 of this exhibit --

19 A Okay.

20 Q -- that indicates that this is the policy that went 21 into effect in January of 2016; correct?

22 (Image scrolled.)

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q Okay. And this policy is one of the policies that 25 implements the code of ethics that we were just looking at,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1644

1 right?

2 A I want to say that we had a code of ethics before this.
3 I'm maybe -- well, I know -- I know we had an ethics policy.
4 Did we have a code of ethics prior to this one? I can't say.
5 But this (indicating), definitely, was one that incorporated a
6 code of ethics, yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. I think the Code of Ethics we looked at a little
8 while ago was from 2015 and this document's from 2016.

9 A Okay.

10 Q Okay. Does that refresh your recollection that this is 11 one of the policies that implements the Code of Ethics?

12 MR. FLEMING: Objection.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 A It certainly implemented, yes, sir. What I can't tell 15 you from memory is that this was the first one, ever. I just 16 can't say that.

17 Q Okay. I was not asking you that, sir, just to be 18 clear.

19 A Okay.

20 Q I was just asking if this was one that implements that.
21 If you turn to page 25 of this exhibit and take a look
22 at IV ...

24 A Okay.

25 Q So there, the policy provides that transactions that

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 Q Okay. And in order to ensure that the audit committee
2 properly reviews potential conflict of interest transactions,
3 the NRA requires its officers, directors and key employees to 4 fill out an annual disclosure form, right?

5 A Yes, sir. Well, not an annual form. There is a
6 disclosure form that we -- we fill out whenever it's
7 appropriate.

8 Q Okay. And isn't it appropriate to fill it out at least
9 annually but sometimes more than that?

10 A Yes, sir. That's our policy, is that we do it once a 11 year, kind of the official time if you will. But if there is 12 another transaction coming up or something you're thinking about 13 doing, if it -- if it would be triggered by this policy, we 14 expect it to be reported then not wait until the next annual.

15 Q When the audit committee does review transactions that 16 potentially would involve a conflict of interest or related
17 party it looks at those forms, isn't that right?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q Okay. And on pages 23 to 24 of this exhibit the policy
20 sets forth the people that it applies to, right?

21 A (Examining).

22 Q That's under the Roman heading II for "Applicability"?

6 people as NRA officers, directors and key employees, correct?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q And it also includes relatives of those people, right?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q Okay. And it would include members of the board too,

12 A Absolutely.

13 Q Wayne LaPierre?

15 Q And Woody Phillips?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And all the members of the board?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q And their relatives too?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 Q Okay. If you take a look at page 24, Roman numeral
22 III, there the policy sets forth a number of things that 23 constitute conflicts of interest, correct?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q Okay. And there again it goes through different types

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1 of things that constitute conflicts of interest, but it also
2 talks about also needing to disclose any gifts that a person
3 receives that are valued over $250 from a potential vendor or 4 somebody who might influence the person, right?

5 A I was going to say that we have a -- it says nominal
6 gifts up to $250 gifts, yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. And it also provides that -- the covered people
8 are suppose to air on the side of disclosure -- air on the side
9 of caution when making their disclosures, correct?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q And so even if they don't think a conflict exists but 12 it might exist, they should disclose that, right?

13 A Yes. So long as they recognize it. I mean, obviously 14 you want people to air on the side of letting us know, let the 15 audit committee make that decision.

16 Q Okay. And if you take a look at Roman numeral IV,
17 thereto, "The NRA policy requires disclosure of all material
18 facts relating to any of these transactions", right?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And is it Mr. Frazer's responsibility to collect those 21 forms and deliver them to the audit committee whenever it may 22 consider a transaction that could potentially pose a conflict of 23 interest?

24 A It goes -- All those forms are going to be collected by 25 the secretary's office. Mr. Frazer actually wears two hats.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1649

1 He's our general counsel and he's also our elected secretary.

2 So, it goes to his office yes, sir.

3 Q And the secretary is actually responsible for 4 collecting those but also giving those to the audit committee,
5 correct?

6 A Yes, sir. They collect them and then I think it comes 7 to us via an audit committee meeting.

8 Q Okay. And so if there is a conflict of interest
9 transaction that's presented to the audit committee, the audit
10 committee needs to look at whether or not the transaction is 11 fair, reasonable and in the best interests of the NRA, right?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Okay. Could you take a look at the top of page 26.
14 And there it provides, in the very first number, that the audit
15 committee also is suppose to consider alternative transactions
16 to the extent that they are available, right?

17 A To the extent they are available, yes, sir.

18 Q Correct. And the audit committee, in reviewing those 19 transactions, is also suppose to take into account whether or 20 not they comply with the NRA's mission, right?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q Okay. And conflict of interest transactions must be
23 approved by a majority of the audit committee, excluding anyone
24 who has a potential conflict, right?

25 A Yes, sir. It's got -- it's got to be a majority vote

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1650

1 of the committee. If by some chance a committee member is the
2 person at issue, then they have to excuse themselves, so they
3 neither deliberate nor vote.

4 Q Okay. Thank you. And whenever the audit committee
5 reviews a conflict of interest transaction, it must keep records
6 that document contemporaneously the consideration of that
7 transaction as well as all the information that was considered,
8 right?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q Okay. And not only requires that, but it specifically
11 requires documentation of all the documents that were reviewed
12 and any alternatives that were considered, isn't that correct?

13 A If -- I'm not certain of your question. If you're 14 asking me do we have -- or does the committee secretary have to 15 list like one, two, three, four, every single document, that may 16 not be the case. It may be that it is a collection of documents
17 that could be described by category.

18 MR. SHIFFMAN: Jesse, could you highlight the first
19 sentence there.

20 Q So, it says, "The deliberations of the" -- Keep going.
21 "The minutes of the NRA audit committee meeting during which a
22 potential or actual conflict of interest is disclosed or 23 discussed shall be documented contemporaneously with the meeting
24 and reflect the name of the covered person, the nature of the 25 conflict and the details of the deliberations of the

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1651

1 disinterested directors (such as documents reviewed, any
2 alternatives considered, comparative costs or bids, market value
3 valuation and other factors considered in deliberations)." Is 4 that correct, sir?

5 A That's correct. And where it says "documents", that's
6 what I was talking about earlier. We don't have to list them,
7 don't necessarily have to list them one through X, whatever that
8 may be. We may refer to a category of documents that -- that 9 were submitted at the meeting.

10 Q Okay. But you don't dispute that the policy requires
11 documentation of what was reviewed?

12 A As I just described it. No, sir, I don't dispute that.

13 Q Okay. And the policy also provides that if the audit
14 committee finds that somebody failed to comply with the policy,
15 that it may investigate and take action against those persons,
16 right? That's under six. I'm sorry. Under Roman numeral VII?

17 A Seven.

18 Q Yeah. And it's also highlighted on the screen there.
19 This is on page 27.

20 A Yes, sir, it says it may make such -- such further
21 investigation as may be warranted under the circumstances.

22 Q Okay. Mr. Cotton, does the audit committee regularly
23 issue reports to the full board of directors?

24 A At every single board meeting.

25 Q Okay. So it has a meeting and it will issue a report

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1652

1 to the full board after the audit committee's meeting, right?

2 A Yes, sir. When it's presented to the board. We have
3 typically three board meetings a year. One of them is in 4 conjunction with our annual, what I call, convention week, the 5 annual meeting of the members. We have one audit committee, I'm
6 sorry, board meeting then. We have two others during the year.
7 This is all per our bylaws. It's at those meetings that all of 8 the audit committee reports are distributed.

9 Q Okay. Thank you. And if the audit committee makes -- 10 passes a resolution when it's in session, it will report the 11 results of that resolution in its report to the full board,
12 correct?

13 A Yes, sir. Now there was a change in our policy as to 14 how -- how we recorded it, but yes, sir, that's correct.

15 Q Okay. Mr. Cotton, you're aware that the Attorney
16 General filed its complaint here in August 2020, right?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q Okay. And you reviewed the complaint after it was 19 filed?

20 A I did.

21 Q Okay. And you reviewed the amended complaint as well.
22 There has been two amendments. You reviewed all three, but the 23 first and last cover to cover, right?

24 A Cover to cover quite some time ago. I got to admit, I
25 focused on what you were talking about with the audit committee.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1653

1 Q Yeah. I'm not going to test you on it today, sir.

2 A I'm glad to hear it. It's 600 paragraphs.

3 Q Yes. You do recall that the complaint had some
4 allegations concerning Mr. LaPierre obtaining private benefits
5 at the NRA, right?

6 A Do I remember? Yes, sir. In general terms. Again, I
7 couldn't give you all the specifics.

8 Q But you do recall that one of the allegations focused
9 on Mr. LaPierre's use of a luxury yacht in the Bahamas?

10 A I do.

11 Q And another allegation against Mr. LaPierre focused on 12 his use of private airplanes?

13 A I recall that, yes, sir.

14 Q Okay. And you would agree with me, wouldn't you, sir,
15 that the audit committee had responsibility for overseeing the 16 NRA's investigations into those allegations concerning Mr.
17 LaPierre?

18 A Are you talking about before it was disclosed to us?

19 Q I'm talking just generally, sir. That you would agree
20 with me, wouldn't you, that the audit committee had 21 responsibility for overseeing the NRA's investigations into the 22 allegations which I was talking about from the complaint of Mr.
23 LaPierre obtaining private benefits?

24 A Okay. Now I understand what you're saying. Yes, sir,
25 the audit committee did look into those allegations.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1654

1 Q Okay. So that made -- The audit committee had
2 responsibility for making sure the -- the allegations were
3 investigated, right?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q Okay. And one of the audit committee's
6 responsibilities was also to make sure that the results of the 7 investigations were reported back to it, right?

8 A To the audit committee.

9 Q Yes. That's correct?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q Okay. And part of its responsibilities was to make 12 sure that the investigation and whatever came of it was 13 appropriately resolved, right?

14 A Either appropriately resolved or if it wasn't, then the 15 audit committee would have to take some action or would take 16 some action.

17 Q Okay. The audit committee didn't investigate the 18 allegations itself though, right?

19 A The audit -- Again, I got to make a distinction here.
20 The audit committee itself are all volunteers. We don't have a
21 staff. We're literally scattered all over the country. We 22 can't do that kind of stuff. We have to rely upon others.

23 Q My question was simply whether the audit committee did
24 the investigation itself or not, not why.

25 A Itself, no, sir. We can't.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1655

1 Q Right. And that's because the audit committee relied
2 on the NRA's executives from its financial services division to
3 do the investigation, right, as well as its general counsel?

4 A Okay. I guess this is where being a lawyer and an ex-
5 police officer, the word "investigation" to me is kind of a term
6 of art. The audit committee talked to the executives. We
7 talked to financial services folks and our treasurer. We talked
8 to our trial counsel. We talked to a lot of people. I
9 personally don't consider that an investigation. I consider the 10 people who actually, you know, lift the fingerprints or, you
11 know, check the DNA as doing the investigation. We followed all 12 of that, yes, sir.

13 Q So my question was a simple one. It was whether the 14 audit committee relied on the executives from the financial 15 services division and other general counsel to do the 16 investigation?

17 A Not exclusively, no, sir. They were one -- That's one
18 group of folks.

19 MR. SHIFFMAN: Okay. I would like to play
20 Mr. Cotton's testimony from the June 17th, 2022 deposition
21 at page 37, lines 14 to 38, line ten.

22 (Whereupon the video is being played.)

23 MR. SHIFFMAN: Can you also play from the same
24 transcript, pages 59, line four through 13.

25 (Whereupon the video is being played.)

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1656

1 Q Mr. Cotton, the executives in the financial services
2 division are subordinate to Mr. LaPierre, right?

3 A Yes, sir. In terms of the corporate chart, yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. And Mr. Frazer also reports to Mr. LaPierre,
5 right?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. And the NRA hired a tax lawyer Don Lan to assess
8 possible tax concerns from Mr. LaPierre's alleged use of the 9 yacht and other private benefits, isn't that correct?

10 A Mr. Lan is a tax lawyer. He was hired -- he was hired
11 to look at a number of issues. It would include what you just 12 said, but we didn't hire him exclusively just for that -- for 13 that topic.

14 Q But you agree he was hired for that topic, to look into 15 the tax consequences of the allegations --

16 A I --

17 Q -- with regard to the yacht?

18 A I'm sorry. I didn't mean to cut you off.

19 Q That's okay, sir.

20 A Too easy for me to get into a conversation. I'm sorry.
21 We hired the tax lawyer to look into tax issues for the NRA.
22 Mr. LaPierre hired his own tax experts.

23 Q Yeah. I'm asking about what the NRA did, not about 24 what Mr. LaPierre did.

25 A Understand, but I got the impression you were asking me

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1657

1 if we hired a tax lawyer for Mr. LaPierre. We did not. We
2 hired a tax lawyer for the NRA.

3 Q That is what my question was, sir. The NRA hired Mr.
4 Lan to do an assessment of any potential tax consequences that
5 the NRA would have to deal with concerning Mr. LaPierre's
6 alleged private benefits, correct?

7 A Yes, sir. Such as reporting on the 990 and all of that
8 stuff.

9 Q Exactly, sir. Mr. Lan reported to the NRA's financial 10 services division, right?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Okay. Mr. Lan did not look into Mr. LaPierre's use of 13 the yacht and private aircraft, whether that violated New York
14 not-for-profit corporation law, did he?

15 A You'd have to ask him that, sir. I don't know.

16 Q As far as you know he did not look into that?

17 A I don't know what he did other than what was reported
18 to me by the financial services folks.

19 Q And Mr. Lan never made a report to the audit committee
20 directly, did he?

21 A No, sir.

22 Q Okay.

23 MS. ROGERS: I'll remind the witness, sorry, since
24 we're getting into what counsel did and what counsel looked 25 at. It's fine for the witness to testify which council was

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1658

1 hired and the general purview. But please do not divulge
2 legal advice received or requested by Mr. Lan.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

4 Q And Mr. Lan did not analyze whether Mr. LaPierre should 5 have disclosed his use of the yacht or private aircraft on his 6 conflict of interest forms within the NRA, did he?

7 A I'm sorry. Missed the first part of that question.

8 Q Mr. Lan did not analyze whether or not Mr. LaPierre
9 should have disclosed his use of the yacht and private aircraft
10 on his NRA financial disclosure forms, did he?

11 A Again, counsel, I don't -- I'm not sure what Mr. Lan
12 did.

13 Q Okay. Isn't it true, Mr. Cotton, that at least as of 14 the time that you were deposed in June 2022, that the NRA had 15 not hired an independent forensic investigator to analyze Mr.
16 LaPierre's use of NRA funds for potential private benefit?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q Okay. It could have?

19 A To my recollection, that's correct.

20 Q And it could have done that, right?

21 A I guess we could have, yes, sir.

22 Q But it didn't?

23 A We had a lot going on, investigations already. Yes, we 24 could have added another.

25 Q So, it's true, isn't it that as of the date you were

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1659

1 deposed, the only analysis that you were aware of of Mr.
2 LaPierre's use of the yacht and other private benefits was Mr.
3 Lan's analysis of the use of the potential tax repercussions
4 from that use, right?

5 A I don't -- I mean, the last few years are like drinking
6 from a water hose -- I mean, a fire hose. I'm trying to 7 remember what it was a year and a half ago. Ask me again.

8 Q Sure. You're not aware, sir, of, as of the time that 9 you were deposed in June 2022, about a year and a half ago, of 10 any other analysis of Mr. LaPierre's use of the yacht and other
11 private benefits other than Mr. Lan's consideration of the tax
12 benefits -- of the tax repercussions from that private use?

13 A Again, we're talking about an investigation. I talked
14 to Mr. LaPierre myself about that independent person hired, like 15 Mr. Lan. I don't recall anybody else. I certainly talked to 16 him myself.

17 Q Okay. And Mr. Lan also did not analyze whether there
18 were any internal control failures at the NRA in connection with 19 Mr. LaPierre's use of the yachts and private aircraft, did he?

20 A Again, I don't know what Mr. Lan did.

21 Q Okay. That's because the audit committee didn't
22 oversee Mr. Lan directly, right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And you don't even know how Mr. Lan was chosen, right?

25 A No, sir, I don't.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1660

1 Q Okay. And you don't know what information Mr. Lan was
2 given in order to perform his work, right?

3 A That's -- that's not true. As I understand, he had all
4 of -- he had all -- Wait a minute. Let me back up. Are you
5 talking about in connection with the yacht?

6 Q In connection with the yacht and other private benefits
7 that Mr. LaPierre allegedly received.

8 A If you don't tell me which one, I don't know which one
9 the tax lawyer would be involved with.

10 Q Do you know what information Mr. Lan was given at all
11 in connection with the work that he did?

12 A Specifically, no, sir. You would have to ask financial 13 services.

14 Q Right. I was asking -- I'm not asking what he was 15 given. I'm requesting whether you knew what he was given.

16 A Specifically, no, sir.

17 Q Okay. Thank you. And you're not aware of any written
18 documents setting forth the scope of the work that Mr. Lan did
19 either, right?

20 A There could very well be, but again that was all
21 handled with financial services. So, I don't know.

22 Q Sir, my question was really just whether you know. So,
23 not whether financial services knew. So, the answer is yes, you
24 did not know, right?

25 A I personally did not know.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1661

1 Q Okay. Thank you. And you don't know what Mr. Lan did
2 in order to perform his analysis, right?

3 A What he did? No, sir.

4 Q Okay. And you don't know what materials he relied on
5 in his analysis, correct?

6 A I'm not a tax expert. I have no idea what they would 7 do, sir.

8 Q Okay. And you don't know if Mr. Lan spoke to Mr.
9 LaPierre as part of his work, right?

10 A I can't imagine he didn't, but I don't know.

11 Q Okay. And the audit committee did not get any notes
12 and did not maintain any notes relating to Mr. Lan's
13 investigation, correct?

14 A That's not correct.

15 Q The audit committee did keep notes of Mr. Lan's
16 investigation or get notes of that investigation?

17 A Well that's -- I didn't think that's exactly what you
18 asked me. Our treasurer, Ms. Sonya Rowling made a report to the 19 audit committee about some expense, I mean, some reimbursements
20 from Mr. LaPierre. Where she got that information, I can't tell
21 you, but she did mention Mr. Lan.

22 Q Sir, I didn't ask you about Ms. Rowling's report. I
23 asked you whether the audit committee kept notes of his
24 investigation.

25 MR. FARBER: Objection. Misstates testimony.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1662

1 THE COURT: He was just restating his question, I
2 think. So overruled.

3 Q Do you need the question again, sir? I can ask. Did
4 the -- The audit committee did not keep any notes or records of 5 Mr. Lan's tax analysis, did it?

6 A No. He did not -- I'm sorry. The audit committee did
7 not do that.

8 Q Okay. And you've never spoken to Mr. Lan directly,
9 have you?

10 A I have not.

11 Q Okay. But you do know that Mr. Lan did conclude that 12 Mr. LaPierre did receive excess benefits, right?

13 A As reported.

14 MS. ROGERS: I'm going to object to any questions
15 calling for the content of the lawyer's conclusions or 16 advice.

17 MR. SHIFFMAN: I'm not asking for advice. I'm 18 talking about the conclusions reported in the organization's 19 990s, I can turn to if you want.

20 THE COURT: Well, the way you phrased the question
21 was this lawyer's specific conclusions as opposed to what
22 the organization did as a result of the analysis. So, I
23 think they're objecting to the question would strictly be 24 asking for his conclusion as a human being lawyer.

25 MR. SHIFFMAN: Right. I think the -- My

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1663

1 understanding and my colleague's was that the NRA had said
2 that they used Mr. Lan's conclusion to report that in their
3 990s. If that's incorrect, I can move on and just ask about
4 the 990s.

5 THE COURT: If you want to elicit evidence of that,
6 you certainly can try.

7 MR. SHIFFMAN: Why don't we look at the 990s
8 itself.

9 Q So, let's go to tab two, which is PX 159. I believe
10 that at least a form of this has been admitted already. I'm not
11 sure if it was the same version which has the Char500 in it. I
12 know the rest of the 990s we're going to look at were admitted.

13 MS. ROGERS: We have no objection.

14 THE COURT: Just general comment. It would be 15 helpful if we had a consistent use so that the jury, if they
16 want to go back and find something, have specific numbers
17 that they can look for.

18 MR. SHIFFMAN: I understand. We printed his 19 binders before the documents were admitted the other day by 20 stipulation. So, just to keep it consistent, we've kept it
21 that way. But yes, I'm endeavoring to do that as much as 22 possible. I think this is the only 990 we have a different
23 version than was previously admitted.

24 THE COURT: Somebody can probably tell us, is PX
25 159 on the list of admitted exhibits? PX 159.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1664

1 MS. STERN: I can do it but it may take a while.

2 THE COURT: If nobody has an objection to using
3 this one, that's fine. I rather not have multiple identical
4 exhibits with different exhibit numbers. It just gets 5 confusing.

6 MR. CORRELL: No objection, your Honor.

7 MR. FARBER: No objection.

8 MS. ROGERS: We're happy to work on it. We have no
9 objection to this one.

10 THE COURT: Everybody is in violent agreement. So
11 am I.

12 MR. SHIFFMAN: I don't want to interfere with 13 something we agree on. I wasn't sure whether this one has 14 the Char500. I wasn't sure the other one did.

15 Q Mr. Cotton, can you turn to page 99 of this exhibit.

16 (Whereupon the witness complied with the above
17 request of counsel.)

18 Q Take a look at the very top box there. Do you see that 19 this filing identifies a number of excess benefit transactions
20 that the NRA entered into with Mr. LaPierre?

21 A (Examining). Okay. I've just read it. I'm sorry.
22 Your question.

23 Q Do you see -- Do you recognize this document to be the 24 NRA's filing with the IRS and New York State for 2019?

25 A Yes, sir.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1665

1 Q Okay. And you see that on this filing on page 99 it
2 discloses some excess benefit transactions that the NRA entered
3 into with Mr. LaPierre?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q Okay. And on this page it lists several excess benefit
6 transactions for Mr. LaPierre that related to his travel
7 expenses, correct? You could also look at the screen too, sir,
8 if that's helpful.

9 A On page -- page 99 here the text with that dollar
10 amount you just read 299,078.78 I don't -- I'm sorry. I'm 11 mistaken. It does say travel. Yes, sir.

12 Q Here the NRA was disclosing that it had paid for about 13 $300,000 of travel expenses for Mr. LaPierre, right?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q And in this document it also discloses that Mr.
16 LaPierre had to pay excise taxes before $75,000. That's on the 17 next to last line in this section, right?

18 A Yes, sir, in addition to the interest he paid to us
19 when he reimbursed it.

20 Q Okay. After the -- after it was discovered that Mr.
21 LaPierre had incurred almost $300,000 in excess benefits for his 22 travel expenses, did the NRA's board take any action to 23 discipline Mr. LaPierre?

24 A At that time I can't -- I can't speak for the whole
25 board. All I can do is actually speak for myself as a board

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1666

1 member. We didn't take any additional action. At that time the
2 thought was, number one, you know, he came clean. He admitted
3 it. He paid it back. And paying, as you pointed out, $75,000
4 in penalty to the IRS and quite a bit of interest to us, that's 5 pretty good penalty right there.

6 Q Was there any penalty to -- any penalty imposed on Mr.
7 LaPierre by the NRA when it learned that he had used
8 approximately $300,000 of NRA assets for his personal benefit?

9 A At that point in addition to the interest he had to pay
10 us on that debt, on that amount, no, sir.

11 Q It -- Did he even hold a vote whether or not he should 12 be sanctioned for that use?

13 A A vote where?

14 Q A vote at the NRA board or at the NRA's audit
15 committee.

16 A A vote at that point, no, sir.

17 Q Okay. At any point did the NRA vote to sanction or 18 terminate Mr. LaPierre for his using NRA assets for his private 19 benefit?

20 A At this point, no, sir.

21 Q Okay. And the $300,000 in excess benefit transactions
22 that are identified in this document are not the total of all
23 the excess benefits that Mr. LaPierre has been determined by the 24 NRA to have received, right?

25 A That's correct.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1667

1 Q Okay. In fact, in the next year there is tens of
2 thousands of dollars more in excess benefit transactions
3 identified, correct?

4 A We would have to look at that report for me to be able
5 to say that under oath.

6 Q You're a little bit ahead of me. We're going to go
7 right there, sir.

8 MR. SHIFFMAN: We'll go to tab 17, PX 2374. And 9 this document has been admitted. This is the 2020 Char500
10 and 990.

11 Q Do you see that document, sir?

12 A (Examining). Yes, sir.

13 Q Do you recognize that as the NRA's filing for the year
14 2020?

15 A The Char500 for the 2020 yes, sir.

16 Q The Char500 includes the NRA's 990, which is the filing
17 with the IRS?

18 A Yes, sir. It's an attachment to it.

19 Q Yes. If you take a look at page 51 of the exhibit,
20 sir. And the second box on that page discloses some additional 21 excess benefits that Mr. LaPierre received for -- for traveling,
22 correct?

23 A Give me just a moment.

24 Q Take a second.

25 A Okay. Yes, sir. I've got it.

LAS

1 Q Okay. And there discloses an additional $43,000 in
2 benefits?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. And an additional $10,000 in ex -- excise taxes?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And you know, sir, that Mr. LaPierre has in fact --
7 Strike that. You understand that the NRA has in fact identified
8 even more personal benefits that Mr. LaPierre received in 9 addition to the ones disclosed in the 2020 and 2019 tax returns
10 that we just looked at, right?

11 A Unless I'm having some other thought, yes, I think
12 there were some in '20 as well.

13 Q It's true, isn't it, that by the time you were deposed
14 in around June of '22 that it identified about half a million
15 dollars in personal benefits that he received?

16 A I know generally what the total is now. I couldn't 17 tell you. I don't remember what it was.

18 Q What's generally the total now?

19 A I think it's around a million dollars.

20 Q Right. Okay. So after the NRA discovers that Mr.
21 LaPierre used approximately a million dollars of its assets for 22 his personal benefit, the NRA didn't vote to sanction him or 23 terminate him, right?

24 A Well, as of this point, no, sir.

25 Q Okay. Mr. Cotton, there was no written policy passed

1 by the NRA at any time prior to August 1st, 2020 that expressly
2 mentioned travel by charter planes, isn't that correct?

3 A As you worded it, you're correct. It didn't
4 specifically mention that.

5 Q Okay. And there was no written resolution passed by 6 the NRA board at any time prior to August 1st, 2020 that
7 required Mr. LaPierre to fly exclusively by charter travel
8 either, right?

9 A He was required -- he was required to travel privately
10 for security reasons. I'm trying to remember if I can recall a 11 specific -- a specific board action. I know our old policy had 12 kind of admitted general statement about how you get there,
13 okay.

19 THE WITNESS: Let me see if she's in trouble.

20 MR. SHIFFMAN: It's around --

21 THE WITNESS: No data point.

25 you whether the NRA had ever voted to sanction or otherwise

1 discipline Mr. LaPierre, you said, "Not at this point." You
2 mean, not as of today; correct?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q Okay, thank you.

5 I want to return to the allegations that we discussed
6 about Mr. LaPierre's use of a yacht. The yacht that
7 Mr. LaPierre stayed on in the Bahamas was owned by David
8 McKenzie, right?

9 A Either David McKenzie or one of the companies he owns,
10 yes, sir.

11 Q Okay. And the companies that Mr. McKenzie owns are:
12 Membership Marketing Partners?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q Okay. And there's some other ones, as well.

15 A Well, two others that I know of. One of them -- one of 16 them is Allegiance and one is -- I'm drawing a blank.

17 Q Concord Social?

18 A Con -- yes.

19 Q And Associated Television as well?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 Q Okay. And those are some of the NRA's largest vendors,
22 right?

23 A They were, yes, sir.

24 Q Okay. And the first time that you, personally, took a
25 look at the MMP contract was after some whistleblowers raised

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1673

1 concerns in 2018; isn't that right?

2 A I certainly took a look at it then. I can't tell you
3 that's the first time, ever. I just -- I just don't remember.

4 Q Okay. Well, is it true that the NRA's Audit Committee
5 never reviewed the MMP contract before 2018?

6 A Well, that's correct. Those -- those-type contracts
7 don't come to us.

8 Q Okay. Did the Audit Committee ever review the MMP
9 contract and the contract with MMP's affiliates?

10 A You mean, prior to doing so after the -- July of 2018?

11 Not that I can recall. Those are 12 ordinary-course-of-business-type contracts.

13 Q When was the first time that the Audit Committee as a
14 whole reviewed those contracts?

15 A Well, it would have been -- the first time -- first
16 time we considered -- I'm sorry -- first time the Audit
17 Committee considered it would have been after the Financial
18 Services folks came to us and said, "We have some concerns."

19 Q Okay. And the reason that the Audit Committee would 20 not have reviewed the contracts with MMP and its related
21 entities prior to 2018 was because it doesn't review contracts
22 unless there's a conflict of interest or some other
23 related-party transaction, right?

24 A Yes, sir. There has to be a trigger under the -- under 25 the policy that would bring that contract to us, and contracts,

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1674

1 you know -- ordinary-course-of-business-type contracts, don't
2 come to us.

3 Q Okay. You would agree, wouldn't you, that when
4 Mr. LaPierre stayed on Mr. McKenzie's yacht in the Bahamas, that
5 created a potential conflict of interest under the NRA's
6 policies and procedures?

7 A Potential, yes, sir.

8 Q Okay. And so, a potential conflict of interest such as 9 that is one that should have been disclosed to the Audit
10 Committee; right?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Okay. And he should have disclosed that to you prior 13 to actually staying and using the yachts, right?

14 A That -- that's certainly what the policy anticipated.

15 Q Okay.

16 A But as I mentioned earlier, there is a provision to be 17 able to retroactively look at -- I mean, you look at them as 18 soon as you know about them.

19 Q But I asked you what he was required to do, not whether 20 it could be retroactively approved.

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q And he was required to --

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q We both have to stop talking over each other.

25 He was required to approve it in advance; correct?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1675

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Okay. And he didn't do so, right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q Let's take a look at tab 11, which is PX 639.

5 MR. SHIFFMAN: I don't believe there's any
6 objection to this.

7 THE COURT: Any objection?

8 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

9 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

10 MR. FLEMING: No objection.

11 MR. FARBER: No objection.

12 THE COURT: PX 639 is admitted.

15 Q Mr. Cotton, do you recognize this -- this exhibit?

16 A Yes, sir. That's our standard financial disclosure
17 questionnaire.

18 Q Okay. And this is one for Mr. LaPierre; correct?

19 A It is.

20 Q All right. And it's from 2021, right?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q Okay. If you take a look at page 5 of 6 --

23 A 5 of 6?

24 Q Yes, sir.

25 A Yes, sir.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1676

1 Q -- do you see that he signed this on April 7th, 2021?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And do you recall that that was during the bankruptcy
4 hearing in Texas?

5 A The -- I'm not sure of the exact date, no, sir.

6 Q Okay. Can you take a look at page 2 of 6 and question
7 number 4?

8 A Okay.

9 Q Okay. And you see there, it -- that question, on the 10 financial disclosure form, asks about receiving gifts in excess
11 of $250 from any person or entity that is -- has or is seeking 12 to have a business relationship with the NRA; right?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q That question has been on the NRA's financial 15 disclosure form for years, right?

16 A For a long time, yes, sir.

17 Q Okay. You see, Mr. LaPierre answered "No" to that 18 question on this form; right?

19 A That's what the form shows, yes, sir.

20 Q Right. But if you take a look at --

21 He did provide an addendum to this form and that's at 22 the very last page of the document.

23 (Image scrolled.)

24 Q And there, if you take a look at the second paragraph,
25 which relates to question number 4, he disclosed that, although

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1677

1 he didn't stay on Mr. McKenzie's yacht in the 2020 period, in
2 the past he had stayed on the yacht; right?

3 A That -- that's what it says, yes, sir.

4 Q On several occasions, right?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q Was this disclosure form given to the Audit Committee
7 in or about April of 2021?

8 A It would have come to the Audit Committee at our first
9 Audit Committee meeting, after it was received in the 10 secretary's office.

11 Q Okay.

12 A That looks like about annual meeting week;
13 "convention," as I call it, so I think it would have been pretty 14 close to that, but I can't tell you exactly when.

15 Q Okay. Did the Audit Committee investigate
16 Mr. LaPierre's failure to make this disclosure anytime prior to 17 the time he did it in April 2021?

18 A Based on our discussion of what's an investigation and 19 who has to do it, yes, sir. We had talked to -- I talked to 20 Mr. LaPierre; I had talked to other folks, as well. I'm trying 21 to remember some people within Financial Services. Probably 22 would have been Sonya Rowling, our -- our treasurer. I would 23 have -- would have talked to our -- our trial counsel as well.

24 Q But when you talked to him, at least as of the time you
25 were deposed in 2022, you hadn't asked him how many times he

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1678

1 stayed on the yacht --

2 A No, sir.

3 Q -- isn't that correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q Okay. And you never asked him how many times he

6 traveled to the Bahamas with Mr. McKenzie, did you?

7 A How many times? I don't recall doing it, no, sir.

8 Q Okay. And you don't know if anyone else on the Audit
9 Committee ever asked Mr. LaPierre whether he -- how many times
10 he traveled to the Bahamas with Mr. McKenzie?

11 A To my knowledge, I -- I -- I don't know. I mean, no,
12 sir, I don't know.

13 Q Do you know if the Audit Committee considered whether 14 or not the prior contracts with MMP and its affiliates were 15 fair, reasonable and in the best interests of the NRA at any 16 time prior to April 2021?

17 A I'm trying to remember when we renegotiated all of 18 that, and it was after 2021.

19 Q Okay.

20 A So, no, sir, I didn't.

21 Q Do you know if it was --

22 So it didn't do it later in 2021, either; is that
23 correct?

24 A No. No, sir.

25 Q Okay. So, even after Mr. LaPierre disclosed this

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1679

1 conflict and disclosed that, and you knew that MMP had been a
2 large vendor, you didn't go back and look at that in 2021;
3 right?

4 A We were already looking into the MMP contract
5 extensively, so it wasn't -- it wasn't triggered by this
6 disclosure. We were already looking into a lot of material.

7 Q Okay. But -- so you were looking into the MMP
8 contracts going forward, right?

9 A Not sure I understand that.

10 Q When you say you were looking at the MMP contracts, you
11 weren't looking retrospectively: whether, at the time that they 12 were first entered into, they were fair, reasonable and in the 13 best interests of the NRA; correct?

14 A We were -- well, we had people looking into all of 15 those entities that you just listed earlier by 2021, yes, sir,
16 but it wasn't triggered by Mr. LaPierre's use of the yacht.

17 Q All right. Did the Audit Committee, at any time prior 18 to 2022, consider whether or not the prior contracts with the 19 MMP entities that had been entered into during the time that 20 Mr. LaPierre had a conflict or potential conflict were fair,
21 reasonable and in the best interests of the NRA?

22 A We didn't, because the information we needed to make
23 that evaluation wasn't complete.

24 Q Did you ever ask Mr. LaPierre who paid for his flights
25 down to the Bahamas?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1680

1 A Well, I -- I would have known -- I would have known who
2 paid for it before I ever talked to him about that, so I
3 probably didn't ask him that specific -- specific question,
4 because I would have known.

5 Q Okay. How would you have known?

6 A Any flights that -- any private flights that he took
7 would have been booked through the NRA, so we would have wound
8 up paying for it.

9 Q Sir, it's true that Mr. LaPierre made the decision to 10 hire Mr. Frazer; right? As general counsel.

11 A He's our CEO, so, yes, sir, he -- that ultimately would
12 have been his decision, to hire -- I'm sorry.

13 Let me clarify it, if I may: That would have been a
14 decision as to general counsel. Secretary -- the secretary
15 has -- has to be elected by the board.

16 Q Okay. And was the board consulted with respect to 17 hiring Mr. Frazer as general counsel?

18 A Wow. That was what, 2015? I -- I can't recall as I
19 sit here now, no, sir.

20 Q You don't recall the board being consulted, though, do
21 you?

22 A I don't recall it.

23 Q Okay. Mr. Frazer reports directly to Mr. LaPierre?

24 A I -- I -- I'm not there on a daily basis but I presume
25 so, since he's -- well, I take it back. On a daily basis?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1681

1 Probably not, because Mr. LaPierre, until fairly recently,
2 traveled around the country a lot. But he was -- Mr. LaPierre
3 would have been his -- his immediate -- his immediate
4 supervisor. How often he reported to him, I can't say.

5 Q Yes. And as far as you're aware, Mr. LaPierre does not
6 create a -- or prepare -- a written evaluation of Mr. Frazer;
7 correct?

8 A That -- that's my understanding. That's not the way he 9 evaluates employees.

10 Q Okay. But there's an Officers Compensation Committee
11 at the NRA, right?

12 A Yes, sir, there is one.

13 Q And you sit on that committee, right? Or did sit on 14 that committee?

15 A Well, the -- the officers -- I'm -- I'm sorry. I'm --
16 we use the term too broadly. The president, first and second
17 vice presidents are on the -- the Officer Compensation
18 Committee, but it handles only the elect -- elected paid
19 officers.

20 Q Right. So that Officers Compensation Committee that 21 you just mentioned would handle the compensation of somebody
22 like Mr. Frazer, who is an elected paid officer.

23 A I'm --

24 Q Do you want me to --

25 A I missed the last part.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1682

1 Q Let me rephrase it:

2 The Officers Compensation Committee is responsible for
3 setting Mr. Frazer's salary; correct?

4 A Not quite. The Officer Compensation Committee meets,
5 evaluates material that we get and then we make a recommendation
6 to the board for the salary of the EVP, for the treasurer and 7 for the secretary, and then the board votes on that.

8 Q Okay. And Mr. Frazer is the secretary, right?

9 A He's the secretary and the general counsel. So
10 that's ...

11 Q And when the Officers Compensation Committee meets to 12 discuss Mr. Frazer's salary, it does so without the benefit of a
13 written evaluation; right?

14 A Written evaluation, yes, sir.

15 Q Okay.

16 In 2018, you learned that Mr. Frazer failed to report a
17 number of related-party transactions to the Audit Committee that 18 should have been reported; correct?

19 A The -- I'm trying to remember now. I remember -- I can
20 remember one. I may be mistaken.

21 Q Right.

22 MR. SHIFFMAN: Well, could we pull up --

23 This is from the investigative transcript of 24 Mr. Frazer. It's just a transcript, not a -- not a video.

25 THE COURT: Of Mr. Frazer or of Mr. Cotton?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1683

1 MR. SHIFFMAN: I'm sorry. Of Mr. Cotton. I might
2 have said, "Mr. Frazer." It's for Mr. Cotton.

3 It's for June 2nd, 2020 and I'd like to pull up
4 245, line 7, to 247, line 4. But then we're going to turn
5 to page 246, line 11, in that excerpt.

6 MR. FLEMING: Your Honor, I'm sorry. This is an
7 investigative transcript or a deposition?

8 MR. SHIFFMAN: An investigative transcript. It's 9 been provided, and this is used for impeachment.

10 (Image displayed.)

11 MR. SHIFFMAN: I think it's also a party admission
12 of the NRA.

13 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, this raises the same
14 problem that we discussed this morning.

15 THE COURT: Well, no. I'm not admitting it as 16 evidence. For impeachment, it's a prior sworn statement.

17 So, overruled.

18 Q Yeah. Mr. Cotton, do you recall being examined by the 19 Attorney General's office in June 2020?

20 A Yes, sir, I remember that.

21 Q Okay. And you took an oath to give truthful testimony
22 then?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q And you did so?

25 A Yes, sir.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1684

1 Q Okay. I'd like to read from 246, line 11:

2 "Question: So you said a moment ago that you were
3 surprised, you were not happy with the number of 4 transactions that you were reviewing in this meeting.

5 "Answer: Yeah. I probably overstated that.

6 "If any of these were -- if they were the first
7 time, yeah. I wouldn't be happy about it.

8 "And I testified earlier, I do know that we found
9 out in our top-down review that there were some that should 10 have been given to us" disclosure -- I'm sorry -- "some that 11 should have been given to us, should have been captured into 12 forms, the disclosure forms, should have been presented to 13 us by Frazer and they weren't. That's the reason we did
14 [sic] to do them after the fact. So that's what I'm talking
15 about when I say I wasn't happy. But I can't say that every 16 one of them -- well, the first one is a good example, Oliver
17 North. That was the first time it was brought to us."

18 So, Mr. Cotton, do you recall that in September 2018,
19 the Audit Committee was presented with multiple related-party
20 transactions for it to consider ratifying retroactively?

21 A Okay. Now -- I'm sorry. I apolo -- I understood your 22 prior questioning to be asking me if there were a bunch of 23 related-party transactions from Mr. Frazer himself. I didn't 24 realize you were talking about -- he was the deliveryman, let's
25 say, for other stuff.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1685

1 Q Right. And so you now recall that you were upset that
2 Mr. Frazer hadn't disclosed a number of transactions to you?

3 A I -- I was upset that there were a number of disclo --
4 late disclosures. I wasn't upset with Mr. Frazer bringing them
5 to me. He brought them to me -- I'm sorry -- to us when he got
6 them.

7 Q And you weren't happy because there were a bunch of 8 transactions that were being presented -- related-party
9 transactions and conflict-of-interest transactions -- that were 10 being presented to you for retroactive approval, right?

11 A Exactly right. That's what we were upset about.

12 Q Okay. When you were asked at your deposition whether 13 you thought Mr. Frazer was a good general counsel, you didn't 14 respond with a "yes," did you?

15 A I don't remember what I said.

16 Q Okay.

17 MR. SHIFFMAN: Why don't we play, from Mr. Cotton's
18 deposition, page 153, line 23, to page 54 [sic], line 17.

19 (Video played.)

20 MR. SHIFFMAN: You can also play the next clip,
21 155/12 to 156/4.

22 (Video played.)

23 Q Okay. Mr. Cotton, can you please turn to tab 14 --

24 MR. SHIFFMAN: Don't put this up on the screen yet.

25 Q -- marked for ID, tab 14, PX 1685?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1686

1 A 1665?

2 Q I'm sorry. For you, it's tab 14, Mr. Cotton. And I'm
3 just -- and the exhibit is PX 1685.

4 A -85, okay.

5 Q Yeah.

6 A I've got it.

7 Q Okay. Mr. Cotton, you recall that in April 2019, the 8 NRA's president, Oliver North and vice president, Richard 9 Childress sent a letter to you and Mr. Frazer, requesting an 10 independent examination of the bills of the Brewer firm?

11 A I remember it well, yes, sir.

12 Q Okay. And you received a copy of the letter, right?

13 A I did.

14 Q And that's what's been marked as Exhibit 1685?

15 Well, the -- the cover page is an e-mail forwarding it
16 to you and then the letter is attached to that; right?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q Okay. And you received that in your capacity as -- the 19 letter, at least -- in your capacity as the Audit Committee
20 chair; right? That's what it's addressed to you as on page 2.

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q Okay. And it was sent to you by Mr. North and 23 Mr. Childress, who were the president and, I think, first -- and 24 vice president at the time?

25 A Yes, sir.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1687

1 Q Okay.

2 MR. SHIFFMAN: We move for the admission of this
3 exhibit.

4 MS. ROGERS: I don't think there's a foundation as 5 to the cover e-mail, but no objection as to the memo.

6 MR. CORRELL: The same position.

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry; the objection is to the 8 cover e-mail?

9 MS. ROGERS: Well, this witness didn't receive it,
10 isn't on it. I don't -- I'm not sure if they intend to 11 question him about it. But the attached memorandum is 12 addressed to the witness.

13 MR. SHIFFMAN: Yeah. I don't have any -- if 14 we're -- we're not going to ask any questions about the 15 cover e-mail. It is an e-mail from Mr. Frazer to 16 Mr. LaPierre, but our questions are related solely to the 17 attachment -- to the --

18 THE COURT: I'll admit the exhibit; PX 1685.

19 MR. SHIFFMAN: Yes. Okay.

20 (Image displayed.)

21 Q Mr. Cotton, can you take a look at the first paragraph 22 on page 2?

23 A On page 2?

24 Q Yes, sir.

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q Which is the first paragraph of the letter itself.

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q Okay. And there, Mr. North and Mr. Childress were 4 writing to you to tell you that they were deeply concerned about
5 the size of the Brewer firm's bills; right?

6 A Well, the -- hate to play lawyer -- the document says
7 what it says, but I know what it was about.

8 Q Well, the document says: "We and others continue to be 9 deeply concerned about the extraordinary legal fees the NRA has 10 incurred with Brewer Attorneys & Counselors. The amount appears
11 to be approximately 24 million over a 13-month period." Right?

12 A That's what it says, yes, sir.

13 Q And take a look at page 3. There's a chart there, and 14 there they were informing you that, in the second half of 2018
15 and early 2019, Brewer's billing the NRA over a hundred -- over
16 $1.8 million per month; right?

17 A That's what the letter says.

18 Q Right.

19 It also says, in the paragraph -- two paragraphs --
20 below that, that they were billing at the rate of about $97,000
21 a day; right?

22 A That's what the letter says.

23 Q Right.

24 And the letter says that Mr. Childress and Mr. North
25 thought that these amounts were excessive on their face, right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1689

1 A Again, that's what the letter says, yes, sir.

2 Q Okay. And they told you that they were particularly 3 concerned about the bills because the NRA had been lax in the 4 past in overseeing its vendors, right?

5 That's on page 2, in the next-to-last paragraph. The 6 previous page.

7 A That's what it -- that's what the letter says.

8 Q That's what they were telling you, right?

9 A It's what the letter says.

10 Q All right.

11 A They were telling me other things in person.

12 Q Okay. And --

13 Well, they also told you, and they wrote in this
14 letter, that they thought, in order to fulfill their fiduciary
15 duties to ensure that the NRA operated in accordance with the 16 law, that they wanted a lawyer to conduct an independent
17 examination of the bills; right?

18 A That's what it says on the letter, yes, sir.

19 Q Okay. And they were also concerned about the secrecy
20 concerning the bills, right? That's on page 4?

21 A Again, that's what the letter says.

22 Q Okay. And they said that the secrecy was alarming
23 because they made repeated requests to view the invoices and had 24 been denied that.

25 A That's -- that's what the letter says. That's not

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1690

1 true, but that's what the letter says.

2 Q Well, they told you that in writing; right?

3 A That's what the letter -- that's what the letter
4 claims, yes, sir.

5 Q Okay. And they actually said that they had sought an 6 independent review and had been denied that review by
7 Mr. LaPierre, right?

8 A Is that in the letter?

9 Q Yeah. It's on -- it's on the fourth paragraph, sir,
10 below the bold that says "Second."

11 A What page are we on?

12 Q Page 4 of the exhibit.

13 A Okay. Okay, what's --

14 Q Take a look at the very first paragraph there. It
15 says: "We and others have made multiple requests and 16 recommendations for an outside independent review of the Brewer
17 firm's invoices. All these requests have been denied. The 18 secrecy surrounding these large invoices causes suspicion and 19 raises questions." Okay?

20 And if you turn to page 6 of the letter --

21 (Image scrolled.)

22 Q -- under "Fourth," there they write that they were 23 concerned with the bills because they believed that the NRA was 24 failing to oversee the Brewer firm in multiple ways; correct?

25 A That's what the letter claims, yes, sir.

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1691

1 Q Okay. And if you turn to page 8 --

2 (Image scrolled.)

3 Q -- there they also told you that they were concerned
4 because Mr. Brewer, himself, was trying to stop a review of the
5 invoices; right?

6 A That's what the letter claims.

7 Q Okay. And the NRA failed to conduct the review of the 8 bills that Mr. North and Mr. Childress requested, right?

9 A No.

10 THE COURT: Well, I just want to make sure that -- 11 some of these questions that end with -- have a negative in 12 the question and then, "isn't that right?" And then this 13 one, I'm not sure what the answer was supposed to be.

14 Q The NRA did not perform the investigation that 15 Mr. Childress and Mr. North requested.

16 A That's incorrect.

17 Q Okay.

18 MR. SHIFFMAN: Let's play the transcript from June

1 A Counsel that's not what you just asked me. You asked
2 if we investigated. We did.

3 Q Your lawyer can ask you to clean up.

4 Mr. Cotton, the NRA filed for bankruptcy on
5 January 15th, 2021, right?

6 A I don't remember the exact date. Yes we filed
7 bankruptcy.

8 Q Okay. It was in or about January of 2021?

9 A I believe that's about right.

10 Q Okay. And one of the reasons that lead the NRA to file
11 bankruptcy was the fact that this litigation was pending here,
12 right?

13 A That was -- that was one of the reasons. We wanted to 14 get into a venue that we felt was less hostile to the NRA.

15 Q It's true, isn't it, in addition to the NRA, Mr.
16 LaPierre and Mr. John Frazer are named in this action, right?

17 A This current action?

18 Q Yes.

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And it's also true, isn't it, that because Mr. LaPierre
21 and Mr. Frazer were named here, that the NRA board formed a 22 special litigation committee to oversee the litigation on its 23 behalf?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And the special litigation committee has three board

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1693

1 members on it, at least when it was formed, it was you,
2 Ms. Meadows and Mr. Lee?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. And one of the reasons that the NRA formed the
5 special litigation committee was that Mr. LaPierre and 6 Mr. Frazer had actual or potential conflicts of interest, right,
7 in acting on behalf of the NRA where they were named as 8 defendants, right?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q Okay. And the formation of the special litigation
11 committee, it was formed in September or so of 2020, is that
12 right?

13 A It was -- it was formed according to the bylaws by 14 the -- by the president creating the committee and populating
15 it. But then under New York law, because the SLC, as we call
16 it, would have corporate authority. It had to be approved by 17 the board of directors. I can't tell you the exact date either
18 of those two events occurred.

19 Q Thanks. I'm not going to test you on that. I'll give 20 you a little help here. We'll go to tab 21.

21 MR. SHIFFMAN: I don't believe there is any
22 objection to this exhibit, which is PX 2479.

23 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

24 MR. SHIFFMAN: Okay.

25 THE COURT: It's admitted.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1694

1 Q Mr. Cotton, if you take a look at the front page of the
2 exhibit, you'll see it's the minutes from the meeting of the NRA
3 from January 7th, 2021?

4 A (Examining). That's correct.

5 Q If you take a look at pages seven to eight of this
6 exhibit, of the exhibit, not the document itself.

7 A The bottom numbers, right?

8 Q The bottom numbers. We're on the same page here.
9 There it has the resolution where the NRA's full board approved
10 the special litigation committee that Ms. Meadows had put 11 together, right?

12 A Yes, sir. That's correct.

13 Q Okay. And take a look, now go to tab 15, which is PX
14 2142.

15 MR. SHIFFMAN: I don't believe there is any
16 objection to this either.

17 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

18 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

19 THE COURT: It's admitted.

20 MR. FARBER: No objection.

21 MR. SHIFFMAN: Thank you.

22 Q Mr. Cotton, do you recognize this exhibit to be the 23 resolution that actually forms the special litigation committee?

24 A (Examining). I was trying to find a date. I mean,
25 obviously this resolution deals with that, but I'm not sure at

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1695

1 all, in fact, I'm kind of the opposite. I'm pretty sure that
2 President Meadows created the SLC before this, but then we were
3 advised that we had to have the board approval for the reason I
4 said earlier, because we were going to have corporate authority.

5 Q Right. I think you've got it correct. I think the 6 documents reflect that. If you look at the first paragraph of 7 Exhibit PX 2142 it says that, "Whereas on September 10th, 2020
8 Ms. Meadows created the committee".

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q And if you look back to the exhibit we had just looked 11 at, which is tab 21, PX 2479, there on pages seven to eight, the 12 full board in January of 2021 adopts the resolution that is set
13 forth in PX 2142. Does that help out?

14 A Pretty much so, yeah. It shows we did it in two steps
15 if you will.

16 Q Exactly. So first she sets it up in September of 2020
17 and then the full board adopts the resolution in January of
18 2021, right?

19 A Well, I can't say that, because Exhibit 15 that we're 20 looking at, your number PX 2142, it says in here that on the 21 resolve -- I'm sorry -- the second resolve paragraph it says,
22 "The special litigation committee shall exercise corporate
23 authority on behalf of the NRA." So I'm -- (pause).

24 Q You don't think -- Is it your testimony, sir, you don't 25 think the resolution that's marked at PX 2412 is the right

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1696

1 resolution?

2 A No, sir. What I'm saying is I interpreted your
3 question to indicate it was created and then later given -- I'm
4 sorry -- created in Exhibit 15 and later given corporate
5 authority in Exhibit 21. Reading the document that's not what 6 it indicates.

7 Q Okay. I think we might be talking past each other.

8 A Okay.

9 Q The resolution that's been marked as PX 2412 is the 10 resolution that appoints the special litigation committee,
11 correct?

12 A It does that. As I sit here today, I can't remember
13 the full content, but this does create the -- the, at least
14 gives the SLC as we call it corporate authority.

15 Q Okay. And one of the things it gave corporate
16 authority to do was to act on behalf of the NRA in this
17 litigation, right, that we're --

18 A And one of the things, yes, sir.

19 Q Right. And it also gave it -- There is two other
20 litigations that are also identified, right?

21 A Two others that were specifically identified, yes, sir.

22 Q Right. And then it also says, "any additional legal 23 proceedings arising out of the same facts and circumstances as 24 any of the foregoing three litigations", right?

25 A Yes, sir.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1697

1 Q Okay. And you would agree that the special litigation
2 committee was set up so Mr. Frazer and Mr. LaPierre wouldn't be
3 involved in those three litigations and any litigations arising
4 out of those litigations, right?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q Okay. And that was so their conflicts wouldn't 7 interfere with the handling of those litigations, right?

8 A That is correct.

9 Q And you would also agree that the bankruptcy that was 10 filed by the NRA in Texas was one of the matters covered by the 11 SLC resolution, right?

12 A Not initially, no, sir.

13 Q Okay.

14 A Because when we filed bankruptcy this case would have 15 gone on in New York. It wouldn't stop this one.

16 Q Okay.

17 A But when you folks intervened in the bankruptcy case,
18 that's what brought this case under the SLC.

19 Q Mr. Cotton, do you recall being deposed in the 20 bankruptcy proceeding before the actual hearing then?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q Okay. And you were -- gave testimony under oath there?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q And you told the truth?

25 A Yes, sir.

10 Q Mr. Cotton, one of the things that the SLC was set up
11 to do was to get briefings and discuss strategy with counsel,
12 right? Reviewing the bills and making decisions, right?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q Okay. But it's true, isn't it, that Mr. LaPierre was 15 the one who made the decision to place the NRA into bankruptcy
16 in January 2021?

17 A Again, this case did not go into bankruptcy. We didn't
18 bring this case in. You folks decided to join that case.
19 That's when it came under the SLC.

20 Q Mr. Cotton, that wasn't my question. My question was,
21 didn't Mr. LaPierre make the decision to place the NRA in 22 bankruptcy in January 2021?

23 A He was the only one with the authority to do so because
24 bankruptcy was not under the authority of the SLC until you
25 folks joined the case. That was your choice not ours.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1699

1 Q Mr. Cotton, my question is simple. My question was not
2 why. Was Mr. LaPierre the one to make the decision to place the 3 NRA into bankruptcy in January 2021?

4 A He was the only person with the authority to do so,
5 yes, sir.

6 Q That's a yes?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. The SLC was formed at that time, and it was 9 informed that the bankruptcy was being filed, right?

10 A Kind of remember when we were told. Yes, sir. We were 11 told.

12 Q Okay. No one on the SLC objected to the filing, right?

13 A We didn't. No, sir, we didn't object.

14 Q But the rest of the NRA's board was not informed before
15 the bankruptcy filing that the NRA was even considering filing
16 bankruptcy, right?

17 A You're talking about before the resolution where they
18 approved it?

19 Q I'm talking about before the bankruptcy was filed in 20 January 2021, was the rest of the board of the NRA, other than 21 the SLC, informed that the -- that bankruptcy was potentially 22 going to be filed?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q They were not informed, right?

25 A You're correct.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1700

1 Q Okay. But there is a board meeting about a week or
2 eight days before the bankruptcy was actually filed, correct?

3 A That's the January 7th meeting.

4 Q Right. The one we were just looking at the minutes of.

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q You presided over that meeting, right?

7 A As president, yes, sir.

8 Q And there was no mention of bankruptcy at all during 9 that meeting, right?

10 A I'm trying to remember the executive session. I don't 11 think so. Well, I may be getting two meetings mixed up, because 12 I know our bankruptcy counsel gave an extensive presentation in 13 executive session. I don't think it was at that meeting though.

14 Q Okay.

15 MR. SHIFFMAN: Let's play the June 17th, 2022
16 transcript please at page 102, line four through line 15,
17 please.

18 (Whereupon the video is being played.)

19 Q And at the time you presided over that meeting you knew
20 that putting the NRA into bankruptcy was being considered,
21 right?

22 A Being considered, no, sir. I know it was being 23 evaluated as a possible way to get the other litigation into 24 bankruptcy and prevent dissolution in this court, leave the case
25 here, but couldn't be dissolved. But no decision had been made

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1701

1 to say okay, let's go file.

2 Q I didn't ask you a final decision was made. I asked
3 you whether it was considered. So, is the answer to that
4 question yes, that it was being considered but was not
5 ultimately determined to file it?

6 A It was being evaluated is the best I can tell you.

7 Q Okay.

8 MR. SHIFFMAN: Can we pull up the April 5th, '21 --

9 Q Let me ask you first. Mr. Cotton, do you recall
10 testifying at the bankruptcy hearing in April of 2021?

11 A Oh, yes.

12 Q You took an oath then to tell the truth?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. You did tell the truth, right?

15 A Yes.

16 MR. SHIFFMAN: Can we show on the screen the 17 April 5th transcript. This is just an excerpt from page 86,
18 line 15 to line 2022 -- I'm sorry, line 22.

19 (Whereupon the video is being played.)

20 MR. CORRELL: Your Honor, may we approach? Same
21 topic as this morning.

22 THE COURT: Again this is not -- You're not seeking
23 to admit this. This is simply for impeachment?

24 MR. SHIFFMAN: Yes.

25 MR. CORRELL: It looks like he's about to read it

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1702

1 into the record.

2 THE COURT: Well, I mean, it's pretty typical just
3 to ask in impeachment were you asked this question, did you
4 give this answer, yes.

5 MR. CORRELL: Yes, your Honor. Assuming that it's 6 not going to be used against a party that was not given an 7 opportunity to cross examine.

8 THE COURT: It's not being admitted for substantive
9 evidence anyway. It's simply to impeach a live witness,
10 which is different than just putting it into evidence now.

11 MR. CORRELL: Subject to an instruction to that 12 effect, your Honor, I would withdraw my objection.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

14 MR. SHIFFMAN: Do you have it, Jesse? I don't 15 think that's -- (pause). It's 86. It's just the 16 transcript. That's it.

17 Q The testimony that we'll read is:

18 "QUESTION: Mr. Cotton, as you sat there presiding
19 over the January 7th meeting, you knew bankruptcy was at 20 least being considered as a potential strategy, isn't that
21 right?

22 "ANSWER: I knew that it was. It was a
23 contingency. We'd been looking into that since, like I'd 24 say, the fourth quarter of the prior year. You know, is 25 there -- What's the best ways to protect this association.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1703

1 So, yes, it did consider, but no decision had been made to
2 file it on the 7th."

3 Mr. Cotton, the final decision to file the 4 bankruptcy was in fact made a few days before the actual
5 filing, right?

6 A That's when I found out about it, so I have to presume
7 so. Yes, sir.

8 Q Is it your testimony you didn't find out about the 9 filing of the bankruptcy until it was actually filed?

10 A Oh, no, sir. I found out a few days before.

11 Q Okay. But even after the decision to make the 12 bankruptcy filing was made, the full board was not informed that 13 that decision had been made, was it?

14 A At that time, no, sir.

15 Q Okay. And the full board was not asked to vote on 16 approving the bankruptcy before it was filed, isn't that
17 correct?

18 A No, sir.

19 Q Was the full board -- The full board was asked to 20 approve it, but after it was already filed then, isn't that
21 correct?

22 A Correct.

23 Q But not before it was filed, right?

24 A Correct.

25 Q Maybe about two months later?

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1704

1 A I don't remember when. We had a special meeting. I
2 can't tell you exactly when. I think it was March, but I may be
3 wrong.

4 Q Okay. Okay. The NRA board does have a legal affairs
5 committee, right?

6 A It does.

7 Q And isn't it true that even the legal affairs committee
8 wasn't informed of the NRA's plans to file bankruptcy?

9 A I believe that's correct.

10 Q Okay. And it's true that Mr. Frazer wasn't informed of 11 the NRA's plans to file bankruptcy before the actual filing?

12 A I'm afraid you would have to ask Mr. Frazer that. I
13 don't know who all was told.

14 Q You didn't tell Mr. Frazer, right?

15 A I didn't tell him.

16 Q You didn't tell Mr. Spray, the NRA's CFO and treasurer,
17 right?

18 A Mr. Spray did know.

19 Q I'm sorry?

20 A Mr. Spray did know. I didn't tell him, but Mr. Spray
21 told me some information that made it clear he knew.

22 MR. SHIFFMAN: I move to strike, your Honor. I
23 asked him whether he was -- told Mr. Spray, I believe.

24 THE COURT: I don't think -- Overruled.

25 Q Mr. Cotton, you though decided that you personally were

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1705

1 not going to tell Mr. Spray about the bankruptcy, right?

2 A I made no such decision. It wasn't necessary. He was
3 talking to me about it.

4 Q Okay.

5 MR. SHIFFMAN: Can we play from Mr. Cotton's March
6 27th, 2021 transcript, line 182 to -- 182, 18 and let's just 7 stop it at line 24.

8 (Whereupon the video is being played.)

9 MR. SHIFFMAN: Thank you.

10 Q It's true, isn't it, that Mr. LaPierre's decision to 11 file bankruptcy cost the NRA millions of dollars?

12 A It was -- it was several million in attorney fees yes,
13 sir. I don't remember the exact number.

14 Q You don't remember it was about ten to $12 million?

15 A That sounds about right.

16 Q And it's true, isn't it, that the bankruptcy court
17 dismissed the case?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q Okay. And you read the Court's decision dismissing the
20 bankruptcy?

21 A Yes, sir, I did.

22 Q Okay. That was issued in about May of 2021, about nine
23 months after this case was filed?

24 A Timeframe, that sounds about right. Yes, sir.

25 Q Do you recall that in its decision dismissing the

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1706

1 bankruptcy the Court discussed the manner and secrecy in which
2 the bankruptcy was filed as something that concerned it?

3 A I don't remember, but that's contained in the order,
4 yes, sir.

5 Q Let's take a look at that order, which is tab 16, PX
6 2281.

7 MR. SHIFFMAN: This document has been admitted
8 already.

9 Q Let's take a look at page 34 of this order. Okay. You
10 see there that the Court listed some of the conduct that was 11 ongoing at the time that still concerned it?

12 A (Examining).

13 Q Do you see that, Mr. Cotton?

14 A You're talking about first paragraph, right?

15 Q Yes.

16 A I'm trying to read it.

17 Q Okay.

18 A (Examining). Yes, sir, I see it.

19 Q So the Court noted that it was concerned with approval
20 procedures for contracts in excess of $100,000, right?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q And it was also concerned that Mr. LaPierre was still 23 making additional financial disclosures at that time?

24 A That's what the order says.

25 Q Right. And the Court was also concerned that there are

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1707

1 lingering issues of secrecy and a lack of transparency?

2 A That's what the order says.

3 Q Right. And the Court, in fact, if you go to the next
4 paragraph, the Court noted that it found that the process of 5 filing for bankruptcy was nothing less than shocking because of 6 how it was done, right?

7 A I'm sorry. Which paragraph?

8 Q The second paragraph on that page, I believe and the 9 second sentence of that paragraph. "Excluding so many people
10 from the process of deciding to file for bankruptcy, including 11 the vast majority of the board of directors, the chief financial 12 officer and the general counsel is nothing less than shocking."
13 Do you see that?

14 A I see that.

15 Q You read that in about May of 2021?

16 A I read it. I can't tell you when it was. I'm sure it
17 was right after it was issued.

18 Q Right. And after that, the Court issued that decision,
19 the NRA board did not do anything to investigate how its 20 policies and procedures permitted the bankruptcy to be filed in 21 secrete, right?

22 A The board you say?

23 Q Yes.

24 A I know of no action by the full board, no, sir.

25 Q How about the NRA generally?

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1708

1 A The who?

2 Q The NRA generally.

3 A We discussed -- I mean, we had discussions about the 4 bankruptcy, the ruling, quite frankly do we appeal it and all of 5 that. So, I can't say there was never any discussions, no, sir.

6 Q I wasn't asking whether you discussed the decision. I
7 was asking whether the NRA investigated how the bankruptcy was 8 filed in a manner that the Court determined was shocking and in 9 secrete.

10 A Yes. Without sparring over the term investigation, it
11 was discussed extensively in a board meeting with counsel in 12 executive session, yes, sir.

13 Q That's not what I asked you, sir. I asked you whether 14 the NRA investigated it. Not whether discussed it. Whether it
15 investigated it.

16 A We discussed how it happened. I'm leery about giving 17 you any details, because it was with counsel present and it was 18 a briefing to the board.

19 Q Okay.

20 MR. SHIFFMAN: Let's play the June 17th, 2022
21 transcript, page 130, line eight to 15, please.

22 (Whereupon the video is being played.)

23 Q Mr. Cotton, we talked about Mr. Spray a few minutes
24 ago. He was the CFO and treasurer of the NRA in January of
25 2021, right?

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1709

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Okay. And he was appointed as CFO in 2018?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q And he was appointed as treasurer of the NRA in about
5 September of 2018, right?

6 A Well, he had to be elected by the board. That's the 7 reason I was hesitating. CFO can be hired without the board
8 electing him. The treasurer must be elected by the board.

9 Q Right. So he was first hired as CFO and then later was 10 appointed by the board as treasurer, right?

11 A Elected by the board, yes, sir.

12 Q Okay. And you were on the board of directors at the 13 time he was appointed, correct?

14 A Correct.

15 Q Okay. And Mr. Spray replaced Mr. Phillips as CFO and 16 treasurer, right?

17 A Correct.

18 Q Okay. And you would interact with Mr. Spray at 19 meetings of the audit committee, correct?

20 A The meetings that he came to, yes, sir.

21 Q Sometimes speak with him on the phone?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q And so going back to early 2021 you thought that
24 Mr. Spray was doing a pretty good job of CFO and treasurer?

25 A Yes, sir.

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1710

1 Q You thought he was really on top of his
2 responsibilities?

3 A Seemed to be, yes, sir.

4 Q On the other hand, Mr. Spray's predecessor,
5 Mr. Phillips, was not on top of things as CFO and treasurer in 6 your view, right?

7 A I agree with that.

8 Q In fact, you characterize Mr. Phillips, his management
9 style as laissez-faire or hands off, right?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q And you thought his performance as CFO was, in fact,
12 was deficient too, right?

13 A I'm trying to remember exactly how I worded it.
14 Towards the end -- towards the end I believe is what I said.

15 Q Well, do you recall testifying that you, when asked do
16 you believe that there may -- may have been deficiencies in 17 Mr. Phillips' performance as CFO and treasurer, you answered
18 yes?

19 A That sounds right. Some deficiencies, yes.

20 Q In particular you thought Mr. Phillips did not 21 adequately oversee the NRA's payments to Ackerman McQueen, one
22 of the NRA's largest vendors, isn't that right?

23 A I believe that was correct. Yes, sir.

24 Q Okay. Mr. Phillips was the NRA's CFO and treasurer
25 when you joined the board, correct?

LAS

Direct-Cotton-Shiffman

1711

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q That was more than 20 years ago?

3 A 2001.

4 Q Okay. And Mr. Phillips retired from the NRA about
5 2018, is that right?

6 A Retired from, yes, sir about that time.

7 Q He wasn't fired or sanctioned, was he?

8 A Not to my knowledge.

9 Q But Mr. Spray was fired by Mr. LaPierre, wasn't he?

10 A I was initially under the impression he retired for 11 health reasons. I've since learned that it looks like he wanted
12 to work from home in Michigan. Mr. LaPierre wanted the CFO and 13 treasurer in the building. So, he wound up being released yes,
14 sir.

15 Q Mr. LaPierre released him, right?

16 A As CFO, yes, sir.

17 Q And the full board had to relieve him of his duties as
18 treasurer, right?

19 A Yes, sir, not quite in that method. We elect a new 20 treasurer because our bylaws say these elected officer serve
21 until a replacement takes office. So, you don't technically 22 release somebody. You just elect a new one.

23 Q When Mr. LaPierre released Mr. Spray from his duties,
24 as you put it, he didn't consult with the board first, right,
25 even though that would impact his position as treasurer

LAS

1 ultimately?

2 A To my knowledge he didn't.

3 Q Okay. And you had originally thought that Mr. Spray
4 retired for health reasons, right?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q That's because that's what Mr. LaPierre told you, isn't
7 that correct?

8 A That's -- that's because that's what he and Mr. Spray
9 agreed to.

1 Q But that's not what actually happened, right?

2 A That's what Mr. Spray testified to in his deposition.

3 Q Mr. -- are you telling --

4 Mr. Spray also testified that he was called up, told
5 that he was being removed from his duties and his e-mail was cut
6 off. Are you aware of that, sir?

7 A I'm trying to remember. The deposition transcript --
8 that segment that I read, he said that he had -- I'm sorry --
9 Mr. Spray had asked Mr. LaPierre if he would just say it's for 10 health reasons, and that's --

11 THE COURT: Why don't we have the questioning and 12 answering being about personal knowledge and not trying to 13 remember transcripts?

14 Q Mr. Cotton, have you ever seen Mr. Spray's severance
15 agreement?

16 A His what?

17 Q His severance agreement.

18 A Yes, sir. Yes, sir, I have seen it.

19 Q Okay. Well, why don't we take a look at that?

20 MR. SHIFFMAN: It's tab 13, Exhibit PX 1525.

21 THE COURT: Counsel, just heads up: We have about
22 seven minutes.

23 MR. SHIFFMAN: Yeah.

24 Q Okay. And if you take a look at the second page of 25 that exhibit, that's where the severance agreement begins. Do

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1714

1 you recognize that as Mr. Spray's severance agreement?

2 A It appears to be, yes, sir. I haven't read the whole
3 thing, but yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. You don't need to. I'm just going to ask one
5 question about it.

6 Do you see --

7 THE COURT: Has this one been admitted?

8 MR. SHIFFMAN: I'm sorry.

9 Is there any objection?

10 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

11 MR. SHIFFMAN: Okay. I move to admit it.

12 MR. FARBER: No objection.

13 THE COURT: It's admitted.

14 (Image displayed.)

15 Q Mr. Cotton, do you see, in the fourth -- I guess it's 16 the third "whereas" clause of the severance agreement --

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q -- it says: "Whereas, SPRAY was notified orally on 19 January 28, 2021, that the NRA wished to make management
20 changes, and SPRAY was relieved on that day of his duties as 21 Chief Financial Officer of NRA;"

22 You see that?

23 A That -- that's what it says.

24 Q Yeah. And that's different from what you first
25 understood, right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1715

1 A You mean, versus health reasons?

2 Q Yes.

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q Okay, thank you.

5 MR. SHIFFMAN: You could put that down.

6 (Image removed.)

7 Q Mr. Cotton, you were disappointed that Mr. Spray was 8 leaving in January of 2021; weren't you?

9 A I hated -- I hated to see him leave, because I think he
10 was a major cog in our top-to-bottom review.

11 Q Okay. Mr. Cotton, one function that the Audit
12 Committee serves under its policies, as we discussed, is to 13 review conflict-of-interest and related-party transactions;
14 right?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Okay. And in September 2018, the Audit Committee
17 reviewed a number of conflict-of-interest and related-party
18 transactions; isn't that right?

19 A Could you point me to the report? I'd have to see the 20 report to know the date and the number.

21 Q Sure. Why don't we take a look at tab 24, PX 2983?

22 MR. SHIFFMAN: I don't believe there are any
23 objections to this.

24 MS. ROGERS: No objection.

25 THE COURT: Without objection, it's admitted;

1 PX 2983.

2 MR. FLEMING: I'm sorry; which tab?

3 THE COURT: 24.

4 MR. SHIFFMAN: 24.

5 MR. FARBER: No objection.

6 MR. CORRELL: No objection.

7 (Image displayed.)

8 BY MR. SHIFFMAN:

9 Q Okay. And so, you'll see, Mr. Cotton, that this is the 10 report from September 8th to 9th, 2018, but it deals with a few
11 different meetings; right?

12 A Yes, sir. The top date is as you say, but it covered
13 several meetings, yes, sir.

14 Q All right. And one of the meetings it covered is the 15 September 6th, 2018 meeting of the Audit Committee; right?

16 That's on the bottom of this page.

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q And if you look at the following pages there, does that
19 refresh your recollection that the Audit Committee reviewed a
20 number of related-party transactions at the September 2018
21 meeting?

22 (Images scrolled.)

23 A Oh, yes, sir. I remember these.

24 Q Okay, great. And one of the transactions that was 25 reviewed was a -- one with Mr. Phillips, right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1717

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Okay. And there is one of those -- there are two
3 different transactions with Mr. Phillips that were reviewed at 4 that meeting, right? Two different related-party or 5 conflict-of-interest transactions?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. And one of them involved a company called
8 HomeTelos --

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q -- isn't that right?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Do you recall what HomeTelos was?

13 A They provided some kind of software to our IS group,
14 but I couldn't tell you beyond that.

15 Q Right.

16 And as you put it, I think Mr. -- HomeTelos had a
17 relationship with one of Mr. Phillips' -- Mr. Phillips'
18 significant other; is that right?

19 A There was some relationship there, yes, sir.

20 Q All right. And that's why the Audit Committee was 21 considering the transaction, right?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q But this transaction was one that had been entered into 24 in the past, right?

25 It was reviewing this transaction retroactively, right?

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

Cotton - by Plaintiff - Direct/Shiffman

1718

1 A We -- I'm sorry. The NRA IS group had been --
2 No. I'm sorry. I'm mix -- I'm thinking of another
3 situation.

4 Yes, sir, this was done retroactively.

5 Q Okay.

6 THE COURT: Counsel, we're --

7 MR. SHIFFMAN: Yeah, we can --

8 THE COURT: We've hit our time limit.

9 So we're going to pick this back up at 9:30
10 tomorrow morning?

11 MR. SHIFFMAN: Yes, your Honor.

12 Your Honor, I think Ms. Connell raised an issue
13 before that Mr. North has.

14 THE COURT: Right.

15 So, is everyone's understanding that we're going
16 to --

17 MR. SHIFFMAN: I think we'd like to shift to him so
18 we can make sure that everybody -- he can be cross-examined
19 before he leaves; during the time.

20 THE COURT: Well, as long as Mr. Cotton's aware of 21 that, as well.

22 Mr. North, I guess, is going to testify in the 23 morning.

24 MR. SHIFFMAN: We'd like him to start and then pick
25 up with Mr. Cotton after he finishes, because he -- he's a

ALAN F. BOWIN, CSR, RMR, CRR

1 nonparty who's got a scheduling conflict.

2 THE COURT: All right. Well, that's the plan. I
3 assume you will all work it out among your witnesses to see
4 if that works for Mr. Cotton. For me, whoever you all show
5 up with, the jury and I will listen.

6 MR. SHIFFMAN: Understood, your Honor. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Okay?

8 All right, see you all tomorrow.

9 COURT OFFICER: All rise. Jury exiting.

10 (The jury left the courtroom.)

11 THE COURT: And the same instruction, Mr. Cotton,
12 about overnight: You're still on the stand and you
13 shouldn't discuss the substance of your testimony with 14 counsel or anyone else.

15 MR. SHIFFMAN: Mr. Cotton, I'll take that 16 (indicating) off your hands.

17 (Binder handed to Mr. Shiffman.)

18 THE WITNESS: I would prefer to go home, but, your 19 Honor, I'm not going to mess up the whole trial. I'll do
20 whatever you guys want.

21 THE COURT: I'll let you talk to the various folks
22 out here (indicating) about the schedule. I don't run that 23 part of this. We'll see what happens.

24 All right? Thank you.

25 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Judge.

1 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone.

2 I've received the various letters about
3 Mr. LaPierre's testimony. I'm not really sure exactly what 4 is in front of me to do about this at the moment, since we
